³¹Now these are the men whom David appointed over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after the ark came to rest. ³²They were ministering with music before the dwelling place of the tabernacle of meeting, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they served in their office according to their order.

³³And these are the ones who ministered with their sons: Of the sons of the Kohathites were Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel, ³⁴the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliab,^a the son of Toah,^b ³⁵the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, ³⁶the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, ³⁷the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, ³⁸the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

³⁹And his brother Asaph, who stood at his right hand, was Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea, ⁴⁰the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah, ⁴¹the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, ⁴²the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, ⁴³the son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi.

⁴⁴Their brethren, the sons of Merari, on the left hand, were Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch, ⁴⁵the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, ⁴⁶the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer, ⁴⁷the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

⁴⁸And their brethren, the Levites, were appointed to every kind of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

The Family of Aaron

⁴⁹But Aaron and his sons offered sacrifices on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the Most Holy Place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. ⁵⁰Now these are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, ⁵¹Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, ⁵²Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, ⁵³Zadok his son, and Ahimaaz his son.

Dwelling Places of the Levites

⁵⁴Now these are their dwelling places throughout their settlements in their territory, for they were given by lot to the sons of Aaron, of the family of the Kohathites: ⁵⁵They gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, with its surrounding common-lands. ⁵⁶But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh. ⁵⁷And to the sons of Aaron they gave one of the cities of refuge, Hebron; also Libnah with its common-lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its common-lands, ⁵⁸Hilen^a with its common-lands, Debir with its common-lands, ⁵⁹Ashan^a with its common-lands, and Beth Shemesh with its common-lands. ⁶⁰And from the tribe of Benjamin: Geba with its common-lands, Alemeth^a with its common-lands, and Anathoth with its common-lands. All their cities among their families were thirteen.

⁶⁶Now some of the families of the sons of Kohath were given cities as their territory from the tribe of Ephraim. ⁶⁷And they gave them one of the cities of refuge, Shechem with its common-lands, in the mountains of Ephraim, also Gezer with its common-lands, ⁶⁸Jokmeam with its common-lands, Beth Horon with its common-lands, ⁶⁹Aijalon with its common-lands, and Gath Rimmon with its common-lands.

⁷⁰And from the half-tribe of Manasseh: Aner with its common-lands and Bileam with its common-lands, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath.

⁷⁷From the tribe of Zebulun the rest of the children of Merari were given Rimmon^a with its common-lands and Tabor with its common-lands. ⁷⁸And on the other side of the Jordan, across from Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, they were given from the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the wilderness with its common-lands, Jahzah with its common-lands, ⁷⁹Kedemoth with its common-lands, and Mephaath with its common-lands. ⁸⁰And from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with its common-lands, Mahanaim with its common-lands, ⁸¹Heshbon with its common-lands, and Jazer with its common-lands.

Chapter 7

The Family of Issachar

¹The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah,^a Jashub, and Shimron—four in all. ²The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their father's house. The sons of Tola were mighty men of valor in their generations; their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred. ³The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah, and the sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Ishiah. All five of them were chief men. ⁴And with them, by their generations, according to their fathers' houses, were thirty-six thousand troops ready for war; for they had many wives and sons.

⁵Now their brethren among all the families of Issachar were mighty men of valor, listed by their genealogies, eighty-seven thousand in all.

The Family of Benjamin

⁶*The sons* of Benjamin were Bela, Becher, and Jediael—three in all. ⁷The sons of Bela were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri—five in all. They were heads of their fathers' houses, and they were listed by their genealogies, twenty-two thousand and thirty-four mighty men of valor.

⁸The sons of Becher were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jerimoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these are the sons of Becher. ⁹And they were recorded by genealogy according to their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, twenty thousand two hundred mighty men of valor. ¹⁰The son of Jediahel was Bilhan, and the sons of Bilhan were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tharshish, and Ahishahar.

¹¹All these sons of Jediahel were heads of their fathers' houses; there were seventeen thousand two hundred mighty men of valor fit to go out for war and battle. ¹²Shupim and Hupim^a were the sons of Ir, and Hushim was the son of Aher.

The Family of Naphtali

¹³The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel,^a Guni, Jezer, and Shallum,^b the sons of Bilhah.

The Family of Manasseh (West)

¹⁴The descendants of Manasseh: his Syrian concubine bore him Machir the father of Gilead, the father of Asriel.^a

¹⁵Machir took as his wife the sister of Hupim and Shupim,^a whose name was Maachah. The name of Gilead's grandson^b was Zelophehad,^c but Zelophehad begot only daughters. ¹⁶(Maachah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh. The name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem. ¹⁷The son of Ulam was Bedan.) These were the descendants of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

¹⁸His sister Hammoleketh bore Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah.

¹⁹And the sons of Shemida were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

The Family of Ephraim

²⁰The sons of Ephraim were Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eladah his son, Tahath his son, ²¹Zabad his son, Shuthelah his son, and Ezer and Elead. The men of Gath who were born in that land killed them because they came down to take away their cattle. ²²Then Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him.

²³And when he went in to his wife, she conceived and bore a son; and he called his name Beriah,^a because tragedy had come upon his house. ²⁴Now his daughter was Sheerah, who built Lower and Upper Beth Horon and Uzen Sheerah; ²⁵and Rephah was his son, as well as Resheph, and Telah his son, Tahan his son, ²⁶Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son, ²⁷Nun^a his son, and Joshua his son.

²⁸Now their possessions and dwelling places were Bethel and its towns: to the east Naaran, to the west Gezer and its towns, and Shechem and its towns, as far as Ayyah^a and its towns; ²⁹and by the borders of the children of Manasseh were Beth Shean and its towns, Taanach and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these dwelt the children of Joseph, the son of Israel.

The Family of Asher

³⁰The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah. ³¹The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzaith.^a ³²And Heber begot Japhlet, Shomer,^a Hotham,^b and their sister Shua. ³³The sons of Japhlet were Pasach, Bimhal, and Ashvath. These were the children of Japhlet. ³⁴The sons of Shemer were Ahi, Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram. ³⁵And the sons of his brother Helem were Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal. ³⁶The sons of Zophah were Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, ³⁷Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Jithran,^a and Beera. ³⁸The sons of Jether were Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara. ³⁹The sons of Ulla were Arah, Haniel, and Rizia.

⁴⁰All these were the children of Asher, heads of their fathers' houses, choice men, mighty men of valor, chief leaders. And they were recorded by genealogies among the army fit for battle; their number was twenty-six thousand.

Chapter 8

The Family Tree of King Saul of Benjamin

¹Now Benjamin begot Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, Aharah^a the third, ²Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth. ³The sons of Bela were Addar,^a Gera, Abihud, ⁴Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, ⁵Gera, Shephuphan, and Huram.

⁶These are the sons of Ehud, who were the heads of the fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Geba, and who forced them to move to Manahath: ⁷Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera who forced them to move. He begot Uzza and Ahihud.

⁸Also Shaharaim had children in the country of Moab, after he had sent away Hushim and Baara his wives. ⁹By Hodesh his wife he begot Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, ¹⁰Jeuz, Sachiah, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of their fathers' houses.

¹¹And by Hushim he begot Abitub and Elpaal. ¹²The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod with its towns; ¹³and Beriah and Shema, who were heads of their fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who drove out the inhabitants of Gath. ¹⁴Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, ¹⁵Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, ¹⁶Michael, Ispah, and Joha were the sons of Beriah. ¹⁷Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, ¹⁸Ishmerai, Jizliah, and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal. ¹⁹Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi, ²⁰Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, ²¹Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei. ²²Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, ²³Abdon, Zichri, Hanan, ²⁴Hananiah, Elam, Antothijah, ²⁵Iphdeiah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak. ²⁶Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, ²⁷Jaareshiah, Elijah, and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham.

²⁸*These were heads of the fathers' houses by their generations, chief men. These dwelt in Jerusalem.*

²⁹Now the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maacah, dwelt at Gibeon. ³⁰And his firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, ³¹Gedor, Ahio, Zecher, ³²and Mikloth, who begot Shimeah.^a They also dwelt alongside their relatives in Jerusalem, with their brethren. ³³Ner^a begot Kish, Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab,^b and EshBaal.^c ³⁴The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal,^a and Merib-Baal begot Micah. ³⁵The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz. ³⁶And Ahaz begot Jehoaddah;^a Jehoaddah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza. ³⁷Moza begot Binea, Raphah^a his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.

³⁸Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel. ³⁹And the sons of Eshek his brother were Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

⁴⁰The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor—archers. They had many sons and grandsons, one hundred and fifty in all. These were all sons of Benjamin.

Chapter 9

¹So all Israel was recorded by genealogies, and indeed, they were inscribed in the book of the kings of Israel. But Judah was carried away captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness. ²And the first inhabitants who dwelt in their possessions in their cities were Israelites, priests, Levites, and the Nethinim.

Dwellers in Jerusalem

³Now in Jerusalem the children of Judah dwelt, and some of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh: ⁴Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the descendants of Perez, the son of Judah. ⁵Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons. ⁶Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brethren—six hundred and ninety. ⁷Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah; ⁸Ibneiah the son of Jeroham; Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri; Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah; ⁹and their brethren, according to their generations—nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of a father's house in their fathers' houses.

The Priests at Jerusalem

¹⁰Of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, and Jachin; ¹¹Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the officer over the house of God; ¹²Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah; Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer; ¹³and their brethren, heads of their fathers' houses—one thousand seven hundred and sixty. They were very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

The Levites at Jerusalem

¹⁴Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari; ¹⁵Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph; ¹⁶Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

The Levite Gatekeepers

¹⁷And the gatekeepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brethren. Shallum was the chief. ¹⁸Until then they had been gatekeepers for the camps of the children of Levi at the King's Gate on the east.

²²All those chosen as gatekeepers were two hundred and twelve. They were recorded by their genealogy, in their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their trusted office. ²³So they and their children were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tabernacle, by assignment. ²⁴The gatekeepers were assigned to the four directions: the east, west, north, and south. ²⁵And their brethren in their villages had to come with them from time to time for seven days. ²⁶For in this trusted office were four chief gatekeepers; they were Levites. And they had charge over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God. ²⁷And they lodged all around the house of God because they had the responsibility, and they were in charge of opening it every morning.

Other Levite Responsibilities

²⁸Now some of them were in charge of the serving vessels, for they brought them in and took them out by count. ²⁹*Some* of them were appointed over the furnishings and over all the implements of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the incense and the spices. ³⁰And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

³¹Mattithiah of the Levites, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the trusted office over the things that were baked in the pans. ³²And some of their brethren of the sons of the Kohathites were in charge of preparing the showbread for every Sabbath.

³³These are the singers, heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites, who lodged in the chambers, and were free from other duties; for they were employed in that work day and night. ³⁴These heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites were heads throughout their generations. They dwelt at Jerusalem.

The Family of King Saul

³⁵Jeiel the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maacah, dwelt at Gibeon. ³⁶His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, ³⁷Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah,^a and Mikloth. ³⁸And Mikloth begot Shimeam.^a They also dwelt alongside their relatives in Jerusalem, with their brethren. ³⁹Ner begot Kish, Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and EshBaal. ⁴⁰The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal begot Micah. ⁴¹The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tahrea,^a and Ahaz.^b ⁴²And Ahaz begot Jarah;^a Jarah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza; ⁴³Moza begot Binea, Rephaiah^a his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.

⁴⁴And Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

Genealogies: The Impact of a Leader's Heritage

1 Chronicles 1:1-9:44

The first nine chapters of 1 Chronicles furnish a genealogy of Israel's leaders—almost a third of the book! The enormous space given to these ancestral lists illustrates the vast importance of heritage to a Hebrew leader.

Such an emphasis can teach us several important lessons. Our generation and culture seem to place a much lower value on family stock and past tradition than did others in history. What do we learn from the lineages of these Jewish leaders?

1. They remained connected to their heritage.
2. They saw their place in history and gained perspective from it.
3. They were able to honor and pay respect to their forefathers.
4. They saw their lineage as a family blessing and passed on this blessing.
5. They used their heritage to provide a sense of stability for their children.
6. They sensed tendencies of ancestral giftedness and calling.
7. They could retain their identity even when exiled to a foreign land.

Chapter 10

Tragic End of Saul and His Sons

¹Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa. ²Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons. ³The battle became fierce against Saul. The archers hit him, and he was wounded by the archers. ⁴Then Saul said to his armorbearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and abuse me." But his armorbearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it. ⁵And when his armorbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died. ⁶So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together. ⁷And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; then the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

⁸So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹And they stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news in the temple of their idols and among the people. ¹⁰Then they put his armor in the temple of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

¹¹And when all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²all the valiant men arose and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons; and they brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

¹³So Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he had committed against the LORD, because he did not keep the word of the LORD, and also because he consulted a medium for guidance. ¹⁴But he did not inquire of the LORD; therefore He killed him, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

Chapter 11

David Made King over All Israel

¹Then all Israel came together to David at Hebron, saying, “Indeed we are your bone and your flesh. ²“Also, in time past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD your God said to you, ‘You shall shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over My people Israel.’ ” ³Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

1 Chronicles 11:1-3

As the most influential man in the country, David was leading long before Saul lost his throne.

Like it or not, position doesn’t make a person a leader. Title may give someone authority, but not influence. Influence comes from the person; it must be earned. David had earned it and Saul had not. Why was this so?

1. Unity: David rallied the people and created unity (v. 1).

2. Identification: David identified with his followers as family (v. 1).

3. Credibility: David effectively led various military campaigns (v. 2).

4. Anointing: David enjoyed God's hand and power on his life (v. 2).

5. Partnership: David worked cooperatively with key leaders, not over them (v. 3).

The City of David

⁴And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land. ⁵But the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You shall not come in here!" Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David). ⁶Now David said, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain." And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and became chief. ⁷Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the City of David. ⁸And he built the city around it, from the Millo^a to the surrounding area. Joab repaired the rest of the city. ⁹So David went on and became great, and the LORD of hosts was with him.

The Mighty Men of David

¹⁰Now these were the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

¹²After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men. ¹³He was with David at Pasdammim. Now there the Philistines were gathered for battle, and there was a piece of ground full of barley. So the people fled from the Philistines. ¹⁴But they stationed themselves in the middle of that field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.

¹⁵Now three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁶David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. ¹⁷And David said with longing, "Oh, that someone would give me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!" ¹⁸So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless David would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD. ¹⁹And he said, "Far be it from me, O my God, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? For at the risk of their lives they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.

²⁰Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of another three.^a He had lifted up his spear against three hundred men, killed them, and won a name among these three. ²¹Of the three he was more honored than the other two men. Therefore he became their captain. However he did not attain to the first three.

²²Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day. ²³And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great height, five cubits tall. In the Egyptian's hand there was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. ²⁴These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and won a name among three mighty men. ²⁵Indeed he was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him over his guard.

The Law of Magnetism: David Attracted Loyal Risk Takers

1 Chronicles 11:10-23

The Scripture offers an impressive list of military leaders connected to David, calling them his "mighty men" and describing several of their incredible exploits.

Have you ever wondered how David was able to attract such a qualified and extraordinary group of leaders? The answer lies in the Law of Magnetism. Leaders attract people like themselves.

David's Qualities • Parallels from David's Men

Submissive and loyal to Saul • Submissive and loyal to David (v. 10)

Slew many enemy soldiers in battle • Slew many enemy soldiers in battle (v. 11)

Took a stand against the Philistines • Took a stand against the Philistines (v. 14)

Risked his life and went the extra mile • Risked life and went the extra mile (v. 18)

Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite, ⁴⁷Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

Chapter 12

The Growth of David's Army

¹Now these were the men who came to David at Ziklag while he was still a fugitive from Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, helpers in the war, ²armed with bows, using both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows with the bow. They were of Benjamin, Saul's brethren. ³The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Berachah, and Jehu the Anathothite; ⁴Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite; ⁵Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite; ⁶Elkanah, Jisshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites; ⁷and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

⁸*Some* Gadites joined David at the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for battle, who could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as gazelles on the mountains: ⁹Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, ¹⁰Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, ¹¹Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, ¹²Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, ¹³Jeremiah the tenth, and Machbanai the eleventh. ¹⁴*These were* from the sons of Gad, captains of the army; the least was over a hundred, and the greatest was over a thousand. ¹⁵These are the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

¹⁶Then some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold. ¹⁷And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, "If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart will be united with you; but if to betray me to my enemies, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look and bring judgment." ¹⁸Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the captains, and he said:

"We are yours, O David;
We are on your side, O son of Jesse!
Peace, peace to you,
And peace to your helpers!

For your God helps you."

So David received them, and made them captains of the troop.

¹⁹And some from Manasseh defected to David when he was going with the Philistines to battle against Saul; but they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines sent him away by agreement, saying, "He may defect to his master Saul and endanger our heads." ²⁰When he went to Ziklag, those of Manasseh who defected to him were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of the thousands who were from Manasseh. ²¹And they helped David against the bands of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valor, and they were captains in the army. ²²For at that time they came to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, like the army of God.

David's Army at Hebron

²³Now these were the numbers of the divisions that were equipped for war, and came to David at Hebron to turn over the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD: ²⁴of the sons of Judah bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred armed for war; ²⁵of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor fit for war, seven thousand one hundred; ²⁶of the sons of Levi four thousand six hundred; ²⁷Jehoiada, the leader of the Aaronites, and with him three thousand seven hundred; ²⁸Zadok, a young man, a valiant warrior, and from his father's house twenty-two captains; ²⁹of the sons of Benjamin, relatives of Saul, three thousand (until then the greatest part of them had remained loyal to the house of Saul); ³⁰of the sons of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men throughout their father's house; ³¹of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and make David king; ³²of the sons of Issachar who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their chiefs were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their command; ³³of Zebulun there were fifty thousand who went out to battle, expert in war with all weapons of war, stouthearted men who could keep ranks; ³⁴of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear; ³⁵of the Danites who could keep battle formation, twenty-eight thousand six hundred; ³⁶of Asher, those who could go out to war, able to keep battle formation, forty thousand; ³⁷of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, from the other side of the Jordan, one hundred and twenty thousand armed for battle with every kind of weapon of war.

The Law of Intuition: Discernment Comes Before Decision

1 Chronicles 12:32

One of the more popular passages in 1 Chronicles is found in chapter 12. The sons of Issachar are there described as men who “had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do” (v. 32). What a description of the Law of Intuition! Before Israel made a decision, they got discernment. The sons of Issachar understood three key factors:

1. The culture: They understood the population and the place where they lived.
2. The timing: They understood the times and discerned when to move.
3. The strategy: They knew what Israel ought to do, the steps that should be taken.

How about you? Are you a “son of Issachar”? Do you understand your culture—its trends, its myths, its strengths, its dangers? Do you understand the age in which you’re living—its tenor and general movement? And do you have a strategy to grapple with both the culture and the times?

³⁸All these men of war, who could keep ranks, came to Hebron with a loyal heart, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were of one mind to make David king. ³⁹And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brethren had prepared for them. ⁴⁰Moreover those who were near to them, from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing food on donkeys and camels, on mules and oxen—provisions of flour and cakes of figs and cakes of raisins, wine and oil and oxen and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

Leaders Reproduce Themselves: David Raised Up Leaders

1 Chronicles 12:1-38

We can conclude from the list of warriors who joined David in Ziklag that his ragtag team was diverse, loyal, and hungry for victory. So what did David do to reproduce his leadership in them?

1. He was relational.

Unlike Saul, who lived in fear, David's personable and approachable manner enticed hundreds of misfit volunteers to serve him. David accepted anyone.

2. He was resourceful.

David made use of every situation and got the best out of it—even in the wilderness. He resourced his team to become all they could be and enabled it to succeed.

3. He was rewarding.

David quickly shared both rewards and recognition for victory. He affirmed his men and motivated them with words of encouragement and spoils from battle.

4. He was respectable.

David modeled a leadership style that others wanted to imitate. Friends and foes alike respected him; people saw in David an example of good leadership.

The chronicler says simply, “All these men of war, who could keep ranks, came to Hebron with a loyal heart, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were of one mind to make David king” (1 Chr. 12:38). And he concludes, “There was joy in Israel” (1 Chr. 12:40).

21 LAWS

DAVID AND THE LAW OF THE INNER CIRCLE

A Leader's Potential Is Determined by Those Closest to Him

1 Chronicles 11:10-12:40

THERE ARE no Lone Ranger leaders. If you're alone, you're not leading anybody.

Think of any highly effective leader, and you will find someone surrounded by a strong inner circle.

Hire the best staff you can find, develop them as much as you can, and hand off everything you possibly can to them. When you have the right staff potential skyrockets.

You see, every leader's potential is determined by the people closest to him. If those people are strong, then the leader can make a huge impact. If they are weak, he can't.

Examine the way David pulled together the core people who made him great:

1. He started building a strong inner circle before he needed it.

David began building his team long before he was crowned king. First Chronicles emphasizes how many of the warriors who flocked to David were leaders (1 Chr. 12:14). David didn't attract just anyone; he attracted strong leaders.

2. He attracted people with varied gifts.

David attracted men of diverse abilities. We read of experienced warriors with a variety of skills—ambidextrous bowmen, slingers, and spearmen—many mighty men of valor, and hundreds of captains. With the help of these men, David felt ready for anything.

3. He engendered loyalty.

David's followers displayed incredible loyalty to him throughout his life. In the early days, three of his men risked their lives to get him some water from a favorite well in Bethlehem. Decades later his closest men stayed with him even when it looked as though Absalom might crush his father (2 Sam. 15:21). Those closest to David always seemed willing to put their lives on the line for him.

4. He delegated responsibility based on ability.

David continually gave authority to others. He designated Joab as commander of the army, and he felt equally secure in giving others civil authority (1 Chr. 18:14-17). Of course, delegating authority always entails risk—witness Joab's unilateral decision to kill Abner (2 Sam. 3:22-30). But great leaders risk delegation in order to reach the highest level of leadership.

Inner-Circle Qualities

The following qualities spell out the words inner circle. Look for these traits in the people you depend on most:

Influential—Everything begins with influence. If you want to extend your reach, you must attract and lead other leaders. More than twelve hundred leaders are mentioned in the list of warriors who came to David (1 Chr. 12:23-37).

Networking—Who people know is just as important as what they know. When David hid from Saul, he was able to escape with the help of those who cared about him.

Nurturing—People who care about each other take care of each other. Your inner circle should prop you up. Certainly Jonathan is the best example of a nurturer in David's life. He loved David unconditionally, encouraged him, and guarded his life.

Empowering—The members of your inner circle should enable you to achieve more than you could alone. David's mighty men empowered him to accomplish incredible things.

Resourceful—Inner-circle members should always add value. When David desired to conquer Jerusalem, he offered to make the man who led the charge chief over his army (2 Sam. 5:6-10)—and Joab won control of the armed forces.

Character-driven—The character of an inner-circle member matters more than any other quality. People of weak character in David's inner circle cost him dearly. But people of strong character often helped to steer him out of trouble.

Intuitive—While every person is naturally intuitive in his area of gifting, that doesn't mean everyone uses his or her intuition. As you seek members for your inner circle, rely on those who have learned to trust their instincts.

Responsible—Those closest to you should never leave you hanging. If you ask them to carry the ball, they must follow through. David's companions made his cause their own.

Competent—You can't get anything done if your people can't do their jobs. You don't need world-class performers exclusively, but all of your inner-circle people must perform with excellence. The skill of David's people helped make him great.

Loyal—Loyalty alone does not make people candidates for your inner circle, but lack of loyalty definitely disqualifies them. David's people stuck with him even to death. Don't keep anyone close to you whom you cannot trust.

Energetic—Energy covers a multitude of mistakes, for it helps a person to keep coming back, failure after failure. Without tenacity, David and his men never would have survived in the wilderness, nor would they have made the nation secure from its enemies.

Look Around!

When God wants a leader to do something of value for Him, He provides that leader with the individuals to get the job done. fiat was true for David, and it will be true for you. All you need to do is look around.

Chapter 13

The Ark Brought from Kirjath Jearim

¹Then David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader. ²And David said to all the assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and if it is of the LORD our God, let us send out to our brethren everywhere who are left in all the land of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and their common-lands, that they may gather together to us; ³“and let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we have not inquired at it since the days of Saul.” ⁴Then all the assembly said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

⁵So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor in Egypt to as far as the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim. ⁶And David and all Israel went up to Baalah,^a to Kirjath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who dwells between the cherubim, where His name is proclaimed. ⁷So they carried the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. ⁸Then David and all Israel played music before God with all their might, with singing, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on cymbals, and with trumpets.

⁹And when they came to Chidon's^a threshing floor, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled. ¹⁰Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzza, and He struck him because he put his hand to the ark; and he died there before God. ¹¹And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzza; therefore that place is called Perez Uzza^a to this day. ¹²David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of God to me?"

Leaders Must Be Teachable

1 Chronicles 13:5-12

David grew both angry and frightened when God struck down Uzzah during an accident involving the transport of the ark of God. Leaders must remain teachable. We must not presume we know exactly how things will play out or what tomorrow will bring. Leaders must be learners.

¹³So David would not move the ark with him into the City of David, but took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. ¹⁴The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that he had.

Chapter 14

David Established at Jerusalem

¹Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house. ²So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, for his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel.

³Then David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David begot more sons and daughters. ⁴And these are the names of his children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua,^a Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ⁵Ibhar, Elishua,^a Elpelet,^b ⁶Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁷Elishama, Beeliada,^a and Eliphelet.

The Philistines Defeated

⁸Now when the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went out against them. ⁹Then the Philistines went and made a raid on the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁰And David inquired of God, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?"

The LORD said to him, "Go up, for I will deliver them into your hand."

¹¹So they went up to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. Then David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a breakthrough of water." Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.a ¹²And when they left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

¹³Then the Philistines once again made a raid on the valley. ¹⁴Therefore David inquired again of God, and God said to him, "You shall not go up after them; circle around them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees. ¹⁵"And it shall be, when you hear a sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God has gone out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines." ¹⁶So David did as God commanded him, and they drove back the army of the Philistines from Gibeon as far as Gezer. ¹⁷Then the fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

¹*David* built houses for himself in the City of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it. ²Then David said, “No one may carry the ark of God but the Levites, for the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of God and to minister before Him forever.” ³And David gathered all Israel together at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it. ⁴Then David assembled the children of Aaron and the Levites: ⁵of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and one hundred and twenty of his brethren; ⁶of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and two hundred and twenty of his brethren; ⁷of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and one hundred and thirty of his brethren; ⁸of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and two hundred of his brethren; ⁹of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and eighty of his brethren; ¹⁰of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and one hundred and twelve of his brethren.

¹¹And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites: for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab. ¹²He said to them, “You are the heads of the fathers’ houses of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it.

¹³“For because you did not do it the first time, the LORD our God broke out against us, because we did not consult Him about the proper order.”

¹⁴So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. ¹⁵And the children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders, by its poles, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

¹⁶Then David spoke to the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers accompanied by instruments of music, stringed instruments, harps, and cymbals, by raising the voice with resounding joy. ¹⁷So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of their brethren, the sons of Merari, Ethan the son of Kushaiah; ¹⁸and with them their brethren of the second rank: Zechariah, Ben, ^aJaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers; ¹⁹the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were to sound the cymbals of bronze; ²⁰Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with strings according to Alamoth; ²¹Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azariah, to direct with harps on the Sheminith; ²²Chenaniah, leader of the Levites, was instructor in charge of the music, because he was skillful; ²³Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark; ²⁴Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets before the ark of God; and Obed-Edom and Jehiah, doorkeepers for the ark.

²⁵So David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom with joy. ²⁶And so it was, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bulls and seven rams. ²⁷David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the music master with the singers. David also wore a linen ephod. ²⁸Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the horn, with trumpets and with cymbals, making music with stringed instruments and harps.

²⁹And it happened, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the City of David, that Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David whirling and playing music; and she despised him in her heart.

Chapter 16

The Ark Placed in the Tabernacle

¹So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

²And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. ³Then he distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins.

⁴And he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to commemorate, to thank, and to praise the LORD God of Israel: ⁵Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, and Obed-Edom: Jeiel with stringed instruments and harps, but Asaph made music with cymbals; ⁶Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests regularly blew the trumpets before the ark of the covenant of God.

David's Song of Thanksgiving

⁷On that day David first delivered this psalm into the hand of Asaph and his brethren, to thank the LORD:

⁸Oh, give thanks to the LORD!
Call upon His name;
Make known His deeds among the peoples!
⁹Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him;
Talk of all His wondrous works!
¹⁰Glory in His holy name;
¹¹Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the LORD!
Seek the LORD and His strength;
Seek His face evermore!
¹²Remember His marvelous works which He has done,
His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth,
¹³O seed of Israel His servant,

You children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

¹⁴He is the LORD our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.
¹⁵Remember His covenant forever,
The word which He commanded, for a thousand generations,
¹⁶*The covenant which* He made with Abraham,
And His oath to Isaac,
¹⁷And confirmed it to Jacob for a statute,
To Israel for an everlasting covenant,
¹⁸Saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan
As the allotment of your inheritance," ¹⁹When you were few in number,

Indeed very few, and strangers in it.

²⁰When they went from one nation to another,
And from one kingdom to another people,
²¹He permitted no man to do them wrong;
Yes, He rebuked kings for their sakes,

²²*Saying, "Do not touch My anointed ones,*

And do My prophets no harm."^a

²³Sing to the LORD, all the earth;

Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.

²⁴Declare His glory among the nations,

His wonders among all peoples.

²⁵For the LORD is great and greatly to be praised;

He is also to be feared above all gods.

²⁶For all the gods of the peoples are idols,

But the LORD made the heavens.

²⁷Honor and majesty are before Him;

Strength and gladness are in His place.

²⁸Give to the LORD, O families of the peoples,

Give to the LORD glory and strength.

²⁹Give to the LORD the glory due His name;

Bring an offering, and come before Him.

Oh, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness!

³⁰Tremble before Him, all the earth.

The world also is firmly established,

It shall not be moved.

³¹Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;

And let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."

³²Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;

Let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.

³³Then the trees of the woods shall rejoice before the LORD,

For He is coming to judge the earth.^a ³⁴Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!

For His mercy endures forever.^a

³⁵And say, "Save us, O God of our salvation;
Gather us together, and deliver us from the Gentiles,
To give thanks to Your holy name,

To triumph in Your praise."

³⁶Blessed be the LORD God of Israel

From everlasting to everlasting!^a

And all the people said, "Amen!" and praised the LORD.

Regular Worship Maintained

³⁷So he left Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark regularly, as every day's work required; ³⁸and Obed-Edom with his sixty-eight brethren, including Obed-Edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, to be gatekeepers; ³⁹and Zadok the priest and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place that was at Gibeon, ⁴⁰to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Law of the LORD which He commanded Israel; ⁴¹and with them Heman and Jeduthun and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because His mercy endures forever; ⁴²and with them Heman and Jeduthun, to sound aloud with trumpets and cymbals and the musical instruments of God. Now the sons of Jeduthun were gatekeepers.

⁴³Then all the people departed, every man to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

Chapter 17

God's Covenant with David

¹Now it came to pass, when David was dwelling in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under tent curtains."

²Then Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you."

³But it happened that night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, ⁴"Go and tell My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD: "You shall not build Me a house to dwell in. ⁵"For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought up Israel, even to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. ⁶"Wherever I have moved about with all Israel, have I ever spoken a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, 'Why have you not built Me a house of cedar-' " ' ⁷"Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people Israel. ⁸"And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a name like the name of the great men who are on the earth. ⁹"Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously, ¹⁰“since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. Also I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore I tell you that the LORD will build you a house.^a ¹¹“And it shall be, when your days are fulfilled, when you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. ¹²“He shall build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. ¹³“I will be his Father, and he shall be My son; and I will not take My mercy away from him, as I took it from him who was before you. ¹⁴“And I will establish him in My house and in My kingdom forever; and his throne shall be established forever.” ‘ ”

¹⁵According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

¹⁶Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: “Who am I, O LORD God? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far? ¹⁷“And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O God; and You have also spoken of Your servant’s house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the rank of a man of high degree, O LORD God. ¹⁸“What more can David say to You for the honor of Your servant? For You know Your servant. ¹⁹“O LORD, for Your servant’s sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, in making known all these great things. ²⁰“O LORD, there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. ²¹“And who is like Your people Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people—to make for Yourself a name by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people whom You redeemed from Egypt? ²²“For You have made Your people Israel Your very own people forever; and You, LORD, have become their God.

²³“And now, O LORD, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, let it be established forever, and do as You have said. ²⁴“So let it be established, that Your name may be magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel’s God.’ And let the house of Your servant David be established before You. ²⁵“For You, O my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build him a house. Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray before You. ²⁶“And now, LORD, You are God, and have promised this goodness to Your servant. ²⁷“Now You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You have blessed it, O LORD, and it shall be blessed forever.”

Humility: The Mark of a Leader Who Finishes Well

1 Chronicles 17:1-27

Both Nathan and David showed genuine humility. Nathan had to modify his instructions to David after he too quickly spoke for God, and David responded with grace when he learned he would not build the temple. Humility keeps leaders on track and enables them to see beyond themselves.

Chapter 18

David's Further Conquests

¹After this it came to pass that David attacked the Philistines, subdued them, and took Gath and its towns from the hand of the Philistines. ²Then he defeated Moab, and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought tribute.

³And David defeated Hadadezer^a king of Zobah as far as Hamath, as he went to establish his power by the River Euphrates. ⁴David took from him one thousand chariots, seven thousand^a horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. Also David hamstrung all the chariot horses, except that he spared enough of them for one hundred chariots.

⁵When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians. ⁶Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought tribute. So the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

⁷And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

⁸Also from Tibhath^a and from Chun, cities of Hadadezer, David brought a large amount of bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze Sea, the pillars, and the articles of bronze.

⁹Now when Tou^a king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, ¹⁰he sent Hadoram^a his son to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou); and Hadoram brought with him all kinds of articles of gold, silver, and bronze. ¹¹King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had brought from all these nations—from Edom, from Moab, from the people of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

¹²Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah killed eighteen thousand Edomites^a in the Valley of Salt. ¹³He also put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

David's Administration

¹⁴So David reigned over all Israel, and administered judgment and justice to all his people. ¹⁵Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; ¹⁶Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Shavsha^a was the scribe; ¹⁷Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers at the king's side.

Leaders Broker Human Resources

David understood that he was to broker human gifts and talents. As Scripture says, he “administered judgment and justice to all his people” (1 Chr. 18:14). The next verses report how the king placed individuals in appropriate tasks according to their gifts: Joab led the army; Jehoshaphat was the recorder; Shavsha served as the scribe; and so on.

Effective leaders know their primary job isn’t to amass personal accomplishments, but to accomplish as much as possible through the gifts of others. How do leaders inspire their associates to such great heights?

1. Know the keys to their heart: What do they sing about, cry about, dream about?
2. Know the gifts in their possession: What do they do well that gets results?
3. Know the opportunities in their path: What next step fits their maturity?

Chapter 19

The Ammonites and Syrians Defeated

¹It happened after this that Nahash the king of the people of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place. ²Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came to Hanun in the land of the people of Ammon to comfort him.

³And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David really honors your father because he has sent comforters to you? Did his servants not come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?"

⁴Therefore Hanun took David's servants, shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, at their buttocks, and sent them away. ⁵Then some went and told David about the men; and he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

⁶When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the people of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia,^a from Syrian Maacah, and from Zobah.^b ⁷So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, with the king of Maacah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. Also the people of Ammon gathered together from their cities, and came to battle.

⁸Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men. ⁹Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array before the gate of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

¹⁰When Joab saw that the battle line was against him before and behind, he chose some of Israel's best and put them in battle array against the Syrians. ¹¹And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in battle array against the people of Ammon. ¹²Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you. ¹³"Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in His sight."

¹⁴So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him. ¹⁵When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai his brother, and entered the city. So Joab went to Jerusalem.

¹⁶Now when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought the Syrians who were beyond the River,^a and Shophach^b the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them. ¹⁷When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan and came upon them, and set up in battle array against them. So when David had set up in battle array against the Syrians, they fought with him. ¹⁸Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven thousand^a charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers^b of the Syrians, and killed Shophach the commander of the army. ¹⁹And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his servants. So the Syrians were not willing to help the people of Ammon anymore.

Chapter 20

Rabbah Is Conquered

¹It happened in the spring of the year, at the time kings go out to battle, that Joab led out the armed forces and ravaged the country of the people of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. And Joab defeated Rabbah and overthrew it. ²Then David took their king's crown from his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it. And it was set on David's head. Also he brought out the spoil of the city in great abundance. ³And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work^a with saws, with iron picks, and with axes. So David did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Philistine Giants Destroyed

⁴Now it happened afterward that war broke out at Gezer with the Philistines, at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Sippai,^a who was one of the sons of the giant. And they were subdued.

⁵Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair^a killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

⁶Yet again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, with twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot; and he also was born to the giant. ⁷So when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea,^a David's brother, killed him.

⁸These were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

The Law of the Picture: Giant Killers Grow Under David's Leadership

1 Chronicles 20:4-8

You might call it "Déjà vu all over again."

First Chronicles 20 describes David's army battling and beating Philistine giants. You can't help but recall 1 Samuel 17, when young David killed Goliath. His men had simply learned the second verse of the same song.

By this point in Israel's history, David had selected and trained giant killers just like himself—the story of the Law of the Picture. When leaders model behavior, they multiply themselves. People do what people see. Leaders can reproduce only what they have already become. We teach what we know, but we reproduce what we are. Consider the following truths:

1. It takes one to know one. We tend to see what we possess ourselves.

2. It takes one to show one. We cannot model for someone what we haven't done.

3. It takes one to grow one. We cannot train someone until we've done it ourselves.

Chapter 21

The Census of Israel and Judah

¹Now Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel. ²So David said to Joab and to the leaders of the people, "Go, number Israel from Beersheba to Dan, and bring the number of them to me that I may know it." ³And Joab answered, "May the LORD make His people a hundred times more than they are. But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why then does my lord require this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt in Israel?"

⁴Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and came to Jerusalem. ⁵Then Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to David. All Israel had one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and Judah had four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew the sword. ⁶But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

⁷And God was displeased with this thing; therefore He struck Israel. ⁸So David said to God, "I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing; but now, I pray, take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly."

⁹Then the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, ¹⁰"Go and tell David, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you.” ‘ ‘ ”

¹¹So Gad came to David and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Choose for yourself, ¹²‘either three^a years of famine, or three months to be defeated by your foes with the sword of your enemies overtaking you, or else for three days the sword of the LORD—the plague in the land, with the angel^b of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.’ Now consider what answer I should take back to Him who sent me.”

¹³And David said to Gad, “I am in great distress. Please let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are very great; but do not let me fall into the hand of man.”

Pay the Price, Depend on God

1 Chronicles 21:1-13

David’s choice to count his soldiers revealed he was beginning to place more confidence in his troops than in the power of God. Fortunately, he placed himself in the hands of the Lord when he chose his punishment—once again demonstrating the “divine dependency” that got him to the top.

¹⁴So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell. ¹⁵And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he^a was destroying, the LORD looked and relented of the disaster, and said to the angel who was destroying, “It is enough; now restrain your^b hand.” And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing floor of Ornan^c the Jebusite.

¹⁶Then David lifted his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, having in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. So David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. ¹⁷And David said to God, “Was it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? I am the one who has sinned and done evil indeed; but these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, O LORD my God, be against me and my father’s house, but not against Your people that they should be plagued.”

PROFILE in Leadership

DAVID

Willingness to Assume the Blame

1 Chronicles 21:1-17

Times of failure not only reveal a leader’s true character, but also present opportunities for significant leadership lessons.

Following a major victory over the Philistines, King David made a major mistake. The king chose to listen to Satan, stopped trusting God for the defense of his nation, and undertook a census. His pride in the growth of his kingdom blinded his judgment. Had his spiritual advisors temporarily left the area? Or had David ignored their counsel? Either way, David failed miserably—as do most leaders at some point in the journey.

David’s willingness to take responsibility for his foolish action demonstrated his depth of character. The king refused to project blame, even though the Scripture states that Satan provoked him. David repented and accepted punishment from the hand of God, acknowledging the mercy of God and trusting in the grace of God. Even so, David's error snuffed out the lives of seventy thousand Israelites. When leaders mess up, many people suffer.

Many leaders attempt to hide failures, blame others, or run from God. Not David. He admitted his failure and repented. Although he faced many difficulties, David worked to restore his relationship with God and did whatever he could to minimize the consequences of his failure in the lives of others (1 Chr. 21:16, 17).

¹⁸Therefore, the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David that David should go and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁹So David went up at the word of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD. ²⁰Now Ornan turned and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves, but Ornan continued threshing wheat. ²¹So David came to Ornan, and Ornan looked and saw David. And he went out from the threshing floor, and bowed before David with his face to the ground. ²²Then David said to Ornan, "Grant me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build an altar on it to the LORD. You shall grant it to me at the full price, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people."

²³But Ornan said to David, "Take it to yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. Look, I also give you the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing implements for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering; I give it all."

²⁴Then King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will surely buy it for the full price, for I will not take what is yours for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings with that which costs me nothing.” ²⁵So David gave Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place. ²⁶And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on the LORD; and He answered him from heaven by fire on the altar of burnt offering.

²⁷So the LORD commanded the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

²⁸At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there. ²⁹For the tabernacle of the LORD and the altar of the burnt offering, which Moses had made in the wilderness, were at that time at the high place in Gibeon. ³⁰But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

Chapter 22

David Prepares to Build the Temple

¹Then David said, “This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel.” ²So David commanded to gather the aliens who were in the land of Israel; and he appointed masons to cut hewn stones to build the house of God. ³And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails of the doors of the gates and for the joints, and bronze in abundance beyond measure, ⁴and cedar trees in abundance; for the Sidonians and those from Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

⁵Now David said, “Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all countries. I will now make preparation for it.” So David made abundant preparations before his death.

⁶Then he called for his son Solomon, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel. ⁷And David said to Solomon: “My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of the LORD my God; ⁸“but the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ‘You have shed much blood and have made great wars; you shall not build a house for My name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight. ⁹‘Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies all around. His name shall be Solomon,^a for I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days. ¹⁰‘He shall build a house for My name, and he shall be My son, and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.’ ¹¹“Now, my son, may the LORD be with you; and may you prosper, and build the house of the LORD your God, as He has said to you. ¹²“Only may the LORD give you wisdom and understanding, and give you charge concerning Israel, that you may keep the law of the LORD your God. ¹³“Then you will prosper, if you take care to fulfill the statutes and judgments with which the LORD charged Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and of good courage; do not fear nor be dismayed. ¹⁴“Indeed I have taken much trouble to prepare for the house of the LORD one hundred thousand talents of gold and one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond measure, for it is so abundant. I have prepared timber and stone also, and you may add to them. ¹⁵“Moreover there are workmen with you in abundance: woodsmen and stonecutters, and all types of skillful men for every kind of work. ¹⁶“Of gold and silver and bronze and iron there is no limit. Arise and begin working, and the LORD be with you.”

¹⁷David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, ¹⁸“Is not the LORD your God with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and before His people. ¹⁹“Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God. Therefore arise and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy articles of God into the house that is to be built for the name of the LORD.”

1 Chronicles 22:1-19

David's personal vision and passion extended far beyond his own lifetime. Although he knew Solomon would build the temple, he did some long-range planning and preparation for its construction. "Solomon my son is young and inexperienced," he explained, "and the house to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all countries. I will now make preparation for it" (1 Chr. 22:5).

David appointed stone cutters, gathered cedar logs, acquired mounds of iron for the nails, and even gave Solomon a solemn charge to finish the job (22:11-19). This is the kind of thing that separates leaders from followers. Leaders see...

- Beyond Others: They look past their own future to the generations that follow.
- Before Others: They see what must happen long before others are ready.
- Bigger Than Others: They have a larger than usual vision of what can happen.

David not only prepared the materials for the construction of the temple and challenged his son to faithfully build the Lord's house, but he also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon complete the task. "Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God," he told them. "Therefore arise and build the sanctuary of the LORD God" (22:19). Worthy visions outlast those who cast them.

Chapter 23

The Divisions of the Levites

¹So when David was old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

²And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. ³Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and above; and the number of individual males was thirty-eight thousand. ⁴Of these, twenty-four thousand were to look after the work of the house of the LORD, six thousand were officers and judges, ⁵four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand praised the LORD with musical instruments, “which I made,” said David, “for giving praise.”

⁶Also David separated them into divisions among the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

⁷Of the Gershonites: Laadan^a and Shimei. ⁸The sons of Laadan: the first Jehiel, then Zetham and Joel—three in all. ⁹The sons of Shimei: Shelomith, Haziël, and Haran—three in all. These were the heads of the fathers’ houses of Laadan. ¹⁰And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina,^a Jeush, and Beriah. These were the four sons of Shimei. ¹¹Jahath was the first and Zizah the second. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; therefore they were assigned as one father’s house.

¹²The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel—four in all. ¹³The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was set apart, he and his sons forever, that he should sanctify the most holy things, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister to Him, and to give the blessing in His name forever. ¹⁴Now the sons of Moses the man of God were reckoned to the tribe of Levi. ¹⁵The sons of Moses were Gershon^a and Eliezer. ¹⁶Of the sons of Gershon, Shebuel^a was the first. ¹⁷Of the descendants of Eliezer, Rehabiah was the first. And Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. ¹⁸Of the sons of Izhar, Shelomith was the first. ¹⁹Of the sons of Hebron, Jeriah was the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. ²⁰Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah was the first and Jesshiah the second.

²¹The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish. ²²And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but only daughters; and their brethren, the sons of Kish, took them as wives. ²³The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth—three in all.

²⁵For David said, "The LORD God of Israel has given rest to His people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem forever"; ²⁶and also to the Levites, "They shall no longer carry the tabernacle, or any of the articles for its service." ²⁷For by the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above; ²⁸because their duty was to help the sons of Aaron in the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chambers, in the purifying of all holy things and the work of the service of the house of God, ²⁹both with the showbread and the fine flour for the grain offering, with the unleavened cakes and what is baked in the pan, with what is mixed and with all kinds of measures and sizes; ³⁰to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at evening; ³¹and at every presentation of a burnt offering to the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons and on the set feasts, by number according to the ordinance governing them, regularly before the LORD; ³²and that they should attend to the needs of the tabernacle of meeting, the needs of the holy place, and the needs of the sons of Aaron their brethren in the work of the house of the LORD.

The Divisions of the Priests

¹Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ²And Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests. ³Then David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to the schedule of their service.

⁴There were more leaders found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar, and thus they were divided. Among the sons of Eleazar were sixteen heads of their fathers' houses, and eight heads of their fathers' houses among the sons of Ithamar. ⁵Thus they were divided by lot, one group as another, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of the house of God, from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar. ⁶And the scribe, Shemaiah the son of Nethanel, one of the Levites, wrote them down before the king, the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites, one father's house taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.

⁷Now the first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, ⁸the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, ⁹the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, ¹⁰the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, ¹¹the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, ¹²the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, ¹³the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, ¹⁴the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, ¹⁵the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez,^a ¹⁶the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel,^a ¹⁷the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul, ¹⁸the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

¹⁹This was the schedule of their service for coming into the house of the LORD according to their ordinance by the hand of Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

Other Levites

²⁰And the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael;^a of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah. ²¹Concerning Rehabiah, of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah. ²²Of the Izharites, Shelomoth;^a of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath. ²³Of the sons of Hebron,^a Jeriah was the first, ^b Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. ²⁴Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah; of the sons of Michah, Shamir. ²⁵The brother of Michah, Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah. ²⁶The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi; the son of Jaaziah, Beno. ²⁷The sons of Merari by Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri. ²⁸Of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons. ²⁹Of Kish: the son of Kish, Jerahmeel.

³⁰Also the sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

³¹These also cast lots just as their brothers the sons of Aaron did, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites. The chief fathers did just as their younger brethren.

The Musicians

¹Moreover David and the captains of the army separated for the service some of the sons of Asaph, of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, stringed instruments, and cymbals. And the number of the skilled men performing their service was: ²Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah;^a the sons of Asaph were under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied according to the order of the king. ³Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri,^a Jeshaiiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six,^b under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp to give thanks and to praise the LORD. ⁴Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel,^a Shebuel,^b Jerimoth,^c Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. ⁵All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to exalt his horn.^a For God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

⁶All these were under the direction of their father for the music in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps, for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the authority of the king. ⁷So the number of them, with their brethren who were instructed in the songs of the LORD, all who were skillful, was two hundred and eighty-eight.

⁸And they cast lots for their duty, the small as well as the great, the teacher with the student.

⁹Now the first lot for Asaph came out for Joseph; the second for Gedaliah, him with his brethren and sons, twelve; ¹⁰the third for Zaccur, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ¹¹the fourth for Jizri,^a his sons and his brethren, twelve; ¹²the fifth for Nethaniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ¹³the sixth for Bukkiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ¹⁴the seventh for Jesharelah,^a his sons and his brethren, twelve; ¹⁵the eighth for Jashaiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ¹⁶the ninth for Mattaniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ¹⁷the tenth for Shimei, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ¹⁸the eleventh for Azarel,^a his sons and his brethren, twelve; ¹⁹the twelfth for Hashabiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ²⁰the thirteenth for Shubael,^a his sons and his brethren, twelve; ²¹the fourteenth for Mattithiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ²²the fifteenth for Jeremoth,^a his sons and his brethren, twelve; ²³the sixteenth for Hananiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ²⁴the seventeenth for Joshbekashah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ²⁵the eighteenth for Hanani, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ²⁶the nineteenth for Mallothi, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ²⁷the twentieth for Eliathah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ²⁸the twenty-first for Hothir, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ²⁹the twenty-second for Giddalti, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ³⁰the twenty-third for Mahazioth, his sons and his brethren, twelve; ³¹the twenty-fourth for Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brethren, twelve.

The Gatekeepers

¹Concerning the divisions of the gatekeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph. ²And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the firstborn, Jediahel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, ³Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh.

⁴Moreover the sons of Obed-Edom were Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, ⁵Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth; for God blessed him.

⁶Also to Shemaiah his son were sons born who governed their fathers' houses, because they were men of great ability. ⁷The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers Elihu and Semachiah were able men.

⁸All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom, they and their sons and their brethren, able men with strength for the work: sixty-two of Obed-Edom.

⁹And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, eighteen able men.

¹⁰Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (for though he was not the firstborn, his father made him the first), ¹¹Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

¹²Among these were the divisions of the gatekeepers, among the chief men, having duties just like their brethren, to serve in the house of the LORD. ¹³And they cast lots for each gate, the small as well as the great, according to their father's house. ¹⁴The lot for the East Gate fell to Shelemiah. Then they cast lots for his son Zechariah, a wise counselor, and his lot came out for the North Gate; ¹⁵to Obed-Edom the South Gate, and to his sons the storehouse.^a ¹⁶To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came out for the West Gate, with the Shallecheth Gate on the ascending highway—watchman opposite watchman. ¹⁷On the east were six Levites, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, and for the storehouse^a two by two. ¹⁸As for the Parbar^a on the west, there were four on the highway and two at the Parbar. ¹⁹These were the divisions of the gatekeepers among the sons of Korah and among the sons of Merari.

The Treasuries and Other Duties

²⁰Of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasuries of the house of God and over the treasuries of the dedicated things.

²¹The sons of Laadan, the descendants of the Gershonites of Laadan, heads of their fathers' houses, of Laadan the Gershonite: Jehieli. ²²The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother, were over the treasuries of the house of the LORD. ²³Of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites: ²⁴Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was overseer of the treasuries. ²⁵And his brethren by Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

²⁶This Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasuries of the dedicated things which King David and the heads of fathers' houses, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated.

²⁷Some of the spoils won in battles they dedicated to maintain the house of the LORD. ²⁸And all that Samuel the seer, Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, every dedicated thing, was under the hand of Shelomith and his brethren.

²⁹Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons performed duties as officials and judges over Israel outside Jerusalem.

³⁰Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, one thousand seven hundred able men, had the oversight of Israel on the west side of the Jordan for all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king. ³¹Among the Hebronites, Jerijah was head of the Hebronites according to his genealogy of the fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought, and there were found among them capable men at Jazer of Gilead. ³²And his brethren were two thousand seven hundred able men, heads of fathers' houses, whom King David made officials over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God and the affairs of the king.

The Military Divisions

¹And the children of Israel, according to their number, the heads of fathers' houses, the captains of thousands and hundreds and their officers, served the king in every matter of the military divisions. These divisions came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, each division having twenty-four thousand.

⁴Over the division of the second month was Dodai^a an Ahohite, and of his division Mikloth also was the leader; in his division were twenty-four thousand. ⁵The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, who was chief; in his division were twenty-four thousand. ⁶This was the Benaiah who was mighty among the thirty, and was over the thirty; in his division was Ammizabad his son. ⁷The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

⁸The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth^a the Izrahite; in his division were twenty-four thousand. ⁹The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; in his division were twenty-four thousand. ¹⁰The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand. ¹¹The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbechai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand. ¹²The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites; in his division were twenty-four thousand. ¹³The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand. ¹⁴The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand. ¹⁵The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai^a the Netophathite, of Othniel; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

Leaders of Tribes

¹⁶Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel: the officer over the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; over the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah; ¹⁷*over* the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; over the Aaronites, Zadok; ¹⁸*over* Judah, Elihu, one of David's brothers; over Issachar, Omri the son of Michael; ¹⁹*over* Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; over Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel; ²⁰*over* the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azariah; over the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiiah; ²¹*over* the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; over Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner; ²²*over* Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

²³But David did not take the number of those twenty years old and under, because the LORD had said He would multiply Israel like the stars of the heavens. ²⁴Joab the son of Zeruiah began a census, but he did not finish, for wrath came upon Israel because of this census; nor was the number recorded in the account of the chronicles of King David.

Other State Officials

²⁵And Azmaveth the son of Adiel was over the king's treasuries; and Jehonathan the son of Uzziah was over the storehouses in the field, in the cities, in the villages, and in the fortresses. ²⁶Ezri the son of Chelub was over those who did the work of the field for tilling the ground. ²⁷And Shimei the Ramathite was over the vineyards, and Zabdi the Shiphmite was over the produce of the vineyards for the supply of wine. ²⁸Baal-Hanan the Gederite was over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowlands, and Joash was over the store of oil. ²⁹And Shitrai the Sharonite was over the herds that fed in Sharon, and Shaphat the son of Adlai was over the herds that were in the valleys. ³⁰Obil the Ishmaelite was over the camels, Jehdeiah the Meronothite was over the donkeys, ³¹and Jaziz the Hagrite was over the flocks. All these were the officials over King David's property.

³²Also Jehonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a wise man, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons. ³³Ahithophel was the king's counselor, and Hushai the Archite was the king's companion. ³⁴After Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, then Abiathar. And the general of the king's army was Joab.

Competence: David's Royal Administration

1 Chronicles 26:1-27:34

Toward the end of 1 Chronicles we see David's flow chart of army divisions, tribal officers, treasurers, and royal overseers. God selected a leader with a compass in his head and a magnet in his heart. David had mastered the three P's of organization: planning, preparation, and personnel.

Chapter 28

Solomon Instructed to Build the Temple

¹Now David assembled at Jerusalem all the leaders of Israel: the officers of the tribes and the captains of the divisions who served the king, the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officials, the valiant men, and all the mighty men of valor.

²Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Hear me, my brethren and my people: I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made preparations to build it. ³"But God said to me, 'You shall not build a house for My name, because you have been a man of war and have shed blood.' ⁴"However the LORD God of Israel chose me above all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever, for He has chosen Judah to be the ruler. And of the house of Judah, the house of my father, and among the sons of my father, He was pleased with me to make me king over all Israel. ⁵"And of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons) He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel. ⁶"Now He said to me, 'It is your son Solomon who shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father. ⁷'Moreover I will establish his kingdom forever, if he is steadfast to observe My commandments and My judgments, as it is this day.' ⁸"Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, be careful to seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children after you forever.

⁹"As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a loyal heart and with a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts and understands all the intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever. ¹⁰"Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be strong, and do it."

¹¹Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the vestibule, its houses, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner chambers, and the place of the mercy seat; ¹²and the plans for all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, of all the chambers all around, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries for the dedicated things; ¹³also for the division of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the articles of service in the house of the LORD. ¹⁴*He gave* gold by weight for things of gold, for all articles used in every kind of service; also silver for all articles of silver by weight, for all articles used in every kind of service; ¹⁵the weight for the lampstands of gold, and their lamps of gold, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps; for the lampstands of silver by weight, for the lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand. ¹⁶And by weight he gave gold for the tables of the showbread, for each table, and silver for the tables of silver; ¹⁷also pure gold for the forks, the basins, the pitchers of pure gold, and the golden bowls—he gave gold by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls, silver by weight for every bowl; ¹⁸and refined gold by weight for the altar of incense, and for the construction of the chariot, that is, the gold cherubim that spread their wings and overshadowed the ark of the covenant of the LORD. ¹⁹*“All this,” said David, “the LORD made me understand in writing, by His hand upon me, all the works of these plans.”*

²⁰And David said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God—my God—will be with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD. ²¹*“Here are* the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God; and every willing craftsman will be with you for all manner of workmanship, for every kind of service; also the leaders and all the people will be completely at your command.”

Offerings for Building the Temple

¹Furthermore King David said to all the assembly: “My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced; and the work is great, because the temple^a is not for man but for the LORD God. ²“Now for the house of my God I have prepared with all my might: gold for things to be made of gold, silver for things of silver, bronze for things of bronze, iron for things of iron, wood for things of wood, onyx stones, stones to be set, glistening stones of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and marble slabs in abundance. ³“Moreover, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, my own special treasure of gold and silver: ⁴“three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses; ⁵“the gold for things of gold and the silver for things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be done by the hands of craftsmen. Who then is willing to consecrate himself this day to the LORD?”

The Law of Legacy: David Sets Up Solomon to Succeed

1 Chronicles 29:1-5

As his life begins ebbing away, we see David preparing his son Solomon to give oversight to the construction of the temple. The old king is determined to ensure his legacy by setting up the next leader and committing him to the care of God Almighty. Look closely at what he did:

1. He rallied all the people together (v. 1).
2. He affirmed God's choice of his successor (v. 1).
3. He identified the great need for help (v. 1).
4. He reminded the people of his own commitment (v. 2).
5. He declared that the people were well on their way to the goal (vv. 3-5).
6. He asked for commitment (v. 5).

The people loved this old king, and they knew he was not asking them to do anything he had not already demonstrated an eagerness to complete himself. Because people do what people see, David was able to motivate the Israelites to do three things:

- Sacrificially give toward the temple project
- Support Solomon and his leadership
- Rejoice in what God was doing among them

And so the Book of 1 Chronicles comes to a close, saying of David, "So he died in a good old age, full of days and riches and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his place" (29:28).

⁶Then the leaders of the fathers' houses, leaders of the tribes of Israel, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the officers over the king's work, offered willingly. ⁷They gave for the work of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron. ⁸And whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, into the hand of Jehiel^a the Gershonite. ⁹Then the people rejoiced, for they had offered willingly, because with a loyal heart they had offered willingly to the LORD; and King David also rejoiced greatly. David's Praise to God

¹⁰Therefore David blessed the LORD before all the assembly; and David said:

“Blessed are You, LORD God of Israel, our Father, forever and ever.¹¹

Yours, O LORD, is the greatness,
The power and the glory,
The victory and the majesty;
For all that is in heaven and in earth is Yours;
Yours is the kingdom, O LORD,
And You are exalted as head over all.

¹²Both riches and honor come from You,
And You reign over all.
In Your hand is power and might;
In Your hand it is to make great

And to give strength to all.

¹³“Now therefore, our God,
We thank You
And praise Your glorious name.

¹⁴But who am I, and who are my people,
That we should be able to offer so willingly as this?

For all things come from You,
And of Your own we have given You.
¹⁵For we are aliens and pilgrims before You,
As were all our fathers;
Our days on earth are as a shadow,

And without hope.

¹⁶“O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build You a house for Your holy name is from Your hand, and is all Your own. ¹⁷“I know also, my God, that You test the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here to offer willingly to You. ¹⁸“O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the intent of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and fix their heart toward You. ¹⁹“And give my son Solomon a loyal heart to keep Your commandments and Your testimonies and Your statutes, to do all these things, and to build the temple^a for which I have made provision.”

²⁰Then David said to all the assembly, “Now bless the LORD your God.” So all the assembly blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king.

Solomon Anointed King

²¹And they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the next day: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. ²²So they ate and drank before the LORD with great gladness on that day. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before the LORD to be the leader, and Zadok to be priest. ²³Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. ²⁴All the leaders and the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David, submitted themselves to King Solomon. ²⁵So the LORD exalted Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

The Close of David's Reign

²⁶Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. ²⁷And the period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem. ²⁸So he died in a good old age, full of days and riches and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his place. ²⁹Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer, ³⁰with all his reign and his might, and the events that happened to him, to Israel, and to all the kingdoms of the lands.

The Second Book of the Chronicles

Introduction to 2 Chronicles

If 2 Chronicles develops one major theme or offers one major lesson, it is this: Leaders need to finish well.

Four kings—Solomon, Asa, Uzziah, and Jehoshaphat—all began their monarchies well, but failed to finish strongly. Each enjoyed both success and fame as a leader, but they let the good times get to them. Their perspective got fuzzy; they began to overestimate their own importance; they grew blind to their weaknesses and refused accountability; and they started to trust in human ingenuity rather than in God—all “alarm bells” appropriate for leaders yet today!

What accounts for these poor finishes? Second Chronicles considers the Jerusalem worship center as symbolic of God’s covenant with His people (chapter 7). The temple represented His presence, His promises, His provision, and His protection. Indeed, it symbolized His very Person. As each leader drifted away from his calling, his worship grew cold and sterile, becoming nothing more than an item to be checked off of a “to-do” list. While God was still there, they grew emotionally absent—and eventually God’s presence and blessings began to fade.

Second Chronicles delivers a sobering warning to leaders who are drifting from their passion. When our leadership activities become mere routine, we have wandered from our original call. When we become distracted by peripheral issues and deviate from the purpose that first drove us to lead, we have wandered from our original call. When we overestimate our importance and allow ourselves to become exceptions to the rules—we have wandered away from our leadership call.

Second Chronicles demonstrates that leaders cannot separate their spiritual condition from their success as a leader. While intimacy with God does not automatically make anyone a great leader—plenty of deeply spiritual people do not lead well—yet one cannot be a godly leader apart from intimacy with God. Our leadership must begin with our relationship with God. Had the kings of Israel and Judah remained intimate with Yahweh, they would have avoided many of their mistakes, pride, blindness, presumption, and failures. Nearly every king desired to lead his people in reform, yet most of them failed. The lesson for us? Leaders cannot execute public reform until they experience personal repentance.

Leaders Need to Finish Well

God's Role in 2 Chronicles

God intended to call the Hebrew leaders into close, personal encounters with Him. Josiah most clearly illustrates God's goal.

Josiah became king at eight years of age (34:1). As he grew older, God increasingly led this young man's life (34:3-7). Josiah led strongly to the very end: "Thus Josiah removed all the abominations from all the country that belonged to the children of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel diligently serve the LORD their God" (34:33).

Leaders in 2 Chronicles

Solomon, Rehoboam, Jeroboam, Abijah, Asa, Jehoshaphat, Ahab, Jehoram, Ahaziah, Joash, Amaziah, Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, Hezekiah, Manasseh, Josiah, Jehoahaz

Other People of Influence in 2 Chronicles

Rehoboam's young counselors, Shemaiah, Micaiah, Jehoiada, Oded

Lessons in Leadership

- Priorities must be in place: all's well that begins well.
- Leaders committed to excellence will excel themselves.
- Healthy leaders seek wise counsel, even if it's not what they want to hear.
- When things go wrong, check the humility of the leader.
- God blesses His people so that they will bless the nations.
- Leaders who maintain God's rule over their life maintain their rule.
- Leaders cannot pursue power and love at the same time.
- Leaders can undo their accomplishments by failing to finish well.
- Example is the main ingredient in influencing others.
- Leaders find a way to reach the goal and enable the team to win.

Leadership Highlights in 2 Chronicles

SOLOMON: Blessed by God to Bless the Nations (9:1-23)

LISTENING: Rehoboam Fails to Listen to the Right People (10:15)

ASA: The Difficulty of Finishing Well (15:1-16:13)

JEHOSHAPHAT: Finished Poorly by Forming Destructive Alliances (20:1-37)

THE LAW OF ADDITION: Leaders Serve Their People and Their Purpose (22:1-9)

UZZIAH: Built His Military, Later His Own Power (26:1-23)

THE LAW OF THE PICTURE: Leaders Are Examples, Not Exceptions (29:1-36)

JOSIAH: Personal Repentance Precedes Public Reform (34:3-33)

JOSIAH AND THE LAW OF VICTORY: Leaders Find a Way for the Team to Win (34:3-35:19)

Chapter 1

Solomon Requests Wisdom

¹Now Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and exalted him exceedingly.

²And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' houses. ³Then Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for the tabernacle of meeting with God was there, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness. ⁴But David had brought up the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim to the place David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. ⁵Now the bronze altar that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put^a before the tabernacle of the LORD; Solomon and the assembly sought Him there. ⁶And Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

⁷On that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

⁸And Solomon said to God: "You have shown great mercy to David my father, and have made me king in his place.

⁹"Now, O LORD God, let Your promise to David my father be established, for You have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. ¹⁰“Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this great people of Yours?”

¹¹Then God said to Solomon: “Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches or wealth or honor or the life of your enemies, nor have you asked long life—but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge My people over whom I have made you king—¹²“wisdom and knowledge are granted to you; and I will give you riches and wealth and honor, such as none of the kings have had who were before you, nor shall any after you have the like.”

The Law of Priorities: Solomon Gets It All

2 Chronicles 1:3-12

Every leader must establish a list of priorities, then learn to put first things first. Second Chronicles begins with a lesson in priorities.

When Solomon became king of Israel, he was given the opportunity to ask God for anything. Instead of requesting riches or fame, he asked for wisdom to lead his people well. Good answer! God responded by rewarding him not only with the thing he asked for, but also with all the benefits he didn't request.

This incident illustrates how effective prioritizing often works. When you put first things first, you frequently gain the time for nonessentials. Solomon narrowed his wedge, and got it all. No doubt, King Solomon faced the same options we have today:

1. Easy Things First: He could've chosen to focus on the easy tasks ahead of him.
2. Fun Things First: He could've chosen to focus on riches or fame.
3. Urgent Things First: He could've asked for help in building the temple.
4. Hard Things First: He could've sought favor with those who didn't like him.
5. First Things First: Instead, he chose to seek wisdom so he could glorify God.

Solomon's Military and Economic Power

¹³So Solomon came to Jerusalem from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the tabernacle of meeting, and reigned over Israel. ¹⁴And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. ¹⁵Also the king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland. ¹⁶And Solomon had horses imported from Egypt and Keveh; the king's merchants bought them in Keveh at the current price. ¹⁷They also acquired and imported from Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty; thus, through their agents,^a they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

¹Then Solomon determined to build a temple for the name of the LORD, and a royal house for himself. ²Solomon selected seventy thousand men to bear burdens, eighty thousand to quarry stone in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them.

³Then Solomon sent to Hiram^a king of Tyre, saying:

As you have dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build himself a house to dwell in, so deal with me. ⁴Behold, I am building a temple for the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to Him, to burn before Him sweet incense, for the continual showbread, for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, on the New Moons, and on the set feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel.

⁵And the temple which I build will be great, for our God is greater than all gods. ⁶But who is able to build Him a temple, since heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Him? Who am I then, that I should build Him a temple, except to burn sacrifice before Him?

⁷Therefore send me at once a man skillful to work in gold and silver, in bronze and iron, in purple and crimson and blue, who has skill to engrave with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father provided. ⁸Also send me cedar and cypress and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants have skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and indeed my servants will be with your servants, ⁹to prepare timber for me in abundance, for the temple which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful.

¹⁰And indeed I will give to your servants, the woodsmen who cut timber, twenty thousand kors of ground wheat, twenty thousand kors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

¹¹Then Hiram king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon:

Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them.

¹²Hiram^a also said:

Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, for He has given King David a wise son, endowed with prudence and understanding, who will build a temple for the LORD and a royal house for himself!

¹³And now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, Hiram^a my master^b craftsman¹⁴(the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre), skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, purple and blue, fine linen and crimson, and to make any engraving and to accomplish any plan which may be given to him, with your skillful men and with the skillful men of my lord David your father.

¹⁵Now therefore, the wheat, the barley, the oil, and the wine which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants.¹⁶And we will cut wood from Lebanon, as much as you need; we will bring it to you in rafts by sea to Joppa, and you will carry it up to Jerusalem.

¹⁷Then Solomon numbered all the aliens who were in the land of Israel, after the census in which David his father had numbered them; and there were found to be one hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred. ¹⁸And he made seventy thousand of them bearers of burdens, eighty thousand stonecutters in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred overseers to make the people work.

Chapter 3

Solomon Builds the Temple

¹Now Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD^a had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had prepared on the threshing floor of Ornan^b the Jebusite.

²And he began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

³This is the foundation which Solomon laid for building the house of God: The length was sixty cubits (by cubits according to the former measure) and the width twenty cubits. ⁴And the vestibule that was in front of the sanctuary^a was twenty cubits long across the width of the house, and the height was one hundred and^b twenty. He overlaid the inside with pure gold. ⁵The larger room^a he paneled with cypress which he overlaid with fine gold, and he carved palm trees and chainwork on it. ⁶And he decorated the house with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was gold from Parvaim. ⁷He also overlaid the house—the beams and doorposts, its walls and doors—with gold; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

⁸And he made the Most Holy Place. Its length was according to the width of the house, twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits. He overlaid it with six hundred talents of fine gold. ⁹The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold; and he overlaid the upper area with gold. ¹⁰In the Most Holy Place he made two cherubim, fashioned by carving, and overlaid them with gold. ¹¹The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits in overall length: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub; ¹²*one* wing of the other cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing also was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub. ¹³The wings of these cherubim spanned twenty cubits overall. They stood on their feet, and they faced inward. ¹⁴And he made the veil of blue, purple, crimson, and fine linen, and wove cherubim into it.

¹⁵Also he made in front of the temple^a two pillars thirtyfive^b cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. ¹⁶He made wreaths of chainwork, as in the inner sanctuary, and put them on top of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the wreaths of chainwork. ¹⁷Then he set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand and the other on the left; he called the name of the one on the right hand Jachin, and the name of the one on the left Boaz.

Chapter 4

Furnishings of the Temple

¹Moreover he made a bronze altar: twenty cubits was its length, twenty cubits its width, and ten cubits its height.

²Then he made the Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference. ³And under it was the likeness of oxen encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. The oxen were cast in two rows, when it was cast. ⁴It stood on twelve oxen: three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts pointed inward. ⁵*It was* a handbreadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained three thousand^a baths.

⁶He also made ten lavers, and put five on the right side and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as they offered for the burnt offering they would wash in them, but the Sea was for the priests to wash in. ⁷And he made ten lampstands of gold according to their design, and set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. ⁸He also made ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made one hundred bowls of gold.

⁹Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court and doors for the court; and he overlaid these doors with bronze. ¹⁰He set the Sea on the right side, toward the southeast.

¹¹Then Hiram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram finished doing the work that he was to do for King Solomon for the house of God: ¹²the two pillars and the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars; ¹³four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the pillars); ¹⁴he also made carts and the lavers on the carts; ¹⁵one Sea and twelve oxen under it; ¹⁶also the pots, the shovels, the forks—and all their articles Hiram his master^a craftsman made of burnished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

¹⁷In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay molds, between Succoth and Zeredah.^a ¹⁸And Solomon had all these articles made in such great abundance that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

¹⁹Thus Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of God: the altar of gold and the tables on which was the showbread; ²⁰the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, to burn in the prescribed manner in front of the inner sanctuary, ²¹with the flowers and the lamps and the wick-trimmers of gold, of purest gold; ²²the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold. As for the entry of the sanctuary, its inner doors to the Most Holy Place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple, were gold.

Chapter 5

¹So all the work that Solomon had done for the house of the LORD was finished; and Solomon brought in the things which his father David had dedicated: the silver and the gold and all the furnishings. And he put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

The Ark Brought into the Temple

²Now Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, in Jerusalem, that they might bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up from the City of David, which is Zion. ³Therefore all the men of Israel assembled with the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month. ⁴So all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark. ⁵Then they brought up the ark, the tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up. ⁶Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him before the ark, were sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude. ⁷Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, a to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim. ⁸For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles. ⁹The poles extended so that the ends of the poles of the ark could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside. And they are there to this day. ¹⁰Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they had come out of Egypt.

¹¹And it came to pass when the priests came out of the Most Holy Place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without keeping to their divisions), ¹²and the Levites who were the singers, all those of Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, stood at the east end of the altar, clothed in white linen, having cymbals, stringed instruments and harps, and with them one hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets— ¹³indeed it came to pass, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying:

“For He is good,

For His mercy endures forever,”^{a}

that the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud, ¹⁴so that the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

Chapter 6

¹Then Solomon spoke:

“The LORD said He would dwell in the dark cloud.

²I have surely built You an exalted house,

And a place for You to dwell in forever.”

Solomon’s Speech upon Completion of the Work

³Then the king turned around and blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing. ⁴And he said: “Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has fulfilled with His hands what He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying, ⁵‘Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house, that My name might be there, nor did I choose any man to be a ruler over My people Israel. ⁶‘Yet I have chosen Jerusalem, that My name may be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.’ ⁷“Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a temple^a for the name of the LORD God of Israel. ⁸“But the LORD said to my father David, ‘Whereas it was in your heart to build a temple for My name, you did well in that it was in your heart.

⁹‘Nevertheless you shall not build the temple, but your son who will come from your body, he shall build the temple for My name.’ ¹⁰“So the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke, and I have filled the position of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised; and I have built the temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel. ¹¹“And there I have put the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with the children of Israel.”

Solomon’s Prayer of Dedication

¹²Then Solomon^a stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands ¹³(for Solomon had made a bronze platform five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and he stood on it, knelt down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands toward heaven); ¹⁴and he said: “LORD God of Israel, there is no God in heaven or on earth like You, who keep Your covenant and mercy with Your servants who walk before You with all their hearts. ¹⁵“You have kept what You promised Your servant David my father; You have both spoken with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day. ¹⁶“Therefore, LORD God of Israel, now keep what You promised Your servant David my father, saying, ‘You shall not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne of Israel, only if your sons take heed to their way, that they walk in My law as you have walked before Me.’ ¹⁷“And now, O LORD God of Israel, let Your word come true, which You have spoken to Your servant David.

¹⁸“But will God indeed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You. How much less this temple^a which I have built! ¹⁹“Yet regard the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O LORD my God, and listen to the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before You: ²⁰“that Your eyes may be open toward this temple day and night, toward the place where You said You would put Your name, that You may hear the prayer which Your servant makes toward this place. ²¹“And may You hear the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and when You hear, forgive.

²⁴“Or if Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and return and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication before You in this temple, ²⁵“then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to them and their fathers.

²⁶“When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, when they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them, ²⁷“then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, that You may teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

²⁸“When there is famine in the land, pestilence or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemies

besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is; ²⁹“whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israel, when each one knows his own burden and his own grief, and spreads out his hands to this temple: ³⁰“then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You alone know the hearts of the sons of men), ³¹“that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways as long as they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.

³²“Moreover, concerning a foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel, but has come from a far country for the sake of Your great name and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray in this temple; ³³“then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, that all peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this temple which I have built is called by Your name.

³⁴“When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, wherever You send them, and when they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name, ³⁵“then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

³⁶“When they sin against You (for there is no one who does not sin), and You become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them captive to a land far or near; ³⁷“yet when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to You in the land of their captivity, saying, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong, and have committed wickedness’; ³⁸“and when they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been carried captive, and pray toward their land which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and toward the temple which I have built for Your name: ³⁹“then hear from heaven Your dwelling place their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You. ⁴⁰“Now, my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open and let Your ears be attentive to the prayer made in this place.

⁴¹“Now therefore,
Arise, O LORD God, to Your resting place,
You and the ark of Your strength.
Let Your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation,

And let Your saints rejoice in goodness.

⁴²“O LORD God, do not turn away the face of Your Anointed;

Remember the mercies of Your servant David.”^a

The Law of Navigation: Solomon Commits Himself to Excellence

2 Chronicles 2:1-6:42

Solomon saw to it that excellence controlled both the design and construction of the temple. He committed himself to excellence every step of the way, including hidden areas. If you were to ask him, “Why bother with the details of an area that no one would ever see? Who would know whether it was done right or not?" he would respond, "I would know and God would know."

Leaders who model a commitment to excellence reap great rewards, and their people tend to emulate that same concern. Look at how Solomon's commitment to excellence shows up:

Chapter • Subject • Commitment to Excellence

2 • Preparation of temple • He offers sacrifices daily consecrating the work.

3 • Design and dimensions • He specifies exact sizes and decorations in rooms.

4 • Furnishings • He furnishes it with extravagant accessories.

5 • The ark • He takes great care transporting the ark.

6 • The dedication • He models godly motives for building a temple.

Chapter 7

Solomon Dedicates the Temple

¹When Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.^a ²And the priests could not enter the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house. ³When all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped and praised the LORD, saying:

“For He is good,

For His mercy endures forever.”^a

⁴Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. ⁵King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. ⁶And the priests attended to their services; the Levites also with instruments of the music of the LORD, which King David had made to praise the LORD, saying, “For His mercy endures forever,”^a whenever David offered praise by their ministry. The priests sounded trumpets opposite them, while all Israel stood.

⁷Furthermore Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat.

⁸At that time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt.^a ⁹And on the eighth day they held a sacred assembly, for they observed the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. ¹⁰On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the good that the LORD had done for David, for Solomon, and for His people Israel. ¹¹Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's house; and Solomon successfully accomplished all that came into his heart to make in the house of the LORD and in his own house.

God's Second Appearance to Solomon

¹²Then the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him: "I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice. ¹³"When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among My people, ¹⁴"if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land. ¹⁵"Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place. ¹⁶"For now I have chosen and sanctified this house, that My name may be there forever; and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually. ¹⁷“As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgments, ¹⁸“then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, ‘You shall not fail to have a man as ruler in Israel.’

¹⁹“But if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, and worship them, ²⁰“then I will uproot them from My land which I have given them; and this house which I have sanctified for My name I will cast out of My sight, and will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

²¹“And as for this house, which is exalted, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and say, ‘Why has the LORD done thus to this land and this house?’ ²²“Then they will answer, ‘Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and embraced other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this calamity on them.’ ”

Chapter 8

Solomon's Additional Achievements

¹It came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house, ²that the cities which Hiram^a had given to Solomon, Solomon built them; and he settled the children of Israel there. ³And Solomon went to Hamath Zobah and seized it. ⁴He also built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities which he built in Hamath. ⁵He built Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars, ⁶also Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities and the cities of the cavalry, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

⁷All the people who were left of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of Israel—⁸that is, their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the children of Israel did not destroy—from these Solomon raised forced labor, as it is to this day. ⁹But Solomon did not make the children of Israel servants for his work. Some were men of war, captains of his officers, captains of his chariots, and his cavalry. ¹⁰And others were chiefs of the officials of King Solomon: two hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people.

¹¹Now Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the City of David to the house he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places to which the ark of the LORD has come are holy."

¹²Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built before the vestibule, ¹³according to the daily rate, offering according to the commandment of Moses, for the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the three appointed yearly feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Tabernacles. ¹⁴And, according to the order of David his father, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, the Levites for their duties (to praise and serve before the priests) as the duty of each day required, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at each gate; for so David the man of God had commanded. ¹⁵They did not depart from the command of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter or concerning the treasuries.

¹⁶Now all the work of Solomon was well-ordered from a the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

¹⁷Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath a on the seacoast, in the land of Edom. ¹⁸And Hiram sent him ships by the hand of his servants, and servants who knew the sea. They went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and acquired four hundred and fifty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba's Praise of Solomon

¹Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions, having a very great retinue, camels that bore spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart. ²So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for Solomon that he could not explain it to her. ³And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, ⁴the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their apparel, his cupbearers and their apparel, and his entryway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

⁵Then she said to the king: "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom. ⁶"However I did not believe their words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You exceed the fame of which I heard. ⁷"Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom! ⁸"Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on His throne to be king for the LORD your God! Because your God has loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore He made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness.”

⁹And she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great abundance, and precious stones; there never were any spices such as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹⁰Also, the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought algum^a wood and precious stones. ¹¹And the king made walkways of the algum^a wood for the house of the LORD and for the king’s house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers; and there were none such as these seen before in the land of Judah.

¹²Now King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, much more than she had brought to the king. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

Solomon’s Great Wealth

¹³The weight of gold that came to Solomon yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, ¹⁴besides what the traveling merchants and traders brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. ¹⁵And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of hammered gold went into each shield. ¹⁶*He* also made three hundred shields of hammered gold; three hundred shekels^a of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

²⁰All King Solomon's drinking vessels were gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Not one was silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon. ²¹For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram.^a Once every three years the merchant ships^b came, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and monkeys.^c ²²So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. ²³And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. ²⁴Each man brought his present: articles of silver and gold, garments, armor, spices, horses, and mules, at a set rate year by year.

PROFILE in Leadership

SOLOMON

Blessed by God to Bless the Nations

2 Chronicles 9:1-23

Before he careened off course in his later years, Solomon began to fulfill God's dream of blessing the nations through the nation of Israel. When leaders from the surrounding countries heard of his great wisdom, they hopped aboard their camels and made the long trek to Jerusalem to see whether the reports could be trusted. The Queen of Sheba spoke for these wide-eyed visitors when she said, “Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on His throne to be king for the LORD your God!” (2 Chr. 9:8).

After the queen saw Solomon’s splendor, he sent her away with much more than she brought (9:12). So she returned to her own land, blessed by God. Many other interested leaders visited Solomon after she left (9:23).

Centuries later, the Lord Jesus Christ would tell His followers that what they had received freely, they should freely give (Matt. 10:8). Solomon had asked for godly wisdom that he might rule in a way pleasing to God. The Lord freely gave him that wisdom, so he freely shared it with others—in his words, in his music, and in his writings.

Effective, godly leadership means giving what you have so that God may be glorified in all you do. What you have freely received, freely give—and so bless others.

²⁵Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

²⁶So he reigned over all the kings from the River^a to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. ²⁷The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar trees as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland. ²⁸And they brought horses to Solomon from Egypt and from all lands.

Death of Solomon

²⁹Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? ³⁰Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. ³¹Then Solomon rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 10

The Revolt Against Rehoboam

¹And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king. ²So it happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), that Jeroboam returned from Egypt. ³Then they sent for him and called him. And Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, ⁴“Your father made our yoke heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you.”

⁵So he said to them, “Come back to me after three days.” And the people departed.

⁶Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, saying, “How do you advise me to answer these people?”

⁷And they spoke to him, saying, “If you are kind to these people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be your servants forever.”

⁸But he rejected the advice which the elders had given him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. ⁹And he said to them, “What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Lighten the yoke which your father put on us’?”

Rehoboam and the Law of the Inner Circle

2 Chronicles 10:6-8

Be careful what kind of inner circle you choose! King Rehoboam had the benefit of his father’s inner circle, men who gave him wise counsel. But the foolish young king rejected their advice and instead looked for advice that agreed with his own opinion. Horrible move! He should have gone with a core team who possessed the qualities of a solid inner circle:

1. Experience: People who have been down the road of life and understand it.
2. Heart for God: People who place God first and uphold His values.
3. Objectivity: People who see the pros and cons of the issues.
4. Love for people: People who love others and value them more than things.
5. Complementary gifts: People who bring diverse gifts to the relationship.
6. Loyalty to the leader: People who truly love and are concerned for the leader.

¹⁰Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, “Thus you should speak to the people who have spoken to you, saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us’—thus you shall say to them: ‘My little finger shall be thicker than my father’s waist! ¹¹‘And now, whereas my father put a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!’ ”^a ¹²So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had directed, saying, “Come back to me the third day.” ¹³Then the king answered them roughly. King Rehoboam rejected the advice of the elders, ¹⁴and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, “My father^a made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!”^b ¹⁵So the king did not listen to the people; for the turn of events was from God, that the LORD might fulfill His word, which He had spoken by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

21 QUALITIES

LISTENING

Rehoboam Fails to Listen to the Right People

2 Chronicles 10:15

KING REHOBAM’S dysfunctional leadership split the nation of Israel in two. His hunger for power, unreasonable demands, poor decision making, and lack of compassion for those who worked under him all conspired to doom his leadership. But probably the root of his problem can be found in 2 Chronicles 10:15: “So the king did not listen to the people....”

Listening is one of the 21 Indispensable Qualities of a Leader. Leaders must listen for two reasons:

1. to connect with others, and

2. to learn from others.

President Woodrow Wilson said, “The ear of the leader must ring with the voices of the people.” What’s more, a good leader encourages followers to tell him what he needs to know, not what he wants to hear. Sometimes 50 percent of your leadership involves simple listening. So why did Rehoboam fail at this simple task?

1. Narrow Vision

The people promised to serve him if he lightened their load; he didn’t see it.

2. Poor Decision-making Skills

He wavered on what to do about their request and told them to come back later.

3. Self-centered Focus

He rejected wise counsel after deciding it didn’t match his desires.

4. Demanding and Impatient Style

He promised to make life tougher, not easier, for his people.

We learn from King Rehoboam the difference between “hearing” and “listening.” Hearing is a function of the ears; the king heard all the spoken words. Listening, however, is a function of the will; leaders listen to connect and to learn. Rehoboam failed to do both, as he refused to listen to history, his followers, the wise counsel of his staff, and to God.

Certainly we cannot listen to everyone—far too many opposing voices and views cry out for that. So to whom should leaders be listening? Listen especially well to the following:

1. Your Followers

Good leaders take the time to get a feel for each team member as a person.

2. Your Customers

Good leaders make it a priority to keep in contact with those they serve.

3. Your Competitors

Good leaders don't imitate the competition, but they listen in order to learn from the encounter.

4. Your Mentors

No leader can afford to be without a mentor's insight.

5. Your Inner Circle

Leaders must listen to those closest to them to confirm the pulse of the organization.

¹⁶Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying:

“What share have we in David?

We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.

Every man to your tents, O Israel!

Now see to your own house, O David!”

So all Israel departed to their tents. ¹⁷But Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.

Rehoboam Violates the Law of Intuition and Pays

2 Chronicles 10:1-17

Rehoboam, the successor to Solomon, knew little about good leadership. Instead of sizing up his situation and culture, he went on a power trip. He failed to discern, listen, or follow wise counsel from those who could help him most—and lost more than half of the kingdom.

¹⁸Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of revenue; but the children of Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

Chapter 11

¹Now when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled from the house of Judah and Benjamin one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

²But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, ³“Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, ⁴“Thus says the LORD: “You shall not go up or fight against your brethren! Let every man return to his house, for this thing is from Me.” ‘ ” Therefore they obeyed the words of the LORD, and turned back from attacking Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Fortifies the Cities

⁵So Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah. ⁶And he built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, ⁷Beth Zur, Sochoh, Adullam, ⁸Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, ⁹Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, ¹⁰Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and Benjamin, fortified cities. ¹¹And he fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, oil, and wine. ¹²Also in every city he put shields and spears, and made them very strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

Priests and Levites Move to Judah

¹³And from all their territories the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel took their stand with him. ¹⁴For the Levites left their common-lands and their possessions and came to Judah and Jerusalem, for Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them from serving as priests to the LORD. ¹⁵Then he appointed for himself priests for the high places, for the demons, and the calf idols which he had made. ¹⁶And after the Levites left,^a those from all the tribes of Israel, such as set their heart to seek the LORD God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers. ¹⁷So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong for three years, because they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

The Family of Rehoboam

¹⁸Then Rehoboam took for himself as wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of Eliah the son of Jesse. ¹⁹And she bore him children: Jeush, Shamariah, and Zaham. ²⁰After her he took Maachah the granddaughter^a of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. ²¹Now Rehoboam loved Maachah the granddaughter of Absalom more than all his wives and his concubines; for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and begot twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters. ²²And Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maachah as chief, to be leader among his brothers; for he intended to make him king. ²³He dealt wisely, and dispersed some of his sons throughout all the territories of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city; and he gave them provisions in abundance. He also sought many wives for them.

Chapter 12

Egypt Attacks Judah

¹Now it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom and had strengthened himself, that he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel along with him.

²And it happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD, ³with twelve hundred chariots, sixty thousand horsemen, and people without number who came with him out of Egypt—the Lubim and the Sukkiim and the Ethiopians. ⁴And he took the fortified cities of Judah and came to Jerusalem.

⁵Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah, who were gathered together in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, “Thus says the LORD: ‘You have forsaken Me, and therefore I also have left you in the hand of Shishak.’ ”

⁶So the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, “The LORD is righteous.”

⁷Now when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, “They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance. My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. ⁸“Nevertheless they will be his servants, that they may distinguish My service from the service of the kingdoms of the nations.”

⁹So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king’s house; he took everything. He also carried away the gold shields which Solomon had made. ¹⁰Then King Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who guarded the doorway of the king’s house. ¹¹And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guard would go and bring them out; then they would take them back into the guardroom. ¹²When he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and things also went well in Judah.

The End of Rehoboam’s Reign

¹³Thus King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Now Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king; and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. His mother’s name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. ¹⁴And he did evil, because he did not prepare his heart to seek the LORD.

¹⁵The acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days. ¹⁶So Rehoboam rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David. Then Abijah^a his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 13

Abijah Reigns in Judah

¹In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah. ²He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Michaiah^a the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah.

And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. ³Abijah set the battle in order with an army of valiant warriors, four hundred thousand choice men. Jeroboam also drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand choice men, mighty men of valor.

⁴Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel: ⁵"Should you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the dominion over Israel to David forever, to him and his sons, by a covenant of salt? ⁶"Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord. ⁷"Then worthless rogues gathered to him, and strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and inexperienced and could not withstand them. ⁸"And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and with you are the gold calves which Jeroboam made for you as gods. ⁹"Have you not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests, like the peoples of other lands, so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may be a priest of things that are not gods?

¹⁰“But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken Him; and the priests who minister to the LORD are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites attend to their duties.

¹¹“And they burn to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense; they also set the showbread in order on the pure gold table, and the lampstand of gold with its lamps to burn every evening; for we keep the command of the LORD our God, but you have forsaken Him. ¹²“Now look, God Himself is with us as our head, and His priests with sounding trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O children of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you shall not prosper!”

¹³But Jeroboam caused an ambush to go around behind them; so they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them. ¹⁴And when Judah looked around, to their surprise the battle line was at both front and rear; and they cried out to the LORD, and the priests sounded the trumpets. ¹⁵Then the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶And the children of Israel fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand. ¹⁷Then Abijah and his people struck them with a great slaughter; so five hundred thousand choice men of Israel fell slain. ¹⁸Thus the children of Israel were subdued at that time; and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on the LORD God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 13:1-18

An unusual king named Abijah reminds us that the right vision at the right time brings the right results.

Abijah followed Rehoboam as king of Judah. He tried to warn the leaders of Israel (the northern kingdom) against their folly in rebelling against the Lord. He cast the vision, reminded them of their heritage, and encouraged them to follow it. "Now look," he said, "God Himself is with us as our head, and His priests with sounding trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O children of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you shall not prosper!" (2 Chr. 13:12).

When king Jeroboam refused to listen, God honored Abijah and delivered him from Jeroboam's ambush. That day five hundred thousand enemy soldiers fell on the battlefield. Abijah's vision led to his victory. Consider this:

- The wrong vision at the wrong time = Disaster
- The wrong vision at the right time = Mistake
- The right vision at the wrong time = Blunder
- The right vision at the right time = Success

¹⁹And Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took cities from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephraim^a with its villages. ²⁰So Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah; and the LORD struck him, and he died.

²¹But Abijah grew mighty, married fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. ²²Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways, and his sayings are written in the annals of the prophet Iddo.

Chapter 14

¹So Abijah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.

Asa Reigns in Judah

²Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God, ³for he removed the altars of the foreign gods and the high places, and broke down the sacred pillars and cut down the wooden images. ⁴He commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to observe the law and the commandment. ⁵He also removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah, and the kingdom was quiet under him. ⁶And he built fortified cities in Judah, for the land had rest; he had no war in those years, because the LORD had given him rest. ⁷Therefore he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and make walls around them, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us, because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered. ⁸And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand from Judah who carried shields and spears, and from Benjamin two hundred and eighty thousand men who carried shields and drew bows; all these were mighty men of valor.

⁹Then Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came to Mareshah. ¹⁰So Asa went out against him, and they set the troops in battle array in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. ¹¹And Asa cried out to the LORD his God, and said, "LORD, it is nothing for You to help, whether with many or with those who have no power; help us, O LORD our God, for we rest on You, and in Your name we go against this multitude. O LORD, You are our God; do not let man prevail against You!"

¹²So the LORD struck the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah, and the Ethiopians fled. ¹³And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar. So the Ethiopians were overthrown, and they could not recover, for they were broken before the LORD and His army. And they carried away very much spoil. ¹⁴Then they defeated all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of the LORD came upon them; and they plundered all the cities, for there was exceedingly much spoil in them. ¹⁵They also attacked the livestock enclosures, and carried off sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

Chapter 15

The Reforms of Asa

¹Now the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded.

²And he went out to meet Asa, and said to him: "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you while you are with Him. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you. ³"For a long time Israel has been without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without law; ⁴"but when in their trouble they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and sought Him, He was found by them. ⁵"And in those times there was no peace to the one who went out, nor to the one who came in, but great turmoil was on all the inhabitants of the lands. ⁶"So nation was destroyed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every adversity. ⁷"But you, be strong and do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded!"

⁸And when Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Oded^a the prophet, he took courage, and removed the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities which he had taken in the mountains of Ephraim; and he restored the altar of the LORD that was before the vestibule of the LORD. ⁹Then he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who dwelt with them from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon, for they came over to him in great numbers from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

¹⁰So they gathered together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. ¹¹And they offered to the LORD at that time seven hundred bulls and seven thousand sheep from the spoil they had brought. ¹²Then they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul; ¹³and whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel was to be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. ¹⁴Then they took an oath before the LORD with a loud voice, with shouting and trumpets and rams' horns. ¹⁵And all Judah rejoiced at the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and sought Him with all their soul; and He was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest all around.

¹⁸He also brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated and that he himself had dedicated: silver and gold and utensils. ¹⁹And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

Chapter 16

Asa's Treaty with Syria

¹In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and built Ramah, that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

²Then Asa brought silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-Hadad king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

³*"Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you silver and gold; come, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."*

⁴So Ben-Hadad heeded King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel. They attacked Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali. ⁵Now it happened, when Baasha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah and ceased his work. ⁶Then King Asa took all Judah, and they carried away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them he built Geba and Mizpah.

Hanani's Message to Asa

⁷And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him: "Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped from your hand. ⁸"Were the Ethiopians and the Lubim not a huge army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on the LORD, He delivered them into your hand. ⁹"For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him. In this you have done foolishly; therefore from now on you shall have wars." ¹⁰Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in prison, for he was enraged at him because of this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

Illness and Death of Asa

¹¹Note that the acts of Asa, first and last, are indeed written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ¹²And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet, and his malady was severe; yet in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but the physicians.

¹³So Asa rested with his fathers; he died in the forty-first year of his reign. ¹⁴They buried him in his own tomb, which he had made for himself in the City of David; and they laid him in the bed which was filled with spices and various ingredients prepared in a mixture of ointments. They made a very great burning for him.

PROFILE in Leadership

ASA

The Difficulty of Finishing Well

2 Chronicles 15:1-16:13

King Asa is one of many Old Testament kings who failed to finish well. At the beginning of his time of leadership he discovered this timeless principle: The Lord is with you when you are with Him (2 Chr. 15:2). Immediately after the king learned this truth from the prophet Azariah, he initiated sweeping national reforms. After several years, however, he returned to his old leadership patterns and relied on men instead of God (16:7-12). When God's prophet warned him against this pattern, he grew angry and imprisoned him. He also "oppressed some of the people at that time" (16:10). Asa eventually died, a hollow leader who failed to finish well.

Asa stands with the majority who fail to finish well. Often, the pattern of failure stems from secret sin in the leader's life. Look at how this worked with David and Solomon:

David • Solomon

Anointed king • Anointed king

Mighty warrior • Humble person of prayer

Musician of the Lord • Temple builder

Faithful, loyal man • Greatest wealth and wisdom

Great leader who made preparations for the temple

- Authored proverbs and songs

Tragic Ending • Tragic Ending

Disloyal to his men • Turned his heart from God

Committed adultery • Became idol worshiper

Committed murder • Bought into vain philosophy

Tried to cover his sins • Selfishly sinned against the Lord

Brought judgment on family • Sought to kill

Chapter 17

Jehoshaphat Reigns in Judah

¹Then Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel. ²And he placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had taken. ³Now the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the former ways of his father David; he did not seek the Baals, ⁴but sought the God^a of his father, and walked in His commandments and not according to the acts of Israel. ⁵Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah gave presents to Jehoshaphat, and he had riches and honor in abundance. ⁶And his heart took delight in the ways of the LORD; moreover he removed the high places and wooden images from Judah.

¹⁰And the fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat. ¹¹Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver as tribute; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.

¹²So Jehoshaphat became increasingly powerful, and he built fortresses and storage cities in Judah. ¹³He had much property in the cities of Judah; and the men of war, mighty men of valor, were in Jerusalem.

¹⁴These are their numbers, according to their fathers' houses. Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valor; ¹⁵and next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand; ¹⁶and next to him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to the LORD, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor. ¹⁷Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield; ¹⁸and next to him was Jehozabad, and with him one hundred and eighty thousand prepared for war. ¹⁹These served the king, besides those the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

Micaiah Warns Ahab

¹Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance; and by marriage he allied himself with Ahab. ²After some years he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria; and Ahab killed sheep and oxen in abundance for him and the people who were with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead. ³So Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?"

And he answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will be with you in the war."

⁴Also Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire for the word of the LORD today." ⁵Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?"

So they said, "Go up, for God will deliver it into the king's hand."

⁶But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of Him?"^a

⁷So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, because he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla."

And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say such things!"

⁸Then the king of Israel called one of his officers and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imla quickly!"

⁹The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, clothed in their robes, sat each on his throne; and they sat at a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. ¹⁰Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are destroyed.' "

¹¹And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."

¹²Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Therefore please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement."

¹³And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, whatever my God says, that I will speak."

¹⁴Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?"

And he said, "Go and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand!"

¹⁵So the king said to him, "How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

¹⁶Then he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, 'These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace.' "

¹⁷And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?”

¹⁸Then Micaiah said, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing on His right hand and His left.

¹⁹“And the LORD said, ‘Who will persuade Ahab king of Israel to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?’ So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner.

²⁰“Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, ‘I will persuade him.’ The LORD said to him, ‘In what way?’ ²¹“So he said, ‘I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ And the LORD said, ‘You shall persuade him and also prevail; go out and do so.’

²³Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, “Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?” ²⁴And Micaiah said, “Indeed you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!” ²⁵Then the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king’s son; ²⁶“and say, “Thus says the king: “Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction, until I return in peace.” ‘

²⁷But Micaiah said, “If you ever return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me.” And he said, “Take heed, all you people!”

Ahab Dies in Battle

²⁸So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. ²⁹And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

³⁰Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."

³¹So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "It is the king of Israel!" Therefore they surrounded him to attack; but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God diverted them from him. ³²For so it was, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. ³³Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded." ³⁴The battle increased that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Syrians until evening; and about the time of sunset he died.

Compromise: Sometimes There's No Room for Tolerance

2 Chronicles 18:1-31

There are times when tolerance cannot be tolerated. King Jehoshaphat formed an alliance with King Ahab of Israel to fight a common enemy, failing to understand that when you partner with an immoral or deceitful leader, you are asking for trouble. Moral failure impacts every part of leadership.

Chapter 19

¹Then Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned safely to his house in Jerusalem. ²And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Therefore the wrath of the LORD is upon you. ³"Nevertheless good things are found in you, in that you have removed the wooden images from the land, and have prepared your heart to seek God."

The Reforms of Jehoshaphat

⁴So Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the mountains of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD God of their fathers. ⁵Then he set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, ⁶and said to the judges, "Take heed to what you are doing, for you do not judge for man but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment. ⁷"Now therefore, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take care and do it, for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, no partiality, nor taking of bribes."

⁸Moreover in Jerusalem, for the judgment of the LORD and for controversies, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites and priests, and some of the chief fathers of Israel, when they returned to Jerusalem.^a ⁹And he commanded them, saying, "Thus you shall act in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and with a loyal heart: ¹⁰"Whatever case comes to you from your brethren who dwell in their cities, whether of bloodshed or offenses against law or commandment, against statutes or ordinances, you shall warn them, lest they trespass against the LORD and wrath come upon you and your brethren. Do this, and you will not be guilty. ¹¹"And take notice: Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters; also the Levites will be officials before you. Behave courageously, and the LORD will be with the good."

Chapter 20

Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir Defeated

¹It happened after this that the people of Moab with the people of Ammon, and others with them besides the Ammonites,^a came to battle against Jehoshaphat. ²Then some came and told Jehoshaphat, saying, “A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, from Syria;^a and they are in Hazazon Tamar” (which is En Gedi). ³And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. ⁴So Judah gathered together to ask help from the LORD; and from all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

⁵Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court, ⁶and said: “O LORD God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven, and do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and in Your hand is there not power and might, so that no one is able to withstand You? ⁷“Are You not our God, who drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and gave it to the descendants of Abraham Your friend forever? ⁸“And they dwell in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your name, saying, ⁹“If disaster comes upon us—sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine—

we will stand before this temple and in Your presence (for Your name is in this temple), and cry out to You in our affliction, and You will hear and save.’ ¹⁰“And now, here are the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir—whom You would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them and did not destroy them— ¹¹“here they are, rewarding us by coming to throw us out of Your possession which You have given us to inherit. ¹²“O our God, will You not judge them? For we have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are upon You.”

¹³Now all Judah, with their little ones, their wives, and their children, stood before the LORD.

¹⁴Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the assembly. ¹⁵And he said, “Listen, all you of Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you, King Jehoshaphat! Thus says the LORD to you: ‘Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God’s. ¹⁶“Tomorrow go down against them. They will surely come up by the Ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the brook before the Wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷‘You will not need to fight in this battle. Position yourselves, stand still and see the salvation of the LORD, who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem!’ Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, for the LORD is with you.”

¹⁸And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem bowed before the LORD, worshiping the LORD. ¹⁹Then the Levites of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with voices loud and high.

²⁰So they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem: Believe in the LORD your God, and you shall be established; believe His prophets, and you shall prosper."

²¹And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who should sing to the LORD, and who should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army and were saying:

"Praise the LORD,

For His mercy endures forever."^a

²²Now when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were defeated. ²³For the people of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to utterly kill and destroy them. And when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

²⁴So when Judah came to a place overlooking the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude; and there were their dead bodies, fallen on the earth. No one had escaped.

²⁵When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away their spoil, they found among them an abundance of valuables on the dead bodies,^a and precious jewelry, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away; and they were three days gathering the spoil because there was so much. ²⁶And on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Berachah, for there they blessed the LORD; therefore the name of that place was called The Valley of Berachah^a until this day. ²⁷Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat in front of them, to go back to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had made them rejoice over their enemies. ²⁸So they came to Jerusalem, with stringed instruments and harps and trumpets, to the house of the LORD. ²⁹And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰Then the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest all around.

RESPONSIBILITY

Leaders Cannot Give It Away.

2 Chronicles 20:1-25

A LEADER can delegate anything except responsibility. Leaders simply cannot give it away. They can model it; they can teach it; they can share it. But in the words of President Harry Truman, the buck stops with the leader.

Responsibility—"the ability to meet obligations; the act of being accountable; a duty of trust"—is one of the 21 Indispensable Qualities of a Leader. It's the ability to make and keep commitments.

When Jehoshaphat became king of Judah, he assumed a trust. Like all kings, he was to lead the people, protect the people, and manage the resources of the nation. Second Chronicles 20 records his greatest challenge to that point in his leadership. An army from three countries laid plans to attack Judah. Reports of their activity frightened the king (2 Chr. 20:3). No doubt, he faced the same options we all face in a crisis: give up, back up, or stand up. At such times we find out the quality of our leadership:

1. The dropouts: leaders who give up and fail to take responsibility.

2. The cop-outs: leaders who make excuses for why they aren't responsible.

3. The hold-outs: leaders who waiver too long to take responsibility.

4. The allouts: leaders who own the responsibility and take action.

What Steps Did Jehoshaphat Take?

Second Chronicles 20 provides us with a beautiful story of a human leader who did what was right. Consider the appropriate steps he took:

1. He fought his fear (vv. 2, 3).

Jehoshaphat was terrified, but he didn't let it paralyze him. He stayed calm enough to think.

2. He sought the Lord (vv. 3, 6-13).

Before he did anything else, he sought perspective by praying and seeking wisdom from God.

3. He brought the synergy (vv. 3, 4).

He didn't act alone, but gathered the people to inform them of the issue.

4. He caught the vision (vv. 14-17).

He listened to the voice of the Lord until he knew what to do.

5. He bought the idea (vv. 18, 19).

He bowed his head and began to embrace the steps he and his nation had to take.

6. He taught the plan (vv. 20-23).

He assembled the key players and gave them instructions on what each had to do.

7. He got the victory (vv. 24, 25).

He followed through with precision and succeeded, just as God predicted.

The End of Jehoshaphat's Reign

³¹So Jehoshaphat was king over Judah. He was thirtyfive years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ³²And he walked in the way of his father Asa, and did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD. ³³Nevertheless the high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.

³⁴Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

³⁵After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who acted very wickedly. ³⁶And he allied himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion Geber. ³⁷But Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works." Then the ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

PROFILE in Leadership

JEHOSHAPHAT
Finished Poorly by Forming Destructive Alliances

King Jehoshaphat of Judah handled a major national crisis the way any great leader should: by leading his people to God in prayer.

Judah faced almost certain defeat. A great army of Moabites, Ammonites, and others stood poised to attack. The badly outnumbered forces of Judah stared destruction in the face and trembled over their fate. In his most desperate hour, the king called his people from all over Judah to pray in Jerusalem for national deliverance. “We have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us,” he admitted to God, “nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are upon You” (2 Chr. 20:12).

The Lord answered Jehoshaphat’s prayers and miraculously delivered His people from death—and He did so without one soldier of Judah marching off to battle.

Sadly, the king did not spend all his years on the throne expressing such great faith. Late in his reign, Jehoshaphat allowed pagan influences to corrupt his people. He also made an unwise alliance with King Ahaziah of Israel, a wicked man who worshiped Baal (20:33, 35).

Jehoshaphat somehow forgot that God calls leaders not only to begin a race, but to finish it. That is the only way to stand in the winner’s circle at heaven’s reward ceremonies.

Chapter 21

Jehoram Reigns in Judah

¹And Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Jehoram his son reigned in his place. ²He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel. ³Their father gave them great gifts of silver and gold and precious things, with fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn.

⁴Now when Jehoram was established over the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself and killed all his brothers with the sword, and also others of the princes of Israel.

⁵Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ⁶And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for he had the daughter of Ahab as a wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD. ⁷Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that He had made with David, and since He had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons forever.

⁸In his days Edom revolted against Judah's authority, and made a king over themselves. ⁹So Jehoram went out with his officers, and all his chariots with him. And he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots. ¹⁰Thus Edom has been in revolt against Judah's authority to this day. At that time Libnah revolted against his rule, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers. ¹¹Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit harlotry, and led Judah astray.

¹²And a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying,

Thus says the LORD God of your father David:

Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, or in the ways of Asa king of Judah, ¹³but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the harlot like the harlotry of the house of Ahab, and also have killed your brothers, those of your father's household, who were better than yourself, ¹⁴behold, the LORD will strike your people with a serious affliction—your children, your wives, and all your possessions; ¹⁵and you will become very sick with a disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out by reason of the sickness, day by day.

¹⁶Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabians who were near the Ethiopians. ¹⁷And they came up into Judah and invaded it, and carried away all the possessions that were found in the king's house, and also his sons and his wives, so that there was not a son left to him except Jehoahaz, a the youngest of his sons.

¹⁸After all this the LORD struck him in his intestines with an incurable disease. ¹⁹Then it happened in the course of time, after the end of two years, that his intestines came out because of his sickness; so he died in severe pain. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning for his fathers.

²⁰He was thirty-two years old when he became king. He reigned in Jerusalem eight years and, to no one's sorrow, departed. However they buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

Chapter 22

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

¹Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place, for the raiders who came with the Arabians into the camp had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, reigned. ²Ahaziah was forty-two^a years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri. ³He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother advised him to do wickedly. ⁴Therefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab; for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction. ⁵He also followed their advice, and went with Jehoram^a the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram. ⁶Then he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which he had received at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah^a the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers who served Ahaziah, that he killed them. ⁹Then he searched for Ahaziah; and they caught him (he was hiding in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu. When they had killed him, they buried him, "because," they said, "he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart."

Servanthood: Leaders Serve Their People and Their Purpose

2 Chronicles 22:1-9

What impact can godless character have on leaders and nations? We find out in the life of King Ahaziah.

The young king and several other political and military leaders lost their lives and their positions through a self-centered pursuit of power. This chapter is a negative example of a positive truth, the Law of Addition: Leaders are to add value, not take it away. These leaders forgot that they must serve their people and their purpose. Leaders are not given authority to better themselves, to enlarge their income or social status, or to improve their standard of living. They are first and always servants of others.

This biblical idea appears throughout the Scripture, but finds special emphasis in the Gospels through the teaching of Jesus Christ. Consider what our Lord teaches us about servant leadership:

Human Economy • God's Economy

Pursuit of power and prestige • Pursuit of love and service to others

Improve wealth and status of the leader • Improve the welfare of the people

See others as enemies and competitors • See others as brothers who complement

Motive is to remove or kill opposition • Motive is to meet needs and grow the cause

The result: the leader is glorified • The result: God is glorified

So the house of Ahaziah had no one to assume power over the kingdom.

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

¹⁰Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs of the house of Judah. ¹¹But Jehoshabeath, a the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered, and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah so that she did not kill him. ¹²And he was hidden with them in the house of God for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

Chapter 23

Joash Crowned King of Judah

¹In the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and made a covenant with the captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri. ²And they went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the chief fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

³Then all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has said of the sons of David.

⁸So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each man took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest had not dismissed the divisions. ⁹And Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had belonged to King David, that were in the temple of God. ¹⁰Then he set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and by the temple, all around the king. ¹¹And they brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, gave him the Testimony,^a and made him king. Then Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, "Long live the king!"

Death of Athaliah

¹²Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people in the temple of the LORD. ¹³*When* she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance; and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, also the singers with musical instruments, and those who led in praise. So Athaliah tore her clothes and said, "Treason! Treason!"

¹⁴And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Take her outside under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her." For the priest had said, "Do not kill her in the house of the LORD."

¹⁵So they seized her; and she went by way of the entrance of the Horse Gate into the king's house, and they killed her there.

PROFILE in Leadership

ATHALIAH

Pursuing Power Rather Than Love

2 Chronicles 22:10-23:15

Some leaders step into positions of power out of love and a sense of mission. Others seek leadership merely to gain power over others and to revel in a smug feeling of superiority. Normally it doesn't take long to determine which sort of leader you've got.

It took no time at all to decide in the case of Athaliah.

As soon as she heard that her son, King Ahaziah, had been killed by Jehu, "she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs of the house of Judah" (2 Chr. 22:10)—including all her grandsons. She missed only one, Joash, who escaped her murderous rampage only when a godly young woman named Jehoshabeath hid him in the house of God for six years. Athaliah did not care in the slightest that God had promised His people that the Messiah would come through the royal line of David.

This is a picture of a leader so thirsty for power that she would do anything to attain and hold her illegitimate title—including murdering her own kin. Athaliah ruled over Judah for seven years. In the end, the people violently removed her from power (23:12-15).

Queen Athaliah is an extreme example of a leader motivated not by love, but by power, prestige, and position. It never takes long to spot the difference.

¹⁶Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, the people, and the king, that they should be the LORD's people. ¹⁷And all the people went to the temple^a of Baal, and tore it down. They broke in pieces its altars and images, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. ¹⁸Also Jehoiada appointed the oversight of the house of the LORD to the hand of the priests, the Levites, whom David had assigned in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was established by David. ¹⁹And he set the gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the LORD, so that no one who was in any way unclean should enter.

²⁰Then he took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD; and they went through the Upper Gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom. ²¹So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

Joash Repairs the Temple

¹Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. ²Joash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest. ³And Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.

⁴Now it happened after this that Joash set his heart on repairing the house of the LORD. ⁵Then he gathered the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather from all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that you do it quickly."

However the Levites did not do it quickly. ⁶So the king called Jehoiada the chief priest, and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD and of the assembly of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?" ⁷For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God, and had also presented all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD to the Baals.

⁸Then at the king's command they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of the LORD. ⁹And they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God had imposed on Israel in the wilderness. ¹⁰Then all the leaders and all the people rejoiced, brought their contributions, and put them into the chest until all had given. ¹¹So it was, at that time, when the chest was brought to the king's official by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, that the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it and returned it to its place. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

¹²The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also those who worked in iron and bronze to restore the house of the LORD. ¹³So the workmen labored, and the work was completed by them; they restored the house of God to its original condition and reinforced it. ¹⁴When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; they made from it articles for the house of the LORD, articles for serving and offering, spoons and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

Apostasy of Joash

¹⁵But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; he was one hundred and thirty years old when he died.

¹⁶And they buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God and His house.

¹⁷Now after the death of Jehoiada the leaders of Judah came and bowed down to the king. And the king listened to them. ¹⁸Therefore they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served wooden images and idols; and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem because of their trespass. ¹⁹Yet He sent prophets to them, to bring them back to the LORD; and they testified against them, but they would not listen.

Motives: Why You Do Determines What You Do

2 Chronicles 24:4-18

As a young man, Joash committed himself to restoring the temple. He remained true as long as the high priest Jehoiada was alive. When Jehoiada died, however, the king abandoned the temple and worshiped idols. Why we do something ultimately determines what we do.

²⁰Then the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, who stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God: 'Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD, so that you cannot prosper? Because you have forsaken the LORD, He also has forsaken you.' " ²¹So they conspired against him, and at the command of the king they stoned him with stones in the court of the house of the LORD. ²²Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son; and as he died, he said, "The LORD look on it, and repay!"

Death of Joash

²³So it happened in the spring of the year that the army of Syria came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the leaders of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus. ²⁴For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men; but the LORD delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash. ²⁵And when they had withdrawn from him (for they left him severely wounded), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the sons^a of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed. So he died. And they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

²⁶These are the ones who conspired against him: Zabad^a the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith^b the Moabitess. ²⁷Now concerning his sons, and the many oracles about him, and the repairing of the house of God, indeed they are written in the annals of the book of the kings. Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 25

Amaziah Reigns in Judah

¹Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. ²And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a loyal heart.

³Now it happened, as soon as the kingdom was established for him, that he executed his servants who had murdered his father the king. ⁴However he did not execute their children, but did as it is written in the Law in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall the children be put to death for their fathers; but a person shall die for his own sin."^a

The War Against Edom

⁵Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together and set over them captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, according to their fathers' houses, throughout all Judah and Benjamin; and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them to be three hundred thousand choice men, able to go to war, who could handle spear and shield. ⁶He also hired one hundred thousand mighty men of valor from Israel for one hundred talents of silver. ⁷But a man of God came to him, saying, “O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel—not with any of the children of Ephraim. ⁸“But if you go, be gone! Be strong in battle! Even so, God shall make you fall before the enemy; for God has power to help and to overthrow.”

⁹Then Amaziah said to the man of God, “But what shall we do about the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?”

And the man of God answered, “The LORD is able to give you much more than this.” ¹⁰So Amaziah discharged the troops that had come to him from Ephraim, to go back home. Therefore their anger was greatly aroused against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

¹¹Then Amaziah strengthened himself, and leading his people, he went to the Valley of Salt and killed ten thousand of the people of Seir. ¹²Also the children of Judah took captive ten thousand alive, brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were dashed in pieces.

¹³But as for the soldiers of the army which Amaziah had discharged, so that they would not go with him to battle, they raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth Horon, killed three thousand in them, and took much spoil.

¹⁴Now it was so, after Amaziah came from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the people of Seir, set them up to be his gods, and bowed down before them and burned incense to them. ¹⁵Therefore the anger of the LORD was aroused against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, “Why have you sought the gods of the people, which could not rescue their own people from your hand?”

¹⁶So it was, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, “Have we made you the king’s counselor? Cease! Why should you be killed?”

Then the prophet ceased, and said, “I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not heeded my advice.”

Israel Defeats Judah

¹⁷Now Amaziah king of Judah asked advice and sent to Joash^a the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, “Come, let us face one another in battle.”

¹⁸And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son as wife’; and a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle. ¹⁹“Indeed you say that you have defeated the Edomites, and your heart is lifted up to boast. Stay at home now; why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall—you and Judah with you?”

²⁰But Amaziah would not heed, for it came from God, that He might give them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought the gods of Edom. ²¹So Joash king of Israel went out; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. ²²And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent. ²³Then Joash the king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh; and he brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate—four hundred cubits. ²⁴And he took all the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of God with Obed-Edom, the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Death of Amaziah

²⁵Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel. ²⁶Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, indeed are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? ²⁷After the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there. ²⁸Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of Judah.

Chapter 26

Uzziah Reigns in Judah

¹Now all the people of Judah took Uzziah,^a who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

²He built Elath^a and restored it to Judah, after the king rested with his fathers.

³Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem. ⁴And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. ⁵He sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions^a of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him prosper.

⁶Now he went out and made war against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities around Ashdod and among the Philistines. ⁷God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal, and against the Meunites. ⁸Also the Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziah. His fame spread as far as the entrance of Egypt, for he became exceedingly strong.

⁹And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress of the wall; then he fortified them. ¹⁰Also he built towers in the desert. He dug many wells, for he had much livestock, both in the lowlands and in the plains; he also had farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in Carmel, for he loved the soil.

¹¹Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men who went out to war by companies, according to the number on their roll as prepared by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. ¹²The total number of chief officers^a of the mighty men of valor was two thousand six hundred. ¹³And under their authority was an army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. ¹⁴Then Uzziah prepared for them, for the entire army, shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows, and slings to cast stones. ¹⁵And he made devices in Jerusalem, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and large stones. So his fame spread far and wide, for he was marvelously helped till he became strong.

The Penalty for Uzziah's Pride

¹⁶But when he was strong his heart was lifted up, to his destruction, for he transgressed against the LORD his God by entering the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense. ¹⁷So Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him were eighty priests of the LORD—valiant men. ¹⁸And they withstood King Uzziah, and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed! You shall have no honor from the LORD God."

¹⁹Then Uzziah became furious; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense. And while he was angry with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead, before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the incense altar.

²⁰And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and there, on his forehead, he was leprous; so they thrust him out of that place. Indeed he also hurried to get out, because the LORD had struck him.

²¹King Uzziah was a leper until the day of his death. He dwelt in an isolated house, because he was a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD. Then Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

²²Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from first to last, the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz wrote. ²³So Uzziah rested with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." Then Jotham his son reigned in his place.

PROFILE in Leadership

UZZIAH

Built His Military, Later His Own Power

2 Chronicles 26:1-23

The ancient kings of Israel and Judah died centuries ago, yet like all leaders, the choices they made nearly always reflected their true character. Uzziah's reign mirrored that of Asa, Josiah, and Amaziah—it began very strong and ended in disgrace.

In the early years, Uzziah displayed strong, godly leadership skills. The Lord blessed him with military success. During this time, his inner circle included a godly spiritual counselor, Zechariah, who exerted significant influence for good. Uzziah sought after God, and the Lord prospered him.

As Uzziah's kingdom and wealth increased, however, he lost focus. His priorities shifted to personal success and fame rather than the things that delighted God's heart. His eyes drifted from God, and sin blinded his actions.

Like many highly successful leaders, Uzziah developed an attitude of superiority. He exhibited an astonishing lack of discernment when he usurped the priestly role by offering incense in the temple. A raw desire for power consumed his soul, and the king intentionally stepped out of his God-ordained role. As a result, Uzziah left a legacy of disgrace. The Word of God says of him: "He dwelt in an isolated house, because he was a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD" (2 Chr. 26:21). A sad ending to a promising start.

Jotham Reigns in Judah

¹Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah^a the daughter of Zadok. ²And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done (although he did not enter the temple of the LORD). But still the people acted corruptly.

³He built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD, and he built extensively on the wall of Ophel. ⁴Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers. ⁵He also fought with the king of the Ammonites and defeated them. And the people of Ammon gave him in that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand kors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The people of Ammon paid this to him in the second and third years also. ⁶So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

⁷Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. ⁸He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. ⁹So Jotham rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

Ahaz Reigns in Judah

¹Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD, as his father David had done. ²For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made molded images for the Baals. ³He burned incense in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and burned his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. ⁴And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

Syria and Israel Defeat Judah

⁵Therefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. They defeated him, and carried away a great multitude of them as captives, and brought them to Damascus. Then he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who defeated him with a great slaughter. ⁶For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed one hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

⁷Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the officer over the house, and Elkanah who was second to the king. ⁸And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand women, sons, and daughters; and they also took away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

Israel Returns the Captives

⁹But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the army that came to Samaria, and said to them: "Look, because the LORD God of your fathers was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hand; but you have killed them in a rage that reaches up to heaven. ¹⁰"And now you propose to force the children of Judah and Jerusalem to be your male and female slaves; but are you not also guilty before the LORD your God? ¹¹"Now hear me, therefore, and return the captives, whom you have taken captive from your brethren, for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you."

¹²Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war, ¹³and said to them, "You shall not bring the captives here, for we already have offended the LORD. You intend to add to our sins and to our guilt; for our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel." ¹⁴So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the leaders and all the assembly. ¹⁵Then the men who were designated by name rose up and took the captives, and from the spoil they clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them and gave them sandals, gave them food and drink, and anointed them; and they let all the feeble ones ride on donkeys. So they brought them to their brethren at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

Assyria Refuses to Help Judah

¹⁶At the same time King Ahaz sent to the kings^a of Assyria to help him. ¹⁷For again the Edomites had come, attacked Judah, and carried away captives. ¹⁸The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Sochoh with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages; and they dwelt there. ¹⁹For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had encouraged moral decline in Judah and had been continually unfaithful to the LORD. ²⁰Also Tiglath-Pileser^a king of Assyria came to him and distressed him, and did not assist him. ²¹For Ahaz took part of the treasures from the house of the LORD, from the house of the king, and from the leaders, and he gave it to the king of Assyria; but he did not help him.

Apostasy and Death of Ahaz

²²Now in the time of his distress King Ahaz became increasingly unfaithful to the LORD. This is that King Ahaz. ²³For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him, saying, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me.” But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel. ²⁴So Ahaz gathered the articles of the house of God, cut in pieces the articles of the house of God, shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and made for himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem. ²⁵And in every single city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

²⁶Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷So Ahaz rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem; but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 29

Hezekiah Reigns in Judah

¹Hezekiah became king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah^a the daughter of Zechariah. ²And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

Hezekiah Cleanses the Temple

³In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them. ⁴Then he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them in the East Square, ⁵and said to them: "Hear me, Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry out the rubbish from the holy place. ⁶"For our fathers have trespassed and done evil in the eyes of the LORD our God; they have forsaken Him, have turned their faces away from the dwelling place of the LORD, and turned their backs on Him. ⁷"They have also shut up the doors of the vestibule, put out the lamps, and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.

⁸“Therefore the wrath of the LORD fell upon Judah and Jerusalem, and He has given them up to trouble, to desolation, and to jeering, as you see with your eyes. ⁹“For indeed, because of this our fathers have fallen by the sword; and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity. ¹⁰“Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His fierce wrath may turn away from us. ¹¹“My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and that you should minister to Him and burn incense.”

¹²Then these Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah; ¹³of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; ¹⁴of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

¹⁵And they gathered their brethren, sanctified themselves, and went according to the commandment of the king, at the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD. ¹⁶Then the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and brought out all the debris that they found in the temple of the LORD to the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it out and carried it to the Brook Kidron.

¹⁷Now they began to sanctify on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the vestibule of the LORD. So they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

¹⁸Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, “We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offerings with all its articles, and the table of the showbread with all its articles. ¹⁹“Moreover all the articles which King

Ahaz in his reign had cast aside in his transgression we have prepared and sanctified; and there they are, before the altar of the LORD.”

Hezekiah Restores Temple Worship

²⁰Then King Hezekiah rose early, gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. ²¹And they brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. Then he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD. ²²So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. Likewise they killed the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They also killed the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar. ²³Then they brought out the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them. ²⁴And the priests killed them; and they presented their blood on the altar as a sin offering to make an atonement for all Israel, for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering be made for all Israel.

sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. ²⁹And when they had finished offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed and worshiped. ³⁰Moreover King Hezekiah and the leaders commanded the Levites to sing praise to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped.

³¹Then Hezekiah answered and said, “Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near, and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD.” So the assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings. ³²And the number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. ³³The consecrated things were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep. ³⁴But the priests were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings; therefore their brethren the Levites helped them until the work was ended and until the other priests had sanctified themselves, for the Levites were more diligent in sanctifying themselves than the priests. ³⁵Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering.

So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. ³⁶Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced that God had prepared the people, since the events took place so suddenly.

The Law of the Picture: Leaders Are Examples, Not Exceptions

2 Chronicles 29:1-36

Far too often, leaders drift. Once they get some experience under their belt and a track record of accomplishments, they often abandon the lifestyle that helped them reach the top. They chafe under the very rules that they established or endorsed. They continue to call the people to follow them, but they see themselves as exceptions to the rules, not examples of keeping the rules.

Sadly, leaders like these forget the Law of the Picture: People do what people see. If they want to succeed, leaders must incarnate the life they desire in their followers.

Hezekiah teaches us this principle. He inherited an unholy mess left by his father, King Ahaz. He repaired the temple, restored legitimate worship, removed the idols, repented for the people, and required a change in the land. Once the population saw his example of worship, they followed suit.

Second Chronicles 29 ends with these wonderful words: “Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced that God had prepared the people, since the events took place so suddenly” (v. 36). These events took place so quickly not only because of a sovereign God who replaced Ahaz with the king’s godly son, but because Hezekiah modeled the life he expected of others.

Hezekiah Keeps the Passover

¹And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel. ²For the king and his leaders and all the assembly in Jerusalem had agreed to keep the Passover in the second month. ³For they could not keep it at the regular time,^a because a sufficient number of priests had not consecrated themselves, nor had the people gathered together at Jerusalem. ⁴And the matter pleased the king and all the assembly. ⁵So they resolved to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem, since they had not done it for a long time in the prescribed manner.

⁶Then the runners went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the king and his leaders, and spoke according to the command of the king: “Children of Israel, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel; then He will return to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria. ⁷“And do not be like your fathers and your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, so that He gave them up to desolation, as you see. ⁸“Now do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD; and enter His sanctuary, which He has sanctified forever, and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you. ⁹"For if you return to the LORD, your brethren and your children will be treated with compassion by those who lead them captive, so that they may come back to this land; for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn His face from you if you return to Him."

¹⁰So the runners passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun; but they laughed at them and mocked them. ¹¹Nevertheless some from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem. ¹²Also the hand of God was on Judah to give them singleness of heart to obey the command of the king and the leaders, at the word of the LORD.

¹³Now many people, a very great assembly, gathered at Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month. ¹⁴They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and they took away all the incense altars and cast them into the Brook Kidron. ¹⁵Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought the burnt offerings to the house of the LORD. ¹⁶They stood in their place according to their custom, according to the Law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood received from the hand of the Levites. ¹⁷For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves; therefore the Levites had charge of the slaughter of the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD. ¹⁸For a multitude of the people, many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD provide atonement for everyone ¹⁹*who* prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he is not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary." ²⁰And the LORD listened to Hezekiah and healed the people.

²³Then the whole assembly agreed to keep the feast another seven days, and they kept it another seven days with gladness. ²⁴For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the leaders gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and a great number of priests sanctified themselves. ²⁵The whole assembly of Judah rejoiced, also the priests and Levites, all the assembly that came from Israel, the sojourners who came from the land of Israel, and those who dwelt in Judah. ²⁶So there was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem. ²⁷Then the priests, the Levites, arose and blessed the people, and their voice was heard; and their prayer came up to His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

The Reforms of Hezekiah

¹Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke the sacred pillars in pieces, cut down the wooden images, and threw down the high places and the altars—from all Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh—until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned to their own cities, every man to his possession.

²And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites according to their divisions, each man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and peace offerings, to serve, to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp^a of the LORD. ³The king also appointed a portion of his possessions for the burnt offerings: for the morning and evening burnt offerings, the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and the New Moons and the set feasts, as it is written in the Law of the LORD.

⁴Moreover he commanded the people who dwelt in Jerusalem to contribute support for the priests and the Levites, that they might devote themselves to the Law of the LORD.

⁵As soon as the commandment was circulated, the children of Israel brought in abundance the firstfruits of grain and wine, oil and honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything. ⁶And the children of Israel and Judah, who dwelt in the cities of Judah, brought the tithe of oxen and sheep; also the tithe of holy things which were consecrated to the LORD their God they laid in heaps.

⁷In the third month they began laying them in heaps, and they finished in the seventh month. ⁸And when Hezekiah and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel. ⁹Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. ¹⁰And Azariah the chief priest, from the house of Zadok, answered him and said, "Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and have plenty left, for the LORD has blessed His people; and what is left is this great abundance."

¹¹Now Hezekiah commanded them to prepare rooms in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them. ¹²Then they faithfully brought in the offerings, the tithes, and the dedicated things; Cononiah the Levite had charge of them, and Shimei his brother was the next. ¹³Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the ruler of the house of God. ¹⁴Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the East Gate, was over the freewill offerings to God, to distribute the offerings of the LORD and the most holy things. ¹⁵And under him were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, his faithful assistants in the cities of the priests, to distribute allotments to their brethren by divisions, to the great as well as the small.

¹⁶Besides those males from three years old and up who were written in the genealogy, they distributed to everyone who entered the house of the LORD his daily portion for the work of his service, by his division, ¹⁷and to the priests who were written in the genealogy according to their father's house, and to the Levites from twenty years old and up according to their work, by their divisions, ¹⁸and to all who were written in the genealogy—their little ones and their wives, their sons and daughters, the whole company of them—for in their faithfulness they sanctified themselves in holiness.

¹⁹Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the common-lands of their cities, in every single city, there were men who were designated by name to distribute portions to all the males among the priests and to all who were listed by genealogies among the Levites.

²⁰Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah, and he did what was good and right and true before the LORD his God.

²¹And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, in the law and in the commandment, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart. So he prospered.

Commitment: Hezekiah Has What It Takes

2 Chronicles 31:20, 21

The Bible describes King Hezekiah as a leader who “did what was good and right and true before the LORD his God. And in every work that he began... he did it with all his heart. So he prospered” (2 Chr. 31:20, 21).

Hezekiah paid the price to get the job done. But what is the price of commitment?

1. Change of lifestyle: Hezekiah couldn't live the way his father lived.

2. Loneliness: Hezekiah stepped out in obedience, alone at first.

3. Faith in God: Hezekiah believed that God would bless his efforts.

4. Criticism: Hezekiah weathered the harsh questions of an older generation.

5. Hard work and money: The king gave up time, energy, and budget to reach his goal.

6. Daily discipline: Hezekiah had to instill a daily regimen to bring about reform.

7. Constant pressure: The king endured the pressure of potential failure and misunderstanding.

Chapter 32

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

¹After these deeds of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered Judah; he encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them over to himself. ²And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that his purpose was to make war against Jerusalem, ³he consulted with his leaders and commanders^a to stop the water from the springs which were outside the city; and they helped him. ⁴Thus many people gathered together who stopped all the springs and the brook that ran through the land, saying, “Why should the kings^a of Assyria come and find much water?” ⁵And he strengthened himself, built up all the wall that was broken, raised it up to the towers, and built another wall outside; also he repaired the Millo^a in the City of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. ⁶Then he set military captains over the people, gathered them together to him in the open square of the city gate, and gave them encouragement, saying, ⁷“Be strong and courageous; do not be afraid nor dismayed before the king of Assyria, nor before all the multitude that is with him; for there are more with us than with him. ⁸“With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles.” And the people were strengthened by the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

⁹After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem (but he and all the forces with him laid siege against Lachish), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying, ¹⁰“Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria: ‘In what do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem? ¹¹‘Does not Hezekiah persuade you to give yourselves over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, “The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria”? ¹²‘Has not the same Hezekiah taken away His high places and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, “You shall worship before one altar and burn incense on it”? ¹³‘Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands in any way able to deliver their lands out of my hand? ¹⁴‘Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed that could deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand? ¹⁵‘Now therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or persuade you like this, and do not believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand?’ ”

¹⁶Furthermore, his servants spoke against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah.

¹⁷He also wrote letters to revile the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, “As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver His people from my hand.” ¹⁸Then they called out with a loud voice in Hebrew^a to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them and trouble them, that they might take the city. ¹⁹And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth—the work of men’s hands.

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

²⁰Now because of this King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, prayed and cried out to heaven.

²¹Then the LORD sent an angel who cut down every mighty man of valor, leader, and captain in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned shamefaced to his own land. And when he had gone into the temple of his god, some of his own offspring struck him down with the sword there.

²²Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them a on every side. ²³And many brought gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations thereafter.

Hezekiah humbles Himself

²⁴In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death, and he prayed to the LORD; and He spoke to him and gave him a sign. ²⁵But Hezekiah did not repay according to the favor shown him, for his heart was lifted up; therefore wrath was looming over him and over Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

Hezekiah's Wealth and Honor

²⁷Hezekiah had very great riches and honor. And he made himself treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of desirable items; ²⁸storehouses for the harvest of grain, wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of livestock, and folds for flocks.^a ²⁹Moreover he provided cities for himself, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much property. ³⁰This same Hezekiah also stopped the water outlet of Upper Gihon, and brought the water by tunnel^a to the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

³¹However, regarding the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, whom they sent to him to inquire about the wonder that was done in the land, God withdrew from him, in order to test him, that He might know all that was in his heart.

Death of Hezekiah

³²Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, indeed they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ³³So Hezekiah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 33

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

¹Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. ²But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. ³For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; he raised up altars for the Baals, and made wooden images; and he worshiped all the host of heaven^a and served them. ⁴He also built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, “In Jerusalem shall My name be forever.” ⁵And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. ⁶Also he caused his sons to pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom; he practiced soothsaying, used witchcraft and sorcery, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger. ⁷He even set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, “In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever; ⁸“and I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for your fathers—only if they are careful to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.”

⁹So Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

Manasseh Restored After Repentance

¹⁰And the LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they would not listen. ¹¹Therefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh with hooks, ^a bound him with bronze fetters, and carried him off to Babylon. ¹²Now when he was in affliction, he implored the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, ¹³and prayed to Him; and He received his entreaty, heard his supplication, and brought him back to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

¹⁴After this he built a wall outside the City of David on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate; and it enclosed Ophel, and he raised it to a very great height. Then he put military captains in all the fortified cities of Judah. ¹⁵He took away the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem; and he cast them out of the city. ¹⁶He also repaired the altar of the LORD, sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings on it, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. ¹⁷Nevertheless the people still sacrificed on the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

Death of Manasseh

¹⁸Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, indeed they are written in the book^a of the kings of Israel. ¹⁹Also his prayer and how God received his entreaty, and all his sin and trespass, and the sites where he built high places and set up wooden images and carved images, before he was humbled, indeed they are written among the sayings of Hozai.^a ²⁰So Manasseh rested with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

Amon's Reign and Death

²¹Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. ²²But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done; for Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and served them. ²³And he did not humble himself before the LORD, as his father Manasseh had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.

²⁴Then his servants conspired against him, and killed him in his own house. ²⁵But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

Chapter 34

Josiah Reigns in Judah

¹Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. ²And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. ³For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images. ⁴They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and the incense altars which were above them he cut down; and the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images he broke in pieces, and made dust of them and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. ⁵He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶And so he did in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, as far as Naphtali and all around, with axes.^a ⁷When he had broken down the altars and the wooden images, had beaten the carved images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

⁸In the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the temple,^a he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. ⁹When they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites who kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, from all the remnant of Israel, from all Judah and Benjamin, and which they had brought back to Jerusalem. ¹⁰Then they put it in the hand of the foremen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they gave it to the workmen who worked in the house of the LORD, to repair and restore the house. ¹¹They gave it to the craftsmen and builders to buy hewn stone and timber for beams, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. ¹²And the men did the work faithfully. Their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to supervise. Others of the Levites, all of whom were skillful with instruments of music, ¹³*were* over the burden bearers and were overseers of all who did work in any kind of service. And some of the Levites were scribes, officers, and gatekeepers.

¹⁴Now when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD given by Moses. ¹⁵Then Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan. ¹⁶So Shaphan carried the book to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "All that was committed to your servants they are doing. ¹⁷"And they have gathered the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the workmen." ¹⁸Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

¹⁹Thus it happened, when the king heard the words of the Law, that he tore his clothes. ²⁰Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon^a the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying, ²¹"Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for those who are left in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book."

²²So Hilkiah and those the king had appointed went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath,^a the son of Hasrah,^b keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke to her to that effect. ²³Then she answered them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Tell the man who sent you to Me, ²⁴'Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah, ²⁵'because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath will be poured out on this place, and not be quenched.' " ' ²⁶"But as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, in this manner you shall speak to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Concerning the words which you have heard— ²⁷"because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before Me, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you,” says the LORD. ²⁸“Surely I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the calamity which I will bring on this place and its inhabitants.” ‘ ’ So they brought back word to the king.

Josiah Restores True Worship

²⁹Then the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰The king went up to the house of the LORD, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem—the priests and the Levites, and all the people, great and small. And he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD. ³¹Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. ³²And he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin take a stand. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. ³³Thus Josiah removed all the abominations from all the country that belonged to the children of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel diligently serve the LORD their God. All his days they did not depart from following the LORD God of their fathers.

JOSIAH

Personal Repentance Precedes Public Reform

2 Chronicles 34:3-33

As the leader goes, so go the people. Over and over in the history of Israel, we see that pattern repeated—for both evil and good.

When young King Josiah heard the words of God's long-forgotten law, sorrow gripped his heart (2 Chr. 34:8, 15, 19-21). He tore his clothes in repentance and directed several godly men to petition the Lord to see what he needed to do.

For years already Josiah had busied himself doing everything he could to purify the kingdom from idolatry. He had ordered images of Baal, altars to false gods, and other religious shrines destroyed. He even burned the bones of deceased pagan priests over their altars. And then he turned his attention toward purifying and renovating the temple.

God saw the repentant heart of Judah's king and told Josiah that He would withhold His wrath against the people until after Josiah had died. The genuine repentance of this godly leader led to changes in behavior among the people of Judah. They, too, renewed their covenant with the God of their ancestors. And for the rest of Josiah's life, the people stayed devoted to the Lord and His law.

Such is the power of a leader modeling godliness. As the leader goes, so go the people—for good or for evil.

Josiah Keeps the Passover

¹Now Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the first month. ²And he set the priests in their duties and encouraged them for the service of the house of the LORD. ³Then he said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to the LORD: "Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built. It shall no longer be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel. ⁴"Prepare yourselves according to your fathers' houses, according to your divisions, following the written instruction of David king of Israel and the written instruction of Solomon his son. ⁵"And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brethren the lay people, and according to the division of the father's house of the Levites. ⁶"So slaughter the Passover offerings, consecrate yourselves, and prepare them for your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses."

⁷Then Josiah gave the lay people lambs and young goats from the flock, all for Passover offerings for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, as well as three thousand cattle; these were from the king's possessions.

⁸And his leaders gave willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred from the flock, and three hundred cattle. ⁹Also Conaniah, his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave to the Levites for Passover offerings five thousand from the flock and five hundred cattle.

¹⁰So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their places, and the Levites in their divisions, according to the king's command. ¹¹And they slaughtered the Passover offerings; and the priests sprinkled the blood with their hands, while the Levites skinned the animals. ¹²Then they removed the burnt offerings that they might give them to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the lay people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses. And so they did with the cattle. ¹³Also they roasted the Passover offerings with fire according to the ordinance; but the other holy offerings they boiled in pots, in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them quickly among all the lay people. ¹⁴Then afterward they prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy in offering burnt offerings and fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron. ¹⁵And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their places, according to the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. Also the gatekeepers were at each gate; they did not have to leave their position, because their brethren the Levites prepared portions for them.

¹⁶So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah. ¹⁷And the children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days. ¹⁸There had been no Passover kept in Israel like that since the days of Samuel the prophet; and none of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as Josiah kept, with the priests and the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover was kept.

21 LAWS

JOSIAH AND THE LAW OF VICTORY

Leaders Find a Way for the Team to Win

2 Chronicles 34:3-35:19

HAVE YOU ever thought about what separates the leaders who achieve victory from those who suffer defeat? What does it take to be a winner? Victorious leaders share an inability to accept defeat. The alternative to winning seems totally unacceptable to them, so they figure out what must be done to achieve victory, and then they go after it with everything at their disposal.

Leaders who practice the Law of Victory believe that anything less than success is unacceptable. And they have no Plan B. That keeps them fighting.

Winning is an inside job. The team that achieves victory is the one that first wins its internal battles. And the first one to face and win these internal battles is the leader.

Achieving a Personal Victory

How does a leader seek victory over self? Consider how Josiah conquered himself:

1. He remained open and teachable.

Leaders who remain willing to learn and open to change put themselves in a position to win. Josiah demonstrated that kind of openness and teachability. As a 16-year-old, instead of trying to convince everyone that he knew it all, he humbled himself. He departed from the ways of his arrogant father and sought God.

2. He removed obstacles carried forward from the past.

All leaders have to deal with baggage. One way or another, a leader has to win battles involving past problems. For Josiah, a major battle involved idol worship, a problem since the time of King Solomon. He courageously swept the country clean of idols. As you seek victory in your organization, you must face and overcome problems from the past. They may be ineffective traditions, incompetent players who need to be released, errors in judgment, or unrepented-of sins. Whatever they are, you must find the courage to face and resolve them.

3. He realized what he needed to give and gave it.

Victory always carries a personal cost. For Josiah, that meant repairing the temple and reinstating the Passover. Out of his own holdings, he gave thirty thousand lambs and young goats and three thousand cattle to be sacrificed (2 Chr. 35:7, 18).

4. He recognized the key to victory. Every leader must find the key to victory. For Josiah, that key was repentance. After the Book of the Law was discovered and read, he genuinely repented of his own sins and of those of his people, then prompted his countrymen to follow his lead. Every leadership situation contains a key to victory. If you are the leader, you must find that key and turn it.

5. He retained a personal commitment to succeed.

People never become more committed than their leader. Josiah's personal commitment inspired the people to be faithful despite their evil desires and history (2 Chr. 34:31). If members of an organization discover they have greater commitment than their leaders, they will find another organization with another leader.

Helping Others Break Through for Victory

If you're fighting the necessary inside battles, you are putting yourself in the best place to lead your team to victory. But that may not be enough. For your organization to reach the next level, your people need their own breakthroughs. Here's a good way to help them achieve their own triumphs:

1. Understand breakthrough timing.

There are three prime times for leading people to a breakthrough. People are ripe for a change when...

- they hurt enough that they need a breakthrough.
- they learn enough that they want a breakthrough.
- they receive enough that they are able to break through.

Provide your people with learning opportunities, give them resources and encouragement, and pay attention to where they are mentally, spiritually, and emotionally. Then, when they're ready, give a little nudge to help them over the hump.

2. Pray for a breakthrough.

The best thing you can do for your people is to pray for them. The eminent evangelist John Wesley observed, "God does nothing but in answer to prayer." Ask God for a breakthrough. Then ask God to help you do your part, to reveal to the people their part, and to fulfill His part.

3. Become a breakthrough person.

If you show what it means to be a breakthrough person, your people will value breakthroughs. Most breakthrough people exhibit these qualities.

- Vulnerability: They realize they aren't perfect, they can't do it all, and they need God to make up the difference.

- Humility: They're not out to prove anything and they don't care who gets the credit. They're glad to share the spotlight with others.

- Transparency : They live their lives as open books. They admit where they're coming short as well as where God is working in their lives.

4. Find breakthrough leaders.

Gathering strong leaders adept at breakthroughs can make a difference in your organization. It's like having a team of breakthrough catalysts working alongside you.

If you want a winning team, you must have winning players. The best way to do that is to create breakthroughs. If you can become a breakthrough person who leads a team of breakthrough leaders who oversee an organization filled with breakthrough people, then victory becomes almost inevitable.

Josiah Dies in Battle

²⁰After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates; and Josiah went out against him. ²¹But he sent messengers to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, king of Judah? I have not come against you this day, but against the house with which I have war; for God commanded me to make haste. Refrain from meddling with God, who is with me, lest He destroy you." ²²Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself so that he might fight with him, and did not heed the words of Necho from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the Valley of Megiddo.

²³And the archers shot King Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am severely wounded."

²⁴His servants therefore took him out of that chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had, and they brought him to Jerusalem. So he died, and was buried in one of the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

²⁵Jeremiah also lamented for Josiah. And to this day all the singing men and the singing women speak of Josiah in their lamentations. They made it a custom in Israel; and indeed they are written in the Laments.

²⁶Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his goodness, according to what was written in the Law of the LORD, ²⁷and his deeds from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Chapter 36

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoahaz

¹Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem. ²Jehoahaz^a was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. ³Now the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. ⁴Then the king of Egypt made Jehoahaz's^a brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz^b his brother and carried him off to Egypt.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiakim

⁵Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God. ⁶Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him, and bound him in bronze fetters to carry him off to Babylon. ⁷Nebuchadnezzar also carried off some of the articles from the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. ⁸Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, the abominations which he did, and what was found against him, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiachin

⁹Jehoiachin was eight^a years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months and ten days. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD. ¹⁰At the turn of the year King Nebuchadnezzar summoned him and took him to Babylon, with the costly articles from the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah, Jehoiakim's^a brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Zedekiah Reigns in Judah

¹¹Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. ¹²He did evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the LORD. ¹³And he also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear an oath by God; but he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel. ¹⁴Moreover all the leaders of the priests and the people transgressed more and more, according to all the abominations of the nations, and defiled the house of the LORD which He had consecrated in Jerusalem.

The Fall of Jerusalem

¹⁵And the LORD God of their fathers sent warnings to them by His messengers, rising up early and sending them, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place. ¹⁶But they mocked the messengers of God, despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against His people, till there was no remedy.

¹⁷Therefore He brought against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, on the aged or the weak; He gave them all into his hand. ¹⁸And all the articles from the house of God, great and small, the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his leaders, all these he took to Babylon. ¹⁹Then they burned the house of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its precious possessions. ²⁰And those who escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon, where they became servants to him and his sons until the rule of the kingdom of Persia, ²¹to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths. As long as she lay desolate she kept Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.

The Proclamation of Cyrus

²²Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of

Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

²³Thus says Cyrus king of Persia:

All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD God of heaven has given me. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah. Who is among you of all His people? May the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up!

The Book of Ezra

Introduction to Ezra

The scribe Ezra and the cupbearer-turned-building-contractor Nehemiah both led the Jews in their return from Babylonian captivity to Israel. Their leadership roles complemented one another.

Nehemiah restored the people's hope as he enabled them to rebuild the Jerusalem wall in record time. Ezra restored their faith as he enabled them to become "people of the Book" once more. Ezra helped supervise the reconstruction of the Jerusalem temple in anticipation of the restoration of Israel's true worship.

While Zerubbabel led the first group of Jews back to Jerusalem to rebuild the temple, Ezra led a second group. God had commissioned him to rebuild the temple worship. Both men had to endure tremendous discouragement, yet overcame long odds to reach their goals. Both displayed tenacious leadership.

Like some other Old Testament leaders, Ezra might be considered a "teaching leader" who led mostly with his word gifts. He organized and directed and provided vision for the people. He shepherded those who were prone to wander. But more than anything, he used his teaching gift to lead the people back to where they belonged spiritually.

Ezra not only spoke, he wrote. Many believe that he wrote four biblical books: 1 and 2 Chronicles, Ezra, and Nehemiah. He also delivered sermons that communicated God's dream of gathering His people to Himself again in the Holy City.

His leadership skills appear throughout this book. Perhaps we could best describe him in four words:

1. Pioneer: Ezra blazed the trail and helped the Jews restart their temple worship.
2. Model: Ezra committed himself first to study God's Word, then to practice it, then to communicate it to the rest of Israel.
3. Catalyst: Ezra's courage and decisiveness in the face of opposition prompted the Jews to finish the work they had started.
4. Teacher: Ezra put into understandable words the very thoughts of God.

The Jews Return from Babylonian Captivity to Israel

God's Role in Ezra

The Book of Ezra records the fulfillment of God's promise through Jeremiah to bring the Israelites back to their land after 70 years of captivity.

God provided direction to a variety of leaders. First, He led the leaders of Persia. God softened the hearts of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes to let the Jews return to Jerusalem and rebuild their lives, both physically and spiritually. Second, He directed Ezra, Zerubbabel, and Nehemiah as they led the Jews in their return to faith in God. More than any other man, Ezra shaped the returning Jews into the spiritual leaders God intended for them to be. Through the protection of the three Persian kings and the leadership of such great and godly Jews as Zerubbabel, Joshua, Haggai, Zechariah, and Ezra, the people completed the second temple, and true worship at last returned to Jerusalem.

Lessons in Leadership

- God's leadership may seem subtle or absent, but He steadily finishes the work He starts.
- Both courage and fear are contagious.
- In times of conflict, leaders must act decisively.
- If workers are to give their perspiration, leaders must give them inspiration.
- Most people need a catalyst before they'll do anything risky.
- Incarnational leadership studies the truth, practices the truth, then teaches the truth.

Chapter 1

End of The Babylonian Captivity

¹Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

²Thus says Cyrus king of Persia:

All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD God of heaven has given me. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah. ³Who is among you of all His people? May his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel (He is God), which is in Jerusalem. ⁴And whoever is left in any place where he dwells, let the men of his place help him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, besides the freewill offerings for the house of God which is in Jerusalem.

⁵Then the heads of the fathers' houses of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and the Levites, with all whose spirits God had moved, arose to go up and build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem. ⁶And all those who were around them encouraged them with articles of silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

⁷King Cyrus also brought out the articles of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem and put in the temple of his gods; ⁸and Cyrus king of Persia brought them out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah. ⁹This is the number of them: thirty gold platters, one thousand silver platters, twenty-nine knives, ¹⁰thirty gold basins, four hundred and ten silver basins of a similar kind, and one thousand other articles. ¹¹All the articles of gold and silver were five thousand four hundred. All these Sheshbazzar took with the captives who were brought from Babylon to Jerusalem.

The Law of Connection: Cyrus Rules People by Relating to Them

Ezra 1:1-7

Unlike King Rehoboam, the Persian king Cyrus was able to connect with God's people. He first displayed mercy and then identified with the values and heart of his people. This allowed him to strengthen his reign

What enabled King Cyrus to connect with the people? Ezra tells us he practiced...

1. Humility: He realized his power came from God and should honor God (v. 2).

2. Responsibility: He felt strongly he should build a place of worship for the Jews (v. 2).

3. Empowerment: He allowed those who had a heart to build to fulfill their call (v. 3).

4. Resources: He issued a decree to support the builders (v. 4).

5. Stewardship: He managed people's gifts, enabling them to play to their strengths (v. 5).

6. Priorities: He valued what was most important to the people (v. 7).

It was no accident that Cyrus arose to help Israel. Many years before these events transpired, God predicted through the prophet Isaiah that Cyrus would "subdue nations before him and loose the armor of kings." He declared, "For Jacob My servant's sake, and Israel My elect, I have even called you by your name; I have named you, though you have not known Me. I am the LORD, and there is no other; there is no God besides Me" (Is. 45:1, 4, 5).

Chapter 2

The Captives Who Returned to Jerusalem

¹Now^a these are the people of the province who came back from the captivity, of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, everyone to his own city.

²*Those* who came with Zerubbabel were Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar,^a Bigvai, Rehum,^b and Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel: ³the people of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two; ⁴the people of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two; ⁵the people of Arah, seven hundred and seventy-five; ⁶the people of Pahath-Moab, of the people of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve; ⁷the people of Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four; ⁸the people of Zattu, nine hundred and forty-five; ⁹the people of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty; ¹⁰the people of Bani,^a six hundred and forty-two; ¹¹the people of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-three; ¹²the people of Azgad, one thousand two hundred and twenty-two; ¹³the people of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-six; ¹⁴the people of Bigvai, two thousand and fifty-six; ¹⁵the people of Adin, four hundred and fifty-four; ¹⁶the people of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety-eight; ¹⁷the people of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-three; ¹⁸the people of Jorah,^a one hundred and twelve; ¹⁹the people of Hashum, two hundred and twenty-three; ²⁰the people of Gibbar,^a ninety-five; ²¹the people of Bethlehem, one hundred and twenty-three; ²²the men of Netophah, fifty-six; ²³the men of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight; ²⁴the people of Azmaveth,^a forty-two; ²⁵the people of Kirjath Arim,^a Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three; ²⁶the people of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one; ²⁷the men of Michmas, one hundred and twenty-two; ²⁸the men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred and twenty-three; ²⁹the people of Nebo, fifty-two; ³⁰the people of Magbish, one hundred and fifty-six; ³¹the people of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four; ³²the people of Harim, three hundred and twenty; ³³the people of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-five; ³⁴the people of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five; ³⁵the people of Senaah, three thousand six hundred and thirty.

³⁶The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three; ³⁷the sons of Immer, one thousand and fifty-two; ³⁸the sons of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven; ³⁹the sons of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.

⁴⁰The Levites: the sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodaviah,^a seventy-four.

⁴¹The singers: the sons of Asaph, one hundred and twenty-eight.

⁴²The sons of the gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, and the sons of Shobai, one hundred and thirty-nine in all.

⁴³The Nethinim: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁴the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha,^a the sons of Padon, ⁴⁵the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub, ⁴⁶the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shalmal, the sons of Hanan, ⁴⁷the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah, ⁴⁸the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, ⁴⁹the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai, ⁵⁰the sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephusim,^a ⁵¹the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵²the sons of Bazluth,^a the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵³the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Tamah, ⁵⁴the sons of Neziah, and the sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁹And these were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addan,^a and Immer; but they could not identify their father's house or their genealogy,^b whether they were of Israel: ⁶⁰the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and fifty-two; ⁶¹and of the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz,^a and the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name. ⁶²These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but they were not found; therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as defiled. ⁶³And the governor^a said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things till a priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁴The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty, ⁶⁵besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred men and women singers. ⁶⁶Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five, ⁶⁷their camels four hundred and thirtyfive, and their donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

⁷⁰So the priests and the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Chapter 3

Worship Restored at Jerusalem

¹And when the seventh month had come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem. ²Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak^a and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brethren, arose and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the Law of Moses the man of God. ³Though fear had come upon them because of the people of those countries, they set the altar on its bases; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening burnt offerings. ⁴They also kept the Feast of Tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings in the number required by ordinance for each day. ⁵Afterwards they offered the regular burnt offering, and those for New Moons and for all the appointed feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and those of everyone who willingly offered a freewill offering to the LORD. ⁶From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, although the foundation of the temple of the LORD had not been laid. ⁷They also gave money to the masons and the carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre to bring cedar logs from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the permission which they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

Courage: People Need Permission to Take Risks

Ezra 3:7

Most people need permission to take a risk. By issuing his proclamation, King Cyrus modeled another leadership principle.

Cyrus issued a decree to all the Jews that they could return to their homeland and begin life again there. You might think that every Jew would jump at this opportunity to leave a land of captivity and go home, but out of a population of hundreds of thousands of Jews (in 538 B.C.), only 49,897 responded to the offer. The ones who did return gave up a life of comfort and familiarity to pursue a life of rebuilding.

A risk like this is tough for most people. Usually, a leader must step forward and give men and women permission to take a risk, step out, and make sacrifices. Most people generally take the path of least resistance and migrate toward comfort zones. This is why leaders must both model courage and call forth courage from others.

Restoration of the Temple Begins

⁸Now in the second month of the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, Jeshua the son of Jozadak,^a and the rest of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began work and appointed the Levites from twenty years old and above to oversee the work of the house of the LORD. ⁹Then Jeshua with his sons and brothers, Kadmiel with his sons, and the sons of Judah,^a arose as one to oversee those working on the house of God: the sons of Henadad with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

¹⁰When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests stood^a in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the ordinance of David king of Israel. ¹¹And they sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the LORD:

“For He is good,

For His mercy endures forever toward Israel.”^a

Then all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

¹²But many of the priests and Levites and heads of the fathers’ houses, old men who had seen the first temple, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this temple was laid before their eyes. Yet many shouted aloud for joy, ¹³so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard afar off.

Chapter 4

Resistance to Rebuilding the Temple

¹Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the descendants of the captivity were building the temple of the LORD God of Israel, ²they came to Zerubbabel and the heads of the fathers' houses, and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we seek your God as you do; and we have sacrificed to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here." ³But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of the fathers' houses of Israel said to them, "You may do nothing with us to build a house for our God; but we alone will build to the LORD God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us." ⁴Then the people of the land tried to discourage the people of Judah. They troubled them in building, ⁵and hired counselors against them to frustrate their purpose all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Discernment: Zerubbabel Reads the People, Then Acts

Ezra 4:1-3

Leaders must practice discernment. Relationships can get messy; people often harbor personal agendas and attempt to mask their true motives or to make them sound more noble than they really are.

Such was the case when a group of outsiders approached Zerubbabel and offered to help. “Let us build with you, for we seek your God as you do; and we have sacrificed to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here,” they said (Ezra 4:2). Zerubbabel sized them up and read the situation perfectly. He quickly recognized these folks had really arrived only to discourage and poison the minds of the builders. His relational discernment kept these negative influences from infiltrating the flock.

Leaders must read the people, then lead the people. They must understand the timing, the people, the situation, and the priorities, then act accordingly. Their action depends upon how they read these factors. Discernment always precedes decision. Analysis always precedes action.

Rebuilding of Jerusalem Opposed

⁶In the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

⁷In the days of Artaxerxes also, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabel, and the rest of their companions wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the letter was written in Aramaic script, and translated into the Aramaic language. ⁸Rehum^a the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes in this fashion:

⁹From^a Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions—representatives of the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the people of Persia and Erech and Babylon and Shushan,^b the Dehavites, the Elamites, ¹⁰and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnapper took captive and settled in the cities of Samaria and the remainder beyond the River^a —and so forth.^b

¹¹(This is a copy of the letter that they sent him)

To King Artaxerxes from your servants, the men of the region beyond the River, and so forth:^a ¹²Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem, and are building the rebellious and evil city, and are finishing its walls and repairing the foundations. ¹³Let it now be known to the king that, if this city is built and the walls completed, they will not pay tax, tribute, or custom, and the king's treasury will be diminished.¹⁴Now because we receive support from the palace, it was not proper for us to see the king's dishonor; therefore we have sent and informed the king,¹⁵that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. And you will find in the book of the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces, and that they have incited sedition within the city in former times, for which cause this city was destroyed.

¹⁶We inform the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, the result will be that you will have no dominion beyond the River.

¹⁷The king sent an answer:

To Rehum the commander, to Shimshai the scribe, to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and to the remainder beyond the River:

Peace, and so forth.^a

¹⁸*The letter which you sent to us has been clearly read before me.* ¹⁹*And I gave the command, and a search has been made, and it was found that this city in former times has revolted against kings, and rebellion and sedition have been fostered in it.* ²⁰*There have also been mighty kings over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all the region beyond the River; and tax, tribute, and custom were paid to them.* ²¹*Now give the command to make these men cease, that this city may not be built until the command is given by me.*

²²*Take heed now that you do not fail to do this. Why should damage increase to the hurt of the kings?*

²³Now when the copy of King Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem against the Jews, and by force of arms made them cease.

²⁴Thus the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem ceased, and it was discontinued until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Chapter 5

Restoration of the Temple Resumed

¹Then the prophet Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophets, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them. ²So Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak^a rose up and began to build the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and the prophets of God were with them, helping them.

³At the same time Tattenai the governor of the region beyond the River^a and Shethar-Boznai and their companions came to them and spoke thus to them: “Who has commanded you to build this temple and finish this wall?” ⁴Then, accordingly, we told them the names of the men who were constructing this building. ⁵But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, so that they could not make them cease till a report could go to Darius. Then a written answer was returned concerning this matter.

⁶This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai sent:

The governor of the region beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai, and his companions, the Persians who were in the region beyond the River, to Darius the king.

⁷(They sent a letter to him, in which was written thus)

To Darius the king:

All peace.

⁸Let it be known to the king that we went into the province of Judea, to the temple of the great God, which is being built with heavy stones, and timber is being laid in the walls; and this work goes on diligently and prospers in their hands.

⁹Then we asked those elders, and spoke thus to them: "Who commanded you to build this temple and to finish these walls?"¹⁰We also asked them their names to inform you, that we might write the names of the men who were chief among them.

¹¹And thus they returned us an answer, saying: "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and completed."¹²"But because our fathers provoked the God of heaven to wrath, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and carried the people away to Babylon."¹³"However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to build this house of God."¹⁴"Also, the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple that was in Jerusalem and carried into the temple of Babylon—those King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon, and they were given to one named Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor."¹⁵"And he said to him, 'Take these articles; go, carry them to the temple site that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its former site.'¹⁶"Then the same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem; but from that time even until now it has been under construction, and it is not finished."

¹⁷Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, let a search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there in Babylon, whether it is so that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send us his pleasure concerning this matter.

Chapter 6

The Decree of Darius

¹Then King Darius issued a decree, and a search was made in the archives,^a where the treasures were stored in Babylon. ²And at Achmetha,^a in the palace that is in the province of Media, a scroll was found, and in it a record was written thus:

³In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem: “Let the house be rebuilt, the place where they offered sacrifices; and let the foundations of it be firmly laid, its height sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits,⁴with three rows of heavy stones and one row of new timber. Let the expenses be paid from the king’s treasury.⁵Also let the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple which is in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and taken back to the temple which is in Jerusalem, each to its place; and deposit them in the house of God”—

⁶Now therefore, Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai, and your companions the Persians who are beyond the River, keep yourselves far from there.⁷Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God on its site.

⁸Moreover I issue a decree as to what you shall do for the elders of these Jews, for the building of this house of God: Let the cost be paid at the king's expense from taxes on the region beyond the River; this is to be given immediately to these men, so that they are not hindered.⁹And whatever they need—young bulls, rams, and lambs for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the request of the priests who are in Jerusalem—let it be given them day by day without fail,¹⁰that they may offer sacrifices of sweet aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

¹¹Also I issue a decree that whoever alters this edict, let a timber be pulled from his house and erected, and let him be hanged on it; and let his house be made a refuse heap because of this. ¹²And may the God who causes His name to dwell there destroy any king or people who put their hand to alter it, or to destroy this house of God which is in Jerusalem. I Darius issue a decree; let it be done diligently.

The Temple Completed and Dedicated

¹³Then Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, Shethar-Boznai, and their companions diligently did according to what King Darius had sent. ¹⁴So the elders of the Jews built, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the command of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. ¹⁵Now the temple was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius. ¹⁶Then the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites and the rest of the descendants of the captivity, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy. ¹⁷And they offered sacrifices at the dedication of this house of God, one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁸They assigned the priests to their divisions and the Levites to their divisions, over the service of God in Jerusalem, as it is written in the Book of Moses.

Zechariah Learns Motivation Comes Before Mobilization

Ezra 6:14

Opposition and conflict delayed temple construction for 14 years. Only the leadership of Haggai and Zechariah motivated the people to finish what they had begun. Leaders make sure the team follows through on what it begins. Through the influence of these two prophets, construction was completed in 516 B.C.

The Passover Celebrated

¹⁹And the descendants of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. ²⁰For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves; all of them were ritually clean. And they slaughtered the Passover lambs for all the descendants of the captivity, for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. ²¹Then the children of Israel who had returned from the captivity ate together with all who had separated themselves from the filth of the nations of the land in order to seek the LORD God of Israel. ²²And they kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy; for the LORD made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

The Arrival of Ezra

¹Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, ²the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, ³the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, ⁴the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, ⁵the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest— ⁶this Ezra came up from Babylon; and he was a skilled scribe in the Law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given. The king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him. ⁷*Some* of the children of Israel, the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes. ⁸And Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. ⁹On the first day of the first month he began his journey from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him. ¹⁰For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach statutes and ordinances in Israel.

PROFILE in Leadership

EZRA

Many Years of Doing the Right Thing

Ezra 7:6-10

Even at a young age, Ezra diligently studied and learned to become a scholar. He won the respect of many, including the political leader of the land of his exile, King Artaxerxes. Although Ezra's passion and vision centered on Jerusalem, he clearly kept himself busy doing God's work while in exile. He established his connections and influence over time—a necessary step if the dream of restoring Jerusalem were to be fulfilled.

As a result of many years of consistently doing the right thing, the king finally trusted Ezra with great power and resources, acknowledging his character qualities in writing. He provided all that Ezra needed to get the job done.

Ezra led many Israelites back to Jerusalem during this time of restoration. As a spiritual leader, Ezra had prepared, studied, and connected with many ordinary Jews, and his pronounced influence prompted many to follow him to Jerusalem. Ezra did not utilize his power, intellect, and influence for personal gain, but rather to restore Jerusalem.

When Ezra arrived in Jerusalem and found that a remnant of Jews had disobeyed God and polluted the bloodlines of His people, he did not shrink from making the tough call (Ezra 9; 10). Throughout his life, Ezra exercised the very best leadership qualities with both passion and zeal, which God utilized to fulfill His call.

The Letter of Artaxerxes to Ezra

¹¹This is a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave Ezra the priest, the scribe, expert in the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of His statutes to Israel:

¹²*Artaxerxes, a king of kings,*

To Ezra the priest, a scribe of the Law of the God of heaven:

Perfect peace, and so forth. b

¹³*I issue a decree that all those of the people of Israel and the priests and Levites in my realm, who volunteer to go up to Jerusalem, may go with you.*¹⁴*And whereas you are being sent by the king and his seven counselors to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, with regard to the Law of your God which is in your hand;*¹⁵*and whereas you are to carry the silver and gold which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem;*¹⁶*and whereas all the silver and gold that you may find in all the province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and the priests, are to be freely offered for the house of their God in Jerusalem—*¹⁷*now therefore, be careful to buy with this money bulls, rams, and lambs, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.*

¹⁸*And whatever seems good to you and your brethren to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do it according to the will of your God.*¹⁹*Also the articles that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.*²⁰*And whatever more may be needed for the* house of your God, which you may have occasion to provide, pay for it from the king's treasury.

²¹And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, issue a decree to all the treasurers who are in the region beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may require of you, let it be done diligently,²²up to one hundred talents of silver, one hundred kors of wheat, one hundred baths of wine, one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribed limit.²³Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it diligently be done for the house of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

²⁴Also we inform you that it shall not be lawful to impose tax, tribute, or custom on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God.²⁵And you, Ezra, according to your God-given wisdom, set magistrates and judges who may judge all the people who are in the region beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and teach those who do not know them.²⁶Whoever will not observe the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily on him, whether it be death, or banishment, or confiscation of goods, or imprisonment.

²⁷Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, ²⁸and has extended mercy to me before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes.

So I was encouraged, as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me; and I gathered leading men of Israel to go up with me.

Ezra: Being Before Doing

Ezra 7:10

On the basis of King Artaxerxes' decree, Ezra traveled from Babylon to Jerusalem (Ezra 7:1-10). As a priest, he felt committed to establishing spiritual priorities among the people, especially as it pertained to their new temple. One verse reflects the heart of a leader fully committed to his God: "For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach statutes and ordinances in Israel" (7:10). Do you see the order of priorities in his leadership?

1. Learn it: Ezra studied and discovered the truth himself.

2. Live it: Ezra practiced and applied what he had learned.

3. Loan it: Ezra passed on to others what he had already embraced.

Successful leaders must learn to follow Ezra's model. Dwight L. Moody suggested the greatest tragedy of his day was that Christian leaders attempted to traffic in unlived truth. It is our tragedy as well. We cannot give away what we don't incarnate. We must import truth before we export truth. God wants to construct our "being" before our "doing."

Chapter 8

Heads of Families Who Returned with Ezra

¹These are the heads of their fathers' houses, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of King Artaxerxes: ²of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, Hattush; ³of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and registered with him were one hundred and fifty males; ⁴of the sons of Pahath-Moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males; ⁵of the sons of Shechaniah,^a Ben-Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males; ⁶of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males; ⁷of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males; ⁸of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him eighty males; ⁹of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males; ¹⁰of the sons of Shelomith,^a Ben-Josiphiah, and with him one hundred and sixty males; ¹¹of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight males; ¹²of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him one hundred and ten males; ¹³of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these—

Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah—and with them sixty males;
¹⁴also of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

Servants for the Temple

¹⁵Now I gathered them by the river that flows to Ahava, and we camped there three days. And I looked among the people and the priests, and found none of the sons of Levi there. ¹⁶Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, leaders; also for Joiarib and Elnathan, men of understanding. ¹⁷And I gave them a command for Iddo the chief man at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say to Iddo and his brethren^a the Nethinim at the place Casiphia—that they should bring us servants for the house of our God. ¹⁸Then, by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, with his sons and brothers, eighteen men; ¹⁹and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty men; ²⁰also of the Nethinim, whom David and the leaders had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim. All of them were designated by name.

Fasting and Prayer for Protection

²¹Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river of Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from

Him the right way for us and our little ones and all our possessions. ²²For I was ashamed to request of the king an escort of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the road, because we had spoken to the king, saying, “The hand of our God is upon all those for good who seek Him, but His power and His wrath are against all those who forsake Him.” ²³So we fasted and entreated our God for this, and He answered our prayer.

Gifts for the Temple

²⁴And I separated twelve of the leaders of the priests—Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them — ²⁵and weighed out to them the silver, the gold, and the articles, the offering for the house of our God which the king and his counselors and his princes, and all Israel who were present, had offered. ²⁶I weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, silver articles weighing one hundred talents, one hundred talents of gold, ²⁷twenty gold basins worth a thousand drachmas, and two vessels of fine polished bronze, precious as gold. ²⁸And I said to them, “You are holy to the LORD; the articles are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers. ²⁹“Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the leaders of the priests and the Levites and heads of the fathers’ houses of Israel in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.” ³⁰So the priests and the Levites received the silver and the gold and the articles by weight, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

The Return to Jerusalem

³¹Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was upon us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the road. ³²So we came to Jerusalem, and stayed there three days.

³³Now on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the articles were weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; with them were the Levites, Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui, ³⁴with the number and weight of everything. All the weight was written down at that time.

³⁵The children of those who had been carried away captive, who had come from the captivity, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

³⁶And they delivered the king's orders to the king's satraps and the governors in the region beyond the River. So they gave support to the people and the house of God.

Chapter 9

Intermarriage with Pagans

¹When these things were done, the leaders came to me, saying, “The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, with respect to the abominations of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. ²“For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, so that the holy seed is mixed with the peoples of those lands. Indeed, the hand of the leaders and rulers has been foremost in this trespass.” ³So when I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked out some of the hair of my head and beard, and sat down astonished. ⁴Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel assembled to me, because of the transgression of those who had been carried away captive, and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

⁵At the evening sacrifice I arose from my fasting; and having torn my garment and my robe, I fell on my knees and spread out my hands to the LORD my God. ⁶And I said: “O my God, I am too ashamed and humiliated to lift up my face to You, my God; for our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has grown up to the heavens. ⁷“Since the days of our fathers to this day we have been very guilty, and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to humiliation, as it is this day. ⁸“And now for a little while grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a peg in His holy place, that our God may enlighten our eyes and give us a measure of revival in our bondage. ⁹“For we were slaves. Yet our God did not forsake us in our bondage; but He extended mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to revive us, to repair the house of our God, to rebuild its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem. ¹⁰“And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments, ¹¹“which You commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, ‘The land which you are entering to possess is an unclean land, with the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from one end to another with their impurity. ¹²‘Now therefore, do not give your daughters as wives for their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons; and never seek their peace or prosperity, that you may be strong and eat the good of the land, and leave it as an inheritance to your children forever.’ ¹³“And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since You our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such deliverance as this, ¹⁴“should we again break Your commandments, and join in marriage with the people committing these abominations? Would You not be angry with us until You had consumed us, so that there would be no remnant or survivor? ¹⁵“O LORD God of Israel, You are righteous, for we are left as a remnant, as it is this day. Here we are before You, in our guilt, though no one can stand before You because of this!”

Chapter 10

Confession of Improper Marriages

¹Now while Ezra was praying, and while he was confessing, weeping, and bowing down before the house of God, a very large assembly of men, women, and children gathered to him from Israel; for the people wept very bitterly. ²And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, spoke up and said to Ezra, "We have trespassed against our God, and have taken pagan wives from the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope in Israel in spite of this. ³"Now therefore, let us make a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and those who have been born to them, according to the advice of my master and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law. ⁴"Arise, for this matter is your responsibility. We also are with you. Be of good courage, and do it."

⁵Then Ezra arose, and made the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel swear an oath that they would do according to this word. So they swore an oath. ⁶Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib; and when he came there, he ate no bread and drank no water, for he mourned because of the guilt of those from the captivity.

⁹So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered at Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth of the month; and all the people sat in the open square of the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of heavy rain. ¹⁰Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have transgressed and have taken pagan wives, adding to the guilt of Israel. ¹¹"Now therefore, make confession to the LORD God of your fathers, and do His will; separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the pagan wives."

¹²Then all the assembly answered and said with a loud voice, "Yes! As you have said, so we must do. ¹³"But there are many people; it is the season for heavy rain, and we are not able to stand outside. Nor is this the work of one or two days, for there are many of us who have transgressed in this matter. ¹⁴"Please, let the leaders of our entire assembly stand; and let all those in our cities who have taken pagan wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of their cities, until the fierce wrath of our God is turned away from us in this matter." ¹⁵Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah opposed this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite gave them support.

¹⁶Then the descendants of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain heads of the fathers' households, were set apart by the fathers' households, each of them by name; and they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. ¹⁷By the first day of the first month they finished questioning all the men who had taken pagan wives.

Pagan Wives Put Away

¹⁸And among the sons of the priests who had taken pagan wives the following were found of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak,^a and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah. ¹⁹And they gave their promise that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they presented a ram of the flock as their trespass offering.

²⁰Also of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah; ²¹of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziah; ²²of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

²³Also of the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (the same is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

²⁴Also of the singers: Eliashib; and of the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

²⁵And others of Israel: of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, Jeziah, Malchiah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah; ²⁶of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Eliah; ²⁷of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza; ²⁸of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai; ²⁹of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Ramoth;^a ³⁰of the sons of Pahath-Moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh; ³¹of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³²Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah; ³³of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei; ³⁴of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel, ³⁵Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluh,^a ³⁶Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, ³⁷Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasai,^a ³⁸Bani, Binnui, Shimei, ³⁹Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah, ⁴⁰Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, ⁴¹Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah, ⁴²Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph; ⁴³of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai,^a Joel, and Benaiah.

⁴⁴All these had taken pagan wives, and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

Ezra Shows Us the Law of the Picture

Ezra 9:1-10:44

Like all great leaders, we see Ezra demonstrating the number one management principle in the world, the Law of the Picture: People do what people see. When Ezra heard of the sin and compromise of the Israelites, he mourned and fasted. He then took logical steps to bring about change. The steps he took are transferable, and led to the repentance of a nation. Ponder the sequence of events in this example of pure leadership:

1. He felt genuine remorse over national sin (10:6).
2. He issued a proclamation for the Jews to gather in Jerusalem (10:7).
3. He spoke clearly and directly concerning the issue (10:10).
4. He challenged the people to repent and change (10:11).

5. He accepted a plan for leaders to meet with the transgressors (10:13-17).

6. He started with the leaders who failed, then moved to the people (10:18-24).

7. He brought about public repentance and reformation (10:25-44).

The Book of Nehemiah

Introduction to Nehemiah

The man saw a need, rose up, captured a vision, laid a plan, and mobilized others to join him in his cause. In a nutshell, that's the story of Nehemiah, a classic case study in leadership.

In fact, one distinctive of Nehemiah is that no overt miracles occur in the book. Nobody is healed or raised from the dead. God simply answers prayer by providing a leader with favor, strength, and wisdom. Then the work of God is fleshed out in the day-to-day grind of committed workers under one man's gifted leadership—ordinary people enjoying God's blessing as they follow a gifted leader. If you want a study in the fundamentals of leadership, this book is a good place to begin.

A contemporary of Ezra, Nehemiah served as cupbearer for King Artaxerxes. He instinctively understood the laws of navigation, connection, timing, buy-in, priorities, the “big mo,” and victory; you see them all in action in these few chapters.

One day Nehemiah heard that the walls surrounding Jerusalem lay in ruins, a disgrace to the Hebrews. Other nations mocked them. This terrible news burdened Nehemiah, and he knew something had to be done. Once he decided to take on the rebuilding project, the walls that for years had been nothing but rubble were completed in just 52 days.

Nehemiah stationed workers in logical positions, and they all labored successfully until they finished the work. Yet it took a coach for them to work as a team. Israel had never lacked for workers; what the nation needed was a leader to chart the course and set the people in motion. Zerubbabel had led the way to restore Jerusalem's temple; Ezra led the way to restore Jerusalem's worship. Now, a new leader was needed to restore Jerusalem's walls.

Under Nehemiah's leadership, the Jews received a permit for the rebuilding job, gathered the resources, identified workers' gifts, assigned positions, overcame criticism, and labored until the walls stood firm and tall once more. And it all happened in record time.

In a Nutshell—a Classic Case Study in Leadership

God's Role in Nehemiah

God works behind the scenes to set up Nehemiah's success. He influences the influencers.

When Nehemiah began to weep and pray over the disgrace of Jerusalem's ruins, God furnished him with the vision to rebuild the wall. Then God provided favor as Nehemiah sought permission from the king to leave his post and return to Jerusalem to inspect the city. Through the wealth of the Persian Empire, God even supplied the resources Nehemiah would need for rebuilding the wall.

While this book provides extremely pragmatic lessons in sound leadership principles, God remains clearly visible from the beginning. Before he did anything else, Nehemiah took time to pray. Each step of the way, Nehemiah sought the Lord for direction. As the walls rose, so did the hopes of the Jews living in Jerusalem. They saw the rebuilt walls as a symbol that God had not abandoned them and was ready to restore their lives.

Lessons in Leadership

- You cannot separate good leadership from clear vision.
- Lasting leaders feel the burden of a need before they receive the vision to meet it.
- Leaders act from a deep sense of responsibility.
- The greater the preparation, the easier the motivation.
- Leaders are more fulfilled by empowering others than by doing the work themselves.

Chapter 1

Nehemiah Prays for His People

¹The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah.

It came to pass in the month of Chislew, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan^a the citadel, ²that Hanani one of my brethren came with men from Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who had survived the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. ³And they said to me, "The survivors who are left from the captivity in the province are there in great distress and reproach. The wall of Jerusalem is also broken down, and its gates are burned with fire."

⁴So it was, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned for many days; I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

Nehemiah Prays First!

Nehemiah 1:4

When Nehemiah heard that the walls of Jerusalem lay in ruins, that its charred gates sat rotting, and that the Jewish survivors lived in distress and reproach, he did what every great leader must do: He fasted and prayed.

Something powerful happens when a leader prays and stands in the gap for his people. Intercession must always be a primary role for a leader. The apostle Peter once declared his top two leadership priorities: prayer and the ministry of God's Word (Acts 6:4). A leader's prayer accomplishes four things:

1. Prayer internalizes the burden, deepening our ownership of a need.
2. Prayer insists that we quiet our hearts and wait, slowing us down to receive from God.
3. Prayer infuses the vision, enabling us to see what God wants to do.
4. Prayer initiates the vision's fulfillment, acting as a catalyst for us to act.

⁵And I said: "I pray, LORD God of heaven, O great and awesome God, You who keep Your covenant and mercy with those who love You^a and observe Your^b commandments, ⁶"please let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open, that You may hear the prayer of Your servant which I pray before You now, day and night, for the children of Israel Your servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel which we have sinned against You. Both my father's house and I have sinned. ⁷"We have acted very corruptly against You, and have not kept the commandments, the statutes, nor the ordinances which You commanded Your servant Moses. ⁸"Remember, I pray, the word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations;^a ⁹'but if you return to Me, and keep My commandments and do them, though some of you were cast out to the farthest part of the heavens, yet I will gather them from there, and bring them to the place which I have chosen as a dwelling for My name.’^a ¹⁰“Now these are Your servants and Your people, whom You have redeemed by Your great power, and by Your strong hand. ¹¹“O Lord, I pray, please let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants who desire to fear Your name; and let Your servant prosper this day, I pray, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man.”

For I was the king’s cupbearer.

21 LAWS

NEHEMIAH AND THE LAW OF NAVIGATION

Anyone Can Steer the Ship, but It Takes a Leader to Chart the Course

Nehemiah 1:1-3:32

LEADERS WHO navigate do even more than control the direction in which they and their people travel. They see the whole trip in their minds before they leave the dock. They have a vision for their destination, they understand what it will take to get there, they know who they’ll need on the team to be successful, and they recognize the obstacles long before they appear on the horizon.

Sometimes it’s difficult balancing optimism and realism, intuition and planning, faith and fact. But that’s what it takes to be effective as a navigating leader.

Above everything else, the secret to the Law of Navigation is preparation. When you prepare well, you convey confidence and trust to the people. It’s not the size of the project that determines its acceptance, support, and success. It's the size of the leader. Leaders who are good navigators are capable of taking their people just about anywhere.

It seems remarkable, but Nehemiah could see both the problem and the solution even though he had never visited Jerusalem. That's an incredible characteristic of all great leaders: They have uncommon vision. And that's why they can navigate groups of people.

A leader sees...

- Farther than others see. Nehemiah was able to see the problem even though he lived hundreds of miles away from Jerusalem. And he could picture the solution in his head.

- More than others see. Nehemiah knew that the wall could and should be rebuilt, and he knew what it would take to do it. Before he left Shushan, he asked the king to provide him with letters allowing him to gather materials and granting him safe passage to Judah.

- Before others see. None of Jerusalem's neighbors wanted to see the Jews rebuild their wall, and several enemy leaders conspired against Nehemiah and the people. But Nehemiah saw the danger and planned accordingly; he refused to give in to enemy plots. And when the people sensed danger, he formulated strategies to defend the city and keep the people working at the same time.

The Jews needed only 52 days to rebuild a city wall that had lain in ruins for more than 120 years. And they were able to do it because they had a great leader to navigate for them.

Nehemiah knew his purpose, made his plans, and led the people through the process. His is truly one of the most remarkable stories of leadership ever recorded.

Nehemiah's Navigation

Before the building process could begin, Nehemiah spent time getting himself and his people ready.

1. He identified with the problem (1:2-4). Nehemiah first inquired about the status of the Jews and the wall around Jerusalem. When he heard that the wall remained a rubble and that God's name was being mocked, he wept. The people's problem became his problem and his burden to bear.

2. He spent time in prayer (1:4-11). Almost immediately Nehemiah went to his knees to pray. He confessed his wrongdoing and that of the people and he interceded for them. Then he asked for God's favor. No doubt he got the vision and plan to rebuild the wall during his time of connection with God.

3. He approached the key influencers (2:1-9). In any leadership endeavor, key people of influence can make or break the whole undertaking. In this case, it was the Persian king Artaxerxes. From him, Nehemiah received not only permission to rebuild the wall, but also resources and support. Nehemiah undoubtedly also selected and approached other key people to take with him.

4. He assessed the situation (2:11-15). When he finally arrived in Jerusalem, Nehemiah surveyed firsthand the challenge facing him. He did it quietly, at night, personally assessing the damage and planning the project without interference or unwanted advice.

5. He met with the people and cast the vision (2:16, 17). We don't know exactly how Nehemiah approached the people or with whom he met first, but we do know he spoke with the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, and the people who did the work. He described his vision for rebuilding the wall and the spiritual ramifications of the project.

6. He encouraged them with past successes (2:18). With a task as daunting as the rebuilding of the wall, Nehemiah knew he needed to encourage the people. So he “told them of the hand of [his] God which had been good upon [him], and also of the king’s words that he had spoken to [him]” (2:18).

7. He received buy-in from the people (2:18). Two short sentences record the turning point for the whole rebuilding process: “So they said, ‘Let us rise up and build.’ Then they set their hands to this good work” (2:18). The people had bought in. They dedicated themselves to Nehemiah’s leadership and vision.

8. He organized the people and got them working (3:1-32). The people didn’t work haphazardly. Nehemiah organized them by family and set them to work according to planned priorities, beginning with the city’s gates.

Nehemiah put a lot of work into realizing his vision. Without his great leadership and careful planning, the wall may never have been built.

Chapter 2

Nehemiah Sent to Judah

¹And it came to pass in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was before him, that I took the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had never been sad in his presence before. ²Therefore the king said to me, “Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing but sorrow of heart.”

So I became dreadfully afraid, ³and said to the king, “May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers’ tombs, lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire?”

⁴Then the king said to me, “What do you request?”

So I prayed to the God of heaven. ⁵And I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, I ask that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers’ tombs, that I may rebuild it.”

The Law of Timing: Nehemiah Chose the Moment to See the King

Nehemiah 2:1-5

Good leaders understand that timing is everything. Nehemiah spoke to the king about Jerusalem, but not until four months after he first heard about its broken wall. He began praying about the ruined wall in December, but not until April did he approach the king about rebuilding them. What was he waiting on?

No one knows for sure, but Nehemiah might well have been waiting on...

1. His ownership of the burden and vision.
2. A foundation of prayer to be laid.
3. His own readiness with a plan.
4. The king's mental and emotional mood.
5. The season when he could move quickly.
6. A trust to deepen between him and the king.

⁶Then the king said to me (the queen also sitting beside him), "How long will your journey be? And when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

⁷Furthermore I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of the region beyond the River,^a that they must permit me to pass through till I come to Judah, ⁸"and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he must give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel which pertains to the temple,^a for the city wall, and for the house that I will occupy." And the king granted them to me according to the good hand of my God upon me.

INITIATIVE

Nehemiah Takes the Lead

Nehemiah 1:4-2:8

NEHEMIAH MIGHT have served as the poster boy for the philosophy, “You never have to recover from a good start.” He powerfully illustrates the role of initiative in a leader’s life.

This godly leader took initiative in praying for Jerusalem’s problem, in planning the rebuilding project, in persuading the people to act, and in pursuing the product they all wanted. And he did it in that order. His initiative showed great insight.

Nehemiah couldn’t imagine sitting still when he heard the walls of Jerusalem lay in shambles. He had to act. Of all the things a leader should fear, complacency ought to head the list.

But what enables good leaders to initiate? Nehemiah demonstrates that leaders know something in their heart or in their gut that prompts them to move. They don’t know everything, but they know enough to act. Nehemiah had insight into the following areas:

1. He knew how long the project would take (2:6).

Nehemiah gave King Artaxerxes a definite time period for his absence.

2. He knew how to get there (2:7).

Nehemiah asked for letters of permission to pass through the provinces beyond the river to Judah.

3. He knew what he would need to get the job done (2:8).

Nehemiah requested timbers from Asaph to make beams and gates for the wall.

4. He knew that God’s hand was upon him (2:8).

Nehemiah got all that he requested because the hand of God rested on him.

Qualities of Initiators

Nehemiah displayed the qualities that make for initiative in leaders:

1. They know what they want.

Desire is the starting point of all achievement. Nehemiah knew that he wanted that wall up.

2. They push themselves to act.

At first, Nehemiah acted alone. He pushed to get the facts that would move others.

3. They take more risks.

Nehemiah took some major risks as he got permission to go, to get wood, and to survey the job.

4. They make more mistakes.

Nehemiah wasn't afraid to mobilize men who weren't professional contractors or soldiers to build and fight.

5. They go with their gut.

What Nehemiah lacked in experience, he made up for with the passion of his heart.

⁹Then I went to the governors in the region beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. ¹⁰When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official^a heard of it, they were deeply disturbed that a man had come to seek the wellbeing of the children of Israel.

Nehemiah Views the Wall of Jerusalem

¹¹So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days. ¹²Then I arose in the night, I and a few men with me; I told no one what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem; nor was there any animal with me, except the one on which I rode. ¹³And I went out by night through the Valley Gate to the Serpent Well and the Refuse Gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which were burned with fire. ¹⁴Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, but there was no room for the animal under me to pass. ¹⁵So I went up in the night by the valley, and viewed the wall; then I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned. ¹⁶And the officials did not know where I had gone or what I had done; I had not yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or the others who did the work.

¹⁷Then I said to them, "You see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire. Come and let us build the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer be a reproach." ¹⁸And I told them of the hand of my God which had been good upon me, and also of the king's words that he had spoken to me.

The Law of Buy-In: Nehemiah Shares the Why Before the What

Nehemiah 2:5-17

Nehemiah takes three days to size things up in Jerusalem before he speaks to the Jews, the officials, the priests, and the nobles. When he does speak, he practices the Law of Buy-In. He knows his countrymen would have to buy in to him before they would buy in to his plan.

Notice how this man declares the why before he explains the what. He provides the following reasons to get his colleagues to buy in to his vision for rebuilding the wall:

1. He had committed himself to oversee the project (2:5).
2. Asaph had approved timber for the beams and gates (2:8).
3. The situation was a reproach to Israel (2:17).
4. The ruined walls could not protect any of them (2:17).
5. God's hand was on him and had given him favor (2:18).
6. King Artaxerxes had given him permission to come and rebuild (2:18).

The Law of Connection: Nehemiah's Construction Follows Connection

Nehemiah 2:17, 18

Nehemiah connected with the hearts of his volunteers before asking them to sacrifice their time and energy. He appealed to their sense of dignity, identity, and responsibility. The wall went up in record time because he won the hearts of the builders prior to winning the hands of the builders.

So they said, "Let us rise up and build." Then they set their hands to this good work.

¹⁹But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard of it, they laughed at us and despised us, and said, “What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?”

²⁰So I answered them, and said to them, “The God of heaven Himself will prosper us; therefore we His servants will arise and build, but you have no heritage or right or memorial in Jerusalem.”

Chapter 3

Rebuilding the Wall

¹Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests and built the Sheep Gate; they consecrated it and hung its doors. They built as far as the Tower of the Hundred,^a and consecrated it, then as far as the Tower of Hananel. ²Next to Eliashib^a the men of Jericho built. And next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

³Also the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and bars. ⁴And next to them Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz,^a made repairs. Next to them Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs. Next to them Zadok the son of Baana made repairs. ⁵Next to them the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles did not put their shoulders^a to the work of their Lord.

⁶Moreover Jehoiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors, with its bolts and bars. ⁷And next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite, Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and Mizpah, repaired the residence^a of the governor of the region beyond the River. ⁸Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. Also next to him Hananiah, one^a of the perfumers, made repairs; and they fortified Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall. ⁹And next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, leader of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs. ¹⁰Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs in front of his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabniah made repairs.

¹¹Malchijah the son of Harim and Hashub the son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section, as well as the Tower of the Ovens. ¹²And next to him was Shallum the son of Hallohesh, leader of half the district of Jerusalem; he and his daughters made repairs.

¹³Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired a thousand cubits of the wall as far as the Refuse Gate.

¹⁴Malchijah the son of Rechab, leader of the district of Beth Hacerem, repaired the Refuse Gate; he built it and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

¹⁵Shallun the son of Col-Hozeh, leader of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate; he built it, covered it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired the wall of the Pool of Shelah by the King's Garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the City of David. ¹⁶After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, leader of half the district of Beth Zur, made repairs as far as the place in front of the tombs^a of David, to the manmade pool, and as far as the House of the Mighty.

¹⁷After him the Levites, under Rehum the son of Bani, made repairs. Next to him Hashabiah, leader of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district. ¹⁸After him their brethren, under Bavai^a the son of Henadad, leader of the other half of the district of Keilah, made repairs. ¹⁹And next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the leader of Mizpah, repaired another section in front of the Ascent to the Armory at the buttress. ²⁰After him Baruch the son of Zabbai^a carefully repaired the other section, from the buttress to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

²¹After him Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz,^a repaired another section, from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of the house of Eliashib.

²²And after him the priests, the men of the plain, made repairs. ²³After him Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs opposite their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, made repairs by his house.

²⁴After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah to the buttress, even as far as the corner. ²⁵Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the buttress, and on the tower which projects from the king's upper house that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs.

²⁶Moreover the Nethinim who dwelt in Ophel made repairs as far as the place in front of the Water Gate toward the east, and on the projecting tower. ²⁷After them the Tekoites repaired another section, next to the great projecting tower, and as far as the wall of Ophel.

²⁸Beyond the Horse Gate the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house. ²⁹After them Zadok the son of Immer made repairs in front of his own house. After him Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, made repairs. ³⁰After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah made repairs in front of his dwelling. ³¹After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the Nethinim and of the merchants, in front of the Miphkad^a Gate, and as far as the upper room at the corner. ³²And between the upper room at the corner, as far as the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

The Law of Priorities: Nehemiah Wisely Uses His Resources

Nehemiah 3:1-32

Thomas Jefferson once said, “No duty the executive has to perform is so trying as to put the right man in the right place.” Shortly after his arrival in Jerusalem, we see Nehemiah busily at work putting the right men in the right places.

The text lists specific men as the builders of specific gates. Why? Nehemiah has placed them in stations according to their natural gifts and interests and has them build the portion of the wall right in front of their homes. Talk about self-motivation!

Nehemiah recognized the principles that make organizations progress:

1. Motivation without organization equals frustration.
2. The strongest organizations are the simplest.
3. Leaders love everybody, but move with the movers.
4. Good organizations establish clear lines of authority.
5. People do what you inspect, not what you expect.
6. Leaders provide a supportive climate of trust and teamwork.
7. Successful organizations recognize and reward effort.

Chapter 4

The Wall Defended Against Enemies

¹But it so happened, when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, that he was furious and very indignant, and mocked the Jews. ²And he spoke before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, “What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they complete it in a day? Will they revive the stones from the heaps of rubbish—stones that are burned?”

³Now Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, “Whatever they build, if even a fox goes up on it, he will break down their stone wall.”

⁴Hear, O our God, for we are despised; turn their reproach on their own heads, and give them as plunder to a land of captivity! ⁵Do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before You; for they have provoked You to anger before the builders.

⁶So we built the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a mind to work.

⁷Now it happened, when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the walls of Jerusalem were being restored and the gaps were beginning to be closed, that they became very angry, ⁸and all of them conspired together to come and attack Jerusalem and create confusion. ⁹Nevertheless we made our prayer to our God, and because of them we set a watch against them day and night.

¹⁰Then Judah said, "The strength of the laborers is failing, and there is so much rubbish that we are not able to build the wall."

¹¹And our adversaries said, "They will neither know nor see anything, till we come into their midst and kill them and cause the work to cease."

¹²So it was, when the Jews who dwelt near them came, that they told us ten times, "From whatever place you turn, they will be upon us."

¹³Therefore I positioned men behind the lower parts of the wall, at the openings; and I set the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows. ¹⁴And I looked, and arose and said to the nobles, to the leaders, and to the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, great and awesome, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses."

¹⁵And it happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that God had brought their plot to nothing, that all of us returned to the wall, everyone to his work. ¹⁶So it was, from that time on, that half of my servants worked at construction, while the other half held the spears, the shields, the bows, and wore armor; and the leaders were behind all the house of Judah. ¹⁷Those who built on the wall, and those who carried burdens, loaded themselves so that with one hand they worked at construction, and with the other held a weapon. ¹⁸Every one of the builders had his sword girded at his side as he built. And the one who sounded the trumpet was beside me.

¹⁹Then I said to the nobles, the rulers, and the rest of the people, "The work is great and extensive, and we are separated far from one another on the wall. ²⁰“Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us.”

²¹So we labored in the work, and half of the men^a held the spears from daybreak until the stars appeared. ²²At the same time I also said to the people, “Let each man and his servant stay at night in Jerusalem, that they may be our guard by night and a working party by day.” ²³So neither I, my brethren, my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me took off our clothes, except that everyone took them off for washing.

The Law of the Big Mo: Nehemiah's Best Friend

Nehemiah 4:9-20

Momentum is a leader's best friend. When leaders lack momentum, they appear worse than they really are. When they have momentum, they appear better than they really are.

Nehemiah saw his momentum grind to a halt when opponents ridiculed and mocked the wall rebuilding project. Workers became discouraged. After prayer and a word of encouragement from their leader, the work continued, and momentum kicked in once more. Nehemiah regained momentum by these actions:

1. He prayed for the work and the workers (4:9, 10).
2. He created a plan to address the problems (4:12, 13).
3. He called for the best out of his workers (4:14).

4. He reminded them of God's help in their divine mission (4:14).

5. He provided a new strategy for victory (4:16).

6. He furnished new tools (weapons) for the workers (4:16, 17).

7. He rallied the people to support each other (4:19, 20).

Chapter 5

Nehemiah Deals with Oppression

¹And there was a great outcry of the people and their wives against their Jewish brethren. ²For there were those who said, “We, our sons, and our daughters are many; therefore let us get grain, that we may eat and live.”

³There were also some who said, “We have mortgaged our lands and vineyards and houses, that we might buy grain because of the famine.”

⁴There were also those who said, “We have borrowed money for the king’s tax on our lands and vineyards. ⁵“Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children; and indeed we are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters have been brought into slavery. It is not in our power to redeem them, for other men have our lands and vineyards.”

⁶And I became very angry when I heard their outcry and these words. ⁷After serious thought, I rebuked the nobles and rulers, and said to them, “Each of you is exacting usury from his brother.” So I called a great assembly against them. ⁸And I said to them, “According to our ability we have redeemed our Jewish brethren who were sold to the nations. Now indeed, will you even sell your brethren? Or should they be sold to us?”

Then they were silenced and found nothing to say. ⁹Then I said, “What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies? ¹⁰“I also, with my brethren and my servants, am lending them money and grain. Please, let us stop this usury! ¹¹“Restore now to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also a hundredth of the money and the grain, the new wine and the oil, that you have charged them.”

¹²So they said, “We will restore it, and will require nothing from them; we will do as you say.”

Then I called the priests, and required an oath from them that they would do according to this promise. ¹³Then I shook out the fold of my garment^a and said, “So may God shake out each man from his house, and from his property, who does not perform this promise. Even thus may he be shaken out and emptied.”

Commitment: How to Beat Your Problems

Nehemiah 4:1-5:13

One of the great tests of leadership is how you handle opposition. Nehemiah faced the usual tactics of the opposition: ridicule (Neh. 4:1-3); resistance (4:7, 8); and rumor (4:11, 12). Nehemiah modeled the right response to all three of these challenges. He...

1. Relied on God (4:4, 5).
2. Respected the opposition (4:9).
3. Reinforced his weak points (4:13).
4. Reassured the people (4:14).
5. Refused to quit (4:15).

6. Renewed the people's strength continually (4:16-23).

While Nehemiah 4 concerns problems from without, chapter 5 deals with problems from within—disputes about food, property, and taxes.

Persistence is the ultimate gauge of our leadership; the secret is to outlast our critics. Nehemiah taught us this lesson by staying committed to his ultimate calling.

And all the assembly said, "Amen!" and praised the LORD. Then the people did according to this promise.

The Generosity of Nehemiah

¹⁴Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year until the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, twelve years, neither I nor my brothers ate the governor's provisions.

¹⁵But the former governors who were before me laid burdens on the people, and took from them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver. Yes, even their servants bore rule over the people, but I did not do so, because of the fear of God. ¹⁶Indeed, I also continued the work on this wall, and we^a did not buy any land. All my servants were gathered there for the work.

¹⁷And at my table were one hundred and fifty Jews and rulers, besides those who came to us from the nations around us. ¹⁸Now that which was prepared daily was one ox and six choice sheep. Also fowl were prepared for me, and once every ten days an abundance of all kinds of wine.

Yet in spite of this I did not demand the governor's provisions, because the bondage was heavy on this people.

¹⁹Remember me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Chapter 6

Conspiracy Against Nehemiah

¹Now it happened when Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there were no breaks left in it (though at that time I had not hung the doors in the gates), ²that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, “Come, let us meet together among the villages in the plain of Ono.” But they thought to do me harm.

³So I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and go down to you?”

⁴But they sent me this message four times, and I answered them in the same manner.

⁵Then Sanballat sent his servant to me as before, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand. ⁶In it was written:

It is reported among the nations, and Geshem^a says, that you and the Jews plan to rebel; therefore, according to these rumors, you are rebuilding the wall, that you may be their king. ⁷And you have also appointed prophets to proclaim concerning you at Jerusalem, saying, “There is a king in Judah!” Now these matters will be reported to the king. So come, therefore, and let us consult together.

⁸Then I sent to him, saying, “No such things as you say are being done, but you invent them in your own heart.”

⁹For they all were trying to make us afraid, saying, “Their hands will be weakened in the work, and it will not be done.”

The Law of Victory: Nehemiah Finishes the Wall in Record Time

Nehemiah 5:14-6:9

Nehemiah did nearly everything right as a leader. He never distanced himself from his people by eating from the governor’s allowance; he didn’t levy heavy taxes; he stayed committed to hands-on construction; and he refused to buy real estate, unlike previous governors (Neh. 5:14-19).

As the wall neared completion, Sanballat and Tobiah invited Nehemiah to come down from his work for a chat. He responded, “I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and go down to you?” (Neh. 6:3). Before long the wall was completed, finished in record time. We can learn at least four significant leadership lessons from studying Nehemiah’s leadership:

1. The quickest way to stop a great work is to stop a great leader.
2. Problems and projects seem to go together.
3. The tide turns once the project is successful.
4. A successful project will bring glory to God.

Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

¹⁰Afterward I came to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was a secret informer; and he said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you; indeed, at night they will come to kill you."

¹¹And I said, "Should such a man as I flee? And who is there such as I who would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in!" ¹²Then I perceived that God had not sent him at all, but that he pronounced this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³For this reason he was hired, that I should be afraid and act that way and sin, so that they might have cause for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

¹⁴My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat, according to these their works, and the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid.

The Wall Completed

¹⁵So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days. ¹⁶And it happened, when all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations around us saw these things, that they were very disheartened in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was done by our God.

Commitment: Four Characteristics of Those Who Complete a Task

Nehemiah 6:15, 16

Commitment comes before anything else in a leader's life. Because Nehemiah had it and drew it out of others, the people finished the wall in 52 days, despite many adversities. Their great accomplishment so thrilled Nehemiah that he wrote, "When all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations around us saw these things... they were very disheartened in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was done by our God" (Neh. 6:16).

Leaders who complete a task possess at least four characteristics:

1. A compelling purpose: They make a great commitment to a great cause.
2. A clear perspective: They don't let fear cloud their view of the future.
3. A continual prayer: They pray about everything and gain God's favor.
4. A courageous persistence: They move ahead despite the odds.

¹⁷Also in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came to them.

¹⁸For many in Judah were pledged to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. ¹⁹Also they reported his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

PROFILE in Leadership

SANBALLAT

The Great Distracter

Nehemiah had to contend with the same kind of pest that plagues most true leaders today: distracters who torment and do everything possible to interfere in the work of the kingdom. Sanballat played this distracting role in the life of Nehemiah.

Soon after the wall around Jerusalem started going up, word reached Sanballat of the construction. He knew that the repair of the wall and the restoration of Jerusalem would bring a major shift in commerce and political power. Sanballat liked the status quo and had a vested interest in Jerusalem remaining in disrepair, so he set about his distracting work.

Sanballat first tried to stop the work by mocking and ridiculing the Jews. When that didn't work, this evil but resourceful leader adjusted his strategies. He shifted his tactics to fear, entrapment, and political maneuvering.

The contrast between Nehemiah and Sanballat could hardly be more pronounced. Nehemiah's leadership and character countered every assault of Sanballat and provided the impetus for his godly vision to be completed.

Contemporary leaders can learn several valuable lessons from studying Sanballat's assaults, threats, and schemes:

- Expect distracters.
- Don't give them the time of day.
- Trust God to protect you and your reputation.
- Keep your hands to the plow and don't look back.

Chapter 7

¹Then it was, when the wall was built and I had hung the doors, when the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites had been appointed, ²that I gave the charge of Jerusalem to my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the leader of the citadel, for he was a faithful man and feared God more than many.

Changing with the Times

Nehemiah 7:1, 2

Two emotions usually follow a great achievement: first, a sigh of relief and celebration; and second, a sense of... now what?

How we handle achievement tells us a lot about our character. The period following a success can become a dangerous time. Sometimes we feel tempted toward complacency, especially if we lack another goal. We can become satisfied and let down our guard. Momentum leaks.

The moment of victory is a crucial time for any organization. The leader must be able to change—or face a transitional problem. The transitional problem occurs when the leader does not know how to grow with the organization. Nehemiah's life illustrates the problem:

Two Types of Leadership Seasons

Catalyst: Gets it going " Consolidator: Keeps it going Designer: Thinks it up " Developer: Follows it up Motivator: Encourages " Manager: Organizes Entrepreneur: Relies on self " Executive: Relies on others

³And I said to them, "Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand guard, let them shut and bar the doors; and appoint guards from among the inhabitants of Jerusalem, one at his watch station and another in front of his own house."

The Captives Who Returned to Jerusalem

⁴Now the city was large and spacious, but the people in it were few, and the houses were not rebuilt. ⁵Then my God put it into my heart to gather the nobles, the rulers, and the people, that they might be registered by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of those who had come up in the first return, and found written in it:

⁷*Those who came with Zerubbabel were Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth,^a Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.*

The number of the men of the people of Israel: ⁸the sons of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two;

⁹the sons of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two;

¹⁰the sons of Arah, six hundred and fifty-two;

¹¹the sons of Pahath-Moab, of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen;

¹²the sons of Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;

¹³the sons of Zattu, eight hundred and forty-five;

¹⁴the sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty;

¹⁵the sons of Binnui,^a six hundred and forty-eight;

¹⁶the sons of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-eight;

¹⁷the sons of Azgad, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two;

¹⁸the sons of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-seven;

¹⁹the sons of Bigvai, two thousand and sixty-seven;

²⁰the sons of Adin, six hundred and fifty-five;

²¹the sons of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety-eight;

²²the sons of Hashum, three hundred and twenty-eight;

²³the sons of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-four;

²⁴the sons of Hariph,^a one hundred and twelve;

²⁵the sons of Gibeon,^a ninety-five;

²⁶the men of Bethlehem and Netophah, one hundred and eighty-eight;

²⁷the men of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight;

²⁸the men of Beth Azmaveth,^a forty-two;

²⁹the men of Kirjath Jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three;

³⁰the men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one;

³¹the men of Michmas, one hundred and twenty-two;

³²the men of Bethel and Ai, one hundred and twenty-three;

³³the men of the other Nebo, fifty-two;
³⁴the sons of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;
³⁵the sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty;
³⁶the sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five;
³⁷the sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one;
³⁸the sons of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.
³⁹The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three;
⁴⁰the sons of Immer, one thousand and fifty-two;
⁴¹the sons of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven;
⁴²the sons of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.
⁴³The Levites: the sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, and of the sons of Hodevah,^a seventy-four.
⁴⁴The singers: the sons of Asaph, one hundred and forty-eight.
⁴⁵The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum,
the sons of Ater,
the sons of Talmon,
the sons of Akkub,
the sons of Hatita,
the sons of Shobai, one hundred and thirty-eight.
⁴⁶The Nethinim: the sons of Ziha,
the sons of Hasupha,
the sons of Tabbaoth,
⁴⁷the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia,^a
the sons of Padon,
⁴⁸the sons of Lebana,^a the sons of Hagaba,^b
the sons of Salmal,^c

⁴⁹*the sons of Hanan,
the sons of Giddel,
the sons of Gahar, ⁵⁰the sons of Reaiah,
the sons of Rezin,
the sons of Nekoda, ⁵¹the sons of Gazzam,
the sons of Uzza,
the sons of Paseah, ⁵²the sons of Besai,
the sons of Meunim,
the sons of Nephishesim,^a ⁵³the sons of Bakbuk,
the sons of Hakupha,
the sons of Harhur, ⁵⁴the sons of Bazlith,^a
the sons of Mehida,
the sons of Harsha, ⁵⁵the sons of Barkos,
the sons of Sisera,
the sons of Tamah, ⁵⁶the sons of Neziah,
and the sons of Hatipha.
⁵⁷*The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth,
the sons of Perida,^a ⁵⁸the sons of Jaala,
the sons of Darkon,
the sons of Giddel,
⁵⁹the sons of Shephatiah,
the sons of Hattil,
the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, and the sons of Amon.^a

⁶⁰All the Nethinim, and the sons of Solomon's servants, were three hundred and ninety-two.

⁶¹And these were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addon,^a and Immer, but they could not identify their father's house nor their lineage, whether they were of Israel:

⁶²the sons of Delaiah,

the sons of Tobiah,

the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two;

⁶³and of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz,^a the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name.

⁶⁴These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but it was not found; therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as defiled.

⁶⁵And the governor^a said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things till a priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁶Altogether the whole assembly was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty, ⁶⁷besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred and forty-five men and women singers.

⁶⁸Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five, ⁶⁹their camels four hundred and thirtyfive, and donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

⁷⁰And some of the heads of the fathers' houses gave to the work. The governor^a gave to the treasury one thousand gold drachmas, fifty basins, and five hundred and thirty priestly garments. ⁷¹Some of the heads of the fathers' houses gave to the treasury of the work twenty thousand gold drachmas, and two thousand two hundred silver minas. ⁷²And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand gold drachmas, two thousand silver minas, and sixty-seven priestly garments.

⁷³So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the Nethinim, and all Israel dwelt in their cities.

Ezra Reads the Law

When the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

Chapter 8

¹Now all the people gathered together as one man in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded Israel. ²So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly of men and women and all who could hear with understanding on the first day of the seventh month. ³Then he read from it in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate from morning until midday, before the men and women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law.

⁴So Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood which they had made for the purpose; and beside him, at his right hand, stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Urijah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah; and at his left hand Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam. ⁵And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. ⁶And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. Then all the people answered, "Amen, Amen!" while lifting up their hands.

And they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

⁷Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, helped the people to understand the Law; and the people stood in their place.

⁸So they read distinctly from the book, in the Law of God; and they gave the sense, and helped them to understand the reading.

The Practical Leader

Nehemiah 8:8

Nehemiah and Ezra both wanted the rebuilt wall to symbolize rebuilt spiritual lives. “So they read distinctly from the book, in the Law of God; and they gave the sense, and helped them to understand the reading” (Neh. 8:8). These leaders wanted their people to understand and apply what they heard.

⁹And Nehemiah, who was the governor,^a Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, “This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn nor weep.” For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the Law.

¹⁰Then he said to them, “Go your way, eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not sorrow, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.”

¹¹So the Levites quieted all the people, saying, “Be still, for the day is holy; do not be grieved.” ¹²And all the people went their way to eat and drink, to send portions and rejoice greatly, because they understood the words that were declared to them.

The Feast of Tabernacles

¹³Now on the second day the heads of the fathers' houses of all the people, with the priests and Levites, were gathered to Ezra the scribe, in order to understand the words of the Law. ¹⁴And they found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths during the feast of the seventh month, ¹⁵and that they should announce and proclaim in all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the mountain, and bring olive branches, branches of oil trees, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of leafy trees, to make booths, as it is written."

¹⁶Then the people went out and brought them and made themselves booths, each one on the roof of his house, or in their courtyards or the courts of the house of God, and in the open square of the Water Gate and in the open square of the Gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷So the whole assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and sat under the booths; for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day the children of Israel had not done so. And there was very great gladness. ¹⁸Also day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read from the Book of the Law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day there was a sacred assembly, according to the prescribed manner.

The People Confess Their Sins

¹Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, in sackcloth, and with dust on their heads.^a ²Then those of Israelite lineage separated themselves from all foreigners; and they stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. ³And they stood up in their place and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for one—fourth of the day; and for another fourth they confessed and worshiped the LORD their God.

⁴Then Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani stood on the stairs of the Levites and cried out with a loud voice to the LORD their God. ⁵And the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said:

“Stand up and bless the LORD your God

Forever and ever!

“Blessed be Your glorious name,
Which is exalted above all blessing and praise!

⁶You alone are the LORD;
You have made heaven,
The heaven of heavens, with all their host,

The earth and everything on it,
The seas and all that is in them,
And You preserve them all.

The host of heaven worships You.

⁷“You are the LORD God,
Who chose Abram,
And brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans,
And gave him the name Abraham;
⁸You found his heart faithful before You,
And made a covenant with him
To give the land of the Canaanites,
The Hittites, the Amorites,
The Perizzites, the Jebusites,
And the Girgashites—
To give it to his descendants.
You have performed Your words,

For You are righteous.

⁹“You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt,
And heard their cry by the Red Sea.
¹⁰You showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh,
Against all his servants,
And against all the people of his land.
For You knew that they acted proudly against them.
So You made a name for Yourself, as it is this day.

¹¹And You divided the sea before them,
So that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land;
And their persecutors You threw into the deep,
As a stone into the mighty waters.
¹²Moreover You led them by day with a cloudy pillar,
And by night with a pillar of fire,
To give them light on the road

Which they should travel.

¹³“You came down also on Mount Sinai,
And spoke with them from heaven,
And gave them just ordinances and true laws,
Good statutes and commandments.

¹⁴You made known to them Your holy Sabbath,
And commanded them precepts, statutes and laws,
By the hand of Moses Your servant.

¹⁵You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger,

And brought them water out of the rock for their thirst,

And told them to go in to possess the land

Which You had sworn to give them.

¹⁶“But they and our fathers acted proudly,
Hardened their necks,
And did not heed Your commandments.

¹⁷They refused to obey,
And they were not mindful of Your wonders
That You did among them.

But they hardened their necks,

And in their rebellion^a

They appointed a leader
To return to their bondage.

But You are God,

Ready to pardon,

Gracious and merciful,

Slow to anger,

Abundant in kindness,

And did not forsake them.

¹⁸“Even when they made a molded calf for themselves,

And said, ‘This is your god
That brought you up out of Egypt,’
And worked great provocations,

¹⁹Yet in Your manifold mercies
You did not forsake them in the wilderness.
The pillar of the cloud did not depart from them by day,

To lead them on the road;
Nor the pillar of fire by night,
To show them light,
And the way they should go.

²⁰You also gave Your good Spirit to instruct them,
And did not withhold Your manna from their mouth,
And gave them water for their thirst.

²¹Forty years You sustained them in the wilderness;
They lacked nothing;
Their clothes did not wear out^a

And their feet did not swell.

²²“Moreover You gave them kingdoms and nations,
And divided them into districts.^a

So they took possession of the land of Sihon,
The land of^b the king of Heshbon,
And the land of Og king of Bashan.

²³You also multiplied their children as the stars of heaven,

And brought them into the land
Which You had told their fathers
To go in and possess.

²⁴So the people went in
And possessed the land;
You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land,

The Canaanites,
And gave them into their hands,
With their kings
And the people of the land,
That they might do with them as they wished.

²⁵And they took strong cities and a rich land,
And possessed houses full of all goods,
Cisterns already dug, vineyards, olive groves,
And fruit trees in abundance.
So they ate and were filled and grew fat,

And delighted themselves in Your great goodness.

²⁶“Nevertheless they were disobedient
And rebelled against You,
Cast Your law behind their backs
And killed Your prophets, who testified against them
To turn them to Yourself;
And they worked great provocations.

²⁷Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their enemies,

Who oppressed them;
And in the time of their trouble,
When they cried to You,
You heard from heaven;
And according to Your abundant mercies
You gave them deliverers who saved them

From the hand of their enemies.

²⁸“But after they had rest,
They again did evil before You.
Therefore You left them in the hand of their enemies,
So that they had dominion over them;
Yet when they returned and cried out to You,
You heard from heaven;

And many times You delivered them according to Your mercies,

²⁹And testified against them,
That You might bring them back to Your law.
Yet they acted proudly,
And did not heed Your commandments,
But sinned against Your judgments, 'Which if a man does, he shall live by them.'^a

And they shrugged their shoulders,
Stiffened their necks,
And would not hear.

³⁰Yet for many years You had patience with them,
And testified against them by Your Spirit in Your prophets.

Yet they would not listen;
Therefore You gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

³¹Nevertheless in Your great mercy
You did not utterly consume them nor forsake them;

For You are God, gracious and merciful.

³²"Now therefore, our God,
The great, the mighty, and awesome God,
Who keeps covenant and mercy:
Do not let all the trouble seem small before You
That has come upon us,
Our kings and our princes,
Our priests and our prophets,
Our fathers and on all Your people,
From the days of the kings of Assyria until this day.

³³However You are just in all that has befallen us;
For You have dealt faithfully,
But we have done wickedly.

³⁴Neither our kings nor our princes,

Our priests nor our fathers,
Have kept Your law,
Nor heeded Your commandments and Your testimonies,
With which You testified against them.
³⁵For they have not served You in their kingdom,
Or in the many good things that You gave them,
Or in the large and rich land which You set before
them;

Nor did they turn from their wicked works.

³⁶"Here we are, servants today!
And the land that You gave to our fathers,
To eat its fruit and its bounty,
Here we are, servants in it!
³⁷And it yields much increase to the kings
You have set over us,
Because of our sins;
Also they have dominion over our bodies and our cattle
At their pleasure;
And we are in great distress.
³⁸"And because of all this,
We make a sure covenant and write it;

Our leaders, our Levites, and our priests seal it."

Chapter 10

The People Who Sealed the Covenant

¹Now those who placed their seal on the document were:

Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah, ²Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, ³Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah, ⁴Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, ⁵Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, ⁶Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, ⁷Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, ⁸Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the priests.

⁹The Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, and Kadmiel.

¹⁰Their brethren: Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, ¹¹Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah, ¹²Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, ¹³Hodijah, Bani, and Beninu.

¹⁴The leaders of the people: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, ¹⁵Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, ¹⁶Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, ¹⁷Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur, ¹⁸Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai, ¹⁹Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, ²⁰Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, ²¹Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, ²²Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, ²³Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, ²⁴Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek, ²⁵Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, ²⁶Ahijah, Hanan, Anan, ²⁷Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

The Covenant That Was Sealed

²⁸Now the rest of the people—the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge and understanding— ²⁹these joined with their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse and an oath to walk in God’s Law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and His ordinances and His statutes: ³⁰We would not give our daughters as wives to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; ³¹*if* the peoples of the land brought wares or any grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we would not buy it from them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and we would forego the seventh year’s produce and the exacting of every debt.

PROFILE in Leadership

NEHEMIAH

Committed to the Way of God

Nehemiah 10:1-29

Nehemiah and the rest of Israel’s leaders well understood the gravity of entering into covenants, making promises, and signing contracts. So can there be any doubt that a reverent hush fell over them when they determined together to sign a covenant with the true and living God?

After Nehemiah had led his countrymen through a time of confession and repentance, the governor decided it was time to commit themselves to obey the laws and commands that God had given Israel so long before. It was time to commit their hearts to the Lord Himself.

Nehemiah made sure the people did not sign this agreement lightly. Following the example of Moses centuries earlier, he urged the people to swear an oath to God, accepting both blessings for obedience and curses for rebellion. They promised to faithfully adhere to every word of God's Law and not deviate from it in any way (Neh. 10:29).

As governor and top leader of his people, Nehemiah signed the document first. In doing so, he showed his commitment to sticking with the agreement and set an example for the rest of the leadership and the nation. As always, he acted as a "leader's leader."

When leaders step forward the way Nehemiah did, they make possible a climate for renewal and revival. Even today we rightly look to him as an example of true leadership.

³²Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to exact from ourselves yearly one-third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God: ³³for the showbread, for the regular grain offering, for the regular burnt offering of the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the set feasts; for the holy things, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God. ³⁴We cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for bringing the wood offering into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at the appointed times year by year, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God as it is written in the Law.

³⁵And we made ordinances to bring the firstfruits of our ground and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the house of the LORD; ³⁶to bring the firstborn of our sons and our cattle, as it is written in the Law, and the firstborn of our herds and our flocks, to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God; ³⁷to bring the firstfruits of our dough, our offerings, the fruit from all kinds of trees, the new wine and oil, to the priests, to the storerooms of the house of our God; and to bring the tithes of our land to the Levites, for the Levites should receive the tithes in all our farming communities. ³⁸And the priest, the descendant of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes; and the Levites shall bring up a tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms of the storehouse.

³⁹For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine and the oil, to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary are, where the priests who minister and the gatekeepers and the singers are; and we will not neglect the house of our God.

Chapter 11

The People Dwelling in Jerusalem

¹Now the leaders of the people dwelt at Jerusalem; the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem, the holy city, and nine-tenths were to dwell in other cities. ²And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

³These are the heads of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem. (But in the cities of Judah everyone dwelt in his own possession in their cities—Israelites, priests, Levites, Nethinim, and descendants of Solomon's servants.) ⁴Also in Jerusalem dwelt some of the children of Judah and of the children of Benjamin.

The children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the children of Perez; ⁵and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni. ⁶All the sons of Perez who dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight valiant men.

⁷And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah; ⁸and after him Gabbai and Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight. ⁹Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah the son of Senuah^a was second over the city.

¹⁰Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, and Jachin; ¹¹Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the leader of the house of God. ¹²Their brethren who did the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, ¹³and his brethren, heads of the fathers' houses, were two hundred and forty-two; and Amashai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, ¹⁴and their brethren, mighty men of valor, were one hundred and twenty-eight. Their overseer was Zabdiel the son of one of the great men.^a ¹⁵Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; ¹⁶Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the heads of the Levites, had the oversight of the business outside of the house of God; ¹⁷Mattaniah the son of Micha,^a the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the leader who began the thanksgiving with prayer; Bakbukiah, the second among his brethren; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. ¹⁸All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.

¹⁹Moreover the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren who kept the gates, were one hundred and seventy-two.

²⁰And the rest of Israel, of the priests and Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his inheritance. ²¹But the Nethinim dwelt in Ophel. And Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.

²²Also the overseer of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha, of the sons of Asaph, the singers in charge of the service of the house of God. ²³For it was the king's command concerning them that a certain portion should be for the singers, a quota day by day. ²⁴Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's deputy^a in all matters concerning the people.

The People Dwelling Outside Jerusalem

²⁵And as for the villages with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt in Kirjath Arba and its villages, Dibon and its villages, Jekabzeel and its villages; ²⁶in Jeshua, Moladah, Beth Pelet, ²⁷Hazar Shual, and Beersheba and its villages; ²⁸in Ziklag and Meconah and its villages; ²⁹in En Rimmon, Zorah, Jarmuth, ³⁰Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages; in Lachish and its fields; in Azekah and its villages. They dwelt from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

³¹Also the children of Benjamin from Geba dwelt in Michmash, Aija, and Bethel, and their villages; ³²in Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah; ³³in Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim; ³⁴in Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat; ³⁵in Lod, Ono, and the Valley of Craftsmen. ³⁶Some of the Judean divisions of Levites were in Benjamin.

Chapter 12

The Priests and Levites

¹Now these are the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, ²Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, ³Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, ⁴Iddo, Ginnethoi,^a Abijah, ⁵Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, ⁶Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah, ⁷Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, and Jedaiah.

These were the heads of the priests and their brethren in the days of Jeshua.

⁸Moreover the Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah who led the thanksgiving psalms, he and his brethren. ⁹Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, stood across from them in their duties.

¹⁰Jeshua begot Joiakim, Joiakim begot Eliashib, Eliashib begot Joiada, ¹¹Joiada begot Jonathan, and Jonathan begot Jaddua.

¹²Now in the days of Joiakim, the priests, the heads of the fathers' houses were: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah; ¹³of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan; ¹⁴of Melichu,^a Jonathan; of Shebaniah,^b Joseph; ¹⁵of Harim,^a Adna; of Meraioth,^b Helkai; ¹⁶of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; ¹⁷of Abijah, Zichri; the son of Minjamin;^a of Moadiah,^b Piltai; ¹⁸of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan; ¹⁹of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; ²⁰of Sallai,^a Kallai; of Amok, Eber; ²¹of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; and of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

²²During the reign of Darius the Persian, a record was also kept of the Levites and priests who had been heads of their fathers' houses in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua. ²³The sons of Levi, the heads of the fathers' houses until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib, were written in the book of the chronicles.

²⁴And the heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers across from them, to praise and give thanks, group alternating with group, according to the command of David the man of God. ²⁵Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers keeping the watch at the storerooms of the gates. ²⁶These lived in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak,^a and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

Nehemiah Dedicates the Wall

²⁷Now at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites in all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings and singing, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps. ²⁸And the sons of the singers gathered together from the countryside around Jerusalem, from the villages of the Netophathites, ²⁹from the house of Gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth; for the singers had built themselves villages all around Jerusalem.

³⁰Then the priests and Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

⁴⁰So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the house of God, likewise I and the half of the rulers with me; ⁴¹and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Minjamin,^a Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets; ⁴²also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loudly with Jezrahiah the director.

⁴³Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the women and the children also rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard afar off.

Temple Responsibilities

⁴⁴And at the same time some were appointed over the rooms of the storehouse for the offerings, the firstfruits, and the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions specified by the Law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who ministered. ⁴⁵Both the singers and the gatekeepers kept the charge of their God and the charge of the purification, according to the command of David and Solomon his son. ⁴⁶For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chiefs of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. ⁴⁷In the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah all Israel gave the portions for the singers and the gatekeepers, a portion for each day. They also consecrated holy things for the Levites, and the Levites consecrated them for the children of Aaron.

Chapter 13

Principles of Separation

¹On that day they read from the Book of Moses in the hearing of the people, and in it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever come into the assembly of God, ²because they had not met the children of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them. However, our God turned the curse into a blessing. ³So it was, when they had heard the Law, that they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel.

The Reforms of Nehemiah

⁴Now before this, Eliashib the priest, having authority over the storerooms of the house of our God, was allied with Tobiah. ⁵And he had prepared for him a large room, where previously they had stored the grain offerings, the frankincense, the articles, the tithes of grain, the new wine and oil, which were commanded to be given to the Levites and singers and gatekeepers, and the offerings for the priests. ⁶But during all this I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had returned to the king. Then after certain days I obtained leave from the king, ⁷and I came to Jerusalem and discovered the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing a room for him in the courts of the house of God. ⁸And it grieved me bitterly; therefore I threw all the household goods of Tobiah out of the room. ⁹Then I commanded them to cleanse the rooms; and I brought back into them the articles of the house of God, with the grain offering and the frankincense.

¹⁰I also realized that the portions for the Levites had not been given them; for each of the Levites and the singers who did the work had gone back to his field. ¹¹So I contended with the rulers, and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them together and set them in their place. ¹²Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the storehouse. ¹³And I appointed as treasurers over the storehouse Shelemiah the priest and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah; and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were considered faithful, and their task was to distribute to their brethren.

Nehemiah 13:13

Once the work was finished, Nehemiah chose to return to King Artaxerxes. But he recognized that he must appoint and equip others to lead the Jews in Jerusalem. Nehemiah wasn't satisfied with a onetime victory. For the work to go on, he knew he had to empower others to lead. He had to give his power away. And he did. Once he did, he felt his work was done and he could return to the king as he had promised.

As Nehemiah draws to a close, we observe numerous lessons throughout the story. It is one grand narrative on leadership. Consider the following list called “Ten Things I Know About Leadership.” Not surprisingly, Nehemiah models every one of these truths:

1. Leadership is influence (2:5-8, 16-18).
2. Everything rises and falls on leadership (4:9-15).
3. Leadership must be in the hands of few, ministry in the hands of many (5:1-7).
4. Leadership takes responsibility for every area of the task (6:1-14).
5. The most important ingredient in leadership is credibility/integrity (5:14-19).
6. Leaders possess tremendous faith in people (3:1-32).
7. Leadership can be taught (4:21-23).
8. Great leaders are effective communicators of vision (2:17-18).
9. Problem solving is the quickest way to gain leadership (4:7-23).
10. Great leadership is always assisted by other people (3:1-32, 13:13).

¹⁴Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its services!

¹⁵In those days I saw people in Judah treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I warned them about the day on which they were selling provisions. ¹⁶Men of Tyre dwelt there also, who brought in fish and all kinds of goods, and sold them on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

¹⁷Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that you do, by which you profane the Sabbath day? ¹⁸"Did not your fathers do thus, and did not our God bring all this disaster on us and on this city? Yet you bring added wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."

¹⁹So it was, at the gates of Jerusalem, as it began to be dark before the Sabbath, that I commanded the gates to be shut, and charged that they must not be opened till after the Sabbath. Then I posted some of my servants at the gates, so that no burdens would be brought in on the Sabbath day. ²⁰Now the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice.

²¹Then I warned them, and said to them, "Why do you spend the night around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you!" From that time on they came no more on the Sabbath. ²²And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should go and guard the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day.

Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of Your mercy!

²³In those days I also saw Jews who had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. ²⁴And half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and could not speak the language of Judah, but spoke according to the language of one or the other people.

²⁵So I contended with them and cursed them, struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters as wives to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons or yourselves. ²⁶"Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him, who was beloved of his God; and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless pagan women caused even him to sin. ²⁷“Should we then hear of your doing all this great evil, transgressing against our God by marrying pagan women?”

²⁸And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite; therefore I drove him from me.

²⁹Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

³⁰Thus I cleansed them of everything pagan. I also assigned duties to the priests and the Levites, each to his service, ³¹and to bringing the wood offering and the firstfruits at appointed times.

The Law of Legacy: There Is No Success Without a Successor

Nehemiah 13:1-31

Even after Nehemiah returned to King Artaxerxes, he felt the necessity to follow up on the work in Jerusalem. When he returned to visit the walled city, he learned the people already had compromised God’s statutes—and he knew he had to do something to ensure the success of the last several months of labor.

Nehemiah learned that when the leader is away, the people tend to stray. Consider the following problems he encountered:

1. Compromising companionship (vv. 1-9)
2. Financial fiasco (vv. 10-14)
3. Secularized Sabbath (vv. 15-22)

4. Domestic disobedience (vv. 23-31)

When Nehemiah failed to develop a strong inner circle and reproduce his vision in a team of leaders, everyone drifted. He witnessed firsthand the second law of thermodynamics: Things don't wind up; they wind down, unless energy is applied. A sound legacy develops only when a team has been trained and positioned to carry on.

Remember me, O my God, for good!

The Book of Esther

Introduction to Esther

While leadership principles can be found throughout the Scriptures, they are not taught systematically—just as no single doctrine is taught systematically through the 66 books of the Bible. Instead, God chooses to teach these principles experientially, through the lives of ordinary persons in history. That is precisely how leadership shows up in the Book of Esther.

If you look closely, you can spot a divine pattern. God always takes the initiative in executing His plan. Then He looks for a person who will submit to Him, makes that individual aware of a need, and the need quickly becomes the personal burden of the person God has chosen. Ultimately, the individual embraces God's plan and feels morally compelled to act on it. The vision becomes his or her possession. Finally, the person calls others to join the cause, often at great personal risk.

The Book of Esther tells the story of a woman who is beautiful both inside and out. Mordecai, an older cousin, takes her under his wing in her early years; in a sense, he becomes her mentor. As a gorgeous young Jewish woman, Esther is chosen to replace Queen Vashti as the consort of King Ahasuerus. She marries into the royal family and over the years deepens her influence.

Somewhere in the midst of her reign, a man named Haman feels snubbed by Mordecai and responds by making plans to exterminate the Jewish people. When Mordecai learns of the plot, he returns to his protégée, Queen Esther, and tries to convince her that she must stop this genocidal plan. After a moment of indecision, she agrees to take the enormous risk. Her courageous initiative, quick wit, charm, and poise in this desperate moment testify to the Jews that God will always raise up sufficient leadership for each crisis that emerges.

Esther joined the company of such illustrious deliverers as Joseph, who kept his people alive during the famine in Egypt; Moses, who led Israel out of slavery; Samson and David, who delivered the Hebrews from the Philistines; and Gideon, who delivered the people from the hand of the Midianites.

Esther tells the story of an ordinary person who fulfills an extraordinary leadership challenge in an unlikely context. She is a Jew in a foreign land and a woman in a male-dominated world—a minority within a minority. But God raised her up at exactly the right time.

The Story of a Woman—Beautiful Inside and Out

God's Role in Esther

Esther is one of only two books in Scripture where the name of God does not appear even once (the Song of Solomon is the other). Why this amazing omission? Some have conjectured that the writer simply could not risk open worship of God. Whatever the reason, it doesn't really matter. While we may not see God's face anywhere in the book, we see His hand everywhere.

God's work can be clearly seen through His inner prompting of three leaders: Mordecai, King Xerxes, and Esther. In this great book, God's providence and Esther's preparation meet. We see this in Mordecai's phrase: "Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?" (4:14).

The word "providence" comes from two root words: pro, meaning "before," and video, meaning "to see." God sees beforehand and orchestrates events to accomplish His purposes. First, God took Queen Vashti off the throne. Then, He gave the throne to Esther. Finally, He put the right people in the right places.

Lessons in Leadership

- The first step a leader takes may be alone and at great risk.
- God is at work behind the scenes whenever you act on His Word.
- Every leader needs mentors.
- Great leaders act on behalf of their people and serve them.
- Timing is everything.

Chapter 1

The King Dethrones Queen Vashti

¹Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus^a (this was the Ahasuerus who reigned over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces, from India to Ethiopia), ²in those days when King Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan^a the citadel, ³*that* in the third year of his reign he made a feast for all his officials and servants—the powers of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the princes of the provinces being before him— ⁴when he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the splendor of his excellent majesty for many days, one hundred and eighty days in all.

⁵And when these days were completed, the king made a feast lasting seven days for all the people who were present in Shushan the citadel, from great to small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace. ⁶*There were* white and blue linen curtains fastened with cords of fine linen and purple on silver rods and marble pillars; and the couches were of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of alabaster, turquoise, and white and black marble. ⁷And they served drinks in golden vessels, each vessel being different from the other, with royal wine in abundance, according to the generosity of the king. ⁸In accordance with the law, the drinking was not compulsory; for so the king had ordered all the officers of his household, that they should do according to each man's pleasure.

⁹Queen Vashti also made a feast for the women in the royal palace which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

¹⁰On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus, ¹¹to bring Queen Vashti before the king, wearing her royal crown, in order to show her beauty to the people and the officials, for she was beautiful to behold. ¹²But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command brought by his eunuchs; therefore the king was furious, and his anger burned within him.

The Law of Influence

Esther 1:12

When Queen Vashti refused to be put on display, King Ahasuerus grew angry. At the counsel of his advisors, he removed her from office, opening the door for Esther to take her spot. Esther serves as a marvelous illustration of how God uses one person's influence to accomplish His plans!

¹³Then the king said to the wise men who understood the times (for this was the king's manner toward all who knew law and justice, ¹⁴those closest to him being Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who had access to the king's presence, and who ranked highest in the kingdom): ¹⁵“What shall we do to Queen Vashti, according to law, because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus brought to her by the eunuchs?”

¹⁶And Memucan answered before the king and the princes: “Queen Vashti has not only wronged the king, but also all the princes, and all the people who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus. ¹⁷“For the queen’s behavior will become known to all women, so that they will despise their husbands in their eyes, when they report, ‘King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in before him, but she did not come.’ ¹⁸“This very day the noble ladies of Persia and Media will say to all the king’s officials that they have heard of the behavior of the queen. Thus there will be excessive contempt and wrath. ¹⁹“If it pleases the king, let a royal decree go out from him, and let it be recorded in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it will not be altered, that Vashti shall come no more before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better than she. ²⁰“When the king’s decree which he will make is proclaimed throughout all his empire (for it is great), all wives will honor their husbands, both great and small.”

²¹And the reply pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan. ²²Then he sent letters to all the king’s provinces, to each province in its own script, and to every people in their own language, that each man should be master in his own house, and speak in the language of his own people.

Chapter 2

Esther Becomes Queen

¹After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus subsided, he remembered Vashti, what she had done, and what had been decreed against her. ²Then the king's servants who attended him said: "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king; ³"and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather all the beautiful young virgins to Shushan the citadel, into the women's quarters, under the custody of Hegai^a the king's eunuch, custodian of the women. And let beauty preparations be given them. ⁴"Then let the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti."

This thing pleased the king, and he did so.

⁵In Shushan the citadel there was a certain Jew whose name was Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite. ⁶*Kish*^a had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been captured with Jeconiah^b king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. ⁷And Mordecai had brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was lovely and beautiful. When her father and mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.

⁸So it was, when the king's command and decree were heard, and when many young women were gathered at Shushan the citadel, under the custody of Hegai, that Esther also was taken to the king's palace, into the care of Hegai the custodian of the women.

⁹Now the young woman pleased him, and she obtained his favor; so he readily gave beauty preparations to her, besides her allowance. Then seven choice maidservants were provided for her from the king's palace, and he moved her and her maidservants to the best place in the house of the women.

¹²Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Ahasuerus after she had completed twelve months' preparation, according to the regulations for the women, for thus were the days of their preparation apportioned: six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with perfumes and preparations for beautifying women. ¹³Thus prepared, each young woman went to the king, and she was given whatever she desired to take with her from the women's quarters to the king's palace. ¹⁴In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who kept the concubines. She would not go in to the king again unless the king delighted in her and called for her by name.

¹⁵Now when the turn came for Esther the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her as his daughter, to go in to the king, she requested nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the custodian of the women, advised. And Esther obtained favor in the sight of all who saw her. ¹⁶So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus, into his royal palace, in the tenth month, which is the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. ¹⁷The king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins; so he set the royal crown upon her head and made her queen instead of Vashti. ¹⁸Then the king made a great feast, the Feast of Esther, for all his officials and servants; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces and gave gifts according to the generosity of a king.

PROFILE in Leadership

ESTHER

Protector of the Messianic Line

Esther 2:1-17

By risking her life after rising to prominence, Esther, the captive Jewish orphan, protected the lineage of the coming Messiah. Her gift of intuition and exquisite sense of timing energized her leadership. Through the whole ordeal she remained humbly committed to her people and used her influence to save them all.

Through her kindness and gracious spirit, Esther found favor with the eunuch in charge of the candidates for queen. He rewarded her with a position of prominence and high visibility. During this time, Esther remained close to her foster father, Mordecai. She maintained a teachable spirit and did not lose sight of her origins. Thanks to these godly qualities, Mordecai was able to guide Esther through many potential land mines.

One sees the true nature of Esther's heart following her selection as queen. Here was a former peasant girl who easily could have gotten caught up in the pageantry and fame of royalty. Instead, Esther constantly reminded herself that she had received a God-given status for a reason. Her servant heart enabled her to risk her life for others. She had earned the trust of the king, used her intuition well, and really did come to the kingdom "for such a time as this" (Esth. 4:14).

Mordecai Discovers a Plot

¹⁹When virgins were gathered together a second time, Mordecai sat within the king's gate. ²⁰*Now* Esther had not revealed her family and her people, just as Mordecai had charged her, for Esther obeyed the command of Mordecai as when she was brought up by him.

²¹In those days, while Mordecai sat within the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, doorkeepers, became furious and sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus. ²²So the matter became known to Mordecai, who told Queen Esther, and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name. ²³And when an inquiry was made into the matter, it was confirmed, and both were hanged on a gallows; and it was written in the book of the chronicles in the presence of the king.

The Law of Respect: Esther Stays Accountable to Mordecai

Esther 2:20-22

Esther was a beautiful young Jew being reared by her older cousin, Mordecai, in the days of the Persian captivity. When Esther found favor with the king and was chosen to become his next queen, the choice surprised both her and Mordecai. She would now hold a significant place of influence in the empire, even as a Jewish captive!

Because she had learned well the Law of Respect, she remained accountable to Mordecai's leadership and mentoring even after she moved into the palace. She listened and followed his counsel about concealing her identity as a Jew. His advice paid off, and the king selected her to be the queen of Persia.

What allowed Mordecai to continue to be a persuasive mentor in Esther's life, even though she became rich, famous, and influential? We see four reasons in chapter two:

1. Relationship: He had raised her and known her for years.
2. Wisdom: He intuitively knew what she should do when campaigning to be queen.
3. Concern: Every day he paced in front of Esther's court out of love and concern.
4. Courage: He informed Esther when he discovered a plot against the king.

Chapter 3

Haman's Conspiracy Against the Jews

¹After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. ²And all the king's servants who were within the king's gate bowed and paid homage to Haman, for so the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai would not bow or pay homage. ³Then the king's servants who were within the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why do you transgress the king's command?" ⁴Now it happened, when they spoke to him daily and he would not listen to them, that they told it to Haman, to see whether Mordecai's words would stand; for Mordecai had told them that he was a Jew. ⁵When Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow or pay him homage, Haman was filled with wrath. ⁶But he disdained to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him of the people of Mordecai. Instead, Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus—the people of Mordecai.

PROFILE in Leadership

MORDECAI

Refusing the Smallest Compromise

Esther 3:1-6

Being God's kind of leader means refusing even the smallest compromise in what you believe. Mordecai was that kind of leader.

Mordecai wasn't going to bend—not one bit—when Haman, the newly appointed prime minister of Persia, demanded a show of reverence bordering on worship (Esth. 3:2). When the palace officials asked Mordecai why he refused to reverence the prime minister, he told them he was a Jew. And what difference did that make? The Lord Himself had said, “You shall have no other gods before Me.... You shall not bow down to them nor serve them” (Ex. 20:3, 5). Day after day these men tried to “talk some sense” into Mordecai; didn't Haman have the authority to execute him for his insolence?

Haman, in his arrogance and pride, decided not to challenge Mordecai directly, but to wipe out his whole race. In a plot eerily similar to the one carried out many centuries later in Nazi Germany, Haman decreed that Mordecai's people, the Jews, should be exterminated.

Mordecai, of course, paled at the news. Still, he held steadfastly to his refusal to dishonor his God by bowing before a mere man. In the end, through a twist utterly characteristic of the Lord, God honored Mordecai and exalted him before the very people who had begged him to compromise his principles.

⁷In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur (that is, the lot), before Haman to determine the day and the month,^a until it fell on the twelfth month,^b which is the month of Adar.

⁸Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, “There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from all other people’s, and they do not keep the king’s laws. Therefore it is not fitting for the king to let them remain. ⁹“If it pleases the king, let a decree be written that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who do the work, to bring it into the king’s treasuries.”

¹²Then the king’s scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and a decree was written according to all that Haman commanded—to the king’s satraps, to the governors who were over each province, to the officials of all people, to every province according to its script, and to every people in their language. In the name of King Ahasuerus it was written, and sealed with the king’s signet ring. ¹³And the letters were sent by couriers into all the king’s provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, and to plunder their possessions.^a ¹⁴A copy of the document was to be issued as law in every province, being published for all people, that they should be ready for that day. ¹⁵The couriers went out, hastened by the king’s command; and the decree was proclaimed in Shushan the citadel. So the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

Chapter 4

Esther Agrees to Help the Jews

¹When Mordecai learned all that had happened, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city. He cried out with a loud and bitter cry.

⁴So Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her, and the queen was deeply distressed. Then she sent garments to clothe Mordecai and take his sackcloth away from him, but he would not accept them. ⁵Then Esther called Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend her, and she gave him a command concerning Mordecai, to learn what and why this was. ⁶So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square that was in front of the king's gate. ⁷And Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and the sum of money that Haman had promised to pay into the king's treasuries to destroy the Jews. ⁸He also gave him a copy of the written decree for their destruction, which was given at Shushan, that he might show it to Esther and explain it to her, and that he might command her to go in to the king to make supplication to him and plead before him for her people. ⁹So Hathach returned and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

¹⁰Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a command for Mordecai: ¹¹“All the king’s servants and the people of the king’s provinces know that any man or woman who goes into the inner court to the king, who has not been called, he has but one law: put all to death, except the one to whom the king holds out the golden scepter, that he may live. Yet I myself have not been called to go in to the king these thirty days.” ¹²So they told Mordecai Esther’s words.

¹³And Mordecai told them to answer Esther: “Do not think in your heart that you will escape in the king’s palace any more than all the other Jews. ¹⁴“For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father’s house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?”

¹⁵Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai: ¹⁶“Go, gather all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me; neither eat nor drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast likewise. And so I will go to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish!”

The Law of Sacrifice: Esther Is Willing to Give Her Life for the People

Esther 4:11-16

After Mordecai confronts Esther about risking her life for her people, she makes a commitment to approach the king uninvited—even though such an appearance invited death (Esth. 4:11). Esther says simply, “I will go to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish!” (4:16). She took the step; she informed the king; she changed his mind; she saved the day.

Such is the life of a leader who practices the Law of Sacrifice. A leader must be willing to give up to go up.

Of course, leaders do this only when their cause becomes more important than their life. Jesus called His staff to deny themselves, take up their cross, and follow Him (Matt. 16:24). He told them that those who saved their lives would lose them. Esther put the cause of her people above her instinct for self-preservation—and not only lived, but enabled many others to live as well.

¹⁷So Mordecai went his way and did according to all that Esther commanded him.^a

21 LAWS

ESTHER AND THE LAW OF TIMING

When to Lead Is As Important As What to Do and Where to Go

Esther 4:6-17

WHEN THE RIGHT leader and the right moment come together, incredible things happen. Winston Churchill described it like this: “There comes a special moment in everyone’s life, a moment for which that person was born. That special opportunity, when he seizes it, will fulfill his mission—a mission for which he is uniquely qualified. In that moment he finds greatness. It is his finest hour.”

Reading a situation and knowing what to do are not enough to make you succeed in leadership. Only the right action at the right time will bring success. Anything else exacts a high price.

To be an effective leader, you must overcome whatever keeps you from moving forward. Like Esther, you must learn that if you don’t seize the moment...

1. Your fate will be like that of the rest of the crowd.

Sometimes it’s easy to buy in to the notion that we are special and won’t have to take the risks of earlier generations. But that is a myth. If we don’t take risks, we can never expect to rise to the occasion. Mordecai reminded Esther that even though she was queen, she would fare no better than the rest of the Jews if she didn’t talk to the king.

2. God will replace you with someone else.
Mordecai motivated Esther by reminding her that God would accomplish His purposes even if she sat on the sidelines. It’s not necessarily the giftedness of the leader that prompts God’s blessing; it’s more often the leader’s willingness to move when and where He indicates.

3. You could lose more than an opportunity.
Mordecai reminded Esther that if she sat back and did nothing, she could lose more than a chance to do the right thing—she could lose her life. Although doing the right thing at the right time can seem risky, in the long run, leaders incur a greater risk by not taking action.

4. You could miss out on your mission in life.

Mordecai speculated that if Esther failed to act on behalf of her people, she might miss out on God's purpose for her life. You will never accomplish your mission by remaining idle. What paralyzes you? Fear? Image? Regardless of what keeps you from pursuing an opportunity, you will succeed only by making one timely decision after another. There is no such thing as zero risk in leadership. But when you determine to seize a ripe opportunity despite the risk, you build momentum.

The Test of Timing

Make sure that each decision you make stands the test of timing. To help determine if it's the right time to seize an opportunity, consider the following:

1. The Needs Around You

When you keep a finger on the pulse of your people's basic needs, you will always find opportune times to lead.

Esther understood the needs of her people. She understood not only what they needed, but also what they needed from her. Get in touch with your people's needs. Then make a point to continually ask: What is their mood? What do they desire to accomplish? What do they need from me, their leader?

2. The Opportunities Before You

You find ripe opportunities only by looking for them. Early in Esther's leadership, Mordecai did much of the "spotting." He let her know each time he discerned a small window of opportunity. Esther learned from Mordecai's insight, and later discerned the opportune time to inform the king of Mordecai's actions. When you take the time to spot golden opportunities, they start to stick out.

3. The Influencers Behind You

Esther came to value Mordecai's opinion so much that she made sure he remained by her side throughout her reign. Before you make an important decision, ask your key influencers what they are feeling. Do they see the same opportunity you do? Are they discerning the same timing? When trying to discern the right time to take action, you must get feedback from your key people.

4. The Successes Under You

Experience provides practical advice, so take a minute to recall your successes. Have you done anything like this before? Is it reasonable to expect the same outcome from this decision?

Mordecai had to convince Esther about the right time to approach the king. Success in that incident gave her confidence for the future. Before long, Esther had gained so much influence with the king that he was asking her for advice.

5. The Courage Within You

Leadership requires courage—the courage to risk, to reach, and to put yourself on the line to seize an opportunity. The word courage comes from a French word that means “heart.” Taking advantage of an opportunity at the right time requires heart.

Esther demonstrated tremendous courage, time after time. It took great heart to stand before the king. Fear tried to get her to back down—and fear will also try to get the better of you. But good leaders understand that ripe opportunities never come without fear. So they move forward despite a moment of hesitation.

Chapter 5

Esther's Banquet

¹Now it happened on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, across from the king's house, while the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, facing the entrance of the house.^a

²So it was, when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, that she found favor in his sight, and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. Then Esther went near and touched the top of the scepter.

³And the king said to her, "What do you wish, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you—up to half the kingdom!"

⁴So Esther answered, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

⁵Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, that he may do as Esther has said." So the king and Haman went to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

⁶At the banquet of wine the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request, up to half the kingdom? It shall be done!"

⁷Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and request is this:⁸"If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, then let the king and Haman come to the banquet which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king has said.”

Haman’s Plot Against Mordecai

⁹So Haman went out that day joyful and with a glad heart; but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king’s gate, and that he did not stand or tremble before him, he was filled with indignation against Mordecai. ¹⁰Nevertheless Haman restrained himself and went home, and he sent and called for his friends and his wife Zeresh. ¹¹Then Haman told them of his great riches, the multitude of his children, everything in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the officials and servants of the king.

¹²Moreover Haman said, “Besides, Queen Esther invited no one but me to come in with the king to the banquet that she prepared; and tomorrow I am again invited by her, along with the king. ¹³“Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king’s gate.”

¹⁴Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, “Let a gallows be made, fifty cubits high, and in the morning suggest to the king that Mordecai be hanged on it; then go merrily with the king to the banquet.”

And the thing pleased Haman; so he had the gallows made.

Chapter 6

The King Honors Mordecai

¹That night the king could not sleep. So one was commanded to bring the book of the records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king. ²And it was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, the doorkeepers who had sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus. ³Then the king said, "What honor or dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?"

And the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

⁴So the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace to suggest that the king hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

⁵The king's servants said to him, "Haman is there, standing in the court."

And the king said, "Let him come in." ⁶So Haman came in, and the king asked him, "What shall be done for the man whom the king delights to honor?"

Now Haman thought in his heart, "Whom would the king delight to honor more than me?" ⁷And Haman answered the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor, ⁸"let a royal robe be brought which the king has worn, and a horse on which the king has ridden, which has a royal crest placed on its head. ⁹“Then let this robe and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king’s most noble princes, that he may array the man whom the king delights to honor. Then parade him on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him: ‘Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!’ ”

¹⁰Then the king said to Haman, “Hurry, take the robe and the horse, as you have suggested, and do so for Mordecai the Jew who sits within the king’s gate! Leave nothing undone of all that you have spoken.”

¹¹So Haman took the robe and the horse, arrayed Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed before him, “Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!”

¹²Afterward Mordecai went back to the king’s gate. But Haman hurried to his house, mourning and with his head covered. ¹³When Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him, his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, “If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against him but will surely fall before him.”

¹⁴While they were still talking with him, the king’s eunuchs came, and hastened to bring Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

Chapter 7

Haman Hanged Instead of Mordecai

¹So the king and Haman went to dine with Queen Esther.

²And on the second day, at the banquet of wine, the king again said to Esther, “What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request, up to half the kingdom? It shall be done!”

³Then Queen Esther answered and said, “If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. ⁴“For we have been sold, my people and I, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to be annihilated. Had we been sold as male and female slaves, I would have held my tongue, although the enemy could never compensate for the king’s loss.”

⁵So King Ahasuerus answered and said to Queen Esther, “Who is he, and where is he, who would dare presume in his heart to do such a thing?”

⁶And Esther said, “The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman!”

So Haman was terrified before the king and queen.

⁷Then the king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden; but Haman stood before Queen Esther, pleading for his life, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king. ⁸When the king returned from the palace garden to the place of the banquet of wine, Haman had fallen across the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, “Will he also assault the queen while I am in the house?”

As the word left the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face. ⁹Now Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, said to the king, “Look! The gallows, fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke good on the king’s behalf, is standing at the house of Haman.”

Then the king said, “Hang him on it!”

¹⁰So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s wrath subsided.

The Law of Solid Ground: God, Esther, and Haman

Esther 7:1-10

God, Esther, and Haman each play a leading role in the Book of Esther. God is the Leader in control; Esther is the leader under control; and Haman is the leader out of control. Consider each one.

God: The Leader in Control

1. He took Queen Vashti off the throne.
2. He gave Esther the throne.
3. He used Mordecai to supply information.
4. He put everyone in place before the crisis.

Esther: The Leader Under Control

1. Her position didn’t steal her compassion.
2. She felt limited in what she could do.
3. She knew her place in the organization.
4. She felt the need to fast and pray.
5. She depended on the prayers of others.

6. She was willing to take a risk and obey.
7. She didn't take advantage of generosity.
8. She recognized the importance of timing.

Haman: The Leader Out of Control

1. He misunderstood the times.
2. He lost joy over little problems.
3. He needed friends to build his self-image.
4. His greed and ambition made him unhappy.
5. He listened to the wrong people.
6. He thought too highly of himself.
7. He set himself up for a fall.
8. He reaped what he sowed.

Chapter 8

Esther Saves the Jews

¹On that day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told how he was related to her. ²So the king took off his signet ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai; and Esther appointed Mordecai over the house of Haman.

The Law of Solid Ground: Mordecai Gets a Reward

Esther 8:1, 2

Twice Mordecai protected the king from destructive leaders, and twice he was rewarded. He reaped the benefits of a track record that showed him to be a leader who could be trusted. He demonstrates that a leader cannot be successful unless other people want him to be.

³Now Esther spoke again to the king, fell down at his feet, and implored him with tears to counteract the evil of Haman the Agagite, and the scheme which he had devised against the Jews. ⁴And the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king, ⁵and said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight and the thing seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to annihilate the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. ⁶"For how can I endure to see the evil that will come to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my countrymen?"

⁷Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, "Indeed, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows because he tried to lay his hand on the Jews. ⁸"You yourselves write a decree concerning the Jews, as you please, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's signet ring; for whatever is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring no one can revoke."

⁹So the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and it was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, the satraps, the governors, and the princes of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces in all, to every province in its own script, to every people in their own language, and to the Jews in their own script and language. ¹⁰And he wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed it with the king's signet ring, and sent letters by couriers on horseback, riding on royal horses bred from swift steeds. a

¹¹By these letters the king permitted the Jews who were in every city to gather together and protect their lives—to destroy, kill, and annihilate all the forces of any people or province that would assault them, both little children and women, and to plunder their possessions, ¹²on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.^a ¹³A copy of the document was to be issued as a decree in every province and published for all people, so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. ¹⁴The couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the king's command. And the decree was issued in Shushan the citadel.

¹⁵So Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, with a great crown of gold and a garment of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad. ¹⁶The Jews had light and gladness, joy and honor. ¹⁷And in every province and city, wherever the king's command and decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a holiday. Then many of the people of the land became Jews, because fear of the Jews fell upon them.

Chapter 9

The Jews Destroy Their Tormentors

¹Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day, the time came for the king's command and his decree to be executed. On the day that the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, the opposite occurred, in that the Jews themselves overpowered those who hated them. ²The Jews gathered together in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who sought their harm. And no one could withstand them, because fear of them fell upon all people. ³And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and all those doing the king's work, helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. ⁴For Mordecai was great in the king's palace, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for this man Mordecai became increasingly prominent. ⁵Thus the Jews defeated all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, with slaughter and destruction, and did what they pleased with those who hated them.

⁶And in Shushan the citadel the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. ⁷Also Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, ⁸Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, ⁹Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vajezatha— ¹⁰the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews—they killed; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

¹¹On that day the number of those who were killed in Shushan the citadel was brought to the king. ¹²And the king said to Queen Esther, “The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the citadel, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king’s provinces? Now what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. Or what is your further request? It shall be done.”

¹³Then Esther said, “If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do again tomorrow according to today’s decree, and let Haman’s ten sons be hanged on the gallows.”

¹⁴So the king commanded this to be done; the decree was issued in Shushan, and they hanged Haman’s ten sons.

¹⁵And the Jews who were in Shushan gathered together again on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed three hundred men at Shushan; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

¹⁶The remainder of the Jews in the king’s provinces gathered together and protected their lives, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of their enemies; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder. ¹⁷*This was* on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. And on the fourteenth of the month^a they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

The Feast of Purim

¹⁸But the Jews who were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day, as well as on the fourteenth; and on the fifteenth of the month^a they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. ¹⁹Therefore the Jews of the villages who dwelt in the unwall'd towns celebrated the fourteenth day of the month of Adar with gladness and feasting, as a holiday, and for sending presents to one another.

²⁰And Mordecai wrote these things and sent letters to all the Jews, near and far, who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, ²¹to establish among them that they should celebrate yearly the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar, ²²as the days on which the Jews had rest from their enemies, as the month which was turned from sorrow to joy for them, and from mourning to a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, of sending presents to one another and gifts to the poor. ²³So the Jews accepted the custom which they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them, ²⁴because Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to annihilate them, and had cast Pur (that is, the lot), to consume them and destroy them; ²⁵but when Esther^a came before the king, he commanded by letter that this^b wicked plot which Haman had devised against the Jews should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

²⁶So they called these days Purim, after the name Pur. Therefore, because of all the words of this letter, what they had seen concerning this matter, and what had happened to them, ²⁷the Jews established and imposed it upon themselves and their descendants and all who would join them, that without fail they should celebrate these two days every year, according to the written instructions and according to the prescribed time, ²⁸*that* these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, that these days of Purim should not fail to be observed among the Jews, and that the memory of them should not perish among their descendants.

²⁹Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim. ³⁰And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews, to the one hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, ³¹to confirm these days of Purim at their appointed time, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had prescribed for them, and as they had decreed for themselves and their descendants concerning matters of their fasting and lamenting. ³²So the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

Chapter 10

Mordecai's Advancement

¹And King Ahasuerus imposed tribute on the land and on the islands of the sea. ²Now all the acts of his power and his might, and the account of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? ³For Mordecai the Jew was second to King Ahasuerus, and was great among the Jews and well received by the multitude of his brethren, seeking the good of his people and speaking peace to all his countrymen.a

The Book of Job

Introduction to Job

Job's 42 chapters describe one man's hellish loss of nearly everything he holds dear, including his ten children. The book begins by describing Job as blameless and upright, a man who shuns evil. His reputation for integrity makes him a strong leader within his family and community. He has amassed a considerable fortune and demonstrates great wisdom in his business and community affairs. It would be difficult to imagine a better leadership model than Job—discerning, industrious, devoted to God and family, successful, and well-thought-of by his colleagues.

And that is exactly what makes his story so troubling. In no time at all, he loses it all. Through no fault of his own, he must deal with tragedy in its deepest forms. Yet how he deals with it provides a beautiful case study in character, integrity, credibility, patience, and poise.

First, Job maintains perspective. Immediately after hearing the first round of tragic news, he falls to the ground and worships (1:20). He knows that unless he consciously remains subject to God's authority, he will react with bitterness and rancor. He maintains a big-picture perspective.

Next, Job does some soul searching. He looks within and asks whether anything needs correction—something only a secure person can do.

Third, Job begins to ask questions of God and others. Yet even in his complaints, he never abandons his commitment to God or his core values.

Finally, Job determines to continue trusting the process. At one point he declares, “Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him” (13:15). Job decides to await God’s response; he will continue to rely on divine insight.

Yet that is not the end of his sad story. To compound his dilemma, four “friends” approach Job to offer their counsel. They offer several explanations for why all of this is happening, centering around the theme, “You must have sinned.”

The majority of the book features three cycles of debate between Eliphaz, Bildad, Zophar (and Elihu) on one side, and Job on the other. After Job’s “friends” present their futile arguments, God steps in with a series of probing questions. Job realizes his presumption and sincerely repents. He acknowledges that God is God and that he has no right to second-guess the Omniscient One. Then, as a leader who always takes the “high road,” Job prays for his four friends that God would show them mercy for their foolish words.

Reputation for Integrity Makes a Strong Leader

God’s Role in Job

God plays the part of the C.E.O. who finds Himself needing to cast the vision to those who have lost sight of it. In the same way that a supervisor must repeatedly communicate the “big picture” to employees who see things only from their departmental perspective, God shows up at the end of the book to correct all five speakers. He asks, “Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?” (38:4). God plays the leader’s role, providing perspective for the characters in the story.

Lessons in Leadership

- Mature leaders maintain perspective, especially when things don’t go according to plan.
- Good leaders remain teachable and choose their counselors wisely.
- Integrity and character are the foundations for leadership.
- Never pretend or presume to have all the answers.
- We can live without having all the answers.
- Effective leaders can adjust when things go wrong.

Chapter 1

Job and His Family in Uz

¹There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God and shunned evil. ²And seven sons and three daughters were born to him. ³Also, his possessions were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very large household, so that this man was the greatest of all the people of the East.

⁴And his sons would go and feast in their houses, each on his appointed day, and would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. ⁵So it was, when the days of feasting had run their course, that Job would send and sanctify them, and he would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, “It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed a God in their hearts.” Thus Job did regularly.

Satan Attacks Job’s Character

⁶Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan a also came among them. ⁷And the LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?"

So Satan answered the LORD and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it."

⁸Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil?"

⁹So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing? ¹⁰"Have You not made a hedge around him, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. ¹¹"But now, stretch out Your hand and touch all that he has, and he will surely curse You to Your face!"

¹²And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power; only do not lay a hand on his person."

So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job Loses His Property and Children

¹³Now there was a day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house; ¹⁴and a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys feeding beside them, ¹⁵"when the Sabians^a raided them and took them away—indeed they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

¹⁶While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them; and I alone have escaped to tell you!”

¹⁷While he was still speaking, another also came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three bands, raided the camels and took them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!”

¹⁸While he was still speaking, another also came and said, “Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house, ¹⁹“and suddenly a great wind came from across^a the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people, and they are dead; and I alone have escaped to tell you!”

²⁰Then Job arose, tore his robe, and shaved his head; and he fell to the ground and worshiped. ²¹And he said:

“Naked I came from my mother’s womb,
And naked shall I return there.
The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away;

Blessed be the name of the LORD.”

²²In all this Job did not sin nor charge God with wrong.

Self-Discipline: Job Maintains Perspective

Job 1:1-22

All hell broke loose. The man lost almost everything: his livestock, his land, his home, and even his children.

Job was a disciplined person, however. He lived his life from his character, not his emotions.

Consequently, Job maintained perspective when terrible tragedy struck him: “Then Job arose, tore his robe, and shaved his head; and he fell to the ground and worshiped” (Job 1:20). The Scripture later tells us that in all the crises he faced, Job never sinned against God with his words (2:10). He maintained his sense of integrity all the way through his ordeal.

Wow! What discipline! Job modeled a valuable leadership posture for us. Note the sequence of remarkable events in his life:

1. Worship: Job worshiped and articulated God’s sovereignty in his life.
2. Perspective: Worship enabled Job to capture God’s perspective and power.
3. Humility: Perspective allowed Job to see his limited knowledge.
4. Teachability: Humility caused Job to hunger and seek God’s insight.
5. Victory: Teachability ultimately led Job to gain victory over his losses.

Chapter 2

Satan Attacks Job's Health

¹Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD. ²And the LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?"

Satan answered the LORD and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it."

³Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil? And still he holds fast to his integrity, although you incited Me against him, to destroy him without cause."

⁴So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life. ⁵"But stretch out Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will surely curse You to Your face!"

⁶And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand, but spare his life."

⁷So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and struck Job with painful boils from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. ⁸And he took for himself a potsherd with which to scrape himself while he sat in the midst of the ashes.

⁹Then his wife said to him, “Do you still hold fast to your integrity? Curse God and die!”

¹⁰But he said to her, “You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. Shall we indeed accept good from God, and shall we not accept adversity?” In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Job’s Three Friends

¹¹Now when Job’s three friends heard of all this adversity that had come upon him, each one came from his own place—Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. For they had made an appointment together to come and mourn with him, and to comfort him. ¹²And when they raised their eyes from afar, and did not recognize him, they lifted their voices and wept; and each one tore his robe and sprinkled dust on his head toward heaven. ¹³So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

Listening: To Connect with Job, His Friends Listen for a Week

Job 2:11-13

When Job’s friends hear about his catastrophe, they want to help. By this time, boils have broken out all over Job’s body, and his friends don’t even recognize him. They feel his pain and are horrified to see a friend in such need. Mercifully, they keep their mouths shut for one whole week (if only they had continued their silence!). They sit with their friend and listen.

Somehow these friends realized an important truth: People don't lose intimacy when they stop talking, but when they stop listening. Leaders seldom realize how much their listening empowers the other person. Because they are leaders, the sheer act of listening speaks volumes that even a great speech can't communicate. Listening...

1. Communicates the value of the other person and his or her thoughts.
2. Communicates love and understanding and care for their needs.
3. Communicates a desire to grow, learn, and remain teachable.

Chapter 3

Job Deplores His Birth

¹After this Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth.²And Job spoke, and said:

³“May the day perish on which I was born,
And the night in which it was said,
‘A male child is conceived.’

⁴May that day be darkness;
May God above not seek it,
Nor the light shine upon it.

⁵May darkness and the shadow of death claim it;
May a cloud settle on it;
May the blackness of the day terrify it.

⁶*As for* that night, may darkness seize it;
May it not rejoice^a among the days of the year,
May it not come into the number of the months.

⁷Oh, may that night be barren!
May no joyful shout come into it!

⁸May those curse it who curse the day,
Those who are ready to arouse Leviathan.

⁹May the stars of its morning be dark;
May it look for light, but have none,
And not see the dawning of the day;

¹⁰Because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb,

Nor hide sorrow from my eyes.

¹¹"Why did I not die at birth?
Why did I not perish when I came from the womb?

¹²Why did the knees receive me?
Or why the breasts, that I should nurse?

¹³For now I would have lain still and been quiet,
I would have been asleep;
Then I would have been at rest

¹⁴With kings and counselors of the earth,
Who built ruins for themselves,

¹⁵Or with princes who had gold,
Who filled their houses with silver;

¹⁶Or why was I not hidden like a stillborn child,
Like infants who never saw light?

¹⁷There the wicked cease from troubling,
And there the weary are at rest.

¹⁸*There* the prisoners rest together;
They do not hear the voice of the oppressor.

¹⁹The small and great are there,

And the servant is free from his master.

²⁰"Why is light given to him who is in misery,
And life to the bitter of soul,

²¹Who long for death, but it does not come,
And search for it more than hidden treasures;

²²Who rejoice exceedingly,
And are glad when they can find the grave?

²³*Why is light given* to a man whose way is hidden,
And whom God has hedged in?

²⁴For my sighing comes before I eat,^{a}

And my groanings pour out like water.

²⁵For the thing I greatly feared has come upon me,
And what I dreaded has happened to me.

²⁶I am not at ease, nor am I quiet;

I have no rest, for trouble comes.”

Chapter 4

Eliphaz: Job Has Sinned

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

²*"If one attempts a word with you, will you become weary?*

But who can withhold himself from speaking?

³Surely you have instructed many,

And you have strengthened weak hands.

⁴Your words have upheld him who was stumbling,

And you have strengthened the feeble knees;

⁵But now it comes upon you, and you are weary;

It touches you, and you are troubled.

⁶*Is not your reverence your confidence?*

And the integrity of your ways your hope?

⁷*"Remember now, who ever perished being innocent?*

Or where were the upright ever cut off?

⁸Even as I have seen,

Those who plow iniquity

And sow trouble reap the same.

⁹By the blast of God they perish,

And by the breath of His anger they are consumed.

¹⁰The roaring of the lion,

The voice of the fierce lion,

And the teeth of the young lions are broken.

¹¹The old lion perishes for lack of prey,

And the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

¹²“Now a word was secretly brought to me,

And my ear received a whisper of it.

¹³In disquieting thoughts from the visions of the night,

When deep sleep falls on men,

¹⁴Fear came upon me, and trembling,
Which made all my bones shake.

¹⁵Then a spirit passed before my face;
The hair on my body stood up.

¹⁶It stood still,
But I could not discern its appearance.

A form was before my eyes;

There was silence;

Then I heard a voice saying:

¹⁷‘Can a mortal be more righteous than God?

Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

¹⁸If He puts no trust in His servants,

If He charges His angels with error,

¹⁹How much more those who dwell in houses of clay,

Whose foundation is in the dust,

Who are crushed before a moth?

²⁰They are broken in pieces from morning till evening;

They perish forever, with no one regarding.

²¹Does not their own excellence go away?

They die, even without wisdom.’

Chapter 5

Eliphaz: Job Is Chastened by God

Is there anyone who will answer you?
And to which of the holy ones will you turn?
²For wrath kills a foolish man,
And envy slays a simple one.
³I have seen the foolish taking root,
But suddenly I cursed his dwelling place.
⁴His sons are far from safety,
They are crushed in the gate,
And there is no deliverer.
⁵Because the hungry eat up his harvest,
Taking it even from the thorns,^a
And a snare snatches their substance.^b
⁶For affliction does not come from the dust,
Nor does trouble spring from the ground;
⁷Yet man is born to trouble,

As the sparks fly upward.

⁸“But as for me, I would seek God,
And to God I would commit my cause—
⁹Who does great things, and unsearchable,
Marvelous things without number.
¹⁰He gives rain on the earth,
And sends waters on the fields.

¹¹He sets on high those who are lowly,
And those who mourn are lifted to safety.
¹²He frustrates the devices of the crafty,
So that their hands cannot carry out their plans.
¹³He catches the wise in their own craftiness,
And the counsel of the cunning comes quickly upon
them.

¹⁴They meet with darkness in the daytime,
And grope at noontime as in the night.

¹⁵But He saves the needy from the sword,
From the mouth of the mighty,
And from their hand.

¹⁶So the poor have hope,

And injustice shuts her mouth.

¹⁷“Behold, happy is the man whom God corrects;
Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.

¹⁸For He bruises, but He binds up;
He wounds, but His hands make whole.

¹⁹He shall deliver you in six troubles,
Yes, in seven no evil shall touch you.

²⁰In famine He shall redeem you from death,
And in war from the power of the sword.

²¹You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue,

And you shall not be afraid of destruction when it comes.

²²You shall laugh at destruction and famine,
And you shall not be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

²³For you shall have a covenant with the stones of the field,

And the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you.

²⁴You shall know that your tent is in peace;

You shall visit your dwelling and find nothing amiss.

²⁵You shall also know that your descendants shall be many,

And your offspring like the grass of the earth.

²⁶You shall come to the grave at a full age,
As a sheaf of grain ripens in its season.

²⁷Behold, this we have searched out;
It is true.

Hear it, and know for yourself.”

Chapter 6

Job: My Complaint Is Just

¹Then Job answered and said:

²“Oh, that my grief were fully weighed,
And my calamity laid with it on the scales!

³For then it would be heavier than the sand of the sea—

Therefore my words have been rash.

⁴For the arrows of the Almighty are within me;
My spirit drinks in their poison;
The terrors of God are arrayed against me.

⁵Does the wild donkey bray when it has grass,
Or does the ox low over its fodder?

⁶Can flavorless food be eaten without salt?
Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

⁷My soul refuses to touch them;

They are as loathsome food to me.

⁸“Oh, that I might have my request,
That God would grant me the thing that I long for!

⁹That it would please God to crush me,
That He would loose His hand and cut me off!

¹⁰Then I would still have comfort;

Though in anguish I would exult,
He will not spare;

For I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.

¹¹“What strength do I have, that I should hope?
And what is my end, that I should prolong my life?

¹²*Is* my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh bronze?

¹³*Is* my help not within me?

And is success driven from me?

¹⁴“To him who is afflicted, kindness should be shown
by his friend,

Even though he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.

¹⁵My brothers have dealt deceitfully like a brook,
Like the streams of the brooks that pass away,

¹⁶Which are dark because of the ice,
And into which the snow vanishes.

¹⁷When it is warm, they cease to flow;
When it is hot, they vanish from their place.

¹⁸The paths of their way turn aside,
They go nowhere and perish.

¹⁹The caravans of Tema look,
The travelers of Sheba hope for them.

²⁰They are disappointed because they were confident;

They come there and are confused.

²¹For now you are nothing,
You see terror and are afraid.

²²Did I ever say, ‘Bring something to me’?
Or, ‘Offer a bribe for me from your wealth’?

²³Or, ‘Deliver me from the enemy’s hand’?

Or, 'Redeem me from the hand of oppressors'?

²⁴"Teach me, and I will hold my tongue;
Cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

²⁵How forceful are right words!

But what does your arguing prove?

²⁶Do you intend to rebuke my words,
And the speeches of a desperate one, which are as wind?

²⁷Yes, you overwhelm the fatherless,
And you undermine your friend.

²⁸Now therefore, be pleased to look at me;
For I would never lie to your face.

²⁹Yield now, let there be no injustice!
Yes, concede, my righteousness still stands!

³⁰Is there injustice on my tongue?

Cannot my taste discern the unsavory?

Chapter 7

Job: My Suffering Is Comfortless

¹*“Is there* not a time of hard service for man on earth?

Are not his days also like the days of a hired man?

²Like a servant who earnestly desires the shade,
And like a hired man who eagerly looks for his wages,

³So I have been allotted months of futility,
And wearisome nights have been appointed to me.

⁴When I lie down, I say, ‘When shall I arise,
And the night be ended?’

For I have had my fill of tossing till dawn.

⁵My flesh is caked with worms and dust,

My skin is cracked and breaks out afresh.

⁶“My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle,
And are spent without hope.

⁷Oh, remember that my life is a breath!
My eye will never again see good.

⁸The eye of him who sees me will see me no more;
While your eyes are upon me, I shall no longer be.

⁹As the cloud disappears and vanishes away,
So he who goes down to the grave does not come up.

¹⁰He shall never return to his house,

Nor shall his place know him anymore.

¹¹“Therefore I will not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

¹²*Am* I a sea, or a sea serpent,
That You set a guard over me?

¹³When I say, ‘My bed will comfort me,
My couch will ease my complaint,’

¹⁴Then You scare me with dreams
And terrify me with visions,

¹⁵So that my soul chooses strangling
And death rather than my body.^a

¹⁶I loathe my life;
I would not live forever.
Let me alone,

For my days are but a breath.

¹⁷“What is man, that You should exalt him,
That You should set Your heart on him,

¹⁸That You should visit him every morning,
And test him every moment?

¹⁹How long?

Will You not look away from me,
And let me alone till I swallow my saliva?

²⁰Have I sinned?

What have I done to You, O watcher of men?

Why have You set me as Your target,

So that I am a burden to myself?^a

²¹Why then do You not pardon my transgression,

Integrity: Job Challenges His Friends to Identify His Flaws

Job 6:1-7:21

All of Job's friends posed a theory about his troubles, but Job simply asked them to survey his life and point out any place where he lacked integrity. He felt so certain of the blamelessness of his heart that he invited the scrutiny of his peers. Only a leader with strong character and a strong sense of security can do that!

C. S. Lewis calls this quality, "Leaders with chests." Lewis likened the properly ordered soul to the human body: the head (reason) must rule the belly (the sensual appetites) through the chest (character and spirit). The chest is the indispensable liaison between reason and the appetites. Without a strong "chest," men would succumb to excuses, relativism, and compromise. Lewis called those with no character or integrity, "men without chests."

What enabled Job to possess such integrity as a leader?

1. Strong Security: He felt emotionally secure enough to take criticism.
2. Clear Conscience: He kept a clear and sensitive conscience regarding sin.
3. Pure Motives: He refused to entertain self-indulgent motives.
4. Solid Character: He was committed to doing the right thing at any cost.

And take away my iniquity?
For now I will lie down in the dust,

And You will seek me diligently,

But I will no longer be."

Chapter 8

Bildad: Job Should Repent

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

²“How long will you speak these things,
And the words of your mouth be like a strong wind?

³Does God subvert judgment?
Or does the Almighty pervert justice?

⁴If your sons have sinned against Him,
He has cast them away for their transgression.

⁵If you would earnestly seek God
And make your supplication to the Almighty,

⁶If you were pure and upright,
Surely now He would awake for you,
And prosper your rightful dwelling place.

⁷Though your beginning was small,

Yet your latter end would increase abundantly.

⁸“For inquire, please, of the former age,
And consider the things discovered by their fathers;

⁹For we were born yesterday, and know nothing,
Because our days on earth are a shadow.

¹⁰Will they not teach you and tell you,

And utter words from their heart?

¹¹“Can the papyrus grow up without a marsh?

Can the reeds flourish without water?

¹²While it is yet green and not cut down,
It withers before any other plant.

¹³So are the paths of all who forget God;
And the hope of the hypocrite shall perish,

¹⁴Whose confidence shall be cut off,
And whose trust is a spider’s web.

¹⁵He leans on his house, but it does not stand.
He holds it fast, but it does not endure.

¹⁶He grows green in the sun,
And his branches spread out in his garden.

¹⁷His roots wrap around the rock heap,
And look for a place in the stones.

¹⁸If he is destroyed from his place,

Then it will deny him, saying, ‘I have not seen you.’

¹⁹“Behold, this is the joy of His way,
And out of the earth others will grow.

²⁰Behold, God will not cast away the blameless,
Nor will He uphold the evildoers.

²¹He will yet fill your mouth with laughing,
And your lips with rejoicing.

²²Those who hate you will be clothed with shame,

And the dwelling place of the wicked will come to nothing.”a

Chapter 9

Job: There Is No Mediator

¹Then Job answered and said:

²“Truly I know it is so,
But how can a man be righteous before God?

³If one wished to contend with Him,
He could not answer Him one time out of a thousand.

⁴*God is* wise in heart and mighty in strength.
Who has hardened himself against Him and prospered?

⁵He removes the mountains, and they do not know
When He overturns them in His anger;

⁶He shakes the earth out of its place,
And its pillars tremble;

⁷He commands the sun, and it does not rise;
He seals off the stars;

⁸He alone spreads out the heavens,
And treads on the waves of the sea;

⁹He made the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades,
And the chambers of the south;

¹⁰He does great things past finding out,
Yes, wonders without number.

¹¹If He goes by me, I do not see Him;
If He moves past, I do not perceive Him;

¹²If He takes away, who can hinder Him?
Who can say to Him, 'What are You doing?'

¹³God will not withdraw His anger,

The allies of the proud^a lie prostrate beneath Him.

¹⁴"How then can I answer Him,
And choose my words to reason with Him?

¹⁵For though I were righteous, I could not answer
Him;

I would beg mercy of my Judge.

¹⁶If I called and He answered me,
I would not believe that He was listening to my voice.

¹⁷For He crushes me with a tempest,
And multiplies my wounds without cause.

¹⁸He will not allow me to catch my breath,
But fills me with bitterness.

¹⁹If it is a matter of strength, indeed He is strong;
And if of justice, who will appoint my day in court?

²⁰Though I were righteous, my own mouth would condemn me;

Though I were blameless, it would prove me perverse.

²¹"I am blameless, yet I do not know myself;
I despise my life.

²²It is all one thing;
Therefore I say, 'He destroys the blameless and the wicked.'

²³If the scourge slays suddenly,
He laughs at the plight of the innocent.

²⁴The earth is given into the hand of the wicked.
He covers the faces of its judges.

If it is not He, who else could it be?

²⁵“Now my days are swifter than a runner;
They flee away, they see no good.

²⁶They pass by like swift ships,
Like an eagle swooping on its prey.

²⁷If I say, ‘I will forget my complaint,
I will put off my sad face and wear a smile,’

²⁸I am afraid of all my sufferings;
I know that You will not hold me innocent.

²⁹*If* I am condemned,
Why then do I labor in vain?

³⁰If I wash myself with snow water,
And cleanse my hands with soap,

³¹Yet You will plunge me into the pit,
And my own clothes will abhor me.

³²“For He is not a man, as I am,
That I may answer Him,
And that we should go to court together.

³³Nor is there any mediator between us,
Who may lay his hand on us both.

³⁴Let Him take His rod away from me,
And do not let dread of Him terrify me.

³⁵*Then* I would speak and not fear Him,

But it is not so with me.

Chapter 10

Job: I Would Plead with God

¹“My soul loathes my life;
I will give free course to my complaint,
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

²I will say to God, ‘Do not condemn me;
Show me why You contend with me.

³*Does it* seem good to You that You should oppress,
That You should despise the work of Your hands,
And smile on the counsel of the wicked?

⁴Do You have eyes of flesh?
Or do You see as man sees?

⁵*Are* Your days like the days of a mortal man?
Are Your years like the days of a mighty man,

⁶That You should seek for my iniquity
And search out my sin,

⁷Although You know that I am not wicked,

And there is no one who can deliver from Your hand?

⁸Your hands have made me and fashioned me,
An intricate unity;
Yet You would destroy me.

⁹Remember, I pray, that You have made me like clay.
And will You turn me into dust again?

¹⁰Did You not pour me out like milk,
And curdle me like cheese,

¹¹Clothe me with skin and flesh,
And knit me together with bones and sinews?

¹²You have granted me life and favor,

And Your care has preserved my spirit.

¹³'And these things You have hidden in Your heart;
I know that this was with You:

¹⁴If I sin, then You mark me,
And will not acquit me of my iniquity.

¹⁵If I am wicked, woe to me;
Even if I am righteous, I cannot lift up my head.

I am full of disgrace;

See my misery!

¹⁶If my head is exalted,
You hunt me like a fierce lion,
And again You show Yourself awesome against me.

¹⁷You renew Your witnesses against me,
And increase Your indignation toward me;

Changes and war are ever with me.

¹⁸'Why then have You brought me out of the womb?
Oh, that I had perished and no eye had seen me!

¹⁹I would have been as though I had not been.

I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.

²⁰Are not my days few?

Cease! Leave me alone, that I may take a little comfort,

²¹Before I go to the place from which I shall not return,

To the land of darkness and the shadow of death,

²²A land as dark as darkness itself,

As the shadow of death, without any order,

Where even the light is like darkness.' "

Chapter 11

Zophar Urges Job to Repent

¹Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

²“Should not the multitude of words be answered?
And should a man full of talk be vindicated?

³Should your empty talk make men hold their peace?
And when you mock, should no one rebuke you?

⁴For you have said,
‘My doctrine is pure,
And I am clean in your eyes.’

⁵But oh, that God would speak,
And open His lips against you,

⁶That He would show you the secrets of wisdom!
For they would double your prudence.
Know therefore that God exacts from you

Less than your iniquity deserves.

⁷“Can you search out the deep things of God?
Can you find out the limits of the Almighty?

⁸*They are* higher than heaven— what can you do?
Deeper than Sheol— what can you know?

⁹Their measure is longer than the earth

And broader than the sea.

¹⁰"If He passes by, imprisons, and gathers to judgment,

Then who can hinder Him?

¹¹For He knows deceitful men;

He sees wickedness also.

Will He not then consider it?

¹²For an empty-headed man will be wise,

When a wild donkey's colt is born a man.

¹³"If you would prepare your heart,

And stretch out your hands toward Him;

¹⁴If iniquity were in your hand, and you put it far away,

And would not let wickedness dwell in your tents;

¹⁵Then surely you could lift up your face without spot;

Yes, you could be steadfast, and not fear;

¹⁶Because you would forget your misery,

And remember it as waters that have passed away,

¹⁷And your life would be brighter than noonday.

Though you were dark, you would be like the morning.

¹⁸And you would be secure, because there is hope;

Yes, you would dig around you, and take your rest in safety.

¹⁹You would also lie down, and no one would make you afraid;

Yes, many would court your favor.

²⁰But the eyes of the wicked will fail,

And they shall not escape,

And their hope—loss of life!"

Chapter 12

Job Answers His Critics

¹Then Job answered and said:

²“No doubt you are the people,
And wisdom will die with you!

³But I have understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.

Indeed, who does not know such things as these?

⁴“I am one mocked by his friends,
Who called on God, and He answered him,
The just and blameless who is ridiculed.

⁵A lamp^a is despised in the thought of one who is at ease;

It is made ready for those whose feet slip.

⁶The tents of robbers prosper,
And those who provoke God are secure—

In what God provides by His hand.

⁷“But now ask the beasts, and they will teach you;
And the birds of the air, and they will tell you;

⁸Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you;
And the fish of the sea will explain to you.

⁹Who among all these does not know
That the hand of the LORD has done this,
¹⁰In whose hand is the life of every living thing,
And the breath of all mankind?
¹¹Does not the ear test words
And the mouth taste its food?
¹²Wisdom is with aged men,

And with length of days, understanding.

¹³“With Him are wisdom and strength,
He has counsel and understanding.
¹⁴If He breaks a thing down, it cannot be rebuilt;
If He imprisons a man, there can be no release.
¹⁵If He withholds the waters, they dry up;
If He sends them out, they overwhelm the earth.
¹⁶With Him are strength and prudence.
The deceived and the deceiver are His.
¹⁷He leads counselors away plundered,
And makes fools of the judges.
¹⁸He loosens the bonds of kings,
And binds their waist with a belt.
¹⁹He leads princes^a away plundered,
And overthrows the mighty.
²⁰He deprives the trusted ones of speech,
And takes away the discernment of the elders.
²¹He pours contempt on princes,
And disarms the mighty.
²²He uncovers deep things out of darkness,
And brings the shadow of death to light.
²³He makes nations great, and destroys them;
He enlarges nations, and guides them.
²⁴He takes away the understanding^a of the chiefs of the people of the earth,
And makes them wander in a pathless wilderness.

²⁵They grope in the dark without light,
And He makes them stagger like a drunken man.

Chapter 13

¹“Behold, my eye has seen all this,
My ear has heard and understood it.

²What you know, I also know;
I am not inferior to you.

³But I would speak to the Almighty,
And I desire to reason with God.

⁴But you forgers of lies,
You are all worthless physicians.

⁵Oh, that you would be silent,
And it would be your wisdom!

⁶Now hear my reasoning,
And heed the pleadings of my lips.

⁷Will you speak wickedly for God,
And talk deceitfully for Him?

⁸Will you show partiality for Him?
Will you contend for God?

⁹Will it be well when He searches you out?
Or can you mock Him as one mocks a man?

¹⁰He will surely rebuke you
If you secretly show partiality.

¹¹Will not His excellence make you afraid,
And the dread of Him fall upon you?

¹²Your platitudes are proverbs of ashes,

Your defenses are defenses of clay.

¹³“Hold your peace with me, and let me speak,
Then let come on me what may!

¹⁴Why do I take my flesh in my teeth,

And put my life in my hands?

¹⁵Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him.

Commitment: Job Stays Steady at All Costs

Job 13:15

The statement confounds nominal Christians, yet it is exactly the kind of affirmation that God uses to build His kingdom in the darkest places on earth. “Though He slay me,” Job says, “yet will I trust Him” (Job 13:15).

Statements like this shake the very gates of hell. What can stop a leader who has made this kind of commitment? Not pain. Not death. Not hardship.

Why has terrorism, for instance, become such an international problem? Because terrorists already have given up their lives for their cause. They will drive a truck full of explosives into enemy headquarters because they no longer hold their lives dear.

This is where Job finally ended up—willing to give up his life for God. Only in that position do we find complete liberation—free from any temptation, threat, bribe, sin, or enticement. When we can say, with the apostle Paul, that we have already died (Gal. 2:20), then we will have reached the place where God can really use us.

Even so, I will defend my own ways before Him.

¹⁶He also shall be my salvation,

For a hypocrite could not come before Him.

¹⁷Listen carefully to my speech,
And to my declaration with your ears.

¹⁸See now, I have prepared my case,
I know that I shall be vindicated.

¹⁹Who is he who will contend with me?

If now I hold my tongue, I perish.

Job's Despondent Prayer

²⁰"Only two things do not do to me,
Then I will not hide myself from You:

²¹Withdraw Your hand far from me,
And let not the dread of You make me afraid.

²²Then call, and I will answer;
Or let me speak, then You respond to me.

²³How many are my iniquities and sins?
Make me know my transgression and my sin.

²⁴Why do You hide Your face,
And regard me as Your enemy?

²⁵Will You frighten a leaf driven to and fro?
And will You pursue dry stubble?

²⁶For You write bitter things against me,
And make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.

²⁷You put my feet in the stocks,
And watch closely all my paths.

You set a limit^a for the soles of my feet.

²⁸"Man^a decays like a rotten thing,

Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

Chapter 14

¹“Man who is born of woman
Is of few days and full of trouble.

²He comes forth like a flower and fades away;
He flees like a shadow and does not continue.

³And do You open Your eyes on such a one,
And bring me ^a to judgment with Yourself?

⁴Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?
No one!

⁵Since his days are determined,
The number of his months is with You;
You have appointed his limits, so that he cannot pass.

⁶Look away from him that he may rest,
Till like a hired man he finishes his day.

⁷“For there is hope for a tree,
If it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that its tender shoots will not cease.

⁸Though its root may grow old in the earth,
And its stump may die in the ground,

⁹*Yet* at the scent of water it will bud
And bring forth branches like a plant.

¹⁰But man dies and is laid away;
Indeed he breathes his last
And where is he?

¹¹As water disappears from the sea,
And a river becomes parched and dries up,

¹²So man lies down and does not rise.
Till the heavens are no more,

They will not awake

Nor be roused from their sleep.

¹³“Oh, that You would hide me in the grave,
That You would conceal me until Your wrath is past,
That You would appoint me a set time, and remember me!

¹⁴If a man dies, shall he live again?
All the days of my hard service I will wait,
Till my change comes.

¹⁵You shall call, and I will answer You;
You shall desire the work of Your hands.

¹⁶For now You number my steps,
But do not watch over my sin.

¹⁷My transgression is sealed up in a bag,

And You cover^a my iniquity.

¹⁸“But as a mountain falls and crumbles away,
And as a rock is moved from its place;

¹⁹As water wears away stones,
And as torrents wash away the soil of the earth;
So You destroy the hope of man.

²⁰You prevail forever against him, and he passes on;
You change his countenance and send him away.

²¹His sons come to honor, and he does not know it;
They are brought low, and he does not perceive it.

²²But his flesh will be in pain over it,

And his soul will mourn over it.”

JOB

Puzzled, Not Unbelieving

Job 13:20-14:22

God doesn't mind questions; it's doubt that He hates.

For many wearying hours, the three friends of Job—Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar—accused Job of all kinds of evil. They spoke the kind of foolish words that the healthy and ill-informed often speak to those in pain.

O, how Job wanted to take his case to the Lord Himself! “Why did I not die at birth?” he asked the Lord. “How long? Will You not look away from me, and let me alone till I swallow my saliva?” (Job 3:11; 7:19).

Job's words reflect the kind of torment we would expect from a godly man in deep pain. But God says nothing. Only at the end of the book does God at last break His silence. And while He answers not one of Job's questions, neither does He chastise him for asking them. God rebukes Job for only one thing: doubting His righteous character (40:8).

Leaders must never be afraid to ask hard questions of God, but neither must they demand that He answer. And no matter how dark our circumstances may grow, we must resist the temptation to doubt God's holy nature. When we, like Job, through trembling lips confess the awesome majesty of God, we may at last be ready for the awesome blessing of God.

Chapter 15

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Folly

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

²“Should a wise man answer with empty knowledge,
And fill himself with the east wind?

³Should he reason with unprofitable talk,
Or by speeches with which he can do no good?

⁴Yes, you cast off fear,
And restrain prayer before God.

⁵For your iniquity teaches your mouth,
And you choose the tongue of the crafty.

⁶Your own mouth condemns you, and not I;

Yes, your own lips testify against you.

⁷“Are you the first man who was born?
Or were you made before the hills?

⁸Have you heard the counsel of God?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

⁹What do you know that we do not know?
What do you understand that is not in us?

¹⁰Both the gray-haired and the aged are among us,
Much older than your father.

¹¹*Are* the consolations of God too small for you,

And the word spoken gently^a with you?

¹²Why does your heart carry you away,

And what do your eyes wink at,

¹³That you turn your spirit against God,

And let such words go out of your mouth?

¹⁴“What is man, that he could be pure?

And he who is born of a woman, that he could be righteous?

¹⁵If God puts no trust in His saints,

And the heavens are not pure in His sight,

¹⁶How much less man, who is abominable and filthy,

Who drinks iniquity like water!

¹⁷“I will tell you, hear me;

What I have seen I will declare,

¹⁸What wise men have told,

Not hiding anything received from their fathers,

¹⁹To whom alone the land was given,

And no alien passed among them:

²⁰The wicked man writhes with pain all his days,

And the number of years is hidden from the oppressor.

²¹Dreadful sounds are in his ears;

In prosperity the destroyer comes upon him.

²²He does not believe that he will return from darkness,

For a sword is waiting for him.

²³He wanders about for bread, saying, ‘Where is it?’

He knows that a day of darkness is ready at his hand.

²⁴Trouble and anguish make him afraid;

They overpower him, like a king ready for battle.

²⁵For he stretches out his hand against God,

And acts defiantly against the Almighty,
²⁶Running stubbornly against Him

With his strong, embossed shield.

²⁷“Though he has covered his face with his fatness,
And made his waist heavy with fat,

²⁸He dwells in desolate cities,
In houses which no one inhabits,
Which are destined to become ruins.

²⁹He will not be rich,
Nor will his wealth continue,
Nor will his possessions overspread the earth.

³⁰He will not depart from darkness;
The flame will dry out his branches,
And by the breath of His mouth he will go away.

³¹Let him not trust in futile things, deceiving himself,
For futility will be his reward.

³²It will be accomplished before his time,
And his branch will not be green.

³³He will shake off his unripe grape like a vine,
And cast off his blossom like an olive tree.

³⁴For the company of hypocrites will be barren,
And fire will consume the tents of bribery.

³⁵They conceive trouble and bring forth futility;

Their womb prepares deceit.”

Chapter 16

Job Reproaches His Pitiless Friends

¹Then Job answered and said:

²“I have heard many such things;

Job’s Friends Fail at the Law of Connection

Job 16:2

Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar accused Job of acting foolishly, of speaking wrongly, of leading wickedly. But they never got their message across for two reasons: First, they didn’t have all the facts; and second, they didn’t practice the Law of Connection.

Many leaders are tempted to make the same mistakes. We voice our opinions even though we remain ignorant of important information and lack any heart connection to our audience. Job called his friends, “miserable comforters.” Every good communicator seeks first to understand before being understood. Note how they differ from public speakers:

Public Speaker • Communicator

Seeks to be understood and liked • Seeks to understand and connect

Asks: What do I have? • Asks: What do they need?

Focuses on techniques • Focuses on atmosphere

Is self-conscious • Is audience-oriented

Wants to complete the speech • Wants to complete the people

Content-oriented • Change-oriented

Miserable comforters are you all!

³Shall words of wind have an end?

Or what provokes you that you answer?

⁴I also could speak as you do,

If your soul were in my soul's place.

I could heap up words against you,

And shake my head at you;

⁵*But* I would strengthen you with my mouth,

And the comfort of my lips would relieve your grief.

⁶"Though I speak, my grief is not relieved;

And if I remain silent, how am I eased?

⁷But now He has worn me out;

You have made desolate all my company.

⁸You have shriveled me up,

And it is a witness against me;

My leanness rises up against me

And bears witness to my face.

⁹He tears me in His wrath, and hates me;

He gnashes at me with His teeth;

My adversary sharpens His gaze on me.

¹⁰They gape at me with their mouth,

They strike me reproachfully on the cheek,

They gather together against me.

¹¹God has delivered me to the ungodly,
And turned me over to the hands of the wicked.

¹²I was at ease, but He has shattered me;
He also has taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces;

He has set me up for His target,

¹³His archers surround me.

He pierces my heart^a and does not pity;
He pours out my gall on the ground.

¹⁴He breaks me with wound upon wound;

He runs at me like a warrior.^a

¹⁵"I have sewn sackcloth over my skin,
And laid my head^a in the dust.

¹⁶My face is flushed from weeping,
And on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

¹⁷Although no violence is in my hands,

And my prayer is pure.

¹⁸"O earth, do not cover my blood,
And let my cry have no resting place!

¹⁹Surely even now my witness is in heaven,
And my evidence is on high.

²⁰My friends scorn me;
My eyes pour out tears to God.

²¹Oh, that one might plead for a man with God,
As a man pleads for his neighbor!

²²For when a few years are finished,

I shall go the way of no return.

Chapter 17

Job Prays for Relief

¹“My spirit is broken,
My days are extinguished,
The grave is ready for me.

²*Are* not mockers with me?

And does not my eye dwell on their provocation?

³“Now put down a pledge for me with Yourself.
Who is he who will shake hands with me?

⁴For You have hidden their heart from understanding;

Therefore You will not exalt them.

⁵He who speaks flattery to his friends,

Even the eyes of his children will fail.

⁶“But He has made me a byword of the people,
And I have become one in whose face men spit.

⁷My eye has also grown dim because of sorrow,
And all my members are like shadows.

⁸Upright men are astonished at this,
And the innocent stirs himself up against the hypocrite.

⁹Yet the righteous will hold to his way,

And he who has clean hands will be stronger and stronger.

¹⁰“But please, come back again, all of you,^a
For I shall not find one wise man among you.

¹¹My days are past,
My purposes are broken off,
Even the thoughts of my heart.

¹²They change the night into day;
‘The light is near,’ they say, in the face of darkness.

¹³If I wait for the grave as my house,
If I make my bed in the darkness,

¹⁴If I say to corruption, ‘You are my father,’
And to the worm, ‘You are my mother and my sister,’

¹⁵Where then is my hope?
As for my hope, who can see it?

¹⁶*Will* they go down to the gates of Sheol?

Shall we have rest together in the dust?”

Chapter 18

Bildad: The Wicked Are Punished

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

²“How long till you put an end to words?
Gain understanding, and afterward we will speak.

³Why are we counted as beasts,
And regarded as stupid in your sight?

⁴You who tear yourself in anger,
Shall the earth be forsaken for you?

Or shall the rock be removed from its place?

⁵“The light of the wicked indeed goes out,
And the flame of his fire does not shine.

⁶The light is dark in his tent,
And his lamp beside him is put out.

⁷The steps of his strength are shortened,
And his own counsel casts him down.

⁸For he is cast into a net by his own feet,
And he walks into a snare.

⁹The net takes him by the heel,
And a snare lays hold of him.

¹⁰A noose is hidden for him on the ground,
And a trap for him in the road.

¹¹Terrors frighten him on every side,
And drive him to his feet.
¹²His strength is starved,
And destruction is ready at his side.
¹³It devours patches of his skin;
The firstborn of death devours his limbs.
¹⁴He is uprooted from the shelter of his tent,
And they parade him before the king of terrors.
¹⁵They dwell in his tent who are none of his;
Brimstone is scattered on his dwelling.
¹⁶His roots are dried out below,
And his branch withers above.
¹⁷The memory of him perishes from the earth,
And he has no name among the renowned. a
¹⁸He is driven from light into darkness,
And chased out of the world.
¹⁹He has neither son nor posterity among his people,
Nor any remaining in his dwellings.
²⁰Those in the west are astonished at his day,
As those in the east are frightened.
²¹Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked,

And this is the place of him who does not know God.”

Chapter 19

Job Trusts in His Redeemer

¹Then Job answered and said:

²“How long will you torment my soul,
And break me in pieces with words?

³These ten times you have reproached me;
You are not ashamed that you have wronged me.^a

⁴And if indeed I have erred,
My error remains with me.

⁵If indeed you exalt yourselves against me,
And plead my disgrace against me,

⁶Know then that God has wronged me,

And has surrounded me with His net.

⁷“If I cry out concerning wrong, I am not heard.
If I cry aloud, there is no justice.

⁸He has fenced up my way, so that I cannot pass;
And He has set darkness in my paths.

⁹He has stripped me of my glory,
And taken the crown from my head.

¹⁰He breaks me down on every side,
And I am gone;
My hope He has uprooted like a tree.

¹¹He has also kindled His wrath against me,
And He counts me as one of His enemies.

¹²His troops come together
And build up their road against me;

They encamp all around my tent.

¹³“He has removed my brothers far from me,
And my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.

¹⁴My relatives have failed,
And my close friends have forgotten me.

¹⁵Those who dwell in my house, and my maidservants,

Count me as a stranger;
I am an alien in their sight.

¹⁶I call my servant, but he gives no answer;
I beg him with my mouth.

¹⁷My breath is offensive to my wife,
And I am repulsive to the children of my own body.

¹⁸Even young children despise me;
I arise, and they speak against me.

¹⁹All my close friends abhor me,
And those whom I love have turned against me.

²⁰My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh,

And I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.

²¹“Have pity on me, have pity on me, O you my friends,

For the hand of God has struck me!

²²Why do you persecute me as God does,

And are not satisfied with my flesh?

²³“Oh, that my words were written!
Oh, that they were inscribed in a book!
²⁴That they were engraved on a rock
With an iron pen and lead, forever!
²⁵For I know that my Redeemer lives,
And He shall stand at last on the earth;
²⁶And after my skin is destroyed, this I know,
That in my flesh I shall see God,
²⁷Whom I shall see for myself,

Vision: Job’s Perspective Separates Him from the Others

Job 19:25-27

The first difference separating leaders from followers is perspective. Both can have character and integrity; both can love others; both can obey God. But leaders think differently than followers.

Job and his friends held profoundly different perspectives. Throughout the book, Job maintains an eternal perspective. “For I know that my Redeemer lives, and He shall stand at last on the earth,” he says (Job 19:25). In the following two verses he continues to cast vision for the reality of life beyond the grave. Unlike his wife, who told him to curse God and die; unlike his friends, who told him none of this would have happened had he just lived better—Job saw beyond the superficial to the eternal. What enabled Job to see what God saw?

1. He renewed his perspective: He clung to the justice and character of God.

2. He released his past: He was willing to let go of what he had lost.

3. He remembered his purpose: He realized that he existed only to glorify God.

And my eyes shall behold, and not another.

How my heart yearns within me!

²⁸If you should say, 'How shall we persecute him?'—

Since the root of the matter is found in me,

²⁹Be afraid of the sword for yourselves;

For wrath brings the punishment of the sword,

That you may know there is a judgment."

Chapter 20

Zophar's Sermon on the Wicked Man

¹Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

²"Therefore my anxious thoughts make me answer,
Because of the turmoil within me.

³I have heard the rebuke that reproaches me,

And the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer.

⁴"Do you not know this of old,
Since man was placed on earth,

⁵That the triumphing of the wicked is short,
And the joy of the hypocrite is but for a moment?

⁶Though his haughtiness mounts up to the heavens,
And his head reaches to the clouds,

⁷*Yet* he will perish forever like his own refuse;
Those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'

⁸He will fly away like a dream, and not be found;
Yes, he will be chased away like a vision of the night.

⁹The eye that saw him will see him no more,
Nor will his place behold him anymore.

¹⁰His children will seek the favor of the poor,
And his hands will restore his wealth.

¹¹His bones are full of his youthful vigor,

But it will lie down with him in the dust.

¹²“Though evil is sweet in his mouth,
And he hides it under his tongue,

¹³*Though* he spares it and does not forsake it,
But still keeps it in his mouth,

¹⁴*Yet* his food in his stomach turns sour;
It becomes cobra venom within him.

¹⁵He swallows down riches
And vomits them up again;
God casts them out of his belly.

¹⁶He will suck the poison of cobras;
The viper’s tongue will slay him.

¹⁷He will not see the streams,
The rivers flowing with honey and cream.

¹⁸He will restore that for which he labored,
And will not swallow it down;
From the proceeds of business
He will get no enjoyment.

¹⁹For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor,

He has violently seized a house which he did not build.

²⁰“Because he knows no quietness in his heart,^{a}
He will not save anything he desires.

²¹Nothing is left for him to eat;
Therefore his wellbeing will not last.

²²In his self-sufficiency he will be in distress;
Every hand of misery will come against him.

²³*When* he is about to fill his stomach,
God will cast on him the fury of His wrath,
And will rain it on him while he is eating.

²⁴He will flee from the iron weapon;
A bronze bow will pierce him through.
²⁵It is drawn, and comes out of the body;
Yes, the glittering point comes out of his gall.
Terrors come upon him;
²⁶Total darkness is reserved for his treasures.
An unfanned fire will consume him;
It shall go ill with him who is left in his tent.
²⁷The heavens will reveal his iniquity,
And the earth will rise up against him.
²⁸The increase of his house will depart,
And his goods will flow away in the day of His wrath.
²⁹This is the portion from God for a wicked man,
The heritage appointed to him by God.”

Chapter 21

Job's Discourse on the Wicked

¹Then Job answered and said:

²"Listen carefully to my speech,
And let this be your consolation.

³Bear with me that I may speak,

And after I have spoken, keep mocking.

⁴"As for me, is my complaint against man?
And if it were, why should I not be impatient?

⁵Look at me and be astonished;
Put your hand over your mouth.

⁶Even when I remember I am terrified,
And trembling takes hold of my flesh.

⁷Why do the wicked live and become old,
Yes, become mighty in power?

⁸Their descendants are established with them in their sight,

And their offspring before their eyes.

⁹Their houses are safe from fear,
Neither is the rod of God upon them.

¹⁰Their bull breeds without failure;
Their cow calves without miscarriage.

¹¹They send forth their little ones like a flock,
And their children dance.

¹²They sing to the tambourine and harp,
And rejoice to the sound of the flute.

¹³They spend their days in wealth,
And in a moment go down to the grave.^a

¹⁴Yet they say to God, 'Depart from us,
For we do not desire the knowledge of Your ways.

¹⁵Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him?
And what profit do we have if we pray to Him?'

¹⁶Indeed their prosperity is not in their hand;

The counsel of the wicked is far from me.

¹⁷"How often is the lamp of the wicked put out?
How often does their destruction come upon them,
The sorrows God distributes in His anger?

¹⁸They are like straw before the wind,
And like chaff that a storm carries away.

¹⁹*They say*, 'God lays up one's^a iniquity for his children';

Let Him recompense him, that he may know it.

²⁰Let his eyes see his destruction,
And let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

²¹For what does he care about his household after
him,

When the number of his months is cut in half?

²²"Can anyone teach God knowledge,
Since He judges those on high?

²³One dies in his full strength,
Being wholly at ease and secure;

²⁴His pails^a are full of milk,
And the marrow of his bones is moist.

²⁵Another man dies in the bitterness of his soul,
Never having eaten with pleasure.

²⁶They lie down alike in the dust,

And worms cover them.

²⁷“Look, I know your thoughts,
And the schemes with which you would wrong me.

²⁸For you say, ‘Where is the house of the prince?

And where is the tent, a

The dwelling place of the wicked?’

²⁹Have you not asked those who travel the road?

And do you not know their signs?

³⁰For the wicked are reserved for the day of doom;
They shall be brought out on the day of wrath.

³¹Who condemns his way to his face?

And who repays him for what he has done?

³²Yet he shall be brought to the grave,

And a vigil kept over the tomb.

³³The clods of the valley shall be sweet to him;

Everyone shall follow him,

As countless have gone before him.

³⁴How then can you comfort me with empty words,

Since falsehood remains in your answers?”

Chapter 22

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Wickedness

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

²“Can a man be profitable to God,
Though he who is wise may be profitable to himself?

³*Is it* any pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous?

Or is it gain to Him that you make your ways blameless?

⁴“Is it because of your fear of Him that He corrects
you,

And enters into judgment with you?

⁵*Is not* your wickedness great,
And your iniquity without end?

⁶For you have taken pledges from your brother for no reason,

And stripped the naked of their clothing.

⁷You have not given the weary water to drink,
And you have withheld bread from the hungry.

⁸But the mighty man possessed the land,
And the honorable man dwelt in it.

⁹You have sent widows away empty,
And the strength of the fatherless was crushed.

¹⁰Therefore snares are all around you,

And sudden fear troubles you,
¹¹Or darkness so that you cannot see;

And an abundance of water covers you.

¹²“Is not God in the height of heaven?
And see the highest stars, how lofty they are!

¹³And you say, ‘What does God know?
Can He judge through the deep darkness?

¹⁴Thick clouds cover Him, so that He cannot see,
And He walks above the circle of heaven.’

¹⁵Will you keep to the old way
Which wicked men have trod,

¹⁶Who were cut down before their time,
Whose foundations were swept away by a flood?

¹⁷They said to God, ‘Depart from us!
What can the Almighty do to them?’^a

¹⁸Yet He filled their houses with good things;

But the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

¹⁹“The righteous see it and are glad,
And the innocent laugh at them:

²⁰‘Surely our adversaries^a are cut down,

And the fire consumes their remnant.’

²¹“Now acquaint yourself with Him, and be at peace;
Thereby good will come to you.

²²Receive, please, instruction from His mouth,
And lay up His words in your heart.

²³If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up;
You will remove iniquity far from your tents.

²⁴Then you will lay your gold in the dust,

And the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks.

²⁵Yes, the Almighty will be your gold^a

And your precious silver;

²⁶For then you will have your delight in the Almighty,
And lift up your face to God.

²⁷You will make your prayer to Him,
He will hear you,

And you will pay your vows.

²⁸You will also declare a thing,
And it will be established for you;
So light will shine on your ways.

²⁹When they cast you down, and you say, 'Exaltation will come!'

Then He will save the humble person.

³⁰He will even deliver one who is not innocent;

Yes, he will be delivered by the purity of your hands."

Chapter 23

Job Proclaims God's Righteous Judgments

¹Then Job answered and said:

²"Even today my complaint is bitter;
My^a hand is listless because of my groaning.

³Oh, that I knew where I might find Him,
That I might come to His seat!

⁴I would present my case before Him,
And fill my mouth with arguments.

⁵I would know the words which He would answer
me,

And understand what He would say to me.

⁶Would He contend with me in His great power?
No! But He would take note of me.

⁷There the upright could reason with Him,

And I would be delivered forever from my Judge.

⁸"Look, I go forward, but He is not there,
And backward, but I cannot perceive Him;

⁹When He works on the left hand, I cannot behold
Him;

When He turns to the right hand, I cannot see Him.

¹⁰But He knows the way that I take;
When He has tested me, I shall come forth as gold.

¹¹My foot has held fast to His steps;
I have kept His way and not turned aside.

¹²I have not departed from the commandment of His lips;

I have treasured the words of His mouth

More than my necessary food.

¹³“But He is unique, and who can make Him change?
And whatever His soul desires, that He does.

¹⁴For He performs what is appointed for me,
And many such things are with Him.

¹⁵Therefore I am terrified at His presence;
When I consider this, I am afraid of Him.

¹⁶For God made my heart weak,
And the Almighty terrifies me;

¹⁷Because I was not cut off from the presence of darkness,

And He did not hide deep darkness from my face.

Chapter 24

Job Complains of Violence on the Earth

¹“Since times are not hidden from the Almighty,
Why do those who know Him see not His days?

²“Some remove landmarks;
They seize flocks violently and feed on them;
³They drive away the donkey of the fatherless;
They take the widow’s ox as a pledge.

⁴They push the needy off the road;
All the poor of the land are forced to hide.

⁵Indeed, like wild donkeys in the desert,
They go out to their work, searching for food.
The wilderness yields food for them and for their children.

⁶They gather their fodder in the field
And glean in the vineyard of the wicked.

⁷They spend the night naked, without clothing,
And have no covering in the cold.

⁸They are wet with the showers of the mountains,

And huddle around the rock for want of shelter.

⁹“Some snatch the fatherless from the breast,
And take a pledge from the poor.

¹⁰They cause the poor to go naked, without clothing;
And they take away the sheaves from the hungry.

¹¹They press out oil within their walls,
And tread winepresses, yet suffer thirst.

¹²The dying groan in the city,
And the souls of the wounded cry out;

Yet God does not charge them with wrong.

¹³“There are those who rebel against the light;
They do not know its ways
Nor abide in its paths.

¹⁴The murderer rises with the light;
He kills the poor and needy;
And in the night he is like a thief.

¹⁵The eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight,
Saying, ‘No eye will see me’;
And he disguises his face.

¹⁶In the dark they break into houses
Which they marked for themselves in the daytime;
They do not know the light.

¹⁷For the morning is the same to them as the shadow of death;
If someone recognizes them,

They are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

¹⁸“They should be swift on the face of the waters,
Their portion should be cursed in the earth,
So that no one would turn into the way of their vineyards.

¹⁹As drought and heat consume the snow waters,
So the grave^a consumes those who have sinned.

²⁰The womb should forget him,
The worm should feed sweetly on him;

He should be remembered no more,
And wickedness should be broken like a tree.
²¹For he preys on the barren who do not bear,

And does no good for the widow.

²²“But God draws the mighty away with His power;
He rises up, but no man is sure of life.

²³He gives them security, and they rely on it;
Yet His eyes are on their ways.

²⁴They are exalted for a little while,
Then they are gone.

They are brought low;

They are taken out of the way like all others;

They dry out like the heads of grain.

²⁵“Now if it is not so, who will prove me a liar,

And make my speech worth nothing?”

PROFILE in Leadership

JOB’S FRIENDS

Misguided Companions Who Meant Well

Job 24:25

At a time when Job most needed the love and encouragement of his friends, he received only their condemnation, torment, and wrath. Eliphaz argued from experience, Bildad from tradition, and Zophar from legalism, and as is often the case, many of their arguments contained elements of truth. These three friends could have become major obstacles—lids—in Job’s life. And yet he did not allow that to happen.

Job’s friends believed he must have behaved treacherously to meet with such awful tragedy. Would God treat a good friend like this? They accused him of many specific sins, adding their names to a long list of amateur theologians who assume that people in pain have done something to deserve their suffering. While that may indeed be the case (see John 5:14), it is not universally so.

False accusation can debilitate the falsely accused. At the most vulnerable time of his life, Job’s friends continued to slander him—yet he continued to depend on God. He fought hard against depression and discouragement. In the midst of great pain and loss, Job demonstrated solid character and great strength; nothing was able to destroy his faith in God. In the end, truth prevailed and God blessed Job greatly. Job’s story reminds us that all leaders must filter the counsel of their inner circle through the truth of God’s Word.

Chapter 25

Bildad: How Can Man Be Righteous?

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

²“Dominion and fear belong to Him;
He makes peace in His high places.

³Is there any number to His armies?
Upon whom does His light not rise?

⁴How then can man be righteous before God?
Or how can he be pure who is born of a woman?

⁵If even the moon does not shine,
And the stars are not pure in His sight,

⁶How much less man, who is a maggot,

And a son of man, who is a worm?”

Chapter 26

Job: Man's Frailty and God's Majesty

¹But Job answered and said:

²"How have you helped him who is without power?
How have you saved the arm that has no strength?

³How have you counseled one who has no wisdom?
And how have you declared sound advice to many?

⁴To whom have you uttered words?

And whose spirit came from you?

⁵"The dead tremble,
Those under the waters and those inhabiting them.

⁶Sheol is naked before Him,
And Destruction has no covering.

⁷He stretches out the north over empty space;
He hangs the earth on nothing.

⁸He binds up the water in His thick clouds,
Yet the clouds are not broken under it.

⁹He covers the face of His throne,
And spreads His cloud over it.

¹⁰He drew a circular horizon on the face of the waters,

At the boundary of light and darkness.

¹¹The pillars of heaven tremble,
And are astonished at His rebuke.

¹²He stirs up the sea with His power,
And by His understanding He breaks up the storm.

¹³By His Spirit He adorned the heavens;
His hand pierced the fleeing serpent.

¹⁴Indeed these are the mere edges of His ways,
And how small a whisper we hear of Him!

But the thunder of His power who can understand?"

Chapter 27

Job Maintains His Integrity

¹Moreover Job continued his discourse, and said:

²“As God lives, who has taken away my justice,
And the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter,

³As long as my breath is in me,
And the breath of God in my nostrils,

⁴My lips will not speak wickedness,
Nor my tongue utter deceit.

⁵Far be it from me
That I should say you are right;
Till I die I will not put away my integrity from me.

⁶My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go;

My heart shall not reproach me as long as I live.

⁷“May my enemy be like the wicked,
And he who rises up against me like the unrighteous.

⁸For what is the hope of the hypocrite,
Though he may gain much,
If God takes away his life?

⁹Will God hear his cry
When trouble comes upon him?

¹⁰Will he delight himself in the Almighty?

Will he always call on God?

¹¹“I will teach you about the hand of God;
What is with the Almighty I will not conceal.

¹²Surely all of you have seen it;

Why then do you behave with complete nonsense?

¹³“This is the portion of a wicked man with God,
And the heritage of oppressors, received from the Almighty:

¹⁴If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword;
And his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

¹⁵Those who survive him shall be buried in death,
And their ^awidows shall not weep,

¹⁶Though he heaps up silver like dust,
And piles up clothing like clay—

¹⁷He may pile it up, but the just will wear it,
And the innocent will divide the silver.

¹⁸He builds his house like a moth, ^a
Like a booth which a watchman makes.

¹⁹The rich man will lie down,
But not be gathered up; ^a
He opens his eyes,
And he is no more.

²⁰Terrors overtake him like a flood;
A tempest steals him away in the night.

²¹The east wind carries him away, and he is gone;
It sweeps him out of his place.

²²It hurls against him and does not spare;
He flees desperately from its power.

²³*Men* shall clap their hands at him,

And shall hiss him out of his place.

Chapter 28

Job's Discourse on Wisdom

- ¹“Surely there is a mine for silver,
And a place where gold is refined.
- ²Iron is taken from the earth,
And copper is smelted from ore.
- ³*Man* puts an end to darkness,
And searches every recess
For ore in the darkness and the shadow of death.
- ⁴He breaks open a shaft away from people;
In places forgotten by feet
They hang far away from men;
They swing to and fro.
- ⁵*As for* the earth, from it comes bread,
But underneath it is turned up as by fire;
- ⁶Its stones are the source of sapphires,
And it contains gold dust.
- ⁷*That* path no bird knows,
Nor has the falcon's eye seen it.
- ⁸The proud lions^a have not trodden it,
Nor has the fierce lion passed over it.
- ⁹He puts his hand on the flint;
He overturns the mountains at the roots.
- ¹⁰He cuts out channels in the rocks,
And his eye sees every precious thing.
- ¹¹He dams up the streams from trickling;

What is hidden he brings forth to light.

¹²“But where can wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?

¹³Man does not know its value,
Nor is it found in the land of the living.

¹⁴The deep says, ‘It is not in me’;
And the sea says, ‘It is not with me.’

¹⁵It cannot be purchased for gold,
Nor can silver be weighed for its price.

¹⁶It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir,
In precious onyx or sapphire.

¹⁷Neither gold nor crystal can equal it,
Nor can it be exchanged for jewelry of fine gold.

¹⁸No mention shall be made of coral or quartz,
For the price of wisdom is above rubies.

¹⁹The topaz of Ethiopia cannot equal it,

Nor can it be valued in pure gold.

²⁰“From where then does wisdom come?
And where is the place of understanding?

²¹It is hidden from the eyes of all living,
And concealed from the birds of the air.

²²Destruction and Death say,
‘We have heard a report about it with our ears.’

²³God understands its way,
And He knows its place.

²⁴For He looks to the ends of the earth,
And sees under the whole heavens,

²⁵To establish a weight for the wind,
And apportion the waters by measure.

²⁶When He made a law for the rain,
And a path for the thunderbolt,

²⁷Then He saw wisdom^a and declared it;

He prepared it, indeed, He searched it out.
28And to man He said,

Wisdom: Job Recognizes His Source of Wisdom and Seeks It

Job 28:23-28

Despite his confusion and pain, Job makes it clear that he looks to God alone for wisdom. He understands that He cannot lead himself, much less his family, without God as his never-ending source of perspective and understanding. Job has heard from his friends and knows their theories ring hollow. The best they can muster is the wisdom of men; Job will not be satisfied until he has the wisdom of God.

The third chapter of James distinguishes between these two radically different sources of wisdom:

Wisdom from Below • Wisdom from Above

Works temporarily in a few situations • Is universal and timeless, yet eternally relevant

Seems logical for the moment • Often seems illogical or even backwards

Limited in scope • Always big picture and unlimited in scope

Competitive: it is win/lose • Complementary: it is win/win

‘Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom,

And to depart from evil is understanding.’ ”

Chapter 29

Job's Summary Defense

¹Job further continued his discourse, and said:

²"Oh, that I were as in months past,
As in the days when God watched over me;
³When His lamp shone upon my head,
And when by His light I walked through darkness;
⁴Just as I was in the days of my prime,
When the friendly counsel of God was over my tent;
⁵When the Almighty was yet with me,
When my children were around me;
⁶When my steps were bathed with cream,^a

And the rock poured out rivers of oil for me!

⁷"When I went out to the gate by the city,
When I took my seat in the open square,
⁸The young men saw me and hid,
And the aged arose and stood;
⁹The princes refrained from talking,
And put their hand on their mouth;
¹⁰The voice of nobles was hushed,
And their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth.
¹¹When the ear heard, then it blessed me,

And when the eye saw, then it approved me;
¹²Because I delivered the poor who cried out,
The fatherless and the one who had no helper.
¹³The blessing of a perishing man came upon me,
And I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
¹⁴I put on righteousness, and it clothed me;
My justice was like a robe and a turban.
¹⁵I was eyes to the blind,
And I was feet to the lame.
¹⁶I was a father to the poor,
And I searched out the case that I did not know.
¹⁷I broke the fangs of the wicked,

And plucked the victim from his teeth.

¹⁸"Then I said, 'I shall die in my nest,
And multiply my days as the sand.
¹⁹My root is spread out to the waters,
And the dew lies all night on my branch.
²⁰My glory is fresh within me,
And my bow is renewed in my hand.'
²¹"Men listened to me and waited,
And kept silence for my counsel.
²²After my words they did not speak again,
And my speech settled on them as dew.
²³They waited for me as for the rain,
And they opened their mouth wide as for the spring rain.
²⁴*If* I mocked at them, they did not believe it,
And the light of my countenance they did not cast down.
²⁵I chose the way for them, and sat as chief;
So I dwelt as a king in the army,

As one who comforts mourners.

Chapter 30

¹“But now they mock at me, men younger than I,
Whose fathers I disdained to put with the dogs of my flock.

²Indeed, what profit is the strength of their hands to me?

Their vigor has perished.

³*They are* gaunt from want and famine,
Fleeing late to the wilderness, desolate and waste,

⁴Who pluck mallow by the bushes,
And broom tree roots for their food.

⁵They were driven out from among men,
They shouted at them as at a thief.

⁶*They had* to live in the clefts of the valleys,
In caves of the earth and the rocks.

⁷Among the bushes they brayed,
Under the nettles they nestled.

⁸*They were* sons of fools,
Yes, sons of vile men;

They were scourged from the land.

⁹“And now I am their taunting song;
Yes, I am their byword.

¹⁰They abhor me, they keep far from me;
They do not hesitate to spit in my face.

¹¹Because He has loosed my ^a bowstring and afflicted me,

They have cast off restraint before me.

¹²At my right hand the rabble arises;

They push away my feet,
And they raise against me their ways of destruction.

¹³They break up my path,
They promote my calamity;
They have no helper.

¹⁴They come as broad breakers;
Under the ruinous storm they roll along.

¹⁵Terrors are turned upon me;
They pursue my honor as the wind,

And my prosperity has passed like a cloud.

¹⁶"And now my soul is poured out because of my plight;

The days of affliction take hold of me.

¹⁷My bones are pierced in me at night,
And my gnawing pains take no rest.

¹⁸By great force my garment is disfigured;
It binds me about as the collar of my coat.

¹⁹He has cast me into the mire,

And I have become like dust and ashes.

²⁰"I cry out to You, but You do not answer me;
I stand up, and You regard me.

²¹*But* You have become cruel to me;
With the strength of Your hand You oppose me.

²²You lift me up to the wind and cause me to ride on
it;

You spoil my success.

²³For I know that You will bring me to death,

And to the house appointed for all living.

²⁴"Surely He would not stretch out His hand against a heap of ruins,

If they cry out when He destroys it.

²⁵Have I not wept for him who was in trouble?
Has not my soul grieved for the poor?

²⁶But when I looked for good, evil came to me;
And when I waited for light, then came darkness.

²⁷My heart is in turmoil and cannot rest;
Days of affliction confront me.

²⁸I go about mourning, but not in the sun;
I stand up in the assembly and cry out for help.

²⁹I am a brother of jackals,
And a companion of ostriches.

³⁰My skin grows black and falls from me;
My bones burn with fever.

³¹My harp is turned to mourning,

And my flute to the voice of those who weep.

Chapter 31

¹“I have made a covenant with my eyes;
Why then should I look upon a young woman?
²For what is the allotment of God from above,
And the inheritance of the Almighty from on high?
³*Is* it not destruction for the wicked,
And disaster for the workers of iniquity?
⁴Does He not see my ways,

And count all my steps?

⁵“If I have walked with falsehood,
Or if my foot has hastened to deceit,
⁶Let me be weighed on honest scales,
That God may know my integrity.
⁷If my step has turned from the way,
Or my heart walked after my eyes,
Or if any spot adheres to my hands,
⁸*Then* let me sow, and another eat;
Yes, let my harvest be rooted out.

⁹“If my heart has been enticed by a woman,
Or if I have lurked at my neighbor’s door,
¹⁰*Then* let my wife grind for another,
And let others bow down over her.

¹¹For that would be wickedness;
Yes, it would be iniquity deserving of judgment.

¹²For that would be a fire that consumes to destruction,

And would root out all my increase.

¹³“If I have despised the cause of my male or female servant

When they complained against me,

¹⁴What then shall I do when God rises up?

When He punishes, how shall I answer Him?

¹⁵Did not He who made me in the womb make them?

Did not the same One fashion us in the womb?

¹⁶“If I have kept the poor from their desire,

Or caused the eyes of the widow to fail,

¹⁷Or eaten my morsel by myself,

So that the fatherless could not eat of it

¹⁸(But from my youth I reared him as a father,

And from my mother’s womb I guided the widow^a);

¹⁹If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing,

Or any poor man without covering;

²⁰If his heart^a has not blessed me,

And if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

²¹If I have raised my hand against the fatherless,

When I saw I had help in the gate;

²²*Then* let my arm fall from my shoulder,

Let my arm be torn from the socket.

²³For destruction from God is a terror to me,

And because of His magnificence I cannot endure.

²⁴“If I have made gold my hope,

Or said to fine gold, ‘You are my confidence’;

²⁵If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,

And because my hand had gained much;

²⁶If I have observed the sun^a when it shines,

Or the moon moving in brightness,

²⁷So that my heart has been secretly enticed,

And my mouth has kissed my hand;
²⁸This also would be an iniquity deserving of judgment,

For I would have denied God who is above.

²⁹"If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me,

Or lifted myself up when evil found him

³⁰(Indeed I have not allowed my mouth to sin
By asking for a curse on his soul);

³¹If the men of my tent have not said,
'Who is there that has not been satisfied with his meat?'

³²(But no sojourner had to lodge in the street,
For I have opened my doors to the traveler^a);

³³If I have covered my transgressions as Adam,
By hiding my iniquity in my bosom,

³⁴Because I feared the great multitude,
And dreaded the contempt of families,
So that I kept silence

And did not go out of the door—

³⁵Oh, that I had one to hear me!
Here is my mark.

Oh, that the Almighty would answer me,
That my Prosecutor had written a book!

³⁶Surely I would carry it on my shoulder,
And bind it on me like a crown;

³⁷I would declare to Him the number of my steps;

Like a prince I would approach Him.

³⁸"If my land cries out against me,
And its furrows weep together;

³⁹If I have eaten its fruit^a without money,

Or caused its owners to lose their lives;
⁴⁰ Then let thistles grow instead of wheat,

And weeds instead of barley.”

Character and Consistency: Job Affirms His Promise

Job 31:1-40

One of the beautiful facets of the Book of Job is that it displays how a man can be very human, and yet very heavenly at the same time.

Job feels all the emotions of a man who has endured great loss. He becomes angry, depressed, and anxious, and declares his feelings openly. At the same time, he never drifts from his strong character; he remains consistent through everything. The moment it appears he will curse God and give up on Him, he affirms his promise to be faithful even when he doesn't understand what is happening. Job pledges to maintain his integrity despite his circumstances.

Such a commitment is a crucial key to leadership. Here's why:

1. Leaders must be visionary, but they cannot see everything in the future.
2. Instead of pretending to be in control, leaders must model being under control.
3. Leaders must model humanity and identify with the limitations of followers.
4. Leaders must model an anchored life, living from character, not emotions.

5. While leaders don't know what tomorrow holds, they do know who holds tomorrow.

The words of Job are ended.

Chapter 32

Elihu Contradicts Job's Friends

¹So these three men ceased answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. ²Then the wrath of Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was aroused against Job; his wrath was aroused because he justified himself rather than God. ³Also against his three friends his wrath was aroused, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

⁴Now because they were years older than he, Elihu had waited to speak to Job.^a ⁵When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was aroused.

⁶So Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, answered and said:

“I am young in years, and you are very old;
Therefore I was afraid,
And dared not declare my opinion to you.

⁷I said, ‘Age^a should speak,
And multitude of years should teach wisdom.’

⁸But there is a spirit in man,
And the breath of the Almighty gives him
understanding.

⁹Great men^a are not always wise,

Nor do the aged always understand justice.

¹⁰“Therefore I say, ‘Listen to me,
I also will declare my opinion.’

¹¹Indeed I waited for your words,
I listened to your reasonings, while you searched out what to say.

¹²I paid close attention to you;
And surely not one of you convinced Job,
Or answered his words—

¹³Lest you say,
‘We have found wisdom’;
God will vanquish him, not man.

¹⁴Now he has not directed his words against me;

So I will not answer him with your words.

¹⁵“They are dismayed and answer no more;
Words escape them.

¹⁶And I have waited, because they did not speak,
Because they stood still and answered no more.

¹⁷I also will answer my part,
I too will declare my opinion.

¹⁸For I am full of words;
The spirit within me compels me.

¹⁹Indeed my belly is like wine that has no vent;
It is ready to burst like new wineskins.

²⁰I will speak, that I may find relief;
I must open my lips and answer.

²¹Let me not, I pray, show partiality to anyone;
Nor let me flatter any man.

²²For I do not know how to flatter,

Else my Maker would soon take me away.

Chapter 33

Elihu Contradicts Job

¹“But please, Job, hear my speech,
And listen to all my words.

²Now, I open my mouth;
My tongue speaks in my mouth.

³My words come from my upright heart;
My lips utter pure knowledge.

⁴The Spirit of God has made me,
And the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

⁵If you can answer me,
Set your words in order before me;
Take your stand.

⁶Truly I am as your spokesman^a before God;
I also have been formed out of clay.

⁷Surely no fear of me will terrify you,

Nor will my hand be heavy on you.

⁸“Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
And I have heard the sound of your words, saying,

⁹I am pure, without transgression;
I am innocent, and there is no iniquity in me.

¹⁰Yet He finds occasions against me,
He counts me as His enemy;

¹¹He puts my feet in the stocks,

He watches all my paths.'

¹²"Look, in this you are not righteous.

I will answer you,

For God is greater than man.

¹³Why do you contend with Him?

For He does not give an accounting of any of His words.

¹⁴For God may speak in one way, or in another,
Yet man does not perceive it.

¹⁵In a dream, in a vision of the night,
When deep sleep falls upon men,
While slumbering on their beds,

¹⁶Then He opens the ears of men,
And seals their instruction.

¹⁷In order to turn man from his deed,
And conceal pride from man,

¹⁸He keeps back his soul from the Pit,

And his life from perishing by the sword.

¹⁹"Man is also chastened with pain on his bed,
And with strong pain in many of his bones,

²⁰So that his life abhors bread,
And his soul succulent food.

²¹His flesh wastes away from sight,
And his bones stick out which once were not seen.

²²Yes, his soul draws near the Pit,

And his life to the executioners.

²³"If there is a messenger for him,
A mediator, one among a thousand,
To show man His uprightness,

²⁴Then He is gracious to him, and says,

'Deliver him from going down to the Pit;
I have found a ransom';

²⁵His flesh shall be young like a child's,
He shall return to the days of his youth.

²⁶He shall pray to God, and He will delight in him,
He shall see His face with joy,
For He restores to man His righteousness.

²⁷Then he looks at men and says,
'I have sinned, and perverted what was right,
And it did not profit me.'

²⁸He will redeem his^a soul from going down to the Pit,

And his^b life shall see the light.

²⁹"Behold, God works all these things,
Twice, in fact, three times with a man,

³⁰To bring back his soul from the Pit,

That he may be enlightened with the light of life.

³¹"Give ear, Job, listen to me;
Hold your peace, and I will speak.

³²If you have anything to say, answer me;
Speak, for I desire to justify you.

³³If not, listen to me;

Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom."

Chapter 34

Elihu Proclaims God's Justice

¹Elihu further answered and said:

²"Hear my words, you wise men;
Give ear to me, you who have knowledge.

³For the ear tests words
As the palate tastes food.

⁴Let us choose justice for ourselves;

Let us know among ourselves what is good.

⁵"For Job has said, 'I am righteous,
But God has taken away my justice;

⁶Should I lie concerning my right?
My wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.'

⁷What man is like Job,
Who drinks scorn like water,

⁸Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity,
And walks with wicked men?

⁹For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing

That he should delight in God.'

¹⁰"Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding:

Far be it from God to do wickedness,
And from the Almighty to commit iniquity.

¹¹For He repays man according to his work,
And makes man to find a reward according to his way.

¹²Surely God will never do wickedly,
Nor will the Almighty pervert justice.

¹³Who gave Him charge over the earth?
Or who appointed Him over the whole world?

¹⁴If He should set His heart on it,
If He should gather to Himself His Spirit and His breath,

¹⁵All flesh would perish together,

And man would return to dust.

¹⁶"If you have understanding, hear this;
Listen to the sound of my words:

¹⁷Should one who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn Him who is most just?

¹⁸*Is it fitting* to say to a king, 'You are worthless,'
And to nobles, 'You are wicked'?

¹⁹Yet He is not partial to princes,
Nor does He regard the rich more than the poor;
For they are all the work of His hands.

²⁰In a moment they die, in the middle of the night;
The people are shaken and pass away;

The mighty are taken away without a hand.

²¹"For His eyes are on the ways of man,
And He sees all his steps.

²²There is no darkness nor shadow of death
Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

²³For He need not further consider a man,

That he should go before God in judgment.

²⁴He breaks in pieces mighty men without inquiry,
And sets others in their place.

²⁵Therefore He knows their works;
He overthrows them in the night,
And they are crushed.

²⁶He strikes them as wicked men
In the open sight of others,

²⁷Because they turned back from Him,
And would not consider any of His ways,

²⁸So that they caused the cry of the poor to come to
Him;

For He hears the cry of the afflicted.

²⁹When He gives quietness, who then can make trouble?

And when He hides His face, who then can see Him,
Whether it is against a nation or a man alone?—

³⁰That the hypocrite should not reign,

Lest the people be ensnared.

³¹“For has anyone said to God,
‘I have borne chastening;
I will offend no more;

³²Teach me what I do not see;
If I have done iniquity, I will do no more’?

³³Should He repay it according to your terms,
Just because you disavow it?
You must choose, and not I;

Therefore speak what you know.

³⁴“Men of understanding say to me,
Wise men who listen to me:

³⁵‘Job speaks without knowledge,

His words are without wisdom.'

³⁶Oh, that Job were tried to the utmost,
Because his answers are like those of wicked men!

³⁷For he adds rebellion to his sin;
He claps his hands among us,

And multiplies his words against God."

Chapter 35

Elihu Condemns Self-Righteousness

¹Moreover Elihu answered and said:

²“Do you think this is right?

Do you say,

‘My righteousness is more than God’s’?

³For you say,

‘What advantage will it be to You?

What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?’

⁴“I will answer you,

And your companions with you.

⁵Look to the heavens and see;

And behold the clouds—

They are higher than you.

⁶If you sin, what do you accomplish against Him?

Or, if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to Him?

⁷If you are righteous, what do you give Him?

Or what does He receive from your hand?

⁸Your wickedness affects a man such as you,

And your righteousness a son of man.

⁹“Because of the multitude of oppressions they cry out;

They cry out for help because of the arm of the mighty.

¹⁰But no one says, ‘Where is God my Maker,
Who gives songs in the night,

¹¹Who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth,
And makes us wiser than the birds of heaven?’

¹²There they cry out, but He does not answer,
Because of the pride of evil men.

¹³Surely God will not listen to empty talk,
Nor will the Almighty regard it.

¹⁴Although you say you do not see Him,
Yet justice is before Him, and you must wait for Him.

¹⁵And now, because He has not punished in His anger,

Nor taken much notice of folly,

¹⁶Therefore Job opens his mouth in vain;

He multiplies words without knowledge.”

Chapter 36

Elihu Proclaims God's Goodness

¹Elihu also proceeded and said:

²"Bear with me a little, and I will show you
That there are yet words to speak on God's behalf.

³I will fetch my knowledge from afar;
I will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

⁴For truly my words are not false;

One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

⁵"Behold, God is mighty, but despises no one;
He is mighty in strength of understanding.

⁶He does not preserve the life of the wicked,
But gives justice to the oppressed.

⁷He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous;
But they are on the throne with kings,
For He has seated them forever,
And they are exalted.

⁸And if they are bound in fetters,
Held in the cords of affliction,

⁹Then He tells them their work and their transgressions—

That they have acted defiantly.

¹⁰He also opens their ear to instruction,
And commands that they turn from iniquity.

¹¹If they obey and serve Him,
They shall spend their days in prosperity,
And their years in pleasures.

¹²But if they do not obey,
They shall perish by the sword,

And they shall die without knowledge.^a

¹³“But the hypocrites in heart store up wrath;
They do not cry for help when He binds them.

¹⁴They die in youth,
And their life ends among the perverted persons.^a

¹⁵He delivers the poor in their affliction,

And opens their ears in oppression.

¹⁶“Indeed He would have brought you out of dire distress,
Into a broad place where there is no restraint;
And what is set on your table would be full of richness.

¹⁷But you are filled with the judgment due the wicked;

Judgment and justice take hold of you.

¹⁸Because there is wrath, beware lest He take you away with one blow;

For a large ransom would not help you avoid it.

¹⁹Will your riches,
Or all the mighty forces,
Keep you from distress?

²⁰Do not desire the night,
When people are cut off in their place.

²¹Take heed, do not turn to iniquity,

For you have chosen this rather than affliction.

²²“Behold, God is exalted by His power;
Who teaches like Him?

²³Who has assigned Him His way,

Or who has said, ‘You have done wrong’?

Elihu Proclaims God’s Majesty

²⁴“Remember to magnify His work,
Of which men have sung.

²⁵Everyone has seen it;

Man looks on it from afar.

²⁶“Behold, God is great, and we do not know Him;
Nor can the number of His years be discovered.

²⁷For He draws up drops of water,
Which distill as rain from the mist,

²⁸Which the clouds drop down
And pour abundantly on man.

²⁹Indeed, can anyone understand the spreading of clouds,

The thunder from His canopy?

³⁰Look, He scatters His light upon it,
And covers the depths of the sea.

³¹For by these He judges the peoples;
He gives food in abundance.

³²He covers His hands with lightning,
And commands it to strike.

³³His thunder declares it,

The cattle also, concerning the rising storm.

Chapter 37

¹“At this also my heart trembles,
And leaps from its place.

²Hear attentively the thunder of His voice,
And the rumbling that comes from His mouth.

³He sends it forth under the whole heaven,
His lightning to the ends of the earth.

⁴After it a voice roars;
He thunders with His majestic voice,
And He does not restrain them when His voice is heard.

⁵God thunders marvelously with His voice;
He does great things which we cannot comprehend.

⁶For He says to the snow, ‘Fall on the earth’;
Likewise to the gentle rain and the heavy rain of His strength.

⁷He seals the hand of every man,
That all men may know His work.

⁸The beasts go into dens,
And remain in their lairs.

⁹From the chamber of the south comes the whirlwind,
And cold from the scattering winds of the north.

¹⁰By the breath of God ice is given,
And the broad waters are frozen.

¹¹Also with moisture He saturates the thick clouds;
He scatters His bright clouds.

¹²And they swirl about, being turned by His guidance,
That they may do whatever He commands them

On the face of the whole earth.^a

¹³He causes it to come,
Whether for correction,
Or for His land,

Or for mercy.

¹⁴“Listen to this, O Job;
Stand still and consider the wondrous works of God.

¹⁵Do you know when God dispatches them,
And causes the light of His cloud to shine?

¹⁶Do you know how the clouds are balanced,
Those wondrous works of Him who is perfect in knowledge?

¹⁷Why are your garments hot,
When He quiets the earth by the south wind?

¹⁸With Him, have you spread out the skies,

Strong as a cast metal mirror?

¹⁹“Teach us what we should say to Him,
For we can prepare nothing because of the darkness.

²⁰Should He be told that I wish to speak?
If a man were to speak, surely he would be swallowed up.

²¹Even now men cannot look at the light when it is bright in the skies,

When the wind has passed and cleared them.

²²He comes from the north as golden splendor;
With God is awesome majesty.

²³*As for* the Almighty, we cannot find Him;

He is excellent in power,
In judgment and abundant justice;
He does not oppress.

²⁴Therefore men fear Him;

He shows no partiality to any who are wise of heart.”

Chapter 38

The LORD Reveals His Omnipotence to Job

¹Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said:

²“Who is this who darkens counsel
By words without knowledge?

³Now prepare yourself like a man;

I will question you, and you shall answer Me.

⁴“Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?

Tell Me, if you have understanding.

⁵Who determined its measurements?

Surely you know!

Or who stretched the line upon it?

⁶To what were its foundations fastened?

Or who laid its cornerstone,

⁷When the morning stars sang together,

And all the sons of God shouted for joy?

God Rebukes Men for Questioning His Justice

Job 38:1-7

When God finally enters the scene in Job 38, He brings justice and perspective with Him. He rebukes Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar for projecting their opinions as though they represented the mind of God (a danger every spiritual leader faces!). Before God is finished, He poses His own question: Where were you when I created the world?

Many leaders feel a great temptation to pretend they know everything that's coming down the pike. They feel an unreasonable need to project self-confidence, not realizing that people soon recognize their pretension. Leaders often fail to understand that people do not need a leader to have every answer.

Consider this: Individuals can live without certainty from a leader, but not without clarity. Leaders must be genuine with their people. Unless a word has come to us directly from the mouth of the Lord, we cannot know what is coming in the future. Don't speak with certainty on an issue of which you are unsure! Yet when you do speak, speak with clarity, even if your words paint only a small part of the whole picture. Your people do not need certainty on every issue, but they do need clarity on every issue. It is clarity that helps organizations to progress.

⁸"Or who shut in the sea with doors,
When it burst forth and issued from the womb;
⁹When I made the clouds its garment,

And thick darkness its swaddling band;

¹⁰When I fixed My limit for it,

And set bars and doors;

¹¹When I said,

‘This far you may come, but no farther,

And here your proud waves must stop!’

¹²“Have you commanded the morning since your days began,

And caused the dawn to know its place,

¹³That it might take hold of the ends of the earth,

And the wicked be shaken out of it?

¹⁴It takes on form like clay under a seal,

And stands out like a garment.

¹⁵From the wicked their light is withheld,

And the upraised arm is broken.

¹⁶“Have you entered the springs of the sea?

Or have you walked in search of the depths?

¹⁷Have the gates of death been revealed to you?

Or have you seen the doors of the shadow of death?

¹⁸Have you comprehended the breadth of the earth?

Tell Me, if you know all this.

¹⁹“Where is the way to the dwelling of light?

And darkness, where is its place,

²⁰That you may take it to its territory,

That you may know the paths to its home?

²¹Do you know it, because you were born then,

Or because the number of your days is great?

²²“Have you entered the treasury of snow,

Or have you seen the treasury of hail,
²³Which I have reserved for the time of trouble,
For the day of battle and war?
²⁴By what way is light diffused,

Or the east wind scattered over the earth?

²⁵“Who has divided a channel for the overflowing
water;

Or a path for the thunderbolt,
²⁶To cause it to rain on a land where there is no one,
A wilderness in which there is no man;
²⁷To satisfy the desolate waste,
And cause to spring forth the growth of tender grass?

²⁸Has the rain a father?
Or who has begotten the drops of dew?
²⁹From whose womb comes the ice?
And the frost of heaven, who gives it birth?
³⁰The waters harden like stone,

And the surface of the deep is frozen.

³¹“Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades,
Or loose the belt of Orion?
³²Can you bring out Mazzaroth^a in its season?
Or can you guide the Great Bear with its cubs?
³³Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?

Can you set their dominion over the earth?

³⁴“Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,
That an abundance of water may cover you?
³⁵Can you send out lightnings, that they may go,
And say to you, ‘Here we are!’?”

³⁶Who has put wisdom in the mind?a
Or who has given understanding to the heart?
³⁷Who can number the clouds by wisdom?
Or who can pour out the bottles of heaven,
³⁸When the dust hardens in clumps,

And the clods cling together?

³⁹“Can you hunt the prey for the lion,
Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,
⁴⁰When they crouch in their dens,
Or lurk in their lairs to lie in wait?
⁴¹Who provides food for the raven,
When its young ones cry to God,

And wander about for lack of food?

Chapter 39

¹“Do you know the time when the wild mountain goats bear young?

Or can you mark when the deer gives birth?

²Can you number the months that they fulfill?

Or do you know the time when they bear young?

³They bow down,

They bring forth their young,

They deliver their offspring.^a

⁴Their young ones are healthy,

They grow strong with grain;

They depart and do not return to them.

⁵“Who set the wild donkey free?

Who loosed the bonds of the onager,

⁶Whose home I have made the wilderness,

And the barren land his dwelling?

⁷He scorns the tumult of the city;

He does not heed the shouts of the driver.

⁸The range of the mountains is his pasture,

And he searches after every green thing.

⁹“Will the wild ox be willing to serve you?

Will he bed by your manger?

¹⁰Can you bind the wild ox in the furrow with ropes?

Or will he plow the valleys behind you?

¹¹Will you trust him because his strength is great?

Or will you leave your labor to him?

¹²Will you trust him to bring home your grain,

And gather it to your threshing floor?

¹³“The wings of the ostrich wave proudly,
But are her wings and pinions like the kindly stork’s?

¹⁴For she leaves her eggs on the ground,
And warms them in the dust;

¹⁵She forgets that a foot may crush them,
Or that a wild beast may break them.

¹⁶She treats her young harshly, as though they were not hers;

Her labor is in vain, without concern,

¹⁷Because God deprived her of wisdom,
And did not endow her with understanding.

¹⁸When she lifts herself on high,

She scorns the horse and its rider.

¹⁹“Have you given the horse strength?
Have you clothed his neck with thunder?^a

²⁰Can you frighten him like a locust?
His majestic snorting strikes terror.

²¹He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength;
He gallops into the clash of arms.

²²He mocks at fear, and is not frightened;
Nor does he turn back from the sword.

²³The quiver rattles against him,
The glittering spear and javelin.

²⁴He devours the distance with fierceness and rage;
Nor does he come to a halt because the trumpet has sounded.

²⁵At the blast of the trumpet he says, ‘Aha!’
He smells the battle from afar,

The thunder of captains and shouting.

²⁶“Does the hawk fly by your wisdom,
And spread its wings toward the south?
²⁷Does the eagle mount up at your command,
And make its nest on high?
²⁸On the rock it dwells and resides,
On the crag of the rock and the stronghold.
²⁹From there it spies out the prey;
Its eyes observe from afar.
³⁰Its young ones suck up blood;
And where the slain are, there it is.”

Chapter 40

¹Moreover the LORD answered Job, and said:

²“Shall the one who contends with the Almighty correct Him?

He who rebukes God, let him answer it.”

Job’s Response to God

³Then Job answered the LORD and said:

⁴“Behold, I am vile;
What shall I answer You?
I lay my hand over my mouth.

⁵Once I have spoken, but I will not answer;

Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further.”

God’s Challenge to Job

⁶Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said:

⁷“Now prepare yourself like a man;

I will question you, and you shall answer Me:

⁸“Would you indeed annul My judgment?
Would you condemn Me that you may be justified?

⁹Have you an arm like God?

Or can you thunder with a voice like His?

¹⁰Then adorn yourself with majesty and splendor,
And array yourself with glory and beauty.

¹¹Disperse the rage of your wrath;
Look on everyone who is proud, and humble him.

¹²Look on everyone who is proud, and bring him low;
Tread down the wicked in their place.

¹³Hide them in the dust together,
Bind their faces in hidden darkness.

¹⁴Then I will also confess to you

That your own right hand can save you.

¹⁵“Look now at the behemoth,^a which I made along with you;

He eats grass like an ox.

¹⁶See now, his strength is in his hips,
And his power is in his stomach muscles.

¹⁷He moves his tail like a cedar;
The sinews of his thighs are tightly knit.

¹⁸His bones are like beams of bronze,
His ribs like bars of iron.

¹⁹He is the first of the ways of God;
Only He who made him can bring near His sword.

²⁰Surely the mountains yield food for him,
And all the beasts of the field play there.

²¹He lies under the lotus trees,
In a covert of reeds and marsh.

²²The lotus trees cover him with their shade;
The willows by the brook surround him.

²³Indeed the river may rage,
Yet he is not disturbed;
He is confident, though the Jordan gushes into his mouth,

²⁴*Though* he takes it in his eyes,

Or one pierces his nose with a snare.

- ¹“Can you draw out Leviathan^a with a hook,
Or snare his tongue with a line which you lower?
²Can you put a reed through his nose,
Or pierce his jaw with a hook?
³Will he make many supplications to you?
Will he speak softly to you?
⁴Will he make a covenant with you?
Will you take him as a servant forever?
⁵Will you play with him as with a bird,
Or will you leash him for your maidens?
⁶Will your companions make a banquet^a of him?
Will they apportion him among the merchants?
⁷Can you fill his skin with harpoons,
Or his head with fishing spears?
⁸Lay your hand on him;
Remember the battle—
Never do it again!
⁹Indeed, any hope of overcoming him is false;
Shall one not be overwhelmed at the sight of him?
¹⁰No one is so fierce that he would dare stir him up.
Who then is able to stand against Me?
¹¹Who has preceded Me, that I should pay him?

Everything under heaven is Mine.

- ¹²“I will not conceal^a his limbs,
His mighty power, or his graceful proportions.
¹³Who can remove his outer coat?
Who can approach him with a double bridle?

¹⁴Who can open the doors of his face,
With his terrible teeth all around?
¹⁵*His* rows of scales are his pride,
Shut up tightly as with a seal;
¹⁶One is so near another
That no air can come between them;
¹⁷They are joined one to another,
They stick together and cannot be parted.
¹⁸His sneezings flash forth light,
And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
¹⁹Out of his mouth go burning lights;
Sparks of fire shoot out.
²⁰Smoke goes out of his nostrils,
As from a boiling pot and burning rushes.
²¹His breath kindles coals,
And a flame goes out of his mouth.
²²Strength dwells in his neck,
And sorrow dances before him.
²³The folds of his flesh are joined together;
They are firm on him and cannot be moved.
²⁴His heart is as hard as stone,
Even as hard as the lower millstone.
²⁵When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid;
Because of his crashings they are beside a
themselves.
²⁶*Though* the sword reaches him, it cannot avail;
Nor does spear, dart, or javelin.
²⁷He regards iron as straw,
And bronze as rotten wood.
²⁸The arrow cannot make him flee;
Slingstones become like stubble to him.
²⁹Darts are regarded as straw;
He laughs at the threat of javelins.
³⁰His undersides are like sharp potsherds;

He spreads pointed marks in the mire.

³¹He makes the deep boil like a pot;

He makes the sea like a pot of ointment.

³²He leaves a shining wake behind him;

One would think the deep had white hair.

³³On earth there is nothing like him,

Which is made without fear.

³⁴He beholds every high thing;

He is king over all the children of pride.”

Chapter 42

Job's Repentance and Restoration

¹Then Job answered the LORD and said:

²"I know that You can do everything,
And that no purpose of Yours can be withheld from
You.

³*You asked*, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?'

Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand,
Things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.

⁴Listen, please, and let me speak;

You said, 'I will question you, and you shall answer
Me.'

⁵"I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear,
But now my eye sees You.

⁶Therefore I abhor myself,

And repent in dust and ashes."

Humility: Like All Good Leaders, Job Acknowledges His Weakness

Job 40:3-5; 42:1-6

When God confronts Job with His power and majesty, Job responds with absolute humility (Job 40:3-5). The chastened man doesn't try to defend himself or rationalize his feelings. He confesses his humanity, then shuts his mouth.

And still God is not finished with His awesome lesson.

Even after Job acknowledges his insignificance and presumption, God delivers a second speech, graphically describing His power to control everything. He glories in the might of Behemoth and the ferocity of Leviathan, and asks Job if he dare go near either one. This time Job responds with deep repentance (42:1-6), clearly marking the difference between his friends and him.

Good leaders feel secure enough to repent when wrong. They don't have to project their self-worth, defend their every move, or make excuses for their failures. In the end, God rebuked Job's friends and rewarded Job—but not until the end.

⁷And so it was, after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, that the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is aroused against you and your two friends, for you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has.
⁸"Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and My servant Job shall pray for you. For I will accept him, lest I deal with you according to your folly; because you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has."

⁹So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD commanded them; for the LORD had accepted Job. ¹⁰And the LORD restored Job's losses^a when he prayed for his friends. Indeed the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. ¹¹Then all his brothers, all his sisters, and all those who had been his acquaintances before, came to him and ate food with him in his house; and they consoled him and comforted him for all the adversity that the LORD had brought upon him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and each a ring of gold.

Relationships: Job Takes the High Road

Job 42:10

After enduring nearly 40 chapters of criticism and condemnation from Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar, Job has the opportunity to get even. God announces His displeasure with them, apparently giving Job a wonderful chance to say, "I told you so." Instead, Job prays for his foolish friends.

Like all great leaders, Job refused to take vengeance or hold grudges. Instead, he took the high road. He forgave his friends, interceded for them, and sent them on their way. Remind yourself of the differences between the low road and the high road:

Low Road • High Road

Revenge and retaliation when wronged •
Unconditional love and forgiveness

Plays the same game as others • Refuses to play games; lives by principles

Guided by emotions; is up and down • Guided by character and values

Reactive: lives no better than anyone else •
Proactive: lives above merely human standards

¹²Now the LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; for he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys. ¹³He also had seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴And he called the name of the first Jemimah, the name of the second Keziah, and the name of the third Keren-Happuch. ¹⁵In all the land were found no women so beautiful as the daughters of Job; and their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers.

¹⁶After this Job lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children and grandchildren for four generations.

¹⁷So Job died, old and full of days.

The Book of Psalms

Introduction to Psalms

Bible readers through the ages have flocked to the Book of Psalms. Its poetic words reflect the entire range of human emotions. The various writers of the psalms aim to express their deepest feelings and longings—as well as the truth of God’s wisdom.

These ancient Hebrew songs contribute to our understanding of leadership in both definitive and dynamic ways. They are definitive because they contain God’s thoughts and values; they help leaders to understand how God thinks, what He values, and how He might respond to a leader’s circumstances. They are dynamic because they explore the ups and downs of a leader’s humanity. David, who wrote the majority of the psalms, expressed every emotion he felt as a leader, from the joy of God’s victories, to deep contrition for his sin and shortcomings, anger over national injustice and lack of vision, and sadness over his weakness and lack of understanding.

Several writers contributed over many years to the collection we know as the Psalms. David, Asaph, the sons of Korah, Solomon, Moses, Heman, Ethan, and a handful of anonymous authors all made unique contributions to this amazing “hymnal of Israel.” We learn at least two great leadership lessons from them:

1. Leaders remain human.
2. Leadership is relationships.

Leadership always concerns more than cold, sterile strategy or achievement of goals. It demands that leaders shepherd others, exhort them, and build internal motivation in the hearts of their followers. David, especially, speaks continually about his relationships—both his vertical relationship with God and his horizontal relationships with people. The people loved him because of his competency and compassion.

Poetic Words Reflect Human Emotions

God's Role in Psalms

Can anyone doubt that Psalm 23 would win a contest for “Most Popular Psalm”? It portrays the Lord not as the omnipotent Creator, not as the brilliant Strategist or the mighty Captain, but as a loving Shepherd who leads and guides His people with a rod and a staff.

David worked as a shepherd in his youth and later, as king, tapped the lessons he had learned in the fields. The psalms picture the intimate nature of God's relationship to His people.

Lessons in Leadership

- Leaders never lose their humanity; they hurt when their people hurt.
- Leaders must be guided by principles and values worth dying for.
- Leaders gain credibility through their own vulnerability and transparency.
- Leaders take refuge in the Lord and allow Him to fight battles through them.
- Leaders must be honest about their emotions.
- Leaders recognize that the good in their lives comes from above.
- A leader's highest aim should be to honor and glorify God.
- The primary difference between a follower and a leader is perspective.

LEADERS Cannot Show the Way Until They Know the Way_ (119:1-176)

COMMITMENT Comes Before Provision (145:8-20)

BOOK ONE: Psalms 1—41

Psalm 1

The Way of the Righteous and the End of the Ungodly

Blessed is the man
Who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly,
Nor stands in the path of sinners,
Nor sits in the seat of the scornful;
²But his delight is in the law of the LORD,
And in His law he meditates day and night.
³He shall be like a tree

The Law of the Inner Circle: Be Careful Where You Get Your Counsel

Psalm 1:1-3

The brilliant first psalm contrasts the righteous and the wicked. Leaders, take note, for the difference between the two seems to be where they get their counsel! Observe how a foolish leader can be led astray by a corrupt inner circle:

1. The leader begins to browse for the wrong counsel (v. 1).
2. The leader begins to listen to the wrong voices (v. 1).

3. The leader joins the wrong inner circle (v. 1).

Psalm 1:2 tells us that a wise leader meditates on God's Word day and night. To meditate means to examine, to experience, and to evaluate. Note the results of receiving counsel from the right inner circle:

1. Stability (v. 3)
2. Inward nourishment and refreshment (v. 3)
3. Fruitfulness and productivity (v. 3)
4. Strength and durability (v. 3)
5. Success (v. 3)

Planted by the rivers of water,
That brings forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also shall not wither;

And whatever he does shall prosper.

⁴The ungodly are not so,
But are like the chaff which the wind drives away.

⁵Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment,

Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

⁶For the LORD knows the way of the righteous,

But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Psalm 2

The Messiah's Triumph and Kingdom

Why do the nations rage,
And the people plot a vain thing?
²The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together,
Against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying,
³"Let us break Their bonds in pieces

And cast away Their cords from us."

⁴He who sits in the heavens shall laugh;
The Lord shall hold them in derision.
⁵Then He shall speak to them in His wrath,
And distress them in His deep displeasure:
⁶"Yet I have set My King

On My holy hill of Zion."

⁷"I will declare the decree:
The LORD has said to Me,
'You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You.
⁸Ask of Me, and I will give You
The nations for Your inheritance,
And the ends of the earth for Your possession.
⁹You shall break^a them with a rod of iron;

You shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.' "

¹⁰Now therefore, be wise, O kings;
Be instructed, you judges of the earth.

¹¹Serve the LORD with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.

¹²^a Kiss the Son, lest ^b He be angry,
And you perish in the way,
When His wrath is kindled but a little.

Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him.

Psalm 3

The LORD Helps His Troubled People

A Psalm of David when he fled from Absalom his son.

LORD, how they have increased who trouble me!
Many are they who rise up against me.

²Many are they who say of me,

“There is no help for him in God.”

Selah

³But You, O LORD, are a shield for me,
My glory and the One who lifts up my head.

⁴I cried to the LORD with my voice,
And He heard me from His holy hill.

Selah

⁵I lay down and slept;
I awoke, for the LORD sustained me.

⁶I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people

Who have set themselves against me all around.

⁷Arise, O LORD;
Save me, O my God!

For You have struck all my enemies on the cheekbone;

You have broken the teeth of the ungodly.

⁸Salvation belongs to the LORD.

Your blessing is upon Your people.

Selah

Psalm 4

The Safety of the Faithful

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness!
You have relieved me in my distress;

Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.

²How long, O you sons of men,
Will you turn my glory to shame?
How long will you love worthlessness
And seek falsehood?

Selah

³But know that the LORD has set apart^a for Himself him who is godly;

The LORD will hear when I call to Him.

⁴Be angry, and do not sin.
Meditate within your heart on your bed, and be still.

Selah

⁵Offer the sacrifices of righteousness,

And put your trust in the LORD.

⁶*There are* many who say,
“Who will show us any good?”
LORD, lift up the light of Your countenance upon us.
⁷You have put gladness in my heart,
More than in the season that their grain and wine increased.
⁸I will both lie down in peace, and sleep;

For You alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 5

A Prayer for Guidance

To the Chief Musician. With flutes.^a A Psalm of David.

Give ear to my words, O LORD,
Consider my meditation.

²Give heed to the voice of my cry,
My King and my God,
For to You I will pray.

³My voice You shall hear in the morning, O LORD;
In the morning I will direct it to You,

And I will look up.

⁴For You are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness,

Nor shall evil dwell with You.

⁵The boastful shall not stand in Your sight;
You hate all workers of iniquity.

⁶You shall destroy those who speak falsehood;

The LORD abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful
man.

⁷But as for me, I will come into Your house in the multitude of Your mercy;

In fear of You I will worship toward Your holy temple.

⁸Lead me, O LORD, in Your righteousness because of my enemies;

Make Your way straight before my face.

⁹For there is no faithfulness in their mouth;

Their inward part is destruction;

Their throat is an open tomb;

They flatter with their tongue.

¹⁰Pronounce them guilty, O God!

Let them fall by their own counsels;

Cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions,

For they have rebelled against You.

¹¹But let all those rejoice who put their trust in You;

Let them ever shout for joy, because You defend them;

Let those also who love Your name

Be joyful in You.

¹²For You, O LORD, will bless the righteous;

With favor You will surround him as with a shield.

Psalm 6

A Prayer of Faith in Time of Distress

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. On an eight-stringed harp.^a A Psalm of David.

O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger,
Nor chasten me in Your hot displeasure.

²Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am weak;
O LORD, heal me, for my bones are troubled.

³My soul also is greatly troubled;

But You, O LORD—how long?

⁴Return, O LORD, deliver me!

Oh, save me for Your mercies' sake!

⁵For in death there is no remembrance of You;

In the grave who will give You thanks?

⁶I am weary with my groaning;

All night I make my bed swim;

I drench my couch with my tears.

⁷My eye wastes away because of grief;

It grows old because of all my enemies.

⁸Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity;
For the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping.
⁹The LORD has heard my supplication;
The LORD will receive my prayer.
¹⁰Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled;

Let them turn back and be ashamed suddenly.

The Leader's Humanity: Don't Hide It

Psalm 6:1-10

David was a “man after [God’s] own heart” (Acts 13:22), but he never hesitated to reveal his emotions or his weakness. Even as king of Israel, he declared his fears, his anxieties, and his ambitions. Good leaders know how to balance transparency with being an example. Good leaders feel secure enough to be vulnerable.

Psalm 7

Prayer and Praise for Deliverance from Enemies

A Meditation^a of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.

O LORD my God, in You I put my trust;
Save me from all those who persecute me;
And deliver me,
²Lest they tear me like a lion,

Rending me in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

³O LORD my God, if I have done this:
If there is iniquity in my hands,

⁴If I have repaid evil to him who was at peace with
me,

Or have plundered my enemy without cause,

⁵Let the enemy pursue me and overtake me;

Yes, let him trample my life to the earth,

And lay my honor in the dust.

Selah

⁶Arise, O LORD, in Your anger;
Lift Yourself up because of the rage of my enemies;

Rise up for me^a to the judgment You have commanded!

⁷So the congregation of the peoples shall surround You;

For their sakes, therefore, return on high.

⁸The LORD shall judge the peoples;

Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness,

And according to my integrity within me.

⁹Oh, let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end,

But establish the just;

For the righteous God tests the hearts and minds.

¹⁰My defense is of God,

Who saves the upright in heart.

¹¹God is a just judge,

And God is angry with the wicked every day.

¹²If he does not turn back,

He will sharpen His sword;

He bends His bow and makes it ready.

¹³He also prepares for Himself instruments of death;

He makes His arrows into fiery shafts.

¹⁴Behold, the wicked brings forth iniquity;

Yes, he conceives trouble and brings forth falsehood.

¹⁵He made a pit and dug it out,

And has fallen into the ditch which he made.

¹⁶His trouble shall return upon his own head,

And his violent dealing shall come down on his own crown.

¹⁷I will praise the LORD according to His righteousness,

And will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalm 8

The Glory of the LORD in Creation

To the Chief Musician. On the instrument of Gath.^a A Psalm of David.

O LORD, our Lord,
How excellent is Your name in all the earth,

Who have set Your glory above the heavens!

²Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
You have ordained strength,
Because of Your enemies,

That You may silence the enemy and the avenger.

³When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers,

The moon and the stars, which You have ordained,

⁴What is man that You are mindful of him,
And the son of man that You visit him?

⁵For You have made him a little lower than the angels,^a

And You have crowned him with glory and honor.

⁶You have made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands;

You have put all things under his feet,

⁷All sheep and oxen—

Even the beasts of the field,

⁸The birds of the air,

And the fish of the sea

That pass through the paths of the seas.

⁹O LORD, our Lord,

How excellent is Your name in all the earth!

Identity: A Balanced Perspective of God's Role and the Leader's Role

Psalm 8:3-9

Have you ever asked, “When does a leader’s confidence become arrogance? How self-assured should I be as a leader? What does humility look like in a leader’s life?”

Psalm 8 answers those questions. This passage shows leaders how to balance their identity with their self-esteem. Consider how David perceives his identity and maintains both confidence and humility:

1. David sees clearly his own weakness and humanity (vv. 3, 4).

David begins by asking a question: “Why does God even give any thought to me?” He realizes that in the sweep of the galaxy, man accounts for only a very small part. Remembering this helps us to remain humble.

2. David sees his God-given position and privileges (vv. 5-8).

David knows that God has made humankind a little lower than Himself. The Lord put men and women in charge of the whole earth and gave them authority over creation.

3. David sees a balance by giving all the glory to God (v. 9).

David closes the psalm the way he began. He magnifies the Lord and gives Him the credit for the good that has come from his life and leadership.

Psalm 9

Prayer and Thanksgiving for the LORD's Righteous Judgments

To the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Death of the Son."^a A Psalm of David.

I will praise You, O LORD, with my whole heart;
I will tell of all Your marvelous works.

²I will be glad and rejoice in You;

I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High.

³When my enemies turn back,
They shall fall and perish at Your presence.

⁴For You have maintained my right and my cause;
You sat on the throne judging in righteousness.

⁵You have rebuked the nations,
You have destroyed the wicked;

You have blotted out their name forever and ever.

⁶O enemy, destructions are finished forever!
And you have destroyed cities;
Even their memory has perished.

⁷But the LORD shall endure forever;
He has prepared His throne for judgment.

⁸He shall judge the world in righteousness,

And He shall administer judgment for the peoples in uprightness.

⁹The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed,
A refuge in times of trouble.

¹⁰And those who know Your name will put their trust in You;

For You, LORD, have not forsaken those who seek
You.

¹¹Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion!
Declare His deeds among the people.

¹²When He avenges blood, He remembers them;

He does not forget the cry of the humble.

¹³Have mercy on me, O LORD!
Consider my trouble from those who hate me,
You who lift me up from the gates of death,

¹⁴That I may tell of all Your praise
In the gates of the daughter of Zion.

I will rejoice in Your salvation.

¹⁵The nations have sunk down in the pit which they made;

In the net which they hid, their own foot is caught.

¹⁶The LORD is a known by the judgment He executes;

The wicked is snared in the work of his own hands.

Meditation.a

Selah

¹⁷The wicked shall be turned into hell,
And all the nations that forget God.

¹⁸For the needy shall not always be forgotten;

The expectation of the poor shall not perish forever.

¹⁹Arise, O LORD,
Do not let man prevail;
Let the nations be judged in Your sight.

²⁰Put them in fear, O LORD,

That the nations may know themselves to be but men.
Selah

Psalm 10

A Song of Confidence in God's Triumph over Evil

Why do You stand afar off, O LORD?
Why do You hide in times of trouble?

²The wicked in his pride persecutes the poor;

Let them be caught in the plots which they have devised.

³For the wicked boasts of his heart's desire;
He blesses the greedy and renounces the LORD.

⁴The wicked in his proud countenance does not seek
God;

God is in none of his thoughts.

⁵His ways are always prospering;
Your judgments are far above, out of his sight;
As for all his enemies, he sneers at them.

⁶He has said in his heart, "I shall not be moved;
I shall never be in adversity."

⁷His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and oppression;

Under his tongue is trouble and iniquity.

⁸He sits in the lurking places of the villages;
In the secret places he murders the innocent;
His eyes are secretly fixed on the helpless.

⁹He lies in wait secretly, as a lion in his den;
He lies in wait to catch the poor;
He catches the poor when he draws him into his net.

¹⁰So he crouches, he lies low,
That the helpless may fall by his strength.

¹¹He has said in his heart,
“God has forgotten;
He hides His face;

He will never see.”

¹²Arise, O LORD!
O God, lift up Your hand!
Do not forget the humble.

¹³Why do the wicked renounce God?
He has said in his heart,

“You will not require an account.”

¹⁴But You have seen, for You observe trouble and grief,

To repay it by Your hand.
The helpless commits himself to You;
You are the helper of the fatherless.

¹⁵Break the arm of the wicked and the evil man;

Seek out his wickedness until You find none.

¹⁶The LORD is King forever and ever;
The nations have perished out of His land.

¹⁷LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble;
You will prepare their heart;
You will cause Your ear to hear,

¹⁸To do justice to the fatherless and the oppressed,
That the man of the earth may oppress no more.

Psalm 11

Faith in the LORD's Righteousness

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

In the LORD I put my trust;
How can you say to my soul,
“Flee as a bird to your mountain”?

²For look! The wicked bend their bow,
They make ready their arrow on the string,
That they may shoot secretly at the upright in heart.

³If the foundations are destroyed,

What can the righteous do?

⁴The LORD is in His holy temple,
The LORD's throne is in heaven;
His eyes behold,
His eyelids test the sons of men.

⁵The LORD tests the righteous,
But the wicked and the one who loves violence His soul hates.

⁶Upon the wicked He will rain coals;
Fire and brimstone and a burning wind

Shall be the portion of their cup.

⁷For the LORD is righteous,

He loves righteousness;

His countenance beholds the upright. a

Psalm 12

Man's Treachery and God's Constancy

To the Chief Musician. On an eight-stringed harp.^a A Psalm of David.

Help, LORD, for the godly man ceases!
For the faithful disappear from among the sons of men.

²They speak idly everyone with his neighbor;

With flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

³May the LORD cut off all flattering lips,
And the tongue that speaks proud things,

⁴Who have said,
"With our tongue we will prevail;
Our lips are our own;

Who is lord over us?"

⁵"For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy,

Now I will arise," says the LORD;

"I will set him in the safety for which he yearns."

⁶The words of the LORD are pure words,

Like silver tried in a furnace of earth,
Purified seven times.

⁷You shall keep them, O LORD,

You shall preserve them from this generation
forever.

⁸The wicked prowl on every side,

When vileness is exalted among the sons of men.

Psalm 13

Trust in the Salvation of the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

How long, O LORD? Will You forget me forever?
How long will You hide Your face from me?
²How long shall I take counsel in my soul,
Having sorrow in my heart daily?

How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

³Consider and hear me, O LORD my God;
Enlighten my eyes,
Lest I sleep the sleep of death;
⁴Lest my enemy say,
“I have prevailed against him”;

Lest those who trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

⁵But I have trusted in Your mercy;
My heart shall rejoice in Your salvation.
⁶I will sing to the LORD,

Because He has dealt bountifully with me.

Psalm 14

Folly of the Godless, and God's Final Triumph

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The fool has said in his heart,
“There is no God.”
They are corrupt,
They have done abominable works,

There is none who does good.

²The LORD looks down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there are any who understand, who seek
God.

³They have all turned aside,
They have together become corrupt;
There is none who does good,

No, not one.

⁴Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And do not call on the LORD?

⁵There they are in great fear,
For God is with the generation of the righteous.

⁶You shame the counsel of the poor,

But the LORD is his refuge.

⁷Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!

When the LORD brings back the captivity of His people,

Let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

Psalm 15

The Character of Those Who May Dwell with the LORD

A Psalm of David.

LORD, who may abide in Your tabernacle?

Who may dwell in Your holy hill?

²He who walks uprightly,
And works righteousness,
And speaks the truth in his heart;

³He who does not backbite with his tongue,
Nor does evil to his neighbor,
Nor does he take up a reproach against his friend;

⁴In whose eyes a vile person is despised,
But he honors those who fear the LORD;
He who swears to his own hurt and does not change;

⁵He who does not put out his money at usury,

Value-Driven Leadership

Psalm 15:1-5

What qualities should every leader possess? Psalm 15 furnishes us with a list of many of the necessary traits.

David describes a righteous man who walks in integrity and gains not only the respect of others, but also an audience with God (Ps. 15:1, 2). He demonstrates why predetermined values and ethics, not expediency, must drive our leadership. How does David picture a godly leader? The leader...

- possesses integrity (v. 2)
- does what is right (v. 2)
- is honest and trustworthy (v. 2)
- does not gossip (v. 3)
- does not listen to gossip (v. 3)
- does no harm to others (v. 3)
- speaks out against wrong (v. 4)
- honors others who walk in truth (v. 4)
- keeps their word even when it costs them (v. 4)
- isn't greedy to gain at the expense of others (v. 5)
- takes no bribes against anyone (v. 5)
- is strong and stable (v. 5)

Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent.

He who does these things shall never be moved.

Psalm 16

The Hope of the Faithful, and the Messiah's Victory

A Michtam of David.

Preserve me, O God, for in You I put my trust.

²*O my soul*, you have said to the LORD,
“You are my Lord,
My goodness is nothing apart from You.”

³As for the saints who are on the earth,

“They are the excellent ones, in whom is all my delight.”

⁴Their sorrows shall be multiplied who hasten after another god;

Their drink offerings of blood I will not offer,

Nor take up their names on my lips.

⁵O LORD, You are the portion of my inheritance and my cup;

You maintain my lot.

⁶The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places;

Yes, I have a good inheritance.

⁷I will bless the LORD who has given me counsel;
My heart also instructs me in the night seasons.

⁸I have set the LORD always before me;

Because He is at my right hand I shall not be moved.

⁹Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices;
My flesh also will rest in hope.

¹⁰For You will not leave my soul in Sheol,
Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption.

¹¹You will show me the path of life;
In Your presence is fullness of joy;

At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Psalm 17

Prayer with Confidence in Final Salvation

A Prayer of David.

Hear a just cause, O LORD,
Attend to my cry;
Give ear to my prayer which is not from deceitful
lips.

²Let my vindication come from Your presence;

Let Your eyes look on the things that are upright.

³You have tested my heart;
You have visited me in the night;
You have tried me and have found nothing;
I have purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

⁴Concerning the works of men,
By the word of Your lips,
I have kept away from the paths of the destroyer.

⁵Uphold my steps in Your paths,

That my footsteps may not slip.

⁶I have called upon You, for You will hear me, O God;
Incline Your ear to me, and hear my speech.

⁷Show Your marvelous lovingkindness by Your right hand,

O You who save those who trust in You
From those who rise up against them.

⁸Keep me as the apple of Your eye;
Hide me under the shadow of Your wings,

⁹From the wicked who oppress me,

From my deadly enemies who surround me.

¹⁰They have closed up their fat hearts;
With their mouths they speak proudly.

¹¹They have now surrounded us in our steps;
They have set their eyes, crouching down to the earth,

¹²As a lion is eager to tear his prey,

And like a young lion lurking in secret places.

¹³Arise, O LORD,
Confront him, cast him down;
Deliver my life from the wicked with Your sword,

¹⁴With Your hand from men, O LORD,
From men of the world who have their portion in this life,

And whose belly You fill with Your hidden treasure.
They are satisfied with children,

And leave the rest of their possession for their babes.

¹⁵As for me, I will see Your face in righteousness;

I shall be satisfied when I awake in Your likeness.

Psalm 18

God the Sovereign Savior

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song on the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. And he said:

I will love You, O LORD, my strength.

²The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;

My God, my strength, in whom I will trust;

My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

³I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;

So shall I be saved from my enemies.

⁴The pangs of death surrounded me,
And the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.

⁵The sorrows of Sheol surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.

⁶In my distress I called upon the LORD,

And cried out to my God;
He heard my voice from His temple,

And my cry came before Him, even to His ears.

⁷Then the earth shook and trembled;
The foundations of the hills also quaked and were shaken,

Because He was angry.

⁸Smoke went up from His nostrils,
And devouring fire from His mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.

⁹He bowed the heavens also, and came down
With darkness under His feet.

¹⁰And He rode upon a cherub, and flew;
He flew upon the wings of the wind.

¹¹He made darkness His secret place;
His canopy around Him was dark waters
And thick clouds of the skies.

¹²From the brightness before Him,

His thick clouds passed with hailstones and coals of fire.

¹³The LORD thundered from heaven,
And the Most High uttered His voice,
Hailstones and coals of fire.^a

¹⁴He sent out His arrows and scattered the foe,
Lightnings in abundance, and He vanquished them.

¹⁵Then the channels of the sea were seen,
The foundations of the world were uncovered
At Your rebuke, O LORD,

At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

¹⁶He sent from above, He took me;

He drew me out of many waters.

¹⁷He delivered me from my strong enemy,
From those who hated me,
For they were too strong for me.

¹⁸They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
But the LORD was my support.

¹⁹He also brought me out into a broad place;

He delivered me because He delighted in me.

²⁰The LORD rewarded me according to my
righteousness;

According to the cleanness of my hands
He has recompensed me.

²¹For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.

²²For all His judgments were before me,
And I did not put away His statutes from me.

²³I was also blameless before Him,
And I kept myself from my iniquity.

²⁴Therefore the LORD has recompensed me
according to my righteousness,

According to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

²⁵With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful;
With a blameless man You will show Yourself
blameless;

²⁶With the pure You will show Yourself pure;
And with the devious You will show Yourself shrewd.

²⁷For You will save the humble people,

But will bring down haughty looks.

²⁸For You will light my lamp;
The LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

²⁹For by You I can run against a troop,
By my God I can leap over a wall.

³⁰*As for* God, His way is perfect;
The word of the LORD is proven;

He is a shield to all who trust in Him.

³¹For who is God, except the LORD?
And who is a rock, except our God?

³²*It is* God who arms me with strength,
And makes my way perfect.

³³He makes my feet like the feet of deer,
And sets me on my high places.

³⁴He teaches my hands to make war,

So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

God: An Absolute Leader in a Relative World

Psalm 18:1-34

God is an absolute in a relative world. So how can leaders learn to rely on Him? Psalm 18 gives some answers.

David not only models what it means to be a leader, but also how to lean completely on the God who transcends the universe and judges it. Human leaders can find refuge in God's absolute leadership for two reasons:

1. The Lord is a mighty Protector.
2. The Lord is an effective Equipper.

Psalm 18:1-29 describes the tangible benefits of living according to this truth. When leaders adopt it, they can perform beyond their abilities. Why? Because God enables them to do so. The psalmist declares that God “teaches” or “trains” their hands for battle (18:34). Leaders are to emulate both roles, in addition to several others pictured throughout the psalms:

1. The leader as a king (20:9)
2. The leader as a shepherd (23:1)
3. The leader as a guide/counselor (48:14)
4. The leader as a disciplinarian (50:16-21)
5. The leader as a provider (72:6)
6. The leader as a creator/innovator (95:5)
7. The leader as a worker/producer (107:37)

³⁵You have also given me the shield of Your salvation;
Your right hand has held me up,
Your gentleness has made me great.

³⁶You enlarged my path under me,

So my feet did not slip.

³⁷I have pursued my enemies and overtaken them;
Neither did I turn back again till they were destroyed.

³⁸I have wounded them,
So that they could not rise;
They have fallen under my feet.

³⁹For You have armed me with strength for the battle;

You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.

⁴⁰You have also given me the necks of my enemies,
So that I destroyed those who hated me.

⁴¹They cried out, but there was none to save;

Even to the LORD, but He did not answer them.

⁴²Then I beat them as fine as the dust before the wind;

I cast them out like dirt in the streets.

⁴³You have delivered me from the strivings of the people;

You have made me the head of the nations;
A people I have not known shall serve me.

⁴⁴As soon as they hear of me they obey me;
The foreigners submit to me.

⁴⁵The foreigners fade away,

And come frightened from their hideouts.

⁴⁶The LORD lives!

Blessed be my Rock!

Let the God of my salvation be exalted.

⁴⁷*It is* God who avenges me,

And subdues the peoples under me;

⁴⁸He delivers me from my enemies.

You also lift me up above those who rise against me;

You have delivered me from the violent man.

⁴⁹Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the Gentiles,

And sing praises to Your name.

⁵⁰Great deliverance He gives to His king,

And shows mercy to His anointed,

To David and his descendants forevermore.

Psalm 19

The Perfect Revelation of the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament shows His handiwork.

²Day unto day utters speech,
And night unto night reveals knowledge.

³*There is* no speech nor language
Where their voice is not heard.

⁴Their line ^a has gone out through all the earth,

And their words to the end of the world.

In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun,

⁵Which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,

And rejoices like a strong man to run its race.

⁶Its rising is from one end of heaven,
And its circuit to the other end;

And there is nothing hidden from its heat.

⁷The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul;
The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple;

⁸The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart;

The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes;

⁹The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever;

The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

¹⁰More to be desired are they than gold,

Yea, than much fine gold;

Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

¹¹Moreover by them Your servant is warned,

And in keeping them there is great reward.

¹²Who can understand his errors?

Cleanse me from secret faults.

¹³Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins;

Let them not have dominion over me.

Then I shall be blameless,

And I shall be innocent of great transgression.

¹⁴Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart

Leaders Communicate

Psalm 19:1-14

God is not only the Ultimate Leader, but the Ultimate Communicator. The creation declares God's power and glory (Ps. 19:1-6). The Law declares God's wisdom and will (19:7-14). God precisely reveals His message to His followers through both. Three simple verses (19:7-9) declare the results of this ultimate communication:

God's Revelation • Description • The Results

His Law • Perfect • Restores the soul

Testimony • Sure • Makes us wise

Statutes • Right • Gives joy to the heart

Commandments • Pure • Enlightens our perception

Fear and reverence • Clean • Endures forever

Judgments • True • Completely right

Be acceptable in Your sight,

O LORD, my strength and my Redeemer.

Psalm 20

The Assurance of God's Saving Work

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble;

May the name of the God of Jacob defend you;

²May He send you help from the sanctuary,

And strengthen you out of Zion;

³May He remember all your offerings,

And accept your burnt sacrifice.

Selah

⁴May He grant you according to your heart's desire,

And fulfill all your purpose.

⁵We will rejoice in your salvation,

And in the name of our God we will set up our banners!

May the LORD fulfill all your petitions.

⁶Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed;

He will answer him from His holy heaven

With the saving strength of His right hand.

⁷Some trust in chariots, and some in horses;

But we will remember the name of the LORD our God.

⁸They have bowed down and fallen;
But we have risen and stand upright.

⁹Save, LORD!

May the King answer us when we call.

Psalm 21

Joy in the Salvation of the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The king shall have joy in Your strength, O LORD;
And in Your salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!

²You have given him his heart's desire,
And have not withheld the request of his lips.

Selah

³For You meet him with the blessings of goodness;
You set a crown of pure gold upon his head.

⁴He asked life from You, and You gave it to him—
Length of days forever and ever.

⁵His glory is great in Your salvation;
Honor and majesty You have placed upon him.

⁶For You have made him most blessed forever;
You have made him exceedingly glad with Your presence.

⁷For the king trusts in the LORD,

And through the mercy of the Most High he shall not be moved.

⁸Your hand will find all Your enemies;
Your right hand will find those who hate You.

⁹You shall make them as a fiery oven in the time of Your anger;

The LORD shall swallow them up in His wrath,
And the fire shall devour them.

¹⁰Their offspring You shall destroy from the earth,
And their descendants from among the sons of men.

¹¹For they intended evil against You;
They devised a plot which they are not able to perform.

¹²Therefore You will make them turn their back;

You will make ready Your arrows on Your string toward their faces.

¹³Be exalted, O LORD, in Your own strength!

We will sing and praise Your power.

Psalm 22

The Suffering, Praise, and Posterity of the Messiah

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Deer of the Dawn."^a A Psalm of David.

My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?

Why are You so far from helping Me,

And from the words of My groaning?

²O My God, I cry in the daytime, but You do not hear;

And in the night season, and am not silent.

³But You are holy,

Enthroned in the praises of Israel.

⁴Our fathers trusted in You;

They trusted, and You delivered them.

⁵They cried to You, and were delivered;

They trusted in You, and were not ashamed.

⁶But I am a worm, and no man;

A reproach of men, and despised by the people.

⁷All those who see Me ridicule Me;

They shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

⁸"He trusted^a in the LORD, let Him rescue Him;

Let Him deliver Him, since He delights in Him!"

⁹But You are He who took Me out of the womb;
You made Me trust while on My mother's breasts.

¹⁰I was cast upon You from birth.
From My mother's womb
You have been My God.

¹¹Be not far from Me,
For trouble is near;

For there is none to help.

¹²Many bulls have surrounded Me;
Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled Me.

¹³They gape at Me with their mouths,

Like a raging and roaring lion.

¹⁴I am poured out like water,
And all My bones are out of joint;
My heart is like wax;
It has melted within Me.

¹⁵My strength is dried up like a potsherd,
And My tongue clings to My jaws;

You have brought Me to the dust of death.

¹⁶For dogs have surrounded Me;
The congregation of the wicked has enclosed Me.
They pierced^a My hands and My feet;

¹⁷I can count all My bones.
They look and stare at Me.

¹⁸They divide My garments among them,

And for My clothing they cast lots.

¹⁹But You, O LORD, do not be far from Me;
O My Strength, hasten to help Me!

²⁰Deliver Me from the sword,
My precious life from the power of the dog.

²¹Save Me from the lion's mouth

And from the horns of the wild oxen!

You have answered Me.

²²I will declare Your name to My brethren;
In the midst of the assembly I will praise You.

²³You who fear the LORD, praise Him!
All you descendants of Jacob, glorify Him,
And fear Him, all you offspring of Israel!

²⁴For He has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;

Nor has He hidden His face from Him;

But when He cried to Him, He heard.

²⁵My praise shall be of You in the great assembly;
I will pay My vows before those who fear Him.

²⁶The poor shall eat and be satisfied;
Those who seek Him will praise the LORD.

Let your heart live forever!

²⁷All the ends of the world
Shall remember and turn to the LORD,
And all the families of the nations
Shall worship before You. a

²⁸For the kingdom is the LORD's,

And He rules over the nations.

²⁹All the prosperous of the earth
Shall eat and worship;
All those who go down to the dust
Shall bow before Him,

Even he who cannot keep himself alive.

³⁰A posterity shall serve Him.
It will be recounted of the Lord to the next generation,

³¹They will come and declare His righteousness to a people who will be born,

That He has done this.

Psalm 23

The LORD the Shepherd of His People

A Psalm of David.

The Leader as a Shepherd

Psalm 23:1-6

No psalm has gained more admirers than Psalm 23. In it, we learn not only about God's nature, but also about His leadership. David describes the Lord as a Shepherd, no doubt seeing Him this way because of his own leadership bias. David also had been a model shepherd.

Both Old and New Testaments use the term "shepherd" to illustrate leadership. The word communicates the love, nurture, intimacy, and spiritual care a godly leader provides. It involves both the rod (correction) and the staff (direction). Psalm 23 describes the Ultimate Shepherd performing several functions. The Shepherd...

- provides (v. 1)
- gives rest (v. 2)
- confidently leads (v. 3)
- renews and restores (v. 3)

- guides and directs (v. 3)
- protects (v. 4)
- corrects and comforts (v. 4)
- feeds and anoints (v. 5)
- loves (v. 6)
- furnishes permanent shelter (v. 6)

The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

²He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.

³He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of righteousness

For His name's sake.

⁴Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow
of death,

I will fear no evil;
For You are with me;

Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

⁵You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.

⁶Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life;
And I will dwell^a in the house of the LORD

Forever.

The Leader and Stress

Psalm 23:1-6

Have you discovered the difference between problems and facts? Problems are things we can do something about; we can solve problems. Facts are things we can do nothing about; therefore we do well not to worry about them. We apply energy only to those things we can change. We can feel peace and act with poise, because we no longer beat our heads against an unbreakable wall.

Psalm 23 reminds us of what God alone can control and what we can control. It distinguishes between problems and facts. It defines God as...

- our possession (v. 1)
- our provision (v. 1)
- our peace (v. 2)
- our pardon (v. 3)
- our partner (v. 4)
- our preparation (v. 5)
- our praise (v. 5)
- our paradise (v. 6)

Psalm 24

The King of Glory and His Kingdom

A Psalm of David.

The earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness,
The world and those who dwell therein.

²For He has founded it upon the seas,

And established it upon the waters.

³Who may ascend into the hill of the LORD?
Or who may stand in His holy place?

⁴He who has clean hands and a pure heart,
Who has not lifted up his soul to an idol,
Nor sworn deceitfully.

⁵He shall receive blessing from the LORD,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

⁶This is Jacob, the generation of those who seek Him,
Who seek Your face.

Selah

⁷Lift up your heads, O you gates!
And be lifted up, you everlasting doors!
And the King of glory shall come in.

⁸Who is this King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty,
The LORD mighty in battle.

⁹Lift up your heads, O you gates!
Lift up, you everlasting doors!
And the King of glory shall come in.

¹⁰Who is this King of glory?

The LORD of hosts,

He is the King of glory.

Selah

Psalm 25

A Plea for Deliverance and Forgiveness

A Psalm of David.

To You, O LORD, I lift up my soul.

²O my God, I trust in You;

Let me not be ashamed;

Let not my enemies triumph over me.

³Indeed, let no one who waits on You be ashamed;

Let those be ashamed who deal treacherously without cause.

⁴Show me Your ways, O LORD;

Teach me Your paths.

⁵Lead me in Your truth and teach me,

For You are the God of my salvation;

On You I wait all the day.

⁶Remember, O LORD, Your tender mercies and Your lovingkindnesses,

For they are from of old.

⁷Do not remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions;

According to Your mercy remember me,

For Your goodness' sake, O LORD.

⁸Good and upright is the LORD;
Therefore He teaches sinners in the way.

⁹The humble He guides in justice,
And the humble He teaches His way.

¹⁰All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth,
To such as keep His covenant and His testimonies.

¹¹For Your name's sake, O LORD,

Pardon my iniquity, for it is great.

¹²Who is the man that fears the LORD?
Him shall He^a teach in the way He^b chooses.

¹³He himself shall dwell in prosperity,
And his descendants shall inherit the earth.

¹⁴The secret of the LORD is with those who fear Him,
And He will show them His covenant.

¹⁵My eyes are ever toward the LORD,

For He shall pluck my feet out of the net.

¹⁶Turn Yourself to me, and have mercy on me,
For I am desolate and afflicted.

¹⁷The troubles of my heart have enlarged;
Bring me out of my distresses!

¹⁸Look on my affliction and my pain,
And forgive all my sins.

¹⁹Consider my enemies, for they are many;
And they hate me with cruel hatred.

²⁰Keep my soul, and deliver me;
Let me not be ashamed, for I put my trust in You.

²¹Let integrity and uprightness preserve me,

For I wait for You.

²²Redeem Israel, O God,
Out of all their troubles!

Psalm 26

A Prayer for Divine Scrutiny and Redemption

A Psalm of David.

Vindicate me, O LORD,
For I have walked in my integrity.
I have also trusted in the LORD;
I shall not slip.

²Examine me, O LORD, and prove me;
Try my mind and my heart.

³For Your lovingkindness is before my eyes,
And I have walked in Your truth.

⁴I have not sat with idolatrous mortals,
Nor will I go in with hypocrites.

⁵I have hated the assembly of evildoers,

And will not sit with the wicked.

⁶I will wash my hands in innocence;
So I will go about Your altar, O LORD,

⁷That I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving,
And tell of all Your wondrous works.

⁸LORD, I have loved the habitation of Your house,

And the place where Your glory dwells.

⁹Do not gather my soul with sinners,
Nor my life with bloodthirsty men,
¹⁰In whose hands is a sinister scheme,

And whose right hand is full of bribes.

¹¹But as for me, I will walk in my integrity;
Redeem me and be merciful to me.

¹²My foot stands in an even place;

In the congregations I will bless the LORD.

Psalm 27

An Exuberant Declaration of Faith

A Psalm of David.

The LORD is my light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?

The LORD is the strength of my life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?

²When the wicked came against me
To eat up my flesh,
My enemies and foes,
They stumbled and fell.

³Though an army may encamp against me,
My heart shall not fear;
Though war may rise against me,

In this I will be confident.

⁴One thing I have desired of the LORD,
That will I seek:
That I may dwell in the house of the LORD
All the days of my life,
To behold the beauty of the LORD,
And to inquire in His temple.

⁵For in the time of trouble
He shall hide me in His pavilion;
In the secret place of His tabernacle

He shall hide me;

He shall set me high upon a rock.

⁶And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me;

Therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tabernacle;

I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD.

⁷Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice!
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

⁸*When You said, "Seek My face,"*
My heart said to You, "Your face, LORD, I will seek."

⁹Do not hide Your face from me;
Do not turn Your servant away in anger;
You have been my help;
Do not leave me nor forsake me,
O God of my salvation.

¹⁰When my father and my mother forsake me,

Then the LORD will take care of me.

¹¹Teach me Your way, O LORD,
And lead me in a smooth path, because of my enemies.

¹²Do not deliver me to the will of my adversaries;
For false witnesses have risen against me,
And such as breathe out violence.

¹³*I would have lost heart,* unless I had believed
That I would see the goodness of the LORD

In the land of the living.

¹⁴Wait on the LORD;

Be of good courage,
And He shall strengthen your heart;

Wait, I say, on the LORD!

Psalm 28

Rejoicing in Answered Prayer

A Psalm of David.

To You I will cry, O LORD my Rock:
Do not be silent to me,
Lest, if You are silent to me,
I become like those who go down to the pit.

²Hear the voice of my supplications
When I cry to You,

When I lift up my hands toward Your holy sanctuary.

³Do not take me away with the wicked
And with the workers of iniquity,
Who speak peace to their neighbors,
But evil is in their hearts.

⁴Give them according to their deeds,
And according to the wickedness of their endeavors;
Give them according to the work of their hands;
Render to them what they deserve.

⁵Because they do not regard the works of the LORD,
Nor the operation of His hands,
He shall destroy them

And not build them up.

⁶Blessed be the LORD,

Because He has heard the voice of my supplications!

⁷The LORD is my strength and my shield;
My heart trusted in Him, and I am helped;
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices,

And with my song I will praise Him.

⁸The LORD is their strength, a
And He is the saving refuge of His anointed.

⁹Save Your people,
And bless Your inheritance;
Shepherd them also,

And bear them up forever.

Psalm 29

Praise to God in His Holiness and Majesty

A Psalm of David.

Give unto the LORD, O you mighty ones,
Give unto the LORD glory and strength.

²Give unto the LORD the glory due to His name;

Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

³The voice of the LORD is over the waters;

The God of glory thunders;

The LORD is over many waters.

⁴The voice of the LORD is powerful;

The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

⁵The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars,

Yes, the LORD splinters the cedars of Lebanon.

⁶He makes them also skip like a calf,

Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox.

⁷The voice of the LORD divides the flames of fire.

⁸The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;

The LORD shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh.

⁹The voice of the LORD makes the deer give birth,
And strips the forests bare;

And in His temple everyone says, "Glory!"

¹⁰The LORD sat enthroned at the Flood,
And the LORD sits as King forever.

¹¹The LORD will give strength to His people;

The LORD will bless His people with peace.

Psalm 30

The Blessedness of Answered Prayer

A Psalm. A Song at the dedication of the house of David.

I will extol You, O LORD, for You have lifted me up,
And have not let my foes rejoice over me.

²O LORD my God, I cried out to You,
And You healed me.

³O LORD, You brought my soul up from the grave;

You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.^a

⁴Sing praise to the LORD, you saints of His,
And give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name.^a

⁵For His anger is but for a moment,
His favor is for life;
Weeping may endure for a night,

But joy comes in the morning.

⁶Now in my prosperity I said,
“I shall never be moved.”

⁷LORD, by Your favor You have made my mountain stand strong;

You hid Your face, and I was troubled.

⁸I cried out to You, O LORD;
And to the LORD I made supplication:

⁹“What profit is there in my blood,
When I go down to the pit?
Will the dust praise You?
Will it declare Your truth?

¹⁰Hear, O LORD, and have mercy on me;

LORD, be my helper!”

¹¹You have turned for me my mourning into dancing;
You have put off my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness,

¹²To the end that my glory may sing praise to You and not be silent.

O LORD my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

Psalm 31

The LORD a Fortress in Adversity

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

In You, O LORD, I put my trust;
Let me never be ashamed;
Deliver me in Your righteousness.

²Bow down Your ear to me,
Deliver me speedily;
Be my rock of refuge,

A fortress of defense to save me.

³For You are my rock and my fortress;
Therefore, for Your name's sake,
Lead me and guide me.

⁴Pull me out of the net which they have secretly laid for me,

For You are my strength.

⁵Into Your hand I commit my spirit;

You have redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

⁶I have hated those who regard useless idols;
But I trust in the LORD.

⁷I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy,
For You have considered my trouble;

You have known my soul in adversities,
⁸And have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy;

You have set my feet in a wide place.

⁹Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in trouble;
My eye wastes away with grief,
Yes, my soul and my body!

¹⁰For my life is spent with grief,
And my years with sighing;
My strength fails because of my iniquity,
And my bones waste away.

¹¹I am a reproach among all my enemies,
But especially among my neighbors,
And am repulsive to my acquaintances;
Those who see me outside flee from me.

¹²I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind;
I am like a broken vessel.

¹³For I hear the slander of many;
Fear is on every side;
While they take counsel together against me,

They scheme to take away my life.

¹⁴But as for me, I trust in You, O LORD;
I say, "You are my God."

¹⁵My times are in Your hand;
Deliver me from the hand of my enemies,
And from those who persecute me.

¹⁶Make Your face shine upon Your servant;
Save me for Your mercies' sake.

¹⁷Do not let me be ashamed, O LORD, for I have called upon You;
Let the wicked be ashamed;

Let them be silent in the grave.

¹⁸Let the lying lips be put to silence,

Which speak insolent things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

¹⁹Oh, how great is Your goodness,

Which You have laid up for those who fear You,

Which You have prepared for those who trust in You

In the presence of the sons of men!

²⁰You shall hide them in the secret place of Your presence

From the plots of man;

You shall keep them secretly in a pavilion

From the strife of tongues.

²¹Blessed be the LORD,

For He has shown me His marvelous kindness in a strong city!

²²For I said in my haste,

“I am cut off from before Your eyes”;

Nevertheless You heard the voice of my supplications

When I cried out to You.

²³Oh, love the LORD, all you His saints!

For the LORD preserves the faithful,

And fully repays the proud person.

²⁴Be of good courage,

And He shall strengthen your heart,

All you who hope in the LORD.

Psalm 32

The Joy of Forgiveness

A Psalm of David. A Contemplation.^a

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered.

²Blessed is the man to whom the LORD does not impute iniquity,

And in whose spirit there is no deceit.

³When I kept silent, my bones grew old
Through my groaning all the day long.

⁴For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me;
My vitality was turned into the drought of summer.

⁵I acknowledged my sin to You,
And my iniquity I have not hidden.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the

And You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

⁶For this cause everyone who is godly shall pray to
You

In a time when You may be found;
Surely in a flood of great waters

They shall not come near him.

⁷You are my hiding place;

You shall preserve me from trouble;

You shall surround me with songs of deliverance.

Guidance: Leaders Are Not Perfect, but Whole

Psalm 32:8

God does not expect leaders to be perfect, but to be whole. Have you appreciated the enormous difference? To have integrity means to be whole, as in a whole number (an “integer”). Despite his or her human frailties, a leader can effectively guide those who follow.

Psalm 32:8 reminds us that leaders must closely observe the flock for its needs and problems. God expects spiritual leaders to serve as guides. A guide gets a person or group safely to a planned destination. The Hebrew word for “guide” gives us several clues as to what God expects from those He uses as leaders:

1. A guide is a spiritual head who unites and directs people in their walk with God.
2. A guide takes people on the straight path that leads to fellowship with God.
3. A guide gives accurate and godly counsel to those who need it.

4. A guide leads with gentleness and trustworthiness, making others feel safe.

5. A guide bases his or her direction on the Spirit and the Word of God.

I will guide you with My eye.

⁹Do not be like the horse or like the mule,
Which have no understanding,
Which must be harnessed with bit and bridle,

Else they will not come near you.

¹⁰Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;
But he who trusts in the LORD, mercy shall surround
him.

¹¹Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you righteous;
And shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

Psalm 33

The Sovereignty of the LORD in Creation and History

Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous!
For praise from the upright is beautiful.

²Praise the LORD with the harp;
Make melody to Him with an instrument of ten strings.

³Sing to Him a new song;

Play skillfully with a shout of joy.

⁴For the word of the LORD is right,
And all His work is done in truth.

⁵He loves righteousness and justice;

The earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

⁶By the word of the LORD the heavens were made,
And all the host of them by the breath of His mouth.

⁷He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap;^a

He lays up the deep in storehouses.

⁸Let all the earth fear the LORD;

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him.

⁹For He spoke, and it was done;

He commanded, and it stood fast.

¹⁰The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing;

He makes the plans of the peoples of no effect.

¹¹The counsel of the LORD stands forever,

The plans of His heart to all generations.

¹²Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD,

The people He has chosen as His own inheritance.

¹³The LORD looks from heaven;

He sees all the sons of men.

¹⁴From the place of His dwelling He looks

On all the inhabitants of the earth;

¹⁵He fashions their hearts individually;

He considers all their works.

¹⁶No king is saved by the multitude of an army;

A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

¹⁷A horse is a vain hope for safety;

Neither shall it deliver any by its great strength.

¹⁸Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him,

On those who hope in His mercy,

¹⁹To deliver their soul from death,

And to keep them alive in famine.

²⁰Our soul waits for the LORD;

He is our help and our shield.

²¹For our heart shall rejoice in Him,

Because we have trusted in His holy name.

²²Let Your mercy, O LORD, be upon us,

Just as we hope in You.

Psalm 34

The Happiness of Those Who Trust in God

A Psalm of David when he pretended madness before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

I W bless the LORD at all times;
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

²My soul shall make its boast in the LORD;
The humble shall hear of it and be glad.

³Oh, magnify the LORD with me,

And let us exalt His name together.

⁴I sought the LORD, and He heard me,
And delivered me from all my fears.

⁵They looked to Him and were radiant,
And their faces were not ashamed.

⁶This poor man cried out, and the LORD heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.

⁷The angel^a of the LORD encamps all around those who fear Him,

And delivers them.

⁸Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good;
Blessed is the man who trusts in Him!

⁹Oh, fear the LORD, you His saints!
There is no want to those who fear Him.

¹⁰The young lions lack and suffer hunger;

But those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.

¹¹Come, you children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

¹²Who is the man who desires life,
And loves many days, that he may see good?

¹³Keep your tongue from evil,
And your lips from speaking deceit.

¹⁴Depart from evil and do good;

Seek peace and pursue it.

¹⁵The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous,
And His ears are open to their cry.

¹⁶The face of the LORD is against those who do evil,

To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

¹⁷*The righteous* cry out, and the LORD hears,
And delivers them out of all their troubles.

¹⁸The LORD is near to those who have a broken heart,

And saves such as have a contrite spirit.

¹⁹Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
But the LORD delivers him out of them all.

²⁰He guards all his bones;
Not one of them is broken.

²¹Evil shall slay the wicked,
And those who hate the righteous shall be condemned.

²²The LORD redeems the soul of His servants,
And none of those who trust in Him shall be condemned.

Psalm 35

The LORD the Avenger of His People

A Psalm of David.

Plead my cause, O LORD, with those who strive with me;

Fight against those who fight against me.

²Take hold of shield and buckler,
And stand up for my help.

³Also draw out the spear,
And stop those who pursue me.
Say to my soul,

“I am your salvation.”

⁴Let those be put to shame and brought to dishonor
Who seek after my life;
Let those be turned back and brought to confusion
Who plot my hurt.

⁵Let them be like chaff before the wind,
And let the angel^a of the LORD chase them.

⁶Let their way be dark and slippery,
And let the angel of the LORD pursue them.

⁷For without cause they have hidden their net for me
in a pit,

Which they have dug without cause for my life.

⁸Let destruction come upon him unexpectedly,

And let his net that he has hidden catch himself;

Into that very destruction let him fall.

⁹And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD;
It shall rejoice in His salvation.

¹⁰All my bones shall say,
“LORD, who is like You,
Delivering the poor from him who is too strong for
him,

Yes, the poor and the needy from him who plunders
him?”

¹¹Fierce witnesses rise up;
They ask me things that I do not know.

¹²They reward me evil for good,
To the sorrow of my soul.

¹³But as for me, when they were sick,
My clothing was sackcloth;
I humbled myself with fasting;
And my prayer would return to my own heart.

¹⁴I paced about as though he were my friend or brother;

I bowed down heavily, as one who mourns for his mother.

¹⁵But in my adversity they rejoiced
And gathered together;
Attackers gathered against me,
And I did not know it;

They tore at me and did not cease;

¹⁶With ungodly mockers at feasts

They gnashed at me with their teeth.

¹⁷Lord, how long will You look on?
Rescue me from their destructions,
My precious life from the lions.

¹⁸I will give You thanks in the great assembly;

I will praise You among many people.

¹⁹Let them not rejoice over me who are wrongfully
my enemies;

Nor let them wink with the eye who hate me without a cause.

²⁰For they do not speak peace,
But they devise deceitful matters
Against the quiet ones in the land.

²¹They also opened their mouth wide against me,
And said, "Aha, aha!

Our eyes have seen it."

²²*This* You have seen, O LORD;
Do not keep silence.

O Lord, do not be far from me.

²³Stir up Yourself, and awake to my vindication,
To my cause, my God and my Lord.

²⁴Vindicate me, O LORD my God, according to Your
righteousness;

And let them not rejoice over me.

²⁵Let them not say in their hearts, "Ah, so we would have it!"

Let them not say, "We have swallowed him up."

²⁶Let them be ashamed and brought to mutual confusion

Who rejoice at my hurt;

Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor

Who exalt themselves against me.

²⁷Let them shout for joy and be glad,
Who favor my righteous cause;
And let them say continually,
“Let the LORD be magnified,
Who has pleasure in the prosperity of His servant.”
²⁸And my tongue shall speak of Your righteousness

And of Your praise all the day long.

Psalm 36

Man's Wickedness and God's Perfections

*To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David
the servant of the LORD.*

An oracle within my heart concerning the transgression of the wicked:

There is no fear of God before his eyes.

²For he flatters himself in his own eyes,
When he finds out his iniquity and when he hates.

³The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit;
He has ceased to be wise and to do good.

⁴He devises wickedness on his bed;
He sets himself in a way that is not good;

He does not abhor evil.

⁵Your mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens;
Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

⁶Your righteousness is like the great mountains;
Your judgments are a great deep;

O LORD, You preserve man and beast.

⁷How precious is Your lovingkindness, O God!

Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Your wings.

⁸They are abundantly satisfied with the fullness of
Your house,

And You give them drink from the river of Your pleasures.

⁹For with You is the fountain of life;

In Your light we see light.

¹⁰Oh, continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You,

And Your righteousness to the upright in heart.

¹¹Let not the foot of pride come against me,

And let not the hand of the wicked drive me away.

¹²There the workers of iniquity have fallen;

They have been cast down and are not able to rise.

Psalm 37

The Heritage of the Righteous and the Calamity of the Wicked

A Psalm of David.

Do not fret because of evildoers,
Nor be envious of the workers of iniquity.

²For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,

And wither as the green herb.

³Trust in the LORD, and do good;
Dwell in the land, and feed on His faithfulness.

⁴Delight yourself also in the LORD,

And He shall give you the desires of your heart.

⁵Commit your way to the LORD,
Trust also in Him,
And He shall bring it to pass.

⁶He shall bring forth your righteousness as the light,

And your justice as the noonday.

⁷Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him;
Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way,

Because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass.

⁸Cease from anger, and forsake wrath;

Do not fret—it only causes harm.

⁹For evildoers shall be cut off;

The Law of Intuition: David Makes Decisions Wisely

Psalm 37:3-9

Do you ever feel as though you need a therapist? If so, then Psalm 37 is for you.

David writes as a counselor, providing wise steps to take as you face crises and decisions. Whenever you feel the pressure of competition in the market, the compulsion to perform, or to compare your lot with other leaders, pause and remember these words. David brings eternal perspective and long-term vision that prevents mistakes in short-term decisions:

1. Trust in the Lord and do good; do what is right despite what others do (v. 3).
2. Cultivate faithfulness and don't move too quickly; don't rush anything (v. 3).
3. Prioritize God and His values; He will reward and satisfy you in the end (v. 4).
4. Commit your plans to Him and trust Him; the results are in His hand (v. 5).
5. Be quiet and patient; perspective comes when we grow still and think (v. 7).

6. Don't fret or compare; such anxiety always gives bad motivation (v. 7).

7. Refuse to get angry at competition; anger does not bring the results you desire (v. 8).

8. Put your hope in the Lord; ultimately, He will guide and use your decision (v. 9).

But those who wait on the LORD,
They shall inherit the earth.

¹⁰For yet a little while and the wicked shall be no more;

Indeed, you will look carefully for his place,
But it shall be no more.

¹¹But the meek shall inherit the earth,

And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

¹²The wicked plots against the just,
And gnashes at him with his teeth.

¹³The Lord laughs at him,
For He sees that his day is coming.

¹⁴The wicked have drawn the sword
And have bent their bow,
To cast down the poor and needy,
To slay those who are of upright conduct.

¹⁵Their sword shall enter their own heart,

And their bows shall be broken.

¹⁶A little that a righteous man has
Is better than the riches of many wicked.

¹⁷For the arms of the wicked shall be broken,

But the LORD upholds the righteous.

¹⁸The LORD knows the days of the upright,
And their inheritance shall be forever.

¹⁹They shall not be ashamed in the evil time,
And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

²⁰But the wicked shall perish;
And the enemies of the LORD,
Like the splendor of the meadows, shall vanish.

Into smoke they shall vanish away.

²¹The wicked borrows and does not repay,
But the righteous shows mercy and gives.

²²For those blessed by Him shall inherit the earth,

But those cursed by Him shall be cut off.

²³The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD,
And He delights in his way.

²⁴Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down;

For the LORD upholds him with His hand.

²⁵I have been young, and now am old;
Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken,
Nor his descendants begging bread.

²⁶*He is* ever merciful, and lends;

And his descendants are blessed.

²⁷Depart from evil, and do good;
And dwell forevermore.

²⁸For the LORD loves justice,
And does not forsake His saints;
They are preserved forever,
But the descendants of the wicked shall be cut off.

²⁹The righteous shall inherit the land,

And dwell in it forever.

³⁰The mouth of the righteous speaks wisdom,
And his tongue talks of justice.

³¹The law of his God is in his heart;

None of his steps shall slide.

³²The wicked watches the righteous,
And seeks to slay him.

³³The LORD will not leave him in his hand,

Nor condemn him when he is judged.

³⁴Wait on the LORD,
And keep His way,
And He shall exalt you to inherit the land;
When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.

³⁵I have seen the wicked in great power,
And spreading himself like a native green tree.

³⁶Yet he passed away, a and behold, he was no more;

Indeed I sought him, but he could not be found.

³⁷Mark the blameless man, and observe the upright;
For the future of that man is peace.

³⁸But the transgressors shall be destroyed together;

The future of the wicked shall be cut off.

³⁹But the salvation of the righteous is from the
LORD;

He is their strength in the time of trouble.

⁴⁰And the LORD shall help them and deliver them;
He shall deliver them from the wicked,
And save them,

Because they trust in Him.

Psalm 38

Prayer in Time of Chastening

A Psalm of David. To bring to remembrance.

O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your wrath,
Nor chasten me in Your hot displeasure!

²For Your arrows pierce me deeply,

And Your hand presses me down.

³*There is* no soundness in my flesh

Because of Your anger,

Nor any health in my bones

Because of my sin.

⁴For my iniquities have gone over my head;

Like a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

⁵My wounds are foul and festering

Because of my foolishness.

⁶I am troubled, I am bowed down greatly;

I go mourning all the day long.

⁷For my loins are full of inflammation,

And there is no soundness in my flesh.

⁸I am feeble and severely broken;

I groan because of the turmoil of my heart.

⁹Lord, all my desire is before You;
And my sighing is not hidden from You.

¹⁰My heart pants, my strength fails me;

As for the light of my eyes, it also has gone from me.

¹¹My loved ones and my friends stand aloof from my plague,

And my relatives stand afar off.

¹²Those also who seek my life lay snares for me;
Those who seek my hurt speak of destruction,

And plan deception all the day long.

¹³But I, like a deaf man, do not hear;
And I am like a mute who does not open his mouth.

¹⁴Thus I am like a man who does not hear,

And in whose mouth is no response.

¹⁵For in You, O LORD, I hope;
You will hear, O Lord my God.

¹⁶For I said, "Hear me, lest they rejoice over me,

Lest, when my foot slips, they exalt themselves
against me."

¹⁷For I am ready to fall,
And my sorrow is continually before me.

¹⁸For I will declare my iniquity;
I will be in anguish over my sin.

¹⁹But my enemies are vigorous, and they are strong;
And those who hate me wrongfully have multiplied.

²⁰Those also who render evil for good,

They are my adversaries, because I follow what is good.

²¹Do not forsake me, O LORD;
O my God, be not far from me!

²²Make haste to help me,

O Lord, my salvation!

Psalm 39

Prayer for Wisdom and Forgiveness

*To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A
Psalm of David.*

I said, "I will guard my ways,
Lest I sin with my tongue;
I will restrain my mouth with a muzzle,
While the wicked are before me."

²I was mute with silence,
I held my peace even from good;
And my sorrow was stirred up.

³My heart was hot within me;
While I was musing, the fire burned.

Then I spoke with my tongue:

⁴"LORD, make me to know my end,
And what is the measure of my days,
That I may know how frail I am.

⁵Indeed, You have made my days as handbreadths,

The Law of Timing: Leaders Value Time, They Don't Kill It

Psalm 39:4, 5

Like Moses in Psalm 90, David shows his mindfulness of his brief time on earth. He asks God to help him number his days (Ps. 39:4, 5), which ought to be the prayer of every leader. Wise leaders work to redeem the time they have (Eph. 5:16, 17).

Management expert Peter Drucker identified this leadership principle: He said that good leaders need to regard first of all not their task, but their time.

A leader needs to wonder if the task is worth the time investment. What would happen if the leader wasn't the one doing it? Would there be someone else who could do it just as well, and for whom the task would be time better spent?

A good leader knows that time is like gold, and good "spending habits" are essential. It's just that in this case the units are minutes, not dollars.

If you don't know where your time goes—that's a danger signal. If you can save small bits of time and consolidate them into a chunk of time that can be spent on something worthwhile—that's like "found money."

If leaders can number their minutes and hours, "numbering their days" will be easier.

And my age is as nothing before You;
Certainly every man at his best state is but vapor.
Selah

⁶Surely every man walks about like a shadow;
Surely they busy themselves in vain;
He heaps up riches,

And does not know who will gather them.

⁷“And now, Lord, what do I wait for?

My hope is in You.

⁸Deliver me from all my transgressions;

Do not make me the reproach of the foolish.

⁹I was mute, I did not open my mouth,

Because it was You who did it.

¹⁰Remove Your plague from me;

I am consumed by the blow of Your hand.

¹¹When with rebukes You correct man for iniquity,

You make his beauty melt away like a moth;

Surely every man is vapor.

Selah

¹²“Hear my prayer, O LORD,

And give ear to my cry;

Do not be silent at my tears;

For I am a stranger with You,

A sojourner, as all my fathers were.

¹³Remove Your gaze from me, that I may regain strength,

Before I go away and am no more.”

Psalm 40

Faith Persevering in Trial

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

I waited patiently for the LORD;
And He inclined to me,
And heard my cry.

²He also brought me up out of a horrible pit,
Out of the miry clay,
And set my feet upon a rock,
And established my steps.

³He has put a new song in my mouth—
Praise to our God;
Many will see it and fear,

And will trust in the LORD.

⁴Blessed is that man who makes the LORD his trust,
And does not respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

⁵Many, O LORD my God, are Your wonderful works
Which You have done;
And Your thoughts toward us
Cannot be recounted to You in order;
If I would declare and speak of them,

They are more than can be numbered.

⁶Sacrifice and offering You did not desire;
My ears You have opened.
Burnt offering and sin offering You did not require.

⁷Then I said, "Behold, I come;
In the scroll of the book it is written of me.

⁸I delight to do Your will, O my God,

And Your law is within my heart."

⁹I have proclaimed the good news of righteousness
In the great assembly;
Indeed, I do not restrain my lips,
O LORD, You Yourself know.

¹⁰I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart;

I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation;
I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and Your truth

From the great assembly.

¹¹Do not withhold Your tender mercies from me, O
LORD;

Let Your lovingkindness and Your truth continually preserve me.

¹²For innumerable evils have surrounded me;
My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up;

They are more than the hairs of my head;

Therefore my heart fails me.

¹³Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me;
O LORD, make haste to help me!

¹⁴Let them be ashamed and brought to mutual
confusion

Who seek to destroy my life;
Let them be driven backward and brought to dishonor

Who wish me evil.

¹⁵Let them be confounded because of their shame,

Who say to me, “Aha, aha!”

¹⁶Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;

Let such as love Your salvation say continually,
“The LORD be magnified!”

¹⁷But I am poor and needy;

PROFILE in Leadership

DAVID

Trusting in God Alone

Psalm 40:1-17

King David knew something about suffering, particularly suffering caused by his own actions. But he also knew to whom he could turn during those times of trouble. This “man after [God’s] own heart” (Acts 13:22) made it a point to seek the Lord in difficult days and to make the news of God’s goodness known to everyone who would listen.

David knew that God would always remain faithful to Himself and to His holy nature—even when David acted unfaithfully. David knew that at just the right time, God would deliver him from despair. He knew the freedom and security that come from trusting in God alone as his deliverer.

What great comfort and joy come to us when we understand that God is rich in grace and mercy, that He not only forgives, but restores and redeems! The Lord lifts us up from our personal pits of despair and puts us in right standing with Him.

David was far from a perfect man, but he understood something all godly leaders must grasp: When times of trouble arrive—even trouble we bring on ourselves—we must turn to God and wait patiently for His help. He'll never fail us. Remember these truths about the God you serve, then proclaim them to everyone who will hear.

Yet the LORD thinks upon me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
Do not delay, O my God.

Psalm 41

The Blessing and Suffering of the Godly

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

Blessed is he who considers the poor;
The LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.
²The LORD will preserve him and keep him alive,
And he will be blessed on the earth;
You will not deliver him to the will of his enemies.
³The LORD will strengthen him on his bed of illness;

You will sustain him on his sickbed.

⁴I said, "LORD, be merciful to me;
Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You."

⁵My enemies speak evil of me:
"When will he die, and his name perish?"

⁶And if he comes to see me, he speaks lies;
His heart gathers iniquity to itself;

When he goes out, he tells it.

⁷All who hate me whisper together against me;
Against me they devise my hurt.

⁸"An evil disease," they say, "clings to him.
And now that he lies down, he will rise up no more."

⁹Even my own familiar friend in whom I trusted,
Who ate my bread,

Has lifted up his heel against me.

¹⁰But You, O LORD, be merciful to me, and raise me up,

That I may repay them.

¹¹By this I know that You are well pleased with me,
Because my enemy does not triumph over me.

¹²As for me, You uphold me in my integrity,

And set me before Your face forever.

¹³Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!

Amen and Amen.

BOOK TWO: Psalms 42—72

Psalm 42

Yearning for God in the Midst of Distresses

*To the Chief Musician. A Contemplation^a
of the sons of Korah.*

As the deer pants for the water brooks,
So pants my soul for You, O God.

²My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and appear before God?^a

³My tears have been my food day and night,
While they continually say to me,

“Where is your God?”

⁴When I remember these things,
I pour out my soul within me.
For I used to go with the multitude;
I went with them to the house of God,
With the voice of joy and praise,

With a multitude that kept a pilgrim feast.

⁵Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him

For the help of His countenance.^a

⁶O my God,^a my soul is cast down within me;
Therefore I will remember You from the land of the Jordan,

And from the heights of Hermon,
From the Hill Mizar.

⁷Deep calls unto deep at the noise of Your waterfalls;
All Your waves and billows have gone over me.

⁸The LORD will command His lovingkindness in the daytime,

And in the night His song shall be with me—

A prayer to the God of my life.

⁹I will say to God my Rock,
“Why have You forgotten me?

Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?”

¹⁰As with a breaking of my bones,
My enemies reproach me,
While they say to me all day long,

“Where is your God?”

¹¹Why are you cast down, O my soul?

The Law of the Picture: Leaders Can't Lead Further Than Their Own Life

Psalm 42:1-11

In Psalm 42, we see a leader who is dry and thirsty. This leader is experiencing a wilderness period, as every leader does at some point. Nothing seems to be exciting or motivating. In verses 2-4, the writer seems to be saying, “I used to lead the people in a parade to God, and now I can’t even find Him myself!” Fortunately, this leader recaptures his perspective in verse 5. He begins to tell himself the truth. In the final verse, he concludes that God will prevail.

What I love about this psalm is its humanity. This leader realizes that he cannot lead people any further than where he himself stands. He refuses to fake it. He doesn’t want to pretend all is well. So before he attempts to lead anyone again, he cries out to God for renewal. Leaders who understand the Law of the Picture are like that:

1. They are honest with themselves about their state.
2. They cry out to God for renewal.
3. They refuse to fake it; they want to model the truth for others.
4. They tell themselves the truth about the future.

And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God;
For I shall yet praise Him,

The help of my countenance and my God.

Psalm 43

Prayer to God in Time of Trouble

Vindicate me, O God,
And plead my cause against an ungodly nation;
Oh, deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man!
²For You are the God of my strength;
Why do You cast me off?

Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

³Oh, send out Your light and Your truth!
Let them lead me;
Let them bring me to Your holy hill
And to Your tabernacle.
⁴Then I will go to the altar of God,
To God my exceeding joy;
And on the harp I will praise You,

O God, my God.

⁵Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God;
For I shall yet praise Him,

The help of my countenance and my God.

Psalm 44

Redemption Remembered in Present Dishonor

*To the Chief Musician. A Contemplation^a
of the sons of Korah.*

We have heard with our ears, O God,
Our fathers have told us,
The deeds You did in their days,
In days of old:

²You drove out the nations with Your hand,
But them You planted;
You afflicted the peoples, and cast them out.

³For they did not gain possession of the land by their own sword,
Nor did their own arm save them;
But it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of
Your countenance,

Because You favored them.

⁴You are my King, O God;^a
Command^b victories for Jacob.

⁵Through You we will push down our enemies;
Through Your name we will trample those who rise up against us.

⁶For I will not trust in my bow,
Nor shall my sword save me.

⁷But You have saved us from our enemies,
And have put to shame those who hated us.

⁸In God we boast all day long,
And praise Your name forever.

Selah

⁹But You have cast us off and put us to shame,
And You do not go out with our armies.

¹⁰You make us turn back from the enemy,
And those who hate us have taken spoil for themselves.

¹¹You have given us up like sheep intended for food,
And have scattered us among the nations.

¹²You sell Your people for next to nothing,

And are not enriched by selling them.

¹³You make us a reproach to our neighbors,
A scorn and a derision to those all around us.

¹⁴You make us a byword among the nations,
A shaking of the head among the peoples.

¹⁵My dishonor is continually before me,
And the shame of my face has covered me,

¹⁶Because of the voice of him who reproaches and reviles,

Because of the enemy and the avenger.

¹⁷All this has come upon us;
But we have not forgotten You,
Nor have we dealt falsely with Your covenant.

¹⁸Our heart has not turned back,
Nor have our steps departed from Your way;

¹⁹But You have severely broken us in the place of jackals,

And covered us with the shadow of death.

²⁰If we had forgotten the name of our God,
Or stretched out our hands to a foreign god,

²¹Would not God search this out?

For He knows the secrets of the heart.

²²Yet for Your sake we are killed all day long;

We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

²³Awake! Why do You sleep, O Lord?

Arise! Do not cast us off forever.

²⁴Why do You hide Your face,

And forget our affliction and our oppression?

²⁵For our soul is bowed down to the dust;

Our body clings to the ground.

²⁶Arise for our help,

And redeem us for Your mercies' sake.

Psalm 45

The Glories of the Messiah and His Bride

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies."^a A Contemplation^b of the sons of Korah. A Song of Love.

My heart is overflowing with a good theme;
I recite my composition concerning the King;

My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

²You are fairer than the sons of men;
Grace is poured upon Your lips;
Therefore God has blessed You forever.

³Gird Your sword upon Your thigh, O Mighty One,
With Your glory and Your majesty.

⁴And in Your majesty ride prosperously because of truth, humility, and righteousness;

And Your right hand shall teach You awesome things.

⁵Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies;

The peoples fall under You.

⁶Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;

A scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.

⁷You love righteousness and hate wickedness;
Therefore God, Your God, has anointed You
With the oil of gladness more than Your companions.

⁸All Your garments are scented with myrrh and aloes and cassia,

Out of the ivory palaces, by which they have made
You glad.

⁹Kings' daughters are among Your honorable women;

At Your right hand stands the queen in gold from Ophir.

¹⁰Listen, O daughter,
Consider and incline your ear;
Forget your own people also, and your father's house;

¹¹So the King will greatly desire your beauty;
Because He is your Lord, worship Him.

¹²And the daughter of Tyre will come with a gift;

The rich among the people will seek your favor.

¹³The royal daughter is all glorious within the palace;

Her clothing is woven with gold.

¹⁴She shall be brought to the King in robes of many colors;

The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to You.

¹⁵With gladness and rejoicing they shall be brought;

They shall enter the King's palace.

¹⁶Instead of Your fathers shall be Your sons,
Whom You shall make princes in all the earth.

¹⁷I will make Your name to be remembered in all generations;

Therefore the people shall praise You forever and ever.

Psalm 46

God the Refuge of His People and Conqueror of the Nations

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song for Alamoth.

God is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble.

²Therefore we will not fear,
Even though the earth be removed,
And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

³*Though* its waters roar and be troubled,
Though the mountains shake with its swelling.
Selah

⁴*There is* a river whose streams shall make glad the city of God,

The holy place of the tabernacle of the Most High.

⁵God is in the midst of her, she shall not be moved;
God shall help her, just at the break of dawn.

⁶The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved;

He uttered His voice, the earth melted.

⁷The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

Selah

⁸Come, behold the works of the LORD,
Who has made desolations in the earth.

⁹He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
He breaks the bow and cuts the spear in two;

He burns the chariot in the fire.

¹⁰Be still, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations,

I will be exalted in the earth!

¹¹The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

Selah

Psalm 47

Praise to God, the Ruler of the Earth

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

Oh, clap your hands, all you peoples!
Shout to God with the voice of triumph!

²For the LORD Most High is awesome;
He is a great King over all the earth.

³He will subdue the peoples under us,
And the nations under our feet.

⁴He will choose our inheritance for us,
The excellence of Jacob whom He loves.

Selah

⁵God has gone up with a shout,
The LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

⁶Sing praises to God, sing praises!
Sing praises to our King, sing praises!

⁷For God is the King of all the earth;

Sing praises with understanding.

⁸God reigns over the nations;
God sits on His holy throne.

⁹The princes of the people have gathered together,
The people of the God of Abraham.

For the shields of the earth belong to God;

He is greatly exalted.

Psalm 48

The Glory of God in Zion

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised
In the city of our God,
In His holy mountain.

²Beautiful in elevation,
The joy of the whole earth,
Is Mount Zion on the sides of the north,
The city of the great King.

³God is in her palaces;

He is known as her refuge.

⁴For behold, the kings assembled,
They passed by together.

⁵They saw it, and so they marveled;
They were troubled, they hastened away.

⁶Fear took hold of them there,
And pain, as of a woman in birth pangs,

⁷*As when* You break the ships of Tarshish

With an east wind.

⁸As we have heard,
So we have seen

In the city of the LORD of hosts,
In the city of our God:
God will establish it forever.

Selah

⁹We have thought, O God, on Your lovingkindness,
In the midst of Your temple.

¹⁰According to Your name, O God,
So is Your praise to the ends of the earth;
Your right hand is full of righteousness.

¹¹Let Mount Zion rejoice,
Let the daughters of Judah be glad,

Because of Your judgments.

¹²Walk about Zion,
And go all around her.
Count her towers;

¹³Mark well her bulwarks;
Consider her palaces;
That you may tell it to the generation following.

¹⁴For this is God,
Our God forever and ever;
He will be our guide

Even to death. a

Psalm 49

The Confidence of the Foolish

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

Hear this, all peoples;
Give ear, all inhabitants of the world,
²Both low and high,
Rich and poor together.
³My mouth shall speak wisdom,
And the meditation of my heart shall give
understanding.
⁴I will incline my ear to a proverb;

I will disclose my dark saying on the harp.

⁵Why should I fear in the days of evil,
When the iniquity at my heels surrounds me?
⁶Those who trust in their wealth
And boast in the multitude of their riches,
⁷*None of them* can by any means redeem his
brother,
Nor give to God a ransom for him—
⁸For the redemption of their souls is costly,
And it shall cease forever—
⁹That he should continue to live eternally,

And not see the Pit.

¹⁰For he sees wise men die;
Likewise the fool and the senseless person perish,
And leave their wealth to others.

¹¹Their inner thought is that their houses will last forever,^a

Their dwelling places to all generations;
They call their lands after their own names.

¹²Nevertheless man, though in honor, does not remain;^a

He is like the beasts that perish.

¹³This is the way of those who are foolish,
And of their posterity who approve their sayings.
Selah

¹⁴Like sheep they are laid in the grave;
Death shall feed on them;
The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning;
And their beauty shall be consumed in the grave, far from their dwelling.

¹⁵But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave,

For He shall receive me.
Selah

¹⁶Do not be afraid when one becomes rich,
When the glory of his house is increased;

¹⁷For when he dies he shall carry nothing away;

The Law of Priorities: When Activity Becomes Achievement

Psalm 49:12-17

God encourages us to fix our eyes on the things that endure. In light of eternity, leaders cannot become consumed with the temporary. Leaders cannot allow the pursuit of wealth or power to move them (Ps. 49:12, 13). Only a vision that outlives them, a vision connected to eternity, will fulfill a godly leader.

In other words, we must build a legacy. What are we going to leave behind when we die? Psalm 49:17 reminds us we will take nothing with us, no matter how rich we become. So what will we leave behind that counts?

A huge difference exists between a legacy and an inheritance. Anyone can leave an inheritance. An inheritance is something you leave to your family or loved ones, and it also fades. A legacy is something you leave in your family and loved ones. Consider the differences between the two:

Inheritance • Legacy

Something tangible you give to others • Something tangible you place in others

Temporarily brings them happiness • Permanently transforms them

Eventually fades as it is spent • Lives on long after you die

Your activity may or may not pay off • Your activity becomes achievement

His glory shall not descend after him.

¹⁸Though while he lives he blesses himself

(For men will praise you when you do well for yourself),

¹⁹He shall go to the generation of his fathers;
They shall never see light.

²⁰A man who is in honor, yet does not understand,
Is like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

God the Righteous Judge

A Psalm of Asaph.

The Mighty One, God the LORD,
Has spoken and called the earth
From the rising of the sun to its going down.

²Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God will shine forth.

³Our God shall come, and shall not keep silent;
A fire shall devour before Him,

And it shall be very tempestuous all around Him.

⁴He shall call to the heavens from above,
And to the earth, that He may judge His people:

⁵“Gather My saints together to Me,
Those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice.”

⁶Let the heavens declare His righteousness,
For God Himself is Judge.

Selah

⁷“Hear, O My people, and I will speak,
O Israel, and I will testify against you;
I am God, your God!

⁸I will not rebuke you for your sacrifices

Or your burnt offerings,
Which are continually before Me.

⁹I will not take a bull from your house,
Nor goats out of your folds.

¹⁰For every beast of the forest is Mine,
And the cattle on a thousand hills.

¹¹I know all the birds of the mountains,

And the wild beasts of the field are Mine.

¹²"If I were hungry, I would not tell you;
For the world is Mine, and all its fullness.

¹³Will I eat the flesh of bulls,
Or drink the blood of goats?

¹⁴Offer to God thanksgiving,
And pay your vows to the Most High.

¹⁵Call upon Me in the day of trouble;

I will deliver you, and you shall glorify Me."

¹⁶But to the wicked God says:

"What right have you to declare My statutes,
Or take My covenant in your mouth,

¹⁷Seeing you hate instruction
And cast My words behind you?

¹⁸When you saw a thief, you consented^a with him,
And have been a partaker with adulterers.

¹⁹You give your mouth to evil,
And your tongue frames deceit.

²⁰You sit and speak against your brother;
You slander your own mother's son.

²¹These things you have done, and I kept silent;
You thought that I was altogether like you;
But I will rebuke you,

And set them in order before your eyes.

²²“Now consider this, you who forget God,
Lest I tear you in pieces,
And there be none to deliver:

²³Whoever offers praise glorifies Me;
And to him who orders his conduct aright

I will show the salvation of God.”

Psalm 51

A Prayer of Repentance

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David when Nathan the prophet went to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

Have mercy upon me, O God,
According to Your lovingkindness;
According to the multitude of Your tender mercies,
Blot out my transgressions.

²Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,

And cleanse me from my sin.

³For I acknowledge my transgressions,
And my sin is always before me.

⁴Against You, You only, have I sinned,

The Law of Solid Ground: David Faces His Sin, Remains King

Psalm 51:3, 4

David wrote Psalm 51 shortly after he committed adultery with Bathsheba (2 Sam. 11:1-12:15).

When Nathan confronted him about his sin, the king fell to the floor and wept in bitter repentance. He publicly sought restoration as a king and as a spiritual man, as this great psalm demonstrates. Because of his repentant heart, God allowed him to remain in office until he died.

Why, then, are some leaders removed from office when they fail morally? Why could David remain king? The answer may lie in the Law of Solid Ground. David practiced this law and maintained his trust in God. Those who do not repent after some failure—or who do so only for public show—often lose their positions. Some sins no doubt disqualify leaders from continuing in leadership, but more fail in leadership from their deceptions than from their mistakes. History teaches that the public usually forgives a leader who owns up to his mistakes, but refuses to forgive those who remain unrepentant.

Mistakes don't have to prove fatal; we all make them. But when a leader deceives the people and loses their trust, they will no longer follow him or her.

And done this evil in Your sight—
That You may be found just when You speak,^a

And blameless when You judge.

⁵Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity,
And in sin my mother conceived me.

⁶Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts,

And in the hidden part You will make me to know wisdom.

⁷Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

⁸Make me hear joy and gladness,
That the bones You have broken may rejoice.

⁹Hide Your face from my sins,

And blot out all my iniquities.

¹⁰Create in me a clean heart, O God,
And renew a steadfast spirit within me.

¹¹Do not cast me away from Your presence,

And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.

¹²Restore to me the joy of Your salvation,
And uphold me by Your generous Spirit.

¹³*Then* I will teach transgressors Your ways,

And sinners shall be converted to You.

¹⁴Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God,
The God of my salvation,
And my tongue shall sing aloud of Your
righteousness.

¹⁵O Lord, open my lips,
And my mouth shall show forth Your praise.

¹⁶For You do not desire sacrifice, or else I would give
it;

You do not delight in burnt offering.

¹⁷The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit,
A broken and a contrite heart—

These, O God, You will not despise.

¹⁸Do good in Your good pleasure to Zion;
Build the walls of Jerusalem.

¹⁹Then You shall be pleased with the sacrifices of
righteousness,

With burnt offering and whole burnt offering;

Then they shall offer bulls on Your altar.

Psalm 52

The End of the Wicked and the Peace of the Godly

To the Chief Musician. A Contemplation^a of David when Doeg the Edomite went and told Saul, and said to him, "David has gone to the house of Ahimelech."

Why do you boast in evil, O mighty man?
The goodness of God endures continually.

²Your tongue devises destruction,
Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

³You love evil more than good,
Lying rather than speaking righteousness.

Selah

⁴You love all devouring words,

You deceitful tongue.

⁵God shall likewise destroy you forever;
He shall take you away, and pluck you out of your dwelling place,
And uproot you from the land of the living.

Selah

⁶The righteous also shall see and fear,
And shall laugh at him, saying,

⁷“Here is the man who did not make God his strength,

But trusted in the abundance of his riches,

And strengthened himself in his wickedness.”

⁸But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God;
I trust in the mercy of God forever and ever.

⁹I will praise You forever,
Because You have done it;
And in the presence of Your saints

I will wait on Your name, for it is good.

Psalm 53

Folly of the Godless, and the Restoration of Israel

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Mahalath." A Contemplation^a of David.

The fool has said in his heart,
"There is no God."

They are corrupt, and have done abominable
iniquity;

There is none who does good.

²God looks down from heaven upon the children of men,

To see if there are any who understand, who seek
God.

³Every one of them has turned aside;
They have together become corrupt;
There is none who does good,

No, not one.

⁴Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And do not call upon God?

⁵There they are in great fear

Where no fear was,
For God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you;
You have put them to shame,

Because God has despised them.

⁶Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When God brings back the captivity of His people,

Let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

Psalm 54

Answered Prayer for Deliverance from Adversaries

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments.^a A Contemplation^b of David when the Ziphites went and said to Saul, "Is David not hiding with us?"

Save me, O God, by Your name,
And vindicate me by Your strength.

²Hear my prayer, O God;
Give ear to the words of my mouth.

³For strangers have risen up against me,
And oppressors have sought after my life;
They have not set God before them.

Selah

⁴Behold, God is my helper;
The Lord is with those who uphold my life.

⁵He will repay my enemies for their evil.

Cut them off in Your truth.

⁶I will freely sacrifice to You;
I will praise Your name, O LORD, for it is good.

⁷For He has delivered me out of all trouble;

And my eye has seen its desire upon my enemies.

Psalm 55

Trust in God Concerning the Treachery of Friends

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments.^a A Contemplation^b of David.

Give ear to my prayer, O God,
And do not hide Yourself from my supplication.

²Attend to me, and hear me;
I am restless in my complaint, and moan noisily,
³Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the oppression of the wicked;
For they bring down trouble upon me,

And in wrath they hate me.

⁴My heart is severely pained within me,
And the terrors of death have fallen upon me.
⁵Fearfulness and trembling have come upon me,
And horror has overwhelmed me.

⁶So I said, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove!
I would fly away and be at rest.

⁷Indeed, I would wander far off,
And remain in the wilderness.

Selah

⁸I would hasten my escape

From the windy storm and tempest.”

⁹Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues,
For I have seen violence and strife in the city.

¹⁰Day and night they go around it on its walls;
Iniquity and trouble are also in the midst of it.

¹¹Destruction is in its midst;

Oppression and deceit do not depart from its streets.

¹²For it is not an enemy who reproaches me;
Then I could bear it.

Nor is it one who hates me who has exalted himself
against me;

Then I could hide from him.

¹³But it was you, a man my equal,
My companion and my acquaintance.

¹⁴We took sweet counsel together,

And walked to the house of God in the throng.

¹⁵Let death seize them;
Let them go down alive into hell,

For wickedness is in their dwellings and among
them.

¹⁶As for me, I will call upon God,
And the LORD shall save me.

¹⁷Evening and morning and at noon
I will pray, and cry aloud,
And He shall hear my voice.

¹⁸He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me,

For there were many against me.

¹⁹God will hear, and afflict them,

Even He who abides from of old.
Selah

Because they do not change,

Therefore they do not fear God.

²⁰He has put forth his hands against those who were at peace with him;

He has broken his covenant.

²¹*The words* of his mouth were smoother than butter,

But war was in his heart;

His words were softer than oil,

Yet they were drawn swords.

²²Cast your burden on the LORD,

And He shall sustain you;

He shall never permit the righteous to be moved.

²³But You, O God, shall bring them down to the pit of destruction;

Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days;

But I will trust in You.

Psalm 56

Prayer for Relief from Tormentors

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Silent Dove in Distant Lands."^a A Michtam of David when the Philistines captured him in Gath.

Be merciful to me, O God, for man would swallow me up;

Fighting all day he oppresses me.

²My enemies would hound me all day,

For there are many who fight against me, O Most High.

³Whenever I am afraid,
I will trust in You.

⁴In God (I will praise His word),
In God I have put my trust;
I will not fear.

What can flesh do to me?

⁵All day they twist my words;
All their thoughts are against me for evil.

⁶They gather together,

They hide, they mark my steps,
When they lie in wait for my life.
⁷Shall they escape by iniquity?

In anger cast down the peoples, O God!

⁸You number my wanderings;
Put my tears into Your bottle;
Are they not in Your book?

⁹When I cry out to You,
Then my enemies will turn back;
This I know, because God is for me.

¹⁰In God (I will praise His word),
In the LORD (I will praise His word),

¹¹In God I have put my trust;
I will not be afraid.

What can man do to me?

¹²Vows made to You are binding upon me, O God;
I will render praises to You,

¹³For You have delivered my soul from death.
Have You not kept my feet from falling,
That I may walk before God

In the light of the living?

Psalm 57

Prayer for Safety from Enemies

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy."^a A Michtam of David when he fled from Saul into the cave.

Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me!
For my soul trusts in You;
And in the shadow of Your wings I will make my refuge,

Until these calamities have passed by.

²I will cry out to God Most High,
To God who performs all things for me.

³He shall send from heaven and save me;
He reproaches the one who would swallow me up.
Selah

God shall send forth His mercy and His truth.

⁴My soul is among lions;
I lie among the sons of men
Who are set on fire,
Whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And their tongue a sharp sword.

⁵Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;

Let Your glory be above all the earth.

⁶They have prepared a net for my steps;
My soul is bowed down;
They have dug a pit before me;
Into the midst of it they themselves have fallen.

Selah

⁷My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise.

⁸Awake, my glory!
Awake, lute and harp!

I will awaken the dawn.

⁹I will praise You, O Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing to You among the nations.

¹⁰For Your mercy reaches unto the heavens,

And Your truth unto the clouds.

¹¹Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;

Let Your glory be above all the earth.

Leaders Practice Telling Themselves the Truth

Psalm 57:1-11

Psalm 57 gives us a beautiful picture of a leader in touch with his humanity. David composed it as he fled from Saul in the mountains and caves of Israel. The psalm expresses anxiety and fear, yet it ends with triumph: “Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let Your glory be above all the earth” (Ps. 57:11).

Author Philip Yancey suggests that David wrote and sang the psalms as therapy for himself. Somehow, telling himself the truth enabled him to rise above his fear and see a transcendent God who remained in control.

Fortunately, few of us live with such danger. Like David, however, we all have times when nerves fail and fear creeps in. We feel surrounded by adversaries. Telling ourselves the truth, as David did, will heal and comfort us, as it did him. The truth of Psalm 57 can serve as our counselor. Successful leaders tell themselves the truth and gain perspective in the midst of volatile emotions.

Psalm 58

The Just Judgment of the Wicked

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy."^a A Michtam of David.

Do you indeed speak righteousness, you silent ones?
Do you judge uprightly, you sons of men?

²No, in heart you work wickedness;

You weigh out the violence of your hands in the earth.

³The wicked are estranged from the womb;
They go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.

⁴Their poison is like the poison of a serpent;
They are like the deaf cobra that stops its ear,

⁵Which will not heed the voice of charmers,

Charming ever so skillfully.

⁶Break their teeth in their mouth, O God!
Break out the fangs of the young lions, O LORD!

⁷Let them flow away as waters which run continually;

When he bends his bow,

Let his arrows be as if cut in pieces.

⁸*Let them be* like a snail which melts away as it goes,

Like a stillborn child of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

⁹Before your pots can feel the burning thorns,
He shall take them away as with a whirlwind,
As in His living and burning wrath.

¹⁰The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance;

He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,

¹¹So that men will say,

“Surely there is a reward for the righteous;

Surely He is God who judges in the earth.”

Psalm 59

The Assured Judgment of the Wicked

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy."^a A Michtam of David when Saul sent men, and they watched the house in order to kill him.

Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;
Defend me from those who rise up against me.

²Deliver me from the workers of iniquity,

And save me from bloodthirsty men.

³For look, they lie in wait for my life;
The mighty gather against me,
Not for my transgression nor for my sin, O LORD.

⁴They run and prepare themselves through no fault of mine.

Awake to help me, and behold!

⁵You therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel,

Awake to punish all the nations;
Do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors.

Selah

⁶At evening they return,
They growl like a dog,
And go all around the city.
⁷Indeed, they belch with their mouth;
Swords are in their lips;

For they say, “Who hears?”

⁸But You, O LORD, shall laugh at them;
You shall have all the nations in derision.

⁹I will wait for You, O You his Strength;^a
For God is my defense.

¹⁰My God of mercy^a shall come to meet me;

God shall let me see my desire on my enemies.

¹¹Do not slay them, lest my people forget;
Scatter them by Your power,
And bring them down,
O Lord our shield.

¹²*For* the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips,

Let them even be taken in their pride,
And for the cursing and lying which they speak.

¹³Consume them in wrath, consume them,
That they may not be;
And let them know that God rules in Jacob
To the ends of the earth.

Selah

¹⁴And at evening they return,
They growl like a dog,
And go all around the city.

¹⁵They wander up and down for food,

And howl^a if they are not satisfied.

¹⁶But I will sing of Your power;
Yes, I will sing aloud of Your mercy in the morning;
For You have been my defense
And refuge in the day of my trouble.

¹⁷To You, O my Strength, I will sing praises;
For God is my defense,

My God of mercy.

Psalm 60

Urgent Prayer for the Restored Favor of God

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Lily of the Testimony."^a A Michtam of David. For teaching. When he fought against Mesopotamia and Syria of Zobah, and Joab returned and killed twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

O God, You have cast us off;
You have broken us down;
You have been displeased;
Oh, restore us again!

²You have made the earth tremble;
You have broken it;
Heal its breaches, for it is shaking.

³You have shown Your people hard things;

You have made us drink the wine of confusion.

⁴You have given a banner to those who fear You,
That it may be displayed because of the truth.

Selah

⁵That Your beloved may be delivered,

Save with Your right hand, and hear me.

⁶God has spoken in His holiness:

“I will rejoice;

I will divide Shechem

And measure out the Valley of Succoth.

⁷Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine;

Ephraim also is the helmet for My head;

Judah is My lawgiver.

⁸Moab is My washpot;

Over Edom I will cast My shoe;

Philistia, shout in triumph because of Me.”

⁹Who will bring me to the strong city?

Who will lead me to Edom?

¹⁰*Is it* not You, O God, who cast us off?

And You, O God, who did not go out with our armies?

¹¹Give us help from trouble,

For the help of man is useless.

¹²Through God we will do valiantly,

For it is He who shall tread down our enemies.^{a}

Psalm 61

Assurance of God's Eternal Protection

To the Chief Musician. On a stringed instrument.^a A Psalm of David.

Hear my cry, O God;
Attend to my prayer.

²From the end of the earth I will cry to You,
When my heart is overwhelmed;

Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

³For You have been a shelter for me,
A strong tower from the enemy.

⁴I will abide in Your tabernacle forever;
I will trust in the shelter of Your wings.

Selah

⁵For You, O God, have heard my vows;
You have given me the heritage of those who fear
Your name.

⁶You will prolong the king's life,
His years as many generations.

⁷He shall abide before God forever.

Oh, prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve
him!

⁸So I will sing praise to Your name forever,
That I may daily perform my vows.

Psalm 62

A Calm Resolve to Wait for the Salvation of God

*To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A
Psalm of David.*

Truly my soul silently waits for God;
From Him comes my salvation.

²He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense;

I shall not be greatly moved.

³How long will you attack a man?
You shall be slain, all of you,
Like a leaning wall and a tottering fence.

⁴They only consult to cast him down from his high position;

They delight in lies;
They bless with their mouth,
But they curse inwardly.

Selah

⁵My soul, wait silently for God alone,
For my expectation is from Him.

⁶He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense;

I shall not be moved.

⁷In God is my salvation and my glory;
The rock of my strength,

And my refuge, is in God.

⁸Trust in Him at all times, you people;
Pour out your heart before Him;
God is a refuge for us.

Selah

⁹Surely men of low degree are a vapor,
Men of high degree are a lie;
If they are weighed on the scales,
They are altogether lighter than vapor.

¹⁰Do not trust in oppression,
Nor vainly hope in robbery;
If riches increase,

Do not set your heart on them.

¹¹God has spoken once,
Twice I have heard this:
That power belongs to God.

¹²Also to You, O Lord, belongs mercy;

For You render to each one according to his work.

Psalm 63

Joy in the Fellowship of God

A Psalm of David when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O God, You are my God;
Early will I seek You;
My soul thirsts for You;
My flesh longs for You
In a dry and thirsty land
Where there is no water.

²So I have looked for You in the sanctuary,

To see Your power and Your glory.

³Because Your lovingkindness is better than life,
My lips shall praise You.

⁴Thus I will bless You while I live;
I will lift up my hands in Your name.

⁵My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness,

And my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips.

⁶When I remember You on my bed,
I meditate on You in the night watches.

⁷Because You have been my help,

Therefore in the shadow of Your wings I will rejoice.

⁸My soul follows close behind You;

Your right hand upholds me.

⁹But those who seek my life, to destroy it,
Shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

¹⁰They shall fall by the sword;

They shall be a portion for jackals.

¹¹But the king shall rejoice in God;
Everyone who swears by Him shall glory;

But the mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped.

Psalm 64

Oppressed by the Wicked but Rejoicing in the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

Hear my voice, O God, in my meditation;
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

²Hide me from the secret plots of the wicked,
From the rebellion of the workers of iniquity,

³Who sharpen their tongue like a sword,
And bend their bows to shoot their arrows—bitter words,

⁴That they may shoot in secret at the blameless;

Suddenly they shoot at him and do not fear.

⁵They encourage themselves in an evil matter;
They talk of laying snares secretly;
They say, “Who will see them?”

⁶They devise iniquities:
“We have perfected a shrewd scheme.”

Both the inward thought and the heart of man are deep.

⁷But God shall shoot at them with an arrow;
Suddenly they shall be wounded.

⁸So He will make them stumble over their own tongue;

All who see them shall flee away.

⁹All men shall fear,

And shall declare the work of God;

For they shall wisely consider His doing.

¹⁰The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and trust in Him.

And all the upright in heart shall glory.

Psalm 65

Praise to God for His Salvation and Providence

*To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.
A Song.*

Praise is awaiting You, O God, in Zion;
And to You the vow shall be performed.

²O You who hear prayer,
To You all flesh will come.

³Iniquities prevail against me;
As for our transgressions,

You will provide atonement for them.

⁴Blessed is the man You choose,
And cause to approach You,
That he may dwell in Your courts.

We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house,

Of Your holy temple.

⁵*By* awesome deeds in righteousness You will answer
us,

O God of our salvation,

You who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth,

And of the far-off seas;

⁶Who established the mountains by His strength,

Being clothed with power;

⁷You who still the noise of the seas,

The noise of their waves,

And the tumult of the peoples.

⁸They also who dwell in the farthest parts are afraid of Your signs;

You make the outgoings of the morning and evening rejoice.

⁹You visit the earth and water it,

You greatly enrich it;

The river of God is full of water;

You provide their grain,

For so You have prepared it.

¹⁰You water its ridges abundantly,

You settle its furrows;

You make it soft with showers,

You bless its growth.

¹¹You crown the year with Your goodness,

And Your paths drip with abundance.

¹²They drop on the pastures of the wilderness,

And the little hills rejoice on every side.

¹³The pastures are clothed with flocks;

The valleys also are covered with grain;

They shout for joy, they also sing.

Psalm 66

Praise to God for His Awesome Works

To the Chief Musician. A Song. A Psalm.

Make a joyful shout to God, all the earth!

²Sing out the honor of His name;

Make His praise glorious.

³Say to God,

“How awesome are Your works!

Through the greatness of Your power

Your enemies shall submit themselves to You.

⁴All the earth shall worship You

And sing praises to You;

They shall sing praises to Your name.”

Selah

⁵Come and see the works of God;

He is awesome in His doing toward the sons of men.

⁶He turned the sea into dry land;

They went through the river on foot.

There we will rejoice in Him.

⁷He rules by His power forever;

His eyes observe the nations;

Do not let the rebellious exalt themselves.

Selah

⁸Oh, bless our God, you peoples!

And make the voice of His praise to be heard,

⁹Who keeps our soul among the living,

And does not allow our feet to be moved.

¹⁰For You, O God, have tested us;

You have refined us as silver is refined.

¹¹You brought us into the net;

You laid affliction on our backs.

¹²You have caused men to ride over our heads;

We went through fire and through water;

But You brought us out to rich fulfillment.

¹³I will go into Your house with burnt offerings;

I will pay You my vows,

¹⁴Which my lips have uttered

And my mouth has spoken when I was in trouble.

¹⁵I will offer You burnt sacrifices of fat animals,

With the sweet aroma of rams;

I will offer bulls with goats.

Selah

¹⁶Come and hear, all you who fear God,

And I will declare what He has done for my soul.

¹⁷I cried to Him with my mouth,

And He was extolled with my tongue.

¹⁸If I regard iniquity in my heart,

The Lord will not hear.

¹⁹*But* certainly God has heard me;

He has attended to the voice of my prayer.

²⁰Blessed be God,

Who has not turned away my prayer,

Nor His mercy from me!

Psalm 67

An Invocation and a Doxology

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments.^a A Psalm. A Song.

God be merciful to us and bless us,
And cause His face to shine upon us,
Selah

²That Your way may be known on earth,
Your salvation among all nations.

³Let the peoples praise You, O God;
Let all the peoples praise You.

⁴Oh, let the nations be glad and sing for joy!
For You shall judge the people righteously,
And govern the nations on earth.
Selah

⁵Let the peoples praise You, O God;
Let all the peoples praise You.

⁶*Then* the earth shall yield her increase;
God, our own God, shall bless us.

⁷God shall bless us,

And all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

The Law of Intuition: Vision for the World Drives God's Leaders

Psalm 67:1-7

God's blessings follow leaders who adopt His vision for the nations of the world.

Psalm 67 contains both the "top line" and the "bottom line" of the covenant God invites us to enter. The top line represents God's blessings for His people; the bottom line represents the natural response to that blessing. When God blesses us, we are to turn around and bless all the unblessed nations of the earth.

Psalm 67:1 asks God to be gracious, to bless, and to make His face to shine upon His people (the top line of the covenant). Verse 2 says, "That Your way may be known on earth, Your salvation among all nations" (the bottom line of the covenant). The last two verses of the psalm reiterate the top and bottom lines.

God blesses His people so that they can bless those who have yet to be blessed. Godly leaders feel driven by this vision. Maintenance is not the goal. Getting blessed is not the goal. The top line represents only half of the deal; the goal is to participate in the bottom line. World conquest motivates God's heart, and He accomplishes this mission through leaders who cast vision for participating in bottom-line living.

Psalm 68

The Glory of God in His Goodness to Israel

*To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.
A Song.*

Let God arise,
Let His enemies be scattered;
Let those also who hate Him flee before Him.
²As smoke is driven away,
So drive them away;
As wax melts before the fire,
So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
³But let the righteous be glad;
Let them rejoice before God;

Yes, let them rejoice exceedingly.

⁴Sing to God, sing praises to His name;
Extol Him who rides on the clouds,^a
By His name YAH,

And rejoice before Him.

⁵A father of the fatherless, a defender of widows,
Is God in His holy habitation.

⁶God sets the solitary in families;

He brings out those who are bound into prosperity;

But the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

⁷O God, when You went out before Your people,
When You marched through the wilderness,

Selah

⁸The earth shook;

The heavens also dropped rain at the presence of God;

Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

⁹You, O God, sent a plentiful rain,
Whereby You confirmed Your inheritance,
When it was weary.

¹⁰Your congregation dwelt in it;

You, O God, provided from Your goodness for the poor.

¹¹The Lord gave the word;
Great was the company of those who proclaimed it:

¹²"Kings of armies flee, they flee,
And she who remains at home divides the spoil.

¹³Though you lie down among the sheepfolds,
You will be like the wings of a dove covered with silver,

And her feathers with yellow gold."

¹⁴When the Almighty scattered kings in it,

It was white as snow in Zalmon.

¹⁵A mountain of God is the mountain of Bashan;
A mountain of many peaks is the mountain of Bashan.

¹⁶Why do you fume with envy, you mountains of many peaks?

This is the mountain which God desires to dwell in;

Yes, the LORD will dwell in it forever.

¹⁷The chariots of God are twenty thousand,
Even thousands of thousands;

The Lord is among them as in Sinai, in the Holy Place.

¹⁸You have ascended on high,
You have led captivity captive;
You have received gifts among men,
Even from the rebellious,

That the LORD God might dwell there.

¹⁹Blessed be the Lord,
Who daily loads us with benefits,
The God of our salvation!

Selah

²⁰Our God is the God of salvation;

And to GOD the Lord belong escapes from death.

²¹But God will wound the head of His enemies,
The hairy scalp of the one who still goes on in his trespasses.

²²The Lord said, "I will bring back from Bashan,
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea,

²³That a your foot may crush them in blood,

And the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies."

²⁴They have seen Your procession, O God,

The procession of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.

²⁵The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after;

Among them were the maidens playing timbrels.

²⁶Bless God in the congregations,
The Lord, from the fountain of Israel.

²⁷There is little Benjamin, their leader,
The princes of Judah and their company,

The princes of Zebulun and the princes of Naphtali.

²⁸Your God has commanded a your strength;
Strengthen, O God, what You have done for us.

²⁹Because of Your temple at Jerusalem,
Kings will bring presents to You.

³⁰Rebuke the beasts of the reeds,
The herd of bulls with the calves of the peoples,
Till everyone submits himself with pieces of silver.
Scatter the peoples who delight in war.

³¹Envoys will come out of Egypt;

Ethiopia will quickly stretch out her hands to God.

³²Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth;
Oh, sing praises to the Lord,

Selah

³³To Him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which were of old!

Indeed, He sends out His voice, a mighty voice.

³⁴Ascribe strength to God;
His excellence is over Israel,
And His strength is in the clouds.

³⁵O God, You are more awesome than Your holy places.

The God of Israel is He who gives strength and power to His people.

Blessed be God!

Psalm 69

An Urgent Plea for Help in Trouble

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies."^a A Psalm of David.

Save me, O God!
For the waters have come up to my neck.

²I sink in deep mire,
Where there is no standing;
I have come into deep waters,
Where the floods overflow me.

³I am weary with my crying;
My throat is dry;

My eyes fail while I wait for my God.

⁴Those who hate me without a cause
Are more than the hairs of my head;
They are mighty who would destroy me,
Being my enemies wrongfully;
Though I have stolen nothing,

I still must restore it.

⁵O God, You know my foolishness;
And my sins are not hidden from You.

⁶Let not those who wait for You, O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed because of me;

Let not those who seek You be confounded because of me, O God of Israel.

⁷Because for Your sake I have borne reproach;
Shame has covered my face.

⁸I have become a stranger to my brothers,
And an alien to my mother's children;

⁹Because zeal for Your house has eaten me up,
And the reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me.

¹⁰When I wept and chastened my soul with fasting,
That became my reproach.

¹¹I also made sackcloth my garment;
I became a byword to them.

¹²Those who sit in the gate speak against me,

And I am the song of the drunkards.

¹³But as for me, my prayer is to You,
O LORD, in the acceptable time;
O God, in the multitude of Your mercy,
Hear me in the truth of Your salvation.

¹⁴Deliver me out of the mire,
And let me not sink;
Let me be delivered from those who hate me,
And out of the deep waters.

¹⁵Let not the floodwater overflow me,
Nor let the deep swallow me up;

And let not the pit shut its mouth on me.

¹⁶Hear me, O LORD, for Your lovingkindness is good;
Turn to me according to the multitude of Your tender mercies.

¹⁷And do not hide Your face from Your servant,
For I am in trouble;
Hear me speedily.

¹⁸Draw near to my soul, and redeem it;

Deliver me because of my enemies.

¹⁹You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor;

My adversaries are all before You.

²⁰Reproach has broken my heart,
And I am full of heaviness;

I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none;

And for comforters, but I found none.

²¹They also gave me gall for my food,

And for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

²²Let their table become a snare before them,
And their wellbeing a trap.

²³Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see;

And make their loins shake continually.

²⁴Pour out Your indignation upon them,
And let Your wrathful anger take hold of them.

²⁵Let their dwelling place be desolate;
Let no one live in their tents.

²⁶For they persecute the ones You have struck,
And talk of the grief of those You have wounded.

²⁷Add iniquity to their iniquity,
And let them not come into Your righteousness.

²⁸Let them be blotted out of the book of the living,

And not be written with the righteous.

²⁹But I am poor and sorrowful;
Let Your salvation, O God, set me up on high.

³⁰I will praise the name of God with a song,
And will magnify Him with thanksgiving.

³¹*This* also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bull,
Which has horns and hooves.

³²The humble shall see this and be glad;
And you who seek God, your hearts shall live.

³³For the LORD hears the poor,

And does not despise His prisoners.

³⁴Let heaven and earth praise Him,
The seas and everything that moves in them.

³⁵For God will save Zion
And build the cities of Judah,
That they may dwell there and possess it.

³⁶Also, the descendants of His servants shall inherit
it,

And those who love His name shall dwell in it.

Psalm 70

Prayer for Relief from Adversaries

*To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.
To bring to remembrance.*

Make haste, O God, to deliver me!

Make haste to help me, O LORD!

²Let them be ashamed and confounded
Who seek my life;
Let them be turned back^a and confused
Who desire my hurt.

³Let them be turned back because of their shame,
Who say, "Aha, aha!"

⁴Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in
You;
And let those who love Your salvation say continually,
"Let God be magnified!"

⁵But I am poor and needy;
Make haste to me, O God!
You are my help and my deliverer;

O LORD, do not delay.

Psalm 71

God the Rock of Salvation

In You, O LORD, I put my trust;
Let me never be put to shame.

²Deliver me in Your righteousness, and cause me to escape;

Incline Your ear to me, and save me.

³Be my strong refuge,
To which I may resort continually;
You have given the commandment to save me,

For You are my rock and my fortress.

⁴Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,

Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

⁵For You are my hope, O Lord GOD;
You are my trust from my youth.

⁶By You I have been upheld from birth;
You are He who took me out of my mother's womb.

My praise shall be continually of You.

⁷I have become as a wonder to many,
But You are my strong refuge.

⁸Let my mouth be filled with Your praise

And with Your glory all the day.

⁹Do not cast me off in the time of old age;
Do not forsake me when my strength fails.

¹⁰For my enemies speak against me;
And those who lie in wait for my life take counsel
together,

¹¹Saying, "God has forsaken him;

Pursue and take him, for there is none to deliver
him."

¹²O God, do not be far from me;
O my God, make haste to help me!

¹³Let them be confounded and consumed
Who are adversaries of my life;
Let them be covered with reproach and dishonor

Who seek my hurt.

¹⁴But I will hope continually,
And will praise You yet more and more.

¹⁵My mouth shall tell of Your righteousness
And Your salvation all the day,
For I do not know their limits.

¹⁶I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD;

I will make mention of Your righteousness, of Yours only.

¹⁷O God, You have taught me from my youth;
And to this day I declare Your wondrous works.

¹⁸Now also when I am old and grayheaded,
O God, do not forsake me,
Until I declare Your strength to this generation,

Your power to everyone who is to come.

¹⁹Also Your righteousness, O God, is very high,
You who have done great things;
O God, who is like You?

²⁰*You*, who have shown me great and severe troubles,

Shall revive me again,
And bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

²¹You shall increase my greatness,

And comfort me on every side.

²²Also with the lute I will praise You—

And Your faithfulness, O my God!

To You I will sing with the harp,

O Holy One of Israel.

²³My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing to You,

And my soul, which You have redeemed.

²⁴My tongue also shall talk of Your righteousness all the day long;

For they are confounded,

For they are brought to shame

Who seek my hurt.

Psalm 72

Glory and Universality of the Messiah's Reign

A Psalm of Solomon.

Give the king Your judgments, O God,
And Your righteousness to the king's Son.

²He will judge Your people with righteousness,
And Your poor with justice.

³The mountains will bring peace to the people,
And the little hills, by righteousness.

⁴He will bring justice to the poor of the people;
He will save the children of the needy,

And will break in pieces the oppressor.

⁵They shall fear You^a

As long as the sun and moon endure,
Throughout all generations.

⁶He shall come down like rain upon the grass before mowing,

Like showers that water the earth.

⁷In His days the righteous shall flourish,
And abundance of peace,

Until the moon is no more.

⁸He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
And from the River to the ends of the earth.

⁹Those who dwell in the wilderness will bow before
Him,

And His enemies will lick the dust.

¹⁰The kings of Tarshish and of the isles
Will bring presents;

The kings of Sheba and Seba
Will offer gifts.

¹¹Yes, all kings shall fall down before Him;

All nations shall serve Him.

¹²For He will deliver the needy when he cries,
The poor also, and him who has no helper.

¹³He will spare the poor and needy,
And will save the souls of the needy.

¹⁴He will redeem their life from oppression and violence;

And precious shall be their blood in His sight.

¹⁵And He shall live;
And the gold of Sheba will be given to Him;
Prayer also will be made for Him continually,

And daily He shall be praised.

¹⁶There will be an abundance of grain in the earth,
On the top of the mountains;
Its fruit shall wave like Lebanon;

And those of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

¹⁷His name shall endure forever;

His name shall continue as long as the sun.
And men shall be blessed in Him;

All nations shall call Him blessed.

¹⁸Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel,
Who only does wondrous things!

¹⁹And blessed be His glorious name forever!
And let the whole earth be filled with His glory.

Amen and Amen.

²⁰The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

BOOK THREE: Psalms 73—89

Psalm 73

The Tragedy of the Wicked, and the Blessedness of Trust in God

A Psalm of Asaph.

Truly God is good to Israel,
To such as are pure in heart.

²But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled;
My steps had nearly slipped.

³For I was envious of the boastful,

When I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

⁴For there are no pangs in their death,
But their strength is firm.

⁵They are not in trouble as other men,
Nor are they plagued like other men.

⁶Therefore pride serves as their necklace;
Violence covers them like a garment.

⁷Their eyes bulge^a with abundance;
They have more than heart could wish.

⁸They scoff and speak wickedly concerning
oppression;

They speak loftily.

⁹They set their mouth against the heavens,

And their tongue walks through the earth.

¹⁰Therefore his people return here,
And waters of a full cup are drained by them.

¹¹And they say, “How does God know?
And is there knowledge in the Most High?”

¹²Behold, these are the ungodly,
Who are always at ease;
They increase in riches.

¹³Surely I have cleansed my heart in vain,
And washed my hands in innocence.

¹⁴For all day long I have been plagued,

And chastened every morning.

¹⁵If I had said, “I will speak thus,” Behold, I would have been untrue to the generation of Your children.

¹⁶When I thought how to understand this,
It was too painful for me—

¹⁷Until I went into the sanctuary of God;

Then I understood their end.

Vision: The Difference Between Followers and Leaders

Psalm 73:1-17

Vision is the friend of every leader, helping them to keep perspective and stay the course. When Asaph sees the final destiny of the wicked, he is able to endure his season of oppression. Without hope in the future, we lack power in the present.

¹⁸Surely You set them in slippery places;
You cast them down to destruction.

¹⁹Oh, how they are brought to desolation, as in a moment!

They are utterly consumed with terrors.

²⁰As a dream when one awakes,
So, Lord, when You awake,

You shall despise their image.

²¹Thus my heart was grieved,
And I was vexed in my mind.

²²I was so foolish and ignorant;
I was like a beast before You.

²³Nevertheless I am continually with You;
You hold me by my right hand.

²⁴You will guide me with Your counsel,

And afterward receive me to glory.

²⁵Whom have I in heaven but You?
And there is none upon earth that I desire besides You.

²⁶My flesh and my heart fail;

But God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

²⁷For indeed, those who are far from You shall perish;

You have destroyed all those who desert You for harlotry.

²⁸But it is good for me to draw near to God;
I have put my trust in the Lord GOD,

That I may declare all Your works.

Psalm 74

A Plea for Relief from Oppressors

A Contemplation^a of Asaph.

O God, why have You cast us off forever?

Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?

²Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old,

The tribe of Your inheritance, which You have redeemed—

This Mount Zion where You have dwelt.

³Lift up Your feet to the perpetual desolations.

The enemy has damaged everything in the sanctuary.

⁴Your enemies roar in the midst of Your meeting place;

They set up their banners for signs.

⁵They seem like men who lift up

Axes among the thick trees.

⁶And now they break down its carved work, all at once,

With axes and hammers.

⁷They have set fire to Your sanctuary;

They have defiled the dwelling place of Your name to the ground.

⁸They said in their hearts,

“Let us destroy them altogether.”

They have burned up all the meeting places of God in the land.

⁹We do not see our signs;
There is no longer any prophet;
Nor is there any among us who knows how long.

¹⁰O God, how long will the adversary reproach?
Will the enemy blaspheme Your name forever?

¹¹Why do You withdraw Your hand, even Your right hand?

Take it out of Your bosom and destroy them.

¹²For God is my King from of old,
Working salvation in the midst of the earth.

¹³You divided the sea by Your strength;
You broke the heads of the sea serpents in the waters.

¹⁴You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces,
And gave him as food to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

¹⁵You broke open the fountain and the flood;
You dried up mighty rivers.

¹⁶The day is Yours, the night also is Yours;
You have prepared the light and the sun.

¹⁷You have set all the borders of the earth;

You have made summer and winter.

¹⁸Remember this, that the enemy has reproached, O LORD,

And that a foolish people has blasphemed Your name.

¹⁹Oh, do not deliver the life of Your turtledove to the wild beast!

Do not forget the life of Your poor forever.

²⁰Have respect to the covenant;

For the dark places of the earth are full of the haunts of cruelty.

²¹Oh, do not let the oppressed return ashamed!

Let the poor and needy praise Your name.

²²Arise, O God, plead Your own cause;
Remember how the foolish man reproaches You daily.

²³Do not forget the voice of Your enemies;

The tumult of those who rise up against You increases continually.

Psalm 75

Thanksgiving for God's Righteous Judgment

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy."^a A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

We give thanks to You, O God, we give thanks!

For Your wondrous works declare that Your name is near.

²"When I choose the proper time,
I will judge uprightly.

³The earth and all its inhabitants are dissolved;
I set up its pillars firmly.

Selah

⁴"I said to the boastful, 'Do not deal boastfully,'
And to the wicked, 'Do not lift up the horn.

⁵Do not lift up your horn on high;

Do not speak with a stiff neck.' "

⁶For exaltation comes neither from the east
Nor from the west nor from the south.

⁷But God is the Judge:
He puts down one,

And exalts another.

⁸For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
And the wine is red;
It is fully mixed, and He pours it out;
Surely its dregs shall all the wicked of the earth

Drain and drink down.

⁹But I will declare forever,

I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

¹⁰“All the horns of the wicked I will also cut off,
But the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.”

Psalm 76

The Majesty of God in Judgment

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments.^a A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

In Judah God is known;
His name is great in Israel.

²In Salem^a also is His tabernacle,
And His dwelling place in Zion.

³There He broke the arrows of the bow,
The shield and sword of battle.

Selah

⁴You are more glorious and excellent
Than the mountains of prey.

⁵The stouthearted were plundered;
They have sunk into their sleep;
And none of the mighty men have found the use of their hands.

⁶At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob,

Both the chariot and horse were cast into a dead sleep.

⁷You, Yourself, are to be feared;
And who may stand in Your presence
When once You are angry?

⁸You caused judgment to be heard from heaven;
The earth feared and was still,
⁹When God arose to judgment,
To deliver all the oppressed of the earth.

Selah

¹⁰Surely the wrath of man shall praise You;
With the remainder of wrath You shall gird Yourself.

¹¹Make vows to the LORD your God, and pay them;
Let all who are around Him bring presents to Him who ought to be feared.

¹²He shall cut off the spirit of princes;

He is awesome to the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

The Consoling Memory of God's Redemptive Works

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

I cried out to God with my voice—

To God with my voice;

And He gave ear to me.

²In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;

My hand was stretched out in the night without ceasing;

My soul refused to be comforted.

³I remembered God, and was troubled;

I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed.

Selah

⁴You hold my eyelids open;

I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

⁵I have considered the days of old,

The years of ancient times.

⁶I call to remembrance my song in the night;

I meditate within my heart,

And my spirit makes diligent search.

⁷Will the Lord cast off forever?

And will He be favorable no more?

⁸Has His mercy ceased forever?

Has His promise failed forevermore?

⁹Has God forgotten to be gracious?

Has He in anger shut up His tender mercies?

Selah

¹⁰And I said, "This is my anguish;

But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High."

¹¹I will remember the works of the LORD;

Surely I will remember Your wonders of old.

¹²I will also meditate on all Your work,

And talk of Your deeds.

¹³Your way, O God, is in the sanctuary;

Who is so great a God as our God?

¹⁴You are the God who does wonders;

You have declared Your strength among the peoples.

¹⁵You have with Your arm redeemed Your people,

The sons of Jacob and Joseph.

Selah

¹⁶The waters saw You, O God;

The waters saw You, they were afraid;

The depths also trembled.

¹⁷The clouds poured out water;

The skies sent out a sound;

Your arrows also flashed about.

¹⁸The voice of Your thunder was in the whirlwind;

The lightnings lit up the world;

The earth trembled and shook.

¹⁹Your way was in the sea,

Your path in the great waters,

And Your footsteps were not known.

²⁰You led Your people like a flock

By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

God's Kindness to Rebellious Israel

A Contemplation^a of Asaph.

Give ear, O my people, to my law;
Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

²I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will utter dark sayings of old,

³Which we have heard and known,
And our fathers have told us.

⁴We will not hide them from their children,
Telling to the generation to come the praises of the
LORD,

And His strength and His wonderful works that He has done.

⁵For He established a testimony in Jacob,
And appointed a law in Israel,
Which He commanded our fathers,
That they should make them known to their children;

⁶That the generation to come might know them,
The children who would be born,
That they may arise and declare them to their children,

⁷That they may set their hope in God,
And not forget the works of God,

But keep His commandments;
⁸And may not be like their fathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation,
A generation that did not set its heart aright,

And whose spirit was not faithful to God.

⁹The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows,

Turned back in the day of battle.

¹⁰They did not keep the covenant of God;
They refused to walk in His law,

¹¹And forgot His works

And His wonders that He had shown them.

¹²Marvelous things He did in the sight of their fathers,

In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

¹³He divided the sea and caused them to pass through;

And He made the waters stand up like a heap.

¹⁴In the daytime also He led them with the cloud,
And all the night with a light of fire.

¹⁵He split the rocks in the wilderness,
And gave them drink in abundance like the depths.

¹⁶He also brought streams out of the rock,

And caused waters to run down like rivers.

¹⁷But they sinned even more against Him
By rebelling against the Most High in the wilderness.

¹⁸And they tested God in their heart
By asking for the food of their fancy.

¹⁹Yes, they spoke against God:

They said, "Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?"

²⁰Behold, He struck the rock,
So that the waters gushed out,
And the streams overflowed.
Can He give bread also?

Can He provide meat for His people?"

²¹Therefore the LORD heard this and was furious;
So a fire was kindled against Jacob,
And anger also came up against Israel,
²²Because they did not believe in God,
And did not trust in His salvation.
²³Yet He had commanded the clouds above,
And opened the doors of heaven,
²⁴Had rained down manna on them to eat,
And given them of the bread of heaven.
²⁵Men ate angels' food;

He sent them food to the full.

²⁶He caused an east wind to blow in the heavens;
And by His power He brought in the south wind.
²⁷He also rained meat on them like the dust,
Feathered fowl like the sand of the seas;
²⁸And He let them fall in the midst of their camp,
All around their dwellings.
²⁹So they ate and were well filled,
For He gave them their own desire.
³⁰They were not deprived of their craving;
But while their food was still in their mouths,
³¹The wrath of God came against them,
And slew the stoutest of them,

And struck down the choice men of Israel.

³²In spite of this they still sinned,
And did not believe in His wondrous works.

³³Therefore their days He consumed in futility,

And their years in fear.

³⁴When He slew them, then they sought Him;
And they returned and sought earnestly for God.

³⁵Then they remembered that God was their rock,
And the Most High God their Redeemer.

³⁶Nevertheless they flattered Him with their mouth,
And they lied to Him with their tongue;

³⁷For their heart was not steadfast with Him,
Nor were they faithful in His covenant.

³⁸But He, being full of compassion, forgave their
iniquity,

And did not destroy them.

Yes, many a time He turned His anger away,
And did not stir up all His wrath;

³⁹For He remembered that they were but flesh,

A breath that passes away and does not come again.

⁴⁰How often they provoked Him in the wilderness,
And grieved Him in the desert!

⁴¹Yes, again and again they tempted God,
And limited the Holy One of Israel.

⁴²They did not remember His power:
The day when He redeemed them from the enemy,

⁴³When He worked His signs in Egypt,
And His wonders in the field of Zoan;

⁴⁴Turned their rivers into blood,
And their streams, that they could not drink.

⁴⁵He sent swarms of flies among them, which devoured them,

And frogs, which destroyed them.

⁴⁶He also gave their crops to the caterpillar,
And their labor to the locust.

⁴⁷He destroyed their vines with hail,
And their sycamore trees with frost.

⁴⁸He also gave up their cattle to the hail,
And their flocks to fiery lightning.

⁴⁹He cast on them the fierceness of His anger,
Wrath, indignation, and trouble,
By sending angels of destruction among them.

⁵⁰He made a path for His anger;
He did not spare their soul from death,
But gave their life over to the plague,

⁵¹And destroyed all the firstborn in Egypt,
The first of their strength in the tents of Ham.

⁵²But He made His own people go forth like sheep,
And guided them in the wilderness like a flock;

⁵³And He led them on safely, so that they did not fear;

But the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

⁵⁴And He brought them to His holy border,
This mountain which His right hand had acquired.

⁵⁵He also drove out the nations before them,
Allotted them an inheritance by survey,

And made the tribes of Israel dwell in their tents.

⁵⁶Yet they tested and provoked the Most High God,
And did not keep His testimonies,

⁵⁷But turned back and acted unfaithfully like their fathers;

They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

⁵⁸For they provoked Him to anger with their high places,

And moved Him to jealousy with their carved images.

⁵⁹When God heard this, He was furious,

And greatly abhorred Israel,

⁶⁰So that He forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh,

The tent He had placed among men,

⁶¹And delivered His strength into captivity,

And His glory into the enemy's hand.

⁶²He also gave His people over to the sword,

And was furious with His inheritance.

⁶³The fire consumed their young men,

And their maidens were not given in marriage.

⁶⁴Their priests fell by the sword,

And their widows made no lamentation.

⁶⁵Then the Lord awoke as from sleep,

Like a mighty man who shouts because of wine.

⁶⁶And He beat back His enemies;

He put them to a perpetual reproach.

⁶⁷Moreover He rejected the tent of Joseph,

And did not choose the tribe of Ephraim,

⁶⁸But chose the tribe of Judah,

Mount Zion which He loved.

⁶⁹And He built His sanctuary like the heights,

Like the earth which He has established forever.

⁷⁰He also chose David His servant,

And took him from the sheepfolds;

⁷¹From following the ewes that had young He brought him,

To shepherd Jacob His people,

And Israel His inheritance.

⁷²So he shepherded them according to the integrity of his heart,

And guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Skill and Competence: Eleven Keys to Excellence

Psalm 78:72

David's leadership succeeded through a two-sided coin: his hands and his heart, or outward skill and inward integrity. Every great spiritual leader must have this combination. David's excellent leadership combined both heart and art. To have one without the other leads to failure.

Consider the following list of 11 keys to excellence, aimed at helping us to develop our leadership skills today. Leaders must...

- first value excellence
- not settle for average
- pay attention to detail
- remain committed to what really matters
- display integrity and sound ethics
- show genuine respect for others
- go the second mile
- demonstrate consistency
- never stop improving
- always give 100%
- make excellence a lifestyle

Psalm 79

A Dirge and a Prayer for Israel, Destroyed by Enemies

A Psalm of Asaph.

O God, the nations have come into Your inheritance;
Your holy temple they have defiled;
They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.

²The dead bodies of Your servants
They have given as food for the birds of the heavens,
The flesh of Your saints to the beasts of the earth.

³Their blood they have shed like water all around
Jerusalem,

And there was no one to bury them.

⁴We have become a reproach to our neighbors,

A scorn and derision to those who are around us.

⁵How long, LORD?

Will You be angry forever?

Will Your jealousy burn like fire?

⁶Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not know You,

And on the kingdoms that do not call on Your name.

⁷For they have devoured Jacob,

And laid waste his dwelling place.

⁸Oh, do not remember former iniquities against us!
Let Your tender mercies come speedily to meet us,
For we have been brought very low.

⁹Help us, O God of our salvation,
For the glory of Your name;
And deliver us, and provide atonement for our sins,
For Your name's sake!

¹⁰Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
Let there be known among the nations in our sight

The avenging of the blood of Your servants which has been shed.

¹¹Let the groaning of the prisoner come before You;
According to the greatness of Your power
Preserve those who are appointed to die;

¹²And return to our neighbors sevenfold into their bosom

Their reproach with which they have reproached
You, O Lord.

¹³So we, Your people and sheep of Your pasture,
Will give You thanks forever;

We will show forth Your praise to all generations.

Psalm 80

Prayer for Israel's Restoration

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies." ^aA Testimony^b of Asaph. A Psalm.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
You who lead Joseph like a flock;
You who dwell between the cherubim, shine forth!
²Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh,
Stir up Your strength,

And come and save us!

³Restore us, O God;
Cause Your face to shine,

And we shall be saved!

⁴O LORD God of hosts,
How long will You be angry
Against the prayer of Your people?

⁵You have fed them with the bread of tears,
And given them tears to drink in great measure.

⁶You have made us a strife to our neighbors,

And our enemies laugh among themselves.

⁷Restore us, O God of hosts;
Cause Your face to shine,

And we shall be saved!

⁸You have brought a vine out of Egypt;
You have cast out the nations, and planted it.

⁹You prepared room for it,
And caused it to take deep root,
And it filled the land.

¹⁰The hills were covered with its shadow,
And the mighty cedars with its boughs.

¹¹She sent out her boughs to the Sea,^a

And her branches to the River.^b

¹²Why have You broken down her hedges,
So that all who pass by the way pluck her fruit?

¹³The boar out of the woods uproots it,

And the wild beast of the field devours it.

¹⁴Return, we beseech You, O God of hosts;
Look down from heaven and see,
And visit this vine

¹⁵And the vineyard which Your right hand has planted,

And the branch that You made strong for Yourself.

¹⁶*It is* burned with fire, it is cut down;
They perish at the rebuke of Your countenance.

¹⁷Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand,
Upon the son of man whom You made strong for Yourself.

¹⁸Then we will not turn back from You;

Revive us, and we will call upon Your name.

¹⁹Restore us, O LORD God of hosts;
Cause Your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!

Psalm 81

An Appeal for Israel's Repentance

To the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath.^a A Psalm of Asaph.

Sing aloud to God our strength;
Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob.

²Raise a song and strike the timbrel,

The pleasant harp with the lute.

³Blow the trumpet at the time of the New Moon,
At the full moon, on our solemn feast day.

⁴For this is a statute for Israel,
A law of the God of Jacob.

⁵This He established in Joseph as a testimony,
When He went throughout the land of Egypt,

Where I heard a language I did not understand.

⁶"I removed his shoulder from the burden;
His hands were freed from the baskets.

⁷You called in trouble, and I delivered you;
I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.

Selah

⁸“Hear, O My people, and I will admonish you!
O Israel, if you will listen to Me!

⁹There shall be no foreign god among you;
Nor shall you worship any foreign god.

¹⁰I am the LORD your God,
Who brought you out of the land of Egypt;

Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

¹¹“But My people would not heed My voice,
And Israel would have none of Me.

¹²So I gave them over to their own stubborn heart,

To walk in their own counsels.

¹³“Oh, that My people would listen to Me,
That Israel would walk in My ways!

¹⁴I would soon subdue their enemies,
And turn My hand against their adversaries.

¹⁵The haters of the LORD would pretend submission to Him,

But their fate would endure forever.

¹⁶He would have fed them also with the finest of wheat;

And with honey from the rock I would have satisfied
you.”

Psalm 82

A Plea for Justice

A Psalm of Asaph.

God stands in the congregation of the mighty;
He judges among the gods.^a

²How long will you judge unjustly,
And show partiality to the wicked?

Selah

³Defend the poor and fatherless;
Do justice to the afflicted and needy.

⁴Deliver the poor and needy;

Free them from the hand of the wicked.

⁵They do not know, nor do they understand;
They walk about in darkness;

All the foundations of the earth are unstable.

⁶I said, "You are gods,^a
And all of you are children of the Most High.

⁷But you shall die like men,

And fall like one of the princes."

⁸Arise, O God, judge the earth;

For You shall inherit all nations.

The Law of Influence: Measuring Your Leadership

Psalm 82:1-8

Many passages in Scripture declare God to be the Ultimate Judge (Pss. 7:8; 9:8; 10:18; 26:1; Prov. 31:9; Is. 1:17; etc.). A judge brings justice to bear, punishing the criminal and rewarding the righteous.

But before the final Day of Judgment, God uses His leaders to vindicate His people and urge the wicked to repent. God has entrusted His leaders with the gospel of Jesus Christ, through which men can be delivered from final judgment. Listen to the Lord's promise to His people: "I will restore your judges as at the first" (Is. 1:26). Spiritual leaders are to take this task seriously and to use their influence to promote justice. This differentiates true judges from false judges:

True Judges • False Judges

Chosen and appointed by God (Deut. 16:18) • Rule by their own power (Jer. 5:30, 31)

Responsible for certain areas (2 Chr. 19:5) • Lead others astray (Mic. 3:5)

Righteous and trustworthy (Deut. 16:18) • Irresponsible, selfish (Mic. 3:1, 2)

Psalm 83

Prayer to Frustrate Conspiracy Against Israel

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

Do not keep silent, O God!
Do not hold Your peace,
And do not be still, O God!

²For behold, Your enemies make a tumult;
And those who hate You have lifted up their head.

³They have taken crafty counsel against Your people,
And consulted together against Your sheltered ones.

⁴They have said, "Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation,

That the name of Israel may be remembered no more."

⁵For they have consulted together with one consent;
They form a confederacy against You:

⁶The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites;
Moab and the Hagrites;

⁷Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek;
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;

⁸Assyria also has joined with them;
They have helped the children of Lot.

Selah

⁹Deal with them as with Midian,
As with Sisera,
As with Jabin at the Brook Kishon,
¹⁰Who perished at En Dor,
Who became as refuse on the earth.
¹¹Make their nobles like Oreb and like Zeeb,
Yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,
¹²Who said, "Let us take for ourselves

The pastures of God for a possession."

¹³O my God, make them like the whirling dust,
Like the chaff before the wind!
¹⁴As the fire burns the woods,
And as the flame sets the mountains on fire,
¹⁵So pursue them with Your tempest,
And frighten them with Your storm.
¹⁶Fill their faces with shame,
That they may seek Your name, O LORD.
¹⁷Let them be confounded and dismayed forever;
Yes, let them be put to shame and perish, ¹⁸That they may know that You, whose name alone is
the LORD,

Are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

The Blessedness of Dwelling in the House of God

To the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath.^a A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

How lovely is Your tabernacle,
O LORD of hosts!

²My soul longs, yes, even faints
For the courts of the LORD;

My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

³Even the sparrow has found a home,
And the swallow a nest for herself,
Where she may lay her young—
Even Your altars, O LORD of hosts,
My King and my God.

⁴Blessed are those who dwell in Your house;
They will still be praising You.

Selah

⁵Blessed is the man whose strength is in You,
Whose heart is set on pilgrimage.

⁶*As they* pass through the Valley of Baca,
They make it a spring;
The rain also covers it with pools.

⁷They go from strength to strength;

Each one appears before God in Zion.^{a}

⁸O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer;
Give ear, O God of Jacob!

Selah

⁹O God, behold our shield,

And look upon the face of Your anointed.

¹⁰For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my
God

Than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

¹¹For the LORD God is a sun and shield;
The LORD will give grace and glory;
No good thing will He withhold

From those who walk uprightly.

¹²O LORD of hosts,

Blessed is the man who trusts in You!

Psalm 85

Prayer that the LORD Will Restore Favor to the Land

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

LORD, You have been favorable to Your land;
You have brought back the captivity of Jacob.
²You have forgiven the iniquity of Your people;
You have covered all their sin.

Selah

³You have taken away all Your wrath;

You have turned from the fierceness of Your anger.

⁴Restore us, O God of our salvation,
And cause Your anger toward us to cease.
⁵Will You be angry with us forever?
Will You prolong Your anger to all generations?
⁶Will You not revive us again,
That Your people may rejoice in You?
⁷Show us Your mercy, LORD,

And grant us Your salvation.

⁸I will hear what God the LORD will speak,
For He will speak peace

To His people and to His saints;
But let them not turn back to folly.
⁹Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him,
That glory may dwell in our land.

¹⁰Mercy and truth have met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed.
¹¹Truth shall spring out of the earth,
And righteousness shall look down from heaven.
¹²Yes, the LORD will give what is good;
And our land will yield its increase.
¹³Righteousness will go before Him,
And shall make His footsteps our pathway.

Psalm 86

Prayer for Mercy, with Meditation on the Excellencies of the LORD

A Prayer of David.

Bow down Your ear, O LORD, hear me;
For I am poor and needy.

²Preserve my life, for I am holy;
You are my God;

Save Your servant who trusts in You!

³Be merciful to me, O Lord,
For I cry to You all day long.

⁴Rejoice the soul of Your servant,
For to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

⁵For You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive,

And abundant in mercy to all those who call upon
You.

⁶Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer;
And attend to the voice of my supplications.

⁷In the day of my trouble I will call upon You,

For You will answer me.

⁸Among the gods there is none like You, O Lord;
Nor are there any works like Your works.

⁹All nations whom You have made
Shall come and worship before You, O Lord,
And shall glorify Your name.

¹⁰For You are great, and do wondrous things;

You alone are God.

¹¹Teach me Your way, O LORD;
I will walk in Your truth;
Unite my heart to fear Your name.

¹²I will praise You, O Lord my God, with all my heart,
And I will glorify Your name forevermore.

¹³For great is Your mercy toward me,

And You have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

¹⁴O God, the proud have risen against me,
And a mob of violent men have sought my life,
And have not set You before them.

¹⁵But You, O Lord, are a God full of compassion, and gracious,

Longsuffering and abundant in mercy and truth.

¹⁶Oh, turn to me, and have mercy on me!
Give Your strength to Your servant,
And save the son of Your maidservant.

¹⁷Show me a sign for good,
That those who hate me may see it and be ashamed,

Because You, LORD, have helped me and comforted
me.

Psalm 87

The Glories of the City of God

A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song.

His foundation is in the holy mountains.

²The LORD loves the gates of Zion
More than all the dwellings of Jacob.

³Glorious things are spoken of you,
O city of God!

Selah

⁴"I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to those who know Me;

Behold, O Philistia and Tyre, with Ethiopia:

"This one was born there.' "

⁵And of Zion it will be said,

"This one and that one were born in her;
And the Most High Himself shall establish her."

⁶The LORD will record,
When He registers the peoples:

"This one was born there."

Selah

⁷Both the singers and the players on instruments say,

“All my springs are in you.”

Psalm 88

A Prayer for Help in Despondency

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. To the Chief Musician. Set to “Mahalath Leannoth.” A Contemplation^a of Heman the Ezrahite.

O LORD, God of my salvation,
I have cried out day and night before You.

²Let my prayer come before You;

Incline Your ear to my cry.

³For my soul is full of troubles,
And my life draws near to the grave.

⁴I am counted with those who go down to the pit;
I am like a man who has no strength,

⁵Adrift among the dead,
Like the slain who lie in the grave,
Whom You remember no more,

And who are cut off from Your hand.

⁶You have laid me in the lowest pit,
In darkness, in the depths.

⁷Your wrath lies heavy upon me,

And You have afflicted me with all Your waves.

Selah

⁸You have put away my acquaintances far from me;
You have made me an abomination to them;
I am shut up, and I cannot get out;

⁹My eye wastes away because of affliction.

LORD, I have called daily upon You;
I have stretched out my hands to You.

¹⁰Will You work wonders for the dead?
Shall the dead arise and praise You?

Selah

¹¹Shall Your lovingkindness be declared in the grave?

Or Your faithfulness in the place of destruction?

¹²Shall Your wonders be known in the dark?

And Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

¹³But to You I have cried out, O LORD,
And in the morning my prayer comes before You.

¹⁴LORD, why do You cast off my soul?
Why do You hide Your face from me?

¹⁵*I have been* afflicted and ready to die from my youth;

I suffer Your terrors;
I am distraught.

¹⁶Your fierce wrath has gone over me;
Your terrors have cut me off.

¹⁷They came around me all day long like water;
They engulfed me altogether.

¹⁸Loved one and friend You have put far from me,

And my acquaintances into darkness.

Psalm 89

Remembering the Covenant with David, and Sorrow for Lost Blessings

A Contemplation^a of Ethan the Ezrahite.

I will sing of the mercies of the LORD forever;
With my mouth will I make known Your faithfulness to all generations.

²For I have said, "Mercy shall be built up forever;

Your faithfulness You shall establish in the very heavens."

³"I have made a covenant with My chosen,
I have sworn to My servant David:

⁴Your seed I will establish forever,
And build up your throne to all generations.' "

Selah

⁵And the heavens will praise Your wonders, O LORD;
Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the saints.

⁶For who in the heavens can be compared to the
LORD?

Who among the sons of the mighty can be likened to
the LORD?

⁷God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints,

And to be held in reverence by all those around Him.

⁸O LORD God of hosts,
Who is mighty like You, O LORD?
Your faithfulness also surrounds You.

⁹You rule the raging of the sea;
When its waves rise, You still them.

¹⁰You have broken Rahab in pieces, as one who is slain;

You have scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.

¹¹The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours;
The world and all its fullness, You have founded them.

¹²The north and the south, You have created them;
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in Your name.

¹³You have a mighty arm;
Strong is Your hand, and high is Your right hand.

¹⁴Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne;

Mercy and truth go before Your face.

¹⁵Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound!
They walk, O LORD, in the light of Your countenance.

¹⁶In Your name they rejoice all day long,
And in Your righteousness they are exalted.

¹⁷For You are the glory of their strength,
And in Your favor our horn is exalted.

¹⁸For our shield belongs to the LORD,

And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁹Then You spoke in a vision to Your holy one, a
And said: "I have given help to one who is mighty;
I have exalted one chosen from the people.

²⁰I have found My servant David;
With My holy oil I have anointed him,
²¹With whom My hand shall be established;
Also My arm shall strengthen him.
²²The enemy shall not outwit him,
Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.
²³I will beat down his foes before his face,

And plague those who hate him.

²⁴“But My faithfulness and My mercy shall be with him,

And in My name his horn shall be exalted.

²⁵Also I will set his hand over the sea,
And his right hand over the rivers.

²⁶He shall cry to Me, ‘You are my Father,
My God, and the rock of my salvation.’

²⁷Also I will make him My firstborn,
The highest of the kings of the earth.

²⁸My mercy I will keep for him forever,
And My covenant shall stand firm with him.

²⁹His seed also I will make to endure forever,

And his throne as the days of heaven.

The Fruit That Comes from God’s Anointing

Psalm 89:19-29

All leaders should seek the anointing of God.
They need to be empowered by the hand of God, and show evidence of this by leading in a way far superior to what they could have achieved on their own.

What does God promise leaders anointed by His Spirit?

1. God's help (v. 19)
2. Being called God's servant (v. 20)
3. God's strength (v. 21)
4. God's hand with them (v. 21)
5. Freedom from affliction (v. 22)
6. Freedom from deception (v. 22)
7. Victory over the enemy (v. 23)
8. God's faithfulness and kindness (v. 24)
9. Influence in the world (v. 25)
10. God's saving power (v. 26)
11. A Father-son relationship (v. 26)
12. Exaltation and authority (vv. 27-29)
13. Partaking of the covenant (v. 28)
14. Promise of descendants (v. 29)

³⁰"If his sons forsake My law

And do not walk in My judgments,

³¹If they break My statutes

And do not keep My commandments,

³²Then I will punish their transgression with the rod,

And their iniquity with stripes.

³³Nevertheless My lovingkindness I will not utterly take from him,

Nor allow My faithfulness to fail.

³⁴My covenant I will not break,

Nor alter the word that has gone out of My lips.

³⁵Once I have sworn by My holiness;

I will not lie to David:

³⁶His seed shall endure forever,

And his throne as the sun before Me;
³⁷It shall be established forever like the moon,
Even like the faithful witness in the sky.”

Selah

³⁸But You have cast off and abhorred,
You have been furious with Your anointed.
³⁹You have renounced the covenant of Your servant;
You have profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.
⁴⁰You have broken down all his hedges;
You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
⁴¹All who pass by the way plunder him;
He is a reproach to his neighbors.
⁴²You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries;
You have made all his enemies rejoice.
⁴³You have also turned back the edge of his sword,
And have not sustained him in the battle.
⁴⁴You have made his glory cease,
And cast his throne down to the ground.
⁴⁵The days of his youth You have shortened;
You have covered him with shame.

Selah

⁴⁶How long, LORD?
Will You hide Yourself forever?
Will Your wrath burn like fire?
⁴⁷Remember how short my time is;
For what futility have You created all the children of men?
⁴⁸What man can live and not see death?
Can he deliver his life from the power of the grave?

Selah

⁴⁹Lord, where are Your former lovingkindnesses,

Which You swore to David in Your truth?

⁵⁰Remember, Lord, the reproach of Your servants—

How I bear in my bosom the reproach of all the many peoples,

⁵¹With which Your enemies have reproached, O LORD,

With which they have reproached the footsteps of Your anointed.

⁵²Blessed be the LORD forevermore!

Amen and Amen.

BOOK FOUR: Psalms 90—106

Psalm 90

The Eternity of God, and Man's Frailty

A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

Lord, You have been our dwelling place^a in all generations.

²Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever You had formed the earth and the world,

Even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

³You turn man to destruction,
And say, "Return, O children of men."

⁴For a thousand years in Your sight
Are like yesterday when it is past,
And like a watch in the night.

⁵You carry them away like a flood;
They are like a sleep.

In the morning they are like grass which grows up:

⁶In the morning it flourishes and grows up;

In the evening it is cut down and withers.

⁷For we have been consumed by Your anger,
And by Your wrath we are terrified.

⁸You have set our iniquities before You,
Our secret sins in the light of Your countenance.

⁹For all our days have passed away in Your wrath;
We finish our years like a sigh.

¹⁰The days of our lives are seventy years;
And if by reason of strength they are eighty years,
Yet their boast is only labor and sorrow;
For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

¹¹Who knows the power of Your anger?
For as the fear of You, so is Your wrath.

¹²So teach us to number our days,

That we may gain a heart of wisdom.

¹³Return, O LORD!

How long?

And have compassion on Your servants.

¹⁴Oh, satisfy us early with Your mercy,
That we may rejoice and be glad all our days!

¹⁵Make us glad according to the days in which You have afflicted us,

The years in which we have seen evil.

¹⁶Let Your work appear to Your servants,
And Your glory to their children.

¹⁷And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon
us,

Leaders Manage Their Time and Do More with Less

Psalm 90:12, 17

Moses had seen a generation squander 40 years in the wilderness. He believed that if leaders could only gain a keen sense of the swift passage of time, and if they would work for something significant,

they could die with a great sense of satisfaction.
Leaders don't kill time, they execute it.

And establish the work of our hands for us;

Yes, establish the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

Safety of Abiding in the Presence of God

He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High
Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

²I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress;

My God, in Him I will trust."

³Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler^a

And from the perilous pestilence.

⁴He shall cover you with His feathers,
And under His wings you shall take refuge;
His truth shall be your shield and buckler.

⁵You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
Nor of the arrow that flies by day,

⁶*Nor* of the pestilence that walks in darkness,

Nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday.

⁷A thousand may fall at your side,
And ten thousand at your right hand;
But it shall not come near you.

⁸Only with your eyes shall you look,

And see the reward of the wicked.

⁹Because you have made the LORD, who is my refuge,

Even the Most High, your dwelling place,

¹⁰No evil shall befall you,

Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling;

¹¹For He shall give His angels charge over you,

To keep you in all your ways.

¹²In their hands they shall bear you up,

Lest you dash your foot against a stone.

¹³You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra,

The young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot.

¹⁴“Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him;

I will set him on high, because he has known My name.

¹⁵He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him;

I will be with him in trouble;

I will deliver him and honor him.

¹⁶With long life I will satisfy him,

And show him My salvation.”

The Leader's Refuge

Psalm 91:1-16

We discover one of the most comforting chapters in the Bible in Psalm 91. It describes the security believers can enjoy through faith in God. Leaders can especially benefit from this set of promises. Study them and enjoy them:

Promise • Leader's Benefit

God's presence (vv. 1, 2) • It doesn't have to be lonely at the top.

God's protection (vv. 3, 4) • As you take initiative and risks, God keeps you safe.

God's peace (vv. 5, 6) • You don't have to feel insecure in unknown territory.

God's perspective (vv. 7-10) • God gives an eternal view of life that keeps you steady.

God's provision (vv. 11-13) • Regardless of your needs, God meets them.

God's power (vv. 14-16) • In adversity, God delivers and helps you reach your goal.

Psalm 92

Praise to the LORD for His Love and Faithfulness

A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath day.

*It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
And to sing praises to Your name, O Most High;
²To declare Your lovingkindness in the morning,
And Your faithfulness every night,
³On an instrument of ten strings,
On the lute,
And on the harp,
With harmonious sound.*

⁴For You, LORD, have made me glad through Your work;

I will triumph in the works of Your hands.

*⁵O LORD, how great are Your works!
Your thoughts are very deep.*

*⁶A senseless man does not know,
Nor does a fool understand this.*

*⁷When the wicked spring up like grass,
And when all the workers of iniquity flourish,*

It is that they may be destroyed forever.

⁸But You, LORD, are on high forevermore.

⁹For behold, Your enemies, O LORD,
For behold, Your enemies shall perish;

All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

¹⁰But my horn You have exalted like a wild ox;
I have been anointed with fresh oil.

¹¹My eye also has seen my desire on my enemies;
My ears hear my desire on the wicked

Who rise up against me.

¹²The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree,
He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

¹³Those who are planted in the house of the LORD
Shall flourish in the courts of our God.

¹⁴They shall still bear fruit in old age;
They shall be fresh and flourishing,

¹⁵To declare that the LORD is upright;

He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

Psalm 93

The Eternal Reign of the LORD

The LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty;
The LORD is clothed,
He has girded Himself with strength.
Surely the world is established, so that it cannot be moved.

²Your throne is established from of old;

You are from everlasting.

³The floods have lifted up, O LORD,
The floods have lifted up their voice;
The floods lift up their waves.

⁴The LORD on high is mightier
Than the noise of many waters,

Than the mighty waves of the sea.

⁵Your testimonies are very sure;
Holiness adorns Your house,

O LORD, forever.

Psalm 94

God the Refuge of the Righteous

O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongs—
O God, to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth!

²Rise up, O Judge of the earth;
Render punishment to the proud.

³LORD, how long will the wicked,

How long will the wicked triumph?

⁴They utter speech, and speak insolent things;
All the workers of iniquity boast in themselves.

⁵They break in pieces Your people, O LORD,
And afflict Your heritage.

⁶They slay the widow and the stranger,
And murder the fatherless.

⁷Yet they say, “The LORD does not see,

Nor does the God of Jacob understand.”

⁸Understand, you senseless among the people;
And you fools, when will you be wise?

⁹He who planted the ear, shall He not hear?
He who formed the eye, shall He not see?

¹⁰He who instructs the nations, shall He not correct,
He who teaches man knowledge?

¹¹The LORD knows the thoughts of man,

That they are futile.

¹²Blessed is the man whom You instruct, O LORD,
And teach out of Your law,

¹³That You may give him rest from the days of adversity,

Until the pit is dug for the wicked.

¹⁴For the LORD will not cast off His people,
Nor will He forsake His inheritance.

¹⁵But judgment will return to righteousness,

And all the upright in heart will follow it.

¹⁶Who will rise up for me against the evildoers?
Who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

¹⁷Unless the LORD had been my help,
My soul would soon have settled in silence.

¹⁸If I say, "My foot slips,"
Your mercy, O LORD, will hold me up.

¹⁹In the multitude of my anxieties within me,

Your comforts delight my soul.

²⁰Shall the throne of iniquity, which devises evil by law,

Have fellowship with You?

²¹They gather together against the life of the righteous,

And condemn innocent blood.

²²But the LORD has been my defense,
And my God the rock of my refuge.

²³He has brought on them their own iniquity,
And shall cut them off in their own wickedness;

The LORD our God shall cut them off.

Psalm 95

A Call to Worship and Obedience

Oh come, let us sing to the LORD!
Let us shout joyfully to the Rock of our salvation.
²Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving;
Let us shout joyfully to Him with psalms.
³For the LORD is the great God,
And the great King above all gods.
⁴In His hand are the deep places of the earth;
The heights of the hills are His also.
⁵The sea is His, for He made it;

And His hands formed the dry land.

⁶Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.
⁷For He is our God,
And we are the people of His pasture,

And the sheep of His hand.

Today, if you will hear His voice:
⁸“Do not harden your hearts, as in the rebellion,^{a}
As in the day of trial^{b} in the wilderness,
⁹When your fathers tested Me;
They tried Me, though they saw My work.
¹⁰For forty years I was grieved with that generation,

And said, 'It is a people who go astray in their hearts,
And they do not know My ways.'

¹¹So I swore in My wrath,

'They shall not enter My rest.' "

Psalm 96

A Song of Praise to God Coming in Judgment

Oh, sing to the LORD a new song!
Sing to the LORD, all the earth.

²Sing to the LORD, bless His name;
Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.

³Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonders among all peoples.

⁴For the LORD is great and greatly to be praised;
He is to be feared above all gods.

⁵For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
But the LORD made the heavens.

⁶Honor and majesty are before Him;

Strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

⁷Give to the LORD, O families of the peoples,
Give to the LORD glory and strength.

⁸Give to the LORD the glory due His name;
Bring an offering, and come into His courts.

⁹Oh, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness!

Tremble before Him, all the earth.

¹⁰Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns;
The world also is firmly established,
It shall not be moved;

He shall judge the peoples righteously."

¹¹Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;

¹²Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it.
Then all the trees of the woods will rejoice

¹³before the LORD.

For He is coming, for He is coming to judge the
earth.

He shall judge the world with righteousness,

And the peoples with His truth.

Psalm 97

A Song of Praise to the Sovereign LORD

The LORD reigns;
Let the earth rejoice;

Let the multitude of isles be glad!

²Clouds and darkness surround Him;
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.

³A fire goes before Him,
And burns up His enemies round about.

⁴His lightnings light the world;
The earth sees and trembles.

⁵The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the
LORD,

At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

⁶The heavens declare His righteousness,

And all the peoples see His glory.

⁷Let all be put to shame who serve carved images,
Who boast of idols.

Worship Him, all you gods.

⁸Zion hears and is glad,
And the daughters of Judah rejoice

Because of Your judgments, O LORD.

⁹For You, LORD, are most high above all the earth;

You are exalted far above all gods.

¹⁰You who love the LORD, hate evil!

He preserves the souls of His saints;

He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.

¹¹Light is sown for the righteous,

And gladness for the upright in heart.

¹²Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous,

And give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name. a

Psalm 98

A Song of Praise to the LORD for His Salvation and Judgment

A Psalm.

Oh, sing to the LORD a new song!
For He has done marvelous things;
His right hand and His holy arm have gained Him the victory.

²The LORD has made known His salvation;
His righteousness He has revealed in the sight of the nations.

³He has remembered His mercy and His faithfulness to the house of Israel;

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

⁴Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the earth;
Break forth in song, rejoice, and sing praises.

⁵Sing to the LORD with the harp,
With the harp and the sound of a psalm,

⁶With trumpets and the sound of a horn;

Shout joyfully before the LORD, the King.

⁷Let the sea roar, and all its fullness,

The world and those who dwell in it;
⁸Let the rivers clap their hands;
Let the hills be joyful together
⁹before the LORD,
For He is coming to judge the earth.
With righteousness He shall judge the world,
And the peoples with equity.

Psalm 99

Praise to the LORD for His Holiness

The LORD reigns;
Let the peoples tremble!
He dwells between the cherubim;
Let the earth be moved!

²The LORD is great in Zion,
And He is high above all the peoples.

³Let them praise Your great and awesome name—

He is holy.

⁴The King's strength also loves justice;
You have established equity;
You have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.

⁵Exalt the LORD our God,
And worship at His footstool—

He is holy.

⁶Moses and Aaron were among His priests,
And Samuel was among those who called upon His name;

They called upon the LORD, and He answered them.

⁷He spoke to them in the cloudy pillar;

They kept His testimonies and the ordinance He gave them.

⁸You answered them, O LORD our God;
You were to them God-Who-Forgives,
Though You took vengeance on their deeds.

⁹Exalt the LORD our God,
And worship at His holy hill;

For the LORD our God is holy.

Psalm 100

A Song of Praise for the LORD's Faithfulness to His People

A Psalm of Thanksgiving.

Make a joyful shout to the LORD, all you lands!

²Serve the LORD with gladness;

Come before His presence with singing.

³Know that the LORD, He is God;

It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves;^a

We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

⁴Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,

And into His courts with praise.

Be thankful to Him, and bless His name.

⁵For the LORD is good;

His mercy is everlasting,

And His truth endures to all generations.

Psalm 101

Promised Faithfulness to the LORD

A Psalm of David.

I will sing of mercy and justice;

To You, O LORD, I will sing praises.

²I will behave wisely in a perfect way.
Oh, when will You come to me?

I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

³I will set nothing wicked before my eyes;
I hate the work of those who fall away;
It shall not cling to me.

⁴A perverse heart shall depart from me;

I will not know wickedness.

⁵Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor,
Him I will destroy;
The one who has a haughty look and a proud heart,

Him I will not endure.

⁶My eyes shall be on the faithful of the land,
That they may dwell with me;

He who walks in a perfect way,
He shall serve me.

⁷He who works deceit shall not dwell within my house;

He who tells lies shall not continue in my presence.

⁸Early I will destroy all the wicked of the land,

That I may cut off all the evildoers from the city of the LORD.

Psalm 102

The LORD's Eternal Love

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

Hear my prayer, O LORD,
And let my cry come to You.

²Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my trouble;

Incline Your ear to me;

In the day that I call, answer me speedily.

³For my days are consumed like smoke,
And my bones are burned like a hearth.

⁴My heart is stricken and withered like grass,
So that I forget to eat my bread.

⁵Because of the sound of my groaning
My bones cling to my skin.

⁶I am like a pelican of the wilderness;
I am like an owl of the desert.

⁷I lie awake,

And am like a sparrow alone on the housetop.

⁸My enemies reproach me all day long;

Those who deride me swear an oath against me.

⁹For I have eaten ashes like bread,

And mingled my drink with weeping,

¹⁰Because of Your indignation and Your wrath;

For You have lifted me up and cast me away.

¹¹My days are like a shadow that lengthens,

And I wither away like grass.

¹²But You, O LORD, shall endure forever,

And the remembrance of Your name to all generations.

¹³You will arise and have mercy on Zion;

For the time to favor her,

Yes, the set time, has come.

¹⁴For Your servants take pleasure in her stones,

And show favor to her dust.

¹⁵So the nations shall fear the name of the LORD,

And all the kings of the earth Your glory.

¹⁶For the LORD shall build up Zion;

He shall appear in His glory.

¹⁷He shall regard the prayer of the destitute,

And shall not despise their prayer.

¹⁸This will be written for the generation to come,

That a people yet to be created may praise the LORD.

¹⁹For He looked down from the height of His sanctuary;

From heaven the LORD viewed the earth,

²⁰To hear the groaning of the prisoner,

To release those appointed to death,

²¹To declare the name of the LORD in Zion,

And His praise in Jerusalem,

²²When the peoples are gathered together,

And the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

²³He weakened my strength in the way;
He shortened my days.

²⁴I said, "O my God,
Do not take me away in the midst of my days;
Your years are throughout all generations.

²⁵Of old You laid the foundation of the earth,
And the heavens are the work of Your hands.

²⁶They will perish, but You will endure;
Yes, they will all grow old like a garment;
Like a cloak You will change them,
And they will be changed.

²⁷But You are the same,
And Your years will have no end.

²⁸The children of Your servants will continue,

And their descendants will be established before
You."

Psalm 103

Praise for the LORD's Mercies

A Psalm of David.

Bless the LORD, O my soul;
And all that is within me, bless His holy name!

²Bless the LORD, O my soul,
And forget not all His benefits:

³Who forgives all your iniquities,
Who heals all your diseases,

⁴Who redeems your life from destruction,
Who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender
mercies,

⁵Who satisfies your mouth with good things,

So that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

How God Raises a Leader

Psalm 103:1-5

The benefits of trusting the Lord listed in this text correspond to the stages God uses in building someone into a healthy, spiritual leader. The psalmist lists the benefits in this order:

1. God pardons (v. 3)—Leaders must put their past shame or blame behind them.
2. God heals (v. 3)—They must become healthy and be liberated from old wounds.
3. God redeems (v. 4)—They see their abilities and personality redeemed.
4. God crowns (v. 4)—They are crowned with gifts and a place to serve.
5. God satisfies (v. 5)—They feel satisfied and fulfilled as they live out their role.

⁶The LORD executes righteousness
And justice for all who are oppressed.

⁷He made known His ways to Moses,
His acts to the children of Israel.

⁸The LORD is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and abounding in mercy.

⁹He will not always strive with us,
Nor will He keep His anger forever.

¹⁰He has not dealt with us according to our sins,

Nor punished us according to our iniquities.

¹¹For as the heavens are high above the earth,
So great is His mercy toward those who fear Him;

¹²As far as the east is from the west,
So far has He removed our transgressions from us.

¹³As a father pities his children,
So the LORD pities those who fear Him.

¹⁴For He knows our frame;

He remembers that we are dust.

¹⁵*As for* man, his days are like grass;

As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.

¹⁶For the wind passes over it, and it is gone,

And its place remembers it no more.^a

¹⁷But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting

On those who fear Him,

And His righteousness to children's children,

¹⁸To such as keep His covenant,

And to those who remember His commandments to do them.

Natural Leadership vs. Spiritual Leadership

Psalm 103:13-18

Good leaders remember where they came from and who their source is—a memory that separates spiritual leaders from natural leaders.

God leads His people more like a parent than a boss. He maintains a vision of the big picture and sticks with the right priorities. While natural leaders display obvious leadership abilities, they often drift from this style of leadership. They tend to lean more on their gifts than on God. Consider the differences between the two types of leaders:

Natural Leader • Spiritual Leader

Self-confident • Confident in God (Ps. 56:9; 118:6)

Knows men • Knows God (John 10:14)

Makes own decisions • Seeks to find God's will (Rom. 12:2; Eph. 5:17)

Ambitious • Self-sacrificing (Matt. 20:25-28; Luke 9:23)

Originates own methods • Finds and follows God's methods (Ps. 40:8; 143:10)

Enjoys commanding others • Servant of all (Mark 10:42-45)

Motivated by self-interest • Motivated by love for God and man (1 John 4:7-21)

Independent • God-dependent (Is. 42:1; John 15:5)

Gets power through personality • Empowered by the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:8)

Cowboy driving the herd • Shepherd leading the flock (1 Pet. 5:2, 3)

¹⁹The LORD has established His throne in heaven,

And His kingdom rules over all.

²⁰Bless the LORD, you His angels,
Who excel in strength, who do His word,
Heeding the voice of His word.

²¹Bless the LORD, all you His hosts,
You ministers of His, who do His pleasure.

²²Bless the LORD, all His works,

In all places of His dominion.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

Psalm 104

Praise to the Sovereign LORD for His Creation and Providence

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD my God, You are very great:

You are clothed with honor and majesty,

²Who cover Yourself with light as with a garment,

Who stretch out the heavens like a curtain.

³He lays the beams of His upper chambers in the waters,

Who makes the clouds His chariot,

Who walks on the wings of the wind,

⁴Who makes His angels spirits,

His ministers a flame of fire.

⁵*You who* laid the foundations of the earth,

Leaders Are Stewards, Not Owners

Psalm 104:1-5

The earth belongs to the Lord, not to humankind.
Therefore, leaders should never act as if they own the place. While we can feel confident of our mission, we must remember we are stewards, not owners. We simply manage what He has established, based on His values and vision.

So that it should not be moved forever,
⁶You covered it with the deep as with a garment;
The waters stood above the mountains.
⁷At Your rebuke they fled;
At the voice of Your thunder they hastened away.
⁸They went up over the mountains;
They went down into the valleys,
To the place which You founded for them.
⁹You have set a boundary that they may not pass over,

That they may not return to cover the earth.

¹⁰He sends the springs into the valleys;
They flow among the hills.
¹¹They give drink to every beast of the field;
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
¹²By them the birds of the heavens have their home;
They sing among the branches.
¹³He waters the hills from His upper chambers;

The earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your works.

¹⁴He causes the grass to grow for the cattle,
And vegetation for the service of man,
That he may bring forth food from the earth,
¹⁵And wine that makes glad the heart of man,
Oil to make his face shine,

And bread which strengthens man's heart.

¹⁶The trees of the LORD are full of sap,
The cedars of Lebanon which He planted,

¹⁷Where the birds make their nests;
The stork has her home in the fir trees.

¹⁸The high hills are for the wild goats;

The cliffs are a refuge for the rock badgers. a

¹⁹He appointed the moon for seasons;
The sun knows its going down.

²⁰You make darkness, and it is night,
In which all the beasts of the forest creep about.

²¹The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their food from God.

²²*When* the sun rises, they gather together
And lie down in their dens.

²³Man goes out to his work

And to his labor until the evening.

²⁴O LORD, how manifold are Your works!
In wisdom You have made them all.
The earth is full of Your possessions—

²⁵This great and wide sea,
In which are innumerable teeming things,
Living things both small and great.

²⁶There the ships sail about;
There is that Leviathan

Which You have made to play there.

²⁷These all wait for You,
That You may give them their food in due season.

²⁸*What* You give them they gather in;

You open Your hand, they are filled with good.

²⁹You hide Your face, they are troubled;

You take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

³⁰You send forth Your Spirit, they are created;

And You renew the face of the earth.

³¹May the glory of the LORD endure forever;

May the LORD rejoice in His works.

³²He looks on the earth, and it trembles;

He touches the hills, and they smoke.

³³I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;

I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

³⁴May my meditation be sweet to Him;

I will be glad in the LORD.

³⁵May sinners be consumed from the earth,

And the wicked be no more.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 105

The Eternal Faithfulness of the LORD

Oh, give thanks to the LORD!

Call upon His name;

Make known His deeds among the peoples!

²Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him;

Talk of all His wondrous works!

³Glory in His holy name;

Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the LORD!

⁴Seek the LORD and His strength;

Seek His face evermore!

⁵Remember His marvelous works which He has done,

His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth,

⁶O seed of Abraham His servant,

You children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

⁷He is the LORD our God;

His judgments are in all the earth.

⁸He remembers His covenant forever,

The word which He commanded, for a thousand generations,

⁹*The covenant* which He made with Abraham,

And His oath to Isaac,

¹⁰And confirmed it to Jacob for a statute,

To Israel as an everlasting covenant,

¹¹Saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan
As the allotment of your inheritance,"

¹²When they were few in number,

Indeed very few, and strangers in it.

¹³When they went from one nation to another,
From one kingdom to another people,

¹⁴He permitted no one to do them wrong;
Yes, He rebuked kings for their sakes,

¹⁵*Saying*, "Do not touch My anointed ones,

And do My prophets no harm."

¹⁶Moreover He called for a famine in the land;
He destroyed all the provision of bread.

¹⁷He sent a man before them—
Joseph—who was sold as a slave.

¹⁸They hurt his feet with fetters,
He was laid in irons.

¹⁹Until the time that his word came to pass,
The word of the LORD tested him.

²⁰The king sent and released him,
The ruler of the people let him go free.

²¹He made him lord of his house,
And ruler of all his possessions,

²²To bind his princes at his pleasure,

And teach his elders wisdom.

²³Israel also came into Egypt,
And Jacob dwelt in the land of Ham.

²⁴He increased His people greatly,
And made them stronger than their enemies.

²⁵He turned their heart to hate His people,

To deal craftily with His servants.

²⁶He sent Moses His servant,
And Aaron whom He had chosen.

²⁷They performed His signs among them,
And wonders in the land of Ham.

²⁸He sent darkness, and made it dark;
And they did not rebel against His word.

²⁹He turned their waters into blood,
And killed their fish.

³⁰Their land abounded with frogs,
Even in the chambers of their kings.

³¹He spoke, and there came swarms of flies,
And lice in all their territory.

³²He gave them hail for rain,
And flaming fire in their land.

³³He struck their vines also, and their fig trees,
And splintered the trees of their territory.

³⁴He spoke, and locusts came,
Young locusts without number,

³⁵And ate up all the vegetation in their land,
And devoured the fruit of their ground.

³⁶He also destroyed all the firstborn in their land,

The first of all their strength.

³⁷He also brought them out with silver and gold,
And there was none feeble among His tribes.

³⁸Egypt was glad when they departed,
For the fear of them had fallen upon them.

³⁹He spread a cloud for a covering,
And fire to give light in the night.

⁴⁰*The people* asked, and He brought quail,
And satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

⁴¹He opened the rock, and water gushed out;

It ran in the dry places like a river.

⁴²For He remembered His holy promise,
And Abraham His servant.

⁴³He brought out His people with joy,
His chosen ones with gladness.

⁴⁴He gave them the lands of the Gentiles,
And they inherited the labor of the nations,

⁴⁵That they might observe His statutes

And keep His laws.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 106

Joy in Forgiveness of Israel's Sins

Praise the LORD!

Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!

For His mercy endures forever.

²Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD?
Who can declare all His praise?

³Blessed are those who keep justice,

And he who does ^arighteousness at all times!

⁴Remember me, O LORD, with the favor You have toward Your people.

Oh, visit me with Your salvation,

⁵That I may see the benefit of Your chosen ones,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation,

That I may glory with Your inheritance.

⁶We have sinned with our fathers,
We have committed iniquity,
We have done wickedly.

⁷Our fathers in Egypt did not understand Your wonders;

They did not remember the multitude of Your mercies,

But rebelled by the sea—the Red Sea.

⁸Nevertheless He saved them for His name's sake,
That He might make His mighty power known.

⁹He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it dried up;
So He led them through the depths,
As through the wilderness.

¹⁰He saved them from the hand of him who hated
them,

And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

¹¹The waters covered their enemies;
There was not one of them left.

¹²Then they believed His words;

They sang His praise.

¹³They soon forgot His works;

They did not wait for His counsel,

¹⁴But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness,
And tested God in the desert.

¹⁵And He gave them their request,

But sent leanness into their soul.

¹⁶When they envied Moses in the camp,
And Aaron the saint of the LORD,

¹⁷The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan,
And covered the faction of Abiram.

¹⁸A fire was kindled in their company;

The flame burned up the wicked.

¹⁹They made a calf in Horeb,

And worshiped the molded image.
20Thus they changed their glory
Into the image of an ox that eats grass.
21They forgot God their Savior,
Who had done great things in Egypt,
22Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
Awesome things by the Red Sea.
23Therefore He said that He would destroy them,
Had not Moses His chosen one stood before Him in the breach,

To turn away His wrath, lest He destroy them.

24Then they despised the pleasant land;
They did not believe His word,
25But complained in their tents,
And did not heed the voice of the LORD.
26Therefore He raised His hand in an oath against
them,
To overthrow them in the wilderness,
27To overthrow their descendants among the nations,

And to scatter them in the lands.

28They joined themselves also to Baal of Peor,
And ate sacrifices made to the dead.
29Thus they provoked Him to anger with their deeds,
And the plague broke out among them.
30Then Phinehas stood up and intervened,
And the plague was stopped.
31And that was accounted to him for righteousness

To all generations forevermore.

³²They angered Him also at the waters of strife,^a
So that it went ill with Moses on account of them;
³³Because they rebelled against His Spirit,

So that he spoke rashly with his lips.

³⁴They did not destroy the peoples,
Concerning whom the LORD had commanded them,

³⁵But they mingled with the Gentiles
And learned their works;

³⁶They served their idols,
Which became a snare to them.

³⁷They even sacrificed their sons
And their daughters to demons,

³⁸And shed innocent blood,
The blood of their sons and daughters,
Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
And the land was polluted with blood.

³⁹Thus they were defiled by their own works,

And played the harlot by their own deeds.

⁴⁰Therefore the wrath of the LORD was kindled
against His people,

So that He abhorred His own inheritance.

⁴¹And He gave them into the hand of the Gentiles,
And those who hated them ruled over them.

⁴²Their enemies also oppressed them,
And they were brought into subjection under their hand.

⁴³Many times He delivered them;
But they rebelled in their counsel,

And were brought low for their iniquity.

⁴⁴Nevertheless He regarded their affliction,
When He heard their cry;

⁴⁵And for their sake He remembered His covenant,
And relented according to the multitude of His mercies.

⁴⁶He also made them to be pitied

By all those who carried them away captive.

⁴⁷Save us, O LORD our God,
And gather us from among the Gentiles,
To give thanks to Your holy name,

To triumph in Your praise.

⁴⁸Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!

And let all the people say, "Amen!"

Praise the LORD!

BOOK FIVE: Psalms 107—150

Psalm 107

Thanksgiving to the LORD for His Great Works of Deliverance

Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.

²Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
Whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy,

³And gathered out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,

From the north and from the south.

⁴They wandered in the wilderness in a desolate way;
They found no city to dwell in.

⁵Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.

⁶Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He delivered them out of their distresses.

⁷And He led them forth by the right way,
That they might go to a city for a dwelling place.

⁸Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,

And for His wonderful works to the children of men!

⁹For He satisfies the longing soul,

And fills the hungry soul with goodness.

¹⁰Those who sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,

Bound in affliction and irons—

¹¹Because they rebelled against the words of God,
And despised the counsel of the Most High,

¹²Therefore He brought down their heart with labor;
They fell down, and there was none to help.

¹³Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He saved them out of their distresses.

¹⁴He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,

And broke their chains in pieces.

¹⁵Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for
His goodness,

And for His wonderful works to the children of men!

¹⁶For He has broken the gates of bronze,

And cut the bars of iron in two.

¹⁷Fools, because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities, were afflicted.

¹⁸Their soul abhorred all manner of food,
And they drew near to the gates of death.

¹⁹Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He saved them out of their distresses.

²⁰He sent His word and healed them,
And delivered them from their destructions.

²¹Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for
His goodness,

And for His wonderful works to the children of men!

²²Let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving,

And declare His works with rejoicing.

²³Those who go down to the sea in ships,

Who do business on great waters,
24 They see the works of the LORD,
And His wonders in the deep.
25 For He commands and raises the stormy wind,
Which lifts up the waves of the sea.
26 They mount up to the heavens,
They go down again to the depths;
Their soul melts because of trouble.
27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken
man,
And are at their wits' end.
28 Then they cry out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He brings them out of their distresses.
29 He calms the storm,
So that its waves are still.
30 Then they are glad because they are quiet;
So He guides them to their desired haven.
31 Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for
His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
32 Let them exalt Him also in the assembly of the people,

And praise Him in the company of the elders.

33 He turns rivers into a wilderness,
And the watersprings into dry ground;
34 A fruitful land into barrenness,
For the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
35 He turns a wilderness into pools of water,
And dry land into watersprings.
36 There He makes the hungry dwell,
That they may establish a city for a dwelling place,
37 And sow fields and plant vineyards,
That they may yield a fruitful harvest.

³⁸He also blesses them, and they multiply greatly;

And He does not let their cattle decrease.

³⁹When they are diminished and brought low
Through oppression, affliction, and sorrow,

⁴⁰He pours contempt on princes,
And causes them to wander in the wilderness where there is no way;

⁴¹Yet He sets the poor on high, far from affliction,
And makes their families like a flock.

⁴²The righteous see it and rejoice,

And all iniquity stops its mouth.

⁴³Whoever is wise will observe these things,

And they will understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Psalm 108

Assurance of God's Victory over Enemies

A Song. A Psalm of David.

O God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.
²Awake, lute and harp!
I will awaken the dawn.
³I will praise You, O LORD, among the peoples,
And I will sing praises to You among the nations.
⁴For Your mercy is great above the heavens,

And Your truth reaches to the clouds.

⁵Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
And Your glory above all the earth;
⁶That Your beloved may be delivered,

Save with Your right hand, and hear me.

⁷God has spoken in His holiness:
"I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem
And measure out the Valley of Succoth.
⁸Gilead is Mine; Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim also is the helmet for My head;

Judah is My lawgiver.

⁹Moab is My washpot;

Over Edom I will cast My shoe;

Over Philistia I will triumph.”

¹⁰Who will bring me into the strong city?

Who will lead me to Edom?

¹¹*Is it* not You, O God, who cast us off?

And You, O God, who did not go out with our armies?

¹²Give us help from trouble,

For the help of man is useless.

¹³Through God we will do valiantly,

For it is He who shall tread down our enemies.a

Psalm 109

Plea for Judgment of False Accusers

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

Do not keep silent,
O God of my praise!

²For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful

Have opened against me;
They have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

³They have also surrounded me with words of hatred,

And fought against me without a cause.

⁴In return for my love they are my accusers,
But I give myself to prayer.

⁵Thus they have rewarded me evil for good,

And hatred for my love.

⁶Set a wicked man over him,
And let an accuser^a stand at his right hand.

⁷When he is judged, let him be found guilty,
And let his prayer become sin.

⁸Let his days be few,
And let another take his office.

⁹Let his children be fatherless,
And his wife a widow.

^{10a} Let his children continually be vagabonds, and beg;

Let them seek their breada also from their desolate places.

¹¹Let the creditor seize all that he has,
And let strangers plunder his labor.

¹²Let there be none to extend mercy to him,
Nor let there be any to favor his fatherless children.

¹³Let his posterity be cut off,

And in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

¹⁴Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered
before the LORD,

And let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

¹⁵Let them be continually before the LORD,
That He may cut off the memory of them from the earth;

¹⁶Because he did not remember to show mercy,
But persecuted the poor and needy man,
That he might even slay the broken in heart.

¹⁷As he loved cursing, so let it come to him;
As he did not delight in blessing, so let it be far from him.

¹⁸As he clothed himself with cursing as with his garment,

So let it enter his body like water,
And like oil into his bones.

¹⁹Let it be to him like the garment which covers him,
And for a belt with which he girds himself continually.

²⁰*Let this be* the LORD's reward to my accusers,

And to those who speak evil against my person.

²¹But You, O GOD the Lord,
Deal with me for Your name's sake;
Because Your mercy is good, deliver me.

²²For I am poor and needy,
And my heart is wounded within me.

²³I am gone like a shadow when it lengthens;
I am shaken off like a locust.

²⁴My knees are weak through fasting,
And my flesh is feeble from lack of fatness.

²⁵I also have become a reproach to them;

When they look at me, they shake their heads.

²⁶Help me, O LORD my God!

Oh, save me according to Your mercy,

²⁷That they may know that this is Your hand—
That You, LORD, have done it!

²⁸Let them curse, but You bless;
When they arise, let them be ashamed,
But let Your servant rejoice.

²⁹Let my accusers be clothed with shame,

And let them cover themselves with their own disgrace as with a mantle.

³⁰I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth;
Yes, I will praise Him among the multitude.

³¹For He shall stand at the right hand of the poor,

To save him from those who condemn him.

Psalm 110

Announcement of the Messiah's Reign

A Psalm of David.

The LORD said to my Lord,
“Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your footstool.”

²The LORD shall send the rod of Your strength out of Zion.

Rule in the midst of Your enemies!

³Your people shall be volunteers
In the day of Your power;
In the beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning,
You have the dew of Your youth.

⁴The LORD has sworn
And will not relent,
“You are a priest forever

According to the order of Melchizedek.”

⁵The Lord is at Your right hand;
He shall execute kings in the day of His wrath.

⁶He shall judge among the nations,
He shall fill the places with dead bodies,
He shall execute the heads of many countries.

⁷He shall drink of the brook by the wayside;
Therefore He shall lift up the head.

Psalm 111

Praise to God for His Faithfulness and Justice

Praise the LORD!

I will praise the LORD with my whole heart,

In the assembly of the upright and in the congregation.

²The works of the LORD are great,
Studied by all who have pleasure in them.

³His work is honorable and glorious,
And His righteousness endures forever.

⁴He has made His wonderful works to be remembered;

The LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

⁵He has given food to those who fear Him;
He will ever be mindful of His covenant.

⁶He has declared to His people the power of His works,

In giving them the heritage of the nations.

⁷The works of His hands are verity and justice;
All His precepts are sure.

⁸They stand fast forever and ever,

And are done in truth and uprightness.

⁹He has sent redemption to His people;
He has commanded His covenant forever:

Holy and awesome is His name.

¹⁰The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
A good understanding have all those who do His commandments.

His praise endures forever.

Psalm 112

The Blessed State of the Righteous

Praise the LORD!

Blessed is the man who fears the LORD,

Who delights greatly in His commandments.

²His descendants will be mighty on earth;
The generation of the upright will be blessed.

³Wealth and riches will be in his house,
And his righteousness endures forever.

⁴Unto the upright there arises light in the darkness;
He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

⁵A good man deals graciously and lends;
He will guide his affairs with discretion.

⁶Surely he will never be shaken;
The righteous will be in everlasting remembrance.

⁷He will not be afraid of evil tidings;
His heart is steadfast, trusting in the LORD.

⁸His heart is established;
He will not be afraid,

Until he sees his desire upon his enemies.

⁹He has dispersed abroad,
He has given to the poor;

His righteousness endures forever;
His horn will be exalted with honor.
¹⁰The wicked will see it and be grieved;
He will gnash his teeth and melt away;
The desire of the wicked shall perish.

Psalm 113

The Majesty and Condescension of God

Praise the LORD!

Praise, O servants of the LORD,
Praise the name of the LORD!

²Blessed be the name of the LORD
From this time forth and forevermore!

³From the rising of the sun to its going down

The LORD's name is to be praised.

⁴The LORD is high above all nations,
His glory above the heavens.

⁵Who is like the LORD our God,
Who dwells on high,

⁶Who humbles Himself to behold

The things that are in the heavens and in the earth?

⁷He raises the poor out of the dust,
And lifts the needy out of the ash heap,

⁸That He may seat him with princes—
With the princes of His people.

⁹He grants the barren woman a home,

Like a joyful mother of children.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 114

The Power of God in His Deliverance of Israel

When Israel went out of Egypt,
The house of Jacob from a people of strange language,

²Judah became His sanctuary,

And Israel His dominion.

³The sea saw it and fled;
Jordan turned back.

⁴The mountains skipped like rams,
The little hills like lambs.

⁵What ails you, O sea, that you fled?
O Jordan, that you turned back?

⁶O mountains, that you skipped like rams?

O little hills, like lambs?

⁷Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
At the presence of the God of Jacob,

⁸Who turned the rock into a pool of water,

The flint into a fountain of waters.

Psalm 115

The Futility of Idols and the Trustworthiness of God

Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us,
But to Your name give glory,
Because of Your mercy,
Because of Your truth.

²Why should the Gentiles say,

“So where is their God?”

³But our God is in heaven;
He does whatever He pleases.

⁴Their idols are silver and gold,
The work of men’s hands.

⁵They have mouths, but they do not speak;
Eyes they have, but they do not see;

⁶They have ears, but they do not hear;
Noses they have, but they do not smell;

⁷They have hands, but they do not handle;
Feet they have, but they do not walk;
Nor do they mutter through their throat.

⁸Those who make them are like them;

So is everyone who trusts in them.

⁹O Israel, trust in the LORD;

He is their help and their shield.

¹⁰O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD;

He is their help and their shield.

¹¹You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD;

He is their help and their shield.

¹²The LORD has been mindful of us;

He will bless us;

He will bless the house of Israel;

He will bless the house of Aaron.

¹³He will bless those who fear the LORD,

Both small and great.

¹⁴May the LORD give you increase more and more,
You and your children.

¹⁵*May* you be blessed by the LORD,

Who made heaven and earth.

¹⁶The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's;
But the earth He has given to the children of men.

¹⁷The dead do not praise the LORD,
Nor any who go down into silence.

¹⁸But we will bless the LORD

From this time forth and forevermore.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 116

Thanksgiving for Deliverance from Death

I love the LORD, because He has heard
My voice and my supplications.

²Because He has inclined His ear to me,

Therefore I will call upon Him as long as I live.

³The pains of death surrounded me,
And the pangs of Sheol laid hold of me;
I found trouble and sorrow.

⁴Then I called upon the name of the LORD:

“O LORD, I implore You, deliver my soul!”

⁵Gracious is the LORD, and righteous;
Yes, our God is merciful.

⁶The LORD preserves the simple;
I was brought low, and He saved me.

⁷Return to your rest, O my soul,

For the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.

⁸For You have delivered my soul from death,
My eyes from tears,
And my feet from falling.

⁹I will walk before the LORD
In the land of the living.

¹⁰I believed, therefore I spoke,
“I am greatly afflicted.”

¹¹I said in my haste,

“All men are liars.”

¹²What shall I render to the LORD
For all His benefits toward me?

¹³I will take up the cup of salvation,
And call upon the name of the LORD.

¹⁴I will pay my vows to the LORD

Now in the presence of all His people.

¹⁵Precious in the sight of the LORD

Is the death of His saints.

¹⁶O LORD, truly I am Your servant;
I am Your servant, the son of Your maidservant;
You have loosed my bonds.

¹⁷I will offer to You the sacrifice of thanksgiving,

And will call upon the name of the LORD.

¹⁸I will pay my vows to the LORD
Now in the presence of all His people,

¹⁹In the courts of the LORD’s house,

In the midst of you, O Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 117

Let All Peoples Praise the LORD

Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles!

Laud Him, all you peoples!

²For His merciful kindness is great toward us,

And the truth of the LORD endures forever.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 118

Praise to God for His Everlasting Mercy

Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!

For His mercy endures forever.

²Let Israel now say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

³Let the house of Aaron now say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

⁴Let those who fear the LORD now say,

“His mercy endures forever.”

⁵I called on the LORD in distress;
The LORD answered me and set me in a broad place.

⁶The LORD is on my side;
I will not fear.

What can man do to me?

⁷The LORD is for me among those who help me;
Therefore I shall see my desire on those who hate
me.

⁸*It is* better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in man.

⁹*It is* better to trust in the LORD

Than to put confidence in princes.

¹⁰All nations surrounded me,
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

¹¹They surrounded me,
Yes, they surrounded me;
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

¹²They surrounded me like bees;
They were quenched like a fire of thorns;
For in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

¹³You pushed me violently, that I might fall,
But the LORD helped me.

¹⁴The LORD is my strength and song,

And He has become my salvation. a

¹⁵The voice of rejoicing and salvation
Is in the tents of the righteous;
The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.

¹⁶The right hand of the LORD is exalted;
The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.

¹⁷I shall not die, but live,
And declare the works of the LORD.

¹⁸The LORD has chastened me severely,

But He has not given me over to death.

¹⁹Open to me the gates of righteousness;
I will go through them,
And I will praise the LORD.

²⁰This is the gate of the LORD,

Through which the righteous shall enter.

²¹I will praise You,
For You have answered me,

And have become my salvation.

²²The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone.

²³This was the LORD's doing;
It is marvelous in our eyes.

²⁴This is the day the LORD has made;

We will rejoice and be glad in it.

²⁵Save now, I pray, O LORD;
O LORD, I pray, send now prosperity.

²⁶Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD!
We have blessed you from the house of the LORD.

²⁷God is the LORD,
And He has given us light;
Bind the sacrifice with cords to the horns of the altar.

²⁸You are my God, and I will praise You;

You are my God, I will exalt You.

²⁹Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!

For His mercy endures forever.

Psalm 119

Meditations on the Excellencies of the Word of God

ALEPH

Blessed are the undefiled in the way,
Who walk in the law of the LORD!

²Blessed are those who keep His testimonies,
Who seek Him with the whole heart!

³They also do no iniquity;
They walk in His ways.

⁴You have commanded us
To keep Your precepts diligently.

⁵Oh, that my ways were directed
To keep Your statutes!

⁶Then I would not be ashamed,
When I look into all Your commandments.

⁷I will praise You with uprightness of heart,
When I learn Your righteous judgments.

⁸I will keep Your statutes;

Oh, do not forsake me utterly!

BETH

⁹How can a young man cleanse his way?
By taking heed according to Your word.
¹⁰With my whole heart I have sought You;
Oh, let me not wander from Your commandments!
¹¹Your word I have hidden in my heart,
That I might not sin against You.
¹²Blessed are You, O LORD!
Teach me Your statutes.
¹³With my lips I have declared
All the judgments of Your mouth.
¹⁴I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies,
As much as in all riches.
¹⁵I will meditate on Your precepts,
And contemplate Your ways.
¹⁶I will delight myself in Your statutes;

I will not forget Your word.

GIMEL

¹⁷Deal bountifully with Your servant,
That I may live and keep Your word.
¹⁸Open my eyes, that I may see
Wondrous things from Your law.
¹⁹I am a stranger in the earth;
Do not hide Your commandments from me.
²⁰My soul breaks with longing
For Your judgments at all times.
²¹You rebuke the proud—the cursed,
Who stray from Your commandments.
²²Remove from me reproach and contempt,
For I have kept Your testimonies.
²³Princes also sit and speak against me,

But Your servant meditates on Your statutes.

²⁴Your testimonies also are my delight

And my counselors.

DALETH

²⁵My soul clings to the dust;

Revive me according to Your word.

²⁶I have declared my ways, and You answered me;
Teach me Your statutes.

²⁷Make me understand the way of Your precepts;
So shall I meditate on Your wonderful works.

²⁸My soul melts from heaviness;
Strengthen me according to Your word.

²⁹Remove from me the way of lying,
And grant me Your law graciously.

³⁰I have chosen the way of truth;
Your judgments I have laid before me.

³¹I cling to Your testimonies;
O LORD, do not put me to shame!

³²I will run the course of Your commandments,

For You shall enlarge my heart.

HE

³³Teach me, O LORD, the way of Your statutes,
And I shall keep it to the end.

³⁴Give me understanding, and I shall keep Your law;
Indeed, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

³⁵Make me walk in the path of Your commandments,
For I delight in it.

³⁶Incline my heart to Your testimonies,
And not to covetousness.

³⁷Turn away my eyes from looking at worthless
things,

And revive me in Your way.^a

³⁸Establish Your word to Your servant,
Who is devoted to fearing You.

³⁹Turn away my reproach which I dread,
For Your judgments are good.

⁴⁰Behold, I long for Your precepts;

Revive me in Your righteousness.

WAW

⁴¹Let Your mercies come also to me, O LORD—
Your salvation according to Your word.

⁴²So shall I have an answer for him who reproaches
me,

For I trust in Your word.

⁴³And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth,

For I have hoped in Your ordinances.

⁴⁴So shall I keep Your law continually,
Forever and ever.

⁴⁵And I will walk at liberty,
For I seek Your precepts.

⁴⁶I will speak of Your testimonies also before kings,
And will not be ashamed.

⁴⁷And I will delight myself in Your commandments,
Which I love.

⁴⁸My hands also I will lift up to Your commandments,
Which I love,

And I will meditate on Your statutes.

ZAYIN

⁴⁹Remember the word to Your servant,
Upon which You have caused me to hope.

⁵⁰This is my comfort in my affliction,
For Your word has given me life.

⁵¹The proud have me in great derision,
Yet I do not turn aside from Your law.

⁵²I remembered Your judgments of old, O LORD,
And have comforted myself.

⁵³Indignation has taken hold of me
Because of the wicked, who forsake Your law.

⁵⁴Your statutes have been my songs
In the house of my pilgrimage.

⁵⁵I remember Your name in the night, O LORD,
And I keep Your law.

⁵⁶This has become mine,

Because I kept Your precepts.

HETH

⁵⁷*You are* my portion, O LORD;
I have said that I would keep Your words.

⁵⁸I entreated Your favor with my whole heart;
Be merciful to me according to Your word.

⁵⁹I thought about my ways,
And turned my feet to Your testimonies.

⁶⁰I made haste, and did not delay
To keep Your commandments.

⁶¹The cords of the wicked have bound me,

But I have not forgotten Your law.

⁶²At midnight I will rise to give thanks to You,
Because of Your righteous judgments.

⁶³I am a companion of all who fear You,
And of those who keep Your precepts.

⁶⁴The earth, O LORD, is full of Your mercy;

Teach me Your statutes.

TETH

⁶⁵You have dealt well with Your servant,
O LORD, according to Your word.

⁶⁶Teach me good judgment and knowledge,
For I believe Your commandments.

⁶⁷Before I was afflicted I went astray,
But now I keep Your word.

⁶⁸You are good, and do good;
Teach me Your statutes.

⁶⁹The proud have forged a lie against me,
But I will keep Your precepts with my whole heart.

⁷⁰Their heart is as fat as grease,
But I delight in Your law.

⁷¹*It is* good for me that I have been afflicted,
That I may learn Your statutes.

⁷²The law of Your mouth is better to me

Than thousands of coins of gold and silver.

YOD

⁷³Your hands have made me and fashioned me;

Give me understanding, that I may learn Your commandments.

⁷⁴Those who fear You will be glad when they see me,
Because I have hoped in Your word.

⁷⁵I know, O LORD, that Your judgments are right,
And that in faithfulness You have afflicted me.

⁷⁶Let, I pray, Your merciful kindness be for my comfort,

According to Your word to Your servant.

⁷⁷Let Your tender mercies come to me, that I may live;

For Your law is my delight.

⁷⁸Let the proud be ashamed,
For they treated me wrongfully with falsehood;
But I will meditate on Your precepts.

⁷⁹Let those who fear You turn to me,
Those who know Your testimonies.

⁸⁰Let my heart be blameless regarding Your statutes,

That I may not be ashamed.

KAPH

⁸¹My soul faints for Your salvation,
But I hope in Your word.

⁸²My eyes fail from searching Your word,
Saying, "When will You comfort me?"

⁸³For I have become like a wineskin in smoke,
Yet I do not forget Your statutes.

⁸⁴How many are the days of Your servant?
When will You execute judgment on those who persecute me?

⁸⁵The proud have dug pits for me,
Which is not according to Your law.

⁸⁶All Your commandments are faithful;
They persecute me wrongfully;
Help me!
⁸⁷They almost made an end of me on earth,
But I did not forsake Your precepts.
⁸⁸Revive me according to Your lovingkindness,

So that I may keep the testimony of Your mouth.

LAMED

⁸⁹Forever, O LORD,
Your word is settled in heaven.
⁹⁰Your faithfulness endures to all generations;
You established the earth, and it abides.
⁹¹They continue this day according to Your ordinances,
For all are Your servants.
⁹²Unless Your law had been my delight,
I would then have perished in my affliction.
⁹³I will never forget Your precepts,
For by them You have given me life.
⁹⁴I am Yours, save me;
For I have sought Your precepts.
⁹⁵The wicked wait for me to destroy me,
But I will consider Your testimonies.
⁹⁶I have seen the consummation of all perfection,

But Your commandment is exceedingly broad.

MEM

⁹⁷Oh, how I love Your law!

It is my meditation all the day.

⁹⁸You, through Your commandments, make me wiser than my enemies;

For they are ever with me.

⁹⁹I have more understanding than all my teachers,
For Your testimonies are my meditation.

¹⁰⁰I understand more than the ancients,
Because I keep Your precepts.

¹⁰¹I have restrained my feet from every evil way,
That I may keep Your word.

¹⁰²I have not departed from Your judgments,
For You Yourself have taught me.

¹⁰³How sweet are Your words to my taste,
Sweeter than honey to my mouth!

¹⁰⁴Through Your precepts I get understanding;

Therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

¹⁰⁵Your word is a lamp to my feet
And a light to my path.

¹⁰⁶I have sworn and confirmed
That I will keep Your righteous judgments.

¹⁰⁷I am afflicted very much;
Revive me, O LORD, according to Your word.

¹⁰⁸Accept, I pray, the freewill offerings of my mouth,
O LORD,

And teach me Your judgments.

¹⁰⁹My life is continually in my hand,
Yet I do not forget Your law.

¹¹⁰The wicked have laid a snare for me,
Yet I have not strayed from Your precepts.

¹¹¹Your testimonies I have taken as a heritage
forever,

For they are the rejoicing of my heart.

¹¹²I have inclined my heart to perform Your statutes

Forever, to the very end.

SAMEK

¹¹³I hate the double-minded,

But I love Your law.

¹¹⁴You are my hiding place and my shield;

I hope in Your word.

¹¹⁵Depart from me, you evildoers,

For I will keep the commandments of my God!

¹¹⁶Uphold me according to Your word, that I may live;

And do not let me be ashamed of my hope.

¹¹⁷Hold me up, and I shall be safe,

And I shall observe Your statutes continually.

¹¹⁸You reject all those who stray from Your statutes,

For their deceit is falsehood.

¹¹⁹You put away all the wicked of the earth like
dross;

Therefore I love Your testimonies.

¹²⁰My flesh trembles for fear of You,

And I am afraid of Your judgments.

AYIN

¹²¹I have done justice and righteousness;

Do not leave me to my oppressors.

¹²²Be surety for Your servant for good;
Do not let the proud oppress me.
¹²³My eyes fail from seeking Your salvation
And Your righteous word.
¹²⁴Deal with Your servant according to Your mercy,
And teach me Your statutes.
¹²⁵I am Your servant;
Give me understanding,
That I may know Your testimonies.
¹²⁶*It is* time for You to act, O LORD,
For they have regarded Your law as void.
¹²⁷Therefore I love Your commandments
More than gold, yes, than fine gold!
¹²⁸Therefore all Your precepts concerning all things
I consider to be right;

I hate every false way.

PE

¹²⁹Your testimonies are wonderful;
Therefore my soul keeps them.
¹³⁰The entrance of Your words gives light;
It gives understanding to the simple.
¹³¹I opened my mouth and panted,
For I longed for Your commandments.
¹³²Look upon me and be merciful to me,
As Your custom is toward those who love Your name.
¹³³Direct my steps by Your word,
And let no iniquity have dominion over me.
¹³⁴Redeem me from the oppression of man,
That I may keep Your precepts.
¹³⁵Make Your face shine upon Your servant,
And teach me Your statutes.

¹³⁶Rivers of water run down from my eyes,
Because men do not keep Your law.

TSADDE

¹³⁷Righteous are You, O LORD,
And upright are Your judgments.
¹³⁸Your testimonies, which You have commanded,
Are righteous and very faithful.
¹³⁹My zeal has consumed me,
Because my enemies have forgotten Your words.
¹⁴⁰Your word is very pure;
Therefore Your servant loves it.
¹⁴¹I am small and despised,
Yet I do not forget Your precepts.
¹⁴²Your righteousness is an everlasting
righteousness,
And Your law is truth.
¹⁴³Trouble and anguish have overtaken me,
Yet Your commandments are my delights.
¹⁴⁴The righteousness of Your testimonies is everlasting;

Give me understanding, and I shall live.

QOPH

¹⁴⁵I cry out with my whole heart;
Hear me, O LORD!
I will keep Your statutes.
¹⁴⁶I cry out to You;
Save me, and I will keep Your testimonies.

¹⁴⁷I rise before the dawning of the morning,
And cry for help;
I hope in Your word.

¹⁴⁸My eyes are awake through the night watches,
That I may meditate on Your word.

¹⁴⁹Hear my voice according to Your lovingkindness;
O LORD, revive me according to Your justice.

¹⁵⁰They draw near who follow after wickedness;
They are far from Your law.

¹⁵¹You are near, O LORD,
And all Your commandments are truth.

¹⁵²Concerning Your testimonies,

I have known of old that You have founded them forever.

RESH

¹⁵³Consider my affliction and deliver me,
For I do not forget Your law.

¹⁵⁴Plead my cause and redeem me;
Revive me according to Your word.

¹⁵⁵Salvation is far from the wicked,
For they do not seek Your statutes.

¹⁵⁶Great are Your tender mercies, O LORD;
Revive me according to Your judgments.

¹⁵⁷Many are my persecutors and my enemies,
Yet I do not turn from Your testimonies.

¹⁵⁸I see the treacherous, and am disgusted,
Because they do not keep Your word.

¹⁵⁹Consider how I love Your precepts;
Revive me, O LORD, according to Your lovingkindness.

¹⁶⁰The entirety of Your word is truth,

And every one of Your righteous judgments endures forever.

SHIN

¹⁶¹Princes persecute me without a cause,
But my heart stands in awe of Your word.

¹⁶²I rejoice at Your word
As one who finds great treasure.

¹⁶³I hate and abhor lying,
But I love Your law.

¹⁶⁴Seven times a day I praise You,
Because of Your righteous judgments.

¹⁶⁵Great peace have those who love Your law,
And nothing causes them to stumble.

¹⁶⁶LORD, I hope for Your salvation,
And I do Your commandments.

¹⁶⁷My soul keeps Your testimonies,
And I love them exceedingly.

¹⁶⁸I keep Your precepts and Your testimonies,

For all my ways are before You.

TAU

¹⁶⁹Let my cry come before You, O LORD;
Give me understanding according to Your word.

¹⁷⁰Let my supplication come before You;
Deliver me according to Your word.

¹⁷¹My lips shall utter praise,
For You teach me Your statutes.

¹⁷²My tongue shall speak of Your word,
For all Your commandments are righteousness.

¹⁷³Let Your hand become my help,
For I have chosen Your precepts.
¹⁷⁴I long for Your salvation, O LORD,
And Your law is my delight.
¹⁷⁵Let my soul live, and it shall praise You;
And let Your judgments help me.
¹⁷⁶I have gone astray like a lost sheep;

Leaders Cannot Show the Way Until They Know the Way

Psalm 119:1-176

The longest psalm in the Bible is a song about the priority of the Word of God. For 176 verses, Psalm 119 holds high the words and wisdom of God and convinces us to treasure it more than anything else in life.

Why is this challenge so crucial for us? Leaders in our world face two realities:

1. Change happens faster than ever, so leaders must remain adaptable.
2. We need timeless values more than ever, so leaders must remain principle-driven.

Psalm 119 provides a roadmap for getting the wisdom, values, and principles we need to lead effectively. Consider what Psalm 119 teaches about adopting God's Word as our source for leadership principles. Our leadership will...

1. be blessed (vv. 1, 2)
2. remain pure and ethical (vv. 9-11)
3. be strengthened and revitalized (vv. 28, 149, 154-159)

4. insightfully answer criticism (v. 42)
5. enjoy liberty (v. 45)
6. gain wise counsel when needed (v. 66)
7. remain steady even when afflicted (vv. 67-72, 92)
8. display more insight than our teachers (vv. 99, 100)
9. be enlightened and intuitive (vv. 105, 130)
10. have a reliable guide even for new issues (vv. 129, 160)
11. enjoy inward peace and poise (v. 165)
12. get divine help (vv. 173-175)

Seek Your servant,

For I do not forget Your commandments.

Psalm 120

Plea for Relief from Bitter Foes

A Song of Ascents.

In my distress I cried to the LORD,
And He heard me.

²Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips

And from a deceitful tongue.

³What shall be given to you,
Or what shall be done to you,
You false tongue?

⁴Sharp arrows of the warrior,

With coals of the broom tree!

⁵Woe is me, that I dwell in Meshech,
That I dwell among the tents of Kedar!

⁶My soul has dwelt too long
With one who hates peace.

⁷I am for peace;

But when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

God the Help of Those Who Seek Him

A Song of Ascents.

I will lift up my eyes to the hills—
From whence comes my help?

²My help comes from the LORD,

Who made heaven and earth.

³He will not allow your foot to be moved;
He who keeps you will not slumber.

⁴Behold, He who keeps Israel

Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

⁵The LORD is your keeper;
The LORD is your shade at your right hand.

⁶The sun shall not strike you by day,

Nor the moon by night.

⁷The LORD shall preserve you from all evil;
He shall preserve your soul.

⁸The LORD shall preserve your going out and your coming in

From this time forth, and even forevermore.

Psalm 122

The Joy of Going to the House of the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

I was glad when they said to me,
“Let us go into the house of the LORD.”

²Our feet have been standing

Within your gates, O Jerusalem!

³Jerusalem is built
As a city that is compact together,
⁴Where the tribes go up,
The tribes of the LORD,
To the Testimony of Israel,
To give thanks to the name of the LORD.

⁵For thrones are set there for judgment,

The thrones of the house of David.

⁶Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
“May they prosper who love you.

⁷Peace be within your walls,
Prosperity within your palaces.”

⁸For the sake of my brethren and companions,
I will now say, “Peace be within you.”

⁹Because of the house of the LORD our God
I will seek your good.

Psalm 123

Prayer for Relief from Contempt

A Song of Ascents.

Unto You I lift up my eyes,
O You who dwell in the heavens.

²Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters,

As the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,
So our eyes look to the LORD our God,

Until He has mercy on us.

³Have mercy on us, O LORD, have mercy on us!
For we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

⁴Our soul is exceedingly filled
With the scorn of those who are at ease,

With the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

The LORD the Defense of His People

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

“If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,”
Let Israel now say—

²“If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
When men rose up against us,

³Then they would have swallowed us alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us;

⁴Then the waters would have overwhelmed us,
The stream would have gone over our soul;

⁵Then the swollen waters

Would have gone over our soul.”

⁶Blessed be the LORD,
Who has not given us as prey to their teeth.

⁷Our soul has escaped as a bird from the snare of the fowlers;^a

The snare is broken, and we have escaped.

⁸Our help is in the name of the LORD,

Who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

The LORD the Strength of His People

A Song of Ascents.

Those who trust in the LORD
Are like Mount Zion,
Which cannot be moved, but abides forever.

²As the mountains surround Jerusalem,
So the LORD surrounds His people

From this time forth and forever.

³For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest
On the land allotted to the righteous,

Lest the righteous reach out their hands to iniquity.

⁴Do good, O LORD, to those who are good,

And to those who are upright in their hearts.

⁵As for such as turn aside to their crooked ways,
The LORD shall lead them away

With the workers of iniquity.

Peace be upon Israel!

Psalm 126

A Joyful Return to Zion

A Song of Ascents.

When the LORD brought back the captivity of Zion,
We were like those who dream.

²Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
And our tongue with singing.

Then they said among the nations,
“The LORD has done great things for them.”

³The LORD has done great things for us,

And we are glad.

⁴Bring back our captivity, O LORD,

As the streams in the South.

⁵Those who sow in tears
Shall reap in joy.

⁶He who continually goes forth weeping,
Bearing seed for sowing,
Shall doubtless come again with rejoicing,

Bringing his sheaves with him.

Psalm 127

Laboring and Prospering with the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.

Unless the LORD builds the house,

Security Is Found in the Lord, Not in Followers

Psalm 127:1

Psalm 127:1 says it all. Unless God remains at the center of your efforts, you labor in vain.

Whether we lead in the military, in construction, or sit behind a desk, we cannot fight, build, or plan well enough to gain anything permanent. Smart leaders not only include God in their strategy, they place Him at its center. He alone can provide leaders with security; we cannot get it from followers. Consider the following list of rules regarding security and people:

1. People cannot provide permanent security for a leader.
2. Leaders should never put their emotional health in the hands of someone else.

3. Spiritual and emotional health requires the truth.

4. Leaders must remember that hurting people naturally hurt people.

5. Trouble arises when leaders depend on people to do what only God can do.

They labor in vain who build it;
Unless the LORD guards the city,
The watchman stays awake in vain.
²*It is* vain for you to rise up early,
To sit up late,
To eat the bread of sorrows;

For so He gives His beloved sleep.

³Behold, children are a heritage from the LORD,
The fruit of the womb is a reward.

⁴Like arrows in the hand of a warrior,
So are the children of one's youth.

⁵Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them;
They shall not be ashamed,

But shall speak with their enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

Blessings of Those Who Fear the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

Blessed is every one who fears the LORD,
Who walks in His ways.

²When you eat the labor of your hands,
You shall be happy, and it shall be well with you.

³Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
In the very heart of your house,
Your children like olive plants
All around your table.

⁴Behold, thus shall the man be blessed
Who fears the LORD.

⁵The LORD bless you out of Zion,
And may you see the good of Jerusalem
All the days of your life.

⁶Yes, may you see your children's children.

Peace be upon Israel!

Psalm 129

Song of Victory over Zion's Enemies

Song of Ascents.

"Many a time they have afflicted me from my youth,"
Let Israel now say—

²"Many a time they have afflicted me from my youth;
Yet they have not prevailed against me.

³The plowers plowed on my back;
They made their furrows long."

⁴The LORD is righteous;

He has cut in pieces the cords of the wicked.

⁵Let all those who hate Zion
Be put to shame and turned back.

⁶Let them be as the grass on the housetops,
Which withers before it grows up,

⁷With which the reaper does not fill his hand,
Nor he who binds sheaves, his arms.

⁸Neither let those who pass by them say,
"The blessing of the LORD be upon you;

We bless you in the name of the LORD!"

Psalm 130

Waiting for the Redemption of the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

Out of the depths I have cried to You, O LORD;

²Lord, hear my voice!

Let Your ears be attentive

To the voice of my supplications.

³If You, LORD, should mark iniquities,

O Lord, who could stand?

⁴But there is forgiveness with You,

That You may be feared.

⁵I wait for the LORD, my soul waits,

And in His word I do hope.

⁶My soul waits for the Lord

More than those who watch for the morning—

Yes, more than those who watch for the morning.

⁷O Israel, hope in the LORD;

For with the LORD there is mercy,

And with Him is abundant redemption.

⁸And He shall redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

Psalm 131

Simple Trust in the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

LORD, my heart is not haughty,
Nor my eyes lofty.
Neither do I concern myself with great matters,

Nor with things too profound for me.

²Surely I have calmed and quieted my soul,
Like a weaned child with his mother;

Like a weaned child is my soul within me.

³O Israel, hope in the LORD

From this time forth and forever.

Balancing Childlike and Childish Styles

Psalm 131:1-3

The Christian leader is mature enough to not act childish, yet remains trusting enough to stay childlike. David describes himself as a “weaned child” (Ps. 131:2)—not a helpless baby, but neither a self-sufficient maverick. He must trust his mother for help and strength. This illustrates the balance of spiritual maturity.

Psalm 132

The Eternal Dwelling of God in Zion

A Song of Ascents.

LORD, remember David

And all his afflictions;

²How he swore to the LORD,

And vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:

³“Surely I will not go into the chamber of my house,

Or go up to the comfort of my bed;

⁴I will not give sleep to my eyes

Or slumber to my eyelids,

⁵Until I find a place for the LORD,

A dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob.”

⁶Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah;

We found it in the fields of the woods. a

⁷Let us go into His tabernacle;

Let us worship at His footstool.

⁸Arise, O LORD, to Your resting place,

You and the ark of Your strength.

⁹Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness,

And let Your saints shout for joy.

¹⁰For Your servant David’s sake,

Do not turn away the face of Your Anointed.

¹¹The LORD has sworn in truth to David;

He will not turn from it:

“I will set upon your throne the fruit of your body.

¹²If your sons will keep My covenant

And My testimony which I shall teach them,

Their sons also shall sit upon your throne
forevermore.”

¹³For the LORD has chosen Zion;

He has desired it for His dwelling place:

¹⁴“This is My resting place forever;

Here I will dwell, for I have desired it.

¹⁵I will abundantly bless her provision;

I will satisfy her poor with bread.

¹⁶I will also clothe her priests with salvation,

And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

¹⁷There I will make the horn of David grow;

I will prepare a lamp for My Anointed.

¹⁸His enemies I will clothe with shame,

But upon Himself His crown shall flourish.”

Psalm 133

Blessed Unity of the People of God

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is

For brethren to dwell together in unity!

²*It is* like the precious oil upon the head,
Running down on the beard,
The beard of Aaron,
Running down on the edge of his garments.

³*It is* like the dew of Hermon,
Descending upon the mountains of Zion;
For there the LORD commanded the blessing—

Life forevermore.

Psalm 134

Praising the LORD in His House at Night

A Song of Ascents.

Behold, bless the LORD,
All you servants of the LORD,
Who by night stand in the house of the LORD!

²Lift up your hands in the sanctuary,

And bless the LORD.

³The LORD who made heaven and earth

Bless you from Zion!

Psalm 135

Praise to God in Creation and Redemption

Praise the LORD!

Praise the name of the LORD;

Praise Him, O you servants of the LORD!

²You who stand in the house of the LORD,
In the courts of the house of our God,

³Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good;
Sing praises to His name, for it is pleasant.

⁴For the LORD has chosen Jacob for Himself,

Israel for His special treasure.

⁵For I know that the LORD is great,
And our Lord is above all gods.

⁶Whatever the LORD pleases He does,
In heaven and in earth,
In the seas and in all deep places.

⁷He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the
earth;

He makes lightning for the rain;

He brings the wind out of His treasuries.

⁸He destroyed the firstborn of Egypt,

Both of man and beast.

⁹He sent signs and wonders into the midst of you, O Egypt,

Upon Pharaoh and all his servants.

¹⁰He defeated many nations
And slew mighty kings—

¹¹Sihon king of the Amorites,
Og king of Bashan,

And all the kingdoms of Canaan—

¹²And gave their land as a heritage,

A heritage to Israel His people.

¹³Your name, O LORD, endures forever,
Your fame, O LORD, throughout all generations.

¹⁴For the LORD will judge His people,

And He will have compassion on His servants.

¹⁵The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.

¹⁶They have mouths, but they do not speak;
Eyes they have, but they do not see;

¹⁷They have ears, but they do not hear;
Nor is there any breath in their mouths.

¹⁸Those who make them are like them;

So is everyone who trusts in them.

¹⁹Bless the LORD, O house of Israel!

Bless the LORD, O house of Aaron!

²⁰Bless the LORD, O house of Levi!

You who fear the LORD, bless the LORD!

²¹Blessed be the LORD out of Zion,

Who dwells in Jerusalem!

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 136

Thanksgiving to God for His Enduring Mercy

Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.

²Oh, give thanks to the God of gods!
For His mercy endures forever.

³Oh, give thanks to the Lord of lords!
For His mercy endures forever:

⁴To Him who alone does great wonders,
For His mercy endures forever;

⁵To Him who by wisdom made the heavens,
For His mercy endures forever;

⁶To Him who laid out the earth above the waters,
For His mercy endures forever;

⁷To Him who made great lights,
For His mercy endures forever—

⁸The sun to rule by day,
For His mercy endures forever;

⁹The moon and stars to rule by night,
For His mercy endures forever.

¹⁰To Him who struck Egypt in their firstborn,
For His mercy endures forever;

¹¹And brought out Israel from among them,

For His mercy endures forever;

¹²With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm,

For His mercy endures forever;

¹³To Him who divided the Red Sea in two,

For His mercy endures forever;

¹⁴And made Israel pass through the midst of it,

For His mercy endures forever;

¹⁵But overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea,

For His mercy endures forever;

¹⁶To Him who led His people through the wilderness,

For His mercy endures forever;

¹⁷To Him who struck down great kings,

For His mercy endures forever;

¹⁸And slew famous kings,

For His mercy endures forever—

¹⁹Sihon king of the Amorites,

For His mercy endures forever;

²⁰And Og king of Bashan,

For His mercy endures forever—

²¹And gave their land as a heritage,

For His mercy endures forever;

²²A heritage to Israel His servant,

For His mercy endures forever.

²³Who remembered us in our lowly state,

For His mercy endures forever;

²⁴And rescued us from our enemies,

For His mercy endures forever;

²⁵Who gives food to all flesh,

For His mercy endures forever.

²⁶Oh, give thanks to the God of heaven!

For His mercy endures forever.

Psalm 137

Longing for Zion in a Foreign Land

By the rivers of Babylon,
There we sat down, yea, we wept
When we remembered Zion.

²We hung our harps
Upon the willows in the midst of it.

³For there those who carried us away captive asked of us a song,

And those who plundered us requested mirth,

Saying, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"

⁴How shall we sing the LORD's song
In a foreign land?

⁵If I forget you, O Jerusalem,
Let my right hand forget its skill!

⁶If I do not remember you,

Three Questions for Christian Leaders

Psalm 137:1-6

Three great issues erupt from the lyrics of this psalm: the writer dreams, the writer cries, and the writer sings.

No wonder the people wept—the Jews had been taken from Israel against their will and exiled to Babylon. No wonder they sang—they could not forget Zion, the land of their birth. No wonder they dreamed—they hoped and prayed for the day of their return home.

These issues pose great questions for every leader:

1. What do you dream about?

The psalmist remembered Zion; he longed to live again in his homeland. What are the dreams of your heart? What would you do if you had no fear of failure?

2. What do you cry about?

The psalmist cried about living in Babylon; he wept over the captivity of his people. What makes you cry? What burdens drive you to become passionate?

3. What do you sing about?

The psalmist sang about the blessings of God; he sang his remembrances of God's justice. What do you sing about? What causes you to rejoice or express joy?

Let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth—
If I do not exalt Jerusalem

Above my chief joy.

⁷Remember, O LORD, against the sons of Edom
The day of Jerusalem,
Who said, "Raze it, raze it,

To its very foundation!"

⁸O daughter of Babylon, who are to be destroyed,
Happy the one who repays you as you have served
us!

⁹Happy the one who takes and dashes

Your little ones against the rock!

Psalm 138

The LORD's Goodness to the Faithful

Psalm of David.

I will praise You with my whole heart;
Before the gods I will sing praises to You.
²I will worship toward Your holy temple,
And praise Your name
For Your lovingkindness and Your truth;
For You have magnified Your word above all Your name.

³In the day when I cried out, You answered me,

And made me bold with strength in my soul.

⁴All the kings of the earth shall praise You, O LORD,
When they hear the words of Your mouth.

⁵Yes, they shall sing of the ways of the LORD,
For great is the glory of the LORD.

⁶Though the LORD is on high,
Yet He regards the lowly;

But the proud He knows from afar.

⁷Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me;

You will stretch out Your hand

Against the wrath of my enemies,
And Your right hand will save me.

⁸The LORD will perfect that which concerns me;
Your mercy, O LORD, endures forever;

Do not forsake the works of Your hands.

Psalm 139

God's Perfect Knowledge of Man

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

O LORD, You have searched me and known me.

²You know my sitting down and my rising up;
You understand my thought afar off.

³You comprehend my path and my lying down,
And are acquainted with all my ways.

⁴For there is not a word on my tongue,
But behold, O LORD, You know it altogether.

⁵You have hedged me behind and before,
And laid Your hand upon me.

⁶*Such* knowledge is too wonderful for me;

It is high, I cannot attain it.

⁷Where can I go from Your Spirit?
Or where can I flee from Your presence?

⁸If I ascend into heaven, You are there;
If I make my bed in hell, behold, You are there.

⁹*If* I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

¹⁰Even there Your hand shall lead me,
And Your right hand shall hold me.

¹¹If I say, "Surely the darkness shall fall^a on me,"
Even the night shall be light about me;

¹²Indeed, the darkness shall not hide from You,
But the night shines as the day;

The darkness and the light are both alike to You.

¹³For You formed my inward parts;
You covered me in my mother's womb.

¹⁴I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;^a

Marvelous are Your works,
And that my soul knows very well.

¹⁵My frame was not hidden from You,
When I was made in secret,
And skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

¹⁶Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed.
And in Your book they all were written,
The days fashioned for me,

When as yet there were none of them.

¹⁷How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!

¹⁸*If* I should count them, they would be more in number than the sand;

When I awake, I am still with You.

¹⁹Oh, that You would slay the wicked, O God!
Depart from me, therefore, you bloodthirsty men.

²⁰For they speak against You wickedly;
Your enemies take Your name in vain.^a

²¹Do I not hate them, O LORD, who hate You?

And do I not loathe those who rise up against You?

²²I hate them with perfect hatred;

I count them my enemies.

²³Search me, O God, and know my heart;

Try me, and know my anxieties;

²⁴And see if there is any wicked way in me,

And lead me in the way everlasting.

A Leader's Relationship with God Shapes His or Her Perspective

Psalm 139:1-24

Talk about seeing the big picture! In this psalm David explores the depths of God's omniscience, omnipotence, and omnipresence.

David's dynamic and intimate relationship with God shapes his perspective on life. The king of Israel knew he wasn't alone. He rejoiced that he could draw upon God's infinite wisdom, that he could never run from God or His justice, and that he could count on God's power whenever he needed it. The leader of Israel had a Leader himself, named Yahweh. Ponder the benefits of an intimate relationship with God as Leader:

1. God knows our every thought, every word, and every move (vv. 1-6).

2. God directs us, no matter where we go (vv. 7-10).

3. God knows no hopeless or helpless situations (vv. 11, 12).

4. God formed every complex detail of our bodies, minds, and spirits (vv. 13-16).

5. God constantly thinks of us and is concerned with the details of our lives (vv. 17, 18).

6. God searches our hearts and will purify our motives (vv. 23, 24).

Psalm 140

Prayer for Deliverance from Evil Men

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

Deliver me, O LORD, from evil men;
Preserve me from violent men,
²Who plan evil things in their hearts;
They continually gather together for war.
³They sharpen their tongues like a serpent;
The poison of asps is under their lips.

Selah

⁴Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked;
Preserve me from violent men,
Who have purposed to make my steps stumble.
⁵The proud have hidden a snare for me, and cords;
They have spread a net by the wayside;
They have set traps for me.

Selah

⁶I said to the LORD: "You are my God;
Hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.
⁷O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation,
You have covered my head in the day of battle.
⁸Do not grant, O LORD, the desires of the wicked;
Do not further his wicked scheme,
Lest they be exalted.

Selah

⁹*“As for* the head of those who surround me,
Let the evil of their lips cover them;

¹⁰Let burning coals fall upon them;
Let them be cast into the fire,

Into deep pits, that they rise not up again.

¹¹Let not a slanderer be established in the earth;

Let evil hunt the violent man to overthrow him.”

¹²I know that the LORD will maintain

The cause of the afflicted,

And justice for the poor.

¹³Surely the righteous shall give thanks to Your name;

The upright shall dwell in Your presence.

Psalm 141

Prayer for Safekeeping from Wickedness

A Psalm of David.

LORD, I cry out to You;
Make haste to me!
Give ear to my voice when I cry out to You.
²Let my prayer be set before You as incense,

The lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

³Set a guard, O LORD, over my mouth;
Keep watch over the door of my lips.
⁴Do not incline my heart to any evil thing,
To practice wicked works
With men who work iniquity;

And do not let me eat of their delicacies.

⁵Let the righteous strike me;
It shall be a kindness.
And let him rebuke me;
It shall be as excellent oil;

Let my head not refuse it.

For still my prayer is against the deeds of the wicked.

⁶Their judges are overthrown by the sides of the cliff,
And they hear my words, for they are sweet.

⁷Our bones are scattered at the mouth of the grave,

As when one plows and breaks up the earth.

⁸But my eyes are upon You, O GOD the Lord;
In You I take refuge;
Do not leave my soul destitute.

⁹Keep me from the snares they have laid for me,
And from the traps of the workers of iniquity.

¹⁰Let the wicked fall into their own nets,

While I escape safely.

Psalm 142

A Plea for Relief from Persecutors

A Contemplation^a of David. A Prayer when he was in the cave.

I cry out to the LORD with my voice;
With my voice to the LORD I make my supplication.

²I pour out my complaint before Him;

I declare before Him my trouble.

³When my spirit was overwhelmed within me,
Then You knew my path.

In the way in which I walk
They have secretly set a snare for me.

⁴Look on my right hand and see,
For there is no one who acknowledges me;
Refuge has failed me;

No one cares for my soul.

⁵I cried out to You, O LORD:
I said, "You are my refuge,
My portion in the land of the living.

⁶Attend to my cry,
For I am brought very low;
Deliver me from my persecutors,

For they are stronger than I.

⁷Bring my soul out of prison,
That I may praise Your name;

The righteous shall surround me,

For You shall deal bountifully with me.”

Psalm 143

An Earnest Appeal for Guidance and Deliverance

A Psalm of David.

Hear my prayer, O LORD,
Give ear to my supplications!
In Your faithfulness answer me,
And in Your righteousness.
²Do not enter into judgment with Your servant,

For in Your sight no one living is righteous.

³For the enemy has persecuted my soul;
He has crushed my life to the ground;
He has made me dwell in darkness,
Like those who have long been dead.
⁴Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me;

My heart within me is distressed.

⁵I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all Your works;
I muse on the work of Your hands.

⁶I spread out my hands to You;
My soul longs for You like a thirsty land.

Selah

⁷Answer me speedily, O LORD;
My spirit fails!
Do not hide Your face from me,
Lest I be like those who go down into the pit.
⁸Cause me to hear Your lovingkindness in the morning,
For in You do I trust;
Cause me to know the way in which I should walk,

For I lift up my soul to You.

⁹Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies;
In You I take shelter.^a ¹⁰Teach me to do Your will,
For You are my God;
Your Spirit is good.

Lead me in the land of uprightness.

¹¹Revive me, O LORD, for Your name's sake!
For Your righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

¹²In Your mercy cut off my enemies,
And destroy all those who afflict my soul;

For I am Your servant.

Psalm 144

A Song to the LORD Who Preserves and Prospers His People

A Psalm of David.

Blessed be the LORD my Rock,
Who trains my hands for war,
And my fingers for battle—
²My lovingkindness and my fortress,
My high tower and my deliverer,
My shield and the One in whom I take refuge,

Who subdues my people^a under me.

³LORD, what is man, that You take knowledge of
him?

Or the son of man, that You are mindful of him?

⁴Man is like a breath;

His days are like a passing shadow.

⁵Bow down Your heavens, O LORD, and come down;
Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

⁶Flash forth lightning and scatter them;
Shoot out Your arrows and destroy them.

⁷Stretch out Your hand from above;
Rescue me and deliver me out of great waters,

From the hand of foreigners,
⁸Whose mouth speaks lying words,

And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

⁹I will sing a new song to You, O God;
On a harp of ten strings I will sing praises to You,
¹⁰*The One* who gives salvation to kings,
Who delivers David His servant

From the deadly sword.

¹¹Rescue me and deliver me from the hand of foreigners,

Whose mouth speaks lying words,
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood—

¹²That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth;

That our daughters may be as pillars,
Sculptured in palace style;

¹³*That* our barns may be full,
Supplying all kinds of produce;
That our sheep may bring forth thousands
And ten thousands in our fields;

¹⁴*That* our oxen may be well laden;
That there be no breaking in or going out;
That there be no outcry in our streets.

¹⁵Happy are the people who are in such a state;

Happy are the people whose God is the LORD!

Psalm 145

A Song of God's Majesty and Love

A Praise of David.

I will extol You, my God, O King;
And I will bless Your name forever and ever.

²Every day I will bless You,
And I will praise Your name forever and ever.

³Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;

And His greatness is unsearchable.

⁴One generation shall praise Your works to another,
And shall declare Your mighty acts.

⁵I ^a will meditate on the glorious splendor of Your majesty,

And on Your wondrous works. ^b

⁶*Men* shall speak of the might of Your awesome acts,
And I will declare Your greatness.

⁷They shall utter the memory of Your great
goodness,

And shall sing of Your righteousness.

⁸The LORD is gracious and full of compassion,
Slow to anger and great in mercy.

⁹The LORD is good to all,

And His tender mercies are over all His works.

¹⁰All Your works shall praise You, O LORD,
And Your saints shall bless You.

¹¹They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom,
And talk of Your power,

¹²To make known to the sons of men His mighty acts,
And the glorious majesty of His kingdom.

¹³Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,

And Your dominion endures throughout all generations.^a

¹⁴The LORD upholds all who fall,
And raises up all who are bowed down.

¹⁵The eyes of all look expectantly to You,
And You give them their food in due season.

¹⁶You open Your hand

And satisfy the desire of every living thing.

¹⁷The LORD is righteous in all His ways,
Gracious in all His works.

¹⁸The LORD is near to all who call upon Him,
To all who call upon Him in truth.

¹⁹He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him;
He also will hear their cry and save them.

²⁰The LORD preserves all who love Him,

Commitment Comes Before Provision

Psalm 145:8-20

If Psalm 145 communicates just one message, it is that God deserves our unconditional commitment. David praises God for His goodness and His provisions. But he also makes it clear that leaders must walk in reckless abandon to the ways of God.

Once leaders make a commitment, they find that God provides the people, resources, and strategy necessary to fulfill their dream. In one sense, God enters a partnership with His leaders and promises to fulfill His role as we fulfill ours:

God's Role: Provision (vv. 8-17)

1. He is gracious and merciful.
2. His acts are mighty.
3. His kingdom is everlasting.
4. His dominion endures through all generations.
5. He satisfies our desires.
6. He is righteous and kind in all His ways.

Our Role: Commitment (vv. 18-20)

1. To those who call upon Him.
2. To those who fear Him.
3. To those who love Him.

But all the wicked He will destroy.

²¹My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD,
And all flesh shall bless His holy name

Forever and ever.

Psalm 146

The Happiness of Those Whose Help Is the LORD

Praise the LORD!

Praise the LORD, O my soul!

²While I live I will praise the LORD;

I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

³Do not put your trust in princes,

Nor in a son of man, in whom there is no help.

⁴His spirit departs, he returns to his earth;

In that very day his plans perish.

⁵Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help,

Whose hope is in the LORD his God,

⁶Who made heaven and earth,

The sea, and all that is in them;

Who keeps truth forever,

⁷Who executes justice for the oppressed,

Who gives food to the hungry.

The LORD gives freedom to the prisoners.

⁸The LORD opens the eyes of the blind;

The LORD raises those who are bowed down;

The LORD loves the righteous.

⁹The LORD watches over the strangers;
He relieves the fatherless and widow;

But the way of the wicked He turns upside down.

¹⁰The LORD shall reign forever—

Your God, O Zion, to all generations.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 147

Praise to God for His Word and Providence

Praise the LORD!
For it is good to sing praises to our God;
For it is pleasant, and praise is beautiful.

²The LORD builds up Jerusalem;
He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.

³He heals the brokenhearted
And binds up their wounds.

⁴He counts the number of the stars;
He calls them all by name.

⁵Great is our Lord, and mighty in power;
His understanding is infinite.

⁶The LORD lifts up the humble;
He casts the wicked down to the ground.

⁷Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving;
Sing praises on the harp to our God,

⁸Who covers the heavens with clouds,
Who prepares rain for the earth,
Who makes grass to grow on the mountains.

⁹He gives to the beast its food,

And to the young ravens that cry.

¹⁰He does not delight in the strength of the horse;
He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.

¹¹The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear Him,

In those who hope in His mercy.

¹²Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem!

Praise your God, O Zion!

¹³For He has strengthened the bars of your gates;
He has blessed your children within you.

¹⁴He makes peace in your borders,

And fills you with the finest wheat.

¹⁵He sends out His command to the earth;
His word runs very swiftly.

¹⁶He gives snow like wool;
He scatters the frost like ashes;

¹⁷He casts out His hail like morsels;
Who can stand before His cold?

¹⁸He sends out His word and melts them;

He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow.

¹⁹He declares His word to Jacob,
His statutes and His judgments to Israel.

²⁰He has not dealt thus with any nation;

And as for His judgments, they have not known them.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 148

Praise to the LORD from Creation

Praise the LORD!

Praise the LORD from the heavens;

Praise Him in the heights!

²Praise Him, all His angels;

Praise Him, all His hosts!

³Praise Him, sun and moon;

Praise Him, all you stars of light!

⁴Praise Him, you heavens of heavens,

And you waters above the heavens!

⁵Let them praise the name of the LORD,

For He commanded and they were created.

⁶He also established them forever and ever;

He made a decree which shall not pass away.

⁷Praise the LORD from the earth,

You great sea creatures and all the depths;

⁸Fire and hail, snow and clouds;

Stormy wind, fulfilling His word;

⁹Mountains and all hills;

Fruitful trees and all cedars;

¹⁰Beasts and all cattle;

Creeping things and flying fowl;
¹¹Kings of the earth and all peoples;
Princes and all judges of the earth;
¹²Both young men and maidens;

Old men and children.

¹³Let them praise the name of the LORD,
For His name alone is exalted;
His glory is above the earth and heaven.
¹⁴And He has exalted the horn of His people,
The praise of all His saints—
Of the children of Israel,

A people near to Him.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 149

Praise to God for His Salvation and Judgment

Praise the LORD!

Sing to the LORD a new song,

And His praise in the assembly of saints.

²Let Israel rejoice in their Maker;
Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

³Let them praise His name with the dance;
Let them sing praises to Him with the timbrel and harp.

⁴For the LORD takes pleasure in His people;

He will beautify the humble with salvation.

⁵Let the saints be joyful in glory;
Let them sing aloud on their beds.

⁶*Let* the high praises of God be in their mouth,
And a two-edged sword in their hand,

⁷To execute vengeance on the nations,
And punishments on the peoples;

⁸To bind their kings with chains,
And their nobles with fetters of iron;

⁹To execute on them the written judgment—

This honor have all His saints.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 150

Let All Things Praise the LORD

Praise the LORD!

Praise God in His sanctuary;

Praise Him in His mighty firmament!

²Praise Him for His mighty acts;

Praise Him according to His excellent greatness!

³Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet;

Praise Him with the lute and harp!

⁴Praise Him with the timbrel and dance;

Praise Him with stringed instruments and flutes!

⁵Praise Him with loud cymbals;

Praise Him with clashing cymbals!

⁶Let everything that has breath praise the LORD.

Praise the LORD!

The Book of Proverbs

Introduction to Proverbs

A vast amount of leadership wisdom lies within the 31 chapters of Proverbs. Its excellent principles for guiding one's life come to us in the form of poetry, like the Psalms. But where Psalms portrays the relationships and emotions of a leader, Proverbs displays the principles, values, and intellect of a leader. The Law of Navigation, the Law of Solid Ground, and the Law of Intuition surface repeatedly in this book.

Proverbs is all about the mind of a leader, how a leader thinks. Who would dispute that leaders think differently from followers? Good leaders see things before followers do; they see beyond what followers do; and they see bigger than followers do. While followers may barely feel able to see and plan beyond next week, leaders must think, envision, and plan well into the future.

Fuller Seminary professor Bobby Clinton has said, "The primary difference between a follower and a leader is perspective. The primary difference between a leader and an effective leader is better perspective." Both leaders and followers can have strong character. Both can possess warm relational skills. Both can even have a strong personality and a strong will. What separates them is how they think and perceive reality.

Because the Scripture teaches that we were all made to rule (Gen. 1:26-28), everyone possesses the capacity to raise their level of leadership ability. Each of us can improve the way we influence others. We must, however, begin with our perspective—and that is what makes the Book of Proverbs so profound. It is a book about improving the way we think and therefore act. It is a book about raising the “lid” on our leadership ability—first by the way we lead our own lives, then by the way we lead others.

In this book you will encounter wisdom principles that appear so simple, yet are tremendously deep and profound. Soak in every verse through the eyes of a leader. The wisdom lies in front of every one of us, “crying out loudly in the streets,” longing to be noticed (1:20-23). Embrace the disciplines and the character that Solomon suggests, and you will be on your way to transforming your leadership.

Principles for Guiding One’s Life

God’s Role in Proverbs

God is the ultimate source of wisdom and of life itself. He mentors leaders who seek wisdom for their decision making. Proverbs paints a picture of wisdom as a person calling out for listeners, but finding few. God is also the divine Parent disciplining His children. He furnishes words of correction and guidance, again beseeching us to listen. Finally, this book presents God as the divine Preacher or Teacher. He contrasts the diligent and the sluggard, the good and the wicked, the wise and the foolish. The axioms flow off His tongue, teaching the student how the Master thinks and acts.

Other People of Influence in Proverbs

The wise person, the harlot, the sluggard, the wicked person, the fool

Lessons in Leadership

- Good leadership begins with good wisdom and insight.
- Competency cannot substitute for lack of character.
- Leadership development begins with “being” before “doing.”
- Leaders who solve problems will never lack followers.
- Wisdom is available to leaders who pursue it diligently, but it is not automatic.
- Laziness can steal everything a leader has worked to achieve.
- God rewards leaders who do right.

Chapter 1

The Beginning of Knowledge

¹The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel:

²To know wisdom and instruction,
To perceive the words of understanding,

³To receive the instruction of wisdom,
Justice, judgment, and equity;

⁴To give prudence to the simple,
To the young man knowledge and discretion—

⁵A wise man will hear and increase learning,
And a man of understanding will attain wise counsel,

⁶To understand a proverb and an enigma,
The words of the wise and their riddles.

⁷The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge,

But fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Shun Evil Counsel

⁸My son, hear the instruction of your father,
And do not forsake the law of your mother;

⁹For they will be a graceful ornament on your head,
And chains about your neck.

¹⁰My son, if sinners entice you,
Do not consent.

¹¹If they say, “Come with us,
Let us lie in wait to shed blood;
Let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause;

¹²Let us swallow them alive like Sheol,^a
And whole, like those who go down to the Pit;

¹³We shall find all kinds of precious possessions,
We shall fill our houses with spoil;

¹⁴Cast in your lot among us,
Let us all have one purse”—

¹⁵My son, do not walk in the way with them,
Keep your foot from their path;

¹⁶For their feet run to evil,
And they make haste to shed blood.

¹⁷Surely, in vain the net is spread
In the sight of any bird;

¹⁸But they lie in wait for their own blood,
They lurk secretly for their own lives.

¹⁹So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain;
It takes away the life of its owners.

The Call of Wisdom

²⁰Wisdom calls aloud outside;
She raises her voice in the open squares.

²¹She cries out in the chief concourses,^a
At the openings of the gates in the city
She speaks her words:

²²"How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity?

For scorers delight in their scorning,
And fools hate knowledge.

²³Turn at my rebuke;
Surely I will pour out my spirit on you;
I will make my words known to you.

²⁴Because I have called and you refused,
I have stretched out my hand and no one regarded,

²⁵Because you disdained all my counsel,
And would have none of my rebuke,

²⁶I also will laugh at your calamity;
I will mock when your terror comes,

²⁷When your terror comes like a storm,
And your destruction comes like a whirlwind,

When distress and anguish come upon you.

²⁸"Then they will call on me, but I will not answer;
They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me.

²⁹Because they hated knowledge
And did not choose the fear of the LORD,

³⁰They would have none of my counsel
And despised my every rebuke.

³¹Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way,
And be filled to the full with their own fancies.

³²For the turning away of the simple will slay them,
And the complacency of fools will destroy them;

³³But whoever listens to me will dwell safely,

And will be secure, without fear of evil."

Decision Making: The Fast Way to Gain Leadership

Proverbs 1:7-33

Wisdom can be a leader's best friend, especially in times of decision. Suppose you find yourself in a large committee meeting in which a crucial decision must be made. The committee reaches an impasse and everything stops. Who will become the most influential person in that room? Answer: the one with the wisdom to draw a conclusion that not only works, but which receives the blessing of that committee.

Proverbs 1 describes wisdom as a woman crying out in the streets (v. 20). What a beautiful picture! Wisdom does not hide herself, but shouts publicly! We must go out and find her and build a friendship with her. What can we learn about decision making from Proverbs 1?

1. The foundation for every decision is to honor and revere God (v. 7).

2. We must build off our heritage and conscience: what values are we to embrace? (vv. 8, 9).

3. We must avoid the counsel of the ungodly (vv. 10-19).

4. We must pursue wisdom. What are the facts? What are the options? (vv. 20-23).

5. We must move toward inward peace (vv. 32, 33).

Chapter 2

The Value of Wisdom

¹My son, if you receive my words,
And treasure my commands within you,
²So that you incline your ear to wisdom,
And apply your heart to understanding;
³Yes, if you cry out for discernment,
And lift up your voice for understanding,
⁴If you seek her as silver,

Desire: What Separates Leaders from Followers

Proverbs 2:1-4

Good leaders seem to know what steps to take into a bright future. But what enables them to know what to do? How do they differ from followers?

Proverbs 2 tells us the key difference may be desire.

We all must answer three great questions in life:

1. What do we want?
2. Why do we want it?
3. How badly do we want it?

Consider the phrases Proverbs 2 uses to talk about the passionate search for wisdom:

- receive my words (v. 1)

- treasure my commands (v. 1)
- incline your ear to wisdom (v. 2)
- apply your heart to understanding (v. 2)
- cry out for discernment (v. 3)
- lift up your voice for understanding (v. 3)
- seek her as silver (v. 4)
- search for her as for hidden treasure (v. 4)

Good leaders hunt for wisdom as though it were diamonds and rubies. So—what are you searching for?

And search for her as for hidden treasures;

⁵Then you will understand the fear of the LORD,
And find the knowledge of God.

⁶For the LORD gives wisdom;
From His mouth come knowledge and
understanding;

⁷He stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
He is a shield to those who walk uprightly;

⁸He guards the paths of justice,
And preserves the way of His saints.

⁹Then you will understand righteousness and justice,

Equity and every good path.

¹⁰When wisdom enters your heart,
And knowledge is pleasant to your soul,

¹¹Discretion will preserve you;
Understanding will keep you,

¹²To deliver you from the way of evil,
From the man who speaks perverse things,

¹³From those who leave the paths of uprightness
To walk in the ways of darkness;

¹⁴Who rejoice in doing evil,

And delight in the perversity of the wicked;
¹⁵Whose ways are crooked,
And who are devious in their paths;
¹⁶To deliver you from the immoral woman,
From the seductress who flatters with her words,
¹⁷Who forsakes the companion of her youth,
And forgets the covenant of her God.
¹⁸For her house leads down to death,
And her paths to the dead;
¹⁹None who go to her return,
Nor do they regain the paths of life—
²⁰So you may walk in the way of goodness,
And keep to the paths of righteousness.
²¹For the upright will dwell in the land,
And the blameless will remain in it;
²²But the wicked will be cut off from the earth,

And the unfaithful will be uprooted from it.

Chapter 3

Guidance for the Young

¹My son, do not forget my law,
But let your heart keep my commands;

²For length of days and long life

And peace they will add to you.

³Let not mercy and truth forsake you;
Bind them around your neck,
Write them on the tablet of your heart,

⁴*And* so find favor and high esteem

In the sight of God and man.

⁵Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
And lean not on your own understanding;

⁶In all your ways acknowledge Him,

And He shall direct^a your paths.

The Irony of Spiritual Leadership: Get Understanding but Don't Lean On It

Proverbs 3:5, 6

Proverbs 2 and 3 poses an apparent paradox in spiritual leadership. We are to get wisdom and understanding (2:1-5), yet we are not to lean on it apart from the Lord (3:5, 6). Even good wisdom divorced from God can become a snare. So how are godly leaders to think?

1. Godly leaders think big: They realize God's vision is usually bigger than theirs.

2. Godly leaders think other people: They always include others in the mix.

3. Godly leaders think continually: They're not satisfied with today's answers.

4. Godly leaders think bottom line: They want to see results and fruit.

5. Godly leaders think continual growth: They want to keep improving.

6. Godly leaders think without lines: They let God outside of the box.

7. Godly leaders think victory: They want to see God's rule come to earth.

8. Godly leaders think intuitively: They have a sense of what will work.

9. Godly leaders think servanthood: They want to serve and add value to people.

10. Godly leaders think quickly: They evaluate quickly and see possible answers.

⁷Do not be wise in your own eyes;
Fear the LORD and depart from evil.

⁸It will be health to your flesh,^{a}

And strength^{b} to your bones.

⁹Honor the LORD with your possessions,

And with the firstfruits of all your increase;

¹⁰So your barns will be filled with plenty,

And your vats will overflow with new wine.

¹¹My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD,

Nor detest His correction;

¹²For whom the LORD loves He corrects,

Just as a father the son in whom he delights.

¹³Happy is the man who finds wisdom,

And the man who gains understanding;

¹⁴For her proceeds are better than the profits of silver,

And her gain than fine gold.

¹⁵She is more precious than rubies,

And all the things you may desire cannot compare with her.

¹⁶Length of days is in her right hand,

In her left hand riches and honor.

¹⁷Her ways are ways of pleasantness,

And all her paths are peace.

¹⁸She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her,

And happy are all who retain her.

¹⁹The LORD by wisdom founded the earth;

By understanding He established the heavens;

²⁰By His knowledge the depths were broken up,

And clouds drop down the dew.

²¹My son, let them not depart from your eyes—

Keep sound wisdom and discretion;

²²So they will be life to your soul
And grace to your neck.

²³Then you will walk safely in your way,
And your foot will not stumble.

²⁴When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
Yes, you will lie down and your sleep will be sweet.

²⁵Do not be afraid of sudden terror,
Nor of trouble from the wicked when it comes;

²⁶For the LORD will be your confidence,
And will keep your foot from being caught.

²⁷Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
When it is in the power of your hand to do so.

²⁸Do not say to your neighbor,
“Go, and come back,
And tomorrow I will give it,”
When you have it with you.

²⁹Do not devise evil against your neighbor,
For he dwells by you for safety’s sake.

³⁰Do not strive with a man without cause,

If he has done you no harm.

³¹Do not envy the oppressor,
And choose none of his ways;

³²For the perverse person is an abomination to the
LORD,

But His secret counsel is with the upright.

³³The curse of the LORD is on the house of the wicked,

But He blesses the home of the just.

³⁴Surely He scorns the scornful,
But gives grace to the humble.

³⁵The wise shall inherit glory,

But shame shall be the legacy of fools.

Chapter 4

Security in Wisdom

¹Hear, my children, the instruction of a father,
And give attention to know understanding;

²For I give you good doctrine:
Do not forsake my law.

³When I was my father's son, Tender and the only one in the sight of my mother,

⁴He also taught me, and said to me:
"Let your heart retain my words;
Keep my commands, and live.

⁵Get wisdom! Get understanding!
Do not forget, nor turn away from the words of my mouth.

⁶Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you;
Love her, and she will keep you.

⁷Wisdom is the principal thing;
Therefore get wisdom.

And in all your getting, get understanding.

⁸Exalt her, and she will promote you;
She will bring you honor, when you embrace her.

⁹She will place on your head an ornament of grace;

A crown of glory she will deliver to you."

¹⁰Hear, my son, and receive my sayings,
And the years of your life will be many.

¹¹I have taught you in the way of wisdom;
I have led you in right paths.

¹²When you walk, your steps will not be hindered,
And when you run, you will not stumble.

¹³Take firm hold of instruction, do not let go;

Keep her, for she is your life.

¹⁴Do not enter the path of the wicked,
And do not walk in the way of evil.

¹⁵Avoid it, do not travel on it;
Turn away from it and pass on.

¹⁶For they do not sleep unless they have done evil;
And their sleep is taken away unless they make someone fall.

¹⁷For they eat the bread of wickedness,

And drink the wine of violence.

¹⁸But the path of the just is like the shining sun,^a
That shines ever brighter unto the perfect day.

¹⁹The way of the wicked is like darkness;

They do not know what makes them stumble.

²⁰My son, give attention to my words;
Incline your ear to my sayings.

²¹Do not let them depart from your eyes;
Keep them in the midst of your heart;

²²For they are life to those who find them,
And health to all their flesh.

²³Keep your heart with all diligence,
For out of it spring the issues of life.

²⁴Put away from you a deceitful mouth,
And put perverse lips far from you.

²⁵Let your eyes look straight ahead,
And your eyelids look right before you.

²⁶Ponder the path of your feet,
And let all your ways be established.

²⁷Do not turn to the right or the left;

Remove your foot from evil.

Principle-Centered Leadership

Proverbs 4:20-27

Leaders who last do not merely react to their culture; they base their leadership on timeless and universal principles. They remain relevant because they marry cultural context to timeless truth. Proverbs 4 encourages leaders to become principle centered. Verses 20-27 teach us that God's principles give us three crucial tools:

1. They are a guide; they help us stay on the right path.
2. They are a guard; they keep our hearts and bodies protected.
3. They are a gauge; they enable us to evaluate where we are.

These principles build our character, direct our decisions, and correct our lifestyles. Every leader ought to consume God's Word, then put the truths he or she discovers in the form of principles that can guide, guard, and gauge his or her life.

Chapter 5

The Peril of Adultery

¹My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
Lend your ear to my understanding,
²That you may preserve discretion,
And your lips may keep knowledge.
³For the lips of an immoral woman drip honey,
And her mouth is smoother than oil;
⁴But in the end she is bitter as wormwood,
Sharp as a two-edged sword.
⁵Her feet go down to death,
Her steps lay hold of hell.^a
⁶Lest you ponder her path of life—
Her ways are unstable;

You do not know them.

⁷Therefore hear me now, my children,
And do not depart from the words of my mouth.
⁸Remove your way far from her,
And do not go near the door of her house,
⁹Lest you give your honor to others,
And your years to the cruel one;
¹⁰Lest aliens be filled with your wealth,
And your labors go to the house of a foreigner;
¹¹And you mourn at last,
When your flesh and your body are consumed,

¹²And say:

“How I have hated instruction,
And my heart despised correction!

¹³I have not obeyed the voice of my teachers,
Nor inclined my ear to those who instructed me!

¹⁴I was on the verge of total ruin,

In the midst of the assembly and congregation.”

¹⁵Drink water from your own cistern,
And running water from your own well.

¹⁶Should your fountains be dispersed abroad,
Streams of water in the streets?

¹⁷Let them be only your own,
And not for strangers with you.

¹⁸Let your fountain be blessed,
And rejoice with the wife of your youth.

¹⁹As a loving deer and a graceful doe,
Let her breasts satisfy you at all times;
And always be enraptured with her love.

²⁰For why should you, my son, be enraptured by an immoral woman,

And be embraced in the arms of a seductress?

²¹For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD,

SOLOMON

It Is More Blessed to Follow Good Advice Than to Give It

Proverbs 5:3-21

It doesn't take a leader very long to realize that it's easier to give good advice than to follow it. Solomon proves the point.

This wisest of kings didn't hold back when it came to warning his people against adultery. He tells us repeatedly and with great conviction that only fools fall into adultery. Perhaps he spoke so forcefully after pondering the fate of his own father, David, who brought on himself no end of trouble through his illicit affair with Bathsheba (2 Sam. 12:10). Solomon therefore counseled other men to stay at home and find contentment "with the wife of your youth" (Prov. 5:18). The king knew very well the spiritual issues at stake in marriage, for he declares, "The ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and He ponders all his paths" (5:21).

And yet, somehow, this same leader failed to heed God's explicit warning against kings taking many wives (Deut. 17:17). Solomon blatantly disobeyed this command and married seven hundred women. The result? "His wives turned his heart after other gods; and his heart was not loyal to the LORD his God" (1 Kin. 11:4).

Wise leaders not only give good advice; they heed it. How different the fortunes of Israel might have turned out had Solomon acted on the wisdom he so forcefully expressed to others!

And He ponders all his paths.

²²His own iniquities entrap the wicked man,
And he is caught in the cords of his sin.

²³He shall die for lack of instruction,

And in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

Moral Failure: Disciplines Prevent Nightmares

Proverbs 5:3-23

How many leaders have ruined their lives and damaged the lives of others through immorality? Character has become a crucial issue today precisely because of the myriad leaders in the political, business, and religious worlds who have fallen morally. No doubt spiritual warfare has played a big role in the tens of thousands of leaders who have failed. They fall partly because the enemy has targeted leaders for attack.

Leaders need to remember that they influence many others beyond themselves; they never fall in a vacuum. They also need to realize that replacing fallen leaders is a slow and difficult process.

So how can we guard against falling? First, we must take care not to emphasize the gifts of a leader over his or her character. We have an unhealthy tendency to see and reward the gift more than the character, but both are to be developed. We must strike the following balance if we are to finish well:

WHAT I AM • WHAT I DO • THE RESULT

Humble • Rely on God • God's Power

Visionary • Set Goals • High Morale

Convictional • Do Right • Credibility

Chapter 6

Dangerous Promises

¹My son, if you become surety for your friend,
If you have shaken hands in pledge for a stranger,
²You are snared by the words of your mouth;
You are taken by the words of your mouth.
³So do this, my son, and deliver yourself;
For you have come into the hand of your friend:
Go and humble yourself;
Plead with your friend.
⁴Give no sleep to your eyes,
Nor slumber to your eyelids.
⁵Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter,
And like a bird from the hand of the fowler.^a

The Folly of Indolence

⁶Go to the ant, you sluggard!
Consider her ways and be wise,
⁷Which, having no captain,
Overseer or ruler,
⁸Provides her supplies in the summer,

Leadership Lessons from the Ant

Proverbs 6:6-8

Do you want to make a difference? Then pay attention to the metaphor of the ant.

It's amazing that one of the smallest of God's creatures can become one of His greatest teachers. The lessons the ant teaches us can be summarized this way:

A—Attitude of Initiative

Ants don't need a commander to tell them to get started.

N—Nature of Integrity

Ants work faithfully and need no outside accountability to keep them doing right.

T—Thirst for Industry

Ants work hard and will replace their anthill when it gets ruined.

S—Source of Insight

Ants store provisions in summer.

If we consider and learn from the ways of the ant, we can grow wise.

And gathers her food in the harvest.

⁹How long will you slumber, O sluggard?
When will you rise from your sleep?

¹⁰A little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to sleep—

¹¹So shall your poverty come on you like a prowler,

And your need like an armed man.

PROFILE in Leadership

THE SLUGGARD

Worthless to the Kingdom

Proverbs 6:6, 9-11

King Solomon had plenty to say about the “ sluggard,” or the habitually lazy person. He contrasts the sluggard with the ant, who works diligently during the summer to gather enough food for the winter. In Proverbs 20:4, Solomon describes the sluggard as one who refuses to work hard during the growing season and so has nothing at harvest time. The sluggard makes only one commitment: to his leisure. He’ll try any excuse to shy away from honest labor, even excusing himself through irrational claims of danger (Prov. 22:13).

The sluggard in the physical sense does nothing for the world around him; he leaves it unchanged, except for pillaging some of its resources. The sluggard in the spiritual sense is little different; he leaves the world no better than he found it, and perhaps a little poorer. When leaders become lazy and lose their diligence in doing good for God, they become spiritual sluggards and worthless to the kingdom (Matt. 5:13).

Wise leaders know their time is limited. They know they have no way to retrieve misused or wasted time. Jesus stressed this when He said, “I must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; the night is coming when no one can work” (John 9:4). Leaders in the body of Christ must remain diligent in doing good and in encouraging others to do likewise.

The Wicked Man

¹²A worthless person, a wicked man,
Walks with a perverse mouth;

¹³He winks with his eyes,
He shuffles his feet,
He points with his fingers;

¹⁴Perversity is in his heart,
He devises evil continually,
He sows discord.

¹⁵Therefore his calamity shall come suddenly;

Suddenly he shall be broken without remedy.

¹⁶These six things the LORD hates,
Yes, seven are an abomination to Him:

¹⁷A proud look,
A lying tongue,
Hands that shed innocent blood,

¹⁸A heart that devises wicked plans,
Feet that are swift in running to evil,

¹⁹A false witness who speaks lies,

And one who sows discord among brethren.

Beware of Adultery

²⁰My son, keep your father's command,
And do not forsake the law of your mother.

²¹Bind them continually upon your heart;
Tie them around your neck.

²²When you roam, they^a will lead you;
When you sleep, they will keep you;
And when you awake, they will speak with you.

²³For the commandment is a lamp,
And the law a light;
Reproofs of instruction are the way of life,

²⁴To keep you from the evil woman,
From the flattering tongue of a seductress.

²⁵Do not lust after her beauty in your heart,
Nor let her allure you with her eyelids.

²⁶For by means of a harlot
A man is reduced to a crust of bread;
And an adulteress^a will prey upon his precious life.

²⁷Can a man take fire to his bosom,
And his clothes not be burned?

²⁸Can one walk on hot coals,
And his feet not be seared?

²⁹So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife;

Whoever touches her shall not be innocent.

³⁰*People* do not despise a thief
If he steals to satisfy himself when he is starving.

³¹Yet when he is found, he must restore sevenfold;
He may have to give up all the substance of his house.

³²Whoever commits adultery with a woman lacks
understanding;

He who does so destroys his own soul.

³³Wounds and dishonor he will get,

And his reproach will not be wiped away.

³⁴For jealousy is a husband's fury;

Therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

³⁵He will accept no recompense,

Nor will he be appeased though you give many gifts.

Chapter 7

¹My son, keep my words,
And treasure my commands within you.
²Keep my commands and live,
And my law as the apple of your eye.
³Bind them on your fingers;
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
⁴Say to wisdom, “You are my sister,”
And call understanding your nearest kin,
⁵That they may keep you from the immoral woman,

From the seductress who flatters with her words.

The Crafty Harlot

⁶For at the window of my house
I looked through my lattice,
⁷And saw among the simple,
I perceived among the youths,
A young man devoid of understanding,
⁸Passing along the street near her corner;
And he took the path to her house
⁹In the twilight, in the evening,

In the black and dark night.

¹⁰And there a woman met him,
With the attire of a harlot, and a crafty heart.

¹¹She was loud and rebellious,
Her feet would not stay at home.

¹²At times she was outside, at times in the open square,

Lurking at every corner.

¹³So she caught him and kissed him;
With an impudent face she said to him:

¹⁴*"I have* peace offerings with me;
Today I have paid my vows.

¹⁵So I came out to meet you,
Diligently to seek your face,
And I have found you.

¹⁶I have spread my bed with tapestry,
Colored coverings of Egyptian linen.

¹⁷I have perfumed my bed
With myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

¹⁸Come, let us take our fill of love until morning;
Let us delight ourselves with love.

¹⁹For my husband is not at home;
He has gone on a long journey;

²⁰He has taken a bag of money with him,

And will come home on the appointed day."

²¹With her enticing speech she caused him to yield,
With her flattering lips she seduced him.

²²Immediately he went after her, as an ox goes to the slaughter,

Or as a fool to the correction of the stocks,^a

²³Till an arrow struck his liver.
As a bird hastens to the snare,

He did not know it would cost his life.

²⁴Now therefore, listen to me, my children;

Pay attention to the words of my mouth:

²⁵Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways,
Do not stray into her paths;

²⁶For she has cast down many wounded,
And all who were slain by her were strong men.

²⁷Her house is the way to hell, a

Descending to the chambers of death.

Chapter 8

The Excellence of Wisdom

¹Does not wisdom cry out,
And understanding lift up her voice?

²She takes her stand on the top of the high hill,
Beside the way, where the paths meet.

³She cries out by the gates, at the entry of the city,
At the entrance of the doors:

⁴"To you, O men, I call,
And my voice is to the sons of men.

⁵O you simple ones, understand prudence,
And you fools, be of an understanding heart.

⁶Listen, for I will speak of excellent things,
And from the opening of my lips will come right things;

⁷For my mouth will speak truth;
Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

⁸All the words of my mouth are with righteousness;
Nothing crooked or perverse is in them.

⁹They are all plain to him who understands,
And right to those who find knowledge.

¹⁰Receive my instruction, and not silver,
And knowledge rather than choice gold;

¹¹For wisdom is better than rubies,

And all the things one may desire cannot be compared with her.

¹²"I, wisdom, dwell with prudence,
And find out knowledge and discretion.

¹³The fear of the LORD is to hate evil;
Pride and arrogance and the evil way
And the perverse mouth I hate.

¹⁴Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom;
I am understanding, I have strength.

¹⁵By me kings reign,
And rulers decree justice.

¹⁶By me princes rule, and nobles,

The Law of Intuition: Wisdom Makes the Difference

Proverbs 8:15, 16

Leadership begins with our thoughts even before our actions. When our mind and our attitudes are right, we position ourselves to lead well. Wisdom desires to be the best friend of any leader. Wise leaders also have discernment in relationships, a hatred for what is wrong, and influence.

All the judges of the earth.^a

¹⁷I love those who love me,
And those who seek me diligently will find me.

¹⁸Riches and honor are with me,
Enduring riches and righteousness.

¹⁹My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold,
And my revenue than choice silver.

²⁰I traverse the way of righteousness,
In the midst of the paths of justice,

²¹That I may cause those who love me to inherit wealth,

That I may fill their treasuries.

²²"The LORD possessed me at the beginning of His way,

Before His works of old.

²³I have been established from everlasting,
From the beginning, before there was ever an earth.

²⁴When there were no depths I was brought forth,
When there were no fountains abounding with water.

²⁵Before the mountains were settled,
Before the hills, I was brought forth;

²⁶While as yet He had not made the earth or the fields,

Or the primal dust of the world.

²⁷When He prepared the heavens, I was there,
When He drew a circle on the face of the deep,

²⁸When He established the clouds above,
When He strengthened the fountains of the deep,

²⁹When He assigned to the sea its limit,
So that the waters would not transgress His command,

When He marked out the foundations of the earth,

³⁰Then I was beside Him as a master craftsman;^a

And I was daily His delight,
Rejoicing always before Him,

³¹Rejoicing in His inhabited world,

And my delight was with the sons of men.

³²"Now therefore, listen to me, my children,
For blessed are those who keep my ways.

³³Hear instruction and be wise,

And do not disdain it.

³⁴Blessed is the man who listens to me,
Watching daily at my gates,
Waiting at the posts of my doors.

³⁵For whoever finds me finds life,
And obtains favor from the LORD;

³⁶But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul;

All those who hate me love death.”

Chapter 9

The Way of Wisdom

¹Wisdom has built her house,
She has hewn out her seven pillars;

²She has slaughtered her meat,
She has mixed her wine,
She has also furnished her table.

³She has sent out her maidens,
She cries out from the highest places of the city,

⁴“Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!”

As for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,

⁵“Come, eat of my bread
And drink of the wine I have mixed.

⁶Forsake foolishness and live,

And go in the way of understanding.

⁷“He who corrects a scoffer gets shame for himself,
And he who rebukes a wicked man only harms himself.

⁸Do not correct a scoffer, lest he hate you;
Rebuke a wise man, and he will love you.

⁹Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser;

Teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

¹⁰“The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
And the knowledge of the Holy One is
understanding.

¹¹For by me your days will be multiplied,
And years of life will be added to you.

¹²If you are wise, you are wise for yourself,

And if you scoff, you will bear it alone.”

The Way of Folly

¹³A foolish woman is clamorous;
She is simple, and knows nothing.

¹⁴For she sits at the door of her house,
On a seat by the highest places of the city,

¹⁵To call to those who pass by,
Who go straight on their way:

¹⁶“Whoever is simple, let him turn in here”;
And as for him who lacks understanding, she says to
him,

¹⁷“Stolen water is sweet,
And bread eaten in secret is pleasant.”

¹⁸But he does not know that the dead are there,

That her guests are in the depths of hell.a

Chapter 10

Wise Sayings of Solomon

¹The proverbs of Solomon:

A wise son makes a glad father,

But a foolish son is the grief of his mother.

²Treasures of wickedness profit nothing,
But righteousness delivers from death.

³The LORD will not allow the righteous soul to famish,

But He casts away the desire of the wicked.

⁴He who has a slack hand becomes poor,
But the hand of the diligent makes rich.

⁵He who gathers in summer is a wise son;

He who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame.

⁶Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

⁷The memory of the righteous is blessed,

But the name of the wicked will rot.

⁸The wise in heart will receive commands,
But a prating fool will fall.

⁹He who walks with integrity walks securely,
But he who perverts his ways will become known.

¹⁰He who winks with the eye causes trouble,
But a prating fool will fall.

¹¹The mouth of the righteous is a well of life,
But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

¹²Hatred stirs up strife,
But love covers all sins.

¹³Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has understanding,

But a rod is for the back of him who is devoid of understanding.

¹⁴Wise people store up knowledge,
But the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

¹⁵The rich man's wealth is his strong city;
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.

¹⁶The labor of the righteous leads to life,
The wages of the wicked to sin.

¹⁷He who keeps instruction is in the way of life,

But he who refuses correction goes astray.

¹⁸Whoever hides hatred has lying lips,

And whoever spreads slander is a fool.

¹⁹In the multitude of words sin is not lacking,
But he who restrains his lips is wise.

²⁰The tongue of the righteous is choice silver;
The heart of the wicked is worth little.

²¹The lips of the righteous feed many,

But fools die for lack of wisdom.^a

²²The blessing of the LORD makes one rich,

And He adds no sorrow with it.

²³To do evil is like sport to a fool,
But a man of understanding has wisdom.

²⁴The fear of the wicked will come upon him,
And the desire of the righteous will be granted.

²⁵When the whirlwind passes by, the wicked is no
more,

But the righteous has an everlasting foundation.

²⁶As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes,

So is the lazy man to those who send him.

²⁷The fear of the LORD prolongs days,
But the years of the wicked will be shortened.

²⁸The hope of the righteous will be gladness,
But the expectation of the wicked will perish.

²⁹The way of the LORD is strength for the upright,

But destruction will come to the workers of iniquity.

³⁰The righteous will never be removed,
But the wicked will not inhabit the earth.

³¹The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom,
But the perverse tongue will be cut out.

³²The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable,

But the mouth of the wicked what is perverse.

The Law of Influence: Leaders Must Have a Skillful Tongue

Proverbs 10:6-32

A number of verses in Proverbs speak of the tongue and how to use it as a positive influence. Leaders who use words skillfully increase their influence. Leaders who understand the power of their words accomplish the following:

1. They proclaim justice and are blessed (v. 6).
2. They speak hope for the future, becoming a fountain of life to others (v. 11).
3. They speak forth wisdom and save others from ruin (vv. 13, 14).
4. They know when silence is more powerful than words (v. 19).
5. Their words feed and nourish many others (v. 21).
6. They express what is right and nurture the right in the hearts of those who follow (vv. 31, 32).

Chapter 11

¹Dishonest scales are an abomination to the LORD,
But a just weight is His delight.

²When pride comes, then comes shame;
But with the humble is wisdom.

³The integrity of the upright will guide them,
But the perversity of the unfaithful will destroy them.

⁴Riches do not profit in the day of wrath,
But righteousness delivers from death.

⁵The righteousness of the blameless will direct a his way aright,
But the wicked will fall by his own wickedness.

⁶The righteousness of the upright will deliver them,
But the unfaithful will be caught by their lust.

⁷When a wicked man dies, his expectation will perish,
And the hope of the unjust perishes.

⁸The righteous is delivered from trouble,
And it comes to the wicked instead.

⁹The hypocrite with his mouth destroys his neighbor,
But through knowledge the righteous will be delivered.

¹⁰When it goes well with the righteous, the city
rejoices;
And when the wicked perish, there is jubilation.

¹¹By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted,
But it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

¹²He who is devoid of wisdom despises his neighbor,
But a man of understanding holds his peace.

¹³A talebearer reveals secrets,
But he who is of a faithful spirit conceals a matter.

¹⁴Where there is no counsel, the people fall;
But in the multitude of counselors there is safety.

The Law of the Inner Circle: Your Advisors Will Make or Break You

Proverbs 11:14

Every leader ought to build an inner circle that adds value to him or her and to the leadership of the organization. But choose well, for the members of this inner circle will become your closest confidantes; your inner circle will make you or break you.

Proverbs 11:14 says, “Where there is no counsel, the people fall; but in the multitude of counselors there is safety.” So who belongs in the “council,” in this inner circle? Strive for the following:

1. Creative people

2. Loyal people

3. People who share your vision

4. Wise and intelligent people

5. People with complementary gifts

6. People with influence

7. People of faith

8. People of integrity

¹⁵He who is surety for a stranger will suffer,

But one who hates being surety is secure.

¹⁶A gracious woman retains honor,
But ruthless men retain riches.

¹⁷The merciful man does good for his own soul,
But he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.

¹⁸The wicked man does deceptive work,
But he who sows righteousness will have a sure reward.

¹⁹As righteousness leads to life,
So he who pursues evil pursues it to his own death.

²⁰Those who are of a perverse heart are an abomination to the LORD,

But the blameless in their ways are His delight.

²¹*Though they join* forces,^a the wicked will not go unpunished;

But the posterity of the righteous will be delivered.

²²As a ring of gold in a swine's snout,

So is a lovely woman who lacks discretion.

²³The desire of the righteous is only good,

But the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

²⁴There is one who scatters, yet increases more;
And there is one who withholds more than is right,
But it leads to poverty.

²⁵The generous soul will be made rich,
And he who waters will also be watered himself.

²⁶The people will curse him who withholds grain,

But blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.

²⁷He who earnestly seeks good finds favor,

But trouble will come to him who seeks evil.

²⁸He who trusts in his riches will fall,

But the righteous will flourish like foliage.

²⁹He who troubles his own house will inherit the wind,

And the fool will be servant to the wise of heart.

³⁰The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,

And he who wins souls is wise.

³¹If the righteous will be recompensed on the earth,

How much more the ungodly and the sinner.

Chapter 12

¹Whoever loves instruction loves knowledge,
But he who hates correction is stupid.

²A good man obtains favor from the LORD,
But a man of wicked intentions He will condemn.

³A man is not established by wickedness,
But the root of the righteous cannot be moved.

⁴An excellent^a wife is the crown of her husband,
But she who causes shame is like rottenness in his bones.

⁵The thoughts of the righteous are right,
But the counsels of the wicked are deceitful.

⁶The words of the wicked are, "Lie in wait for blood,"
But the mouth of the upright will deliver them.

⁷The wicked are overthrown and are no more,
But the house of the righteous will stand.

⁸A man will be commended according to his wisdom,
But he who is of a perverse heart will be despised.

⁹Better is the one who is slighted but has a servant,

Than he who honors himself but lacks bread.

¹⁰A righteous man regards the life of his animal,

But the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

¹¹He who tills his land will be satisfied with bread,

But he who follows frivolity is devoid of understanding. a

¹²The wicked covet the catch of evil men,

But the root of the righteous yields fruit.

¹³The wicked is ensnared by the transgression of his lips,

But the righteous will come through trouble.

¹⁴A man will be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth,

And the recompense of a man's hands will be rendered to him.

¹⁵The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
But he who heeds counsel is wise.

¹⁶A fool's wrath is known at once,
But a prudent man covers shame.

¹⁷He who speaks truth declares righteousness,
But a false witness, deceit.

¹⁸There is one who speaks like the piercings of a sword,

But the tongue of the wise promotes health.

¹⁹The truthful lip shall be established forever,
But a lying tongue is but for a moment.

²⁰Deceit is in the heart of those who devise evil,
But counselors of peace have joy.

²¹No grave trouble will overtake the righteous,

But the wicked shall be filled with evil.

²²Lying lips are an abomination to the LORD,

But those who deal truthfully are His delight.

²³A prudent man conceals knowledge,

But the heart of fools proclaims foolishness.

²⁴The hand of the diligent will rule,

But the lazy man will be put to forced labor.

²⁵Anxiety in the heart of man causes depression,

But a good word makes it glad.

²⁶The righteous should choose his friends carefully,

For the way of the wicked leads them astray.

²⁷The lazy man does not roast what he took in hunting,

But diligence is man's precious possession.

²⁸In the way of righteousness is life,

And in its pathway there is no death.

Chapter 13

¹A wise son heeds his father's instruction,

But a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

²A man shall eat well by the fruit of his mouth,
But the soul of the unfaithful feeds on violence.

³He who guards his mouth preserves his life,

But he who opens wide his lips shall have destruction.

⁴The soul of a lazy man desires, and has nothing;

But the soul of the diligent shall be made rich.

⁵A righteous man hates lying,
But a wicked man is loathsome and comes to shame.

⁶Righteousness guards him whose way is blameless,

But wickedness overthrows the sinner.

⁷There is one who makes himself rich, yet has nothing;

And one who makes himself poor, yet has great riches.

⁸The ransom of a man's life is his riches,

But the poor does not hear rebuke.

⁹The light of the righteous rejoices,
But the lamp of the wicked will be put out.

¹⁰By pride comes nothing but strife,
But with the well-advised is wisdom.

¹¹Wealth gained by dishonesty will be diminished,
But he who gathers by labor will increase.

¹²Hope deferred makes the heart sick,
But when the desire comes, it is a tree of life.

¹³He who despises the word will be destroyed,
But he who fears the commandment will be rewarded.

¹⁴The law of the wise is a fountain of life,
To turn one away from the snares of death.

¹⁵Good understanding gains favor,
But the way of the unfaithful is hard.

¹⁶Every prudent man acts with knowledge,
But a fool lays open his folly.

¹⁷A wicked messenger falls into trouble,
But a faithful ambassador brings health.

¹⁸Poverty and shame will come to him who disdains correction,

But he who regards a rebuke will be honored.

¹⁹A desire accomplished is sweet to the soul,

But it is an abomination to fools to depart from evil.

²⁰He who walks with wise men will be wise,

But the companion of fools will be destroyed.

Effective Leadership Invites Partnerships

Proverbs 13:20

You become like those with whom you partner. Choose your partners for many of the same reasons a leader chooses his or her inner circle. Choose those who add value to you and can benefit from you. Both leaders and organizations should see improvement for having entered into partnership.

²¹Evil pursues sinners,

But to the righteous, good shall be repaid.

²²A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children,

But the wealth of the sinner is stored up for the righteous.

²³Much food is in the fallow ground of the poor,

And for lack of justice there is waste.^a

²⁴He who spares his rod hates his son,

But he who loves him disciplines him promptly.

²⁵The righteous eats to the satisfying of his soul,

But the stomach of the wicked shall be in want.

Chapter 14

¹The wise woman builds her house,

But the foolish pulls it down with her hands.

²He who walks in his uprightness fears the LORD,

But he who is perverse in his ways despises Him.

³In the mouth of a fool is a rod of pride,

But the lips of the wise will preserve them.

⁴Where no oxen are, the trough is clean;

But much increase comes by the strength of an ox.

⁵A faithful witness does not lie,

But a false witness will utter lies.

⁶A scoffer seeks wisdom and does not find it,

But knowledge is easy to him who understands.

⁷Go from the presence of a foolish man,

When you do not perceive in him the lips of knowledge.

⁸The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way,

But the folly of fools is deceit.

⁹Fools mock at sin,

But among the upright there is favor.

¹⁰The heart knows its own bitterness,

And a stranger does not share its joy.

¹¹The house of the wicked will be overthrown,

But the tent of the upright will flourish.

¹²There is a way that seems right to a man,

But its end is the way of death.

¹³Even in laughter the heart may sorrow,

And the end of mirth may be grief.

¹⁴The backslider in heart will be filled with his own ways,

But a good man will be satisfied from above. a

¹⁵The simple believes every word,

But the prudent considers well his steps.

¹⁶A wise man fears and departs from evil,

But a fool rages and is self-confident.

¹⁷A quick-tempered man acts foolishly,

And a man of wicked intentions is hated.

¹⁸The simple inherit folly,

But the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

¹⁹The evil will bow before the good,

And the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

²⁰The poor man is hated even by his own neighbor,

But the rich has many friends.

²¹He who despises his neighbor sins;

But he who has mercy on the poor, happy is he.

²²Do they not go astray who devise evil?

But mercy and truth belong to those who devise good.

²³In all labor there is profit,

But idle chatter^a leads only to poverty.

²⁴The crown of the wise is their riches,

But the foolishness of fools is folly.

²⁵A true witness delivers souls,

But a deceitful witness speaks lies.

²⁶In the fear of the LORD there is strong confidence,
And His children will have a place of refuge.

²⁷The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,

To turn one away from the snares of death.

²⁸In a multitude of people is a king's honor,

But in the lack of people is the downfall of a prince.

²⁹*He who is* slow to wrath has great understanding,

But he who is impulsive^a exalts folly.

³⁰A sound heart is life to the body,

But envy is rottenness to the bones.

³¹He who oppresses the poor reproaches his Maker,

But he who honors Him has mercy on the needy.

³²The wicked is banished in his wickedness,

But the righteous has a refuge in his death.

³³Wisdom rests in the heart of him who has understanding,

But what is in the heart of fools is made known.

³⁴Righteousness exalts a nation,

But sin is a reproach to any people.

³⁵The king's favor is toward a wise servant,

But his wrath is against him who causes shame.

Chapter 15

¹A soft answer turns away wrath,
But a harsh word stirs up anger.

²The tongue of the wise uses knowledge rightly,
But the mouth of fools pours forth foolishness.

³The eyes of the LORD are in every place,
Keeping watch on the evil and the good.

⁴A wholesome tongue is a tree of life,
But perverseness in it breaks the spirit.

⁵A fool despises his father's instruction,
But he who receives correction is prudent.

⁶*In* the house of the righteous there is much treasure,

But in the revenue of the wicked is trouble.

⁷The lips of the wise disperse knowledge,
But the heart of the fool does not do so.

Master Communication and You Manage Conflict

Proverbs 15:1-7

God rightly expects leaders to manage conflict within their organizations. But how can you best accomplish this?

A good place to start is Proverbs 15:1—yet while we often quote this verse, we seldom practice it. Sometimes only the leaders are given liberty to express anger, and sooner or later this kind of unhealthy environment comes back to haunt them. Leaders must create safe places for communication. Master communication and you manage conflict. Look at the first seven verses of Proverbs 15 and note its counsel about managing conflict:

1. Remain calm and gentle when confronting conflict, and your example will become contagious (v. 1).
2. Speak wisely, making sure your information is truthful and accurate (v. 2).
3. Remember, God is the ultimate Judge and will execute justice (v. 3).
4. Use your words to foster healing; fix the problem, not the blame (v. 4).
5. Stay teachable; be open to correction and quick to apologize when wrong (v. 5).
6. Add value to everyone who contacts you, even when you disagree (v. 6).
7. Speak words that spread knowledge and understanding (v. 7).

⁸The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD,
But the prayer of the upright is His delight.

⁹The way of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD,

But He loves him who follows righteousness.

¹⁰Harsh discipline is for him who forsakes the way,
And he who hates correction will die.

¹¹Hell^a and Destruction^b are before the LORD;

So how much more the hearts of the sons of men.

¹²A scoffer does not love one who corrects him,
Nor will he go to the wise.

¹³A merry heart makes a cheerful countenance,
But by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

¹⁴The heart of him who has understanding seeks knowledge,

But the mouth of fools feeds on foolishness.

¹⁵All the days of the afflicted are evil,

But he who is of a merry heart has a continual feast.

¹⁶Better is a little with the fear of the LORD,
Than great treasure with trouble.

¹⁷Better is a dinner of herbs^a where love is,

Than a fatted calf with hatred.

¹⁸A wrathful man stirs up strife,

But he who is slow to anger allays contention.

¹⁹The way of the lazy man is like a hedge of thorns,

But the way of the upright is a highway.

²⁰A wise son makes a father glad,

But a foolish man despises his mother.

²¹Folly is joy to him who is destitute of discernment,

But a man of understanding walks uprightly.

²²Without counsel, plans go awry,

But in the multitude of counselors they are established.

²³A man has joy by the answer of his mouth,

And a word spoken in due season, how good it is!

²⁴The way of life winds upward for the wise,

That he may turn away from hell^a below.

²⁵The LORD will destroy the house of the proud,

But He will establish the boundary of the widow.

²⁶The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD,

But the words of the pure are pleasant.

²⁷He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house,

But he who hates bribes will live.

²⁸The heart of the righteous studies how to answer,

But the mouth of the wicked pours forth evil.

²⁹The LORD is far from the wicked,

But He hears the prayer of the righteous.

³⁰The light of the eyes rejoices the heart,

And a good report makes the bones healthy.^{a}

³¹The ear that hears the rebukes of life
Will abide among the wise.

³²He who disdains instruction despises his own soul,
But he who heeds rebuke gets understanding.

³³The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom,

And before honor is humility.

Chapter 16

¹The preparations of the heart belong to man,
But the answer of the tongue is from the LORD.

²All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes,
But the LORD weighs the spirits.

³Commit your works to the LORD,
And your thoughts will be established.

The Law of Navigation

Proverbs 16:1-3

Effective leaders practice the Law of Navigation. Proverbs 16 opens with these words: “The preparations of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from the LORD. All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the spirits. Commit your works to the LORD, and your thoughts will be established” (vv. 1-3).

These verses teach us to:

- check the source of our wisdom
- check our motives
- check the outcome we are pursuing

Consider five key words to understanding how God helps leaders to navigate their way through life:

1. Process: God's plan usually unfolds over time. What is He revealing progressively?

2. Purpose: God wants to accomplish His purposes. Why were you created?

3. Potential: God will use your gifts and passion. Does this goal fit who you are?

4. Prioritize: God will ask you to adjust your time and energy. What steps must you take?

5. Proceed: God will eventually require you to act. When should you start?

⁴The LORD has made all for Himself,

Yes, even the wicked for the day of doom.

⁵Everyone proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD;

Though they join forces,^a none will go unpunished.

⁶In mercy and truth
Atonement is provided for iniquity;

And by the fear of the LORD one departs from evil.

⁷When a man's ways please the LORD,
He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

⁸Better is a little with righteousness,
Than vast revenues without justice.

⁹A man's heart plans his way,

But the LORD directs his steps.

¹⁰Divination is on the lips of the king;
His mouth must not transgress in judgment.

¹¹Honest weights and scales are the LORD's;
All the weights in the bag are His work.

¹²*It is* an abomination for kings to commit
wickedness,

For a throne is established by righteousness.

¹³Righteous lips are the delight of kings,
And they love him who speaks what is right.

¹⁴As messengers of death is the king's wrath,
But a wise man will appease it.

¹⁵In the light of the king's face is life,

And his favor is like a cloud of the latter rain.

¹⁶How much better to get wisdom than gold!

And to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.

¹⁷The highway of the upright is to depart from evil;

He who keeps his way preserves his soul.

¹⁸Pride goes before destruction,
And a haughty spirit before a fall.

¹⁹Better to be of a humble spirit with the lowly,

Than to divide the spoil with the proud.

²⁰He who heeds the word wisely will find good,

And whoever trusts in the LORD, happy is he.

²¹The wise in heart will be called prudent,
And sweetness of the lips increases learning.

²²Understanding is a wellspring of life to him who has it.

But the correction of fools is folly.

²³The heart of the wise teaches his mouth,
And adds learning to his lips.

²⁴Pleasant words are like a honeycomb,
Sweetness to the soul and health to the bones.

²⁵There is a way that seems right to a man,
But its end is the way of death.

²⁶The person who labors, labors for himself,
For his hungry mouth drives him on.

²⁷An ungodly man digs up evil,
And it is on his lips like a burning fire.

²⁸A perverse man sows strife,
And a whisperer separates the best of friends.

²⁹A violent man entices his neighbor,
And leads him in a way that is not good.

³⁰He winks his eye to devise perverse things;
He purses his lips and brings about evil.

³¹The silver-haired head is a crown of glory,

If it is found in the way of righteousness.

³²*He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty,*

And he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city.

³³*The lot is cast into the lap,*

But its every decision is from the LORD.

Chapter 17

¹Better is a dry morsel with quietness,

Than a house full of feasting^a with strife.

²A wise servant will rule over a son who causes shame,

And will share an inheritance among the brothers.

It's Not About Position, but Empowerment

Proverbs 17:2

Our influence has less to do with our position or title than it does with the life we live. It's not about position, but production. It is not the education we get, but the empowerment we give, that makes a difference to others.

The key word is credibility. We gain credibility when our life matches our talk and when both add value to others. In the words of Proverbs 17:2, it's better to be a wise slave than a foolish son. Answer the following vital questions:

1. Consistency: Are you the same person no matter who's with you?
2. Choices: Do you make decisions based on how they benefit you or others?

3. Credit: Are you quick to recognize others for their efforts when you succeed?

4. Character: Do you work harder at your image or your integrity?

5. Credibility: Have you recognized that credibility is a victory, not a gift?

³The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold,

But the LORD tests the hearts.

⁴An evildoer gives heed to false lips;

A liar listens eagerly to a spiteful tongue.

⁵He who mocks the poor reproaches his Maker;

He who is glad at calamity will not go unpunished.

⁶Children's children are the crown of old men,
And the glory of children is their father.

⁷Excellent speech is not becoming to a fool,

Much less lying lips to a prince.

⁸A present is a precious stone in the eyes of its possessor;

Wherever he turns, he prospers.

⁹He who covers a transgression seeks love,

But he who repeats a matter separates friends.

¹⁰Rebuke is more effective for a wise man

Than a hundred blows on a fool.

¹¹An evil man seeks only rebellion;

Therefore a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

¹²Let a man meet a bear robbed of her cubs,

Rather than a fool in his folly.

¹³Whoever rewards evil for good,

Evil will not depart from his house.

¹⁴The beginning of strife is like releasing water;

Therefore stop contention before a quarrel starts.

¹⁵He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just,

Both of them alike are an abomination to the LORD.

¹⁶Why is there in the hand of a fool the purchase price of wisdom,

Since he has no heart for it?

¹⁷A friend loves at all times,

And a brother is born for adversity.

¹⁸A man devoid of understanding shakes hands in a pledge,

And becomes surety for his friend.

¹⁹He who loves transgression loves strife,
And he who exalts his gate seeks destruction.

²⁰He who has a deceitful heart finds no good,
And he who has a perverse tongue falls into evil.

²¹He who begets a scoffer does so to his sorrow,
And the father of a fool has no joy.

²²A merry heart does good, like medicine,^a
But a broken spirit dries the bones.

²³A wicked man accepts a bribe behind the back^a
To pervert the ways of justice.

²⁴Wisdom is in the sight of him who has
understanding,

But the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.

²⁵A foolish son is a grief to his father,
And bitterness to her who bore him.

²⁶Also, to punish the righteous is not good,
Nor to strike princes for their uprightness.

²⁷He who has knowledge spares his words,
And a man of understanding is of a calm spirit.

²⁸Even a fool is counted wise when he holds his peace;

When he shuts his lips, he is considered perceptive.

Chapter 18

¹A man who isolates himself seeks his own desire;
He rages against all wise judgment.

²A fool has no delight in understanding,
But in expressing his own heart.

³When the wicked comes, contempt comes also;
And with dishonor comes reproach.

⁴The words of a man's mouth are deep waters;
The wellspring of wisdom is a flowing brook.

⁵*It is* not good to show partiality to the wicked,
Or to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

⁶A fool's lips enter into contention,
And his mouth calls for blows.

⁷A fool's mouth is his destruction,
And his lips are the snare of his soul.

⁸The words of a talebearer are like tasty trifles,^a
And they go down into the inmost body.

⁹He who is slothful in his work
Is a brother to him who is a great destroyer.

¹⁰The name of the LORD is a strong tower;
The righteous run to it and are safe.

¹¹The rich man's wealth is his strong city,
And like a high wall in his own esteem.

¹²Before destruction the heart of a man is haughty,
And before honor is humility.

¹³He who answers a matter before he hears it,
It is folly and shame to him.

¹⁴The spirit of a man will sustain him in sickness,
But who can bear a broken spirit?

¹⁵The heart of the prudent acquires knowledge,
And the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

¹⁶A man's gift makes room for him,
And brings him before great men.

¹⁷The first one to plead his cause seems right,
Until his neighbor comes and examines him.

¹⁸Casting lots causes contentions to cease,
And keeps the mighty apart.

¹⁹A brother offended is harder to win than a strong city,

And contentions are like the bars of a castle.

²⁰A man's stomach shall be satisfied from the fruit of his mouth;

From the produce of his lips he shall be filled.

²¹Death and life are in the power of the tongue,

And those who love it will eat its fruit.

The Law of Influence: The Evolution of Leadership

Proverbs 18:21

Few muscles in a body wield more power than the little one inside the mouth. The Bible says, "Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit" (Prov. 18:21). Leaders who understand this greatly increase their influence.

Our understanding of leadership has evolved over the last five or six decades. The way people expect leaders to lead has changed. Many have said our culture has witnessed four styles of leadership since 1950:

1. The Military Commander: Leaders came out of the army and expected unquestioning obedience from subordinates. Many of our presidents had military backgrounds.

2. The Chief Executive Officer: Most leaders migrated to a different style driven by vision and shared by everyone. Yet it was still top down and possibly very narrow in scope.

3. The Coach: Leaders moved toward a coach model where they saw employees as players on a team. This produced even better results, but still limited the possibilities to the vision of the coach.

4. The Poet and Gardener: Today, leaders see the need to express the heart of the team, as a poet gives words to the heart of readers. They develop players using encouragement and direction. They recognize the power of words and use them wisely.

²²*He who* finds a wife finds a good thing,

And obtains favor from the LORD.

²³The poor man uses entreaties,

But the rich answers roughly.

²⁴A man who has friends must himself be friendly,^a

But there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Chapter 19

¹Better is the poor who walks in his integrity

Than one who is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

²Also it is not good for a soul to be without knowledge,

And he sins who hastens with his feet.

³The foolishness of a man twists his way,

And his heart frets against the LORD.

⁴Wealth makes many friends,

But the poor is separated from his friend.

⁵A false witness will not go unpunished,

And he who speaks lies will not escape.

⁶Many entreat the favor of the nobility,

And every man is a friend to one who gives gifts.

⁷All the brothers of the poor hate him;

How much more do his friends go far from him!

He may pursue them with words, yet they abandon him.

⁸He who gets wisdom loves his own soul;

He who keeps understanding will find good.

⁹A false witness will not go unpunished,

And he who speaks lies shall perish.

¹⁰Luxury is not fitting for a fool,

Much less for a servant to rule over princes.

¹¹The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger,

And his glory is to overlook a transgression.

¹²The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion,

But his favor is like dew on the grass.

¹³A foolish son is the ruin of his father,

And the contentions of a wife are a continual dripping.

¹⁴Houses and riches are an inheritance from fathers,

But a prudent wife is from the LORD.

¹⁵Laziness casts one into a deep sleep,

And an idle person will suffer hunger.

¹⁶He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul,

But he who is careless^a of his ways will die.

¹⁷He who has pity on the poor lends to the LORD,

And He will pay back what he has given.

¹⁸Chasten your son while there is hope,

And do not set your heart on his destruction.^a

¹⁹*A man of great wrath will suffer punishment;
For if you rescue him, you will have to do it again.*

²⁰Listen to counsel and receive instruction,
That you may be wise in your latter days.

²¹There are many plans in a man's heart,
Nevertheless the LORD's counsel—that will stand.

²²What is desired in a man is kindness,
And a poor man is better than a liar.

²³The fear of the LORD leads to life,
And he who has it will abide in satisfaction;
He will not be visited with evil.

²⁴A lazy man buries his hand in the bowl,^a
And will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

²⁵Strike a scoffer, and the simple will become wary;
Rebuke one who has understanding, and he will discern knowledge.

²⁶He who mistreats his father and chases away his mother

Is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.

²⁷Cease listening to instruction, my son,

And you will stray from the words of knowledge.

²⁸A disreputable witness scorns justice,

And the mouth of the wicked devours iniquity.

²⁹Judgments are prepared for scoffers,

And beatings for the backs of fools.

Chapter 20

¹Wine is a mocker,
Strong drink is a brawler,

And whoever is led astray by it is not wise.

²The wrath^a of a king is like the roaring of a lion;

Whoever provokes him to anger sins against his own life.

³*It is* honorable for a man to stop striving,

Since any fool can start a quarrel.

⁴The lazy man will not plow because of winter;

He will beg during harvest and have nothing.

⁵Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water,

But a man of understanding will draw it out.

⁶Most men will proclaim each his own goodness,

But who can find a faithful man?

⁷The righteous man walks in his integrity;

His children are blessed after him.

⁸A king who sits on the throne of judgment

Scatters all evil with his eyes.

⁹Who can say, "I have made my heart clean,

I am pure from my sin"?

¹⁰Diverse weights and diverse measures,

They are both alike, an abomination to the LORD.

¹¹Even a child is known by his deeds,

Whether what he does is pure and right.

¹²The hearing ear and the seeing eye,

The LORD has made them both.

¹³Do not love sleep, lest you come to poverty;

Open your eyes, and you will be satisfied with bread.

¹⁴"It is good for nothing,"^a cries the buyer;

But when he has gone his way, then he boasts.

¹⁵There is gold and a multitude of rubies,

But the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

¹⁶Take the garment of one who is surety for a stranger,

And hold it as a pledge when it is for a seductress.

¹⁷Bread gained by deceit is sweet to a man,

But afterward his mouth will be filled with gravel.

¹⁸Plans are established by counsel;

By wise counsel wage war.

¹⁹He who goes about as a talebearer reveals secrets;

Therefore do not associate with one who flatters with his lips.

²⁰Whoever curses his father or his mother,

His lamp will be put out in deep darkness.

²¹An inheritance gained hastily at the beginning

Will not be blessed at the end.

²²Do not say, "I will recompense evil";

Wait for the LORD, and He will save you.

²³Diverse weights are an abomination to the LORD,

And dishonest scales are not good.

²⁴A man's steps are of the LORD;

How then can a man understand his own way?

²⁵*It is* a snare for a man to devote rashly something as holy,

And afterward to reconsider his vows.

²⁶A wise king sifts out the wicked,

And brings the threshing wheel over them.

²⁷The spirit of a man is the lamp of the LORD,

Searching all the inner depths of his heart.a

²⁸Mercy and truth preserve the king,

And by lovingkindness he upholds his throne.

²⁹The glory of young men is their strength,

And the splendor of old men is their gray head.

³⁰Blows that hurt cleanse away evil,

As do stripes the inner depths of the heart.a

Chapter 21

¹The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD,

Leaders Know the Difference

Proverbs 21:1

Leaders can and should make their plans, but they must never forget that it is God who controls the future. "The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD," says the Bible. "Like the rivers of water; He turns it wherever He wishes" (Prov. 21:1). Successful leaders remember this and therefore know the difference between being in charge and being in control.

We kid ourselves if we think we are in control. We may have charge of a group, but the best we can do is remain under control. God is the Ultimate Leader, and He is forever in control. It has been rightly said: "We don't know what the future holds, but we do know the One who holds the future."

Like the rivers of water;

He turns it wherever He wishes.

²Every way of a man is right in his own eyes,

But the LORD weighs the hearts.

³To do righteousness and justice

Is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

⁴A haughty look, a proud heart,

And the plowing^a of the wicked are sin.

⁵The plans of the diligent lead surely to plenty,

But those of everyone who is hasty, surely to poverty.

⁶Getting treasures by a lying tongue

Is the fleeting fantasy of those who seek death.^a

⁷The violence of the wicked will destroy them,^a

Because they refuse to do justice.

⁸The way of a guilty man is perverse;^a

But as for the pure, his work is right.

⁹Better to dwell in a corner of a housetop,

Than in a house shared with a contentious woman.

¹⁰The soul of the wicked desires evil;

His neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.

¹¹When the scoffer is punished, the simple is made wise;

But when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

¹²The righteous God wisely considers the house of the wicked,

Overthrowing the wicked for their wickedness.

¹³Whoever shuts his ears to the cry of the poor
Will also cry himself and not be heard.

¹⁴A gift in secret pacifies anger,
And a bribe behind the back, ^a strong wrath.

¹⁵*It is* a joy for the just to do justice,
But destruction will come to the workers of iniquity.

¹⁶A man who wanders from the way of understanding

Will rest in the assembly of the dead.

¹⁷He who loves pleasure will be a poor man;
He who loves wine and oil will not be rich.

¹⁸The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous,
And the unfaithful for the upright.

¹⁹Better to dwell in the wilderness,
Than with a contentious and angry woman.

²⁰*There is* desirable treasure,
And oil in the dwelling of the wise,
But a foolish man squanders it.

²¹He who follows righteousness and mercy
Finds life, righteousness, and honor.

²²A wise man scales the city of the mighty,
And brings down the trusted stronghold.

²³Whoever guards his mouth and tongue
Keeps his soul from troubles.

²⁴A proud and haughty man— “Scoffer” is his name;
He acts with arrogant pride.

²⁵The desire of the lazy man kills him,
For his hands refuse to labor.

²⁶He covets greedily all day long,

But the righteous gives and does not spare.

²⁷The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination;

How much more when he brings it with wicked intent!

²⁸A false witness shall perish,

But the man who hears him will speak endlessly.

²⁹A wicked man hardens his face,

But as for the upright, he establishes^a his way.

³⁰*There is* no wisdom or understanding

Or counsel against the LORD.

³¹The horse is prepared for the day of battle,

But deliverance is of the LORD.

Chapter 22

¹A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches,

Loving favor rather than silver and gold.

²The rich and the poor have this in common,

The LORD is the maker of them all.

³A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself,

But the simple pass on and are punished.

⁴By humility and the fear of the LORD

Are riches and honor and life.

⁵Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse;

He who guards his soul will be far from them.

⁶Train up a child in the way he should go,

And when he is old he will not depart from it.

Leading Our Children

Proverbs 22:6

God calls parents to lead their children. He tells them that if they train up a child in the way he should go, when he is old he will not depart from it (Prov. 22:6). And just how does a parent become a good leader for a child? Partly by focusing on three key words:

1. Modeling: Abraham Lincoln said, “There is but one way to train up a child in the way he should go, and that is to travel it yourself.” A good example is worth a thousand sermons. What you do has more impact on your child than all the lectures you could ever give.

2. Management: Good management is the ability to discern the uniqueness of a child and teach him or her accordingly. We are to train up a child in the way he should go. This may mean we will have to adapt our style, depending on the child’s temperament and wiring.

3. Memories: Parents should create memories. Why? Because memories are more important than things. Note that the verse says, “When he is old, he will not depart....” This implies that the child retains some memories of his early experiences and embraces them later in life.

⁷The rich rules over the poor,

And the borrower is servant to the lender.

⁸He who sows iniquity will reap sorrow,

And the rod of his anger will fail.

⁹He who has a generous eye will be blessed,

For he gives of his bread to the poor.

¹⁰Cast out the scoffer, and contention will leave;

Yes, strife and reproach will cease.

¹¹He who loves purity of heart
And has grace on his lips,

The king will be his friend.

¹²The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge,

But He overthrows the words of the faithless.

¹³The lazy man says, “There is a lion outside!

I shall be slain in the streets!”

¹⁴The mouth of an immoral woman is a deep pit;

He who is abhorred by the LORD will fall there.

¹⁵Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child;

The rod of correction will drive it far from him.

¹⁶He who oppresses the poor to increase his riches,

And he who gives to the rich, will surely come to poverty.

Sayings of the Wise

¹⁷Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise,

And apply your heart to my knowledge;

¹⁸For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you;

Let them all be fixed upon your lips,

¹⁹So that your trust may be in the LORD;

I have instructed you today, even you.

²⁰Have I not written to you excellent things

Of counsels and knowledge,

²¹That I may make you know the certainty of the words of truth,

That you may answer words of truth

To those who send to you?

²²Do not rob the poor because he is poor,

Nor oppress the afflicted at the gate;

²³For the LORD will plead their cause,

And plunder the soul of those who plunder them.

²⁴Make no friendship with an angry man,

And with a furious man do not go,

²⁵Lest you learn his ways

And set a snare for your soul.

²⁶Do not be one of those who shakes hands in a pledge,

One of those who is surety for debts;

²⁷If you have nothing with which to pay,

Why should he take away your bed from under you?

²⁸Do not remove the ancient landmark

Which your fathers have set.

²⁹Do you see a man who excels in his work?
He will stand before kings;

He will not stand before unknown men.

Chapter 23

¹When you sit down to eat with a ruler,
Consider carefully what is before you;

²And put a knife to your throat
If you are a man given to appetite.

³Do not desire his delicacies,

For they are deceptive food.

⁴Do not overwork to be rich;
Because of your own understanding, cease!

⁵Will you set your eyes on that which is not?
For riches certainly make themselves wings;

They fly away like an eagle toward heaven.

⁶Do not eat the bread of a miser,^a
Nor desire his delicacies;

⁷For as he thinks in his heart, so is he.
“Eat and drink!” he says to you,
But his heart is not with you.

⁸The morsel you have eaten, you will vomit up,
And waste your pleasant words.

⁹Do not speak in the hearing of a fool,
For he will despise the wisdom of your words.

¹⁰Do not remove the ancient landmark,
Nor enter the fields of the fatherless;

¹¹For their Redeemer is mighty;

He will plead their cause against you.

¹²Apply your heart to instruction,

And your ears to words of knowledge.

¹³Do not withhold correction from a child,
For if you beat him with a rod, he will not die.

¹⁴You shall beat him with a rod,

And deliver his soul from hell. a

¹⁵My son, if your heart is wise,
My heart will rejoice—indeed, I myself;

¹⁶Yes, my inmost being will rejoice

When your lips speak right things.

¹⁷Do not let your heart envy sinners,
But be zealous for the fear of the LORD all the day;

¹⁸For surely there is a hereafter,

And your hope will not be cut off.

¹⁹Hear, my son, and be wise;

Vision: Hope for a Preferred Future

Proverbs 23:7-19

Leaders understand the importance of their minds to the future of their organizations. Consider some of the timeless principles offered in Proverbs 23 about our minds and a godly vision for tomorrow:

1. Your thoughts determine your character (v. 7).
2. Be careful of your thoughts; they may break into words at any time (v. 7).
3. Don't waste your thoughts on those who don't hunger for them (v. 9).
4. The first person you lead is you, and the first organ you master is your mind (v. 12).
5. Don't let your mind drift away from God's truth and into vain envy (v. 17).
6. Stay confident that your vision will come to pass (v. 18).
7. Discipline your thoughts to remain steadfast in what you know is right (v. 19).

And guide your heart in the way.

²⁰Do not mix with winebibbers,
Or with gluttonous eaters of meat;

²¹For the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty,

And drowsiness will clothe a man with rags.

²²Listen to your father who begot you,

And do not despise your mother when she is old.

²³Buy the truth, and do not sell it,
Also wisdom and instruction and understanding.

²⁴The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice,
And he who begets a wise child will delight in him.

²⁵Let your father and your mother be glad,

And let her who bore you rejoice.

²⁶My son, give me your heart,
And let your eyes observe my ways.

²⁷For a harlot is a deep pit,
And a seductress is a narrow well.

²⁸She also lies in wait as for a victim,

And increases the unfaithful among men.

²⁹Who has woe?

Who has sorrow?

Who has contentions?

Who has complaints?

Who has wounds without cause?

Who has redness of eyes?

³⁰Those who linger long at the wine,

Those who go in search of mixed wine.

³¹Do not look on the wine when it is red,

When it sparkles in the cup,

When it swirls around smoothly;

³²At the last it bites like a serpent,

And stings like a viper.

³³Your eyes will see strange things,

And your heart will utter perverse things.

³⁴Yes, you will be like one who lies down in the midst of the sea,

Or like one who lies at the top of the mast, saying:

³⁵"They have struck me, but I was not hurt;

They have beaten me, but I did not feel it.

When shall I awake, that I may seek another drink?"

Chapter 24

¹Do not be envious of evil men,
Nor desire to be with them;
²For their heart devises violence,

And their lips talk of troublemaking.

³Through wisdom a house is built,
And by understanding it is established;
⁴By knowledge the rooms are filled

With all precious and pleasant riches.

⁵A wise man is strong,
Yes, a man of knowledge increases strength;
⁶For by wise counsel you will wage your own war,

And in a multitude of counselors there is safety.

⁷Wisdom is too lofty for a fool;

He does not open his mouth in the gate.

⁸He who plots to do evil
Will be called a schemer.

⁹The devising of foolishness is sin,

And the scoffer is an abomination to men.

¹⁰*If* you faint in the day of adversity,

Your strength is small.

¹¹Deliver those who are drawn toward death,
And hold back those stumbling to the slaughter.

¹²If you say, "Surely we did not know this,"
Does not He who weighs the hearts consider it?
He who keeps your soul, does He not know it?

And will He not render to each man according to his deeds?

¹³My son, eat honey because it is good,
And the honeycomb which is sweet to your taste;

¹⁴So shall the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul;
If you have found it, there is a prospect,

And your hope will not be cut off.

¹⁵Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous;

Do not plunder his resting place;

¹⁶For a righteous man may fall seven times
And rise again,

But the wicked shall fall by calamity.

¹⁷Do not rejoice when your enemy falls,
And do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles;

¹⁸Lest the LORD see it, and it displease Him,
And He turn away His wrath from him.

¹⁹Do not fret because of evildoers,
Nor be envious of the wicked;

²⁰For there will be no prospect for the evil man;

The lamp of the wicked will be put out.

²¹My son, fear the LORD and the king;
Do not associate with those given to change;

²²For their calamity will rise suddenly,
And who knows the ruin those two can bring?

Further Sayings of the Wise

²³These things also belong to the wise:

It is not good to show partiality in judgment.

²⁴He who says to the wicked, “You are righteous,”
Him the people will curse;
Nations will abhor him.

²⁵But those who rebuke the wicked will have delight,
And a good blessing will come upon them.

²⁶He who gives a right answer kisses the lips.

²⁷Prepare your outside work,
Make it fit for yourself in the field;

And afterward build your house.

²⁸Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause,

For would you deceive with your lips?

²⁹Do not say, “I will do to him just as he has done to
me;

I will render to the man according to his work.”

³⁰I went by the field of the lazy man,
And by the vineyard of the man devoid of
understanding;

³¹And there it was, all overgrown with thorns;
Its surface was covered with nettles;
Its stone wall was broken down.

³²When I saw it, I considered it well;
I looked on it and received instruction:

³³A little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to rest;

³⁴So shall your poverty come like a prowler,

And your need like an armed man.

Chapter 25

Further Wise Sayings of Solomon

¹These also are proverbs of Solomon which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied:

²*It is* the glory of God to conceal a matter,

But the glory of kings is to search out a matter.

³As the heavens for height and the earth for depth,

So the heart of kings is unsearchable.

⁴Take away the dross from silver,

And it will go to the silversmith for jewelry.

⁵Take away the wicked from before the king,

And his throne will be established in righteousness.

⁶Do not exalt yourself in the presence of the king,

And do not stand in the place of the great;

⁷For it is better that he say to you,

“Come up here,”

Than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince,

Whom your eyes have seen.

⁸Do not go hastily to court;
For what will you do in the end,
When your neighbor has put you to shame?

⁹Debate your case with your neighbor,
And do not disclose the secret to another;
¹⁰Lest he who hears it expose your shame,

And your reputation be ruined.

¹¹A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold
In settings of silver.

¹²*Like* an earring of gold and an ornament of fine gold

Is a wise rebuker to an obedient ear.

¹³Like the cold of snow in time of harvest
Is a faithful messenger to those who send him,

For he refreshes the soul of his masters.

¹⁴Whoever falsely boasts of giving

Is like clouds and wind without rain.

¹⁵By long forbearance a ruler is persuaded,

And a gentle tongue breaks a bone.

¹⁶Have you found honey?
Eat only as much as you need,

Lest you be filled with it and vomit.

¹⁷Seldom set foot in your neighbor's house,

Lest he become weary of you and hate you.

¹⁸A man who bears false witness against his neighbor

Is like a club, a sword, and a sharp arrow.

¹⁹Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble

Is like a bad tooth and a foot out of joint.

²⁰*Like* one who takes away a garment in cold weather,

And like vinegar on soda,

Is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.

²¹If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat;
And if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;

²²For so you will heap coals of fire on his head,

And the LORD will reward you.

Situational Leaders: Read the Need, Then Lead

Proverbs 25:21, 22

Leaders need to respond to individuals based on their needs rather than their faults. Proverbs 25:21, 22 encourages us to see what others need—even our enemies—and respond accordingly.

Good leaders do this well. They don't lead out of a predetermined package of behaviors, but size up every situation and discern what must happen to reach the desired goal. Like a quarterback who reads the defense, then calls an audible from the line of scrimmage, good leaders remain flexible and may change their response, based not on what a person deserves, but on what they need to succeed. Good leaders follow this path in difficult situations:

1. They need: They aren't afraid to admit they need to listen and get understanding.

2. They read: They evaluate what has happened and what steps are best to take.

3. They feed: They communicate what they've observed to key players.

4. They heed: They act on the basis of their discovery, even if it means change.

5. They lead: They provide direction to those involved.

²³The north wind brings forth rain,

And a backbiting tongue an angry countenance.

²⁴*It is* better to dwell in a corner of a housetop,

Than in a house shared with a contentious woman.

²⁵*As* cold water to a weary soul,

So is good news from a far country.

²⁶A righteous man who falters before the wicked

Is like a murky spring and a polluted well.

²⁷*It is* not good to eat much honey;

So to seek one's own glory is not glory.

²⁸Whoever has no rule over his own spirit

Is like a city broken down, without walls.

Chapter 26

¹As snow in summer and rain in harvest,
So honor is not fitting for a fool.

²Like a flitting sparrow, like a flying swallow,
So a curse without cause shall not alight.

³A whip for the horse,
A bridle for the donkey,
And a rod for the fool's back.

⁴Do not answer a fool according to his folly,
Lest you also be like him.

⁵Answer a fool according to his folly,
Lest he be wise in his own eyes.

⁶He who sends a message by the hand of a fool
Cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.

⁷*Like* the legs of the lame that hang limp
Is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

⁸Like one who binds a stone in a sling
Is he who gives honor to a fool.

⁹*Like* a thorn that goes into the hand of a drunkard
Is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

¹⁰The great God who formed everything Gives the fool his hire and the transgressor his wages.^a

¹¹As a dog returns to his own vomit, So a fool repeats his folly.

¹²Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?

There is more hope for a fool than for him.

¹³The lazy man says, “There is a lion in the road!
A fierce lion is in the streets!”

¹⁴As a door turns on its hinges,
So does the lazy man on his bed.

¹⁵The lazy man buries his hand in the bowl;^a
It wearies him to bring it back to his mouth.

¹⁶The lazy man is wiser in his own eyes

Than seven men who can answer sensibly.

¹⁷He who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own

Is like one who takes a dog by the ears.

¹⁸Like a madman who throws firebrands, arrows,
and death,

¹⁹*Is* the man who deceives his neighbor,

And says, “I was only joking!”

²⁰Where there is no wood, the fire goes out;
And where there is no talebearer, strife ceases.

²¹As charcoal is to burning coals, and wood to fire,
So is a contentious man to kindle strife.

²²The words of a talebearer are like tasty trifles,

And they go down into the inmost body.

²³Fervent lips with a wicked heart
Are like earthenware covered with silver dross.

²⁴He who hates, disguises it with his lips,
And lays up deceit within himself;

²⁵When he speaks kindly, do not believe him,

For there are seven abominations in his heart;

²⁶*Though his* hatred is covered by deceit,

His wickedness will be revealed before the assembly.

²⁷Whoever digs a pit will fall into it,

And he who rolls a stone will have it roll back on him.

²⁸A lying tongue hates those who are crushed by it,

And a flattering mouth works ruin.

Chapter 27

¹Do not boast about tomorrow,

For you do not know what a day may bring forth.

²Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth;

A stranger, and not your own lips.

³A stone is heavy and sand is weighty,

But a fool's wrath is heavier than both of them.

⁴Wrath is cruel and anger a torrent,

But who is able to stand before jealousy?

⁵Open rebuke is better

Than love carefully concealed.

⁶Faithful are the wounds of a friend,

But the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

⁷A satisfied soul loathes the honeycomb,

But to a hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

⁸Like a bird that wanders from its nest

Is a man who wanders from his place.

⁹Ointment and perfume delight the heart,

And the sweetness of a man's friend gives delight by hearty counsel.

¹⁰Do not forsake your own friend or your father's friend,

Nor go to your brother's house in the day of your calamity;

Better is a neighbor nearby than a brother far away.

¹¹My son, be wise, and make my heart glad,

That I may answer him who reproaches me.

¹²A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself;

The simple pass on and are punished.

¹³Take the garment of him who is surety for a stranger,

And hold it in pledge when he is surety for a seductress.

¹⁴He who blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning,

It will be counted a curse to him.

¹⁵A continual dripping on a very rainy day
And a contentious woman are alike;

¹⁶Whoever restrains her restrains the wind,

And grasps oil with his right hand.

¹⁷As iron sharpens iron,

So a man sharpens the countenance of his friend.

¹⁸Whoever keeps the fig tree will eat its fruit;

So he who waits on his master will be honored.

¹⁹As in water face reflects face,

So a man's heart reveals the man.

²⁰Hell^a and Destruction^b are never full;

So the eyes of man are never satisfied.

²¹The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold,

And a man is valued by what others say of him.

The Law of Addition: When People Are Esteemed, Relationships Are Redeemed

Proverbs 27:1-21

Leaders understand that people represent an organization's most appreciable asset. No resource is more valuable than people. Therefore, people skills represent a leader's most important attribute. Wise leaders practice the Law of Addition: Leaders add value to an organization by serving their people.

This text presents some fundamentals on relationships. It teaches that if people are esteemed, relationships are redeemed. Leaders can learn at least the following principles from this chapter:

1. Don't brag (vv. 1, 2)—Leaders understand how little they get from self-promotion.

2. Don't envy (v. 4)—Leaders sabotage themselves if their motive is to keep up with others.

3. Be forthright (vv. 5, 6)—Leaders don't fear confrontation, but speak the truth in love.

4. Don't forsake your roots (v. 8)—Leaders understand the power of relational heritage.

5. Stay close (vv. 9, 10)—Leaders work at maintaining relationships and meeting needs.

6. Add value (v. 17)—Leaders sharpen those with whom they come in contact.

7. Don't be moved by flattery (v. 21)—Stay humble or you will stumble.

²²Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with crushed grain,

Yet his foolishness will not depart from him.

²³Be diligent to know the state of your flocks,
And attend to your herds;

²⁴For riches are not forever,

Nor does a crown endure to all generations.

²⁵*When* the hay is removed, and the tender grass shows itself,

And the herbs of the mountains are gathered in,

²⁶The lambs will provide your clothing,

And the goats the price of a field;

²⁷*You shall have* enough goats' milk for your food,

For the food of your household,

And the nourishment of your maidservants.

Chapter 28

¹The wicked flee when no one pursues,
But the righteous are bold as a lion.

²Because of the transgression of a land, many are its princes;
But by a man of understanding and knowledge
Right will be prolonged.

³A poor man who oppresses the poor
Is like a driving rain which leaves no food.

⁴Those who forsake the law praise the wicked,
But such as keep the law contend with them.

⁵Evil men do not understand justice,
But those who seek the LORD understand all.

⁶Better is the poor who walks in his integrity
Than one perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

⁷Whoever keeps the law is a discerning son,
But a companion of gluttons shames his father.

⁸One who increases his possessions by usury and extortion

Gathers it for him who will pity the poor.

⁹One who turns away his ear from hearing the law,

Even his prayer is an abomination.

¹⁰Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way,

He himself will fall into his own pit; But the blameless will inherit good.

¹¹The rich man is wise in his own eyes,

But the poor who has understanding searches him out.

¹²When the righteous rejoice, there is great glory;

But when the wicked arise, men hide themselves.

¹³He who covers his sins will not prosper,

But whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy.

¹⁴Happy is the man who is always reverent,

But he who hardens his heart will fall into calamity.

¹⁵*Like* a roaring lion and a charging bear

Is a wicked ruler over poor people.

¹⁶A ruler who lacks understanding is a great oppressor,

But he who hates covetousness will prolong his days.

¹⁷A man burdened with bloodshed will flee into a pit;
Let no one help him.

¹⁸Whoever walks blamelessly will be saved,
But he who is perverse in his ways will suddenly fall.

¹⁹He who tills his land will have plenty of bread,
But he who follows frivolity will have poverty enough!

²⁰A faithful man will abound with blessings,
But he who hastens to be rich will not go
unpunished.

²¹To show partiality is not good,
Because for a piece of bread a man will transgress.

²²A man with an evil eye hastens after riches,
And does not consider that poverty will come upon
him.

²³He who rebukes a man will find more favor afterward

Than he who flatters with the tongue.

²⁴Whoever robs his father or his mother,
And says, "It is no transgression,"

The same is companion to a destroyer.

²⁵He who is of a proud heart stirs up strife,
But he who trusts in the LORD will be prospered.

²⁶He who trusts in his own heart is a fool,
But whoever walks wisely will be delivered.

²⁷He who gives to the poor will not lack,
But he who hides his eyes will have many curses.

²⁸When the wicked arise, men hide themselves;
But when they perish, the righteous increase.

Chapter 29

¹He who is often rebuked, and hardens his neck,
Will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

²When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice;

But when a wicked man rules, the people groan.

³Whoever loves wisdom makes his father rejoice,
But a companion of harlots wastes his wealth.

⁴The king establishes the land by justice,
But he who receives bribes overthrows it.

⁵A man who flatters his neighbor
Spreads a net for his feet.

⁶By transgression an evil man is snared,
But the righteous sings and rejoices.

⁷The righteous considers the cause of the poor,
But the wicked does not understand such knowledge.

⁸Scoffers set a city aflame,

But wise men turn away wrath.

⁹*If* a wise man contends with a foolish man,
Whether the fool rages or laughs, there is no peace.

¹⁰The bloodthirsty hate the blameless,
But the upright seek his wellbeing.^a

¹¹A fool vents all his feelings,^a
But a wise man holds them back.

¹²If a ruler pays attention to lies,
All his servants become wicked.

¹³The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:

The LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

¹⁴The king who judges the poor with truth,
His throne will be established forever.

¹⁵The rod and rebuke give wisdom,
But a child left to himself brings shame to his mother.

¹⁶When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increases;

But the righteous will see their fall.

¹⁷Correct your son, and he will give you rest;

Yes, he will give delight to your soul.

¹⁸Where there is no revelation,^a the people cast off restraint;

But happy is he who keeps the law.

The Law of the Picture: The Leader Causes People to Thrive or Groan

Proverbs 29:2-18

People reflect their leader. We cannot expect followers to grow beyond their leader. We cannot expect followers to turn out fundamentally different from their leader. People feel attracted to leaders like them; they also reflect those who lead them. Consider what Proverbs 29 tells us about the influence of good and bad leaders:

1. Attitudes (v. 2)

When good leaders rule, people rejoice; when the wicked reign, people groan.

2. Stability (v. 4)

When moral leaders rule, they establish justice; compromising leaders tear things down.

3. Compassion (v. 7)

Good leaders express concern for the poor; bad leaders reflect no compassion for anyone.

4. Honesty (v. 12)

When leaders pay attention to lies, their staff begins to esteem the same deceptions.

5. Vision (v. 18)

Solid vision keeps everyone on track; chaos reigns wherever the vision lapses.

¹⁹A servant will not be corrected by mere words;
For though he understands, he will not respond.

²⁰Do you see a man hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

²¹He who pampers his servant from childhood
Will have him as a son in the end.

²²An angry man stirs up strife,
And a furious man abounds in transgression.

²³A man's pride will bring him low,
But the humble in spirit will retain honor.

²⁴Whoever is a partner with a thief hates his own
life;

He swears to tell the truth, ^a but reveals nothing.

²⁵The fear of man brings a snare,
But whoever trusts in the LORD shall be safe.

²⁶Many seek the ruler's favor,
But justice for man comes from the LORD.

²⁷An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous,

And he who is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

Chapter 30

The Wisdom of Agur

¹The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, his utterance. This man declared to Ithiel—to Ithiel and Ucal:

²Surely I am more stupid than any man,
And do not have the understanding of a man.

³I neither learned wisdom

Nor have knowledge of the Holy One.

⁴Who has ascended into heaven, or descended?
Who has gathered the wind in His fists?
Who has bound the waters in a garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is His name, and what is His Son's name,

If you know?

⁵Every word of God is pure; He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him.

⁶Do not add to His words,

Lest He rebuke you, and you be found a liar.

⁷Two things I request of You

(Deprive me not before I die):

⁸Remove falsehood and lies far from me;

Give me neither poverty nor riches—

Feed me with the food allotted to me;

⁹Lest I be full and deny You,

And say, “Who is the LORD?”

Or lest I be poor and steal,

And profane the name of my God.

¹⁰Do not malign a servant to his master,

Lest he curse you, and you be found guilty.

¹¹*There is* a generation that curses its father,

And does not bless its mother.

¹²*There is* a generation that is pure in its own eyes,

Yet is not washed from its filthiness.

¹³*There is* a generation—oh, how lofty are their eyes!

And their eyelids are lifted up.

¹⁴*There is* a generation whose teeth are like swords,

And whose fangs are like knives,

To devour the poor from off the earth,

And the needy from among men.

¹⁵The leech has two daughters—

Give and Give!

There are three things that are never satisfied,

Four never say, “Enough!”:

¹⁶The grave,^{a}

The barren womb,

The earth that is not satisfied with water—

And the fire never says, “Enough!”

¹⁷The eye that mocks his father,
And scorns obedience to his mother,
The ravens of the valley will pick it out,

And the young eagles will eat it.

¹⁸There are three things which are too wonderful for
me,

Yes, four which I do not understand:

¹⁹The way of an eagle in the air,
The way of a serpent on a rock,
The way of a ship in the midst of the sea,

And the way of a man with a virgin.

²⁰This is the way of an adulterous woman:
She eats and wipes her mouth,

And says, "I have done no wickedness."

²¹For three things the earth is perturbed,
Yes, for four it cannot bear up:

²²For a servant when he reigns,
A fool when he is filled with food,

²³A hateful woman when she is married,

And a maidservant who succeeds her mistress.

²⁴There are four things which are little on the earth,
But they are exceedingly wise:

²⁵The ants are a people not strong,
Yet they prepare their food in the summer;

²⁶The rock badgers^a are a feeble folk,
Yet they make their homes in the crags;

²⁷The locusts have no king,
Yet they all advance in ranks;

²⁸The spider^a skillfully grasps with its hands,

And it is in kings' palaces.

²⁹There are three things which are majestic in pace,
Yes, four which are stately in walk:

³⁰A lion, which is mighty among beasts
And does not turn away from any;

³¹A greyhound,^a
A male goat also,

And a king whose troops are with him.^b

³²If you have been foolish in exalting yourself,
Or if you have devised evil, put your hand on your mouth.

³³For as the churning of milk produces butter,
And wringing the nose produces blood,

So the forcing of wrath produces strife.

Chapter 31

The Words of King Lemuel's Mother

¹The words of King Lemuel, the utterance which his mother taught him:

²What, my son?

And what, son of my womb?

And what, son of my vows?

³Do not give your strength to women,

Nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

⁴*It is* not for kings, O Lemuel,

It is not for kings to drink wine,

Nor for princes intoxicating drink;

⁵Lest they drink and forget the law,

And pervert the justice of all the afflicted.

⁶Give strong drink to him who is perishing,

And wine to those who are bitter of heart.

⁷Let him drink and forget his poverty,

And remember his misery no more.

⁸Open your mouth for the speechless,

In the cause of all who are appointed to die. a

⁹Open your mouth, judge righteously,

And plead the cause of the poor and needy.

The Virtuous Wife

¹⁰Who^a can find a virtuous^b wife?

For her worth is far above rubies.

¹¹The heart of her husband safely trusts her;
So he will have no lack of gain.

¹²She does him good and not evil
All the days of her life.

¹³She seeks wool and flax,
And willingly works with her hands.

¹⁴She is like the merchant ships,
She brings her food from afar.

¹⁵She also rises while it is yet night,
And provides food for her household,
And a portion for her maidservants.

¹⁶She considers a field and buys it;
From her profits she plants a vineyard.

¹⁷She girds herself with strength,
And strengthens her arms.

¹⁸She perceives that her merchandise is good,
And her lamp does not go out by night.

¹⁹She stretches out her hands to the distaff,
And her hand holds the spindle.

²⁰She extends her hand to the poor,
Yes, she reaches out her hands to the needy.

²¹She is not afraid of snow for her household,
For all her household is clothed with scarlet.

²²She makes tapestry for herself;
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.

²³Her husband is known in the gates,

When he sits among the elders of the land.
24She makes linen garments and sells them,
And supplies sashes for the merchants.
25Strength and honor are her clothing;
She shall rejoice in time to come.
26She opens her mouth with wisdom,
And on her tongue is the law of kindness.
27She watches over the ways of her household,
And does not eat the bread of idleness.
28Her children rise up and call her blessed;
Her husband also, and he praises her:
29“Many daughters have done well,
But you excel them all.”
30Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing,
But a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised.
31Give her of the fruit of her hands,

And let her own works praise her in the gates.

A Woman of Influence

Proverbs 31:10-31

Proverbs 31 no doubt gets more airtime on Mother's Day than any other passage of Scripture. The majority of the proverb describes a virtuous woman who leads her home with integrity, discipline, and giftedness. This wife and mother is a leader not because she tries to be one, but because of who she is.

Her Assets

1. She is trustworthy (v. 11).

2. She is a positive influence (v. 12).
3. She is a hard worker (vv. 13, 14, 19, 24-27).
4. She is a planner (vv. 21, 22).
5. She is protective (v. 27).

Her Achievements

1. She meets the needs of her home (v. 15).
2. She invests for her household (v. 16).
3. She keeps herself in shape (v. 17).
4. She helps her husband become successful (v. 23).

Her Attitudes

1. Delightful (v. 13)
2. Healthy (v. 18)
3. Compassionate (v. 20)
4. Unselfish (v. 20)
5. Public (v. 25)

Her Applause

1. From her family (v. 28)
2. From her husband (vv. 28, 29)
3. From God's Word (v. 30)
4. From her works (v. 31)

The Book of Ecclesiastes

Introduction to Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes, like the Book of Job, presents one of the greatest challenges to understanding in the Bible. Ancient Hebrews used to debate its meaning and whether it should even be included in the canon of Scripture. Fortunately for us, by divine providence, Ecclesiastes did make it into the Bible with its unique message for leaders.

The central themes of the book focus on the meaning of life, motives for behavior, and where God fits into our personal mission—paramount issues for every leader.

Our leadership must be about something much bigger than us. If our leadership advances merely our own “kingdom,” only increases the profits of our company, or only benefits ourselves—we have failed the higher call of leadership. All leadership must bring honor to God, serve and benefit others, and utilize the gifts of each team member to their fullest potential.

The tone of this book displays an overriding pessimism, as expressed through the words “under the sun” or “under heaven.” The writer explores life almost devoid of a divine perspective, lived from a selfish, humanistic worldview. He generally leaves God out of his deliberations, leaving himself with human reason alone and resulting in superficial and shallow leadership.

A second theme of the book deals with our motives. Why we do something ultimately determines what we do. The author shows from personal experience that all earthly goals and blessings, when pursued as an end in themselves, lead to dissatisfaction and emptiness.

Finally, the book answers the question, Where does God fit into our personal mission? All good leaders operate from a personal and corporate mission statement. Vision drives them. In chapter two alone, this book questions the materialistic mission of building buildings, making money, controlling workers, and pursuing pleasure. Of course, there's nothing wrong with buildings, money, or workers—as long as they serve only as a means to an eternal end, not an end in themselves.

Instead, leaders ought to wrestle with how they might change eternity through their leadership. After reading this book, leaders should ask themselves: “Who am I? Why am I attempting to lead others? Where am I trying to go? What values guide my life?” The final chapter reminds us that a day of reckoning awaits when God will bring all these issues to light.

Unique Message for Leaders

God's Role in Ecclesiastes

Leaders cannot find genuine fulfillment outside of linking their lives to God's purposes for the world. As “the Preacher” explores various avenues for satisfaction—power, possessions, prestige, pleasure—he finds them hollow. God moves him along the path of discovery until he finds no real meaning to life “under heaven,” but only in relationship to God and His eternal purposes. God provides all meaning and fulfillment in this life. The author could not find anything of value apart from a life lived in obedience to God's calling.

Lessons in Leadership

- No real meaning exists apart from linking our lives to God's purpose.
- Humanism and materialism provide incomplete counsel for decision making.
- Possessions, people, pleasure, prestige, and power make great servants but poor masters.
- Timing is key: When to lead is as important as what to do and where to go.
- People are motivated by a variety of incentives.
- Divine wisdom provides direction, protection, correction, and resolution.
- Leaders must invest themselves generously, knowing the payoff comes later.

Chapter 1

The Vanity of Life

¹The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

²Vanity^a of vanities,” says the Preacher;

“Vanity of vanities, all is vanity.”

³What profit has a man from all his labor
In which he toils under the sun?

⁴*One* generation passes away, and another generation comes;

But the earth abides forever.

⁵The sun also rises, and the sun goes down,
And hastens to the place where it arose.

⁶The wind goes toward the south,
And turns around to the north;
The wind whirls about continually,
And comes again on its circuit.

⁷All the rivers run into the sea,
Yet the sea is not full;
To the place from which the rivers come,
There they return again.

⁸All things are full of labor;

Man cannot express it.
The eye is not satisfied with seeing,
Nor the ear filled with hearing.

⁹That which has been is what will be,
That which is done is what will be done,
And there is nothing new under the sun.
¹⁰Is there anything of which it may be said,
“See, this is new”?
It has already been in ancient times before us.
¹¹*There is* no remembrance of former things,

Vision: If Life Has No Meaning, Leadership Has No Mission

Ecclesiastes 1:3-11

“Life is vanity,” writes Solomon. Imagine the wisest, richest, most powerful man in his time, proclaiming everything worthless! Solomon’s name means “peace,” but he enjoyed none of it while writing most of this book. He grew deflated, depressed, and disillusioned about life “under the sun.” Here we see a leader who lost the air in his sails because he abandoned his true mission. He teaches us...

1. There is no profit (vv. 3, 4).

Life without God is an exercise in futility. Generations come and go; all we do is move things around.

2. There is no purpose (vv. 5-7).

The sun rises only to set again, endlessly repeating a meaningless cycle. Wind blows, river flows, all in monotony.

3. There is no progress (vv. 8-11).

There is no satisfaction; there's nothing new under the sun, nor pleasant remembrance of earlier life.

Leadership without an eternal perspective falls into the trap of meaninglessness. Leadership must work toward significant, meaningful goals. We are forced to conclude that:

1. If nothing worthwhile exists under the sun, our only hope must lie above it.

2. If the man with everything investigated every visible delight and still wound up unsatisfied, then what satisfies must be invisible.

3. If the wisest man on earth finds no answers under heaven, then we must look to heaven itself for those answers.

Nor will there be any remembrance of things that are to come

By those who will come after.

The Grief of Wisdom

¹²I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³And I set my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under heaven; this burdensome task God has given to the sons of man, by which they may be exercised. ¹⁴I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and indeed, all is vanity and grasping for the wind.

¹⁵*What is* crooked cannot be made straight,

And what is lacking cannot be numbered.

¹⁶I communed with my heart, saying, "Look, I have attained greatness, and have gained more wisdom than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My heart has understood great wisdom and knowledge." ¹⁷And I set my heart to know wisdom and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is grasping for the wind.

¹⁸For in much wisdom is much grief,

And he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

Chapter 2

The Vanity of Pleasure

¹I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure”; but surely, this also was vanity. ²I said of laughter—“Madness!”; and of mirth, “What does it accomplish?” ³I searched in my heart how to gratify my flesh with wine, while guiding my heart with wisdom, and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was good for the sons of men to do under heaven all the days of their lives.

⁴I made my works great, I built myself houses, and planted myself vineyards. ⁵I made myself gardens and orchards, and I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them. ⁶I made myself water pools from which to water the growing trees of the grove. ⁷I acquired male and female servants, and had servants born in my house. Yes, I had greater possessions of herds and flocks than all who were in Jerusalem before me. ⁸I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the special treasures of kings and of the provinces. I acquired male and female singers, the delights of the sons of men, and musical instruments^a of all kinds.

⁹So I became great and excelled more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. Also my wisdom remained with me.

¹⁰Whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them.

I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure,
For my heart rejoiced in all my labor;
And this was my reward from all my labor.

¹¹Then I looked on all the works that my hands had done

21 QUALITIES

FOCUS

The Danger of Too Many Pursuits

Ecclesiastes 2:1-11

WE CAN LEARN from Solomon's costly mistakes. The King of Israel desperately pursued several unrelated goals in a vain attempt to satisfy himself. Ecclesiastes 2:1-11 provides a good example of a leader who didn't know how to get what he wanted.

By the time Solomon wrote these words, he had reached a high level of success—but still felt empty. He couldn't put his finger on why fulfillment continued to escape him. Because he lacked focus, he searched high and low, experimenting with all kinds of goals, yet never achieved satisfaction. Sadly, he attempted to solve an inward problem with an outward solution.

The old axiom remains true: If you chase two rabbits, both will escape. This was certainly true of Solomon's futile attempts to reach his varied goals. (He pursued eight goals in Ecclesiastes 2 alone!) So, what can we learn from this leader about focus?

1. He pursued too many things in too short a time.

2. He pursued the wrong goals to reach his desired outcome.

3. His self-serving goals were all wrong.

4. He despaired because he never identified what he really wanted.

A Checklist for Making Decisions

Solomon eventually did narrow his focus, but it took him a lifetime and an entire book to do so (see Eccl. 12). He finally determined what really mattered and what he really wanted.

How about you? Have you figured out your focus? How do you make major decisions? Do you have a way of determining your focus, based on what really matters or what really counts? Consider the following checklist as you make decisions about where to invest your time and energy. When faced with a decision, ask yourself:

1. Is this consistent with my priorities?

2. Is this within my area of competence?

3. Can someone else do it better?

4. What do my trusted friends say?

5. Do I have the time?

When you say “yes” to an opportunity, get ready to focus. Make to-do lists. Set your priorities. Avoid clutter. Pursue excellence, but avoid perfectionism. Question everything. Work to prevent procrastination. Control interruptions and distractions. Use the calendar. Narrow your wedge—don’t try to do everything. That means you’ll have to say no to some good things. And how can you say no gracefully?

1. Say no to the proposition, not to the person.

2. Respond in terms that convey the best interests of the person who’s requesting your involvement.

3. Defer creatively; suggest an alternative.

And on the labor in which I had toiled;
And indeed all was vanity and grasping for the wind.

There was no profit under the sun.

The End of the Wise and the Fool

¹²Then I turned myself to consider wisdom and madness and folly;

For what can the man do who succeeds the king?—
Only what he has already done.

¹³Then I saw that wisdom excels folly
As light excels darkness.

¹⁴The wise man's eyes are in his head,
But the fool walks in darkness.
Yet I myself perceived

That the same event happens to them all.

¹⁵So I said in my heart,
"As it happens to the fool,
It also happens to me,
And why was I then more wise?"
Then I said in my heart,
"This also is vanity."

¹⁶For there is no more remembrance of the wise than of the fool forever,

Since all that now is will be forgotten in the days to come.

And how does a wise man die?

As the fool!

¹⁷Therefore I hated life because the work that was done under the sun was distressing to me, for all is vanity and grasping for the wind.

¹⁸Then I hated all my labor in which I had toiled under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who will come after me. ¹⁹And who knows whether he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will rule over all my labor in which I toiled and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity. ²⁰Therefore I turned my heart and despaired of all the labor in which I had toiled under the sun. ²¹For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, knowledge, and skill; yet he must leave his heritage to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. ²²For what has man for all his labor, and for the striving of his heart with which he has toiled under the sun? ²³For all his days are sorrowful, and his work burdensome; even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.

²⁴Nothing is better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that his soul should enjoy good in his labor. This also, I saw, was from the hand of God. ²⁵For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I?^a ²⁶For God gives wisdom and knowledge and joy to a man who is good in His sight; but to the sinner He gives the work of gathering and collecting, that he may give to him who is good before God. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

The Law of Priorities and the Law of Sacrifice: Things Don't Make a Leader

Ecclesiastes 2:1-26

Solomon attempted to find satisfaction in accumulating things: houses, gardens, vineyards, flocks, slaves, etc. He found all of it empty.

Many leaders succumb to the same temptation. They begin well, but once they reach their first level of goals—if they don't continue to stretch—they shrink. Their shrinking often takes the form of accumulating. Their success gains them a nice discretionary income. So they spend and gain. Spend and gain. Spend and gain. But none of this fills the void inside.

All leaders have two major voids:

1. The God-sized vacuum inside their heart; only the Lord can fill it.

2. The life-sized vacuum inside their heart; only their life mission can fulfill it.

To reach these goals, leaders must give up the pursuit of lesser things. C. S. Lewis wrote, "Indeed, if we consider the unblushing promises of reward... promised in the Gospels, it would seem that our Lord finds our desires, not too strong, but too weak. We are halfhearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in a slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by an offer of a holiday at the sea. We are far too easily pleased."

Chapter 3

Everything Has Its Time

¹To everything there is a season,

A time for every purpose under heaven:

²A time to be born,

And a time to die;

A time to plant,

And a time to pluck what is planted;

³A time to kill,

And a time to heal;

A time to break down,

And a time to build up;

⁴A time to weep,

And a time to laugh;

A time to mourn,

And a time to dance;

⁵A time to cast away stones,

And a time to gather stones;

A time to embrace,

And a time to refrain from embracing;

⁶A time to gain,

And a time to lose;

A time to keep,

And a time to throw away;

⁷A time to tear,

And a time to sew;
A time to keep silence,
And a time to speak;
⁸A time to love,

The Law of Timing: There's a Season for Everything

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Solomon knew quite a bit about the Law of Timing. He tells us there exists an appointed time for everything under heaven. Then he lists several examples: birth, death, planting, reaping, weeping, laughing, etc.

We don't control the timing of most events; the best we can do is to recognize the timing. Ecclesiastes 3 teaches leaders several important lessons:

1. It is our responsibility to recognize God's timing, not to change it.
2. It is our responsibility to accept and cooperate with God's timing.
3. Our alignment with God's timing makes a great difference.
4. God has made everything appropriate in its time.
5. God has put eternity in our hearts, so we must trust God to communicate His timing.
6. We can do nothing better during our lifetime than to rejoice and do good.

And a time to hate;

A time of war,
And a time of peace.

The God-Given Task

⁹What profit has the worker from that in which he labors?

¹⁰I have seen the God-given task with which the sons of men are to be occupied. ¹¹He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also He has put eternity in their hearts, except that no one can find out the work that God does from beginning to end.

¹²I know that nothing is better for them than to rejoice, and to do good in their lives, ¹³and also that every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all his labor—it is the gift of God.

¹⁴I know that whatever God does,
It shall be forever.
Nothing can be added to it,
And nothing taken from it.
God does it, that men should fear before Him.

¹⁵That which is has already been,
And what is to be has already been;

And God requires an account of what is past.

Injustice Seems to Prevail

¹⁶Moreover I saw under the sun:

In the place of judgment,

Wickedness was there;
And in the place of righteousness,

Iniquity was there.

¹⁷I said in my heart,

“God shall judge the righteous and the wicked,

For there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.”

¹⁸I said in my heart, “Concerning the condition of the sons of men, God tests them, that they may see that they themselves are like animals.” ¹⁹For what happens to the sons of men also happens to animals; one thing befalls them: as one dies, so dies the other. Surely, they all have one breath; man has no advantage over animals, for all is vanity. ²⁰All go to one place: all are from the dust, and all return to dust. ²¹Who knows the spirit of the sons of men, which goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, which goes down to the earth?^a ²²So I perceived that nothing is better than that a man should rejoice in his own works, for that is his heritage. For who can bring him to see what will happen after him?

Chapter 4

¹Then I returned and considered all the oppression that is done under the sun:

And look! The tears of the oppressed,
But they have no comforter—
On the side of their oppressors there is power,
But they have no comforter.

²Therefore I praised the dead who were already dead,

More than the living who are still alive.

³Yet, better than both is he who has never existed,

Who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

The Vanity of Selfish Toil

⁴Again, I saw that for all toil and every skillful work a man is envied by his neighbor. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

⁵The fool folds his hands
And consumes his own flesh.

⁶Better a handful with quietness

Than both hands full, together with toil and grasping for the wind.

⁷Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun:

⁸There is one alone, without companion:

Motivational Needs: What Every Leader Needs to Know

Ecclesiastes 4:1-8

While Ecclesiastes 4 seems to continue the theme of futility, it actually attempts to address the issue of motivation. Solomon says that he observes people in a variety of contexts, and nothing seems to satisfy them.

Where do people search for satisfaction? What do they seek in life? Note Solomon's observations about what motivates most men and women:

1. Comfort and fulfillment (vv. 1-3)
2. Competition and triumph (vv. 4-6)
3. Consumption and greed (vv. 7, 8)

As leaders, we must understand people's motivational needs. A scholar named David McClellan identified three main motivations, or "drivers," that people exhibit in their work. According to McClellan, each person generally has a primary driver, and perhaps another driver as their backup.

One driver is achievement. Achievers like to perform, to finish a task. Getting across the goal line is what satisfies them.

Another driver is affiliation. Affiliators put emphasis on belonging to a group and relating well to others. They're "people people," and they want everybody to be happy.

The third driver is influence. Influencers seek to have power over whatever situation they're in. They like things their way. Status is important to them. For them, the name of the game is control.

To work well with others, it helps to know what motivations "make them tick."

He has neither son nor brother.
Yet there is no end to all his labors,
Nor is his eye satisfied with riches.
But he never asks,
"For whom do I toil and deprive myself of good?"

This also is vanity and a grave misfortune.

The Value of a Friend

⁹Two are better than one,
Because they have a good reward for their labor.

¹⁰For if they fall, one will lift up his companion.
But woe to him who is alone when he falls,
For he has no one to help him up.

¹¹Again, if two lie down together, they will keep warm;

But how can one be warm alone?

¹²Though one may be overpowered by another, two can withstand him.

And a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

The Rewards of Partnership

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12

Most leaders recognize they need partnerships to reach big goals. Note the rewards of a healthy partnership:

1. Partners accomplish more (v. 9).
2. Partners complement each other (v. 10).
3. Partners supply support and warmth for each other (v. 11).
4. Partners give strength to each other (v. 12).

Popularity Passes Away

¹³Better a poor and wise youth
Than an old and foolish king who will be admonished no more.

¹⁴For he comes out of prison to be king,
Although he was born poor in his kingdom.

¹⁵I saw all the living who walk under the sun;
They were with the second youth who stands in his place.

¹⁶*There was* no end of all the people over whom he was made king;

Yet those who come afterward will not rejoice in him.

Surely this also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Chapter 5

Fear God, Keep Your Vows

¹Walk prudently when you go to the house of God; and draw near to hear rather than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they do evil.

²Do not be rash with your mouth,
And let not your heart utter anything hastily before God.

For God is in heaven, and you on earth;
Therefore let your words be few.

³For a dream comes through much activity,

And a fool's voice is known by his many words.

⁴When you make a vow to God, do not delay to pay it;
For He has no pleasure in fools.
Pay what you have vowed—

⁵Better not to vow than to vow and not pay.

⁶Do not let your mouth cause your flesh to sin, nor say before the messenger of God that it was an error. Why should God be angry at your excuse^a and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷For in the multitude of dreams and many words there is also vanity. But fear God.

Leadership Pitfalls

Ecclesiastes 5:2-7

Do you ever make promises to God? Scripture advises caution before we commit something to God—good advice for any decision a leader must make. Solomon describes three major pitfalls lying in wait for careless leaders:

1. Hasty Speech (vv. 2, 3)

Leaders must listen as much as they speak. It takes more than words to fulfill dreams.

2. Empty Promises (vv. 4, 5)

Leaders tend to say what others want to hear. Don't promise what you can't deliver.

3. Lame Excuses (vv. 6, 7)

Leaders diminish their influence when they try to reverse a mistake with a lame excuse.

The Vanity of Gain and Honor

⁸If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent perversion of justice and righteousness in a province, do not marvel at the matter; for high official watches over high official, and higher officials are over them.

⁹Moreover the profit of the land is for all; even the king is served from the field.

¹⁰He who loves silver will not be satisfied with silver;
Nor he who loves abundance, with increase.

This also is vanity.

¹¹When goods increase,
They increase who eat them;
So what profit have the owners

Except to see them with their eyes?

¹²The sleep of a laboring man is sweet,
Whether he eats little or much;

But the abundance of the rich will not permit him to sleep.

¹³There is a severe evil which I have seen under the sun:

Riches kept for their owner to his hurt.

¹⁴But those riches perish through misfortune;
When he begets a son, there is nothing in his hand.

¹⁵As he came from his mother's womb, naked shall he return,

To go as he came;

And he shall take nothing from his labor

Which he may carry away in his hand.

¹⁶And this also is a severe evil—

Just exactly as he came, so shall he go.

And what profit has he who has labored for the wind?

¹⁷All his days he also eats in darkness,

And he has much sorrow and sickness and anger.

¹⁸Here is what I have seen: It is good and fitting for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor in which he toils under the sun all the days of his life which God gives him; for it is his heritage. ¹⁹As for every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, and given him power to eat of it, to receive his heritage and rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. ²⁰For he will not dwell unduly on the days of his life, because God keeps him busy with the joy of his heart.

Chapter 6

¹There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men: ²A man to whom God has given riches and wealth and honor, so that he lacks nothing for himself of all he desires; yet God does not give him power to eat of it, but a foreigner consumes it. This is vanity, and it is an evil affliction.

³If a man begets a hundred children and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not satisfied with goodness, or indeed he has no burial, I say that a stillborn child is better than he— ⁴for it comes in vanity and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. ⁵Though it has not seen the sun or known anything, this has more rest than that man, ⁶even if he lives a thousand years twice—but has not seen goodness. Do not all go to one place?

⁷All the labor of man is for his mouth,
And yet the soul is not satisfied.

⁸For what more has the wise man than the fool?
What does the poor man have,
Who knows how to walk before the living?

⁹Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of desire.

This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

¹⁰Whatever one is, he has been named already,
For it is known that he is man;

And he cannot contend with Him who is mightier than he.

¹¹Since there are many things that increase vanity,

How is man the better?

¹²For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he passes like a shadow? Who can tell a man what will happen after him under the sun?

Chapter 7

The Value of Practical Wisdom

¹A good name is better than precious ointment,

And the day of death than the day of one's birth;

²Better to go to the house of mourning

Than to go to the house of feasting,

For that is the end of all men;

And the living will take it to heart.

³Sorrow is better than laughter,

For by a sad countenance the heart is made better.

⁴The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning,

But the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

⁵*It is* better to hear the rebuke of the wise

Than for a man to hear the song of fools.

⁶For like the crackling of thorns under a pot,

So is the laughter of the fool.

This also is vanity.

⁷Surely oppression destroys a wise man's reason,

And a bribe debases the heart.

⁸The end of a thing is better than its beginning;

The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

⁹Do not hasten in your spirit to be angry,
For anger rests in the bosom of fools.

¹⁰Do not say,
“Why were the former days better than these?”

For you do not inquire wisely concerning this.

¹¹Wisdom is good with an inheritance,
And profitable to those who see the sun.

¹²For wisdom is a defense as money is a defense,

But the excellence of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to those who have it.

¹³Consider the work of God;
For who can make straight what He has made crooked?

¹⁴In the day of prosperity be joyful,
But in the day of adversity consider:
Surely God has appointed the one as well as the other,

So that man can find out nothing that will come after
him.

¹⁵I have seen everything in my days of vanity:

There is a just man who perishes in his
righteousness,

And there is a wicked man who prolongs life in his wickedness.

¹⁶Do not be overly righteous,
Nor be overly wise:
Why should you destroy yourself?

¹⁷Do not be overly wicked,
Nor be foolish:
Why should you die before your time?

¹⁸*It is* good that you grasp this,
And also not remove your hand from the other;

For he who fears God will escape them all.

¹⁹Wisdom strengthens the wise

More than ten rulers of the city.

²⁰For there is not a just man on earth who does good
And does not sin.

²¹Also do not take to heart everything people say,
Lest you hear your servant cursing you.

²²For many times, also, your own heart has known

That even you have cursed others.

²³All this I have proved by wisdom.

I said, "I will be wise";

But it was far from me.

²⁴As for that which is far off and exceedingly deep,
Who can find it out?

²⁵I applied my heart to know,

To search and seek out wisdom and the reason of
things,

To know the wickedness of folly,

Even of foolishness and madness.

²⁶And I find more bitter than death

The woman whose heart is snares and nets,

Whose hands are fetters.

He who pleases God shall escape from her,

But the sinner shall be trapped by her.

²⁷Here is what I have found," says the Preacher,
"Adding one thing to the other to find out the reason,
²⁸Which my soul still seeks but I cannot find:
One man among a thousand I have found,
But a woman among all these I have not found.
²⁹Truly, this only I have found:
That God made man upright,

But they have sought out many schemes."

Chapter 8

¹Who is like a wise man?
And who knows the interpretation of a thing?
A man's wisdom makes his face shine,

And the sternness of his face is changed.

Obey Authorities for God's Sake

²I say, "Keep the king's commandment for the sake of your oath to God. ³"Do not be hasty to go from his presence. Do not take your stand for an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him."

⁴Where the word of a king is, there is power;
And who may say to him, "What are you doing?"

⁵He who keeps his command will experience nothing harmful;
And a wise man's heart discerns both time and judgment,

⁶Because for every matter there is a time and judgment,

Though the misery of man increases greatly.

⁷For he does not know what will happen;
So who can tell him when it will occur?

⁸No one has power over the spirit to retain the spirit,
And no one has power in the day of death.

There is no release from that war,

And wickedness will not deliver those who are given to it.

⁹All this I have seen, and applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun: There is a time in which one man rules over another to his own hurt.

Servanthood: The Quality of a Leader Who Lasts

Ecclesiastes 8:1-9

Solomon reminds us about our relationship to leaders above us. We are to submit to them, not because the person deserves it, but because the office deserves it and God decrees it.

And what about leaders in authority? Solomon also issues a warning. When leaders try to exercise authority without a servant's heart, they eventually hurt themselves. Leaders add value by serving others.

Role of the Follower • Role of the Leader

Submit to God-given authority. • Exercise authority with wisdom and caution.

Trust God to accomplish His purpose. • Recognize that no human controls all of life.

Don't quit or become divisive. • Lead others by serving not bossing them.

Death Comes to All

¹⁰Then I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of holiness, and they were forgotten^a in the city where they had so done. This also is vanity. ¹¹Because the sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. ¹²Though a sinner does evil a hundred times, and his days are prolonged, yet I surely know that it will be well with those who fear God, who fear before Him. ¹³But it will not be well with the wicked; nor will he prolong his days, which are as a shadow, because he does not fear before God.

¹⁴There is a vanity which occurs on earth, that there are just men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity.

¹⁵So I commended enjoyment, because a man has nothing better under the sun than to eat, drink, and be merry; for this will remain with him in his labor all the days of his life which God gives him under the sun.

¹⁶When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to see the business that is done on earth, even though one sees no sleep day or night, ¹⁷then I saw all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun. For though a man labors to discover it, yet he will not find it; moreover, though a wise man attempts to know it, he will not be able to find it.

Chapter 9

¹For I considered all this in my heart, so that I could declare it all: that the righteous and the wise and their works are in the hand of God. People know neither love nor hatred by anything they see before them. ²All things come alike to all:

One event happens to the righteous and the wicked;
To the good,^a the clean, and the unclean;
To him who sacrifices and him who does not sacrifice.

As is the good, so is the sinner;

He who takes an oath as he who fears an oath.

³This is an evil in all that is done under the sun: that one thing happens to all. Truly the hearts of the sons of men are full of evil; madness is in their hearts while they live, and after that they go to the dead. ⁴But for him who is joined to all the living there is hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

⁵For the living know that they will die;
But the dead know nothing,
And they have no more reward,
For the memory of them is forgotten.

⁶Also their love, their hatred, and their envy have now perished;

Nevermore will they have a share

In anything done under the sun.

⁷Go, eat your bread with joy,
And drink your wine with a merry heart;
For God has already accepted your works.

⁸Let your garments always be white,

And let your head lack no oil.

⁹Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your vain life which He has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity; for that is your portion in life, and in the labor which you perform under the sun.

¹⁰Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work or device or knowledge or wisdom in the grave where you are going.

¹¹I returned and saw under the sun that—

The race is not to the swift,
Nor the battle to the strong,
Nor bread to the wise,
Nor riches to men of understanding,
Nor favor to men of skill;
But time and chance happen to them all.

¹²For man also does not know his time:
Like fish taken in a cruel net,
Like birds caught in a snare,
So the sons of men are snared in an evil time,

When it falls suddenly upon them.

Wisdom Superior to Folly

¹³This wisdom I have also seen under the sun, and it seemed great to me: ¹⁴*There was* a little city with few men in it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great snares^a around it. ¹⁵Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that same poor man.

¹⁶Then I said:

“Wisdom is better than strength.

Nevertheless the poor man’s wisdom is despised,
And his words are not heard.

¹⁷Words of the wise, spoken quietly, should be heard
Rather than the shout of a ruler of fools.

¹⁸Wisdom is better than weapons of war;

But one sinner destroys much good.”

The Law of Legacy: Your Work and Your Job

Ecclesiastes 9:7-18

Everyone on earth has a work to do, and it may be different from one’s job. A job may be the task we get paid for at the moment, but a work is the task God gives us for our lives. Jobs come and go but the work remains. Your present job may be preparation for your ultimate work. This passage gives us direction for leaving the right legacy to those who come behind us.

- Work joyfully, since approval comes from God (vv. 7-9).
- Work energetically, even if the results seem uncertain (vv. 10-12).
- Work wisely, with the benefit of God’s perspective (vv. 13-18).

Chapter 10

¹Dead flies putrefy^a the perfumer's ointment,
And cause it to give off a foul odor;
So does a little folly to one respected for wisdom and honor.

²A wise man's heart is at his right hand,
But a fool's heart at his left.

³Even when a fool walks along the way,
He lacks wisdom,
And he shows everyone that he is a fool.

⁴If the spirit of the ruler rises against you,
Do not leave your post;

For conciliation pacifies great offenses.

⁵There is an evil I have seen under the sun,
As an error proceeding from the ruler:

⁶Folly is set in great dignity,
While the rich sit in a lowly place.

⁷I have seen servants on horses,

While princes walk on the ground like servants.

⁸He who digs a pit will fall into it,
And whoever breaks through a wall will be bitten by a serpent.

⁹He who quarries stones may be hurt by them,
And he who splits wood may be endangered by it.

¹⁰If the ax is dull,
And one does not sharpen the edge,
Then he must use more strength;

But wisdom brings success.

¹¹A serpent may bite when it is not charmed;
The babbler is no different.

¹²The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious,
But the lips of a fool shall swallow him up;

¹³The words of his mouth begin with foolishness,
And the end of his talk is raving madness.

¹⁴A fool also multiplies words.

No man knows what is to be;

Who can tell him what will be after him?

¹⁵The labor of fools wearies them,

For they do not even know how to go to the city!

¹⁶Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child,
And your princes feast in the morning!

¹⁷Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles,

And your princes feast at the proper time—
For strength and not for drunkenness!

¹⁸Because of laziness the building decays,
And through idleness of hands the house leaks.

¹⁹A feast is made for laughter,
And wine makes merry;

But money answers everything.

²⁰Do not curse the king, even in your thought;
Do not curse the rich, even in your bedroom;
For a bird of the air may carry your voice,

And a bird in flight may tell the matter.

Chapter 11

The Value of Diligence

¹Cast your bread upon the waters,
For you will find it after many days.

²Give a serving to seven, and also to eight,

For you do not know what evil will be on the earth.

³If the clouds are full of rain,
They empty themselves upon the earth;
And if a tree falls to the south or the north,
In the place where the tree falls, there it shall lie.

⁴He who observes the wind will not sow,

And he who regards the clouds will not reap.

⁵As you do not know what is the way of the wind,^a
Or how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child,

So you do not know the works of God who makes everything.

⁶In the morning sow your seed,
And in the evening do not withhold your hand;
For you do not know which will prosper,
Either this or that,

Or whether both alike will be good.

⁷Truly the light is sweet,
And it is pleasant for the eyes to behold the sun;
⁸But if a man lives many years
And rejoices in them all,
Yet let him remember the days of darkness,
For they will be many.

All that is coming is vanity.

Seek God in Early Life

⁹Rejoice, O young man, in your youth,

Generosity: Leaders Give Before They Receive

Ecclesiastes 11:1-9

Solomon knew a thing or two about wise investing. He counsels leaders to be generous, giving before they receive. And why should leaders initiate giving? Because they know they will eventually receive a hefty return. Wise leaders embrace the following truths about generosity:

1. Givers go first (v. 1).
2. Givers receive a return (v. 1).
3. The return may not be immediate (v. 1).
4. Giving does not keep us from misfortune (vv. 2, 3).
5. If you do not give, you cannot expect a return (v. 4).

6. The return will be in proportion to your giving (v. 6).

7. The motive for giving is love for God (v. 9).

And let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth;

Walk in the ways of your heart,
And in the sight of your eyes;
But know that for all these
God will bring you into judgment.

¹⁰Therefore remove sorrow from your heart,
And put away evil from your flesh,

For childhood and youth are vanity.

Chapter 12

¹Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth,

Before the difficult days come,
And the years draw near when you say,
“I have no pleasure in them”:

²While the sun and the light,
The moon and the stars,
Are not darkened,
And the clouds do not return after the rain;

³In the day when the keepers of the house tremble,
And the strong men bow down;
When the grinders cease because they are few,
And those that look through the windows grow dim;

⁴When the doors are shut in the streets,
And the sound of grinding is low;
When one rises up at the sound of a bird,
And all the daughters of music are brought low.

⁵Also they are afraid of height,
And of terrors in the way;
When the almond tree blossoms,
The grasshopper is a burden,
And desire fails.

For man goes to his eternal home,

And the mourners go about the streets.

⁶*Remember your Creator* before the silver cord is loosed, a

Or the golden bowl is broken,
Or the pitcher shattered at the fountain,

Or the wheel broken at the well.

⁷Then the dust will return to the earth as it was,

And the spirit will return to God who gave it.

⁸Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher,

“All is vanity.”

The Whole Duty of Man

⁹And moreover, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yes, he pondered and sought out and set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰The Preacher sought to find acceptable words; and what was written was upright—words of truth. ¹¹The words of the wise are like goads, and the words of scholars^a are like well—driven nails, given by one Shepherd. ¹²And further, my son, be admonished by these. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is wearisome to the flesh.

¹³Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter:

Fear God and keep His commandments,
For this is man’s all.

¹⁴For God will bring every work into judgment,

Wise Words for Leaders on How to Finish Well

Ecclesiastes 12:1-14

Amazing how God can bring sunshine out of the cloudiest day, isn't it? So it is with the Book of Ecclesiastes. An otherwise pessimistic and discouraging book ends, by God's grace, on a significant "up" note.

Chapter 12 concludes Solomon's meditation with some wise words that should direct every leader. They sound like the lecture of an experienced mentor attempting to counsel an emerging leader, trying to keep him or her from making some of the same mistakes he made. Consider Solomon's wisdom in this grand finale:

1. Don't lose sight of the big picture, especially when you are young (vv. 1-4).

2. Do what is right before it is too late to correct yourself (vv. 5-8).

3. Use your words like tools to shepherd and add value to others (v. 11).

4. Don't try to master everything in life, just what is important (v. 12).

5. Trust and obey God, because He is the ultimate Judge (vv. 13, 14).

Including every secret thing,

Whether good or evil.

The Song of Solomon

Introduction to Song of Solomon

The Song of Solomon stands alone among 1,005 songs that Solomon wrote (1 Kin. 4:32). It is often called “The Song of Songs” because many consider it the best of his songs, the most excellent composition he ever wrote. Pious Jews read it every year on the eighth day of the Passover.

The Song proclaims a husband’s love for his wife and illustrates God’s love for His people, the love that Christ has for the Church, His bride. It describes how a lover cherishes his beloved and how he enjoys the way she completes him.

The song implies that leaders must learn to love the people God has placed within their sphere of influence. We cannot separate leadership from relationship. This book vividly portrays the mutual love both parties have for each other, a love that drives them to appreciate each other and serve each other extravagantly. This kind of love prompts the spiritual leader and the follower to “go the extra mile” and do more than the expected. The book frequently exhibits the “and then some” principle—the lover relishes his beloved, cares for her, provides for her... and then some. Healthy, intimate relationships create this kind of generous attitude.

Far too often, leaders believe their position forces them to remain distant from their people. They imagine they must remain aloof, even a bit mysterious, living at a level unattainable by others. This is not a biblical idea. This song reveals a transparent and vulnerable spiritual leader who speaks intimately of both his strengths and his needs. He feels secure enough to quit hiding behind smokescreens, as leaders today often do. What kind of smokescreens trouble us? Consider two: “I just cannot open up with my people.” “I don’t have time to build relationships—I’m too busy trying to reach my goals.” The lover in this song is honest enough to quit believing the kind of lies we often believe today. He wouldn’t think of saying, “If my people are going to submit to me as a leader, I cannot let them get too close to me,” or, “If I become vulnerable, my people won’t respect me.”

The Song of Solomon may give you a whole new perspective on the love a spiritual leader can have for his people. You can also apply these principles to the expressive, vulnerable relationships you find in your church, office, or neighborhood.

God’s Love for His People

God’s Role in Song of Solomon

Scholars have interpreted this book in four primary ways:

1. Allegory. This view sees the book expressing the love of God for His chosen people. Each part of the song contains some symbolic meaning.
2. Dramatic narrative. The song expresses Solomon’s own love affair with a Shulamite woman, whom he takes as wife to his palace in Jerusalem.

3. Extended parable. This view sees the song not as an allegory seeking meaning in every verse, but as a parable of Christ and His church.

4. Literal. This view sees Solomon celebrating the virtues of human love.

However you view the book, think of God's role as the Ultimate Leader whose love for His people motivates Him to lead and to act on their behalf.

Lessons in Leadership

- The best leaders feel motivated by love and compassion for their people.
- You cannot separate leadership from relationships.
- When leaders practice transparency, respect goes up, not down.
- Both the leader and the people need each other.
- Even the toughest of problems can be solved when relationships are managed well.

Chapter 1

Solomon's Love for a Shulamite Girl

¹The song of songs, which is Solomon's.

The Passionate, Consuming Love of God

Song of Solomon 1:1

Most of the time when we use words like “passion” and “love,” we speak of the affection between a man and a woman. But have you ever thought of God's love in terms of passion?

In the Song of Solomon, we see a beautiful picture of the tender devotion that God means to be shared between a husband and wife. But we also see a picture of the love God wants His people to share with Jesus Christ.

King Solomon understood that this love was unearned and unmerited, that in many ways God poured it out on His people despite themselves. This kind of love represents an actual communion between Christ and His church. On His part, it's a love that gives all to those with nothing to give in exchange. On our part, it is the kind of love that inspires us to hunger for more of Him, to thirst for Him to shine out through us.

Godly leaders understand that the relationship between Christ and His people amounts to far more than some kind of religious arrangement or contractual agreement. Rather, it is a relationship of love, tenderness, and passion, a relationship in which we, the bride, remain aware of our unworthiness of the Bridegroom's love—yet bask in its limitless depths.

The Banquet

The Shulamite^a

²Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth—
For your^b love is better than wine.

³Because of the fragrance of your good ointments,
Your name is ointment poured forth;
Therefore the virgins love you.

⁴Draw me away!

The Daughters of Jerusalem

We will run after you.^a

The Shulamite

The king has brought me into his chambers.

The Daughters of Jerusalem

We will be glad and rejoice in you.^b

We will remember your^c love more than wine.

The Shulamite

Rightly do they love you.^d

⁵I am dark, but lovely,
O daughters of Jerusalem,
Like the tents of Kedar,
Like the curtains of Solomon.

⁶Do not look upon me, because I am dark,
Because the sun has tanned me.
My mother's sons were angry with me;
They made me the keeper of the vineyards,

But my own vineyard I have not kept.

(To Her Beloved)

⁷Tell me, O you whom I love,
Where you feed your flock,
Where you make it rest at noon.
For why should I be as one who veils herself^{fa}

By the flocks of your companions?

The Beloved

⁸If you do not know, O fairest among women,
Follow in the footsteps of the flock,
And feed your little goats
Beside the shepherds' tents.

⁹I have compared you, my love,
To my filly among Pharaoh's chariots.

¹⁰Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments,

Your neck with chains of gold.

The Daughters of Jerusalem

¹¹We will make you ^a ornaments of gold

With studs of silver.

The Shulamite

¹²While the king is at his table,
My spikenard sends forth its fragrance.

¹³A bundle of myrrh is my beloved to me,
That lies all night between my breasts.

¹⁴My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blooms

In the vineyards of En Gedi.

The Beloved

¹⁵Behold, you are fair, my love!

Affirmation: Leaders Identify and Affirm Qualities in Others

Song of Solomon 1:10-15

Leaders whom others love and loyally follow are usually those who express appreciation to their followers. They live the principle of affirmation.

The Song of Solomon reveals a spiritual leader who identifies specific qualities he appreciates about his beloved, then expresses his appreciation. This marvelous love letter shows a spiritual leader communicating love and affirmation. The follower almost always reciprocates the sentiment. Notice what Solomon and all great leaders do to encourage those in their care:

1. Identify—Declare what it is you appreciate. Name it.
2. Specify—Be as specific as you can. No generalizations about their style!
3. Quantify—Express how they have made a measurable difference in your life.
4. Magnify—Encourage your followers liberally in public, before their peers.

Behold, you are fair!

You have dove's eyes.

The Shulamite

¹⁶Behold, you are handsome, my beloved!

Yes, pleasant!

Also our bed is green.

¹⁷The beams of our houses are cedar,

And our rafters of fir.

Chapter 2

¹I am the rose of Sharon,
And the lily of the valleys.

The Beloved

²Like a lily among thorns,
So is my love among the daughters.

The Shulamite

³Like an apple tree among the trees of the woods,
So is my beloved among the sons.
I sat down in his shade with great delight,
And his fruit was sweet to my taste.

The Shulamite to the Daughters of Jerusalem

⁴He brought me to the banqueting house,
And his banner over me was love.
⁵Sustain me with cakes of raisins,
Refresh me with apples,
For I am lovesick.

⁶His left hand is under my head,
And his right hand embraces me.

⁷I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
By the gazelles or by the does of the field,
Do not stir up nor awaken love

Until it pleases.

The Beloved's Request

The Shulamite

⁸The voice of my beloved!

Behold, he comes

Leaping upon the mountains,

Skiping upon the hills.

⁹My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.

Behold, he stands behind our wall;

He is looking through the windows,

Gazing through the lattice.

¹⁰My beloved spoke, and said to me:

"Rise up, my love, my fair one,

And come away.

¹¹For lo, the winter is past,

The rain is over and gone.

¹²The flowers appear on the earth;

The time of singing has come,

And the voice of the turtledove

Is heard in our land.

¹³The fig tree puts forth her green figs,

And the vines with the tender grapes

Give a good smell.

Rise up, my love, my fair one,

And come away!

¹⁴“O my dove, in the clefts of the rock,
In the secret places of the cliff,
Let me see your face,
Let me hear your voice;
For your voice is sweet,

And your face is lovely.”

Her Brothers

¹⁵Catch us the foxes,

Catching the Little Foxes

Song of Solomon 2:15

It's the “little foxes” that often ruin an organization—bad attitudes, lack of encouragement, no time off, impatient supervisors, or gossip. Leaders must listen for the sounds of little fox feet. Remember, it's better to build a fence at the top of the cliff than a hospital at the bottom.

The little foxes that spoil the vines,

For our vines have tender grapes.

The Shulamite

¹⁶My beloved is mine, and I am his.

He feeds his flock among the lilies.

(To Her Beloved)

¹⁷Until the day breaks
And the shadows flee away,
Turn, my beloved,
And be like a gazelle
Or a young stag

Upon the mountains of Bether.a

Chapter 3

A Troubled Night

The Shulamite

¹By night on my bed I sought the one I love;
I sought him, but I did not find him.

²"I will rise now," I said,

"And go about the city;
In the streets and in the squares
I will seek the one I love."

I sought him, but I did not find him.

³The watchmen who go about the city found me;
I said,

"Have you seen the one I love?"

⁴Scarcely had I passed by them,
When I found the one I love.
I held him and would not let him go,
Until I had brought him to the house of my mother,

And into the chamber of her who conceived me.

⁵I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
By the gazelles or by the does of the field,
Do not stir up nor awaken love

Until it pleases.

The Coming of Solomon

The Shulamite

⁶Who is this coming out of the wilderness
Like pillars of smoke,
Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
With all the merchant's fragrant powders?

⁷Behold, it is Solomon's couch,
With sixty valiant men around it,
Of the valiant of Israel.

⁸They all hold swords,
Being expert in war.
Every man has his sword on his thigh

Because of fear in the night.

⁹Of the wood of Lebanon
Solomon the King
Made himself a palanquin:a

¹⁰He made its pillars of silver,
Its support of gold,
Its seat of purple,
Its interior paved with love
By the daughters of Jerusalem.

¹¹Go forth, O daughters of Zion,
And see King Solomon with the crown
With which his mother crowned him
On the day of his wedding,

The day of the gladness of his heart.

Chapter 4

The Beloved

¹Behold, you are fair, my love!
Behold, you are fair!
You have dove's eyes behind your veil.
Your hair is like a flock of goats,
Going down from Mount Gilead.

²Your teeth are like a flock of shorn sheep
Which have come up from the washing,
Every one of which bears twins,
And none is barren among them.

³Your lips are like a strand of scarlet,
And your mouth is lovely.
Your temples behind your veil
Are like a piece of pomegranate.

⁴Your neck is like the tower of David,
Built for an armory,
On which hang a thousand bucklers,
All shields of mighty men.

⁵Your two breasts are like two fawns,
Twins of a gazelle,

Which feed among the lilies.

⁶Until the day breaks
And the shadows flee away,
I will go my way to the mountain of myrrh

And to the hill of frankincense.

⁷You are all fair, my love,
And there is no spot in you.

⁸Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse,
With me from Lebanon.
Look from the top of Amana,
From the top of Senir and Hermon,
From the lions' dens,

From the mountains of the leopards.

⁹You have ravished my heart,
My sister, my spouse;
You have ravished my heart
With one look of your eyes,
With one link of your necklace.

¹⁰How fair is your love,
My sister, my spouse!
How much better than wine is your love,
And the scent of your perfumes
Than all spices!

¹¹Your lips, O my spouse,
Drip as the honeycomb;
Honey and milk are under your tongue;
And the fragrance of your garments

Is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

¹²A garden enclosed
Is my sister, my spouse,
A spring shut up,
A fountain sealed.

¹³Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates
With pleasant fruits,
Fragrant henna with spikenard,

¹⁴Spikenard and saffron,
Calamus and cinnamon,

With all trees of frankincense,
Myrrh and aloes,
With all the chief spices—
¹⁵A fountain of gardens,
A well of living waters,

And streams from Lebanon.

Leaders Honor Their Teams: Put 10s on Their Foreheads

Song of Solomon 4:1-16

Solomon spoke delightful words that honored and lifted up his bride. Many scholars believe this song is actually a metaphor for Christ's love for His people. The song also gives leaders a beautiful picture about how to communicate honor from the heart. How can we best communicate compliments to those we lead?

1. Make them sincere. Be genuine and authentic about what you say.

2. Make them specific. Get very pointed and detailed about what you say.

3. Make them public. Declare these honoring words in front of others.

4. Make them personal. Be personal about what you say.

Whenever I see my staff, I put an imaginary "10" on the forehead of each individual. This helps me treat each person like a 10, a high performer who makes a difference to me and the organization. Inevitably, they respond as if they are a 10!

If you don't already do this, why not start today?
Put "10s" on the people you lead. Treat them based on their potential, not their performance. You'll be amazed how both will rise.

The Shulamite

¹⁶Awake, O north wind,
And come, O south!
Blow upon my garden,
That its spices may flow out.
Let my beloved come to his garden

And eat its pleasant fruits.

Leaders Bless People

Song of Solomon 4:1-16

Good leaders give the "blessing" to those they lead. In the Hebrew culture, fathers or patriarchs usually gave the blessing to their sons; rabbis and other spiritual leaders also pronounced blessings. Gary Smalley and John Trent remind us that the blessing contains five key elements:

1. Affirming words: words that give hope and encouragement to the listener.
2. Meaningful touch: an embrace or a hand on a shoulder communicating care.
3. Expression of high value: a statement on the value that person adds to everyone.

4. Vision of a special future: provides word pictures that communicate potential.

5. Application of genuine commitment: do everything in your power to see that blessing comes to pass.

Chapter 5

The Beloved

¹I have come to my garden, my sister, my spouse;
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;

I have drunk my wine with my milk.

(To His Friends)

Eat, O friends!
Drink, yes, drink deeply,

O beloved ones!

The Shulamite's Troubled Evening

The Shulamite

²I sleep, but my heart is awake;
It is the voice of my beloved!
He knocks, saying,
“Open for me, my sister, my love,
My dove, my perfect one;
For my head is covered with dew,
My locks with the drops of the night.”

³I have taken off my robe;
How can I put it on again?
I have washed my feet;
How can I defile them?

⁴My beloved put his hand
By the latch of the door,
And my heart yearned for him.

⁵I arose to open for my beloved,
And my hands dripped with myrrh,
My fingers with liquid myrrh,

On the handles of the lock.

⁶I opened for my beloved,
But my beloved had turned away and was gone.
My heart leaped up when he spoke.
I sought him, but I could not find him;
I called him, but he gave me no answer.

⁷The watchmen who went about the city found me.
They struck me, they wounded me;
The keepers of the walls
Took my veil away from me.

⁸I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
If you find my beloved,

That you tell him I am lovesick!

The Daughters of Jerusalem

⁹What is your beloved
More than another beloved,
O fairest among women?
What is your beloved
More than another beloved,

That you so charge us?

The Shulamite

¹⁰My beloved is white and ruddy,
Chief among ten thousand.

¹¹His head is like the finest gold;
His locks are wavy,
And black as a raven.

¹²His eyes are like doves
By the rivers of waters,
Washed with milk,
And fitly set.

¹³His cheeks are like a bed of spices,
Banks of scented herbs.
His lips are lilies,

Dripping liquid myrrh.

¹⁴His hands are rods of gold
Set with beryl.
His body is carved ivory
Inlaid with sapphires.

¹⁵His legs are pillars of marble
Set on bases of fine gold.
His countenance is like Lebanon,
Excellent as the cedars.

¹⁶His mouth is most sweet,
Yes, he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved,
And this is my friend,

O daughters of Jerusalem

Chapter 6

The Daughters of Jerusalem

¹Where has your beloved gone,
O fairest among women?
Where has your beloved turned aside,

That we may seek him with you?

The Shulamite

²My beloved has gone to his garden,
To the beds of spices,
To feed his flock in the gardens,
And to gather lilies.
³I am my beloved's,
And my beloved is mine.

He feeds his flock among the lilies.

Praise of the Shulamite's Beauty

The Beloved

⁴O my love, you are as beautiful as Tirzah,
Lovely as Jerusalem,
Awesome as an army with banners!

⁵Turn your eyes away from me,
For they have overcome me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats
Going down from Gilead.
⁶Your teeth are like a flock of sheep
Which have come up from the washing;
Every one bears twins,
And none is barren among them.
⁷Like a piece of pomegranate

Are your temples behind your veil.

⁸There are sixty queens
And eighty concubines,
And virgins without number.
⁹My dove, my perfect one,
Is the only one,
The only one of her mother,
The favorite of the one who bore her.
The daughters saw her
And called her blessed,
The queens and the concubines,

And they praised her.

¹⁰Who is she who looks forth as the morning,
Fair as the moon,
Clear as the sun,

Awesome as an army with banners?

The Shulamite

¹¹I went down to the garden of nuts
To see the verdure of the valley,

To see whether the vine had budded
And the pomegranates had bloomed.

¹²Before I was even aware,
My soul had made me

As the chariots of my noble people.^A

The Beloved and His Friends

¹³Return, return, O Shulamite;

Return, return, that we may look upon you!

Leaders Practice Good People Skills

Song of Solomon 5:1-6:13

The Song of Solomon overflows with heart, describing a passionate relationship between two people who deeply love each other.

What can leaders learn from this book? Leaders must relate to their people from the soul, not merely by protocol. The best way to overcome problems is to involve your heart, not just your head.

Unfortunately, we're tempted toward another direction. When we fail at something, we tend to see why it happened and cut ourselves some slack; we may even make excuses for our mistakes. In other words, we deal with ourselves using our heart. Yet we often neglect the heart when dealing with others. We can be direct and even demanding. It really works best to switch the whole thing around. When dealing with yourself, use your head.

When dealing with others, use your heart.

The Shulamite

What would you see in the Shulamite—

As it were, the dance of the two camps?a

Chapter 7

Expressions of Praise

The Beloved

¹How beautiful are your feet in sandals,
O prince's daughter!
The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
The work of the hands of a skillful workman.

²Your navel is a rounded goblet;
It lacks no blended beverage.
Your waist is a heap of wheat
Set about with lilies.

³Your two breasts are like two fawns,
Twins of a gazelle.

⁴Your neck is like an ivory tower,
Your eyes like the pools in Heshbon
By the gate of Bath Rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon
Which looks toward Damascus.

⁵Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel,
And the hair of your head is like purple;

A king is held captive by your tresses.

⁶How fair and how pleasant you are,
O love, with your delights!

⁷This stature of yours is like a palm tree,

And your breasts like its clusters.

⁸I said, "I will go up to the palm tree,
I will take hold of its branches."

Let now your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
The fragrance of your breath like apples,

⁹And the roof of your mouth like the best wine.

The Shulamite

The wine goes down smoothly for my beloved,
Moving gently the lips of sleepers.^a

¹⁰I am my beloved's,

And his desire is toward me.

¹¹Come, my beloved,
Let us go forth to the field;
Let us lodge in the villages.

¹²Let us get up early to the vineyards;
Let us see if the vine has budded,
Whether the grape blossoms are open,
And the pomegranates are in bloom.
There I will give you my love.

¹³The mandrakes give off a fragrance,
And at our gates are pleasant fruits,
All manner, new and old,

Which I have laid up for you, my beloved.

Chapter 8

¹Oh, that you were like my brother,
Who nursed at my mother's breasts!
If I should find you outside,
I would kiss you;
I would not be despised.
²I would lead you and bring you
Into the house of my mother,
She who used to instruct me.
I would cause you to drink of spiced wine,

Of the juice of my pomegranate.

(To the Daughters of Jerusalem)

³His left hand is under my head,
And his right hand embraces me.
⁴I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
Do not stir up nor awaken love

Until it pleases.

Love Renewed in Lebanon

A Relative

⁵Who is this coming up from the wilderness,

Leaning upon her beloved?

I awakened you under the apple tree.
There your mother brought you forth;

There she who bore you brought you forth.

The Shulamite to Her Beloved

⁶Set me as a seal upon your heart,
As a seal upon your arm;
For love is as strong as death,
Jealousy as cruel as the grave;^a
Its flames are flames of fire,

A most vehement flame.^b

⁷Many waters cannot quench love,
Nor can the floods drown it.
If a man would give for love
All the wealth of his house,

It would be utterly despised.

The Shulamite's Brothers

⁸We have a little sister,
And she has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister
In the day when she is spoken for?

⁹If she is a wall,
We will build upon her
A battlement of silver;
And if she is a door,
We will enclose her

With boards of cedar.

The Shulamite

¹⁰I am a wall,
And my breasts like towers;
Then I became in his eyes
As one who found peace.
¹¹Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon;
He leased the vineyard to keepers;
Everyone was to bring for its fruit

A thousand silver coins.

(To Solomon)

¹²My own vineyard is before me.
You, O Solomon, may have a thousand,
And those who tend its fruit two hundred.

The Beloved

¹³You who dwell in the gardens,
The companions listen for your voice—
Let me hear it!

The Shulamite

¹⁴Make haste, my beloved,
And be like a gazelle
Or a young stag
On the mountains of spices.

The Book of Isaiah

Introduction to Isaiah

We remember Isaiah as one of the greatest prophets in Jewish history and as one of the most powerful models in the Bible. The book that bears his name describes his consistent lifestyle, his uncompromising convictions, and his clear vision that drove him to continue speaking out despite the unfaithfulness of his people.

Isaiah's lifestyle reminds us that we cannot separate a leader's words and walk. A leader must first be an example to the people. People do what people see. Isaiah led with integrity. Integrity means "oneness," the quality of purity and consistency. When we speak of the integrity of Scripture, we mean that it proclaims one consistent message. This word describes Isaiah, a man of God full of consistency.

Isaiah's convictions teach us about avoiding ungodly compromise. He and his contemporary, the prophet Micah, both raised the bar for the people by holding to God's standards with unswerving determination. While leaders must remain flexible with their methods, they cannot compromise their convictions.

Finally, Isaiah furnishes a beautiful case study of a leader who led from vision. He describes a God-given vision that drives him to fulfill his calling as a leader. He clings to it despite rejection (6:9). Throughout the book he communicates his vision to the people and warns them to repent. Before he finishes, he has influenced King Hezekiah to bring about national reforms. Through his tenacious intercession with God, Sennacherib's entire army is destroyed (2 Kin. 19:36, 37; 2 Chr. 32:20-23; Is. 37:36-38).

Consistent Lifestyle... Uncompromising Convictions... Clear Vision

God's Role in Isaiah

As the One who inspired both Isaiah's ministry and his writings, God again reveals Himself as the Leader of leaders. We see the Lord telling Isaiah what to say to the people and warning them of the impending judgment if they fail to repent. God also gives Isaiah visions about the future. While the first 39 chapters lay out some bleak moments, the remaining 27 provide strong hope. Isaiah predicts the coming Messiah as the Ultimate Leader for the people of Israel. The Messiah embodies all the positive qualities of an effective leader.

Leaders in Isaiah

Isaiah, King Hezekiah, the Messiah

Other People of Influence in Isaiah

Kings of Judah and Israel, leaders of Assyria, Babylon, Edom, Egypt, Tyre, Cush, Philistia, Moab, Damascus (Syria), Dedan, and Kedar

Lessons in Leadership

- Vision is born out of values and ethics—they must align.
- The measure of a person is what he or she does with power.

- Leaders create atmospheres and environments for growth and success.
- Ability, opportunity, and desire make up the components of a call to lead.
- God reduces prideful leaders but resources humble leaders.
- Strategic planning that ignores God and the changing culture is doomed to fail.
- Insecure leaders inevitably destroy people; secure leaders develop people.
- The higher leaders climb, the fewer there are who can hold them accountable.
- God Himself provides the ultimate model of servant leadership.

Chapter 1

¹The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

The Wickedness of Judah

²Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth!
For the LORD has spoken:
“I have nourished and brought up children,
And they have rebelled against Me;
³The ox knows its owner
And the donkey its master’s crib;
But Israel does not know,

My people do not consider.”

⁴Alas, sinful nation,
A people laden with iniquity,
A brood of evildoers,
Children who are corrupters!
They have forsaken the LORD,
They have provoked to anger
The Holy One of Israel,

They have turned away backward.

⁵Why should you be stricken again?

You will revolt more and more.

The whole head is sick,

And the whole heart faints.

⁶From the sole of the foot even to the head,

There is no soundness in it,

But wounds and bruises and putrefying sores;

They have not been closed or bound up,

Or soothed with ointment.

⁷Your country is desolate,

Your cities are burned with fire;

Strangers devour your land in your presence;

And it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

⁸So the daughter of Zion is left as a booth in a vineyard,

As a hut in a garden of cucumbers,

As a besieged city.

⁹Unless the LORD of hosts

Had left to us a very small remnant,

We would have become like Sodom,

We would have been made like Gomorrah.

¹⁰Hear the word of the LORD,

You rulers of Sodom;

Give ear to the law of our God,

You people of Gomorrah:

¹¹"To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to Me?"

Says the LORD.

"I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams

And the fat of fed cattle.

I do not delight in the blood of bulls,

Or of lambs or goats.

¹²“When you come to appear before Me,
Who has required this from your hand,
To trample My courts?

¹³Bring no more futile sacrifices;
Incense is an abomination to Me.

The New Moons, the Sabbaths, and the calling of assemblies—

I cannot endure iniquity and the sacred meeting.

¹⁴Your New Moons and your appointed feasts
My soul hates;

They are a trouble to Me,
I am weary of bearing them.

¹⁵When you spread out your hands,
I will hide My eyes from you;
Even though you make many prayers,
I will not hear.

Your hands are full of blood.

¹⁶“Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean;
Put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes.

Cease to do evil,

¹⁷Learn to do good;

Growth Occurs When Vision and Values Match

Isaiah 1:10-17

God scolds the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem—even calling them rulers of Sodom and people of Gomorrah, the wicked cities He wiped out in Genesis 19—because they continued to perform religious rituals long after their hearts had grown cold and distant toward God. In other words, they continued to pursue a godly vision far from the values that birthed it. They had become empty, hollow leaders.

God resents perfunctory behavior. He doesn't want leaders who merely go through the motions. Leaders can look good while pursuing a worthwhile vision that they no longer consider valuable. Leaders find power only when...

1. Their vision and values match.
2. Their lifestyle and lip service match.
3. Their conduct and character match.
4. Their image and integrity match.
5. Their promises and production match.
6. Their strategy and support match.

Seek justice,
Rebuke the oppressor;^a
Defend the fatherless,

Plead for the widow.

¹⁸“Come now, and let us reason together,”
Says the LORD,
“Though your sins are like scarlet,
They shall be as white as snow;
Though they are red like crimson,
They shall be as wool.

¹⁹If you are willing and obedient,
You shall eat the good of the land;
²⁰But if you refuse and rebel,
You shall be devoured by the sword”;

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

The Degenerate City

²¹How the faithful city has become a harlot!
It was full of justice;
Righteousness lodged in it,
But now murderers.

²²Your silver has become dross,
Your wine mixed with water.

²³Your princes are rebellious,
And companions of thieves;
Everyone loves bribes,
And follows after rewards.
They do not defend the fatherless,

Nor does the cause of the widow come before them.

²⁴Therefore the Lord says,
The LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel,
“Ah, I will rid Myself of My adversaries,
And take vengeance on My enemies.

²⁵I will turn My hand against you,
And thoroughly purge away your dross,
And take away all your alloy.

²⁶I will restore your judges as at the first,
And your counselors as at the beginning.

Afterward you shall be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city.”

²⁷Zion shall be redeemed with justice,
And her penitents with righteousness.

²⁸The destruction of transgressors and of sinners shall be together,

And those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

²⁹For they^a shall be ashamed of the terebinth trees

Which you have desired;

And you shall be embarrassed because of the gardens

Which you have chosen.

³⁰For you shall be as a terebinth whose leaf fades,

And as a garden that has no water.

³¹The strong shall be as tinder,

And the work of it as a spark;

Both will burn together,

And no one shall quench them.

Chapter 2

The Future House of God

¹The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

²Now it shall come to pass in the latter days
That the mountain of the LORD's house
Shall be established on the top of the mountains,
And shall be exalted above the hills;
And all nations shall flow to it.

³Many people shall come and say,
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,

To the house of the God of Jacob;
He will teach us His ways,
And we shall walk in His paths."
For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

⁴He shall judge between the nations,
And rebuke many people;
They shall beat their swords into plowshares,
And their spears into pruning hooks;
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,

Neither shall they learn war anymore.

The Day of the LORD

⁵O house of Jacob, come and let us walk

In the light of the LORD.

⁶For You have forsaken Your people, the house of Jacob,

Because they are filled with eastern ways;
They are soothsayers like the Philistines,
And they are pleased with the children of foreigners.

⁷Their land is also full of silver and gold,
And there is no end to their treasures;
Their land is also full of horses,
And there is no end to their chariots.

⁸Their land is also full of idols;
They worship the work of their own hands,
That which their own fingers have made.

⁹People bow down,
And each man humbles himself;

Therefore do not forgive them.

¹⁰Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust,
From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of His majesty.

¹¹The lofty looks of man shall be humbled,
The haughtiness of men shall be bowed down,

And the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

¹²For the day of the LORD of hosts
Shall come upon everything proud and lofty,
Upon everything lifted up—

And it shall be brought low—

¹³Upon all the cedars of Lebanon that are high and lifted up,

And upon all the oaks of Bashan;

¹⁴Upon all the high mountains,
And upon all the hills that are lifted up;

¹⁵Upon every high tower,
And upon every fortified wall;

¹⁶Upon all the ships of Tarshish,
And upon all the beautiful sloops.

¹⁷The loftiness of man shall be bowed down,
And the haughtiness of men shall be brought low;
The LORD alone will be exalted in that day,

¹⁸But the idols He shall utterly abolish.

¹⁹They shall go into the holes of the rocks,
And into the caves of the earth,
From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of His majesty,

When He arises to shake the earth mightily.

²⁰In that day a man will cast away his idols of silver
And his idols of gold,
Which they made, each for himself to worship,
To the moles and bats,

²¹To go into the clefts of the rocks,
And into the crags of the rugged rocks,
From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of His majesty,

When He arises to shake the earth mightily.

²²Sever yourselves from such a man,
Whose breath is in his nostrils;

For of what account is he?

Chapter 3

Judgment on Judah and Jerusalem

¹For behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
Takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah
The stock and the store,
The whole supply of bread and the whole supply of water;

²The mighty man and the man of war,
The judge and the prophet,
And the diviner and the elder;

³The captain of fifty and the honorable man,
The counselor and the skillful artisan,
And the expert enchanter.

⁴"I will give children to be their princes,

Judah's Lousy Leaders: Everything Rises and Falls on Leadership

Isaiah 3:1-4

God had a strategy for judging Judah, and part of His judgment involved removing good leaders from the nation. No organization or nation can prosper without good leadership. People suffer with poor leaders at the helm. God knew the way to impact the nation was to change its leadership.

And babes shall rule over them.

⁵The people will be oppressed,
Every one by another and every one by his neighbor;
The child will be insolent toward the elder,

And the base toward the honorable.”

⁶When a man takes hold of his brother
In the house of his father, saying,
“You have clothing;
You be our ruler,
And let these ruins be under your power,”^a

⁷In that day he will protest, saying,
“I cannot cure your ills,
For in my house is neither food nor clothing;

Do not make me a ruler of the people.”

⁸For Jerusalem stumbled,
And Judah is fallen,
Because their tongue and their doings
Are against the LORD,
To provoke the eyes of His glory.

⁹The look on their countenance witnesses against them,

And they declare their sin as Sodom;
They do not hide it.
Woe to their soul!

For they have brought evil upon themselves.

¹⁰“Say to the righteous that it shall be well with them,

For they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

¹¹Woe to the wicked! It shall be ill with him,

For the reward of his hands shall be given him.

¹²*As for* My people, children are their oppressors,
And women rule over them.

O My people! Those who lead you cause you to err,

And destroy the way of your paths.”

Oppression and Luxury Condemned

¹³The LORD stands up to plead,
And stands to judge the people.

¹⁴The LORD will enter into judgment
With the elders of His people
And His princes:

“For you have eaten up the vineyard;
The plunder of the poor is in your houses.

¹⁵What do you mean by crushing My people

The Law of Navigation: How Leaders Lead

Isaiah 3:14, 15

The more power leaders gain, the more they reveal of themselves. Power causes the heart to disclose its contents.

The leaders described in Isaiah 3 displayed their corrupt hearts the moment they won a position of authority. Good or bad, leaders determine where and when the organization goes; this is the ripple effect of the Law of Navigation. The Lord responded to these corrupt leaders by sounding judgment against them.

Leaders must consider the impact of their every move. Leaders always lead. There are no time-outs! There never comes a time when it doesn't matter what you do. Think of your leadership like a diet. Suppose you eat right in the restaurant with friends, but then go home and consume a whole strawberry cheesecake. You won't lose weight that way! What you eat eventually shows. In the same way, those you lead eventually reflect your leadership. Your navigation as a leader depends on the following:

1. When you know where you are going, you gain conviction.
2. When you have been there before, you gain credibility.
3. When you can take someone with you, you gain connection.

And grinding the faces of the poor?"

Says the Lord GOD of hosts.

¹⁶Moreover the LORD says:

"Because the daughters of Zion are haughty,
And walk with outstretched necks
And wanton eyes,
Walking and mincing as they go,
Making a jingling with their feet,

¹⁷Therefore the Lord will strike with a scab
The crown of the head of the daughters of Zion,

And the LORD will uncover their secret parts.”

¹⁸In that day the Lord will take away the finery:
The jingling anklets, the scarves, and the crescents;

¹⁹The pendants, the bracelets, and the veils;

²⁰The headdresses, the leg ornaments, and the headbands;

The perfume boxes, the charms,

²¹and the rings;

The nose jewels,

²²the festal apparel, and the mantles;

The outer garments, the purses,

²³and the mirrors;

The fine linen, the turbans, and the robes.

²⁴And so it shall be:

Instead of a sweet smell there will be a stench;

Instead of a sash, a rope;

Instead of well-set hair, baldness;

Instead of a rich robe, a girding of sackcloth;

And branding instead of beauty.

²⁵Your men shall fall by the sword,

And your mighty in the war.

²⁶Her gates shall lament and mourn,

And she being desolate shall sit on the ground.

Chapter 4

¹And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying,

“We will eat our own food and wear our own apparel;

Only let us be called by your name,

To take away our reproach.”

The Renewal of Zion

²In that day the Branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious;

And the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and appealing

For those of Israel who have escaped.

³And it shall come to pass that he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy—everyone who is recorded among the living in Jerusalem. ⁴When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and purged the blood of Jerusalem from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning, ⁵then the LORD will create above every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and above her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night. For over all the glory there will be a covering. ⁶And there will be a tabernacle for shade in the daytime from the heat, for a place of refuge, and for a shelter from storm and rain.

The Value of Vision

Isaiah 4:2-6

Isaiah 4 illustrates how good leaders create a climate for growth based on a picture of a preferred future. A strong God-given vision drove all the worthwhile accomplishments recorded in the Bible. Consider the following examples:

Leader • Vision

Abraham (Gen. 12) • To create a great nation of people of faith

Moses (Ex. 3; 4) • To lead the people of Israel out of Egypt

Joshua (Num. 27) • To lead the people of Israel into the Promised Land

David (1 Chr. 22) • To build the temple in Jerusalem

Solomon (2 Chr. 28) • To complete the building of the temple

Nehemiah (Neh. 2) • To rebuild the Jerusalem wall

Esther (Esth. 4) • To save the Jewish people from Haman

Zerubbabel (Hag. 1) • To rebuild the temple

Jesus (Matt. 28; Luke 15) • To seek and save the lost, and to disciple men to do the same

Paul (Acts 9) • To take the gospel to the Jews and Gentiles

Chapter 5

God's Disappointing Vineyard

¹Now let me sing to my Well-beloved

A song of my Beloved regarding His vineyard:

My Well-beloved has a vineyard
On a very fruitful hill.

²He dug it up and cleared out its stones,
And planted it with the choicest vine.
He built a tower in its midst,
And also made a winepress in it;
So He expected it to bring forth good grapes,

But it brought forth wild grapes.

³"And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah,

Judge, please, between Me and My vineyard.

⁴What more could have been done to My vineyard
That I have not done in it?

Why then, when I expected it to bring forth good grapes,

Did it bring forth wild grapes?

⁵And now, please let Me tell you what I will do to My vineyard:

I will take away its hedge, and it shall be burned;

And break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.

⁶I will lay it waste;
It shall not be pruned or dug,
But there shall come up briers and thorns.
I will also command the clouds

That they rain no rain on it.”

⁷For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel,

And the men of Judah are His pleasant plant.
He looked for justice, but behold, oppression;

For righteousness, but behold, a cry for help.

Impending Judgment on Excesses

⁸Woe to those who join house to house;
They add field to field,
Till there is no place
Where they may dwell alone in the midst of the land!

⁹In my hearing the LORD of hosts said,
“Truly, many houses shall be desolate,
Great and beautiful ones, without inhabitant.

¹⁰For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath,

And a homer of seed shall yield one ephah.”

¹¹Woe to those who rise early in the morning,
That they may follow intoxicating drink;
Who continue until night, till wine inflames them!

¹²The harp and the strings,

The tambourine and flute,
And wine are in their feasts;
But they do not regard the work of the LORD,

Nor consider the operation of His hands.

¹³Therefore my people have gone into captivity,
Because they have no knowledge;
Their honorable men are famished,
And their multitude dried up with thirst.

¹⁴Therefore Sheol has enlarged itself
And opened its mouth beyond measure;
Their glory and their multitude and their pomp,
And he who is jubilant, shall descend into it.

¹⁵People shall be brought down,
Each man shall be humbled,
And the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled.

¹⁶But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment,
And God who is holy shall be hallowed in righteousness.

¹⁷Then the lambs shall feed in their pasture,

And in the waste places of the fat ones strangers shall eat.

¹⁸Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of vanity,

And sin as if with a cart rope;

¹⁹That say, "Let Him make speed and hasten His work,

That we may see it;

And let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come,

That we may know it."

²⁰Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil;
Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness;

Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

²¹Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes,
And prudent in their own sight!

²²Woe to men mighty at drinking wine,
Woe to men valiant for mixing intoxicating drink,

²³Who justify the wicked for a bribe,

And take away justice from the righteous man!

²⁴Therefore, as the fire devours the stubble,
And the flame consumes the chaff,
So their root will be as rottenness,
And their blossom will ascend like dust;
Because they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts,

And despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

²⁵Therefore the anger of the LORD is aroused
against His people;

He has stretched out His hand against them
And stricken them,
And the hills trembled.

Their carcasses were as refuse in the midst of the streets.

For all this His anger is not turned away,

But His hand is stretched out still.

²⁶He will lift up a banner to the nations from afar,
And will whistle to them from the end of the earth;

Surely they shall come with speed, swiftly.

²⁷No one will be weary or stumble among them,

No one will slumber or sleep;

Nor will the belt on their loins be loosed,

Nor the strap of their sandals be broken;

²⁸Whose arrows are sharp,

And all their bows bent;

Their horses' hooves will seem like flint,

And their wheels like a whirlwind.

²⁹Their roaring will be like a lion,

They will roar like young lions;

Yes, they will roar

And lay hold of the prey;

They will carry it away safely,

And no one will deliver.

³⁰In that day they will roar against them

Like the roaring of the sea.

And if one looks to the land,

Behold, darkness and sorrow;

And the light is darkened by the clouds.

Chapter 6

Isaiah Called to Be a Prophet

¹In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and the train of His robe filled the temple. ²Above it stood seraphim; each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³And one cried to another and said:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;

The whole earth is full of His glory!”

⁴And the posts of the door were shaken by the voice of him who cried out, and the house was filled with smoke.

⁵So I said:

“Woe is me, for I am undone!
Because I am a man of unclean lips,
And I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips;
For my eyes have seen the King,

The LORD of hosts.”

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a live coal which he had taken with the tongs from the altar.

⁷And he touched my mouth with it, and said:

“Behold, this has touched your lips;
Your iniquity is taken away,

And your sin purged.”

⁸Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying:

“Whom shall I send,

And who will go for Us?”

Then I said, “Here am I! Send me.”

The Call of a Leader

Isaiah 6:1-8

The first eight verses of Isaiah 6 illustrate how God calls many leaders. After Isaiah captures a vision for God, the Lord lays out a need for someone to speak for Him. God has a message and is looking for a messenger. God issued a general call, for anyone, and Isaiah took it personally. He did so because of three factors that make up a divine call to lead:

1. Opportunity: We see a specific place where we can make a difference. This has to do with timing (v. 1).

2. Ability: We recognize that we have the God-given gifts to do something about the need. This has to do with competence (vv. 6, 7).

3. Desire: We want to step out and address the need; our hunger pushes us. This has to do with our passion (v. 8).

Responding to a Divine Call

Isaiah 6:1-8

Have you ever noticed that the experience of Isaiah parallels our own process of responding to a divine call to lead?

Isaiah gets a vision of God (Is. 6:1-4), a vision of himself (6:5-7) and a vision of ministry (6:8). At least five stages in this process apply to us:

Stage One: The Revelation of God (vv. 1, 2)

Isaiah saw the Lord in a face-to-face encounter that changed him forever.

Stage Two: The Realization of God's Holiness (vv. 3, 4)

Isaiah experiences God as holy. Through this encounter, the Lord becomes more than an abstract idea. Isaiah learns of God's awesome personality.

Stage Three: The Recognition of His Own Sinfulness (v. 5)

Isaiah sees the vast distance between God and himself. He sees the infinite contrast and is broken of self.

Stage Four: The Renewal of His Perspective (vv. 6, 7)

An angel touches the prophet, cleansing him and giving him a new outlook. He is ready to serve.

Stage Five: The Response of His Lifestyle (v. 8)

When God calls, Isaiah eagerly steps forward. A call is marked by a fruitful life.

⁹And He said, "Go, and tell this people:

‘Keep on hearing, but do not understand;

Keep on seeing, but do not perceive.’

¹⁰“Make the heart of this people dull,
And their ears heavy,
And shut their eyes;
Lest they see with their eyes,
And hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,

And return and be healed.”

¹¹Then I said, “Lord, how long?”

And He answered:

“Until the cities are laid waste and without inhabitant,

The houses are without a man,

The land is utterly desolate,

¹²The LORD has removed men far away,
And the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land.

¹³But yet a tenth will be in it,
And will return and be for consuming,
As a terebinth tree or as an oak,
Whose stump remains when it is cut down.

So the holy seed shall be its stump.”

Chapter 7

Isaiah Sent to King Ahaz

¹Now it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to make war against it, but could not prevail against it. ²And it was told to the house of David, saying, “Syria’s forces are deployed in Ephraim.” So his heart and the heart of his people were moved as the trees of the woods are moved with the wind.

³Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and Shear-Jashub^a your son, at the end of the aqueduct from the upper pool, on the highway to the Fuller’s Field, ⁴“and say to him: ‘Take heed, and be quiet; do not fear or be fainthearted for these two stubs of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and the son of Remaliah. ⁵‘Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have plotted evil against you, saying, ⁶“Let us go up against Judah and trouble it, and let us make a gap in its wall for ourselves, and set a king over them, the son of Tabel”— ⁷‘thus says the Lord GOD:

“It shall not stand,
Nor shall it come to pass.

⁸For the head of Syria is Damascus,

And the head of Damascus is Rezin.
Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be broken,
So that it will not be a people.
⁹The head of Ephraim is Samaria,
And the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son.
If you will not believe,

Surely you shall not be established." ‘ ”

The Immanuel Prophecy

¹⁰Moreover the LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying, ¹¹"Ask a sign for yourself from the LORD your God; ask it either in the depth or in the height above."

¹²But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, nor will I test the LORD!"

¹³Then he said, "Hear now, O house of David! Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also? ¹⁴"Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel.^a ¹⁵"Curds and honey He shall eat, that He may know to refuse the evil and choose the good. ¹⁶"For before the Child shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that you dread will be forsaken by both her kings. ¹⁷"The LORD will bring the king of Assyria upon you and your people and your father's house—days that have not come since the day that Ephraim departed from Judah."

The Law of Connection: The Call Pushes Leaders to Communicate

Isaiah 7:1-17

Isaiah wants to communicate a message that begins to burn inside of him (as it did with Jeremiah). The divine message gives him an urgency to connect with others and spread God's word. God's call gives him a divine compulsion to speak and act.

A leader's sense of call provides divine energy. Ponder a few other examples of this phenomenon:

1. Abraham was called by God through a divine visitation (Gen. 12).

2. Joseph was called by God through a dream (Gen. 37).

3. Moses was called by God through a voice in a burning bush (Ex. 3; 4).

4. Aaron was called by God through his brother Moses (Ex. 4).

5. Joshua was called by God through Moses (Ex. 17).

6. Gideon was called by God through an angel (Judg. 6).

7. Samuel was called by God through God's audible voice (1 Sam. 3).

8. David was called by God through the prophet Samuel (1 Sam. 16).

9. Paul was called by God through a vision while he traveled (Acts 9).

10. Timothy was called by God by Paul's preaching and through his upbringing (1 Tim. 1; 2 Tim. 1; 2).

¹⁸And it shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD will whistle for the fly

That is in the farthest part of the rivers of Egypt,
And for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

¹⁹They will come, and all of them will rest
In the desolate valleys and in the clefts of the rocks,

And on all thorns and in all pastures.

²⁰In the same day the Lord will shave with a hired razor,

With those from beyond the River,^a with the king of Assyria,

The head and the hair of the legs,

And will also remove the beard.

²¹It shall be in that day

That a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep;

²²So it shall be, from the abundance of milk they give,

That he will eat curds;

For curds and honey everyone will eat who is left in the land.

²³It shall happen in that day,

That wherever there could be a thousand vines

Worth a thousand shekels of silver,

It will be for briers and thorns.

²⁴With arrows and bows men will come there,

Because all the land will become briers and thorns.

²⁵And to any hill which could be dug with the hoe,

You will not go there for fear of briers and thorns;

But it will become a range for oxen

And a place for sheep to roam.

Chapter 8

Assyria Will Invade the Land

¹Moreover the LORD said to me, “Take a large scroll, and write on it with a man’s pen concerning Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.^a ²“And I will take for Myself faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.”

³Then I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, “Call his name Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz; ⁴“for before the child shall have knowledge to cry ‘My father’ and ‘My mother,’ the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be taken away before the king of Assyria.”

⁵The LORD also spoke to me again, saying:

⁶“Inasmuch as these people refused
The waters of Shiloah that flow softly,
And rejoice in Rezin and in Remaliah’s son;

⁷Now therefore, behold, the Lord brings up over
them

The waters of the River,^a strong and mighty—
The king of Assyria and all his glory;
He will go up over all his channels
And go over all his banks.

⁸He will pass through Judah,

He will overflow and pass over,
He will reach up to the neck;
And the stretching out of his wings

Will fill the breadth of Your land, O Immanuel.^a

⁹“Be shattered, O you peoples, and be broken in pieces!

Give ear, all you from far countries.

Gird yourselves, but be broken in pieces;

Gird yourselves, but be broken in pieces.

¹⁰Take counsel together, but it will come to nothing;
Speak the word, but it will not stand,

For God is with us.”^a

Fear God, Heed His Word

¹¹For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying:

¹²“Do not say, ‘A conspiracy,’

Concerning all that this people call a conspiracy,

Nor be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled.

¹³The LORD of hosts, Him you shall hallow;

Let Him be your fear,

And let Him be your dread.

¹⁴He will be as a sanctuary,

But a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense

To both the houses of Israel,

As a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

¹⁵And many among them shall stumble;

They shall fall and be broken,

Be snared and taken.”

¹⁶Bind up the testimony,
Seal the law among my disciples.

¹⁷And I will wait on the LORD,
Who hides His face from the house of Jacob;
And I will hope in Him.

¹⁸Here am I and the children whom the LORD has given me!

We are for signs and wonders in Israel
From the LORD of hosts,

Who dwells in Mount Zion.

¹⁹And when they say to you, “Seek those who are mediums and wizards, who whisper and mutter,” should not a people seek their God? Should they seek the dead on behalf of the living? ²⁰To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

²¹They will pass through it hard-pressed and hungry; and it shall happen, when they are hungry, that they will be enraged and curse their king and their God, and look upward. ²²Then they will look to the earth, and see trouble and darkness, gloom of anguish; and they will be driven into darkness.

Chapter 9

The Government of the Promised Son

¹Nevertheless the gloom will not be upon her who is distressed,

As when at first He lightly esteemed
The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
And afterward more heavily oppressed her,
By the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
In Galilee of the Gentiles.

²The people who walked in darkness
Have seen a great light;
Those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death,

Upon them a light has shined.

³You have multiplied the nation
And increased its joy;^a
They rejoice before You
According to the joy of harvest,
As men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

⁴For You have broken the yoke of his burden
And the staff of his shoulder,
The rod of his oppressor,
As in the day of Midian.

⁵For every warrior's sandal from the noisy battle,
And garments rolled in blood,

Will be used for burning and fuel of fire.

⁶For unto us a Child is born,
Unto us a Son is given;
And the government will be upon His shoulder.
And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
⁷Of the increase of His government and peace
There will be no end,
Upon the throne of David and over His kingdom,
To order it and establish it with judgment and justice
From that time forward, even forever.

The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

The Punishment of Samaria

⁸The Lord sent a word against Jacob,
And it has fallen on Israel.
⁹All the people will know—
Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria—
Who say in pride and arrogance of heart:
¹⁰“The bricks have fallen down,
But we will rebuild with hewn stones;
The sycamores are cut down,
But we will replace them with cedars.”
¹¹Therefore the LORD shall set up
The adversaries of Rezin against him,
And spur his enemies on,
¹²The Syrians before and the Philistines behind;

And they shall devour Israel with an open mouth.

For all this His anger is not turned away,

But His hand is stretched out still.

¹³For the people do not turn to Him who strikes them,

Nor do they seek the LORD of hosts.

¹⁴Therefore the LORD will cut off head and tail from Israel,

Palm branch and bulrush in one day.

¹⁵The elder and honorable, he is the head;
The prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail.

¹⁶For the leaders of this people cause them to err,
And those who are led by them are destroyed.

¹⁷Therefore the Lord will have no joy in their young men,

Nor have mercy on their fatherless and widows;
For everyone is a hypocrite and an evildoer,

And every mouth speaks folly.

For all this His anger is not turned away,

But His hand is stretched out still.

¹⁸For wickedness burns as the fire;
It shall devour the briers and thorns,
And kindle in the thickets of the forest;
They shall mount up like rising smoke.

¹⁹Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts
The land is burned up,
And the people shall be as fuel for the fire;
No man shall spare his brother.

²⁰And he shall snatch on the right hand
And be hungry;
He shall devour on the left hand

And not be satisfied;
Every man shall eat the flesh of his own arm.

²¹Manasseh shall devour Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh;

Together they shall be against Judah.

For all this His anger is not turned away,

But His hand is stretched out still.

Chapter 10

¹“Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees,
Who write misfortune,
Which they have prescribed

²To rob the needy of justice,
And to take what is right from the poor of My people,
That widows may be their prey,
And that they may rob the fatherless.

³What will you do in the day of punishment,
And in the desolation which will come from afar?
To whom will you flee for help?
And where will you leave your glory?

⁴Without Me they shall bow down among the prisoners,

And they shall fall among the slain.”

For all this His anger is not turned away,

But His hand is stretched out still.

Arrogant Assyria Also Judged

⁵“Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger
And the staff in whose hand is My indignation.

⁶I will send him against an ungodly nation,

The Benefits of Humility, the Liabilities of Pride

Isaiah 10:1-6

Beware of treating followers unjustly! God reserves a stern condemnation for oppressive leaders.

In Isaiah 10, God speaks to both Assyria and Israel to declare the benefits of humility and the liabilities of pride. Later, God even models the leadership style He wants every leader to embrace by sending the Suffering Servant. The Messiah will come to serve, not to be served (Is. 52; 53; Mark 10:45). God perfectly illustrates servant leadership. Followers come when leaders serve. Look how often God calls His leaders “servants”:

1. Abraham: called God’s servant (Gen. 26:24)
2. Moses: called God’s servant (Ex. 14:31)
3. Joshua: called Moses’ servant (Ex. 33:11)
4. Caleb: called God’s servant (Num. 14:24)
5. Samuel: called God’s servant (1 Sam. 3:9)
6. David: called Saul’s servant (1 Sam. 29:3)
7. Elijah: called God’s servant (2 Kin. 9:36)
8. Isaiah: called God’s servant (Is. 20:3)

And against the people of My wrath
I will give him charge,
To seize the spoil, to take the prey,
And to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

⁷Yet he does not mean so,
Nor does his heart think so;
But it is in his heart to destroy,
And cut off not a few nations.

⁸For he says,

'Are not my princes altogether kings?

⁹Is not Calno like Carchemish?

Is not Hamath like Arpad?

Is not Samaria like Damascus?

¹⁰As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols,
Whose carved images excelled those of Jerusalem and Samaria,

¹¹As I have done to Samaria and her idols,

Shall I not do also to Jerusalem and her idols?' "

¹²Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Lord has performed all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, that He will say, "I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his haughty looks."

¹³For he says:

"By the strength of my hand I have done it,
And by my wisdom, for I am prudent;
Also I have removed the boundaries of the people,
And have robbed their treasuries;
So I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant
man.

¹⁴My hand has found like a nest the riches of the people,

And as one gathers eggs that are left,
I have gathered all the earth;
And there was no one who moved his wing,

Nor opened his mouth with even a peep."

¹⁵Shall the ax boast itself against him who chops with it?

Or shall the saw exalt itself against him who saws
with it?

As if a rod could wield itself against those who lift it up,

Or as if a staff could lift up, as if it were not wood!

¹⁶Therefore the Lord, the Lord^a of hosts,

Will send leanness among his fat ones;

And under his glory

He will kindle a burning

Like the burning of a fire.

¹⁷So the Light of Israel will be for a fire,

And his Holy One for a flame;

It will burn and devour

His thorns and his briers in one day.

¹⁸And it will consume the glory of his forest and of his fruitful field,

Both soul and body;

And they will be as when a sick man wastes away.

¹⁹Then the rest of the trees of his forest

Will be so few in number

That a child may write them.

The Returning Remnant of Israel

²⁰And it shall come to pass in that day

That the remnant of Israel,

And such as have escaped of the house of Jacob,

Will never again depend on him who defeated them,

But will depend on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

²¹The remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob,

To the Mighty God.

²²For though your people, O Israel, be as the sand of the sea,

A remnant of them will return;
The destruction decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

²³For the Lord GOD of hosts
Will make a determined end

In the midst of all the land.

²⁴Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: "O My people, who dwell in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrian. He shall strike you with a rod and lift up his staff against you, in the manner of Egypt. ²⁵"For yet a very little while and the indignation will cease, as will My anger in their destruction." ²⁶And the LORD of hosts will stir up a scourge for him like the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; as His rod was on the sea, so will He lift it up in the manner of Egypt.

²⁷It shall come to pass in that day
That his burden will be taken away from your shoulder,
And his yoke from your neck,

And the yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing oil.

²⁸He has come to Aiath,
He has passed Migron;
At Michmash he has attended to his equipment.

²⁹They have gone along the ridge,
They have taken up lodging at Geba.
Ramah is afraid,
Gibeah of Saul has fled.

³⁰Lift up your voice,
O daughter of Gallim!
Cause it to be heard as far as Laish—

O poor Anathoth!a

³¹Madmenah has fled,
The inhabitants of Gebim seek refuge.

³²As yet he will remain at Nob that day;
He will shake his fist at the mount of the daughter of Zion,

The hill of Jerusalem.

³³Behold, the Lord,
The LORD of hosts,
Will lop off the bough with terror;
Those of high stature will be hewn down,
And the haughty will be humbled.

³⁴He will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron,

And Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.

Chapter 11

The Reign of Jesse's Offspring

¹There shall come forth a Rod from the stem of Jesse,
And a Branch shall grow out of his roots.

²The Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him,
The Spirit of wisdom and understanding,
The Spirit of counsel and might,

The Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD.

³His delight is in the fear of the LORD,
And He shall not judge by the sight of His eyes,
Nor decide by the hearing of His ears;

⁴But with righteousness He shall judge the poor,
And decide with equity for the meek of the earth;
He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth,
And with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked.

⁵Righteousness shall be the belt of His loins,

And faithfulness the belt of His waist.

⁶"The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb,
The leopard shall lie down with the young goat,
The calf and the young lion and the fatling together;
And a little child shall lead them.

⁷The cow and the bear shall graze;

Their young ones shall lie down together;
And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

⁸The nursing child shall play by the cobra's hole,
And the weaned child shall put his hand in the viper's den.

⁹They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain,

For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the
LORD

As the waters cover the sea.

¹⁰"And in that day there shall be a Root of Jesse,
Who shall stand as a banner to the people;
For the Gentiles shall seek Him,

And His resting place shall be glorious."

¹¹It shall come to pass in that day
That the Lord shall set His hand again the second time

To recover the remnant of His people who are left,
From Assyria and Egypt,
From Pathros and Cush,
From Elam and Shinar,

From Hamath and the islands of the sea.

¹²He will set up a banner for the nations,
And will assemble the outcasts of Israel,
And gather together the dispersed of Judah
From the four corners of the earth.

¹³Also the envy of Ephraim shall depart,
And the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off;
Ephraim shall not envy Judah,
And Judah shall not harass Ephraim.

¹⁴But they shall fly down upon the shoulder of the Philistines toward the west;

Together they shall plunder the people of the East;

They shall lay their hand on Edom and Moab;

And the people of Ammon shall obey them.

¹⁵The LORD will utterly destroy^a the tongue of the Sea of Egypt;

With His mighty wind He will shake His fist over the River,^b

And strike it in the seven streams,

And make men cross over dry-shod.

¹⁶There will be a highway for the remnant of His people

Who will be left from Assyria,

As it was for Israel

In the day that he came up from the land of Egypt.

Chapter 12

A Hymn of Praise

¹And in that day you will say:

“O LORD, I will praise You;
Though You were angry with me,
Your anger is turned away, and You comfort me.

²Behold, God is my salvation,
I will trust and not be afraid;
‘For YAH, the LORD, is my strength and song;

He also has become my salvation.’ ”^a

³Therefore with joy you will draw water

From the wells of salvation.

⁴And in that day you will say:

“Praise the LORD, call upon His name;
Declare His deeds among the peoples,
Make mention that His name is exalted.

⁵Sing to the LORD,
For He has done excellent things;
This is known in all the earth.

⁶Cry out and shout, O inhabitant of Zion,

For great is the Holy One of Israel in your midst!”

Chapter 13

Proclamation Against Babylon

¹The burden against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

²“Lift up a banner on the high mountain,
Raise your voice to them;
Wave your hand, that they may enter the gates of the nobles.

³I have commanded My sanctified ones;
I have also called My mighty ones for My anger—

Those who rejoice in My exaltation.”

⁴The noise of a multitude in the mountains,
Like that of many people!
A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together!

The LORD of hosts musters
The army for battle.

⁵They come from a far country,
From the end of heaven—
The LORD and His weapons of indignation,

To destroy the whole land.

⁶Wail, for the day of the LORD is at hand!
It will come as destruction from the Almighty.

⁷Therefore all hands will be limp,
Every man's heart will melt,

⁸And they will be afraid.
Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them;
They will be in pain as a woman in childbirth;
They will be amazed at one another;

Their faces will be like flames.

⁹Behold, the day of the LORD comes,
Cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger,
To lay the land desolate;
And He will destroy its sinners from it.

¹⁰For the stars of heaven and their constellations
Will not give their light;
The sun will be darkened in its going forth,

And the moon will not cause its light to shine.

¹¹"I will punish the world for its evil,
And the wicked for their iniquity;
I will halt the arrogance of the proud,
And will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

¹²I will make a mortal more rare than fine gold,
A man more than the golden wedge of Ophir.

¹³Therefore I will shake the heavens,
And the earth will move out of her place,
In the wrath of the LORD of hosts
And in the day of His fierce anger.

¹⁴It shall be as the hunted gazelle,
And as a sheep that no man takes up;
Every man will turn to his own people,
And everyone will flee to his own land.

¹⁵Everyone who is found will be thrust through,
And everyone who is captured will fall by the sword.

¹⁶Their children also will be dashed to pieces before their eyes;

Their houses will be plundered

And their wives ravished.

¹⁷“Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them,
Who will not regard silver;
And as for gold, they will not delight in it.

¹⁸Also their bows will dash the young men to pieces,
And they will have no pity on the fruit of the womb;
Their eye will not spare children.

¹⁹And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms,
The beauty of the Chaldeans’ pride,
Will be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

²⁰It will never be inhabited,
Nor will it be settled from generation to generation;
Nor will the Arabian pitch tents there,
Nor will the shepherds make their sheepfolds there.

²¹But wild beasts of the desert will lie there,
And their houses will be full of owls;
Ostriches will dwell there,
And wild goats will caper there.

²²The hyenas will howl in their citadels,
And jackals in their pleasant palaces.
Her time is near to come,

And her days will not be prolonged.”

Chapter 14

Mercy on Jacob

¹For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will still choose Israel, and settle them in their own land. The strangers will be joined with them, and they will cling to the house of Jacob. ²Then people will take them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them for servants and maids in the land of the LORD; they will take them captive whose captives they were, and rule over their oppressors.

Fall of the King of Babylon

³It shall come to pass in the day the LORD gives you rest from your sorrow, and from your fear and the hard bondage in which you were made to serve, ⁴that you will take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say:

“How the oppressor has ceased,
The golden^a city ceased!

⁵The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked,
The scepter of the rulers;

⁶He who struck the people in wrath with a continual stroke,

He who ruled the nations in anger,
Is persecuted and no one hinders.

⁷The whole earth is at rest and quiet;
They break forth into singing.

⁸Indeed the cypress trees rejoice over you,
And the cedars of Lebanon,
Saying, 'Since you were cut down,

No woodsman has come up against us.'

⁹"Hell from beneath is excited about you,
To meet you at your coming;
It stirs up the dead for you,
All the chief ones of the earth;
It has raised up from their thrones
All the kings of the nations.

¹⁰They all shall speak and say to you:
'Have you also become as weak as we?
Have you become like us?

¹¹Your pomp is brought down to Sheol,
And the sound of your stringed instruments;
The maggot is spread under you,

And worms cover you.'

The Fall of Lucifer

¹²"How you are fallen from heaven,
O Lucifer,^a son of the morning!
How you are cut down to the ground,
You who weakened the nations!

¹³For you have said in your heart:
'I will ascend into heaven,
I will exalt my throne above the stars of God;
I will also sit on the mount of the congregation
On the farthest sides of the north;
¹⁴I will ascend above the heights of the clouds,
I will be like the Most High.'
¹⁵Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol,

To the lowest depths of the Pit.

¹⁶"Those who see you will gaze at you,
And consider you, saying:
'Is this the man who made the earth tremble,
Who shook kingdoms,
¹⁷Who made the world as a wilderness
And destroyed its cities,

Who did not open the house of his prisoners?'

¹⁸"All the kings of the nations,
All of them, sleep in glory,
Everyone in his own house;
¹⁹But you are cast out of your grave
Like an abominable branch,
Like the garment of those who are slain,
Thrust through with a sword,
Who go down to the stones of the pit,
Like a corpse trodden underfoot.

²⁰You will not be joined with them in burial,
Because you have destroyed your land
And slain your people.
The brood of evildoers shall never be named.
²¹Prepare slaughter for his children
Because of the iniquity of their fathers,

Lest they rise up and possess the land,
And fill the face of the world with cities.”

Babylon Destroyed

²²“For I will rise up against them,” says the LORD of hosts,

“And cut off from Babylon the name and remnant,
And offspring and posterity,” says the LORD.

²³“I will also make it a possession for the porcupine,

A Riches to Rags Story

Isaiah 14:3-23

Proverbs 16:18 reminds us that pride comes before a fall and that a haughty spirit causes one to stumble. We see that truth in action in Isaiah 14.

While we see the immediate fulfillment of this passage in the king of Babylon, many scholars believe the text also speaks of Satan. Note the arrogant words in verses 12-17. What a sobering picture of a leader who goes astray! Both the oppressive king and Satan had one common characteristic: a lust for pride and power. Consider the devil’s fall from his original place in heaven, as described in Isaiah 14, Ezekiel 28, and Revelation 12; 20:

1. The one cast down (to the bottomless pit) (Is. 14:15; Rev. 12:10; 20:3)

2. Full of wisdom (Ezek. 28:12)
3. Perfect in beauty (Ezek. 28:12)
4. Song leader and musician of heaven (Ezek. 28:13)
5. The anointed cherub (Ezek. 28:14)
6. One who covered the throne (Ezek. 28:14, 16)
7. Great dragon (Rev. 12:9)
8. The serpent (Rev. 12:9; 20:2)
9. The devil; the spirit of deception (Rev. 12:9; 20:10)
10. Accuser of the brethren (Rev. 20:10)

And marshes of muddy water;

I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says the LORD of hosts.

Assyria Destroyed

²⁴The LORD of hosts has sworn, saying,
"Surely, as I have thought, so it shall come to pass,
And as I have purposed, so it shall stand:

²⁵That I will break the Assyrian in My land,
And on My mountains tread him underfoot.
Then his yoke shall be removed from them,
And his burden removed from their shoulders.

²⁶This is the purpose that is purposed against the whole earth,

And this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.

²⁷For the LORD of hosts has purposed,
And who will annul it?

His hand is stretched out,
And who will turn it back?"

Philistia Destroyed

²⁸This is the burden which came in the year that King Ahaz died.

²⁹"Do not rejoice, all you of Philistia,
Because the rod that struck you is broken;
For out of the serpent's roots will come forth a viper,
And its offspring will be a fiery flying serpent.

³⁰The firstborn of the poor will feed,
And the needy will lie down in safety;
I will kill your roots with famine,
And it will slay your remnant.

³¹Wail, O gate! Cry, O city!
All you of Philistia are dissolved;
For smoke will come from the north,

And no one will be alone in his appointed times."

³²What will they answer the messengers of the nation?

That the LORD has founded Zion,

And the poor of His people shall take refuge in it.

Chapter 15

Proclamation Against Moab

¹The burden against Moab.

Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste
And destroyed,
Because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste
And destroyed,

²He has gone up to the temple^a and Dibon,
To the high places to weep.
Moab will wail over Nebo and over Medeba;
On all their heads will be baldness,
And every beard cut off.

³In their streets they will clothe themselves with sackcloth;

On the tops of their houses
And in their streets
Everyone will wail, weeping bitterly.

⁴Heshbon and Elealeh will cry out,
Their voice shall be heard as far as Jahaz;
Therefore the armed soldiers^a of Moab will cry out;

His life will be burdensome to him.

⁵“My heart will cry out for Moab;
His fugitives shall flee to Zoar,

Like a three-year-old heifer.^a
For by the Ascent of Luhith
They will go up with weeping;
For in the way of Horonaim
They will raise up a cry of destruction,
⁶For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate,
For the green grass has withered away;
The grass fails, there is nothing green.
⁷Therefore the abundance they have gained,
And what they have laid up,
They will carry away to the Brook of the Willows.
⁸For the cry has gone all around the borders of Moab,
Its wailing to Eglaim
And its wailing to Beer Elim.
⁹For the waters of Dimon^a will be full of blood;
Because I will bring more upon Dimon,^b
Lions upon him who escapes from Moab,

And on the remnant of the land.”

Chapter 16

Moab Destroyed

¹Send the lamb to the ruler of the land,
From Sela to the wilderness,
To the mount of the daughter of Zion.

²For it shall be as a wandering bird thrown out of the nest;

So shall be the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon.

³“Take counsel, execute judgment;
Make your shadow like the night in the middle of the day;

Hide the outcasts,
Do not betray him who escapes.

⁴Let My outcasts dwell with you, O Moab;
Be a shelter to them from the face of the spoiler.
For the extortioner is at an end,

Devastation ceases,
The oppressors are consumed out of the land.

⁵In mercy the throne will be established;
And One will sit on it in truth, in the tabernacle of David,

Judging and seeking justice and hastening
righteousness.”

⁶We have heard of the pride of Moab—

He is very proud—

Of his haughtiness and his pride and his wrath;

But his lies shall not be so.

⁷Therefore Moab shall wail for Moab;

Everyone shall wail.

For the foundations of Kir Hareseth you shall mourn;

Surely they are stricken.

⁸For the fields of Heshbon languish,

And the vine of Sibmah;

The lords of the nations have broken down its choice plants,

Which have reached to Jazer

And wandered through the wilderness.

Her branches are stretched out,

They are gone over the sea.

⁹Therefore I will bewail the vine of Sibmah,

With the weeping of Jazer;

I will drench you with my tears,

O Heshbon and Elealeh;

For battle cries have fallen

Over your summer fruits and your harvest.

¹⁰Gladness is taken away,

And joy from the plentiful field;

In the vineyards there will be no singing,

Nor will there be shouting;

No treaders will tread out wine in the presses;

I have made their shouting cease.

¹¹Therefore my heart shall resound like a harp for Moab,

And my inner being for Kir Heres.

PROFILE in Leadership

ISAIAH

A Leader's Heart of Love for the Unlovely

Isaiah 15:5; 16:9, 11

Someone must have forgotten to tell the prophet Isaiah that he lived in Old Testament times.

You know the picture most have of ancient Hebrew leaders-eye-for-an-eye types, angry, hair akimbo, and eager for God's righteous judgment to fall upon the pagans and the wicked. And yet, here stands Isaiah, crying out for heathen Moab and weeping for wayward Heshbon.

Isaiah demonstrates for us the attitude of a godly leader who sees approaching judgment on unbelievers. He actually grieves over what is coming on lost souls. While he acknowledges and even celebrates God's righteousness and sovereignty in judging those who reject Him, he also proclaims that the calamity about to descend is nothing other than a terrible tragedy.

Isaiah's lament over the fate of these ancient nations reveals the attitude of a truly godly leader. While he knew those erring nations surely deserved God's judgment, he also knew that without God's grace and mercy, none of us could expect anything else.

We ought to stand in awed silence when we see the judgment of God falling on those who have forsaken His way. But we should never see His judgment as an occasion to celebrate our own righteousness. Rather, we ought to grieve for the lost and reflect deeply on the grace and mercy God has extended to us.

¹²And it shall come to pass,
When it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place,
That he will come to his sanctuary to pray;

But he will not prevail.

¹³This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning Moab since that time. ¹⁴But now the LORD has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as the years of a hired man, the glory of Moab will be despised with all that great multitude, and the remnant will be very small and feeble."

Chapter 17

Proclamation Against Syria and Israel

¹The burden against Damascus.

“Behold, Damascus will cease from being a city,
And it will be a ruinous heap.

²The cities of Aroer are forsaken;^a
They will be for flocks
Which lie down, and no one will make them afraid.

³The fortress also will cease from Ephraim,
The kingdom from Damascus,
And the remnant of Syria;
They will be as the glory of the children of Israel,”

Says the LORD of hosts.

⁴“In that day it shall come to pass
That the glory of Jacob will wane,
And the fatness of his flesh grow lean.

⁵It shall be as when the harvester gathers the grain,
And reaps the heads with his arm;
It shall be as he who gathers heads of grain
In the Valley of Rephaim.

⁶Yet gleanings will be left in it,
Like the shaking of an olive tree,

Two or three olives at the top of the uppermost bough,

Four or five in its most fruitful branches,"

Says the LORD God of Israel.

⁷In that day a man will look to his Maker,
And his eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel.

⁸He will not look to the altars,
The work of his hands;
He will not respect what his fingers have made,

Nor the wooden images^a nor the incense altars.

⁹In that day his strong cities will be as a forsaken bough^a

And an uppermost branch,^b
Which they left because of the children of Israel;
And there will be desolation.

¹⁰Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation,

And have not been mindful of the Rock of your stronghold,

Therefore you will plant pleasant plants
And set out foreign seedlings;

¹¹In the day you will make your plant to grow,
And in the morning you will make your seed to flourish;

But the harvest will be a heap of ruins

In the day of grief and desperate sorrow.

¹²Woe to the multitude of many people
Who make a noise like the roar of the seas,
And to the rushing of nations

That make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

¹³The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters;

But God will rebuke them and they will flee far away,
And be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind,

Like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

¹⁴Then behold, at eventide, trouble!

And before the morning, he is no more.

This is the portion of those who plunder us,

And the lot of those who rob us.

Chapter 18

Proclamation Against Ethiopia

¹Woe to the land shadowed with buzzing wings,
Which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,
²Which sends ambassadors by sea,
Even in vessels of reed on the waters, saying, “Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth of skin,
To a people terrible from their beginning onward,
A nation powerful and treading down,
Whose land the rivers divide.”

³All inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the earth:
When he lifts up a banner on the mountains, you see
it;

And when he blows a trumpet, you hear it.

⁴For so the LORD said to me,
“I will take My rest,
And I will look from My dwelling place
Like clear heat in sunshine,
Like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”

⁵For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect
And the sour grape is ripening in the flower,
He will both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks

And take away and cut down the branches.

⁶They will be left together for the mountain birds of prey

And for the beasts of the earth;

The birds of prey will summer on them,

And all the beasts of the earth will winter on them.

⁷In that time a present will be brought to the LORD of hosts

From ^a a people tall and smooth of skin,

And from a people terrible from their beginning onward,

A nation powerful and treading down,

Whose land the rivers divide—

To the place of the name of the LORD of hosts,

To Mount Zion.

Chapter 19

Proclamation Against Egypt

¹The burden against Egypt.

Behold, the LORD rides on a swift cloud,
And will come into Egypt;
The idols of Egypt will totter at His presence,
And the heart of Egypt will melt in its midst.

²"I will set Egyptians against Egyptians;
Everyone will fight against his brother,
And everyone against his neighbor,
City against city, kingdom against kingdom.

³The spirit of Egypt will fail in its midst;
I will destroy their counsel,
And they will consult the idols and the charmers,
The mediums and the sorcerers.

⁴And the Egyptians I will give
Into the hand of a cruel master,
And a fierce king will rule over them,"

Says the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

⁵The waters will fail from the sea,
And the river will be wasted and dried up.

⁶The rivers will turn foul;
The brooks of defense will be emptied and dried up;
The reeds and rushes will wither.

⁷The papyrus reeds by the River,^a by the mouth of the River,

And everything sown by the River,
Will wither, be driven away, and be no more.

⁸The fishermen also will mourn;
All those will lament who cast hooks into the River,
And they will languish who spread nets on the waters.

⁹Moreover those who work in fine flax
And those who weave fine fabric will be ashamed;

¹⁰And its foundations will be broken.

All who make wages will be troubled of soul.

¹¹Surely the princes of Zoan are fools;
Pharaoh's wise counselors give foolish counsel.
How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise,

The son of ancient kings?"

¹²Where are they?

Where are your wise men?

Let them tell you now,

And let them know what the LORD of hosts has purposed against Egypt.

¹³The princes of Zoan have become fools;

The princes of Noph^a are deceived;

They have also deluded Egypt,

Those who are the mainstay of its tribes.

¹⁴The LORD has mingled a perverse spirit in her
midst;

And they have caused Egypt to err in all her work,
As a drunken man staggers in his vomit.

¹⁵Neither will there be any work for Egypt,

Personal Qualifications of Leadership

Isaiah 19:11-15

What qualifies a person to be a leader? Most natural leaders don't aspire to be great leaders; they aspire to be great persons. Personal qualifications lead to leadership qualifications. When leaders lead their own lives well, others naturally want to follow.

Consider Mother Teresa of Calcutta, India. It's doubtful she ever said, "I am going to set out to be a great leader!" Yet that is what she became by determining to be the person God created her to be. She developed personal qualities that became leadership qualities.

Isaiah illustrates this from a negative viewpoint. The senseless, naïve leaders of Zoan and Noph lacked the foresight to lead others. Their incompetence prompted God to compare them with a drunken man who can't even walk straight. If we want our leadership to last, we must pay attention to four crucial elements:

1. Character—enables us to do what is right even when it seems difficult.
2. Perspective—enables us to understand what must happen to reach a goal.
3. Courage—enables us to initiate and take the risks to step out toward a worthy goal.
4. Favor—enables us to attract and empower others to join us in the cause.

Which the head or tail,

Palm branch or bulrush, may do.^a

¹⁶In that day Egypt will be like women, and will be afraid and fear because of the waving of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which He waves over it. ¹⁷And the land of Judah will be a terror to Egypt; everyone who makes mention of it will be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts which He has determined against it.

Egypt, Assyria, and Israel Blessed

¹⁸In that day five cities in the land of Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear by the LORD of hosts; one will be called the City of Destruction.^a

¹⁹In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border. ²⁰And it will be for a sign and for a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to the LORD because of the oppressors, and He will send them a Savior and a Mighty One, and He will deliver them. ²¹Then the LORD will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day, and will make sacrifice and offering; yes, they will make a vow to the LORD and perform it. ²²And the LORD will strike Egypt, He will strike and heal it; they will return to the LORD, and He will be entreated by them and heal them.

²³In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians will serve with the Assyrians.

²⁴In that day Israel will be one of three with Egypt and Assyria—a blessing in the midst of the land, ²⁵whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, “Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance.”

Chapter 20

The Sign Against Egypt and Ethiopia

¹In the year that Tartan^a came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it, ²at the same time the LORD spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and remove the sackcloth from your body, and take your sandals off your feet." And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

³Then the LORD said, "Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder against Egypt and Ethiopia, ⁴"so shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians as prisoners and the Ethiopians as captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. ⁵"Then they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation and Egypt their glory. ⁶"And the inhabitant of this territory will say in that day, 'Surely such is our expectation, wherever we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria; and how shall we escape?' "

Chapter 21

The Fall of Babylon Proclaimed

¹The burden against the Wilderness of the Sea.

As whirlwinds in the South pass through,
So it comes from the desert, from a terrible land.

²A distressing vision is declared to me;
The treacherous dealer deals treacherously,
And the plunderer plunders.
Go up, O Elam!
Besiege, O Media!

All its sighing I have made to cease.

³Therefore my loins are filled with pain;
Pangs have taken hold of me, like the pangs of a woman in labor.

I was distressed when I heard it;
I was dismayed when I saw it.

⁴My heart wavered, fearfulness frightened me;
The night for which I longed He turned into fear for
me.

⁵Prepare the table,
Set a watchman in the tower,
Eat and drink.
Arise, you princes,

Anoint the shield!

⁶For thus has the Lord said to me:

“Go, set a watchman,
Let him declare what he sees.”

⁷And he saw a chariot with a pair of horsemen,
A chariot of donkeys, and a chariot of camels,
And he listened earnestly with great care.

⁸Then he cried, “A lion, a my Lord!

I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime;

I have sat at my post every night.

⁹And look, here comes a chariot of men with a pair of horsemen!”

Then he answered and said,
“Babylon is fallen, is fallen!
And all the carved images of her gods

He has broken to the ground.”

¹⁰Oh, my threshing and the grain of my floor!
That which I have heard from the LORD of hosts,
The God of Israel,

I have declared to you.

Proclamation Against Edom

¹¹The burden against Dumah.

He calls to me out of Seir,
“Watchman, what of the night?
Watchman, what of the night?”

¹²The watchman said,

“The morning comes, and also the night.
If you will inquire, inquire;

Return! Come back!”

Proclamation Against Arabia

¹³The burden against Arabia.

In the forest in Arabia you will lodge,
O you traveling companies of Dedanites.

¹⁴O inhabitants of the land of Tema,
Bring water to him who is thirsty;
With their bread they met him who fled.

¹⁵For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword,

From the bent bow, and from the distress of war.

¹⁶For thus the LORD has said to me: “Within a year, according to the year of a hired man, all the glory of Kedar will fail; ¹⁷“and the remainder of the number of archers, the mighty men of the people of Kedar, will be diminished; for the LORD God of Israel has spoken it.”

Chapter 22

Proclamation Against Jerusalem

¹The burden against the Valley of Vision.

What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops,

²You who are full of noise,
A tumultuous city, a joyous city?
Your slain men are not slain with the sword,
Nor dead in battle.

³All your rulers have fled together;
They are captured by the archers.
All who are found in you are bound together;
They have fled from afar.

⁴Therefore I said, "Look away from me,
I will weep bitterly;
Do not labor to comfort me

Because of the plundering of the daughter of my people."

⁵For it is a day of trouble and treading down and perplexity

By the Lord GOD of hosts
In the Valley of Vision—
Breaking down the walls

And of crying to the mountain.

⁶Elam bore the quiver

With chariots of men and horsemen,

And Kir uncovered the shield.

⁷It shall come to pass that your choicest valleys

Shall be full of chariots,

And the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

⁸He removed the protection of Judah.

You looked in that day to the armor of the House of the Forest;

⁹You also saw the damage to the city of David,

That it was great;

And you gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

¹⁰You numbered the houses of Jerusalem,

And the houses you broke down

To fortify the wall.

¹¹You also made a reservoir between the two walls

For the water of the old pool.

But you did not look to its Maker,

Nor did you have respect for Him who fashioned it long ago.

¹²And in that day the Lord GOD of hosts

Called for weeping and for mourning,

For baldness and for girding with sackcloth.

¹³But instead, joy and gladness,

Slaying oxen and killing sheep,

Eating meat and drinking wine:

“Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!”

¹⁴Then it was revealed in my hearing by the LORD of hosts,

“Surely for this iniquity there will be no atonement for you,

Even to your death,” says the Lord GOD of hosts.

The Judgment on Shebna

¹⁵Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts:

“Go, proceed to this steward,
To Shebna, who is over the house, and say:

¹⁶‘What have you here, and whom have you here,
That you have hewn a sepulcher here,
As he who hews himself a sepulcher on high,
Who carves a tomb for himself in a rock?

¹⁷Indeed, the LORD will throw you away violently,
O mighty man,
And will surely seize you.

¹⁸He will surely turn violently and toss you like a ball
Into a large country;
There you shall die, and there your glorious chariots
Shall be the shame of your master’s house.

¹⁹So I will drive you out of your office,

And from your position he will pull you down.a

²⁰‘Then it shall be in that day,
That I will call My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah;

²¹I will clothe him with your robe
And strengthen him with your belt;
I will commit your responsibility into his hand.

He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem
And to the house of Judah.

²²The key of the house of David

I will lay on his shoulder;

So he shall open, and no one shall shut;

And he shall shut, and no one shall open.

²³I will fasten him as a peg in a secure place,

And he will become a glorious throne to his father's house.

²⁴"They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the posterity, all vessels of small quantity, from the cups to all the pitchers. ²⁵'In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'the peg that is fastened in the secure place will be removed and be cut down and fall, and the burden that was on it will be cut off; for the LORD has spoken.' "

Chapter 23

Proclamation Against Tyre

¹The burden against Tyre.

Wail, you ships of Tarshish!
For it is laid waste,
So that there is no house, no harbor;

From the land of Cyprus^a it is revealed to them.

²Be still, you inhabitants of the coastland,
You merchants of Sidon,
Whom those who cross the sea have filled.^a

³And on great waters the grain of Shihor,
The harvest of the River,^a is her revenue;

And she is a marketplace for the nations.

⁴Be ashamed, O Sidon;
For the sea has spoken,
The strength of the sea, saying,
“I do not labor, nor bring forth children;
Neither do I rear young men,
Nor bring up virgins.”

⁵When the report reaches Egypt,

They also will be in agony at the report of Tyre.

⁶Cross over to Tarshish;
Wail, you inhabitants of the coastland!

⁷*Is* this your joyous city,
Whose antiquity is from ancient days,
Whose feet carried her far off to dwell?

⁸Who has taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city,

Whose merchants are princes,
Whose traders are the honorable of the earth?

⁹The LORD of hosts has purposed it,
To bring to dishonor the pride of all glory,

To bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth.

¹⁰Overflow through your land like the River,^{a}
O daughter of Tarshish;
There is no more strength.

¹¹He stretched out His hand over the sea,
He shook the kingdoms;
The LORD has given a commandment against Canaan

To destroy its strongholds.

¹²And He said, "You will rejoice no more,
O you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon.
Arise, cross over to Cyprus;

There also you will have no rest."

¹³Behold, the land of the Chaldeans,
This people which was not;
Assyria founded it for wild beasts of the desert.
They set up its towers,
They raised up its palaces,

And brought it to ruin.

¹⁴Wail, you ships of Tarshish!

For your strength is laid waste.

¹⁵Now it shall come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. At the end of seventy years it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the harlot:

¹⁶“Take a harp, go about the city,
You forgotten harlot;
Make sweet melody, sing many songs,

That you may be remembered.”

¹⁷And it shall be, at the end of seventy years, that the LORD will deal with Tyre. She will return to her hire, and commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth. ¹⁸Her gain and her pay will be set apart for the LORD; it will not be treasured nor laid up, for her gain will be for those who dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for fine clothing.

God's Providence: He Raises Up Leaders and Brings Them Down

Isaiah 23:1-18

The city of Tyre wielded great international influence during Isaiah's day. Its wealthy merchants created a high standard of living. But when God chose to bring them down, no one could stop Him. We can position people, but only God exalts them.

We can develop others, but only God raises them up.

Chapter 24

Impending Judgment on the Earth

¹Behold, the LORD makes the earth empty and makes it waste,

Distorts its surface

And scatters abroad its inhabitants.

²And it shall be:

As with the people, so with the priest;

As with the servant, so with his master;

As with the maid, so with her mistress;

As with the buyer, so with the seller;

As with the lender, so with the borrower;

As with the creditor, so with the debtor.

³The land shall be entirely emptied and utterly plundered,

For the LORD has spoken this word.

⁴The earth mourns and fades away,

The world languishes and fades away;

The haughty people of the earth languish.

⁵The earth is also defiled under its inhabitants,

Because they have transgressed the laws,

Changed the ordinance,

Broken the everlasting covenant.

⁶Therefore the curse has devoured the earth,

And those who dwell in it are desolate.

Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned,
And few men are left.

⁷The new wine fails, the vine languishes,
All the merry-hearted sigh.

⁸The mirth of the tambourine ceases,
The noise of the jubilant ends,
The joy of the harp ceases.

⁹They shall not drink wine with a song;
Strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.

¹⁰The city of confusion is broken down;
Every house is shut up, so that none may go in.

¹¹*There is* a cry for wine in the streets,
All joy is darkened,
The mirth of the land is gone.

¹²In the city desolation is left,
And the gate is stricken with destruction.

¹³When it shall be thus in the midst of the land
among the people,
It shall be like the shaking of an olive tree,

Like the gleaning of grapes when the vintage is done.

¹⁴They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing;
For the majesty of the LORD
They shall cry aloud from the sea.

¹⁵Therefore glorify the LORD in the dawning light,
The name of the LORD God of Israel in the coastlands of the sea.

¹⁶From the ends of the earth we have heard songs:
“Glory to the righteous!”
But I said, “I am ruined, ruined!”
Woe to me!

The treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously,

Indeed, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.”

¹⁷Fear and the pit and the snare
Are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth.

¹⁸And it shall be
That he who flees from the noise of the fear
Shall fall into the pit,
And he who comes up from the midst of the pit
Shall be caught in the snare;
For the windows from on high are open,

And the foundations of the earth are shaken.

¹⁹The earth is violently broken,
The earth is split open,
The earth is shaken exceedingly.

²⁰The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard,
And shall totter like a hut;
Its transgression shall be heavy upon it,

And it will fall, and not rise again.

²¹It shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD will punish on high the host of exalted ones,

And on the earth the kings of the earth.

²²They will be gathered together,
As prisoners are gathered in the pit,
And will be shut up in the prison;
After many days they will be punished.

²³Then the moon will be disgraced
And the sun ashamed;
For the LORD of hosts will reign

On Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
And before His elders, gloriously.

Chapter 25

Praise to God

¹O LORD, You are my God.
I will exalt You,
I will praise Your name,
For You have done wonderful things;
Your counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

²For You have made a city a ruin,
A fortified city a ruin,
A palace of foreigners to be a city no more;
It will never be rebuilt.

³Therefore the strong people will glorify You;
The city of the terrible nations will fear You.

⁴For You have been a strength to the poor,
A strength to the needy in his distress,
A refuge from the storm,
A shade from the heat;
For the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

⁵You will reduce the noise of aliens,
As heat in a dry place;
As heat in the shadow of a cloud,

The song of the terrible ones will be diminished.

⁶And in this mountain
The LORD of hosts will make for all people

A feast of choice pieces,
A feast of wines on the lees,
Of fat things full of marrow,
Of well-refined wines on the lees.

⁷And He will destroy on this mountain
The surface of the covering cast over all people,
And the veil that is spread over all nations.

⁸He will swallow up death forever,
And the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces;

The rebuke of His people
He will take away from all the earth;

For the LORD has spoken.

⁹And it will be said in that day:
“Behold, this is our God;
We have waited for Him, and He will save us.
This is the LORD;
We have waited for Him;

We will be glad and rejoice in His salvation.”

¹⁰For on this mountain the hand of the LORD will rest,

And Moab shall be trampled down under Him,
As straw is trampled down for the refuse heap.

¹¹And He will spread out His hands in their midst
As a swimmer reaches out to swim,
And He will bring down their pride
Together with the trickery of their hands.

¹²The fortress of the high fort of your walls

Vision: Great Leaders Never Lose Sight of the Big Picture

Isaiah 25:1-12

Good leaders never shrink from dealing with the realities of the here and now, no matter how depressing they might be. Yet they never lose sight of the big picture and what the ultimate future looks like.

While Isaiah 25 boasts a wonderful vision for the future, it comes on the heels of chapter 24, which predicts doom and gloom for the immediate future. One chapter deals with a temporary situation; the next pictures the ultimate situation. Leadership must stay in touch with both. Vision separates leaders from followers:

Followers • Leaders

See the here and now • See the ultimate goals and potential

Driven by the atmosphere of today • Driven by their vision for tomorrow

Limited perspective on their abilities • Larger perspective on everyone's abilities

Can be diverted by today's losses • Stays on track by focusing on the goal

Key word: immediate • Key word: ultimate

He will bring down, lay low,

And bring to the ground, down to the dust.

Chapter 26

A Song of Salvation

¹In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

“We have a strong city;
God will appoint salvation for walls and bulwarks.

²Open the gates,
That the righteous nation which keeps the truth may enter in.

³You will keep him in perfect peace,
Whose mind is stayed on You,
Because he trusts in You.

⁴Trust in the LORD forever,

Leaders Manage Stress by Managing Perspective

Isaiah 26:3, 4

Those who fix their eyes on the past risk a severe collision with the future. Those who see only the future hit much too hard the speed bumps of today.

Only those who fix their eyes on God can effectively negotiate the right pace of life.

For in YAH, the LORD, is everlasting strength.^a ⁵For He brings down those who dwell on high,

The lofty city;

He lays it low,

He lays it low to the ground,

He brings it down to the dust.

⁶The foot shall tread it down—

The feet of the poor

And the steps of the needy.”

⁷The way of the just is uprightness;

O Most Upright,

You weigh the path of the just.

⁸Yes, in the way of Your judgments,

O LORD, we have waited for You;

The desire of our soul is for Your name

And for the remembrance of You.

⁹With my soul I have desired You in the night,

Yes, by my spirit within me I will seek You early;

For when Your judgments are in the earth,

The inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

¹⁰Let grace be shown to the wicked,

Yet he will not learn righteousness;

In the land of uprightness he will deal unjustly,

And will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

¹¹LORD, when Your hand is lifted up, they will not see.

But they will see and be ashamed

For their envy of people;

Yes, the fire of Your enemies shall devour them.

¹²LORD, You will establish peace for us,
For You have also done all our works in us.

¹³O LORD our God, masters besides You
Have had dominion over us;
But by You only we make mention of Your name.

¹⁴*They are* dead, they will not live;
They are deceased, they will not rise.
Therefore You have punished and destroyed them,
And made all their memory to perish.

¹⁵You have increased the nation, O LORD,
You have increased the nation;
You are glorified;

You have expanded all the borders of the land.

¹⁶LORD, in trouble they have visited You,
They poured out a prayer when Your chastening was upon them.

¹⁷As a woman with child
Is in pain and cries out in her pangs,
When she draws near the time of her delivery,
So have we been in Your sight, O LORD.

¹⁸We have been with child, we have been in pain;
We have, as it were, brought forth wind;
We have not accomplished any deliverance in the
earth,

Nor have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

¹⁹Your dead shall live;
Together with my dead body^a they shall arise.
Awake and sing, you who dwell in dust;
For your dew is like the dew of herbs,

And the earth shall cast out the dead.

Take Refuge from the Coming Judgment

²⁰Come, my people, enter your chambers,
And shut your doors behind you;
Hide yourself, as it were, for a little moment,
Until the indignation is past.

²¹For behold, the LORD comes out of His place
To punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity;
The earth will also disclose her blood,
And will no more cover her slain.

Chapter 27

¹In that day the LORD with His severe sword, great and strong,

Will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent,
Leviathan that twisted serpent;

And He will slay the reptile that is in the sea.

The Restoration of Israel

²In that day sing to her,
“A vineyard of red wine!^a

³I, the LORD, keep it,
I water it every moment;
Lest any hurt it,
I keep it night and day.

⁴Fury is not in Me.
Who would set briers and thorns
Against Me in battle?
I would go through them,
I would burn them together.

⁵Or let him take hold of My strength,
That he may make peace with Me;

And he shall make peace with Me.”

⁶Those who come He shall cause to take root in Jacob;

Israel shall blossom and bud,

And fill the face of the world with fruit.

⁷Has He struck Israel as He struck those who struck him?

Or has He been slain according to the slaughter of those who were slain by Him?

⁸In measure, by sending it away,
You contended with it.

He removes it by His rough wind
In the day of the east wind.

⁹Therefore by this the iniquity of Jacob will be covered;

And this is all the fruit of taking away his sin:
When he makes all the stones of the altar
Like chalkstones that are beaten to dust,
Wooden images^a and incense altars shall not stand.

¹⁰Yet the fortified city will be desolate,
The habitation forsaken and left like a wilderness;
There the calf will feed, and there it will lie down
And consume its branches.

¹¹When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off;

The women come and set them on fire.
For it is a people of no understanding;
Therefore He who made them will not have mercy on them,

And He who formed them will show them no favor.

¹²And it shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD will thresh,
From the channel of the River^a to the Brook of Egypt;
And you will be gathered one by one,

O you children of Israel.

¹³So it shall be in that day:

The great trumpet will be blown;

They will come, who are about to perish in the land of Assyria,

And they who are outcasts in the land of Egypt,

And shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

Chapter 28

Woe to Ephraim and Jerusalem

¹Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim,

Whose glorious beauty is a fading flower
Which is at the head of the verdant valleys,
To those who are overcome with wine!

²Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one,
Like a tempest of hail and a destroying storm,
Like a flood of mighty waters overflowing,
Who will bring them down to the earth with His
hand.

³The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim,
Will be trampled underfoot;

⁴And the glorious beauty is a fading flower
Which is at the head of the verdant valley,
Like the first fruit before the summer,
Which an observer sees;

He eats it up while it is still in his hand.

⁵In that day the LORD of hosts will be
For a crown of glory and a diadem of beauty
To the remnant of His people,

⁶For a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment,

And for strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

⁷But they also have erred through wine,
And through intoxicating drink are out of the way;
The priest and the prophet have erred through intoxicating drink,

They are swallowed up by wine,
They are out of the way through intoxicating drink;
They err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

⁸For all tables are full of vomit and filth;

No place is clean.

⁹“Whom will he teach knowledge?
And whom will he make to understand the message?
Those just weaned from milk?
Those just drawn from the breasts?

¹⁰For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept,

Line upon line, line upon line,

Here a little, there a little.”

¹¹For with stammering lips and another tongue
He will speak to this people,

¹²To whom He said, “This is the rest with which You may cause the weary to rest,”
And, “This is the refreshing”;
Yet they would not hear.

¹³But the word of the LORD was to them,
“Precept upon precept, precept upon precept,
Line upon line, line upon line,
Here a little, there a little,”
That they might go and fall backward, and be broken

And snared and caught.

¹⁴Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scornful men,

Who rule this people who are in Jerusalem,

¹⁵Because you have said, "We have made a covenant with death,

And with Sheol we are in agreement.

When the overflowing scourge passes through,

It will not come to us,

For we have made lies our refuge,

And under falsehood we have hidden ourselves."

A Cornerstone in Zion

¹⁶Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, I lay in Zion a stone for a foundation,
A tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation;

Whoever believes will not act hastily.

¹⁷Also I will make justice the measuring line,

And righteousness the plummet;

The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies,

And the waters will overflow the hiding place.

¹⁸Your covenant with death will be annulled,

And your agreement with Sheol will not stand;

When the overflowing scourge passes through,

Then you will be trampled down by it.

¹⁹As often as it goes out it will take you;

For morning by morning it will pass over,

And by day and by night;

It will be a terror just to understand the report.”

²⁰For the bed is too short to stretch out on,
And the covering so narrow that one cannot wrap himself in it.

²¹For the LORD will rise up as at Mount Perazim,
He will be angry as in the Valley of Gibeon—
That He may do His work, His awesome work,
And bring to pass His act, His unusual act.

²²Now therefore, do not be mockers,
Lest your bonds be made strong;
For I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts,

A destruction determined even upon the whole
earth.

Listen to the Teaching of God

²³Give ear and hear my voice,
Listen and hear my speech.

²⁴Does the plowman keep plowing all day to sow?
Does he keep turning his soil and breaking the clods?

²⁵When he has leveled its surface,
Does he not sow the black cummin
And scatter the cummin,
Plant the wheat in rows,
The barley in the appointed place,
And the spelt in its place?

²⁶For He instructs him in right judgment,
His God teaches him.

²⁷For the black cummin is not threshed with a threshing sledge,

Nor is a cartwheel rolled over the cummin;
But the black cummin is beaten out with a stick,
And the cummin with a rod.

²⁸Bread flour must be ground;
Therefore he does not thresh it forever,
Break it with his cartwheel,
Or crush it with his horsemen.

²⁹This also comes from the LORD of hosts,

Who is wonderful in counsel and excellent in guidance.

Chapter 29

Woe to Jerusalem

¹“Woe to Ariel, ^a to Ariel, the city where David dwelt!
Add year to year;
Let feasts come around.

²Yet I will distress Ariel;
There shall be heaviness and sorrow,
And it shall be to Me as Ariel.

³I will encamp against you all around,
I will lay siege against you with a mound,
And I will raise siegeworks against you.

⁴You shall be brought down,
You shall speak out of the ground;
Your speech shall be low, out of the dust;
Your voice shall be like a medium’s, out of the ground;

And your speech shall whisper out of the dust.

⁵“Moreover the multitude of your foes
Shall be like fine dust,
And the multitude of the terrible ones
Like chaff that passes away;
Yes, it shall be in an instant, suddenly.

⁶You will be punished by the LORD of hosts
With thunder and earthquake and great noise,
With storm and tempest

And the flame of devouring fire.

⁷The multitude of all the nations who fight against Ariel,

Even all who fight against her and her fortress,
And distress her,
Shall be as a dream of a night vision.

⁸It shall even be as when a hungry man dreams,
And look—he eats;
But he awakes, and his soul is still empty;
Or as when a thirsty man dreams,
And look—he drinks;
But he awakes, and indeed he is faint,
And his soul still craves:
So the multitude of all the nations shall be,

Who fight against Mount Zion.”

The Blindness of Disobedience

⁹Pause and wonder!

Blind yourselves and be blind!

They are drunk, but not with wine;

They stagger, but not with intoxicating drink.

¹⁰For the LORD has poured out on you

The spirit of deep sleep,

And has closed your eyes, namely, the prophets;

And He has covered your heads, namely, the seers.

¹¹The whole vision has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is literate, saying, “Read this, please.”

And he says, “I cannot, for it is sealed.”

¹²Then the book is delivered to one who is illiterate, saying, "Read this, please."

And he says, "I am not literate."

¹³Therefore the Lord said:

"Inasmuch as these people draw near with their mouths

And honor Me with their lips,

But have removed their hearts far from Me,

And their fear toward Me is taught by the commandment of men,

¹⁴Therefore, behold, I will again do a marvelous work

Among this people,

A marvelous work and a wonder;

For the wisdom of their wise men shall perish,

And the understanding of their prudent men shall be hidden."

¹⁵Woe to those who seek deep to hide their counsel
far from the LORD,

And their works are in the dark;

They say, "Who sees us?" and, "Who knows us?"

¹⁶Surely you have things turned around!

Shall the potter be esteemed as the clay;

For shall the thing made say of him who made it,

"He did not make me"?

Or shall the thing formed say of him who formed it,

"He has no understanding"?

Future Recovery of Wisdom

¹⁷Is it not yet a very little while
Till Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field,
And the fruitful field be esteemed as a forest?

¹⁸In that day the deaf shall hear the words of the book,

And the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness.

¹⁹The humble also shall increase their joy in the
LORD,

And the poor among men shall rejoice
In the Holy One of Israel.

²⁰For the terrible one is brought to nothing,
The scornful one is consumed,
And all who watch for iniquity are cut off—

²¹Who make a man an offender by a word,
And lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate,

And turn aside the just by empty words.

²²Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed
Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob:

“Jacob shall not now be ashamed,
Nor shall his face now grow pale;

²³But when he sees his children,
The work of My hands, in his midst,
They will hallow My name,
And hallow the Holy One of Jacob,
And fear the God of Israel.

²⁴These also who erred in spirit will come to understanding,

And those who complained will learn doctrine.”

Chapter 30

Futile Confidence in Egypt

¹“Woe to the rebellious children,” says the LORD,
“Who take counsel, but not of Me,
And who devise plans, but not of My Spirit,
That they may add sin to sin;
²Who walk to go down to Egypt,
And have not asked My advice,
To strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh,
And to trust in the shadow of Egypt!
³Therefore the strength of Pharaoh
Shall be your shame,
And trust in the shadow of Egypt
Shall be your humiliation.
⁴For his princes were at Zoan,
And his ambassadors came to Hanes.
⁵They were all ashamed of a people who could not benefit them,

Strategic Planning: Where God Fits In

Isaiah 30:1-5

Leaders and organizations constantly make plans. This is one reason why leaders are in demand; they plan for and negotiate the future. Yet Isaiah issues a warning to every leader who develops plans without asking if they fit the mind of God.

Leaders must remember just how tentative strategic plans need to be. No one knows the future except God. Keep in mind the following equation as you plan:

Our Preparation + God's Providence = Success

Leaders must constantly ask if their plans fit God's revealed will for them and their organization. Then they must ask if their plans remain relevant to the needs of their mission, their values, their vision, and their long-range objectives. Finally, they need to ask if their plans fit the needs of their culture and time. This makes for wise leadership and strategic planning.

Or be help or benefit,

But a shame and also a reproach."

⁶The burden against the beasts of the South.

Through a land of trouble and anguish,

From which came the lioness and lion,

The viper and fiery flying serpent,

They will carry their riches on the backs of young donkeys,

And their treasures on the humps of camels,

To a people who shall not profit;

⁷For the Egyptians shall help in vain and to no purpose.

Therefore I have called her

Rahab-Hem-Shebeth.^a

A Rebellious People

⁸Now go, write it before them on a tablet,
And note it on a scroll,
That it may be for time to come,
Forever and ever:
⁹That this is a rebellious people,
Lying children,
Children who will not hear the law of the LORD;
¹⁰Who say to the seers, "Do not see,"
And to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us right
things;
Speak to us smooth things, prophesy deceits.
¹¹Get out of the way,
Turn aside from the path,
Cause the Holy One of Israel
To cease from before us."
¹²Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:
"Because you despise this word,
And trust in oppression and perversity,
And rely on them,
¹³Therefore this iniquity shall be to you
Like a breach ready to fall,
A bulge in a high wall,
Whose breaking comes suddenly, in an instant.
¹⁴And He shall break it like the breaking of the potter's vessel,
Which is broken in pieces;
He shall not spare.
So there shall not be found among its fragments
A shard to take fire from the hearth,

Or to take water from the cistern.”
¹⁵For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel:

“In returning and rest you shall be saved;
In quietness and confidence shall be your strength.”
But you would not,
¹⁶And you said, “No, for we will flee on horses”—
Therefore you shall flee!
And, “We will ride on swift horses”—

Therefore those who pursue you shall be swift!

¹⁷One thousand shall flee at the threat of one,
At the threat of five you shall flee,
Till you are left as a pole on top of a mountain
And as a banner on a hill.

God Will Be Gracious

¹⁸Therefore the LORD will wait, that He may be gracious to you;

And therefore He will be exalted, that He may have mercy on you.

For the LORD is a God of justice;

Blessed are all those who wait for Him.

¹⁹For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem;
You shall weep no more.

He will be very gracious to you at the sound of your cry;

When He hears it, He will answer you.

²⁰And though the Lord gives you
The bread of adversity and the water of affliction,
Yet your teachers will not be moved into a corner anymore,

But your eyes shall see your teachers.

²¹Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying,
“This is the way, walk in it,”

Whenever you turn to the right hand

Or whenever you turn to the left.

²²You will also defile the covering of your images of silver,

And the ornament of your molded images of gold.

You will throw them away as an unclean thing;

You will say to them, “Get away!”

²³Then He will give the rain for your seed

With which you sow the ground,

And bread of the increase of the earth;

It will be fat and plentiful.

In that day your cattle will feed

In large pastures.

²⁴Likewise the oxen and the young donkeys that work the ground

Will eat cured fodder,

Which has been winnowed with the shovel and fan.

²⁵There will be on every high mountain

And on every high hill

Rivers and streams of waters,

In the day of the great slaughter,

When the towers fall.

²⁶Moreover the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun,

And the light of the sun will be sevenfold,

As the light of seven days,

In the day that the LORD binds up the bruise of His people

And heals the stroke of their wound.

Judgment on Assyria

²⁷Behold, the name of the LORD comes from afar,
Burning with His anger,
And His burden is heavy;
His lips are full of indignation,
And His tongue like a devouring fire.

²⁸His breath is like an overflowing stream,
Which reaches up to the neck,
To sift the nations with the sieve of futility;
And there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people,
Causing them to err.

²⁹You shall have a song
As in the night when a holy festival is kept,
And gladness of heart as when one goes with a flute,
To come into the mountain of the LORD,
To the Mighty One of Israel.

³⁰The LORD will cause His glorious voice to be heard,
And show the descent of His arm,
With the indignation of His anger
And the flame of a devouring fire,
With scattering, tempest, and hailstones.
³¹For through the voice of the LORD
Assyria will be beaten down,
As He strikes with the rod.

³²And in every place where the staff of punishment passes,

Which the LORD lays on him,

It will be with tambourines and harps;

And in battles of brandishing He will fight with it.

³³For Tophet was established of old,

Yes, for the king it is prepared.

He has made it deep and large;

Its pyre is fire with much wood;

The breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone,

Kindles it.

Chapter 31

The Folly of Not Trusting God

¹Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help,
And rely on horses,
Who trust in chariots because they are many,
And in horsemen because they are very strong,
But who do not look to the Holy One of Israel,
Nor seek the LORD!

²Yet He also is wise and will bring disaster,
And will not call back His words,
But will arise against the house of evildoers,
And against the help of those who work iniquity.

³Now the Egyptians are men, and not God;
And their horses are flesh, and not spirit.
When the LORD stretches out His hand,
Both he who helps will fall,
And he who is helped will fall down;

They all will perish together.

God Will Deliver Jerusalem

⁴For thus the LORD has spoken to me:

“As a lion roars,

And a young lion over his prey
(When a multitude of shepherds is summoned against him,

He will not be afraid of their voice
Nor be disturbed by their noise),
So the LORD of hosts will come down
To fight for Mount Zion and for its hill.

⁵Like birds flying about,
So will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem.
Defending, He will also deliver it;

Passing over, He will preserve it."

⁶Return to Him against whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted. ⁷For in that day every man shall throw away his idols of silver and his idols of gold—sin, which your own hands have made for yourselves.

⁸"Then Assyria shall fall by a sword not of man,
And a sword not of mankind shall devour him.
But he shall flee from the sword,
And his young men shall become forced labor.

⁹He shall cross over to his stronghold for fear,
And his princes shall be afraid of the banner,"
Says the LORD,
Whose fire is in Zion

And whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

Chapter 32

A Reign of Righteousness

¹Behold, a king will reign in righteousness,
And princes will rule with justice.

²A man will be as a hiding place from the wind,
And a cover from the tempest,
As rivers of water in a dry place,
As the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

³The eyes of those who see will not be dim,
And the ears of those who hear will listen.

⁴Also the heart of the rash will understand
knowledge,

And the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly.

⁵The foolish person will no longer be called generous,

Nor the miser said to be bountiful;

⁶For the foolish person will speak foolishness,
And his heart will work iniquity:

To practice ungodliness,

To utter error against the LORD,

To keep the hungry unsatisfied,

And he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

⁷Also the schemes of the schemer are evil;

He devises wicked plans

To destroy the poor with lying words,
Even when the needy speaks justice.
⁸But a generous man devises generous things,
And by generosity he shall stand.

Consequences of Complacency

⁹Rise up, you women who are at ease,
Hear my voice;
You complacent daughters,
Give ear to my speech.
¹⁰In a year and some days
You will be troubled, you complacent women;
For the vintage will fail,
The gathering will not come.
¹¹Tremble, you women who are at ease;
Be troubled, you complacent ones;
Strip yourselves, make yourselves bare,

And gird sackcloth on your waists.

¹²People shall mourn upon their breasts
For the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.
¹³On the land of my people will come up thorns and briers,
Yes, on all the happy homes in the joyous city;
¹⁴Because the palaces will be forsaken,
The bustling city will be deserted.
The forts and towers will become lairs forever,
A joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks—
¹⁵Until the Spirit is poured upon us from on high,
And the wilderness becomes a fruitful field,

And the fruitful field is counted as a forest.

The Peace of God's Reign

¹⁶Then justice will dwell in the wilderness,
And righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

¹⁷The work of righteousness will be peace,
And the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever.

¹⁸My people will dwell in a peaceful habitation,
In secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places,

¹⁹Though hail comes down on the forest,

And the city is brought low in humiliation.

²⁰Blessed are you who sow beside all waters,

Who send out freely the feet of the ox and the donkey.

Chapter 33

A Prayer in Deep Distress

¹Woe to you who plunder, though you have not been plundered;

And you who deal treacherously, though they have not dealt treacherously with you!

When you cease plundering,

You will be plundered;

When you make an end of dealing treacherously,

They will deal treacherously with you.

²O LORD, be gracious to us;

We have waited for You.

Be their ^aarm every morning,

Our salvation also in the time of trouble.

³At the noise of the tumult the people shall flee;

When You lift Yourself up, the nations shall be scattered;

⁴And Your plunder shall be gathered

Like the gathering of the caterpillar;

As the running to and fro of locusts,

He shall run upon them.

⁵The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high;

He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.

⁶Wisdom and knowledge will be the stability of your times,

And the strength of salvation;

The fear of the LORD is His treasure.

⁷Surely their valiant ones shall cry outside,
The ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

⁸The highways lie waste,
The traveling man ceases.
He has broken the covenant,
He has despised the cities, a
He regards no man.

⁹The earth mourns and languishes,
Lebanon is shamed and shriveled;
Sharon is like a wilderness,

And Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

Impending Judgment on Zion

¹⁰“Now I will rise,” says the LORD;
“Now I will be exalted,
Now I will lift Myself up.

¹¹You shall conceive chaff,
You shall bring forth stubble;
Your breath, as fire, shall devour you.

¹²And the people shall be like the burnings of lime;
Like thorns cut up they shall be burned in the fire.

¹³Hear, you who are afar off, what I have done;

And you who are near, acknowledge My might.”

¹⁴The sinners in Zion are afraid;
Fearfulness has seized the hypocrites:
“Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire?
Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?”

¹⁵He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly,
He who despises the gain of oppressions,
Who gestures with his hands, refusing bribes,
Who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed,
And shuts his eyes from seeing evil:

¹⁶He will dwell on high;

The Law of Solid Ground: Leaders Must Earn Trust

Isaiah 33:14-16

Who can stand up under the purification process of God? Who can remain unchanged through the fire of God?

That’s the question Isaiah asks and then answers. He lays out a list of traits for the kind of people who can stand in a crisis. Ponder his description:

1. Integrity: The leader’s life and words match (v. 15).
2. Justice: The leader rejects dishonest gain (v. 15).
3. Convictions: The leader’s values won’t allow him to accept bribes (v. 15).
4. Positive focus: The leader refuses to dwell on destructive issues (v. 15).

5. Pure: The leader disciplines his or her mind to remain clean and pure (v. 15).

6. Secure: The leader is firm, stable in his identity and source of strength (v. 16).

Characteristics like these earn the trust of others. When leaders possess them, they feel secure enough to develop others, rather than destroy them. Remember, only secure leaders empower others.

His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks;
Bread will be given him,

His water will be sure.

The Land of the Majestic King

¹⁷Your eyes will see the King in His beauty;
They will see the land that is very far off.

¹⁸Your heart will meditate on terror:
“Where is the scribe?

Where is he who weighs?

Where is he who counts the towers?”

¹⁹You will not see a fierce people,
A people of obscure speech, beyond perception,

Of a stammering tongue that you cannot understand.

²⁰Look upon Zion, the city of our appointed feasts;
Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet home,
A tabernacle that will not be taken down;
Not one of its stakes will ever be removed,

Nor will any of its cords be broken.

²¹But there the majestic LORD will be for us

A place of broad rivers and streams,

In which no galley with oars will sail,

Nor majestic ships pass by

²²(For the LORD is our Judge,

The LORD is our Lawgiver,

The LORD is our King;

He will save us);

²³Your tackle is loosed,

They could not strengthen their mast,

They could not spread the sail.

Then the prey of great plunder is divided;

The lame take the prey.

²⁴And the inhabitant will not say, "I am sick";

The people who dwell in it will be forgiven their iniquity.

Chapter 34

Judgment on the Nations

¹Come near, you nations, to hear;
And heed, you people!

Let the earth hear, and all that is in it,
The world and all things that come forth from it.

²For the indignation of the LORD is against all
nations,

And His fury against all their armies;
He has utterly destroyed them,
He has given them over to the slaughter.

³Also their slain shall be thrown out;
Their stench shall rise from their corpses,
And the mountains shall be melted with their blood.

⁴All the host of heaven shall be dissolved,
And the heavens shall be rolled up like a scroll;
All their host shall fall down
As the leaf falls from the vine,

And as fruit falling from a fig tree.

⁵“For My sword shall be bathed in heaven;
Indeed it shall come down on Edom,
And on the people of My curse, for judgment.

⁶The sword of the LORD is filled with blood,
It is made overflowing with fatness,
With the blood of lambs and goats,

With the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
⁷The wild oxen shall come down with them,
And the young bulls with the mighty bulls;
Their land shall be soaked with blood,

And their dust saturated with fatness.”

⁸For it is the day of the LORD’s vengeance,
The year of recompense for the cause of Zion.

⁹Its streams shall be turned into pitch,
And its dust into brimstone;
Its land shall become burning pitch.

¹⁰It shall not be quenched night or day;
Its smoke shall ascend forever.
From generation to generation it shall lie waste;
No one shall pass through it forever and ever.

¹¹But the pelican and the porcupine shall possess it,
Also the owl and the raven shall dwell in it.
And He shall stretch out over it
The line of confusion and the stones of emptiness.

¹²They shall call its nobles to the kingdom,

But none shall be there, and all its princes shall be nothing.

¹³And thorns shall come up in its palaces,
Nettles and brambles in its fortresses;
It shall be a habitation of jackals,
A courtyard for ostriches.

¹⁴The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the jackals,
And the wild goat shall bleat to its companion;
Also the night creature shall rest there,
And find for herself a place of rest.

¹⁵There the arrow snake shall make her nest and lay eggs

And hatch, and gather them under her shadow;
There also shall the hawks be gathered,

Every one with her mate.

¹⁶“Search from the book of the LORD, and read:

Not one of these shall fail;

Not one shall lack her mate.

For My mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them.

¹⁷He has cast the lot for them,

And His hand has divided it among them with a measuring line.

They shall possess it forever;

From generation to generation they shall dwell in it.”

Chapter 35

The Future Glory of Zion

¹The wilderness and the wasteland shall be glad for them,

And the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose;

²It shall blossom abundantly and rejoice,
Even with joy and singing.

The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it,

The excellence of Carmel and Sharon.

They shall see the glory of the LORD,

The excellency of our God.

³Strengthen the weak hands,

And make firm the feeble knees.

⁴Say to those who are fearful-hearted,

“Be strong, do not fear!

Behold, your God will come with vengeance,

With the recompense of God;

He will come and save you.”

⁵Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,

And the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

⁶Then the lame shall leap like a deer,

And the tongue of the dumb sing.

For waters shall burst forth in the wilderness,

And streams in the desert.

⁷The parched ground shall become a pool,
And the thirsty land springs of water;
In the habitation of jackals, where each lay,

There shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

⁸A highway shall be there, and a road,
And it shall be called the Highway of Holiness.
The unclean shall not pass over it,
But it shall be for others.

Whoever walks the road, although a fool,
Shall not go astray.

⁹No lion shall be there,
Nor shall any ravenous beast go up on it;
It shall not be found there.

But the redeemed shall walk there,

¹⁰And the ransomed of the LORD shall return,
And come to Zion with singing,
With everlasting joy on their heads.
They shall obtain joy and gladness,

And sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Chapter 36

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

¹Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them. ²Then the king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh^a with a great army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. And he stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool, on the highway to the Fuller's Field. ³And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to him.

⁴Then the Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: "What confidence is this in which you trust? ⁵"I say you speak of having plans and power for war; but they are mere words. Now in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me? ⁶"Look! You are trusting in the staff of this broken reed, Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.

⁷"But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar'?" ' ⁸"Now therefore, I urge you, give a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses—if you are able on your part to put riders on them! ⁹“How then will you repel one captain of the least of my master’s servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen? ¹⁰“Have I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, ‘Go up against this land, and destroy it.’ ”

¹¹Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in Hebrew^a in the hearing of the people who are on the wall.”

¹²But the Rabshakeh said, “Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat and drink their own waste with you?”

¹³Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Hebrew, and said, “Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! ¹⁴“Thus says the king: ‘Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you; ¹⁵‘nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, “The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.” ‘ ¹⁶“Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: ‘Make peace with me by a present and come out to me; and every one of you eat from his own vine and every one from his own fig tree, and every one of you drink the waters of his own cistern; ¹⁷‘until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁸‘Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, “The LORD will deliver us.” Has any one of the gods of the nations delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹‘Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Indeed, have they delivered Samaria from my hand? ²⁰‘Who among all the gods of these lands have delivered their countries from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?’ ”

²¹But they held their peace and answered him not a word; for the king’s commandment was, “Do not answer him.” ²²Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Chapter 37

Isaiah Assures Deliverance

¹And so it was, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. ²Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. ³And they said to him, “Thus says Hezekiah: ‘This day is a day of trouble and rebuke and blasphemy; for the children have come to birth, but there is no strength to bring them forth. ⁴‘It may be that the LORD your God will hear the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.’ ”

⁵So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah. ⁶And Isaiah said to them, “Thus you shall say to your master, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. ⁷“Surely I will send a spirit upon him, and he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.” ‘ ”

Sennacherib's Threat and Hezekiah's Prayer

⁸Then the Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he heard that he had departed from Lachish. ⁹And the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to make war with you." So when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰"Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying: 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." ¹¹'Look! You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by utterly destroying them; and shall you be delivered? ¹²'Have the gods of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan and Haran and Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar? ¹³'Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?' "

¹⁴And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. ¹⁵Then Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying: ¹⁶"O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, the One who dwells between the cherubim, You are God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. ¹⁷"Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to reproach the living God. ¹⁸"Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their lands, ¹⁹"and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were not gods, but the work of men's hands—wood and stone. Therefore they destroyed them. ²⁰“Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the LORD, You alone.”

The Word of the LORD Concerning Sennacherib

²¹Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria,

²²‘this is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him:

“The virgin, the daughter of Zion,
Has despised you, laughed you to scorn;
The daughter of Jerusalem

Has shaken her head behind your back!

²³“Whom have you reproached and blasphemed?
Against whom have you raised your voice,
And lifted up your eyes on high?
Against the Holy One of Israel.

²⁴By your servants you have reproached the Lord,
And said, ‘By the multitude of my chariots
I have come up to the height of the mountains,
To the limits of Lebanon;
I will cut down its tall cedars
And its choice cypress trees;
I will enter its farthest height,
To its fruitful forest.

²⁵I have dug and drunk water,
And with the soles of my feet I have dried up

All the brooks of defense.'

²⁶“Did you not hear long ago

How I made it,

From ancient times that I formed it?

Now I have brought it to pass,

That you should be

For crushing fortified cities into heaps of ruins.

²⁷Therefore their inhabitants had little power;

They were dismayed and confounded;

They were as the grass of the field

And the green herb,

As the grass on the housetops

And grain blighted before it is grown.

²⁸“But I know your dwelling place,

Your going out and your coming in,

And your rage against Me.

²⁹Because your rage against Me and your tumult

Have come up to My ears,

Therefore I will put My hook in your nose

And My bridle in your lips,

And I will turn you back

By the way which you came." ‘

³⁰“This shall be a sign to you:

You shall eat this year such as grows of itself,

And the second year what springs from the same;

Also in the third year sow and reap,

Plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them.

31 And the remnant who have escaped of the house of Judah

Shall again take root downward,

And bear fruit upward.

³²For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant,

And those who escape from Mount Zion.

The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

³³“Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria:

‘He shall not come into this city,
Nor shoot an arrow there,
Nor come before it with shield,
Nor build a siege mound against it.

³⁴By the way that he came,
By the same shall he return;
And he shall not come into this city,’
Says the LORD.

³⁵‘For I will defend this city, to save it

For My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.’ ”

Sennacherib’s Defeat and Death

³⁶Then the angel^a of the LORD went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when people arose early in the morning, there were the corpses—all dead. ³⁷So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went away, returned home, and remained at Nineveh. ³⁸Now it came to pass, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

The Law of Navigation: The Role of Planning and Praying

Isaiah 37:1-37

King Hezekiah provides an example of a leader who does what is humanly possible, then leans on God for the outcome. God had to do what the king could not do. A place exists for both preparation and prayer. To employ only one is naïve and incomplete.

Chapter 38

Hezekiah's Life Extended

¹In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live.' "

²Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD, ³and said, "Remember now, O LORD, I pray, how I have walked before You in truth and with a loyal heart, and have done what is good in Your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

⁴And the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying, ⁵"Go and tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: "I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; surely I will add to your days fifteen years. ⁶"I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city." ' ⁷"And this is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing which He has spoken: ⁸"Behold, I will bring the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down with the sun on the sundial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward." So the sun returned ten degrees on the dial by which it had gone down.

⁹This is the writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:

¹⁰I said,
“In the prime of my life
I shall go to the gates of Sheol;
I am deprived of the remainder of my years.”

¹¹I said,
“I shall not see YAH,
The LORD^a in the land of the living;
I shall observe man no more among the inhabitants of the world.^b

¹²My life span is gone,
Taken from me like a shepherd’s tent;
I have cut off my life like a weaver.
He cuts me off from the loom;
From day until night You make an end of me.

¹³I have considered until morning—
Like a lion,
So He breaks all my bones;
From day until night You make an end of me.

¹⁴Like a crane or a swallow, so I chattered;
I mourned like a dove;
My eyes fail from looking upward.
O LORD,^a I am oppressed;

Undertake for me!

¹⁵“What shall I say?
He has both spoken to me,^a
And He Himself has done it.
I shall walk carefully all my years
In the bitterness of my soul.

¹⁶O Lord, by these things men live;
And in all these things is the life of my spirit;
So You will restore me and make me live.

¹⁷Indeed it was for my own peace
That I had great bitterness;

But You have lovingly delivered my soul from the pit of corruption,

For You have cast all my sins behind Your back.

¹⁸For Sheol cannot thank You,

Death cannot praise You;

Those who go down to the pit cannot hope for Your truth.

¹⁹The living, the living man, he shall praise You,

As I do this day;

The father shall make known Your truth to the children.

²⁰“The LORD was ready to save me;

PROFILE in Leadership

HEZEKIAH

The Art of Thanksgiving

Isaiah 38:9-20

Nothing brings out gratefulness like a reprieve from imminent death.

When King Hezekiah of Judah, a good and godly king, heard from the prophet Isaiah that he was about to die, he immediately turned to the God he had faithfully served. He begged God for an extension of life—and the Lord granted him an additional 15 years. When Hezekiah learned that the Lord would lengthen his life, he did what any godly leader would do: He thanked and praised his God. Upon his recovery, he wrote to the Lord a poem of thanksgiving and praise for the good He had done.

As the godly king meditated on God's goodness, he realized that the Lord had used even his sickness for his good. In verse 17 he wrote, "Indeed it was for my own peace that I had great bitterness"—the same sentiment expressed many years before by his revered ancestor, David: "It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I may learn Your statutes" (Ps. 119:71).

Hezekiah's hymn of gratitude not only thanked the Lord for sparing his life, it also expressed his commitment to "sing my songs with stringed instruments all the days of [my] life" (Is. 38:20). He realized that expressing gratitude to God ought to be more than a onetime event; it must be a lifestyle.

Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments

All the days of our life, in the house of the LORD."

²¹Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a lump of figs, and apply it as a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover."

²²And Hezekiah had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?"

The Babylonian Envoys

Chapter 39

¹At that time Merodach-Baladan^a the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered. ²And Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his treasures—the silver and gold, the spices and precious ointment, and all his armory—all that was found among his treasures. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

³Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah, and said to him, “What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?”

So Hezekiah said, “They came to me from a far country, from Babylon.”

⁴And he said, “What have they seen in your house?”

So Hezekiah answered, “They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them.”

⁵Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: ⁶‘Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and what your fathers have accumulated until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,’ says the LORD. ⁷‘And they shall take away some of your sons who will descend from you, whom you will beget; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.’ ”

⁸So Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good!” For he said, “At least there will be peace and truth in my days.”

Chapter 40

God's People Are Comforted

¹“Comfort, yes, comfort My people!”
Says your God.

²“Speak comfort to Jerusalem, and cry out to her,
That her warfare is ended,
That her iniquity is pardoned;
For she has received from the LORD's hand

Double for all her sins.”

³The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
“Prepare the way of the LORD;
Make straight in the desert^a
A highway for our God.

⁴Every valley shall be exalted
And every mountain and hill brought low;
The crooked places shall be made straight
And the rough places smooth;

⁵The glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
And all flesh shall see it together;

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

⁶The voice said, “Cry out!”

And he^a said, “What shall I cry?”

"All flesh is grass,
And all its loveliness is like the flower of the field.

⁷The grass withers, the flower fades,
Because the breath of the LORD blows upon it;
Surely the people are grass.

⁸The grass withers, the flower fades,

But the word of our God stands forever."

⁹O Zion,
You who bring good tidings,
Get up into the high mountain;
O Jerusalem,
You who bring good tidings,
Lift up your voice with strength,
Lift it up, be not afraid;

Say to the cities of Judah, "Behold your God!"

¹⁰Behold, the Lord GOD shall come with a strong
hand,

And His arm shall rule for Him;
Behold, His reward is with Him,
And His work before Him.

¹¹He will feed His flock like a shepherd;
He will gather the lambs with His arm,
And carry them in His bosom,

And gently lead those who are with young.

¹²Who has measured the waters^a in the hollow of His hand,

Measured heaven with a span
And calculated the dust of the earth in a measure?
Weighed the mountains in scales
And the hills in a balance?

¹³Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD,
Or as His counselor has taught Him?

¹⁴With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him,
And taught Him in the path of justice?
Who taught Him knowledge,

And showed Him the way of understanding?

¹⁵Behold, the nations are as a drop in a bucket,
And are counted as the small dust on the scales;
Look, He lifts up the isles as a very little thing.

¹⁶And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn,
Nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt offering.

¹⁷All nations before Him are as nothing,

And they are counted by Him less than nothing and worthless.

¹⁸To whom then will you liken God?
Or what likeness will you compare to Him?

¹⁹The workman molds an image,
The goldsmith overspreads it with gold,
And the silversmith casts silver chains.

²⁰Whoever is too impoverished for such a contribution

Chooses a tree that will not rot;
He seeks for himself a skillful workman

To prepare a carved image that will not totter.

²¹Have you not known?

Have you not heard?

Has it not been told you from the beginning?

Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

²²*It is* He who sits above the circle of the earth,
And its inhabitants are like grasshoppers,
Who stretches out the heavens like a curtain,
And spreads them out like a tent to dwell in.

²³He brings the princes to nothing;

He makes the judges of the earth useless.

²⁴Scarcely shall they be planted,
Scarcely shall they be sown,
Scarcely shall their stock take root in the earth,
When He will also blow on them,
And they will wither,

And the whirlwind will take them away like stubble.

²⁵“To whom then will you liken Me,
Or to whom shall I be equal?” says the Holy One.

²⁶Lift up your eyes on high,
And see who has created these things,
Who brings out their host by number;
He calls them all by name,
By the greatness of His might
And the strength of His power;

Not one is missing.

²⁷Why do you say, O Jacob,
And speak, O Israel:
“My way is hidden from the LORD,
And my just claim is passed over by my God”?

²⁸Have you not known?
Have you not heard?
The everlasting God, the LORD,
The Creator of the ends of the earth,
Neither faints nor is weary.

His understanding is unsearchable.

²⁹He gives power to the weak,
And to those who have no might He increases strength.

³⁰Even the youths shall faint and be weary,
And the young men shall utterly fall,

³¹But those who wait on the LORD

The Model for Leadership

Isaiah 40:1-31

We must never forget that the greatest model for leadership always comes from the life of God Himself. Isaiah 40 makes it clear that God, as the Ultimate Leader, models:

1. Comfort and Security

God supplies comfort and cleansing to His people (vv. 1, 2).

2. Empowerment and Delegation

God makes the path straight for others, then has them speak His words (vv. 3-8).

3. Shepherding and Direction

God proclaims good news and guides His people like a Shepherd (vv. 9-11).

4. Power and Authority

No one can challenge God's strength. He is a Leader with unequalled power (vv. 12-17).

5. Creator and Developer

God is the transcendent Leader who builds and develops others (vv. 21-26).

6. Wise Counselor and Provider

God is the source for every need we may have (vv.

27-31).

Shall renew their strength;
They shall mount up with wings like eagles,
They shall run and not be weary,
They shall walk and not faint.

Chapter 41

Israel Assured of God's Help

¹“Keep silence before Me, O coastlands,
And let the people renew their strength!
Let them come near, then let them speak;

Let us come near together for judgment.

²“Who raised up one from the east?
Who in righteousness called him to His feet?
Who gave the nations before him,
And made him rule over kings?
Who gave them as the dust to his sword,
As driven stubble to his bow?

³Who pursued them, and passed safely
By the way that he had not gone with his feet?

⁴Who has performed and done it,
Calling the generations from the beginning?
‘I, the LORD, am the first;

And with the last I am He.’ ”

⁵The coastlands saw it and feared,
The ends of the earth were afraid;
They drew near and came.

⁶Everyone helped his neighbor,
And said to his brother,
“Be of good courage!”

⁷So the craftsman encouraged the goldsmith;
He who smooths with the hammer inspired him who strikes the anvil,
Saying, "It is ready for the soldering";
Then he fastened it with pegs,

That it might not totter.

⁸"But you, Israel, are My servant,
Jacob whom I have chosen,
The descendants of Abraham My friend.
⁹*You* whom I have taken from the ends of the earth,
And called from its farthest regions,
And said to you,
'You are My servant,
I have chosen you and have not cast you away:
¹⁰Fear not, for I am with you;
Be not dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you,
Yes, I will help you,

I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.'

¹¹"Behold, all those who were incensed against you
Shall be ashamed and disgraced;
They shall be as nothing,
And those who strive with you shall perish.
¹²You shall seek them and not find them—
Those who contended with you.
Those who war against you
Shall be as nothing,
As a nonexistent thing.

¹³For I, the LORD your God, will hold your right
hand,

Saying to you, 'Fear not, I will help you.'

¹⁴“Fear not, you worm Jacob,
You men of Israel!
I will help you,” says the LORD
And your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵“Behold, I will make you into a new threshing
sledge with sharp teeth;

You shall thresh the mountains and beat them small,
And make the hills like chaff.

¹⁶You shall winnow them, the wind shall carry them away,

And the whirlwind shall scatter them;
You shall rejoice in the LORD,

And glory in the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁷“The poor and needy seek water, but there is none,
Their tongues fail for thirst.

I, the LORD, will hear them;

I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

¹⁸I will open rivers in desolate heights,
And fountains in the midst of the valleys;
I will make the wilderness a pool of water,
And the dry land springs of water.

¹⁹I will plant in the wilderness the cedar and the acacia tree,

The myrtle and the oil tree;

I will set in the desert the cypress tree and the pine
And the box tree together,

²⁰That they may see and know,
And consider and understand together,
That the hand of the LORD has done this,

And the Holy One of Israel has created it.

The Futility of Idols

²¹“Present your case,” says the LORD.

“Bring forth your strong reasons,” says the King of Jacob.

²²“Let them bring forth and show us what will happen;

Let them show the former things, what they were,
That we may consider them,
And know the latter end of them;
Or declare to us things to come.

²³Show the things that are to come hereafter,
That we may know that you are gods;
Yes, do good or do evil,
That we may be dismayed and see it together.

²⁴Indeed you are nothing,
And your work is nothing;

He who chooses you is an abomination.

²⁵“I have raised up one from the north,
And he shall come;
From the rising of the sun he shall call on My name;
And he shall come against princes as though mortar,
As the potter treads clay.

²⁶Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know?

And former times, that we may say, ‘He is righteous’?
Surely there is no one who shows,
Surely there is no one who declares,
Surely there is no one who hears your words.

²⁷The first time I said to Zion,
‘Look, there they are!’

And I will give to Jerusalem one who brings good tidings.

²⁸For I looked, and there was no man;
I looked among them, but there was no counselor,
Who, when I asked of them, could answer a word.

²⁹Indeed they are all worthless;^a
Their works are nothing;

Their molded images are wind and confusion.

Chapter 42

The Servant of the LORD

¹“Behold! My Servant whom I uphold,
My Elect One in whom My soul delights!
I have put My Spirit upon Him;
He will bring forth justice to the Gentiles.

²He will not cry out, nor raise His voice,
Nor cause His voice to be heard in the street.

³A bruised reed He will not break,
And smoking flax He will not quench;
He will bring forth justice for truth.

⁴He will not fail nor be discouraged,
Till He has established justice in the earth;

And the coastlands shall wait for His law.”

⁵Thus says God the LORD,
Who created the heavens and stretched them out,
Who spread forth the earth and that which comes from it,

Who gives breath to the people on it,
And spirit to those who walk on it:

⁶“I, the LORD, have called You in righteousness,
And will hold Your hand;
I will keep You and give You as a covenant to the people,
As a light to the Gentiles,

⁷To open blind eyes,
To bring out prisoners from the prison,
Those who sit in darkness from the prison house.

⁸I am the LORD, that is My name;
And My glory I will not give to another,
Nor My praise to carved images.

⁹Behold, the former things have come to pass,
And new things I declare;

Before they spring forth I tell you of them.”

Praise to the LORD

¹⁰Sing to the LORD a new song,
And His praise from the ends of the earth,
You who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
You coastlands and you inhabitants of them!

¹¹Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voice,
The villages that Kedar inhabits.
Let the inhabitants of Sela sing,
Let them shout from the top of the mountains.

¹²Let them give glory to the LORD,
And declare His praise in the coastlands.

¹³The LORD shall go forth like a mighty man;
He shall stir up His zeal like a man of war.
He shall cry out, yes, shout aloud;

He shall prevail against His enemies.

Promise of the LORD's Help

¹⁴“I have held My peace a long time,
I have been still and restrained Myself.
Now I will cry like a woman in labor,
I will pant and gasp at once.

¹⁵I will lay waste the mountains and hills,
And dry up all their vegetation;
I will make the rivers coastlands,
And I will dry up the pools.

¹⁶I will bring the blind by a way they did not know;
I will lead them in paths they have not known.
I will make darkness light before them,
And crooked places straight.
These things I will do for them,
And not forsake them.

¹⁷They shall be turned back,
They shall be greatly ashamed,
Who trust in carved images,
Who say to the molded images,

‘You are our gods.’

¹⁸“Hear, you deaf;
And look, you blind, that you may see.

¹⁹Who is blind but My servant,
Or deaf as My messenger whom I send?
Who is blind as he who is perfect,
And blind as the LORD’s servant?

²⁰Seeing many things, but you do not observe;

Opening the ears, but he does not hear.”

Israel’s Obstinate Disobedience

²¹The LORD is well pleased for His righteousness' sake;

He will exalt the law and make it honorable.

²²But this is a people robbed and plundered;

All of them are snared in holes,

And they are hidden in prison houses;

They are for prey, and no one delivers;

For plunder, and no one says, "Restore!"

²³Who among you will give ear to this?

Who will listen and hear for the time to come?

²⁴Who gave Jacob for plunder, and Israel to the robbers?

Was it not the LORD,

He against whom we have sinned?

For they would not walk in His ways,

Nor were they obedient to His law.

²⁵Therefore He has poured on him the fury of His anger

And the strength of battle;

It has set him on fire all around,

Yet he did not know;

And it burned him,

Yet he did not take it to heart.

Chapter 43

The Redeemer of Israel

¹But now, thus says the LORD, who created you, O Jacob,

And He who formed you, O Israel:

“Fear not, for I have redeemed you;

I have called you by your name;

You are Mine.

²When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;

And through the rivers, they shall not overflow you.

When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned,

Nor shall the flame scorch you.

³For I am the LORD your God,

The Holy One of Israel, your Savior;

I gave Egypt for your ransom,

Ethiopia and Seba in your place.

⁴Since you were precious in My sight,

You have been honored,

And I have loved you;

Therefore I will give men for you,

And people for your life.

⁵Fear not, for I am with you;

I will bring your descendants from the east,

And gather you from the west;

⁶I will say to the north, ‘Give them up!’

And to the south, 'Do not keep them back!'
Bring My sons from afar,
And My daughters from the ends of the earth—
⁷Everyone who is called by My name,

The Law of Sacrifice

Isaiah 43:1-7

God, as the Ultimate Leader, consistently practices the Law of Sacrifice. Leaders will do the illogical and surrender valuable possessions in order to fulfill and capture their dream. Fortunately for us, we are God's dream. Only through the prophet Isaiah does God say directly to His people, "I love you."

Whom I have created for My glory;

I have formed him, yes, I have made him."

⁸Bring out the blind people who have eyes,
And the deaf who have ears.

⁹Let all the nations be gathered together,
And let the people be assembled.

Who among them can declare this,
And show us former things?

Let them bring out their witnesses, that they may be justified;

Or let them hear and say, "It is truth."

¹⁰"You are My witnesses," says the LORD,
"And My servant whom I have chosen,
That you may know and believe Me,

And understand that I am He.
Before Me there was no God formed,
Nor shall there be after Me.

¹¹I, even I, am the LORD,
And besides Me there is no savior.

¹²I have declared and saved,
I have proclaimed,
And there was no foreign god among you;
Therefore you are My witnesses,"
Says the LORD, "that I am God.

¹³Indeed before the day was, I am He;
And there is no one who can deliver out of My hand;

I work, and who will reverse it?"

¹⁴Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
The Holy One of Israel:
"For your sake I will send to Babylon,
And bring them all down as fugitives—
The Chaldeans, who rejoice in their ships.

¹⁵I am the LORD, your Holy One,

The Creator of Israel, your King."

¹⁶Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea
And a path through the mighty waters,

¹⁷Who brings forth the chariot and horse,
The army and the power
(They shall lie down together, they shall not rise;
They are extinguished, they are quenched like a wick):

¹⁸"Do not remember the former things,
Nor consider the things of old.

¹⁹Behold, I will do a new thing,
Now it shall spring forth;

Shall you not know it?
I will even make a road in the wilderness
And rivers in the desert.

²⁰The beast of the field will honor Me,
The jackals and the ostriches,
Because I give waters in the wilderness
And rivers in the desert,
To give drink to My people, My chosen.

²¹This people I have formed for Myself;

They shall declare My praise.

Pleading with Unfaithful Israel

²²“But you have not called upon Me, O Jacob;
And you have been weary of Me, O Israel.

²³You have not brought Me the sheep for your burnt offerings,

Nor have you honored Me with your sacrifices.
I have not caused you to serve with grain offerings,
Nor wearied you with incense.

²⁴You have bought Me no sweet cane with money,
Nor have you satisfied Me with the fat of your sacrifices;

But you have burdened Me with your sins,

You have wearied Me with your iniquities.

²⁵“I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake;

And I will not remember your sins.

²⁶Put Me in remembrance;
Let us contend together;

State your case, that you may be acquitted.

²⁷Your first father sinned,

And your mediators have transgressed against Me.

²⁸Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary;

I will give Jacob to the curse,

And Israel to reproaches.

Chapter 44

God's Blessing on Israel

¹“Yet hear now, O Jacob My servant,
And Israel whom I have chosen.

²Thus says the LORD who made you
And formed you from the womb, who will help you:
‘Fear not, O Jacob My servant;
And you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.

³For I will pour water on him who is thirsty,
And floods on the dry ground;
I will pour My Spirit on your descendants,
And My blessing on your offspring;

⁴They will spring up among the grass
Like willows by the watercourses.’

⁵One will say, ‘I am the LORD’s’;
Another will call himself by the name of Jacob;
Another will write with his hand, ‘The LORD’s,’

And name himself by the name of Israel.

There Is No Other God

⁶“Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel,
And his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts:

'I am the First and I am the Last;
Besides Me there is no God.
⁷And who can proclaim as I do?
Then let him declare it and set it in order for Me,
Since I appointed the ancient people.
And the things that are coming and shall come,
Let them show these to them.
⁸Do not fear, nor be afraid;

Revival Fire: ManMade or God-Given?

Isaiah 44:1-8

What godly leader has no desire in their heart to see the fire of God? We all long for fire to descend from heaven to empower us to accomplish a great task. Sometimes, however, when it seems hard to wait for the "heavenly" fire, we resort to "homemade" fire. Consider four kinds of homemade fire:

1. The fire of association: We feel this fire when we're enjoying a revival atmosphere. It serves as a hot poker.

2. The fire of yesterday: This fire comes from hearing testimonies of saints who talk about the good old days.

3. The fire of selfish desires: This fire comes as a spark when we see how it will benefit me to serve God today.

4. The fire of tradition: This fire comes when we feel warm and comfortable with the way we've always done it.

So what distinguishes divine fire from manmade fire?

ManMade Fires • God-Given Fires

Have a tendency to go out • Remain as long as our focus stays on Him

Are not sufficient for today • Are more than enough to meet our needs

Are not contagious • Are contagious for those who see them

Have I not told you from that time, and declared it?

You are My witnesses.

Is there a God besides Me?

Indeed there is no other Rock;

I know not one.‘ ”

Idolatry Is Foolishness

⁹Those who make an image, all of them are useless,

And their precious things shall not profit;

They are their own witnesses;

They neither see nor know, that they may be ashamed.

¹⁰Who would form a god or mold an image

That profits him nothing?

¹¹Surely all his companions would be ashamed;

And the workmen, they are mere men.

Let them all be gathered together,

Let them stand up;

Yet they shall fear,

They shall be ashamed together.

¹²The blacksmith with the tongs works one in the coals,

Fashions it with hammers,
And works it with the strength of his arms.
Even so, he is hungry, and his strength fails;

He drinks no water and is faint.

¹³The craftsman stretches out his rule,
He marks one out with chalk;
He fashions it with a plane,
He marks it out with the compass,
And makes it like the figure of a man,
According to the beauty of a man, that it may remain in the house.

¹⁴He cuts down cedars for himself,
And takes the cypress and the oak;
He secures it for himself among the trees of the forest.

He plants a pine, and the rain nourishes it.

¹⁵Then it shall be for a man to burn,
For he will take some of it and warm himself;
Yes, he kindles it and bakes bread;
Indeed he makes a god and worships it;
He makes it a carved image, and falls down to it.

¹⁶He burns half of it in the fire;
With this half he eats meat;
He roasts a roast, and is satisfied.
He even warms himself and says,
“Ah! I am warm,
I have seen the fire.”

¹⁷And the rest of it he makes into a god,

His carved image.
He falls down before it and worships it,
Prays to it and says,

“Deliver me, for you are my god!”

¹⁸They do not know nor understand;
For He has shut their eyes, so that they cannot see,
And their hearts, so that they cannot understand.

¹⁹And no one considers in his heart,
Nor is there knowledge nor understanding to say,
“I have burned half of it in the fire,
Yes, I have also baked bread on its coals;
I have roasted meat and eaten it;
And shall I make the rest of it an abomination?
Shall I fall down before a block of wood?”

²⁰He feeds on ashes;
A deceived heart has turned him aside;
And he cannot deliver his soul,

Nor say, “Is there not a lie in my right hand?”

Israel Is Not Forgotten

²¹“Remember these, O Jacob,
And Israel, for you are My servant;
I have formed you, you are My servant;
O Israel, you will not be forgotten by Me!

²²I have blotted out, like a thick cloud, your transgressions,
And like a cloud, your sins.

Return to Me, for I have redeemed you.”

²³Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it!
Shout, you lower parts of the earth;
Break forth into singing, you mountains,
O forest, and every tree in it!
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,

And glorified Himself in Israel.

Judah Will Be Restored

²⁴Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
And He who formed you from the womb:
“I am the LORD, who makes all things,
Who stretches out the heavens all alone,
Who spreads abroad the earth by Myself;
²⁵Who frustrates the signs of the babblers,
And drives diviners mad;
Who turns wise men backward,
And makes their knowledge foolishness;
²⁶Who confirms the word of His servant,
And performs the counsel of His messengers;
Who says to Jerusalem, ‘You shall be inhabited,’
To the cities of Judah, ‘You shall be built,’
And I will raise up her waste places;
²⁷Who says to the deep, ‘Be dry!
And I will dry up your rivers’;
²⁸Who says of Cyrus, ‘He is My shepherd,
And he shall perform all My pleasure,
Saying to Jerusalem, “You shall be built,”

And to the temple, “Your foundation shall be laid.” ‘

Chapter 45

Cyrus, God's Instrument

¹“Thus says the LORD to His anointed,
To Cyrus, whose right hand I have held—
To subdue nations before him
And loose the armor of kings,
To open before him the double doors,
So that the gates will not be shut:

²I will go before you
And make the crooked places a straight;
I will break in pieces the gates of bronze
And cut the bars of iron.

³I will give you the treasures of darkness
And hidden riches of secret places,
That you may know that I, the LORD,
Who call you by your name,
Am the God of Israel.

⁴For Jacob My servant's sake,
And Israel My elect,
I have even called you by your name;
I have named you, though you have not known Me.

⁵I am the LORD, and there is no other;
There is no God besides Me.

I will gird you, though you have not known Me,

⁶That they may know from the rising of the sun to its setting

That there is none besides Me.

I am the LORD, and there is no other;
⁷I form the light and create darkness,
I make peace and create calamity;

I, the LORD, do all these things.'

⁸"Rain down, you heavens, from above,
And let the skies pour down righteousness;
Let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation,
And let righteousness spring up together.

I, the LORD, have created it.

⁹"Woe to him who strives with his Maker!
Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth!

Shall the clay say to him who forms it, 'What are you making?'

Or shall your handiwork say, 'He has no hands'?

¹⁰Woe to him who says to his father, 'What are you begetting?'

Or to the woman, 'What have you brought forth?' "

¹¹Thus says the LORD,
The Holy One of Israel, and his Maker:
"Ask Me of things to come concerning My sons;
And concerning the work of My hands, you command
Me.

¹²I have made the earth,
And created man on it.
I—My hands—stretched out the heavens,
And all their host I have commanded.

¹³I have raised him up in righteousness,
And I will direct all his ways;
He shall build My city

And let My exiles go free,
Not for price nor reward,”

Says the LORD of hosts.

The LORD, the Only Savior

¹⁴Thus says the LORD:

“The labor of Egypt and merchandise of Cush
And of the Sabeans, men of stature,
Shall come over to you, and they shall be yours;
They shall walk behind you,
They shall come over in chains;
And they shall bow down to you.

They will make supplication to you, saying, ‘Surely God is in you,
And there is no other;
There is no other God.’ ”

¹⁵Truly You are God, who hide Yourself,
O God of Israel, the Savior!

¹⁶They shall be ashamed
And also disgraced, all of them;
They shall go in confusion together,
Who are makers of idols.

¹⁷*But* Israel shall be saved by the LORD
With an everlasting salvation;
You shall not be ashamed or disgraced

Forever and ever.

¹⁸For thus says the LORD,
Who created the heavens,
Who is God,

Who formed the earth and made it,
Who has established it,
Who did not create it in vain,
Who formed it to be inhabited:
“I am the LORD, and there is no other.

¹⁹I have not spoken in secret,
In a dark place of the earth;
I did not say to the seed of Jacob,
‘Seek Me in vain’;
I, the LORD, speak righteousness,

I declare things that are right.

²⁰“Assemble yourselves and come;
Draw near together,
You who have escaped from the nations.
They have no knowledge,
Who carry the wood of their carved image,
And pray to a god that cannot save.

²¹Tell and bring forth your case;
Yes, let them take counsel together.
Who has declared this from ancient time?
Who has told it from that time?
Have not I, the LORD?
And there is no other God besides Me,
A just God and a Savior;

There is none besides Me.

²²“Look to Me, and be saved,
All you ends of the earth!
For I am God, and there is no other.

²³I have sworn by Myself;
The word has gone out of My mouth in
righteousness,
And shall not return,

That to Me every knee shall bow,
Every tongue shall take an oath.

²⁴He shall say,

‘Surely in the LORD I have righteousness and strength.

To Him men shall come,

And all shall be ashamed

Who are incensed against Him.

²⁵In the LORD all the descendants of Israel

Shall be justified, and shall glory.’ ”

Chapter 46

Dead Idols and the Living God

¹Bel bows down, Nebo stoops;
Their idols were on the beasts and on the cattle.
Your carriages were heavily loaded,
A burden to the weary beast.

²They stoop, they bow down together;
They could not deliver the burden,

But have themselves gone into captivity.

³"Listen to Me, O house of Jacob,
And all the remnant of the house of Israel,
Who have been upheld by Me from birth,
Who have been carried from the womb:

⁴Even to your old age, I am He,
And even to gray hairs I will carry you!
I have made, and I will bear;

Even I will carry, and will deliver you.

⁵"To whom will you liken Me, and make Me equal
And compare Me, that we should be alike?

⁶They lavish gold out of the bag,
And weigh silver on the scales;
They hire a goldsmith, and he makes it a god;
They prostrate themselves, yes, they worship.

⁷They bear it on the shoulder, they carry it
And set it in its place, and it stands;
From its place it shall not move.
Though one cries out to it, yet it cannot answer

Nor save him out of his trouble.

⁸“Remember this, and show yourselves men;
Recall to mind, O you transgressors.

⁹Remember the former things of old,
For I am God, and there is no other;
I am God, and there is none like Me,

¹⁰Declaring the end from the beginning,
And from ancient times things that are not yet done,
Saying, ‘My counsel shall stand,
And I will do all My pleasure,’

¹¹Calling a bird of prey from the east,
The man who executes My counsel, from a far country.

Indeed I have spoken it;
I will also bring it to pass.
I have purposed it;

I will also do it.

¹²“Listen to Me, you stubborn-hearted,
Who are far from righteousness:

¹³I bring My righteousness near, it shall not be far off;

My salvation shall not linger.
And I will place salvation in Zion,

For Israel My glory.

Chapter 47

The Humiliation of Babylon

¹“Come down and sit in the dust,
O virgin daughter of Babylon;
Sit on the ground without a throne,
O daughter of the Chaldeans!
For you shall no more be called
Tender and delicate.

²Take the millstones and grind meal.
Remove your veil,
Take off the skirt,
Uncover the thigh,
Pass through the rivers.

³Your nakedness shall be uncovered,
Yes, your shame will be seen;
I will take vengeance,

And I will not arbitrate with a man.”

⁴*As for* our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is His name,

The Holy One of Israel.

⁵“Sit in silence, and go into darkness,
O daughter of the Chaldeans;
For you shall no longer be called
The Lady of Kingdoms.

⁶I was angry with My people;
I have profaned My inheritance,
And given them into your hand.
You showed them no mercy;
On the elderly you laid your yoke very heavily.
⁷And you said, 'I shall be a lady forever,'
So that you did not take these things to heart,

Nor remember the latter end of them.

⁸"Therefore hear this now, you who are given to pleasures,

Who dwell securely,
Who say in your heart,
'I am, and there is no one else besides me;
I shall not sit as a widow,
Nor shall I know the loss of children';

⁹But these two things shall come to you
In a moment, in one day:
The loss of children, and widowhood.
They shall come upon you in their fullness
Because of the multitude of your sorceries,

For the great abundance of your enchantments.

¹⁰"For you have trusted in your wickedness;
You have said, 'No one sees me';
Your wisdom and your knowledge have warped you;
And you have said in your heart,
'I am, and there is no one else besides me.'

¹¹Therefore evil shall come upon you;
You shall not know from where it arises.
And trouble shall fall upon you;
You will not be able to put it off.
And desolation shall come upon you suddenly,

Which you shall not know.

¹²“Stand now with your enchantments
And the multitude of your sorceries,
In which you have labored from your youth—
Perhaps you will be able to profit,
Perhaps you will prevail.

¹³You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels;
Let now the astrologers, the stargazers,
And the monthly prognosticators
Stand up and save you
From what shall come upon you.

¹⁴Behold, they shall be as stubble,
The fire shall burn them;
They shall not deliver themselves
From the power of the flame;
It shall not be a coal to be warmed by,
Nor a fire to sit before!

¹⁵Thus shall they be to you
With whom you have labored,
Your merchants from your youth;
They shall wander each one to his quarter.

No one shall save you.

Chapter 48

Israel Refined for God's Glory

¹"Hear this, O house of Jacob,
Who are called by the name of Israel,
And have come forth from the wellsprings of Judah;
Who swear by the name of the LORD,
And make mention of the God of Israel,
But not in truth or in righteousness;

²For they call themselves after the holy city,
And lean on the God of Israel;

The LORD of hosts is His name:

³"I have declared the former things from the beginning;

They went forth from My mouth, and I caused them to hear it.

Suddenly I did them, and they came to pass.

⁴Because I knew that you were obstinate,
And your neck was an iron sinew,
And your brow bronze,

⁵Even from the beginning I have declared it to you;
Before it came to pass I proclaimed it to you,
Lest you should say, 'My idol has done them,
And my carved image and my molded image

Have commanded them.'

⁶“You have heard;
See all this.
And will you not declare it?
I have made you hear new things from this time,
Even hidden things, and you did not know them.
⁷They are created now and not from the beginning;
And before this day you have not heard them,
Lest you should say, ‘Of course I knew them.’
⁸Surely you did not hear,
Surely you did not know;
Surely from long ago your ear was not opened.
For I knew that you would deal very treacherously,

And were called a transgressor from the womb.

⁹“For My name’s sake I will defer My anger,
And for My praise I will restrain it from you,
So that I do not cut you off.
¹⁰Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver;
I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.
¹¹For My own sake, for My own sake, I will do it;
For how should My name be profaned?

And I will not give My glory to another.

God’s Ancient Plan to Redeem Israel

¹²“Listen to Me, O Jacob,
And Israel, My called:
I am He, I am the First,
I am also the Last.
¹³Indeed My hand has laid the foundation of the
earth,

And My right hand has stretched out the heavens;
When I call to them,

They stand up together.

¹⁴“All of you, assemble yourselves, and hear!
Who among them has declared these things?
The LORD loves him;
He shall do His pleasure on Babylon,
And His arm shall be against the Chaldeans.

¹⁵I, even I, have spoken;
Yes, I have called him,
I have brought him, and his way will prosper.

¹⁶“Come near to Me, hear this:
I have not spoken in secret from the beginning;
From the time that it was, I was there.
And now the Lord GOD and His Spirit

Have^a sent Me.”

¹⁷Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
The Holy One of Israel:
“I am the LORD your God,
Who teaches you to profit,
Who leads you by the way you should go.

¹⁸Oh, that you had heeded My commandments!
Then your peace would have been like a river,
And your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

¹⁹Your descendants also would have been like the sand,

And the offspring of your body like the grains of sand;

His name would not have been cut off

Nor destroyed from before Me.”

²⁰Go forth from Babylon!
Flee from the Chaldeans!
With a voice of singing,
Declare, proclaim this,
Utter it to the end of the earth;
Say, "The LORD has redeemed
His servant Jacob!"

²¹And they did not thirst
When He led them through the deserts;
He caused the waters to flow from the rock for them;

He also split the rock, and the waters gushed out.

²²"There is no peace," says the LORD, "for the wicked."

Chapter 49

The Servant, the Light to the Gentiles

¹“Listen, O coastlands, to Me,
And take heed, you peoples from afar!
The LORD has called Me from the womb;
From the matrix of My mother He has made mention of My name.

²And He has made My mouth like a sharp sword;
In the shadow of His hand He has hidden Me,
And made Me a polished shaft;

In His quiver He has hidden Me.”

³“And He said to me,

The Mission and Vision of a Leader

Isaiah 49:1-3

Leaders must give their lives to causes that count. They must sense that what they do matters to God. Only then will they feel deep satisfaction for their work. Isaiah speaks some incredible words about the Messiah’s mission as a Leader:

1. He was called from His mother’s womb (v. 1).

2. He was gifted with specific resources (v. 2).
3. He was protected supernaturally by God (v. 2).
4. He was given a particular divine mission (v. 2).
5. He was ordained to reflect God's glory (v. 3).

While any leader might well covet these descriptions, only in the life of the Messiah, God's servant sent from heaven to redeem earth, were they perfectly fulfilled. Yet they serve as a model for us as we pursue our God-given mission and vision.

'You are My servant, O Israel,
In whom I will be glorified.'

⁴Then I said, 'I have labored in vain,
I have spent my strength for nothing and in vain;
Yet surely my just reward is with the LORD,

And my work with my God.' "

⁵"And now the LORD says,
Who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant,
To bring Jacob back to Him,
So that Israel is gathered to Him^a
(For I shall be glorious in the eyes of the LORD,
And My God shall be My strength),

⁶Indeed He says,
'It is too small a thing that You should be My Servant
To raise up the tribes of Jacob,
And to restore the preserved ones of Israel;
I will also give You as a light to the Gentiles,

That You should be My salvation to the ends of the
earth.' "

⁷Thus says the LORD,
The Redeemer of Israel, their Holy One,

To Him whom man despises,
To Him whom the nation abhors,
To the Servant of rulers:
“Kings shall see and arise,
Princes also shall worship,
Because of the LORD who is faithful,
The Holy One of Israel;

And He has chosen You.”

⁸Thus says the LORD:

“In an acceptable time I have heard You,
And in the day of salvation I have helped You;
I will preserve You and give You
As a covenant to the people,
To restore the earth,
To cause them to inherit the desolate heritages;
⁹That You may say to the prisoners, ‘Go forth,’

To those who are in darkness, ‘Show yourselves.’

“They shall feed along the roads,
And their pastures shall be on all desolate heights.

¹⁰They shall neither hunger nor thirst,
Neither heat nor sun shall strike them;
For He who has mercy on them will lead them,
Even by the springs of water He will guide them.

¹¹I will make each of My mountains a road,
And My highways shall be elevated.

¹²Surely these shall come from afar;
Look! Those from the north and the west,

And these from the land of Sinim.”

¹³Sing, O heavens!
Be joyful, O earth!

And break out in singing, O mountains!
For the LORD has comforted His people,
And will have mercy on His afflicted.

God Will Remember Zion

¹⁴But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me,
And my Lord has forgotten me."

¹⁵"Can a woman forget her nursing child,
And not have compassion on the son of her womb?
Surely they may forget,
Yet I will not forget you.

¹⁶See, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands;

Your walls are continually before Me.

¹⁷Your sons ^a shall make haste;
Your destroyers and those who laid you waste
Shall go away from you.

¹⁸Lift up your eyes, look around and see;
All these gather together and come to you.
As I live," says the LORD,

"You shall surely clothe yourselves with them all as an ornament,

And bind them on you as a bride does.

¹⁹"For your waste and desolate places,
And the land of your destruction,
Will even now be too small for the inhabitants;
And those who swallowed you up will be far away.

²⁰The children you will have,
After you have lost the others,

Will say again in your ears,
'The place is too small for me;
Give me a place where I may dwell.'
²¹Then you will say in your heart,
'Who has begotten these for me,
Since I have lost my children and am desolate,
A captive, and wandering to and fro?
And who has brought these up?
There I was, left alone;

But these, where were they?' "
²²Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, I will lift My hand in an oath to the nations,
And set up My standard for the peoples;
They shall bring your sons in their arms,
And your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders;

²³Kings shall be your foster fathers,
And their queens your nursing mothers;
They shall bow down to you with their faces to the
earth,
And lick up the dust of your feet.
Then you will know that I am the LORD,

For they shall not be ashamed who wait for Me."

²⁴Shall the prey be taken from the mighty,

Or the captives of the righteous^a be delivered?

²⁵But thus says the LORD:

"Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away,
And the prey of the terrible be delivered;
For I will contend with him who contends with you,
And I will save your children.

²⁶I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh,

And they shall be drunk with their own blood as with sweet wine.

All flesh shall know

That I, the LORD, am your Savior,

And your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

Chapter 50

The Servant, Israel's Hope

¹Thus says the LORD:

“Where is the certificate of your mother's divorce,
Whom I have put away?
Or which of My creditors is it to whom I have sold
you?
For your iniquities you have sold yourselves,
And for your transgressions your mother has been put away.

²Why, when I came, was there no man?
Why, when I called, was there none to answer?
Is My hand shortened at all that it cannot redeem?
Or have I no power to deliver?
Indeed with My rebuke I dry up the sea,
I make the rivers a wilderness;
Their fish stink because there is no water,
And die of thirst.

³I clothe the heavens with blackness,

And I make sackcloth their covering.”

⁴“The Lord GOD has given Me
The tongue of the learned,
That I should know how to speak

A word in season to him who is weary.
He awakens Me morning by morning,
He awakens My ear
To hear as the learned.

⁵The Lord GOD has opened My ear;
And I was not rebellious,
Nor did I turn away.

⁶I gave My back to those who struck Me,
And My cheeks to those who plucked out the beard;

I did not hide My face from shame and spitting.

⁷“For the Lord GOD will help Me;
Therefore I will not be disgraced;
Therefore I have set My face like a flint,
And I know that I will not be ashamed.

⁸*He is* near who justifies Me;
Who will contend with Me?
Let us stand together.
Who is My adversary?
Let him come near Me.

⁹Surely the Lord GOD will help Me;
Who is he who will condemn Me?
Indeed they will all grow old like a garment;

The moth will eat them up.

¹⁰“Who among you fears the LORD?
Who obeys the voice of His Servant?
Who walks in darkness
And has no light?
Let him trust in the name of the LORD
And rely upon his God.

¹¹Look, all you who kindle a fire,
Who encircle yourselves with sparks:

Walk in the light of your fire and in the sparks you have kindled—

This you shall have from My hand:

You shall lie down in torment.

Chapter 51

The LORD Comforts Zion

¹“Listen to Me, you who follow after righteousness,
You who seek the LORD:
Look to the rock from which you were hewn,
And to the hole of the pit from which you were dug.

²Look to Abraham your father,
And to Sarah who bore you;
For I called him alone,

And blessed him and increased him.”

³For the LORD will comfort Zion,
He will comfort all her waste places;
He will make her wilderness like Eden,
And her desert like the garden of the LORD;
Joy and gladness will be found in it,

Thanksgiving and the voice of melody.

⁴“Listen to Me, My people;
And give ear to Me, O My nation:
For law will proceed from Me,
And I will make My justice rest
As a light of the peoples.

⁵My righteousness is near,
My salvation has gone forth,
And My arms will judge the peoples;

The coastlands will wait upon Me,
And on My arm they will trust.

⁶Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
And look on the earth beneath.
For the heavens will vanish away like smoke,
The earth will grow old like a garment,
And those who dwell in it will die in like manner;
But My salvation will be forever,

And My righteousness will not be abolished.

⁷"Listen to Me, you who know righteousness,
You people in whose heart is My law:
Do not fear the reproach of men,
Nor be afraid of their insults.

⁸For the moth will eat them up like a garment,
And the worm will eat them like wool;
But My righteousness will be forever,

And My salvation from generation to generation."

⁹Awake, awake, put on strength,
O arm of the LORD!
Awake as in the ancient days,
In the generations of old.
Are You not the arm that cut Rahab apart,

And wounded the serpent?

¹⁰*Are You not the One* who dried up the sea,
The waters of the great deep;
That made the depths of the sea a road
For the redeemed to cross over?

¹¹So the ransomed of the LORD shall return,
And come to Zion with singing,
With everlasting joy on their heads.

They shall obtain joy and gladness;

Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

¹²"I, even I, am He who comforts you.
Who are you that you should be afraid
Of a man who will die,
And of the son of a man who will be made like grass?

¹³And you forget the LORD your Maker,
Who stretched out the heavens
And laid the foundations of the earth;
You have feared continually every day
Because of the fury of the oppressor,
When he has prepared to destroy.
And where is the fury of the oppressor?

¹⁴The captive exile hastens, that he may be loosed,
That he should not die in the pit,
And that his bread should not fail.

¹⁵But I am the LORD your God,
Who divided the sea whose waves roared—
The LORD of hosts is His name.

¹⁶And I have put My words in your mouth;
I have covered you with the shadow of My hand,
That I may plant the heavens,
Lay the foundations of the earth,

And say to Zion, 'You are My people.' "

God's Fury Removed

¹⁷Awake, awake!
Stand up, O Jerusalem,
You who have drunk at the hand of the LORD

The cup of His fury;
You have drunk the dregs of the cup of trembling,
And drained it out.

¹⁸*There is* no one to guide her
Among all the sons she has brought forth;
Nor is there any who takes her by the hand
Among all the sons she has brought up.

¹⁹These two things have come to you;
Who will be sorry for you?—
Desolation and destruction, famine and sword—
By whom will I comfort you?

²⁰Your sons have fainted,
They lie at the head of all the streets,
Like an antelope in a net;
They are full of the fury of the LORD,

The rebuke of your God.

²¹Therefore please hear this, you afflicted,
And drunk but not with wine.

²²Thus says your Lord,
The LORD and your God,
Who pleads the cause of His people:
“See, I have taken out of your hand
The cup of trembling,
The dregs of the cup of My fury;
You shall no longer drink it.

²³But I will put it into the hand of those who afflict
you,

Who have said to you, a
‘Lie down, that we may walk over you.’
And you have laid your body like the ground,

And as the street, for those who walk over.”

Chapter 52

God Redeems Jerusalem

¹Awake, awake!
Put on your strength, O Zion;
Put on your beautiful garments,
O Jerusalem, the holy city!
For the uncircumcised and the unclean
Shall no longer come to you.
²Shake yourself from the dust, arise;
Sit down, O Jerusalem!
Loose yourself from the bonds of your neck,

O captive daughter of Zion!

³For thus says the LORD:

“You have sold yourselves for nothing,

And you shall be redeemed without money.”

⁴For thus says the Lord GOD:

“My people went down at first
Into Egypt to dwell there;
Then the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

⁵Now therefore, what have I here,” says the LORD,
“That My people are taken away for nothing?
Those who rule over them
Make them wail,”^a says the LORD,
“And My name is blasphemed continually every day.

⁶Therefore My people shall know My name;
Therefore they shall know in that day
That I am He who speaks:

‘Behold, it is I.’ ”

⁷How beautiful upon the mountains
Are the feet of him who brings good news,
Who proclaims peace,
Who brings glad tidings of good things,
Who proclaims salvation,
Who says to Zion,
“Your God reigns!”

⁸Your watchmen shall lift up their voices,
With their voices they shall sing together;
For they shall see eye to eye
When the LORD brings back Zion.

⁹Break forth into joy, sing together,
You waste places of Jerusalem!
For the LORD has comforted His people,
He has redeemed Jerusalem.

¹⁰The LORD has made bare His holy arm
In the eyes of all the nations;
And all the ends of the earth shall see

The salvation of our God.

¹¹Depart! Depart! Go out from there,
Touch no unclean thing;
Go out from the midst of her,
Be clean,
You who bear the vessels of the LORD.

¹²For you shall not go out with haste,
Nor go by flight;
For the LORD will go before you,

And the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

The Sin-Bearing Servant

¹³Behold, My Servant shall deal prudently;
He shall be exalted and extolled and be very high.

¹⁴Just as many were astonished at you,
So His visage was marred more than any man,
And His form more than the sons of men;

¹⁵So shall He sprinkle^a many nations.
Kings shall shut their mouths at Him;
For what had not been told them they shall see,

And what they had not heard they shall consider.

Chapter 53

¹Who has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

²For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant,
And as a root out of dry ground.
He has no form or comeliness;
And when we see Him,
There is no beauty that we should desire Him.

³He is despised and rejected by men,
A Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.
And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him;

He was despised, and we did not esteem Him.

⁴Surely He has borne our griefs
And carried our sorrows;
Yet we esteemed Him stricken,
Smitten by God, and afflicted.

⁵But He was wounded for our transgressions,
He was bruised for our iniquities;
The chastisement for our peace was upon Him,
And by His stripes we are healed.

⁶All we like sheep have gone astray;
We have turned, every one, to his own way;

And the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

⁷He was oppressed and He was afflicted,
Yet He opened not His mouth;
He was led as a lamb to the slaughter,

And as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
So He opened not His mouth.

⁸He was taken from prison and from judgment,
And who will declare His generation?
For He was cut off from the land of the living;
For the transgressions of My people He was stricken.
⁹And they^a made His grave with the wicked—
But with the rich at His death,
Because He had done no violence,

Nor was any deceit in His mouth.

¹⁰Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him;
He has put Him to grief.
When You make His soul an offering for sin,
He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days,
And the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in His hand.

¹¹He shall see the labor of His soul,^a and be satisfied.
By His knowledge My righteous Servant shall justify many,

For He shall bear their iniquities.

¹²Therefore I will divide Him a portion with the Servant Leadership Modeled by the Messiah

Isaiah 52:13-53:12

Beyond all question, Jesus Christ modeled the Law of Sacrifice. He gave up for a time the riches of heaven in order to fulfill his divinely ordained role on earth.

Isaiah 53 describes what is often called “the exchanged life.” Jesus took our sin, pain, and failures so we could have His righteousness, healing, and victory. While He offers this package to everyone, leaders have the opportunity to benefit from this sacrifice in a particularly tangible fashion.

Ponder for a moment what Christ gave up and what we obtain. Imagine what might happen if you were to implement the entire gift of redemption that Christ paid for on your behalf! He sacrificed greatly so that we might enjoy the following gifts:

His Sacrifice • Our Gain

Grief, infirmities, insecurities • Security and solid emotions

Sins and transgressions • Forgiveness from guilt

Sicknesses and diseases • Health and wholeness

Mental turmoil and pain • Peace of mind

Weaknesses • His strength

And He shall divide the spoil with the strong,
Because He poured out His soul unto death,
And He was numbered with the transgressors,
And He bore the sin of many,

And made intercession for the transgressors.

Chapter 54

A Perpetual Covenant of Peace

¹“Sing, O barren,
You who have not borne!
Break forth into singing, and cry aloud,
You who have not labored with child!
For more are the children of the desolate
Than the children of the married woman,” says the
LORD.

²“Enlarge the place of your tent,
And let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings;

Do not spare;
Lengthen your cords,
And strengthen your stakes.

³For you shall expand to the right and to the left,
And your descendants will inherit the nations,

And make the desolate cities inhabited.

⁴“Do not fear, for you will not be ashamed;
Neither be disgraced, for you will not be put to shame;

For you will forget the shame of your youth,
And will not remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore.

⁵For your Maker is your husband,

The LORD of hosts is His name;
And your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel;
He is called the God of the whole earth.

⁶For the LORD has called you
Like a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit,
Like a youthful wife when you were refused,"
Says your God.

⁷"For a mere moment I have forsaken you,
But with great mercies I will gather you.

⁸With a little wrath I hid My face from you for a moment;

But with everlasting kindness I will have mercy on you,"

Says the LORD, your Redeemer.

⁹"For this is like the waters of Noah to Me;
For as I have sworn
That the waters of Noah would no longer cover the earth,

So have I sworn
That I would not be angry with you, nor rebuke you.

¹⁰For the mountains shall depart
And the hills be removed,
But My kindness shall not depart from you,
Nor shall My covenant of peace be removed,"

Says the LORD, who has mercy on you.

¹¹"O you afflicted one,
Tossed with tempest, and not comforted,
Behold, I will lay your stones with colorful gems,
And lay your foundations with sapphires.

¹²I will make your pinnacles of rubies,
Your gates of crystal,
And all your walls of precious stones.

¹³All your children shall be taught by the LORD,
And great shall be the peace of your children.

¹⁴In righteousness you shall be established;
You shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear;

And from terror, for it shall not come near you.

¹⁵Indeed they shall surely assemble, but not because of Me.

Whoever assembles against you shall fall for your sake.

¹⁶"Behold, I have created the blacksmith
Who blows the coals in the fire,
Who brings forth an instrument for his work;
And I have created the spoiler to destroy.

¹⁷No weapon formed against you shall prosper,
And every tongue which rises against you in judgment

You shall condemn.

This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD,
And their righteousness is from Me,"

Says the LORD.

Chapter 55

An Invitation to Abundant Life

¹“Ho! Everyone who thirsts,
Come to the waters;
And you who have no money,
Come, buy and eat.

Yes, come, buy wine and milk
Without money and without price.

²Why do you spend money for what is not bread,
And your wages for what does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good,
And let your soul delight itself in abundance.

³Incline your ear, and come to Me.
Hear, and your soul shall live;
And I will make an everlasting covenant with you—
The sure mercies of David.

⁴Indeed I have given him as a witness to the people,
A leader and commander for the people.

⁵Surely you shall call a nation you do not know,
And nations who do not know you shall run to you,
Because of the LORD your God,
And the Holy One of Israel;

For He has glorified you.”

⁶Seek the LORD while He may be found,
Call upon Him while He is near.

⁷Let the wicked forsake his way,
And the unrighteous man his thoughts;
Let him return to the LORD,
And He will have mercy on him;
And to our God,

For He will abundantly pardon.

⁸“For My thoughts are not your thoughts,
Nor are your ways My ways,” says the LORD.

⁹“For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
So are My ways higher than your ways,

And My thoughts than your thoughts.

¹⁰“For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven,

And do not return there,
But water the earth,
And make it bring forth and bud,
That it may give seed to the sower
And bread to the eater,

¹¹So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth;

The Law of Victory: Leaders Communicate Until They See Results

Isaiah 55:1-11

Isaiah 55 offers the words of a great communicator. In this passage God invites everyone to participate in His offer to quench their thirst. He tries to convince His hearers that He alone can fulfill their desires and permanently meet their needs. Then He beckons them to seek Him while He may be found.

Verses 10-12 contain a marvelous promise. God says that just as the rain and snow fall from the sky and do not return without watering the earth, so His Word will also accomplish the goals He sets for it. God's Word will bear fruit. From these three simple verses, note how God evaluates good communication:

1. His Word will get results (v. 10).
2. His Word will furnish tools and resources (v. 10).
3. His Word will meet needs (v. 10).
4. His Word will perform His will (v. 11).
5. His Word will satisfy the soul of the hearers (v. 12).

How about you? Can you, as a leader, make those claims? How do you evaluate your communication? What fruit does your communication produce?

It shall not return to Me void,
But it shall accomplish what I please,

And it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.

¹²“For you shall go out with joy,
And be led out with peace;
The mountains and the hills
Shall break forth into singing before you,
And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

¹³Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress tree,

And instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree;

And it shall be to the LORD for a name,
For an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.”

Chapter 56

Salvation for the Gentiles

¹Thus says the LORD:

“Keep justice, and do righteousness,
For My salvation is about to come,
And My righteousness to be revealed.

²Blessed is the man who does this,
And the son of man who lays hold on it;
Who keeps from defiling the Sabbath,

And keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

³Do not let the son of the foreigner
Who has joined himself to the LORD
Speak, saying,

“The LORD has utterly separated me from His people”;

Nor let the eunuch say,
“Here I am, a dry tree.”

⁴For thus says the LORD:

“To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths,
And choose what pleases Me,
And hold fast My covenant,

⁵Even to them I will give in My house
And within My walls a place and a name

Better than that of sons and daughters;
I will give them ^a an everlasting name

That shall not be cut off.

⁶“Also the sons of the foreigner
Who join themselves to the LORD, to serve Him,
And to love the name of the LORD, to be His servants

Everyone who keeps from defiling the Sabbath,
And holds fast My covenant—
⁷Even them I will bring to My holy mountain,
And make them joyful in My house of prayer.
Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices
Will be accepted on My altar;
For My house shall be called a house of prayer for all
nations.”

⁸The Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says,

“Yet I will gather to him

Others besides those who are gathered to him.”

Israel’s Irresponsible Leaders

⁹All you beasts of the field, come to devour,
All you beasts in the forest.

¹⁰His watchmen are blind,
They are all ignorant;
They are all dumb dogs,
They cannot bark;
Sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

¹¹Yes, they are greedy dogs

Which never have enough.
And they are shepherds
Who cannot understand;
They all look to their own way,
Every one for his own gain,
From his own territory.
¹²“Come,” one says, “I will bring wine,
And we will fill ourselves with intoxicating drink;
Tomorrow will be as today,

And much more abundant.”

Chapter 57

Israel's Futile Idolatry

¹The righteous perishes,
And no man takes it to heart;
Merciful men are taken away,
While no one considers
That the righteous is taken away from evil.

²He shall enter into peace;
They shall rest in their beds,

Each one walking in his uprightness.

³"But come here,
You sons of the sorceress,
You offspring of the adulterer and the harlot!

⁴Whom do you ridicule?
Against whom do you make a wide mouth
And stick out the tongue?

Are you not children of transgression,
Offspring of falsehood,

⁵Inflaming yourselves with gods under every green tree,

Slaying the children in the valleys,
Under the clefts of the rocks?

⁶Among the smooth stones of the stream
Is your portion;
They, they, are your lot!

Even to them you have poured a drink offering,
You have offered a grain offering.
Should I receive comfort in these?

⁷“On a lofty and high mountain
You have set your bed;
Even there you went up
To offer sacrifice.

⁸Also behind the doors and their posts
You have set up your remembrance;
For you have uncovered yourself to those other than
Me,

And have gone up to them;
You have enlarged your bed
And made a covenant with them;
You have loved their bed,
Where you saw their nudity.^a

⁹You went to the king with ointment,
And increased your perfumes;
You sent your messengers far off,
And even descended to Sheol.

¹⁰You are wearied in the length of your way;
Yet you did not say, ‘There is no hope.’
You have found the life of your hand;

Therefore you were not grieved.

¹¹“And of whom have you been afraid, or feared,
That you have lied
And not remembered Me,
Nor taken it to your heart?
Is it not because I have held My peace from of old
That you do not fear Me?

¹²I will declare your righteousness
And your works,
For they will not profit you.

¹³When you cry out,
Let your collection of idols deliver you.
But the wind will carry them all away,
A breath will take them.
But he who puts his trust in Me shall possess the
land,

And shall inherit My holy mountain.”

Healing for the Backslider

¹⁴And one shall say,
“Heap it up! Heap it up!
Prepare the way,

Take the stumbling block out of the way of My people.”

¹⁵For thus says the High and Lofty One
Who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy:
“I dwell in the high and holy place,
With him who has a contrite and humble spirit,
To revive the spirit of the humble,
And to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

¹⁶For I will not contend forever,
Nor will I always be angry;
For the spirit would fail before Me,
And the souls which I have made.

¹⁷For the iniquity of his covetousness
I was angry and struck him;
I hid and was angry,
And he went on backsliding in the way of his heart.

¹⁸I have seen his ways, and will heal him;

I will also lead him,
And restore comforts to him

And to his mourners.

¹⁹“I create the fruit of the lips:
Peace, peace to him who is far off and to him who is near,”

Says the LORD,
“And I will heal him.”

²⁰But the wicked are like the troubled sea,
When it cannot rest,

Whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

²¹“There is no peace,”

Says my God, “for the wicked.”

Chapter 58

Fasting that Pleases God

Lift up your voice like a trumpet;
Tell My people their transgression,
And the house of Jacob their sins.

²Yet they seek Me daily,
And delight to know My ways,
As a nation that did righteousness,
And did not forsake the ordinance of their God.
They ask of Me the ordinances of justice;
They take delight in approaching God.

³“Why have we fasted,” they say, “and You have not seen?”

Why have we afflicted our souls, and You take no notice?”

“In fact, in the day of your fast you find pleasure,
And exploit all your laborers.

⁴Indeed you fast for strife and debate,
And to strike with the fist of wickedness.
You will not fast as you do this day,
To make your voice heard on high.

⁵Is it a fast that I have chosen,
A day for a man to afflict his soul?
Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush,

And to spread out sackcloth and ashes?
Would you call this a fast,

And an acceptable day to the LORD?

⁶“Is this not the fast that I have chosen:
To loose the bonds of wickedness,
To undo the heavy burdens,
To let the oppressed go free,
And that you break every yoke?

⁷*Is it* not to share your bread with the hungry,
And that you bring to your house the poor who are cast out;

When you see the naked, that you cover him,
And not hide yourself from your own flesh?

⁸Then your light shall break forth like the morning,
Your healing shall spring forth speedily,
And your righteousness shall go before you;
The glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.

⁹Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer;

You shall cry, and He will say, ‘Here I am.’

“If you take away the yoke from your midst,
The pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness,

¹⁰*If* you extend your soul to the hungry
And satisfy the afflicted soul,
Then your light shall dawn in the darkness,
And your darkness shall be as the noonday.

¹¹The LORD will guide you continually,
And satisfy your soul in drought,
And strengthen your bones;
You shall be like a watered garden,
And like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail.

¹²Those from among you
Shall build the old waste places;

You shall raise up the foundations of many generations;

And you shall be called the Repairer of the Breach,

The Restorer of Streets to Dwell In.

¹³“If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath,
From doing your pleasure on My holy day,

And call the Sabbath a delight,

The holy day of the LORD honorable,

And shall honor Him, not doing your own ways,

Nor finding your own pleasure,

Nor speaking your own words,

¹⁴Then you shall delight yourself in the LORD;

Leadership Must Reflect God's Values and Ethics

Isaiah 58:1-14

The practice of fasting goes much deeper than the act of going without food. God declares that He delights not merely in His people going without some daily staples, but in loosing the “bonds of wickedness” and undoing “heavy burdens” of those they have oppressed (Is. 58:6).

Leaders would do well to learn from these words. God is calling us to live from His set of values and ethics. Fasting is fine and good—and these days we don't do it enough—but to fast while continuing to harbor destructive thoughts and oppressive attitudes does not reflect godly leadership. Ethics supply the foundation for our values. Values supply the power that drives our leadership. Consider what God expects from the “fasted life”:

1. Liberate those who are oppressed (v. 6).
2. Share resources with the needy (v. 7).
3. Provide shelter to the homeless (v. 7).
4. Supply clothing to the naked (v. 7).
5. Stop accusing and judging others (v. 9).

And I will cause you to ride on the high hills of the earth,

And feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father.

The mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

Chapter 59

Separated from God

¹Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened,
That it cannot save;
Nor His ear heavy,
That it cannot hear.

²But your iniquities have separated you from your
God;

And your sins have hidden His face from you,
So that He will not hear.

³For your hands are defiled with blood,
And your fingers with iniquity;
Your lips have spoken lies,

Your tongue has muttered perversity.

⁴No one calls for justice,
Nor does any plead for truth.
They trust in empty words and speak lies;
They conceive evil and bring forth iniquity.

⁵They hatch vipers' eggs and weave the spider's web;

He who eats of their eggs dies,

And from that which is crushed a viper breaks out.

⁶Their webs will not become garments,
Nor will they cover themselves with their works;

Their works are works of iniquity,
And the act of violence is in their hands.
⁷Their feet run to evil,
And they make haste to shed innocent blood;
Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity;
Wasting and destruction are in their paths.
⁸The way of peace they have not known,
And there is no justice in their ways;
They have made themselves crooked paths;

Whoever takes that way shall not know peace.

Sin Confessed

⁹Therefore justice is far from us,
Nor does righteousness overtake us;
We look for light, but there is darkness!
For brightness, but we walk in blackness!
¹⁰We grope for the wall like the blind,
And we grope as if we had no eyes;
We stumble at noonday as at twilight;
We are as dead men in desolate places.
¹¹We all growl like bears,
And moan sadly like doves;
We look for justice, but there is none;
For salvation, but it is far from us.
¹²For our transgressions are multiplied before You,
And our sins testify against us;
For our transgressions are with us,
And as for our iniquities, we know them:
¹³In transgressing and lying against the LORD,
And departing from our God,
Speaking oppression and revolt,

Conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

¹⁴Justice is turned back,
And righteousness stands afar off;
For truth is fallen in the street,
And equity cannot enter.

¹⁵So truth fails,

And he who departs from evil makes himself a prey.

The Redeemer of Zion

Then the LORD saw it, and it displeased Him

That there was no justice.

¹⁶He saw that there was no man,
And wondered that there was no intercessor;
Therefore His own arm brought salvation for Him;
And His own righteousness, it sustained Him.

¹⁷For He put on righteousness as a breastplate,
And a helmet of salvation on His head;
He put on the garments of vengeance for clothing,
And was clad with zeal as a cloak.

¹⁸According to their deeds, accordingly He will repay,

Fury to His adversaries,
Recompense to His enemies;
The coastlands He will fully repay.

¹⁹So shall they fear
The name of the LORD from the west,
And His glory from the rising of the sun;
When the enemy comes in like a flood,

The Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him.

²⁰“The Redeemer will come to Zion,
And to those who turn from transgression in Jacob,”

Says the LORD.

²¹“As for Me,” says the LORD, “this is My covenant with them: My Spirit who is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your descendants, nor from the mouth of your descendants’ descendants,” says the LORD, “from this time and forevermore.”

Chapter 60

The Gentiles Bless Zion

¹Arise, shine;
For your light has come!
And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you.

²For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth,
And deep darkness the people;
But the LORD will arise over you,
And His glory will be seen upon you.

³The Gentiles shall come to your light,

And kings to the brightness of your rising.

⁴"Lift up your eyes all around, and see:
They all gather together, they come to you;
Your sons shall come from afar,
And your daughters shall be nursed at your side.

⁵Then you shall see and become radiant,
And your heart shall swell with joy;
Because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to
you,

The wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you.

⁶The multitude of camels shall cover your land,
The dromedaries of Midian and Ephah;
All those from Sheba shall come;
They shall bring gold and incense,
And they shall proclaim the praises of the LORD.

⁷All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you,

The rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you;
They shall ascend with acceptance on My altar,

And I will glorify the house of My glory.

⁸“Who are these who fly like a cloud,
And like doves to their roosts?

⁹Surely the coastlands shall wait for Me;
And the ships of Tarshish will come first,
To bring your sons from afar,
Their silver and their gold with them,
To the name of the LORD your God,
And to the Holy One of Israel,

Because He has glorified you.

¹⁰“The sons of foreigners shall build up your walls,
And their kings shall minister to you;
For in My wrath I struck you,
But in My favor I have had mercy on you.

¹¹Therefore your gates shall be open continually;
They shall not be shut day or night,
That men may bring to you the wealth of the Gentiles,

And their kings in procession.

¹²For the nation and kingdom which will not serve you shall perish,

And those nations shall be utterly ruined.

¹³“The glory of Lebanon shall come to you,
The cypress, the pine, and the box tree together,
To beautify the place of My sanctuary;
And I will make the place of My feet glorious.

¹⁴Also the sons of those who afflicted you
Shall come bowing to you,
And all those who despised you shall fall prostrate at the soles of your feet;
And they shall call you The City of the LORD,

Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵“Whereas you have been forsaken and hated,
So that no one went through you,
I will make you an eternal excellence,
A joy of many generations.

¹⁶You shall drink the milk of the Gentiles,
And milk the breast of kings;
You shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior

And your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

¹⁷“Instead of bronze I will bring gold,
Instead of iron I will bring silver,
Instead of wood, bronze,
And instead of stones, iron.
I will also make your officers peace,
And your magistrates righteousness.

¹⁸Violence shall no longer be heard in your land,
Neither wasting nor destruction within your borders;
But you shall call your walls Salvation,

And your gates Praise.

God the Glory of His People

¹⁹“The sun shall no longer be your light by day,
Nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you;
But the LORD will be to you an everlasting light,
And your God your glory.

²⁰Your sun shall no longer go down,
Nor shall your moon withdraw itself;
For the LORD will be your everlasting light,
And the days of your mourning shall be ended.

²¹Also your people shall all be righteous;
They shall inherit the land forever,
The branch of My planting,
The work of My hands,
That I may be glorified.

²²A little one shall become a thousand,
And a small one a strong nation.

I, the LORD, will hasten it in its time.”

Chapter 61

The Good News of Salvation

¹“The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me,
Because the LORD has anointed Me
To preach good tidings to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives,
And the opening of the prison to those who are bound;
²To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD,
And the day of vengeance of our God;
To comfort all who mourn,
³To console those who mourn in Zion,

The Purpose of God’s Anointing

Isaiah 61:1-3

What does God call His anointed Leader to do? Isaiah describes how God’s Servant comes to preach good tidings to the poor, to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord. God is the One who anoints, who prepares His leaders for service. But what is the purpose of the anointing?

God anoints leaders to enable them to speak the supernatural words and perform the supernatural tasks He has called them to do. Consider the purposes of God's anointing, according to Isaiah:

1. To supernaturally enable men and women to perform their ministries
2. To bring hope and good news to the afflicted

3. To heal the brokenhearted

4. To proclaim liberty to the captives

5. To set prisoners free

6. To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord

7. To announce the day of God's vengeance and justice

8. To comfort all who mourn

9. To furnish beauty for those who have lost it

10. To provide happiness and a glad heart

11. To supply an opportunity to praise God's name

12. To glorify the Lord and not man

To give them beauty for ashes,
The oil of joy for mourning,
The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;
That they may be called trees of righteousness,

The planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified.”

⁴And they shall rebuild the old ruins,
They shall raise up the former desolations,
And they shall repair the ruined cities,
The desolations of many generations.

⁵Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks,
And the sons of the foreigner
Shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

⁶But you shall be named the priests of the LORD,
They shall call you the servants of our God.
You shall eat the riches of the Gentiles,
And in their glory you shall boast.

⁷Instead of your shame you shall have double honor,
And instead of confusion they shall rejoice in their portion.

Therefore in their land they shall possess double;

Everlasting joy shall be theirs.

⁸“For I, the LORD, love justice;
I hate robbery for burnt offering;
I will direct their work in truth,

And will make with them an everlasting covenant.

⁹Their descendants shall be known among the Gentiles,

And their offspring among the people.

All who see them shall acknowledge them,

That they are the posterity whom the LORD has blessed."

¹⁰I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,

My soul shall be joyful in my God;

For He has clothed me with the garments of salvation,

He has covered me with the robe of righteousness,

As a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments,

And as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

¹¹For as the earth brings forth its bud,

As the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth,

So the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Chapter 62

Assurance of Zion's Salvation

¹For Zion's sake I will not hold My peace,
And for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
Until her righteousness goes forth as brightness,
And her salvation as a lamp that burns.

²The Gentiles shall see your righteousness,
And all kings your glory.
You shall be called by a new name,
Which the mouth of the LORD will name.

³You shall also be a crown of glory
In the hand of the LORD,
And a royal diadem
In the hand of your God.

⁴You shall no longer be termed Forsaken,
Nor shall your land any more be termed Desolate;
But you shall be called Hephzibah,^a and your land
Beulah;^b

For the LORD delights in you,
And your land shall be married.

⁵For as a young man marries a virgin,
So shall your sons marry you;
And as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,

So shall your God rejoice over you.

⁶I have set watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem;

They shall never hold their peace day or night.
You who make mention of the LORD, do not keep silent,

⁷And give Him no rest till He establishes

And till He makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

⁸The LORD has sworn by His right hand
And by the arm of His strength:

“Surely I will no longer give your grain
As food for your enemies;

And the sons of the foreigner shall not drink your new wine,

For which you have labored.

⁹But those who have gathered it shall eat it,
And praise the LORD;

Those who have brought it together shall drink it in My holy courts.”

¹⁰Go through,
Go through the gates!
Prepare the way for the people;
Build up,
Build up the highway!
Take out the stones,

Lift up a banner for the peoples!

¹¹Indeed the LORD has proclaimed
To the end of the world:

“Say to the daughter of Zion,
‘Surely your salvation is coming;
Behold, His reward is with Him,
And His work before Him.’ ”

¹²And they shall call them The Holy People,

The Redeemed of the LORD;
And you shall be called Sought Out,
A City Not Forsaken.

Chapter 63

The LORD in Judgment and Salvation

¹Who is this who comes from Edom,
With dyed garments from Bozrah,
This One who is glorious in His apparel,

Traveling in the greatness of His strength?—

“I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save.”

²Why is Your apparel red,

And Your garments like one who treads in the winepress?

³“I have trodden the winepress alone,
And from the peoples no one was with Me.
For I have trodden them in My anger,
And trampled them in My fury;
Their blood is sprinkled upon My garments,
And I have stained all My robes.

⁴For the day of vengeance is in My heart,
And the year of My redeemed has come.

⁵I looked, but there was no one to help,
And I wondered
That there was no one to uphold;
Therefore My own arm brought salvation for Me;
And My own fury, it sustained Me.

⁶I have trodden down the peoples in My anger,
Made them drunk in My fury,

And brought down their strength to the earth.”

God’s Mercy Remembered

⁷I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD
And the praises of the LORD,
According to all that the LORD has bestowed on us,
And the great goodness toward the house of Israel,
Which He has bestowed on them according to His mercies,

According to the multitude of His lovingkindnesses.

⁸For He said, “Surely they are My people,
Children who will not lie.”

So He became their Savior.

⁹In all their affliction He was afflicted,
And the Angel of His Presence saved them;
In His love and in His pity He redeemed them;
And He bore them and carried them
All the days of old.

¹⁰But they rebelled and grieved His Holy Spirit;
So He turned Himself against them as an enemy,

And He fought against them.

¹¹Then he remembered the days of old,
Moses and his people, saying:
“Where is He who brought them up out of the sea
With the shepherd of His flock?

Where is He who put His Holy Spirit within them,

¹²Who led them by the right hand of Moses,

With His glorious arm,
Dividing the water before them
To make for Himself an everlasting name,
¹³Who led them through the deep,
As a horse in the wilderness,

That they might not stumble?"

¹⁴As a beast goes down into the valley,

Daring Courage Comes from Deep Conviction

Isaiah 63:11-14

Isaiah recalls that Moses received his courage from his God-given convictions. Moses' relationship with God came first; next came a foundation of convictions; and finally the courage to lead others without compromise. Popularity with God controlled Moses' life, not popularity with people.

*And the Spirit of the LORD causes him to rest,
So You lead Your people,*

To make Yourself a glorious name.

A Prayer of Penitence

¹⁵Look down from heaven,
And see from Your habitation, holy and glorious.

Where are Your zeal and Your strength,
The yearning of Your heart and Your mercies toward
me?

Are they restrained?

¹⁶Doubtless You are our Father,
Though Abraham was ignorant of us,
And Israel does not acknowledge us.

You, O LORD, are our Father;
Our Redeemer from Everlasting is Your name.

¹⁷O LORD, why have You made us stray from Your ways,

And hardened our heart from Your fear?

Return for Your servants' sake,
The tribes of Your inheritance.

¹⁸Your holy people have possessed it but a little while;

Our adversaries have trodden down Your sanctuary.

¹⁹We have become like those of old, over whom You never ruled,

Those who were never called by Your name.

Chapter 64

¹Oh, that You would rend the heavens!
That You would come down!
That the mountains might shake at Your presence—

²As fire burns brushwood,
As fire causes water to boil—
To make Your name known to Your adversaries,
That the nations may tremble at Your presence!

³When You did awesome things for which we did not look,

You came down,
The mountains shook at Your presence.

⁴For since the beginning of the world
Men have not heard nor perceived by the ear,
Nor has the eye seen any God besides You,
Who acts for the one who waits for Him.

⁵You meet him who rejoices and does righteousness,
Who remembers You in Your ways.
You are indeed angry, for we have sinned—
In these ways we continue;

And we need to be saved.

⁶But we are all like an unclean thing,
And all our righteousnesses are like filthy rags;
We all fade as a leaf,
And our iniquities, like the wind,
Have taken us away.

⁷And there is no one who calls on Your name,
Who stirs himself up to take hold of You;
For You have hidden Your face from us,

And have consumed us because of our iniquities.

⁸But now, O LORD,
You are our Father;
We are the clay, and You our potter;
And all we are the work of Your hand.

⁹Do not be furious, O LORD,
Nor remember iniquity forever;
Indeed, please look—we all are Your people!

¹⁰Your holy cities are a wilderness,
Zion is a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.

¹¹Our holy and beautiful temple,
Where our fathers praised You,
Is burned up with fire;
And all our pleasant things are laid waste.

¹²Will You restrain Yourself because of these things,
O LORD?

Will You hold Your peace, and afflict us very severely?

Chapter 65

The Righteousness of God's Judgment

¹"I was sought by those who did not ask for Me;
I was found by those who did not seek Me.
I said, 'Here I am, here I am,'

To a nation that was not called by My name.

²I have stretched out My hands all day long to a rebellious people,

Who walk in a way that is not good,
According to their own thoughts;

³A people who provoke Me to anger continually to My face;

Who sacrifice in gardens,
And burn incense on altars of brick;

⁴Who sit among the graves,
And spend the night in the tombs;

Who eat swine's flesh,
And the broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

⁵Who say, 'Keep to yourself,
Do not come near me,
For I am holier than you!'
These are smoke in My nostrils,

A fire that burns all the day.

⁶"Behold, it is written before Me:

I will not keep silence, but will repay—
Even repay into their bosom—

⁷Your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers together,”

Says the LORD,
“Who have burned incense on the mountains
And blasphemed Me on the hills;

Therefore I will measure their former work into their bosom.”

⁸Thus says the LORD:

“As the new wine is found in the cluster,
And one says, ‘Do not destroy it,
For a blessing is in it,’
So will I do for My servants’ sake,
That I may not destroy them all.

⁹I will bring forth descendants from Jacob,
And from Judah an heir of My mountains;
My elect shall inherit it,
And My servants shall dwell there.

¹⁰Sharon shall be a fold of flocks,
And the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down,

For My people who have sought Me.

¹¹“But you are those who forsake the LORD,
Who forget My holy mountain,
Who prepare a table for Gad,^a
And who furnish a drink offering for Meni.^b

¹²Therefore I will number you for the sword,
And you shall all bow down to the slaughter;
Because, when I called, you did not answer;
When I spoke, you did not hear,
But did evil before My eyes,

And chose that in which I do not delight.”
¹³Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

“Behold, My servants shall eat,
But you shall be hungry;
Behold, My servants shall drink,
But you shall be thirsty;
Behold, My servants shall rejoice,
But you shall be ashamed;

¹⁴Behold, My servants shall sing for joy of heart,
But you shall cry for sorrow of heart,
And wail for grief of spirit.

¹⁵You shall leave your name as a curse to My chosen;
For the Lord GOD will slay you,
And call His servants by another name;

¹⁶So that he who blesses himself in the earth
Shall bless himself in the God of truth;
And he who swears in the earth
Shall swear by the God of truth;
Because the former troubles are forgotten,

And because they are hidden from My eyes.

The Glorious New Creation

¹⁷“For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth;

And the former shall not be remembered or come to mind.

¹⁸But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create;
For behold, I create Jerusalem as a rejoicing,
And her people a joy.

¹⁹I will rejoice in Jerusalem,

And joy in My people;
The voice of weeping shall no longer be heard in her,
Nor the voice of crying.

²⁰“No more shall an infant from there live but a few days,
Nor an old man who has not fulfilled his days;
For the child shall die one hundred years old,
But the sinner being one hundred years old shall be accursed.

²¹They shall build houses and inhabit them;
They shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

²²They shall not build and another inhabit;
They shall not plant and another eat;
For as the days of a tree, so shall be the days of My people,

And My elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

²³They shall not labor in vain,
Nor bring forth children for trouble;
For they shall be the descendants of the blessed of the LORD,

And their offspring with them.

²⁴“It shall come to pass
That before they call, I will answer;
And while they are still speaking, I will hear.

²⁵The wolf and the lamb shall feed together,
The lion shall eat straw like the ox,
And dust shall be the serpent’s food.
They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain,”

Says the LORD.

Chapter 66

True Worship and False

¹Thus says the LORD:

“Heaven is My throne,
And earth is My footstool.
Where is the house that you will build Me?
And where is the place of My rest?

²For all those things My hand has made,
And all those things exist,”
Says the LORD.

“But on this one will I look:
On him who is poor and of a contrite spirit,

And who trembles at My word.

³“He who kills a bull is as if he slays a man;
He who sacrifices a lamb, as if he breaks a dog’s neck;

He who offers a grain offering, as if he offers swine’s blood;

He who burns incense, as if he blesses an idol.
Just as they have chosen their own ways,
And their soul delights in their abominations,

⁴So will I choose their delusions,
And bring their fears on them;

Because, when I called, no one answered,
When I spoke they did not hear;
But they did evil before My eyes,

And chose that in which I do not delight.”

The LORD Vindicates Zion

⁵Hear the word of the LORD,
You who tremble at His word:
“Your brethren who hated you,
Who cast you out for My name’s sake, said,
‘Let the LORD be glorified,
That we may see your joy.’

But they shall be ashamed.”

⁶The sound of noise from the city!
A voice from the temple!
The voice of the LORD,

Who fully repays His enemies!

⁷“Before she was in labor, she gave birth;
Before her pain came,
She delivered a male child.

⁸Who has heard such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day?
Or shall a nation be born at once?
For as soon as Zion was in labor,
She gave birth to her children.

⁹Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery?" says the LORD.

"Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb?" says your God.

¹⁰"Rejoice with Jerusalem,
And be glad with her, all you who love her;
Rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn for her;
¹¹That you may feed and be satisfied
With the consolation of her bosom,
That you may drink deeply and be delighted

With the abundance of her glory."
¹²For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river,
And the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream.
Then you shall feed;
On her sides shall you be carried,
And be dandled on her knees.
¹³As one whom his mother comforts,
So I will comfort you;

And you shall be comforted in Jerusalem."

The Reign and Indignation of God

¹⁴When you see this, your heart shall rejoice,
And your bones shall flourish like grass;
The hand of the LORD shall be known to His servants,
And His indignation to His enemies.

¹⁵For behold, the LORD will come with fire
And with His chariots, like a whirlwind,
To render His anger with fury,
And His rebuke with flames of fire.

¹⁶For by fire and by His sword
The LORD will judge all flesh;

And the slain of the LORD shall be many.

¹⁷“Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves,

To go to the gardens
After an idol in the midst,
Eating swine’s flesh and the abomination and the mouse,

Shall be consumed together,” says the LORD.

¹⁸“For I know their works and their thoughts. It shall be that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and see My glory. ¹⁹“I will set a sign among them; and those among them who escape I will send to the nations: to Tarshish and Pul^a and Lud, who draw the bow, and Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands afar off who have not heard My fame nor seen My glory. And they shall declare My glory among the Gentiles. ²⁰“Then they shall bring all your brethren for an offering to the LORD out of all nations, on horses and in chariots and in litters, on mules and on camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem,” says the LORD, “as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. ²¹“And I will also take some of them for priests and Levites,” says the LORD.

²²“For as the new heavens and the new earth
Which I will make shall remain before Me,” says the
LORD,

“So shall your descendants and your name remain.

²³And it shall come to pass

That from one New Moon to another,

And from one Sabbath to another,

All flesh shall come to worship before Me,” says the LORD.

²⁴“And they shall go forth and look

Upon the corpses of the men

Who have transgressed against Me.

For their worm does not die,

And their fire is not quenched.

They shall be an abhorrence to all flesh.”

The Book of Jeremiah

Introduction to Jeremiah

Without question the prophet Jeremiah received one of the toughest assignments of any leader in the Old Testament. God called him to lead a stubborn people, then informed him that the people would not follow his lead (7:27, 28).

Jeremiah was born toward the end of the reign of King Josiah, the last good king of Judah. The prophet's leadership came at a time of moral, political, and religious decline, ending in the Babylonian exile. God called Jeremiah as a youth and immediately began to prepare him to serve as a prophet to the nations. He was a priest called to prophetic service at a most unhappy time.

God directed Jeremiah to deliver a hard message, a message of critical evaluation rather than of salvation. He was to call the people to change and repentance, to raise the standard they had dropped, and to call them to recapture their values and heritage. Think of him as a new C.E.O., called in to turn around a failing organization—only Jeremiah had a country to overhaul, not a mere corporation. He couldn't fire anyone; and in fact, those he attempted to influence rejected him. Jeremiah led the Hebrews during tough times, yet he never lost his vision.

We understand Jeremiah's personality more thoroughly than any other prophet. He clung tenaciously to his assigned task through long years of rejection and persecution, and still stands as a tribute to God's grace and the mettle of a strong leader. What's more, we call Jeremiah "the weeping prophet" because he shed so many tears over the hardness of his people and the severity of their judgment.

This embattled leader embraced core convictions, yet never lost his compassion. His heart didn't grow cold and crusty, despite the calloused hearts of his listeners. He continued to invest himself in his cause even though the people considered him a meddler and a traitor. Jewish men, nobles, and kings all tried to assassinate him at one time or another. While God warned Jeremiah from the start that the masses would reject his leadership, he continued to set the pace for what was right.

A Call to Change and Repentance

God's Role in Jeremiah

Jeremiah learned early to rely on God for sustaining grace. In chapter one, God tells him that even before his body took shape in his mother's womb, the Lord had ordained him as a prophet to the nations—to pluck up, tear down, and build again. Several times during his career, Jeremiah determined to quit, but God reminded him of the vision and strengthened him. This divine call became the very reason Jeremiah remained true to his task.

At one point, the prophet likened God's word to an inner fire that would consume him if he didn't continue to speak. Jeremiah provides an example of a leader who continued in tough times through the supernatural work of God. Divine conviction drove him, along with a divine compassion and a divine call.

Lessons in Leadership

- God's calling of a leader matches His empowerment.
- Leaders must expect criticism and sometimes must confront.
- Leaders must not only endure change, but create it.
- Effective leaders identify with the sins and failures of their people.
- Leaders can be compared to both watchmen and shepherds.
- Great leaders never lose their ability to empathize.
- Successful leaders find memorable and creative ways to communicate truth.
- Leaders must cling to their God-given vision even when the people stray.

Chapter 1

¹The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, ²to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. ³It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

The Prophet Is Called

⁴Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

⁵“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you;
Before you were born I sanctified you;

I ordained you a prophet to the nations.”

⁶Then said I:

“Ah, Lord GOD!

Behold, I cannot speak, for I am a youth.”

⁷But the LORD said to me:

“Do not say, ‘I am a youth,’
For you shall go to all to whom I send you,

And whatever I command you, you shall speak.

⁸Do not be afraid of their faces,

For I am with you to deliver you,” says the LORD.

⁹Then the LORD put forth His hand and touched my mouth, and the LORD said to me:

“Behold, I have put My words in your mouth.

¹⁰See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms,

God’s Call and Empowerment Match

Jeremiah 1:4-10

Jeremiah’s call to become a prophet to the nations came early in his life—and it scared him terribly. Why? He failed to see that God’s call and His empowerment always match. When God calls you to do something, He always provides the empowerment to fulfill that calling.

If God calls you, heed the call. He will also give you the resources to accomplish the work. But if He hasn’t called you, don’t conjure up some self-appointment. If He doesn’t send you, you will not ultimately succeed (Jer. 23:21, 32). Jeremiah received his call through a “word of the LORD,” one of several Jewish leaders called this way (Jer. 1:4; Ezek. 1:3; Hos. 1:1; Joel 1:1; Jon. 1:1). Note the circumstances of God’s call on Jeremiah’s life given in Jeremiah 1:4-10:

- God created Jeremiah for a purpose (v. 5).
- Jeremiah felt inadequate (v. 6).
- God wanted total control (v. 7).

- God gave the promise of a blessing (v. 8).
- God gave Jeremiah spiritual anointing (v. 9).
- God gave Jeremiah a difficult ministry (v. 10).

God's call, whether from birth or otherwise (see Acts 9 for other types of calls), eventually gets confirmed when God endorses a person's vocation. They feel they can do nothing else. How about you? What are your earliest memories of the call of God on your life?

To root out and to pull down,
To destroy and to throw down,

To build and to plant."

¹¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" And I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

¹²Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen well, for I am ready to perform My word."

¹³And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?"

And I said, "I see a boiling pot, and it is facing away from the north."

¹⁴Then the LORD said to me:

"Out of the north calamity shall break forth
On all the inhabitants of the land.

¹⁵For behold, I am calling
All the families of the kingdoms of the north," says the LORD;

"They shall come and each one set his throne
At the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem,
Against all its walls all around,
And against all the cities of Judah.

¹⁶I will utter My judgments

Against them concerning all their wickedness,
Because they have forsaken Me,
Burned incense to other gods,

And worshiped the works of their own hands.

¹⁷“Therefore prepare yourself and arise,
And speak to them all that I command you.
Do not be dismayed before their faces,
Lest I dismay you before them.

¹⁸For behold, I have made you this day
A fortified city and an iron pillar,
And bronze walls against the whole land—
Against the kings of Judah,
Against its princes,
Against its priests,
And against the people of the land.

¹⁹They will fight against you,

The Law of Sacrifice: Jeremiah Gave Up Loads to Lead

Jeremiah 1:18, 19

Leaders must practice the Law of Sacrifice. We must give up to go up. Our call to lead is no cakewalk, but calls for responsibility and sacrifice.

1. He was called to a ministry of opposition (1:18, 19).

Jeremiah never gained popularity. People didn't flock to hear him denounce their wickedness.

2. He was not permitted to marry (16:1, 2).
Jeremiah lived a life of solitude without the joys of family and loved ones.

3. He was beaten and put into stocks (20:1-3).
The people responded to the prophet's message with physical punishment.

4. He was publicly disgraced to depict the judgment of Israel (27:1-3).

God told Jeremiah to put bonds and stocks around his neck to illustrate the coming yoke of Babylon.

5. He was imprisoned in a dungeon (38:1-6).
Jeremiah was treated worse than thieves or murderers; he almost suffocated in this dry well.

Do you suddenly feel a little better about your plight as a leader? Jeremiah faced horrible odds, yet never walked away from his message or his call from God.

But they shall not prevail against you.

For I am with you," says the LORD, "to deliver you."

Chapter 2

God's Case Against Israel

¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²"Go and cry in the hearing of Jerusalem, saying,
'Thus says the LORD:

"I remember you,
The kindness of your youth,
The love of your betrothal,
When you went after Me in the wilderness,
In a land not sown.

³Israel was holiness to the LORD,
The firstfruits of His increase.
All that devour him will offend;

Disaster will come upon them," says the LORD.' "

⁴Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob and all the families of the house of Israel. ⁵Thus says the LORD:

"What injustice have your fathers found in Me,
That they have gone far from Me,
Have followed idols,
And have become idolaters?

⁶Neither did they say, 'Where is the LORD,
Who brought us up out of the land of Egypt,
Who led us through the wilderness,

Through a land of deserts and pits,
Through a land of drought and the shadow of death,
Through a land that no one crossed
And where no one dwelt?’

⁷I brought you into a bountiful country,
To eat its fruit and its goodness.
But when you entered, you defiled My land
And made My heritage an abomination.

⁸The priests did not say, ‘Where is the LORD?’
And those who handle the law did not know Me;
The rulers also transgressed against Me;
The prophets prophesied by Baal,

And walked after things that do not profit.

⁹“Therefore I will yet bring charges against you,”
says the LORD,

“And against your children’s children I will bring charges.

¹⁰For pass beyond the coasts of Cyprus^a and see,
Send to Kedar^b and consider diligently,
And see if there has been such a thing.

¹¹Has a nation changed its gods,
Which are not gods?
But My people have changed their Glory
For what does not profit.

¹²Be astonished, O heavens, at this,
And be horribly afraid;
Be very desolate,” says the LORD.

¹³“For My people have committed two evils:
They have forsaken Me, the fountain of living waters,

And hewn themselves cisterns—broken cisterns that can hold no water.

¹⁴“*Is Israel a servant?
Is he a homeborn slave?
Why is he plundered?*
¹⁵The young lions roared at him, and growled;
They made his land waste;
His cities are burned, without inhabitant.
¹⁶Also the people of Noph^a and Tahpanhes

Communication: Effective Leaders Use Memorable Imagery.

Jeremiah 2:1-16

We increase our ability to cast vision when we improve our communication. Effective leaders find memorable ways to communicate with their people.

Jeremiah uses vivid analogies and metaphors to describe how Israel has drifted from the Lord. He uses word pictures like a bride running to and then from her husband, a man digging a cistern, and a slave who has lost his freedom.

God challenged Jeremiah to communicate with those who refused to listen to him. This likely stretched him to become an even better communicator than if he had been given an easy task. As you scan the pages of his book, notice that Jeremiah, along with other Old Testament prophets, used five tools in an attempt to drive home his message:

1. Strong Beginning

Jeremiah didn't waste words as he grabbed the people's attention.

2. Simple Language

Jeremiah didn't try to impress anyone with huge, theological terms.

3. One Theme

Jeremiah stuck with one profound issue per message, not seventeen.

4. Pictures

Jeremiah used word pictures, illustrations, and object lessons to drive home his message.

5. Emotional Ending

Jeremiah closed his communication with an appeal to strike both heart and head.

Have broken the crown of your head.

¹⁷Have you not brought this on yourself,
In that you have forsaken the LORD your God
When He led you in the way?

¹⁸And now why take the road to Egypt,
To drink the waters of Sihor?

Or why take the road to Assyria,
To drink the waters of the River?^a

¹⁹Your own wickedness will correct you,
And your backslidings will rebuke you.

Know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter
thing

That you have forsaken the LORD your God,
And the fear of Me is not in you,"

Says the Lord GOD of hosts.

²⁰"For of old I have broken your yoke and burst your bonds;

And you said, 'I will not transgress,'
When on every high hill and under every green tree
You lay down, playing the harlot.

²¹Yet I had planted you a noble vine, a seed of highest quality.

How then have you turned before Me
Into the degenerate plant of an alien vine?

²²For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap,

Yet your iniquity is marked before Me," says the Lord GOD.

²³"How can you say, 'I am not polluted,
I have not gone after the Baals'?

See your way in the valley;

Know what you have done:

You are a swift dromedary breaking loose in her ways,

²⁴A wild donkey used to the wilderness,

That sniffs at the wind in her desire;

In her time of mating, who can turn her away?

All those who seek her will not weary themselves;

In her month they will find her.

²⁵Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst.

But you said, 'There is no hope.

No! For I have loved aliens, and after them I will go.'

²⁶"As the thief is ashamed when he is found out,

So is the house of Israel ashamed;

They and their kings and their princes, and their priests and their prophets,

²⁷Saying to a tree, 'You are my father,'

And to a stone, 'You gave birth to me.'

For they have turned their back to Me, and not their face.

But in the time of their trouble

They will say, 'Arise and save us.'

²⁸But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves?

Let them arise,
If they can save you in the time of your trouble;
For according to the number of your cities

Are your gods, O Judah.

²⁹"Why will you plead with Me?

You all have transgressed against Me," says the LORD.

³⁰"In vain I have chastened your children;
They received no correction.
Your sword has devoured your prophets

Like a destroying lion.

³¹"O generation, see the word of the LORD!

Have I been a wilderness to Israel,
Or a land of darkness?
Why do My people say, 'We are lords;
We will come no more to You'?

³²Can a virgin forget her ornaments,
Or a bride her attire?

Yet My people have forgotten Me days without number.

³³"Why do you beautify your way to seek love?

Therefore you have also taught
The wicked women your ways.

³⁴Also on your skirts is found
The blood of the lives of the poor innocents.
I have not found it by secret search,
But plainly on all these things.

³⁵Yet you say, 'Because I am innocent,
Surely His anger shall turn from me.'
Behold, I will plead My case against you,
Because you say, 'I have not sinned.'

³⁶Why do you gad about so much to change your way?

Also you shall be ashamed of Egypt as you were ashamed of Assyria.

³⁷Indeed you will go forth from him
With your hands on your head;
For the LORD has rejected your trusted allies,

And you will not prosper by them.

Chapter 3

Israel Is Shameless

¹“They say, ‘If a man divorces his wife,
And she goes from him
And becomes another man’s,
May he return to her again?’
Would not that land be greatly polluted?
But you have played the harlot with many lovers;

Yet return to Me,” says the LORD.

²“Lift up your eyes to the desolate heights and see:
Where have you not lain with men?
By the road you have sat for them
Like an Arabian in the wilderness;
And you have polluted the land
With your harlotries and your wickedness.

³Therefore the showers have been withheld,
And there has been no latter rain.
You have had a harlot’s forehead;
You refuse to be ashamed.

⁴Will you not from this time cry to Me,
‘My Father, You are the guide of my youth?’

⁵Will He remain angry forever?
Will He keep it to the end?’
Behold, you have spoken and done evil things,

As you were able.”

A Call to Repentance

⁶The LORD said also to me in the days of Josiah the king: “Have you seen what backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there played the harlot. ⁷“And I said, after she had done all these things, ‘Return to Me.’ But she did not return. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. ⁸“Then I saw that for all the causes for which backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a certificate of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but went and played the harlot also. ⁹“So it came to pass, through her casual harlotry, that she defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and trees. ¹⁰“And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned to Me with her whole heart, but in pretense,” says the LORD.

¹¹Then the LORD said to me, “Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah.

¹²“Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say:

‘Return, backsliding Israel,’ says the LORD;

‘I will not cause My anger to fall on you.

For I am merciful,’ says the LORD;

‘I will not remain angry forever.

¹³Only acknowledge your iniquity,

That you have transgressed against the LORD your God,

And have scattered your charms

To alien deities under every green tree,

And you have not obeyed My voice,' says the LORD.

¹⁴“Return, O backsliding children,” says the LORD; “for I am married to you. I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion. ¹⁵“And I will give you shepherds according to My heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding.

God’s Criteria for Leaders: Shepherds After His Heart

Jeremiah 3:15

God tells us His criteria for leadership when He promises through Jeremiah that He will give the people shepherds after His own heart—the same description given to David in the Book of 1 Samuel. What does this mean? God says these shepherds are to lead His people with “knowledge and understanding.”

This kind of leader doesn’t develop automatically. Most seminaries still struggle with providing practical, usable tools for the men and women they are preparing for ministry. A “shepherd after God’s own heart” must possess at least four skills:

1. Attitude Skills

A servant’s heart, both positive and persistent.

2. People Skills

The ability to relate to others: communicate, delegate, motivate, confront, etc.

3. Equipping Skills

The ability to train and develop others for service.

4. Leadership Skills

The ability to cast vision, plan strategy, direct teams, and empower others.

¹⁶“Then it shall come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land in those days,” says the LORD, “that they will say no more, ‘The ark of the covenant of the LORD.’ It shall not come to mind, nor shall they remember it, nor shall they visit it, nor shall it be made anymore.

¹⁷“At that time Jerusalem shall be called The Throne of the LORD, and all the nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem. No more shall they follow the dictates of their evil hearts.

¹⁸“In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given as an inheritance to your fathers.

¹⁹“But I said:

‘How can I put you among the children
And give you a pleasant land,

A beautiful heritage of the hosts of nations?’

“And I said:

‘You shall call Me, “My Father,”
And not turn away from Me.’

²⁰Surely, as a wife treacherously departs from her husband,

So have you dealt treacherously with Me,

O house of Israel,” says the LORD.

²¹A voice was heard on the desolate heights,
Weeping and supplications of the children of Israel.
For they have perverted their way;

They have forgotten the LORD their God.

²²“Return, you backsliding children,

And I will heal your backslidings.”

“Indeed we do come to You,
For You are the LORD our God.

²³Truly, in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills,
And from the multitude of mountains;

Truly, in the LORD our God
Is the salvation of Israel.

²⁴For shame has devoured
The labor of our fathers from our youth—
Their flocks and their herds,
Their sons and their daughters.

²⁵We lie down in our shame,
And our reproach covers us.
For we have sinned against the LORD our God,
We and our fathers,
From our youth even to this day,

And have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.”

Chapter 4

¹“If you will return, O Israel,” says the LORD,
“Return to Me;
And if you will put away your abominations out of My sight,

Then you shall not be moved.

²And you shall swear, “The LORD lives,’
In truth, in judgment, and in righteousness;
The nations shall bless themselves in Him,

And in Him they shall glory.”

³For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and
Jerusalem:

“Break up your fallow ground,
And do not sow among thorns.

⁴Circumcise yourselves to the LORD,
And take away the foreskins of your hearts,
You men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem,
Lest My fury come forth like fire,
And burn so that no one can quench it,

Because of the evil of your doings.”

An Imminent Invasion

⁵Declare in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem, and say:

“Blow the trumpet in the land;

Cry, 'Gather together,'
And say, 'Assemble yourselves,
And let us go into the fortified cities.'

⁶Set up the standard toward Zion.
Take refuge! Do not delay!
For I will bring disaster from the north,
And great destruction."

⁷The lion has come up from his thicket,
And the destroyer of nations is on his way.
He has gone forth from his place
To make your land desolate.
Your cities will be laid waste,
Without inhabitant.

⁸For this, clothe yourself with sackcloth,
Lament and wail.
For the fierce anger of the LORD

Has not turned back from us.

⁹"And it shall come to pass in that day," says the
LORD,

"That the heart of the king shall perish,
And the heart of the princes;
The priests shall be astonished,

And the prophets shall wonder."

¹⁰Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD!
Surely You have greatly deceived this people and
Jerusalem,

Saying, 'You shall have peace,'

Whereas the sword reaches to the heart."

¹¹At that time it will be said
To this people and to Jerusalem,

“A dry wind of the desolate heights blows in the wilderness

Toward the daughter of My people—

Not to fan or to cleanse—

¹²A wind too strong for these will come for Me;

Now I will also speak judgment against them.”

¹³“Behold, he shall come up like clouds,

And his chariots like a whirlwind.

His horses are swifter than eagles.

Woe to us, for we are plundered!”

¹⁴O Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness,

That you may be saved.

How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you?

¹⁵For a voice declares from Dan

And proclaims affliction from Mount Ephraim:

¹⁶“Make mention to the nations,

Yes, proclaim against Jerusalem,

That watchers come from a far country

And raise their voice against the cities of Judah.

¹⁷Like keepers of a field they are against her all around,

Because she has been rebellious against Me,” says the LORD.

¹⁸“Your ways and your doings

Have procured these things for you.

This is your wickedness,

Because it is bitter,

Because it reaches to your heart.”

Sorrow for the Doomed Nation

¹⁹O my soul, my soul!
I am pained in my very heart!
My heart makes a noise in me;
I cannot hold my peace,
Because you have heard, O my soul,
The sound of the trumpet,
The alarm of war.

²⁰Destruction upon destruction is cried,
For the whole land is plundered.
Suddenly my tents are plundered,
And my curtains in a moment.

²¹How long will I see the standard,

And hear the sound of the trumpet?

²²"For My people are foolish,
They have not known Me.
They are silly children,
And they have no understanding.
They are wise to do evil,

But to do good they have no knowledge."

²³I beheld the earth, and indeed it was without form,
and void;

And the heavens, they had no light.

²⁴I beheld the mountains, and indeed they trembled,
And all the hills moved back and forth.

²⁵I beheld, and indeed there was no man,
And all the birds of the heavens had fled.

²⁶I beheld, and indeed the fruitful land was a wilderness,

Compassion: Leaders Must Empathize with Human Flaws

Jeremiah 4:19-26

Compassion drove Jeremiah. He empathized with the flaws of his people, and even though he warned them of coming judgment, his proclamation sounded far from cold and sterile. He identified with the Israelites and anguished over their plight. This enabled him to lead over the long haul.

And all its cities were broken down
At the presence of the LORD,

By His fierce anger.

²⁷For thus says the LORD:

“The whole land shall be desolate;
Yet I will not make a full end.

²⁸For this shall the earth mourn,
And the heavens above be black,
Because I have spoken.
I have purposed and will not relent,
Nor will I turn back from it.

²⁹The whole city shall flee from the noise of the horsemen and bowmen.

They shall go into thickets and climb up on the rocks.
Every city shall be forsaken,

And not a man shall dwell in it.

³⁰“And when you are plundered,
What will you do?
Though you clothe yourself with crimson,
Though you adorn yourself with ornaments of gold,
Though you enlarge your eyes with paint,
In vain you will make yourself fair;
Your lovers will despise you;

They will seek your life.

³¹“For I have heard a voice as of a woman in labor,
The anguish as of her who brings forth her first child,
The voice of the daughter of Zion bewailing herself;
She spreads her hands, saying,
‘Woe is me now, for my soul is weary

Because of murderers!’

Chapter 5

The Justice of God's Judgment

¹“Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem;
See now and know;
And seek in her open places
If you can find a man,
If there is anyone who executes judgment,
Who seeks the truth,
And I will pardon her.

²Though they say, ‘As the LORD lives,’

Surely they swear falsely.”

³O LORD, are not Your eyes on the truth?
You have stricken them,
But they have not grieved;
You have consumed them,
But they have refused to receive correction.
They have made their faces harder than rock;

They have refused to return.

⁴Therefore I said, “Surely these are poor.
They are foolish;
For they do not know the way of the LORD,
The judgment of their God.

⁵I will go to the great men and speak to them,
For they have known the way of the LORD,

The judgment of their God.”

But these have altogether broken the yoke
And burst the bonds.

⁶Therefore a lion from the forest shall slay them,
A wolf of the deserts shall destroy them;
A leopard will watch over their cities.

Everyone who goes out from there shall be torn in pieces,

Because their transgressions are many;

Their backslidings have increased.

⁷“How shall I pardon you for this?
Your children have forsaken Me
And sworn by those that are not gods.

When I had fed them to the full,
Then they committed adultery
And assembled themselves by troops in the harlots’ houses.

⁸They were like well-fed lusty stallions;
Every one neighed after his neighbor’s wife.

⁹Shall I not punish them for these things?” says the
LORD.

“And shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?

¹⁰“Go up on her walls and destroy,
But do not make a complete end.
Take away her branches,
For they are not the LORD’s.

¹¹For the house of Israel and the house of Judah

Have dealt very treacherously with Me,” says the
LORD.

¹²They have lied about the LORD,
And said, "It is not He.
Neither will evil come upon us,
Nor shall we see sword or famine.
¹³And the prophets become wind,
For the word is not in them.

Thus shall it be done to them."

¹⁴Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts:

"Because you speak this word,
Behold, I will make My words in your mouth fire,
And this people wood,
And it shall devour them.
¹⁵Behold, I will bring a nation against you from afar,
O house of Israel," says the LORD.
"It is a mighty nation,
It is an ancient nation,
A nation whose language you do not know,
Nor can you understand what they say.
¹⁶Their quiver is like an open tomb;
They are all mighty men.
¹⁷And they shall eat up your harvest and your bread,
Which your sons and daughters should eat.
They shall eat up your flocks and your herds;
They shall eat up your vines and your fig trees;
They shall destroy your fortified cities,

In which you trust, with the sword.

¹⁸"Nevertheless in those days," says the LORD, "I will not make a complete end of you. ¹⁹"And it will be when you say, 'Why does the LORD our God do all these things to us?' then you shall answer them, 'Just as you have forsaken Me and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve aliens in a land that is not yours.'

²⁰“Declare this in the house of Jacob
And proclaim it in Judah, saying,

²¹‘Hear this now, O foolish people,
Without understanding,
Who have eyes and see not,
And who have ears and hear not:

²²Do you not fear Me?’ says the LORD.
‘Will you not tremble at My presence,
Who have placed the sand as the bound of the sea,
By a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass beyond it?
And though its waves toss to and fro,
Yet they cannot prevail;
Though they roar, yet they cannot pass over it.

²³But this people has a defiant and rebellious heart;
They have revolted and departed.

²⁴They do not say in their heart,
“Let us now fear the LORD our God,
Who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season.

He reserves for us the appointed weeks of the harvest.”

²⁵Your iniquities have turned these things away,

And your sins have withheld good from you.

²⁶‘For among My people are found wicked men;
They lie in wait as one who sets snares;
They set a trap;
They catch men.

²⁷As a cage is full of birds,
So their houses are full of deceit.
Therefore they have become great and grown rich.

²⁸They have grown fat, they are sleek;
Yes, they surpass the deeds of the wicked;
They do not plead the cause,

The cause of the fatherless;
Yet they prosper,
And the right of the needy they do not defend.
²⁹Shall I not punish them for these things?' says the
LORD.

'Shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?'

³⁰"An astonishing and horrible thing
Has been committed in the land:

³¹The prophets prophesy falsely,
And the priests rule by their own power;
And My people love to have it so.

But what will you do in the end?

Chapter 6

Impending Destruction from the North

Gather yourselves to flee from the midst of Jerusalem!

Blow the trumpet in Tekoa,
And set up a signal-fire in Beth Hacerem;
For disaster appears out of the north,
And great destruction.

²I have likened the daughter of Zion
To a lovely and delicate woman.

³The shepherds with their flocks shall come to her.
They shall pitch their tents against her all around.

Each one shall pasture in his own place.”

⁴“Prepare war against her;
Arise, and let us go up at noon.
Woe to us, for the day goes away,
For the shadows of the evening are lengthening.

⁵Arise, and let us go by night,

And let us destroy her palaces.”

⁶For thus has the LORD of hosts said:

“Cut down trees,

And build a mound against Jerusalem.
This is the city to be punished.
She is full of oppression in her midst.
⁷As a fountain wells up with water,
So she wells up with her wickedness.
Violence and plundering are heard in her.
Before Me continually are grief and wounds.
⁸Be instructed, O Jerusalem,
Lest My soul depart from you;
Lest I make you desolate,

A land not inhabited.”

⁹Thus says the LORD of hosts:

“They shall thoroughly glean as a vine the remnant of Israel;

As a grape-gatherer, put your hand back into the branches.”

¹⁰To whom shall I speak and give warning,
That they may hear?
Indeed their ear is uncircumcised,
And they cannot give heed.
Behold, the word of the LORD is a reproach to them;
They have no delight in it.

¹¹Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD.
I am weary of holding it in.

“I will pour it out on the children outside,
And on the assembly of young men together;
For even the husband shall be taken with the wife,
The aged with him who is full of days.

¹²And their houses shall be turned over to others,
Fields and wives together;
For I will stretch out My hand
Against the inhabitants of the land,” says the LORD.

¹³“Because from the least of them even to the greatest of them,

Everyone is given to covetousness;
And from the prophet even to the priest,
Everyone deals falsely.

¹⁴They have also healed the hurt of My people slightly,

Saying, ‘Peace, peace!’
When there is no peace.

¹⁵Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?

No! They were not at all ashamed;
Nor did they know how to blush.
Therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
At the time I punish them,

They shall be cast down,” says the LORD.

¹⁶Thus says the LORD:

“Stand in the ways and see,
And ask for the old paths, where the good way is,
And walk in it;
Then you will find rest for your souls.
But they said, ‘We will not walk in it.’

¹⁷Also, I set watchmen over you, saying,
‘Listen to the sound of the trumpet!’
But they said, ‘We will not listen.’

¹⁸Therefore hear, you nations,
And know, O congregation, what is among them.

¹⁹Hear, O earth!

The Leader Is a Watchman Who Guards and Guides the Flock

Jeremiah 6:16-19

Jeremiah illustrates the leader's job as a watchman. God appointed watchmen over His people to sound the trumpet in times of danger and to serve as His voice.

A watchman provides an outstanding metaphor for a leader. Watchmen guard and guide those they supervise. They guard against anything that would endanger the vision. They guide those they oversee, encouraging them to continue on the path toward that vision. They watch out for danger and maintain quality control. They cry out warnings to those who drift from the vision. They commit themselves to finishing the task they began. Watchmen must possess strong moral fiber and must remain committed to a strong sense of right and wrong.

Jeremiah served well as a watchman, but he never convinced the masses to get on board with what was right. In your own leadership, where do you draw the line between doing what is right and doing what will retain followers?

Behold, I will certainly bring calamity on this people

The fruit of their thoughts,
Because they have not heeded My words
Nor My law, but rejected it.

²⁰For what purpose to Me
Comes frankincense from Sheba,
And sweet cane from a far country?
Your burnt offerings are not acceptable,

Nor your sacrifices sweet to Me."

²¹Therefore thus says the LORD:

“Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people,

And the fathers and the sons together shall fall on them.

The neighbor and his friend shall perish.”

²²Thus says the LORD:

“Behold, a people comes from the north country,
And a great nation will be raised from the farthest parts of the earth.

²³They will lay hold on bow and spear;

They are cruel and have no mercy;

Their voice roars like the sea;

And they ride on horses,

As men of war set in array against you, O daughter of Zion.”

²⁴We have heard the report of it;

Our hands grow feeble.

Anguish has taken hold of us,

Pain as of a woman in labor.

²⁵Do not go out into the field,

Nor walk by the way.

Because of the sword of the enemy,

Fear is on every side.

²⁶O daughter of my people,

Dress in sackcloth

And roll about in ashes!

Make mourning as for an only son, most bitter lamentation;

For the plunderer will suddenly come upon us.

²⁷"I have set you as an assayer and a fortress among
My people,

That you may know and test their way.

²⁸They are all stubborn rebels, walking as slanderers.

They are bronze and iron,

They are all corrupters;

²⁹The bellows blow fiercely,

The lead is consumed by the fire;

The smelter refines in vain,

For the wicked are not drawn off.

³⁰*People* will call them rejected silver,

Because the LORD has rejected them."

Chapter 7

Trusting in Lying Words

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
²“Stand in the gate of the LORD’s house, and proclaim there this word, and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD!’ ” ³Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. ⁴“Do not trust in these lying words, saying, ‘The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD are these.’

⁵“For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings, if you thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbor, ⁶“if you do not oppress the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, or walk after other gods to your hurt, ⁷“then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers forever and ever.

⁸“Behold, you trust in lying words that cannot profit. ⁹“Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods whom you do not know, ¹⁰“and then come and stand before Me in this house which is called by My name, and say, ‘We are delivered to do all these abominations’? ¹¹“Has this house, which is called by My name, become a den of thieves in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it," says the LORD.

¹²"But go now to My place which was in Shiloh, where I set My name at the first, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel. ¹³"And now, because you have done all these works," says the LORD, "and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear, and I called you, but you did not answer, ¹⁴"therefore I will do to the house which is called by My name, in which you trust, and to this place which I gave to you and your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh. ¹⁵"And I will cast you out of My sight, as I have cast out all your brethren—the whole posterity of Ephraim.

¹⁶"Therefore do not pray for this people, nor lift up a cry or prayer for them, nor make intercession to Me; for I will not hear you. ¹⁷"Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸"The children gather wood, the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and they pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke Me to anger. ¹⁹"Do they provoke Me to anger?" says the LORD. "Do they not provoke themselves, to the shame of their own faces?"

²⁰Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, My anger and My fury will be poured out on this place—on man and on beast, on the trees of the field and on the fruit of the ground. And it will burn and not be quenched."

²¹Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat meat. ²²"For I did not speak to your fathers, or command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices. ²³"But this is what I commanded them, saying, 'Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people. And walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well with you.’ ²⁴“Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but followed the counsels and the dictates of their evil hearts, and went backward and not forward. ²⁵“Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have even sent to you all My servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them. ²⁶“Yet they did not obey Me or incline their ear, but stiffened their neck. They did worse than their fathers.

²⁷“Therefore you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not obey you. You shall also call to them, but they will not answer you.

Judgment on Obscene Religion

²⁸“So you shall say to them, ‘This is a nation that does not obey the voice of the LORD their God nor receive correction. Truth has perished and has been cut off from their mouth. ²⁹‘Cut off your hair and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on the desolate heights; for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath.’ ³⁰“For the children of Judah have done evil in My sight,” says the LORD. “They have set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, to pollute it. ³¹“And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I did not command, nor did it come into My heart.

³²“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “when it will no more be called Tophet, or the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter; for they will bury in Tophet until there is no room. ³³“The corpses of this people will be food for the birds of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth. And no one will frighten them away.

³⁴“Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. For the land shall be desolate.

Chapter 8

¹“At that time,” says the LORD, “they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of its princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves. ²“They shall spread them before the sun and the moon and all the host of heaven, which they have loved and which they have served and after which they have walked, which they have sought and which they have worshiped. They shall not be gathered nor buried; they shall be like refuse on the face of the earth. ³“Then death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of those who remain of this evil family, who remain in all the places where I have driven them,” says the LORD of hosts.

The Peril of False Teaching

⁴“Moreover you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD:

“Will they fall and not rise?

Will one turn away and not return?

⁵Why has this people slidden back,
Jerusalem, in a perpetual backsliding?

They hold fast to deceit,

They refuse to return.

⁶I listened and heard,

But they do not speak aright.

No man repented of his wickedness,
Saying, 'What have I done?'
Everyone turned to his own course,

As the horse rushes into the battle.

⁷"Even the stork in the heavens
Knows her appointed times;
And the turtledove, the swift, and the swallow
Observe the time of their coming.

But My people do not know the judgment of the
LORD.

⁸"How can you say, 'We are wise,
And the law of the LORD is with us'?
Look, the false pen of the scribe certainly works falsehood.

⁹The wise men are ashamed,
They are dismayed and taken.
Behold, they have rejected the word of the LORD;
So what wisdom do they have?

¹⁰Therefore I will give their wives to others,
And their fields to those who will inherit them;
Because from the least even to the greatest
Everyone is given to covetousness;
From the prophet even to the priest
Everyone deals falsely.

¹¹For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of
My people slightly,
Saying, 'Peace, peace!'
When there is no peace.

¹²Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?

No! They were not at all ashamed,
Nor did they know how to blush.

Therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
In the time of their punishment

They shall be cast down,” says the LORD.

¹³“I will surely consume them,” says the LORD.

PROFILE in Leadership

JEREMIAH

Speaking Hard Truth Without Compromise

Jeremiah 8:1-13

Jeremiah did not receive a pleasant message from God to deliver to his people. The Lord ordered him to declare judgment and destruction on Judah. God told the prophet that He was about to destroy a sinful generation, a group of stubborn men and women who had turned to the basest kind of idolatry.

The Lord had patiently borne with these people. For many years He had issued stern warnings about their sin—yet they refused to surrender to Him. They had grown so depraved and shameless that God told Jeremiah they could no longer even blush over their vile conduct (Jer. 8:12).

The truly godly leader takes no pleasure in announcing divine judgment. It is a grievous thing to have to announce that the time for retribution has come. God Himself grieves when His people’s sin sinks to the point of no return. On the other hand, a truly godly leader never shrinks from confronting sin or from declaring the message of God. Effective leaders faithfully confront sin and call the sinner to repentance.

It could not have been easy for Jeremiah to communicate God's words of judgment. Neither is it easy to communicate today with people who need to be confronted over their sin. But leadership means speaking all the truth—sometimes unpleasant and painful truth—that God has entrusted to us.

"No grapes shall be on the vine,
Nor figs on the fig tree,
And the leaf shall fade;

And the things I have given them shall pass away
from them." ' "

¹⁴"Why do we sit still?
Assemble yourselves,
And let us enter the fortified cities,
And let us be silent there.
For the LORD our God has put us to silence
And given us water of gall to drink,

Because we have sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵"We looked for peace, but no good came;
And for a time of health, and there was trouble!

¹⁶The snorting of His horses was heard from Dan.
The whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of His strong ones;
For they have come and devoured the land and all that is in it,

The city and those who dwell in it."

¹⁷“For behold, I will send serpents among you,
Vipers which cannot be charmed,

And they shall bite you,” says the LORD.

The Prophet Mourns for the People

¹⁸I would comfort myself in sorrow;
My heart is faint in me.

¹⁹Listen! The voice,
The cry of the daughter of my people
From a far country:
“Is not the LORD in Zion?

Is not her King in her?”

“Why have they provoked Me to anger
With their carved images—

With foreign idols?”

²⁰“The harvest is past,
The summer is ended,

And we are not saved!”

²¹For the hurt of the daughter of my people I am hurt.

I am mourning;
Astonishment has taken hold of me.

²²*Is there* no balm in Gilead,
Is there no physician there?
Why then is there no recovery

For the health of the daughter of my people?

Chapter 9

¹Oh, that my head were waters,
And my eyes a fountain of tears,
That I might weep day and night
For the slain of the daughter of my people!

²Oh, that I had in the wilderness
A lodging place for travelers;
That I might leave my people,
And go from them!
For they are all adulterers,

An assembly of treacherous men.

³“And like their bow they have bent their tongues for lies.

They are not valiant for the truth on the earth.
For they proceed from evil to evil,
And they do not know Me,” says the LORD.

⁴“Everyone take heed to his neighbor,
And do not trust any brother;
For every brother will utterly supplant,
And every neighbor will walk with slanderers.

⁵Everyone will deceive his neighbor,
And will not speak the truth;
They have taught their tongue to speak lies;
They weary themselves to commit iniquity.

⁶Your dwelling place is in the midst of deceit;

Through deceit they refuse to know Me,” says the LORD.

⁷Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts:

“Behold, I will refine them and try them;
For how shall I deal with the daughter of My people?

⁸Their tongue is an arrow shot out;

It speaks deceit;

One speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth,

But in his heart he lies in wait.

⁹Shall I not punish them for these things?” says the LORD.

“Shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?”

¹⁰I will take up a weeping and wailing for the mountains,

And for the dwelling places of the wilderness a lamentation,

Because they are burned up,

So that no one can pass through;

Nor can men hear the voice of the cattle.

Both the birds of the heavens and the beasts have fled;

They are gone.

¹¹“I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a den of jackals.

I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.”

¹²Who is the wise man who may understand this? And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? Why does the land perish and burn up like a wilderness, so that no one can pass through?

¹³And the LORD said, “Because they have forsaken My law which I set before them, and have not obeyed My voice, nor walked according to it, ¹⁴“but they have walked according to the dictates of their own hearts and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them,” ¹⁵therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Behold, I will feed them, this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. ¹⁶“I will scatter them also among the Gentiles, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. And I will send a sword after them until I have consumed them.”

The People Mourn in Judgment

¹⁷Thus says the LORD of hosts:

“Consider and call for the mourning women,
That they may come;
And send for skillful wailing women,
That they may come.

¹⁸Let them make haste
And take up a wailing for us,
That our eyes may run with tears,
And our eyelids gush with water.

¹⁹For a voice of wailing is heard from Zion:
‘How we are plundered!
We are greatly ashamed,
Because we have forsaken the land,

Because we have been cast out of our dwellings.’ ”

²⁰Yet hear the word of the LORD, O women,
And let your ear receive the word of His mouth;
Teach your daughters wailing,
And everyone her neighbor a lamentation.

²¹For death has come through our windows,
Has entered our palaces,

To kill off the children— no longer to be outside!

And the young men— no longer on the streets!

²²Speak, “Thus says the LORD:

‘Even the carcasses of men shall fall as refuse on the open field,

Like cuttings after the harvester,

And no one shall gather them.’ ”

²³Thus says the LORD:

“Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom,

Let not the mighty man glory in his might,

Nor let the rich man glory in his riches;

²⁴But let him who glories glory in this,

Priorities: Leaders Must Know What's Really Valuable

Jeremiah 9:23, 24

What is our ultimate priority? What should we pursue more than anything else? What is worth boasting about? Some business leaders would answer, “Wealth and investments.” Some educational or political leaders would reply, “Intelligence and strategy.” Some athletic or sports leaders might respond, “Strength and speed.”

But Jeremiah warns us against boasting about any of these. These are valuable resources, but not ultimate priorities. The only thing worth boasting about is a vital relationship with God. The others are merely a means to an end.

Leaders must recognize the difference between these two:

The Ultimate • The Immediate

God is the source. • The others are a resource.

He provides a life. • These provide a living.

Spiritual things are the end. • Material things are a means to an end.

That he understands and knows Me,
That I am the LORD, exercising lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth.

For in these I delight," says the LORD.

²⁵"Behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that I will punish all who are circumcised with the uncircumcised — ²⁶"Egypt, Judah, Edom, the people of Ammon, Moab, and all who are in the farthest corners, who dwell in the wilderness. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart."

Chapter 10

Idols and the True God

¹Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel.

²Thus says the LORD:

“Do not learn the way of the Gentiles;
Do not be dismayed at the signs of heaven,
For the Gentiles are dismayed at them.

³For the customs of the peoples are futile;
For one cuts a tree from the forest,
The work of the hands of the workman, with the ax.

⁴They decorate it with silver and gold;
They fasten it with nails and hammers
So that it will not topple.

⁵They are upright, like a palm tree,
And they cannot speak;
They must be carried,
Because they cannot go by themselves.
Do not be afraid of them,
For they cannot do evil,

Nor can they do any good.”

⁶Inasmuch as there is none like You, O LORD
(You are great, and Your name is great in might),

⁷Who would not fear You, O King of the nations?
For this is Your rightful due.
For among all the wise men of the nations,
And in all their kingdoms,
There is none like You.

⁸But they are altogether dull-hearted and foolish;
A wooden idol is a worthless doctrine.

⁹Silver is beaten into plates;
It is brought from Tarshish,
And gold from Uphaz,
The work of the craftsman
And of the hands of the metalsmith;
Blue and purple are their clothing;
They are all the work of skillful men.

¹⁰But the LORD is the true God;
He is the living God and the everlasting King.
At His wrath the earth will tremble,

And the nations will not be able to endure His indignation.

¹¹Thus you shall say to them: "The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth shall perish from the earth and from under these heavens."

¹²He has made the earth by His power,
He has established the world by His wisdom,
And has stretched out the heavens at His discretion.

¹³When He utters His voice,
There is a multitude of waters in the heavens:
"And He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth.

He makes lightning for the rain,

He brings the wind out of His treasures."a

¹⁴Everyone is dull-hearted, without knowledge;
Every metalsmith is put to shame by an image;
For his molded image is falsehood,
And there is no breath in them.

¹⁵They are futile, a work of errors;
In the time of their punishment they shall perish.

¹⁶The Portion of Jacob is not like them,
For He is the Maker of all things,
And Israel is the tribe of His inheritance;

The LORD of hosts is His name.

The Coming Captivity of Judah

¹⁷Gather up your wares from the land,

O inhabitant of the fortress!

¹⁸For thus says the LORD:

“Behold, I will throw out at this time
The inhabitants of the land,
And will distress them,

That they may find it so.”

¹⁹Woe is me for my hurt!

My wound is severe.

But I say, “Truly this is an infirmity,
And I must bear it.”

²⁰My tent is plundered,
And all my cords are broken;
My children have gone from me,
And they are no more.

There is no one to pitch my tent anymore,

Or set up my curtains.

²¹For the shepherds have become dull-hearted,
And have not sought the LORD;
Therefore they shall not prosper,
And all their flocks shall be scattered.

²²Behold, the noise of the report has come,
And a great commotion out of the north country,

To make the cities of Judah desolate, a den of jackals.

²³O LORD, I know the way of man is not in himself;
It is not in man who walks to direct his own steps.

²⁴O LORD, correct me, but with justice;
Not in Your anger, lest You bring me to nothing.

²⁵Pour out Your fury on the Gentiles, who do not know You,

And on the families who do not call on Your name;
For they have eaten up Jacob,
Devoured him and consumed him,

And made his dwelling place desolate.

Chapter 11

The Broken Covenant

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
²“Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; ³“and say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel: “Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this covenant ⁴“which I commanded your fathers in the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, ‘Obey My voice, and do according to all that I command you; so shall you be My people, and I will be your God,’ ⁵“that I may establish the oath which I have sworn to your fathers, to give them ‘a land flowing with milk and honey,’^a as it is this day.” ‘ ”

And I answered and said, “So be it, LORD.”

⁶Then the LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying: ‘Hear the words of this covenant and do them. ⁷‘For I earnestly exhorted your fathers in the day I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, until this day, rising early and exhorting, saying, “Obey My voice.” ⁸‘Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but everyone followed the dictates of his evil heart; therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but which they have not done.’ ”

⁹And the LORD said to me, "A conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰"They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers who refused to hear My words, and they have gone after other gods to serve them; the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I made with their fathers."

¹¹Therefore thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will surely bring calamity on them which they will not be able to escape; and though they cry out to Me, I will not listen to them. ¹²"Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they offer incense, but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. ¹³"For according to the number of your cities were your gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal.

¹⁴"So do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry out to Me because of their trouble.

¹⁵"What has My beloved to do in My house,
Having done lewd deeds with many?
And the holy flesh has passed from you.
When you do evil, then you rejoice.

¹⁶The LORD called your name,
Green Olive Tree, Lovely and of Good Fruit.
With the noise of a great tumult
He has kindled fire on it,

And its branches are broken.

¹⁷"For the LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced doom against you for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke Me to anger in offering incense to Baal.”

Jeremiah's Life Threatened

¹⁸Now the LORD gave me knowledge of it, and I know it; for You showed me their doings. ¹⁹But I was like a docile lamb brought to the slaughter; and I did not know that they had devised schemes against me, saying, “Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be remembered no more.”

²⁰But, O LORD of hosts,
You who judge righteously,
Testing the mind and the heart,
Let me see Your vengeance on them,

For to You I have revealed my cause.

²¹“Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the men of Anathoth who seek your life, saying, ‘Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, lest you die by our hand’— ²²“therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘Behold, I will punish them. The young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; ²³‘and there shall be no remnant of them, for I will bring catastrophe on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their punishment.’ ”

Chapter 12

Jeremiah's Question

¹Righteous are You, O LORD, when I plead with You;
Yet let me talk with You about Your judgments.

Why does the way of the wicked prosper?

Why are those happy who deal so treacherously?

²You have planted them, yes, they have taken root;
They grow, yes, they bear fruit.

You are near in their mouth

But far from their mind.

³But You, O LORD, know me;

You have seen me,

And You have tested my heart toward You.

Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter,

And prepare them for the day of slaughter.

⁴How long will the land mourn,

Attitude: Leaders Don't Get Lost in the Problems

Jeremiah 12:1-4

If Jeremiah complained about relatively easy days, then how could God use him in hard times? Like us, Jeremiah suffered from hardening of the attitudes. We lose perspective on what real problems look like and what God is able to do. Let's focus on His promise, not our problems.

And the herbs of every field wither?
The beasts and birds are consumed,
For the wickedness of those who dwell there,
Because they said, "He will not see our final end."

The LORD Answers Jeremiah

⁵"If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you,
Then how can you contend with horses?
And if in the land of peace,
In which you trusted, they wearied you,
Then how will you do in the floodplain^a of the Jordan?

⁶For even your brothers, the house of your father,
Even they have dealt treacherously with you;
Yes, they have called a multitude after you.
Do not believe them,

Even though they speak smooth words to you.

⁷"I have forsaken My house, I have left My heritage;
I have given the dearly beloved of My soul into the hand of her enemies.

⁸My heritage is to Me like a lion in the forest;
It cries out against Me;
Therefore I have hated it.

⁹My heritage is to Me like a speckled vulture;
The vultures all around are against her.
Come, assemble all the beasts of the field,

Bring them to devour!

¹⁰“Many rulers^a have destroyed My vineyard,
They have trodden My portion underfoot;
They have made My pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

¹¹They have made it desolate;
Desolate, it mourns to Me;
The whole land is made desolate,
Because no one takes it to heart.

¹²The plunderers have come
On all the desolate heights in the wilderness,
For the sword of the LORD shall devour
From one end of the land to the other end of the land;

No flesh shall have peace.

¹³They have sown wheat but reaped thorns;
They have put themselves to pain but do not profit.
But be ashamed of your harvest

Because of the fierce anger of the LORD.”

¹⁴Thus says the LORD: “Against all My evil neighbors who touch the inheritance which I have caused My people Israel to inherit—behold, I will pluck them out of their land and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

¹⁵“Then it shall be, after I have plucked them out, that I will return and have compassion on them and bring them back, everyone to his heritage and everyone to his land. ¹⁶“And it shall be, if they will learn carefully the ways of My people, to swear by My name, 'As the LORD lives,' as they taught My people to swear by Baal, then they shall be established in the midst of My people. ¹⁷"But if they do not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation," says the LORD.

Chapter 13

Symbol of the Linen Sash

¹Thus the LORD said to me: “Go and get yourself a linen sash, and put it around your waist, but do not put it in water.” ²So I got a sash according to the word of the LORD, and put it around my waist.

³And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, ⁴“Take the sash that you acquired, which is around your waist, and arise, go to the Euphrates,^a and hide it there in a hole in the rock.” ⁵So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

⁶Now it came to pass after many days that the LORD said to me, “Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take from there the sash which I commanded you to hide there.” ⁷Then I went to the Euphrates and dug, and I took the sash from the place where I had hidden it; and there was the sash, ruined. It was profitable for nothing.

⁸Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁹“Thus says the LORD: ‘In this manner I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰“This evil people, who refuse to hear My words, who follow the dictates of their hearts, and walk after other gods to serve them and worship them, shall be just like this sash which is profitable for nothing. ¹¹‘For as the sash clings to the waist of a man, so I have caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to Me,' says the LORD, 'that they may become My people, for renown, for praise, and for glory; but they would not hear.'

The Linen Sash: An Analogy for Leaders Who Want to Be Useful

Jeremiah 13:1-11

God instructed Jeremiah to wear a linen sash for a while, then bury it. What happened? The once useful sash became useless.

Through this sash, God provides a teaching analogy for His people. The ruined piece of clothing represented the people of Israel who once served and worshiped God, but then became useless through their disobedience. Leaders have special reasons to pay close attention to this object lesson. Consider the parallels between leaders and the linen sash:

Remain useful when: • Become useless when:

They are stretched.

We must be stretched and challenged. • They are soiled.

We cannot live with sin and apathy.

They are secure.

We must draw our identity from God. • They are separated.

We cannot live as mavericks.

They are solid.

We must possess stable values. • They are shrunk.

We aren't useful when we think small.

Symbol of the Wine Bottles

¹²“Therefore you shall speak to them this word: ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel: “Every bottle shall be filled with wine.” ‘

And they will say to you, ‘Do we not certainly know that every bottle will be filled with wine?’

¹³“Then you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land—even the kings who sit on David’s throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—with drunkenness!

¹⁴“And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together,” says the LORD. “I will not pity nor spare nor have mercy, but will destroy them.” ‘ ”

Pride Precedes Captivity

¹⁵Hear and give ear:

Do not be proud,

For the LORD has spoken.

¹⁶Give glory to the LORD your God

Before He causes darkness,

And before your feet stumble

On the dark mountains,

And while you are looking for light,

He turns it into the shadow of death

And makes it dense darkness.

¹⁷But if you will not hear it,

My soul will weep in secret for your pride;

My eyes will weep bitterly

And run down with tears,

Because the LORD's flock has been taken captive.

¹⁸Say to the king and to the queen mother,
"Humble yourselves;
Sit down,
For your rule shall collapse, the crown of your glory."

¹⁹The cities of the South shall be shut up,
And no one shall open them;
Judah shall be carried away captive, all of it;

It shall be wholly carried away captive.

²⁰Lift up your eyes and see
Those who come from the north.
Where is the flock that was given to you,
Your beautiful sheep?

²¹What will you say when He punishes you?
For you have taught them
To be chieftains, to be head over you.
Will not pangs seize you,
Like a woman in labor?

²²And if you say in your heart,
"Why have these things come upon me?"
For the greatness of your iniquity
Your skirts have been uncovered,
Your heels made bare.

²³Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard its spots?

Then may you also do good who are accustomed to do evil.

²⁴"Therefore I will scatter them like stubble
That passes away by the wind of the wilderness.

²⁵This is your lot,

The portion of your measures from Me," says the LORD,

"Because you have forgotten Me
And trusted in falsehood.

²⁶Therefore I will uncover your skirts over your face,
That your shame may appear.

²⁷I have seen your adulteries
And your lustful neighings,
The lewdness of your harlotry,
Your abominations on the hills in the fields.
Woe to you, O Jerusalem!

Will you still not be made clean?"

Chapter 14

Sword, Famine, and Pestilence

¹The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the droughts.

²“Judah mourns,
And her gates languish;
They mourn for the land,
And the cry of Jerusalem has gone up.

³Their nobles have sent their lads for water;
They went to the cisterns and found no water.
They returned with their vessels empty;
They were ashamed and confounded
And covered their heads.

⁴Because the ground is parched,
For there was no rain in the land,
The plowmen were ashamed;
They covered their heads.

⁵Yes, the deer also gave birth in the field,
But left because there was no grass.

⁶And the wild donkeys stood in the desolate heights;
They sniffed at the wind like jackals;

Their eyes failed because there was no grass.”

⁷O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us,

Do it for Your name's sake;
For our backslidings are many,
We have sinned against You.

⁸O the Hope of Israel, his Savior in time of trouble,
Why should You be like a stranger in the land,
And like a traveler who turns aside to tarry for a night?

⁹Why should You be like a man astonished,
Like a mighty one who cannot save?
Yet You, O LORD, are in our midst,
And we are called by Your name;

Do not leave us!

¹⁰Thus says the LORD to this people:

“Thus they have loved to wander;
They have not restrained their feet.
Therefore the LORD does not accept them;
He will remember their iniquity now,

And punish their sins.”

¹¹Then the LORD said to me, “Do not pray for this people, for their good. ¹²“When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I will not accept them. But I will consume them by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.”

¹³Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, the prophets say to them, ‘You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine, but I will give you assured peace in this place.’ ”

¹⁴And the LORD said to me, “The prophets prophesy lies in My name. I have not sent them, commanded them, nor spoken to them; they prophesy to you a false vision, divination, a worthless thing, and the deceit of their heart.

¹⁵“Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, whom I did not send, and who say, 'Sword and famine shall not be in this land'—'By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed! ¹⁶'And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; they will have no one to bury them—they nor their wives, their sons nor their daughters—for I will pour their wickedness on them.'

What Happens to Leaders Who Mislead and Damage Others?

Jeremiah 14:14-16

A group of false prophets spoke about the future, as Jeremiah did, yet they proclaimed a much more positive message than his. People liked them because they spoke what they wanted to hear. Nevertheless, God told Jeremiah to continue speaking truthfully. The very drought, famine, and sword the false prophets denied would soon kill them.

God reserves special judgment for leaders who speak out of turn and who give the people merely what they want to hear. Note the sharp contrast between these prophets and Jeremiah:

Jeremiah • False Leaders

Spoke the truth even when it hurt • Spoke only what made people feel good

Constantly checked and purified his motives • Were motivated by selfish gain and popularity

Gave direction tied to an eternal hope • Gave direction tied to temporary pleasure

Was eventually proven right • Lost their lives because of what they said

¹⁷“Therefore you shall say this word to them:

‘Let my eyes flow with tears night and day,
And let them not cease;
For the virgin daughter of my people
Has been broken with a mighty stroke, with a very severe blow.

¹⁸If I go out to the field,
Then behold, those slain with the sword!
And if I enter the city,
Then behold, those sick from famine!

Yes, both prophet and priest go about in a land they do not know.’ ”

The People Plead for Mercy

¹⁹Have You utterly rejected Judah?
Has Your soul loathed Zion?
Why have You stricken us so that there is no healing for us?

We looked for peace, but there was no good;
And for the time of healing, and there was trouble.

²⁰We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness
And the iniquity of our fathers,
For we have sinned against You.

²¹Do not abhor us, for Your name’s sake;
Do not disgrace the throne of Your glory.
Remember, do not break Your covenant with us.

²²Are there any among the idols of the nations that can cause rain?

Or can the heavens give showers?

Are You not He, O LORD our God?

Therefore we will wait for You,

Since You have made all these.

Chapter 15

The LORD Will Not Relent

¹Then the LORD said to me, “Even if Moses and Samuel stood before Me, My mind would not be favorable toward this people. Cast them out of My sight, and let them go forth. ²“And it shall be, if they say to you, ‘Where should we go?’ then you shall tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD:

“Such as are for death, to death;
And such as are for the sword, to the sword;
And such as are for the famine, to the famine;

And such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.” ‘

³“And I will appoint over them four forms of destruction,” says the LORD: “the sword to slay, the dogs to drag, the birds of the heavens and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy. ⁴“I will hand them over to trouble, to all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

⁵“For who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem?
Or who will bemoan you?
Or who will turn aside to ask how you are doing?

⁶You have forsaken Me,” says the LORD,
“You have gone backward.

Therefore I will stretch out My hand against you and destroy you;

I am weary of relenting!

⁷And I will winnow them with a winnowing fan in the gates of the land;

I will bereave them of children;

I will destroy My people,

Since they do not return from their ways.

⁸Their widows will be increased to Me more than the sand of the seas;

I will bring against them,

Against the mother of the young men,

A plunderer at noonday;

I will cause anguish and terror to fall on them suddenly.

⁹“She languishes who has borne seven;

She has breathed her last;

Her sun has gone down

While it was yet day;

She has been ashamed and confounded.

And the remnant of them I will deliver to the sword

Before their enemies,” says the LORD.

Jeremiah's Dejection

¹⁰Woe is me, my mother,

That you have borne me,

A man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth!

I have neither lent for interest,

Nor have men lent to me for interest.

Every one of them curses me.

¹¹The LORD said:

“Surely it will be well with your remnant;
Surely I will cause the enemy to intercede with you
In the time of adversity and in the time of affliction.

¹²Can anyone break iron,
The northern iron and the bronze?

¹³Your wealth and your treasures
I will give as plunder without price,
Because of all your sins,
Throughout your territories.

¹⁴And I will make you cross over with a your enemies
Into a land which you do not know;
For a fire is kindled in My anger,

Which shall burn upon you.”

¹⁵O LORD, You know;
Remember me and visit me,
And take vengeance for me on my persecutors.
In Your enduring patience, do not take me away.
Know that for Your sake I have suffered rebuke.

¹⁶Your words were found, and I ate them,
And Your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart;

For I am called by Your name,
O LORD God of hosts.

¹⁷I did not sit in the assembly of the mockers,
Nor did I rejoice;
I sat alone because of Your hand,
For You have filled me with indignation.

¹⁸Why is my pain perpetual
And my wound incurable,

Which refuses to be healed?
Will You surely be to me like an unreliable stream,
As waters that fail?

The LORD Reassures Jeremiah

¹⁹Therefore thus says the LORD:

“If you return,
Then I will bring you back;
You shall stand before Me;
If you take out the precious from the vile,
You shall be as My mouth.
Let them return to you,
But you must not return to them.

²⁰And I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall;

And they will fight against you,
But they shall not prevail against you;
For I am with you to save you
And deliver you,” says the LORD.

²¹“I will deliver you from the hand of the wicked,

And I will redeem you from the grip of the terrible.”

Courage: One Person Standing with God Is Invincible

Jeremiah 15:15-21

Jeremiah asked God to remember the stand he took. This leader acted with courage when no one else seemed to be able to do so. In three short verses, we read what Jeremiah endured in his struggle to stand courageously:

1. He was neglected (v. 15).
2. He was mistreated (v. 15).
3. He was lonely (v. 17).
4. He endured continual discouragement (v. 18).
5. He felt let down by God (v. 18).

In verses 19-21, God gave His prophet courage by giving him a...

1. Picture of Himself—God allowed him to stand and see a vision of Yahweh.

2. Picture of the people—God confirms Jeremiah's view: The people are stubborn.

3. Picture of victory—God reminds him that the Lord is greater than any circumstance.

Chapter 16

Jeremiah's LifeStyle and Message

¹The word of the LORD also came to me, saying, ²"You shall not take a wife, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place." ³For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them and their fathers who begot them in this land: ⁴"They shall die gruesome deaths; they shall not be lamented nor shall they be buried, but they shall be like refuse on the face of the earth. They shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, and their corpses shall be meat for the birds of heaven and for the beasts of the earth."

⁵For thus says the LORD: "Do not enter the house of mourning, nor go to lament or bemoan them; for I have taken away My peace from this people," says the LORD, "lovingkindness and mercies. ⁶"Both the great and the small shall die in this land. They shall not be buried; neither shall men lament for them, cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them. ⁷"Nor shall men break bread in mourning for them, to comfort them for the dead; nor shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or their mother. ⁸"Also you shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and drink."

⁹For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will cause to cease from this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

¹⁰“And it shall be, when you show this people all these words, and they say to you, ‘Why has the LORD pronounced all this great disaster against us? Or what is our iniquity? Or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?’ ¹¹“then you shall say to them, ‘Because your fathers have forsaken Me,’ says the LORD; ‘they have walked after other gods and have served them and worshiped them, and have forsaken Me and not kept My law. ¹²‘And you have done worse than your fathers, for behold, each one follows the dictates of his own evil heart, so that no one listens to Me. ¹³‘Therefore I will cast you out of this land into a land that you do not know, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night, where I will not show you favor.’

God Will Restore Israel

¹⁴“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “that it shall no more be said, ‘The LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of Egypt,’ ¹⁵“but, ‘The LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north and from all the lands where He had driven them.’ For I will bring them back into their land which I gave to their fathers.

¹⁶“Behold, I will send for many fishermen,” says the LORD, “and they shall fish them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. ¹⁷“For My eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from My face, nor is their iniquity hidden from My eyes.

¹⁸“And first I will repay double for their iniquity and their sin, because they have defiled My land; they have filled My inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable idols.”

¹⁹O LORD, my strength and my fortress,
My refuge in the day of affliction,
The Gentiles shall come to You
From the ends of the earth and say,
“Surely our fathers have inherited lies,
Worthlessness and unprofitable things.”
²⁰Will a man make gods for himself,

Which are not gods?

²¹“Therefore behold, I will this once cause them to know,
I will cause them to know
My hand and My might;

And they shall know that My name is the LORD.

Chapter 17

Judah's Sin and Punishment

With the point of a diamond it is engraved
On the tablet of their heart,
And on the horns of your altars,

²While their children remember
Their altars and their wooden images^a
By the green trees on the high hills.

³O My mountain in the field,
I will give as plunder your wealth, all your treasures,
And your high places of sin within all your borders.

⁴And you, even yourself,
Shall let go of your heritage which I gave you;
And I will cause you to serve your enemies
In the land which you do not know;

For you have kindled a fire in My anger which shall burn forever.”

⁵Thus says the LORD:

“Cursed is the man who trusts in man
And makes flesh his strength,
Whose heart departs from the LORD.

⁶For he shall be like a shrub in the desert,
And shall not see when good comes,

But shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness,

In a salt land which is not inhabited.

⁷“Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD,
And whose hope is the LORD.

⁸For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters,
Which spreads out its roots by the river,
And will not fear^a when heat comes;
But its leaf will be green,
And will not be anxious in the year of drought,

Nor will cease from yielding fruit.

⁹“The heart is deceitful above all things,
And desperately wicked;
Who can know it?

¹⁰I, the LORD, search the heart,
I test the mind,
Even to give every man according to his ways,

According to the fruit of his doings.

¹¹“As a partridge that broods but does not hatch,
So is he who gets riches, but not by right;
It will leave him in the midst of his days,

And at his end he will be a fool.”

¹²A glorious high throne from the beginning
Is the place of our sanctuary.

¹³O LORD, the hope of Israel,
All who forsake You shall be ashamed.

“Those who depart from Me
Shall be written in the earth,

Because they have forsaken the LORD,
The fountain of living waters.”

Jeremiah Prays for Deliverance

¹⁴Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed;
Save me, and I shall be saved,
For You are my praise.

¹⁵Indeed they say to me,
“Where is the word of the LORD?
Let it come now!”

¹⁶As for me, I have not hurried away from being a shepherd who follows You,
Nor have I desired the woeful day;
You know what came out of my lips;
It was right there before You.

¹⁷Do not be a terror to me;
You are my hope in the day of doom.

¹⁸Let them be ashamed who persecute me,
But do not let me be put to shame;
Let them be dismayed,
But do not let me be dismayed.
Bring on them the day of doom,

And destroy them with double destruction!

Hallow the Sabbath Day

¹⁹Thus the LORD said to me: “Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, by which the kings of Judah come in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; ²⁰“and say to them, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter by these gates. ²¹“Thus says the LORD: “Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; ²²“nor carry a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day, nor do any work, but hallow the Sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers. ²³“But they did not obey nor incline their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear nor receive instruction.

²⁴“And it shall be, if you heed Me carefully,” says the LORD, “to bring no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but hallow the Sabbath day, to do no work in it, ²⁵“then shall enter the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their princes, accompanied by the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain forever. ²⁶“And they shall come from the cities of Judah and from the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and from the lowland, from the mountains and from the South, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and incense, bringing sacrifices of praise to the house of the LORD.

²⁷“But if you will not heed Me to hallow the Sabbath day, such as not carrying a burden when entering the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.” ‘ ‘ ”

Chapter 18

The Potter and the Clay

¹The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying:
²“Arise and go down to the potter’s house, and there I will cause you to hear My words.” ³Then I went down to the potter’s house, and there he was, making something at the wheel. ⁴And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make.

⁵Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ⁶“O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter?” says the LORD. “Look, as the clay is in the potter’s hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel! ⁷“The instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, to pull down, and to destroy it, ⁸“if that nation against whom I have spoken turns from its evil, I will relent of the disaster that I thought to bring upon it. ⁹“And the instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it, ¹⁰“if it does evil in My sight so that it does not obey My voice, then I will relent concerning the good with which I said I would benefit it.

¹¹“Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Behold, I am fashioning a disaster and devising a plan against you. Return now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.” ‘ ‘ ”

God's Warning Rejected

¹²And they said, “That is hopeless! So we will walk according to our own plans, and we will every one obey the dictates of his evil heart.”

¹³Therefore thus says the LORD:

“Ask now among the Gentiles,
Who has heard such things?
The virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing.

¹⁴Will a man leave the snow water of Lebanon,
Which comes from the rock of the field?
Will the cold flowing waters be forsaken for strange waters?

¹⁵“Because My people have forgotten Me,
They have burned incense to worthless idols.
And they have caused themselves to stumble in their ways,

From the ancient paths,
To walk in pathways and not on a highway,
¹⁶To make their land desolate and a perpetual hissing;

Everyone who passes by it will be astonished
And shake his head.

¹⁷I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy;

I will show them a the back and not the face

In the day of their calamity.”

Jeremiah Persecuted

¹⁸Then they said, “Come and let us devise plans against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come and let us attack him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.”

Teachability: To Keep Leading, Keep Learning

Jeremiah 18:18

If you want to keep leading, you must keep learning. Yesterday's growth cannot suffice for today. We must remain teachable and flexible. God is the Potter; we are the clay. He will do what He wishes. We must allow Him to mold us in the way He desires.

¹⁹Give heed to me, O LORD,
And listen to the voice of those who contend with
me!

²⁰Shall evil be repaid for good?
For they have dug a pit for my life.
Remember that I stood before You
To speak good for them,
To turn away Your wrath from them.

²¹Therefore deliver up their children to the famine,
And pour out their blood
By the force of the sword;

Let their wives become widows
And bereaved of their children.
Let their men be put to death,
Their young men be slain
By the sword in battle.

²²Let a cry be heard from their houses,
When You bring a troop suddenly upon them;
For they have dug a pit to take me,
And hidden snares for my feet.

²³Yet, LORD, You know all their counsel
Which is against me, to slay me.
Provide no atonement for their iniquity,
Nor blot out their sin from Your sight;
But let them be overthrown before You.
Deal thus with them

In the time of Your anger.

Chapter 19

The Sign of the Broken Flask

¹Thus says the LORD: "Go and get a potter's earthen flask, and take some of the elders of the people and some of the elders of the priests. ²"And go out to the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the Potsherd Gate; and proclaim there the words that I will tell you, ³"and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will bring such a catastrophe on this place, that whoever hears of it, his ears will tingle.

⁴"Because they have forsaken Me and made this an alien place, because they have burned incense in it to other gods whom neither they, their fathers, nor the kings of Judah have known, and have filled this place with the blood of the innocents ⁵"(they have also built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings to Baal, which I did not command or speak, nor did it come into My mind), ⁶"therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that this place shall no more be called Tophet or the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. ⁷"And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hands of those who seek their lives; their corpses I will give as meat for the birds of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth. ⁸“I will make this city desolate and a hissing; everyone who passes by it will be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. ⁹“And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and everyone shall eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and in the desperation with which their enemies and those who seek their lives shall drive them to despair.” ‘

¹⁰“Then you shall break the flask in the sight of the men who go with you, ¹¹“and say to them, “Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter’s vessel, which cannot be made whole again; and they shall bury them in Tophet till there is no place to bury. ¹²“Thus I will do to this place,” says the LORD, “and to its inhabitants, and make this city like Tophet. ¹³“And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah shall be defiled like the place of Tophet, because of all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the host of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to other gods.” ‘ ”

¹⁴Then Jeremiah came from Tophet, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the Lord’s house and said to all the people, ¹⁵“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Behold, I will bring on this city and on all her towns all the doom that I have pronounced against it, because they have stiffened their necks that they might not hear My words.’ ”

Chapter 20

The Word of God to Pashhur

¹Now Pashhur the son of Immer, the priest who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things. ²Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

³And it happened on the next day that Pashhur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD has not called your name Pashhur, but Magor-Missabib.^a ⁴"For thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see it. I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon and slay them with the sword. ⁵'Moreover I will deliver all the wealth of this city, all its produce, and all its precious things; all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hand of their enemies, who will plunder them, seize them, and carry them to Babylon. ⁶'And you, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house, shall go into captivity. You shall go to Babylon, and there you shall die, and be buried there, you and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied lies.' "

Jeremiah's Unpopular Ministry

⁷O LORD, You induced me, and I was persuaded;
You are stronger than I, and have prevailed.
I am in derision daily;
Everyone mocks me.

⁸For when I spoke, I cried out;
I shouted, "Violence and plunder!"
Because the word of the LORD was made to me
A reproach and a derision daily.

⁹Then I said, "I will not make mention of Him,
Nor speak anymore in His name."
But His word was in my heart like a burning fire
Shut up in my bones;
I was weary of holding it back,
And I could not.

¹⁰For I heard many mocking:
"Fear on every side!"
"Report," they say, "and we will report it!"
All my acquaintances watched for my stumbling, saying,
"Perhaps he can be induced;
Then we will prevail against him,

And we will take our revenge on him."

¹¹But the LORD is with me as a mighty, awesome
One.

Therefore my persecutors will stumble, and will not prevail.

They will be greatly ashamed, for they will not prosper.

Their everlasting confusion will never be forgotten.

¹²But, O LORD of hosts,
You who test the righteous,
And see the mind and heart,
Let me see Your vengeance on them;

For I have pleaded my cause before You.

¹³Sing to the LORD! Praise the LORD!
For He has delivered the life of the poor

From the hand of evildoers.

¹⁴Cursed be the day in which I was born!
Let the day not be blessed in which my mother bore
me!

¹⁵Let the man be cursed
Who brought news to my father, saying,
“A male child has been born to you!”
Making him very glad.

¹⁶And let that man be like the cities
Which the LORD overthrew, and did not relent;
Let him hear the cry in the morning
And the shouting at noon,

¹⁷Because he did not kill me from the womb,
That my mother might have been my grave,
And her womb always enlarged with me.

¹⁸Why did I come forth from the womb to see labor and sorrow,

That my days should be consumed with shame?

Convictions: Turning Defeat into Dividends

Jeremiah 20:1-18

Every leader experiences both good and bad days. Even God's greatest leaders become discouraged. Jeremiah 20 allows us to see into the heart of a great leader. Jeremiah complains to God in the first ten verses. He praises God for his victories in the next four verses. And in the next five verses he curses the day he was born.

The key question on your bad day is: Are you going to give up or get up? And how can you get up?

1. Rise above self-pity. Failure is an attitude, not just an outcome.
2. Think positively. Success comes by going from failure to failure without losing enthusiasm.
3. Learn from your experiences. Failure isn't failure unless you learn nothing from it.
4. Seek alternatives. All successful leaders vary their approaches.
5. Develop a sense of humor. Laughter is the shortest distance between two people and the fastest way to get perspective.
6. Be realistic. The first job of the leader is to define reality.
7. Establish new goals. Failure is an opportunity to begin again, but more intelligently.
8. Develop a passion. Your own resolution to succeed counts for more than anything else.
9. Broaden your base of support. No single venture should support your entire emotional life.
10. Separate your self-worth from your performance. A positive self-image prepares you for success.

Chapter 21

Jerusalem's Doom Is Sealed

¹The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, ²“Please inquire of the LORD for us, for Nebuchadnezzar^a king of Babylon makes war against us. Perhaps the LORD will deal with us according to all His wonderful works, that the king may go away from us.”

³Then Jeremiah said to them, “Thus you shall say to Zedekiah, ⁴“Thus says the LORD God of Israel: “Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans^a who besiege you outside the walls; and I will assemble them in the midst of this city. ⁵“I Myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger and fury and great wrath. ⁶“I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast; they shall die of a great pestilence. ⁷“And afterward,” says the LORD, “I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, his servants and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence and the sword and the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and he shall strike them with the edge of the sword. He shall not spare them, or have pity or mercy.” ‘

⁸“Now you shall say to this people, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹“He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but he who goes out and defects to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be as a prize to him. ¹⁰“For I have set My face against this city for adversity and not for good,” says the LORD. “It shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.” ‘

Message to the House of David

¹¹“And concerning the house of the king of Judah, say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, ¹²‘O house of David! Thus says the LORD:

“Execute judgment in the morning;
And deliver him who is plundered
Out of the hand of the oppressor,
Lest My fury go forth like fire
And burn so that no one can quench it,

Because of the evil of your doings.

¹³“Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley,

And rock of the plain,” says the LORD,
“Who say, ‘Who shall come down against us?
Or who shall enter our dwellings?’

¹⁴But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings,” says the LORD;

“I will kindle a fire in its forest,
And it shall devour all things around it.” ‘ ’

Chapter 22

¹Thus says the LORD: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and there speak this word, ²"and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, you who sit on the throne of David, you and your servants and your people who enter these gates! ³"Thus says the LORD: "Execute judgment and righteousness, and deliver the plundered out of the hand of the oppressor. Do no wrong and do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, or the widow, nor shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴"For if you indeed do this thing, then shall enter the gates of this house, riding on horses and in chariots, accompanied by servants and people, kings who sit on the throne of David. ⁵"But if you will not hear these words, I swear by Myself," says the LORD, "that this house shall become a desolation." ' "

⁶For thus says the LORD to the house of the king of Judah:

"You are Gilead to Me,
The head of Lebanon;
Yet I surely will make you a wilderness,
Cities which are not inhabited.
⁷I will prepare destroyers against you,
Everyone with his weapons;
They shall cut down your choice cedars

And cast them into the fire.

⁸"And many nations will pass by this city; and everyone will say to his neighbor, 'Why has the LORD done so to this great city?’ ⁹“Then they will answer, ‘Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods and served them.’ ”

¹⁰Weep not for the dead, nor bemoan him;
Weep bitterly for him who goes away,
For he shall return no more,

Nor see his native country.

Message to the Sons of Josiah

¹¹For thus says the LORD concerning Shallum^a the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, who went from this place: “He shall not return here anymore, ¹²“but he shall die in the place where they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

¹³“Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness

And his chambers by injustice,

Who uses his neighbor’s service without wages

And gives him nothing for his work,

¹⁴Who says, ‘I will build myself a wide house with spacious chambers,

And cut out windows for it,

Paneling it with cedar

And painting it with vermilion.’

¹⁵“Shall you reign because you enclose yourself in cedar?

Did not your father eat and drink,

And do justice and righteousness?

Then it was well with him.

¹⁶He judged the cause of the poor and needy;

Then it was well.

Was not this knowing Me?” says the LORD.

¹⁷“Yet your eyes and your heart are for nothing but your covetousness,

For shedding innocent blood,

And practicing oppression and violence.”

¹⁸Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

“They shall not lament for him,

Saying, ‘Alas, my brother!’ or ‘Alas, my sister!’

They shall not lament for him,

Saying, ‘Alas, master!’ or ‘Alas, his glory!’

¹⁹He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey,

Dragged and cast out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

²⁰“Go up to Lebanon, and cry out,

And lift up your voice in Bashan;

Cry from Abarim,

For all your lovers are destroyed.

²¹I spoke to you in your prosperity,

But you said, ‘I will not hear.’

This has been your manner from your youth,

That you did not obey My voice.

²²The wind shall eat up all your rulers,

And your lovers shall go into captivity;

Surely then you will be ashamed and humiliated

For all your wickedness.

²³O inhabitant of Lebanon,

Making your nest in the cedars,

How gracious will you be when pangs come upon you,

Like the pain of a woman in labor?

Message to Coniah

²⁴“As I live,” says the LORD, “though Coniah^a the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, were the signet on My right hand, yet I would pluck you off; ²⁵“and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of those whose face you fear—the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the hand of the Chaldeans. ²⁶“So I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country where you were not born; and there you shall die. ²⁷“But to the land to which they desire to return, there they shall not return.

²⁸“Is this man Coniah a despised, broken idol—
A vessel in which is no pleasure?
Why are they cast out, he and his descendants,
And cast into a land which they do not know?
²⁹O earth, earth, earth,
Hear the word of the LORD!
³⁰Thus says the LORD:

The Measure of a Man Is What He Does with Power

Jeremiah 22:6-30

Leaders who use their power or influence for personal gain offend God. Jeremiah cautions leaders who build their own “kingdoms” but fail to exhibit wisdom. He warns them against preoccupation with their own welfare rather than the people God has given them. God considers such misuse of power grounds for removal.

‘Write this man down as childless,
A man who shall not prosper in his days;
For none of his descendants shall prosper,
Sitting on the throne of David,
And ruling anymore in Judah.’ ”

Chapter 23

The Branch of Righteousness

¹“Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture!” says the LORD. ²Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel against the shepherds who feed My people: “You have scattered My flock, driven them away, and not attended to them. Behold, I will attend to you for the evil of your doings,” says the LORD. ³“But I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and bring them back to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase. ⁴“I will set up shepherds over them who will feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, nor shall they be lacking,” says the LORD.

⁵“Behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD,
“That I will raise to David a Branch of righteousness;
A King shall reign and prosper,
And execute judgment and righteousness in the earth.

⁶In His days Judah will be saved,
And Israel will dwell safely;

Now this is His name by which He will be called:

THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.^{a}

⁷“Therefore, behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “that they shall no longer say, ‘As the LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of Egypt,’
⁸“but, ‘As the LORD lives who brought up and led the descendants of the house of Israel from the north country and from all the countries where I had driven them.’ And they shall dwell in their own land.”

False Prophets and Empty Oracles

⁹My heart within me is broken
Because of the prophets;
All my bones shake.
I am like a drunken man,
And like a man whom wine has overcome,
Because of the LORD,
And because of His holy words.

¹⁰For the land is full of adulterers;
For because of a curse the land mourns.
The pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up.
Their course of life is evil,

And their might is not right.

¹¹“For both prophet and priest are profane;
Yes, in My house I have found their wickedness,”
says the LORD.

¹²“Therefore their way shall be to them
Like slippery ways;
In the darkness they shall be driven on
And fall in them;
For I will bring disaster on them,
The year of their punishment,” says the LORD.

¹³“And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria:
They prophesied by Baal
And caused My people Israel to err.

¹⁴Also I have seen a horrible thing in the prophets of Jerusalem:

They commit adultery and walk in lies;
They also strengthen the hands of evildoers,
So that no one turns back from his wickedness.
All of them are like Sodom to Me,

And her inhabitants like Gomorrah.

¹⁵“Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets:

‘Behold, I will feed them with wormwood,
And make them drink the water of gall;
For from the prophets of Jerusalem

Profaneness has gone out into all the land.’ ”

¹⁶Thus says the LORD of hosts:

The Changing of the Guard: When Leaders Need to Be Replaced

Jeremiah 23:1-16

God does not hesitate to remove poor or wicked leaders—and beyond their removal, God pronounces His judgment on them.

Jeremiah 23 supplies us with a good evaluation tool to recognize what God values in a leader and what constitutes grounds for dismissal and replacement. Study the characteristics of the kind of leaders God promised to replace:

1. Leaders who destroy their people instead of developing them (v. 1)

2. Leaders who scatter their people instead of uniting them in a cause (v. 1)

3. Leaders who abandon their people in fear instead of remaining responsible (v. 4)

4. Leaders who act in self-serving and unjust ways instead of standing for the truth (v. 10)

5. Leaders who lie, as though there were no God (v. 11)

6. Leaders who lead their people astray instead of guiding them into security (v. 13)

7. Leaders who foster evil and deceit instead of integrity and honesty (v. 14)

8. Leaders who fill people with false hope rather than speaking God's Word (v. 16)

God didn't merely threaten to remove bad leaders; He also promised to raise up a Righteous Branch from the line of David to replace these artificial leaders. Today we know that Righteous Branch has a beautiful name: Jesus Christ!

"Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.

They make you worthless;

They speak a vision of their own heart,

Not from the mouth of the LORD.

¹⁷They continually say to those who despise Me,

'The LORD has said, "You shall have peace" ';

And to everyone who walks according to the dictates of his own heart, they say,

'No evil shall come upon you.' "

¹⁸For who has stood in the counsel of the LORD,
And has perceived and heard His word?
Who has marked His word and heard it?

¹⁹Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD has gone forth in fury—

A violent whirlwind!

It will fall violently on the head of the wicked.

²⁰The anger of the LORD will not turn back
Until He has executed and performed the thoughts of His heart.

In the latter days you will understand it perfectly.

²¹“I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran.
I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

²²But if they had stood in My counsel,
And had caused My people to hear My words,
Then they would have turned them from their evil
way

And from the evil of their doings.

²³“Am I a God near at hand,” says the LORD,
“And not a God afar off?

²⁴Can anyone hide himself in secret places,
So I shall not see him?” says the LORD;

“Do I not fill heaven and earth?” says the LORD.

²⁵“I have heard what the prophets have said who prophecy lies in My name, saying, ‘I have dreamed, I have dreamed!’ ²⁶“How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophecy lies? Indeed they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart, ²⁷“who try to make My people forget My name by their dreams which everyone tells his neighbor, as their fathers forgot My name for Baal.

²⁸“The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream;

And he who has My word, let him speak My word faithfully.

What is the chaff to the wheat?” says the LORD.

²⁹“Is not My word like a fire?” says the LORD,

“And like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?

³⁰“Therefore behold, I am against the prophets,” says the LORD, “who steal My words every one from his neighbor. ³¹“Behold, I am against the prophets,” says the LORD, “who use their tongues and say, ‘He says.’ ³²“Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams,” says the LORD, “and tell them, and cause My people to err by their lies and by their recklessness. Yet I did not send them or command them; therefore they shall not profit this people at all,” says the LORD.

³³“So when these people or the prophet or the priest ask you, saying, ‘What is the oracle of the LORD?’ you shall then say to them, ‘What oracle?’^a I will even forsake you,” says the LORD. ³⁴“And as for the prophet and the priest and the people who say, ‘The oracle of the LORD!’ I will even punish that man and his house. ³⁵“Thus every one of you shall say to his neighbor, and every one to his brother, ‘What has the LORD answered?’ and, ‘What has the LORD spoken?’ ³⁶“And the oracle of the LORD you shall mention no more. For every man’s word will be his oracle, for you have perverted the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God. ³⁷“Thus you shall say to the prophet, ‘What has the LORD answered you?’ and, ‘What has the LORD spoken?’ ³⁸“But since you say, ‘The oracle of the LORD!’ therefore thus says the LORD: ‘Because you say this word, “The oracle of the LORD!” and I have sent to you, saying, “Do not say, ‘The oracle of the LORD!’ ” ³⁹“therefore behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you and forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and will cast you out of My presence. ⁴⁰‘And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.’ ”

Vision: God-Given or ManMade?

Jeremiah 23:13-40

How do we recognize a vision as God-given or as manmade? First, does it align with the Word of God, the nature of God, and the ways of God? Second, does it advance God’s kingdom, and not necessarily the leader’s? Third, does it bless other people? Finally, does the vision stand the test of time?

Chapter 24

The Sign of Two Baskets of Figs

¹The LORD showed me, and there were two baskets of figs set before the temple of the LORD, after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. ²One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs which could not be eaten, they were so bad. ³Then the LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

And I said, "Figs, the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad."

⁴Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁵"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge those who are carried away captive from Judah, whom I have sent out of this place for their own good, into the land of the Chaldeans. ⁶'For I will set My eyes on them for good, and I will bring them back to this land; I will build them and not pull them down, and I will plant them and not pluck them up. ⁷'Then I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God, for they shall return to Me with their whole heart.

⁸‘And as the bad figs which cannot be eaten, they are so bad’—surely thus says the LORD—‘so will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, his princes, the residue of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt. ⁹‘I will deliver them to trouble into all the kingdoms of the earth, for their harm, to be a reproach and a byword, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them. ¹⁰‘And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them, till they are consumed from the land that I gave to them and their fathers.’ ”

Chapter 25

Seventy Years of Desolation

¹The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), ²which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: ³“From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, this is the twenty-third year in which the word of the LORD has come to me; and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you have not listened. ⁴“And the LORD has sent to you all His servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, but you have not listened nor inclined your ear to hear. ⁵“They said, ‘Repent now everyone of his evil way and his evil doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and your fathers forever and ever. ⁶‘Do not go after other gods to serve them and worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands; and I will not harm you.’ ⁷“Yet you have not listened to Me,” says the LORD, “that you might provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

⁸“Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘Because you have not heard My words, ⁹‘behold, I will send and take all the families of the north,’ says the LORD, ‘and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and will bring them against this land, against its inhabitants, and against these nations all around, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, a hissing, and perpetual desolations. ¹⁰Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp. ¹¹And this whole land shall be a desolation and an astonishment, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

¹²Then it will come to pass, when seventy years are completed, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity,' says the LORD; 'and I will make it a perpetual desolation. ¹³So I will bring on that land all My words which I have pronounced against it, all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied concerning all the nations. ¹⁴(For many nations and great kings shall be served by them also; and I will repay them according to their deeds and according to the works of their own hands.)' "

Judgment on the Nations

¹⁵For thus says the LORD God of Israel to me: "Take this wine cup of fury from My hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. ¹⁶And they will drink and stagger and go mad because of the sword that I will send among them."

¹⁷Then I took the cup from the LORD's hand, and made all the nations drink, to whom the LORD had sent me: ¹⁸Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, its kings and its princes, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day; ¹⁹Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, his princes, and all his people; ²⁰all the mixed multitude, all the kings of the land of Uz, all the kings of the land of the Philistines (namely, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod); ²¹Edom, Moab, and the people of Ammon; ²²all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastlands which are across the sea; ²³Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who are in the farthest corners; ²⁴all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the mixed multitude who dwell in the desert; ²⁵all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; ²⁶all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world which are on the face of the earth. Also the king of Sheshach^a shall drink after them.

²⁷“Therefore you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Drink, be drunk, and vomit! Fall and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.” ‘ ²⁸“And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “You shall certainly drink! ²⁹“For behold, I begin to bring calamity on the city which is called by My name, and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished, for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth,” says the LORD of hosts.’

³⁰“Therefore prophesy against them all these words, and say to them:

‘The LORD will roar from on high,
And utter His voice from His holy habitation;
He will roar mightily against His fold.
He will give a shout, as those who tread the grapes,
Against all the inhabitants of the earth.

³¹A noise will come to the ends of the earth—
For the LORD has a controversy with the nations;
He will plead His case with all flesh.

He will give those who are wicked to the sword,' says the LORD."

³²Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Behold, disaster shall go forth
From nation to nation,
And a great whirlwind shall be raised up

From the farthest parts of the earth.

³³"And at that day the slain of the LORD shall be from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth. They shall not be lamented, or gathered, or buried; they shall become refuse on the ground.

³⁴"Wail, shepherds, and cry!
Roll about in the ashes,
You leaders of the flock!
For the days of your slaughter and your dispersions are fulfilled;
You shall fall like a precious vessel.

³⁵And the shepherds will have no way to flee,
Nor the leaders of the flock to escape.

³⁶A voice of the cry of the shepherds,
And a wailing of the leaders to the flock will be heard.

For the LORD has plundered their pasture,

³⁷And the peaceful dwellings are cut down
Because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

³⁸He has left His lair like the lion;
For their land is desolate
Because of the fierceness of the Oppressor,

And because of His fierce anger."

Chapter 26

Jeremiah Saved from Death

¹In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, saying, ²“Thus says the LORD: ‘Stand in the court of the LORD’s house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD’s house, all the words that I command you to speak to them. Do not diminish a word. ³‘Perhaps everyone will listen and turn from his evil way, that I may relent concerning the calamity which I purpose to bring on them because of the evil of their doings.’ ⁴“And you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD: “If you will not listen to Me, to walk in My law which I have set before you, ⁵“to heed the words of My servants the prophets whom I sent to you, both rising up early and sending them (but you have not heeded), ⁶“then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.” ‘ ”

⁷So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. ⁸Now it happened, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, “You will surely die! ⁹“Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without an inhabitant'?" And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

¹⁰When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD and sat down in the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house. ¹¹And the priests and the prophets spoke to the princes and all the people, saying, "This man deserves to die! For he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

¹²Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and all the people, saying: "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city with all the words that you have heard. ¹³"Now therefore, amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; then the LORD will relent concerning the doom that He has pronounced against you. ¹⁴"As for me, here I am, in your hand; do with me as seems good and proper to you. ¹⁵"But know for certain that if you put me to death, you will surely bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on its inhabitants; for truly the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing."

¹⁶So the princes and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man does not deserve to die. For he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

¹⁷Then certain of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying: ¹⁸"Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Zion shall be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem shall become heaps of ruins,
And the mountain of the temple^a

Like the bare hills of the forest.” b

¹⁹“Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah ever put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and seek the LORD’s favor? And the LORD relented concerning the doom which He had pronounced against them. But we are doing great evil against ourselves.”

²⁰Now there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath Jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah. ²¹And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid and fled, and went to Egypt. ²²Then Jehoiakim the king sent men to Egypt: Elnathan the son of Achbor, and other men who went with him to Egypt. ²³And they brought Urijah from Egypt and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

²⁴Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

Chapter 27

Symbol of the Bonds and Yokes

¹In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim^a the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,^b ²“Thus says the LORD to me: ‘Make for yourselves bonds and yokes, and put them on your neck, ³’and send them to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the Ammonites, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah. ⁴’And command them to say to their masters, “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel—thus you shall say to your masters: ⁵’I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are on the ground, by My great power and by My outstretched arm, and have given it to whom it seemed proper to Me. ⁶’And now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant; and the beasts of the field I have also given him to serve him. ⁷’So all nations shall serve him and his son and his son’s son, until the time of his land comes; and then many nations and great kings shall make him serve them. ⁸’And it shall be, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and which will not put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish,’ says the LORD, ‘with the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. ⁹“Therefore do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your soothsayers, or your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, “You shall not serve the king of Babylon.” ¹⁰‘For they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land; and I will drive you out, and you will perish. ¹¹‘But the nations that bring their necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let them remain in their own land,’ says the LORD, ‘and they shall till it and dwell in it.’ ” ‘ ”

God Uses the Unrighteous Leader to Prune the Righteous

Jeremiah 27:1-8

While God never ordains false leaders, He may use wicked leaders—even self-appointed ones—to perform His purposes.

What an irony! God warns against false leaders and simultaneously uses an evil king (the Babylonian Nebuchadnezzar) to prune the people He calls His own. Jeremiah 27 helps us to see an important truth regarding how God carries out His will in history:

1. His Moral Will

God instructs us to lead with a heart of integrity. We must not lead without His approval. But it is our choice. We learn this lesson from the false prophets of Jeremiah’s day.

2. His Sovereign Will

God may choose to use any leader to accomplish His purposes. It is God's choice. We learn this lesson from King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon.

¹²I also spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live! ¹³"Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴"Therefore do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon,' for they prophesy a lie to you; ¹⁵"for I have not sent them," says the LORD, "yet they prophesy a lie in My name, that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you and the prophets who prophesy to you."

¹⁶Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, "Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house will now shortly be brought back from Babylon"; for they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁷'Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live! Why should this city be laid waste? ¹⁸'But if they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, do not go to Babylon.'

¹⁹"For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, concerning the Sea, concerning the carts, and concerning the remainder of the vessels that remain in this city, ²⁰"which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem— ²¹"yes, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem: ²²“They shall be carried to Babylon, and there they shall be until the day that I visit them,” says the LORD. “Then I will bring them up and restore them to this place.”

Chapter 28

Hananiah's Falsehood and Doom

¹And it happened in the same year, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, ²“Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: ‘I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³‘Within two full years I will bring back to this place all the vessels of the LORD’s house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and carried to Babylon. ⁴‘And I will bring back to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah who went to Babylon,’ says the LORD, ‘for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.’ ”

⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD, ⁶and the prophet Jeremiah said, “Amen! The LORD do so; the LORD perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring back the vessels of the LORD’s house and all who were carried away captive, from Babylon to this place. ⁷“Nevertheless hear now this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people: ⁸“The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries and great kingdoms—of war and disaster and pestilence. ⁹“As for the prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet comes to pass, the prophet will be known as one whom the LORD has truly sent.”

¹⁰Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke off the prophet Jeremiah’s neck and broke it. ¹¹And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years.’ ” And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

¹²Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ¹³“Go and tell Hananiah, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD: “You have broken the yokes of wood, but you have made in their place yokes of iron.”’ ¹⁴‘For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him. I have given him the beasts of the field also.” ‘ ”

¹⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, “Hear now, Hananiah, the LORD has not sent you, but you make this people trust in a lie. ¹⁶“Therefore thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I will cast you from the face of the earth. This year you shall die, because you have taught rebellion against the LORD.’ ”

¹⁷So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

Chapter 29

Jeremiah's Letter to the Captives

¹Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the remainder of the elders who were carried away captive—to the priests, the prophets, and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²(This happened after Jeconiah the king, the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem.)

³*The letter was sent* by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying,

⁴*Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all who were carried away captive, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem to Babylon:*

⁵*Build houses and dwell in them; plant gardens and eat their fruit. ⁶Take wives and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, so that they may bear sons and daughters—that you may be increased there, and not diminished.*

⁷*And seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to the LORD for it; for in its peace you will have peace. ⁸For thus* says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let your prophets and your diviners who are in your midst deceive you, nor listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. ⁹For they prophesy falsely to you in My name; I have not sent them, says the LORD.

¹⁰For thus says the LORD: After seventy years are completed at Babylon, I will visit you and perform My good word toward you, and cause you to return to this place. ¹¹For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. ¹²Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you.

¹³And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart. ¹⁴I will be found by you, says the LORD, and I will bring you back from your captivity; I will gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you, says the LORD, and I will bring you to the place from which I cause you to be carried away captive.

Rewards: Leaders with Integrity Can Remain Optimistic

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Even in Israel's darkest hour, God assured the people of His plans to prosper them and give them a hopeful future. Just so, even when we don't see immediate results, we can remain assured of God's ultimate blessing and benefit. The fruit may not come immediately, but it will come ultimately.

¹⁵Because you have said, "The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon"—¹⁶therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, concerning all the people who dwell in this city, and concerning your brethren who have not gone out with you into captivity—¹⁷thus says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like rotten figs that cannot be eaten, they are so bad. ¹⁸And I will pursue them with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence; and I will deliver them to trouble among all the kingdoms of the earth—to be a curse, an astonishment, a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations where I have driven them, ¹⁹because they have not heeded My words, says the LORD, which I sent to them by My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; neither would you heed, says the LORD. ²⁰Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²¹Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in My name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes. ²²And because of them a curse shall be taken up by all the captivity of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, "The LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire"; ²³because they have done disgraceful things in Israel, have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken lying words in My name, which I have not commanded them. Indeed I know, and am a witness, says the LORD. ²⁴You shall also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, ²⁵Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: You have sent letters in your name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, ²⁶“The LORD has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, so that there should be officers in the house of the LORD over every man who is demented and considers himself a prophet, that you should put him in prison and in the stocks. ²⁷Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth who makes himself a prophet to you? ²⁸For he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, ‘This captivity is long; build houses and dwell in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit.’ ”

²⁹Now Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet. ³⁰Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: ³¹Send to all those in captivity, saying, Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I have not sent him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie— ³²therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his family: he shall not have anyone to dwell among this people, nor shall he see the good that I will do for My people, says the LORD, because he has taught rebellion against the LORD.

Chapter 30

Restoration of Israel and Judah

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
²“Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel, saying: ‘Write in a book for yourself all the words that I have spoken to you.
³‘For behold, the days are coming,’ says the LORD, ‘that I will bring back from captivity My people Israel and Judah,’ says the LORD. ‘And I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.’ ”

⁴Now these are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah.

⁵“For thus says the LORD:

‘We have heard a voice of trembling,
Of fear, and not of peace.

⁶Ask now, and see,

Whether a man is ever in labor with child?

So why do I see every man with his hands on his loins

Like a woman in labor,
And all faces turned pale?

⁷Alas! For that day is great,

So that none is like it;

And it is the time of Jacob’s trouble,

But he shall be saved out of it.

⁸‘For it shall come to pass in that day,’
Says the LORD of hosts,
‘That I will break his yoke from your neck,
And will burst your bonds;
Foreigners shall no more enslave them.
⁹But they shall serve the LORD their God,
And David their king,

Whom I will raise up for them.

¹⁰‘Therefore do not fear, O My servant Jacob,’ says
the LORD,

‘Nor be dismayed, O Israel;
For behold, I will save you from afar,
And your seed from the land of their captivity.
Jacob shall return, have rest and be quiet,
And no one shall make him afraid.

¹¹For I am with you,’ says the LORD, ‘to save you; Though I make a full end of all nations where I have scattered you,

Yet I will not make a complete end of you.
But I will correct you in justice,

And will not let you go altogether unpunished.’

¹²‘For thus says the LORD:

‘Your affliction is incurable,
Your wound is severe.

¹³*There is* no one to plead your cause,
That you may be bound up;
You have no healing medicines.

¹⁴All your lovers have forgotten you;
They do not seek you;
For I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy,

With the chastisement of a cruel one,
For the multitude of your iniquities,
Because your sins have increased.

¹⁵Why do you cry about your affliction?
Your sorrow is incurable.
Because of the multitude of your iniquities,
Because your sins have increased,

I have done these things to you.

¹⁶"Therefore all those who devour you shall be devoured;

And all your adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity;

Those who plunder you shall become plunder,
And all who prey upon you I will make a prey.

¹⁷For I will restore health to you
And heal you of your wounds,' says the LORD,
'Because they called you an outcast saying:
"This is Zion;

No one seeks her." '

¹⁸"Thus says the LORD:

'Behold, I will bring back the captivity of Jacob's tents,

And have mercy on his dwelling places;
The city shall be built upon its own mound,
And the palace shall remain according to its own plan.

¹⁹Then out of them shall proceed thanksgiving
And the voice of those who make merry;
I will multiply them, and they shall not diminish;
I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

²⁰Their children also shall be as before,

And their congregation shall be established before Me;

And I will punish all who oppress them.

²¹Their nobles shall be from among them,

And their governor shall come from their midst;

Then I will cause him to draw near,

And he shall approach Me;

For who is this who pledged his heart to approach Me?' says the LORD.

²²'You shall be My people,

And I will be your God.' "

God Punishes with Bad Leaders, Rewards with Good Ones

Jeremiah 30:10-22

Jeremiah declares that God's way of punishing His people is to give them bad leaders (Jer. 30:10, 11), while the Lord's way of rewarding them is to give them good leaders (30:21, 22). Everything rises and falls on leadership. As the leader goes, so go the people. Why is this true?

1. Because leaders represent the people they oversee.

2. Because people reflect the leader they follow.

3. Because leaders are usually the most influential individuals among the people.

4. Because when God starts a movement, He uses one person to spearhead it.

5. Because people are like sheep and look to leaders for models.

²³Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD

Goes forth with fury,

A continuing whirlwind;

It will fall violently on the head of the wicked.

²⁴The fierce anger of the LORD will not return until
He has done it,

And until He has performed the intents of His heart.

In the latter days you will consider it.

Chapter 31

The Remnant of Israel Saved

¹“At the same time,” says the LORD, “I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My people.”

²Thus says the LORD:

“The people who survived the sword
Found grace in the wilderness—

Israel, when I went to give him rest.”

³The LORD has appeared of old to me, saying:
“Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love;
Therefore with lovingkindness I have drawn you.

⁴Again I will build you, and you shall be rebuilt,
O virgin of Israel!

You shall again be adorned with your tambourines,
And shall go forth in the dances of those who rejoice.

⁵You shall yet plant vines on the mountains of Samaria;

The planters shall plant and eat them as ordinary food.

⁶For there shall be a day
When the watchmen will cry on Mount Ephraim,
‘Arise, and let us go up to Zion,

To the LORD our God.’ ”

⁷For thus says the LORD:

“Sing with gladness for Jacob,
And shout among the chief of the nations;
Proclaim, give praise, and say,
‘O LORD, save Your people,
The remnant of Israel!’

⁸Behold, I will bring them from the north country,
And gather them from the ends of the earth,
Among them the blind and the lame,
The woman with child
And the one who labors with child, together;
A great throng shall return there.

⁹They shall come with weeping,
And with supplications I will lead them.
I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters,
In a straight way in which they shall not stumble;
For I am a Father to Israel,

And Ephraim is My firstborn.

¹⁰“Hear the word of the LORD, O nations,
And declare it in the isles afar off, and say,
‘He who scattered Israel will gather him,
And keep him as a shepherd does his flock.’

¹¹For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
And ransomed him from the hand of one stronger than he.

¹²Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion,

Streaming to the goodness of the LORD—
For wheat and new wine and oil,
For the young of the flock and the herd;
Their souls shall be like a well-watered garden,

And they shall sorrow no more at all.

¹³“Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance,
And the young men and the old, together;
For I will turn their mourning to joy,
Will comfort them,
And make them rejoice rather than sorrow.

¹⁴I will satiate the soul of the priests with abundance,

And My people shall be satisfied with My goodness,
says the LORD.”

Mercy on Ephraim

¹⁵Thus says the LORD:

“A voice was heard in Ramah,
Lamentation and bitter weeping,
Rachel weeping for her children,
Refusing to be comforted for her children,

Because they are no more.”

¹⁶Thus says the LORD:

“Refrain your voice from weeping,
And your eyes from tears;
For your work shall be rewarded, says the LORD,
And they shall come back from the land of the enemy.

¹⁷There is hope in your future, says the LORD,

That your children shall come back to their own border.

¹⁸“I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself:
‘You have chastised me, and I was chastised,
Like an untrained bull;
Restore me, and I will return,
For You are the LORD my God.
¹⁹Surely, after my turning, I repented;
And after I was instructed, I struck myself on the thigh;
I was ashamed, yes, even humiliated,
Because I bore the reproach of my youth.’
²⁰*Is* Ephraim My dear son?
Is he a pleasant child?
For though I spoke against him,
I earnestly remember him still;
Therefore My heart yearns for him;

I will surely have mercy on him, says the LORD.

²¹“Set up signposts,
Make landmarks;
Set your heart toward the highway,
The way in which you went.
Turn back, O virgin of Israel,
Turn back to these your cities.
²²How long will you gad about,
O you backsliding daughter?
For the LORD has created a new thing in the earth—

A woman shall encompass a man.”

Future Prosperity of Judah

²³Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “They shall again use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I bring back their captivity: ‘The LORD bless you, O home of justice, and mountain of holiness!’ ²⁴“And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all its cities together, farmers and those going out with flocks. ²⁵“For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.”

²⁶After this I awoke and looked around, and my sleep was sweet to me.

²⁷“Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and the seed of beast. ²⁸“And it shall come to pass, that as I have watched over them to pluck up, to break down, to throw down, to destroy, and to afflict, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the LORD.

²⁹“In those days they shall say no more:

‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes,

And the children’s teeth are set on edge.’

³⁰“But every one shall die for his own iniquity; every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge.

A New Covenant

³¹“Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah— ³²“not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, My covenant which they broke, though I was a husband to them,^a says the LORD. ³³“But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put My law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. ³⁴“No more shall every man teach his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD, ‘ for they all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more.”

³⁵Thus says the LORD,
Who gives the sun for a light by day,
The ordinances of the moon and the stars for a light
by night,
Who disturbs the sea,
And its waves roar

(The LORD of hosts is His name):

³⁶“If those ordinances depart
From before Me, says the LORD,
Then the seed of Israel shall also cease

From being a nation before Me forever.”

³⁷Thus says the LORD:

“If heaven above can be measured,
And the foundations of the earth searched out beneath,
I will also cast off all the seed of Israel

For all that they have done, says the LORD.

³⁸“Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, that the city shall be built for the LORD from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. ³⁹“The surveyor’s line shall again extend straight forward over the hill Gareb; then it shall turn toward Goath. ⁴⁰“And the whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields as far as the Brook Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be holy to the LORD. It shall not be plucked up or thrown down anymore forever.”

Chapter 32

Jeremiah Buys a Field

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. ²For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house. ³For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, "Why do you prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; ⁴"and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him face to face,^a and see him eye to eye; ⁵"then he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he shall be until I visit him," says the LORD; "though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not succeed" "?"

⁶And Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁷'Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle will come to you, saying, "Buy my field which is in Anathoth, for the right of redemption is yours to buy it." ' ⁸"Then Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said to me, 'Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption yours; buy it for yourself.’ Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. ⁹“So I bought the field from Hanamel, the son of my uncle who was in Anathoth, and weighed out to him the money—seventeen shekels of silver. ¹⁰“And I signed the deed and sealed it, took witnesses, and weighed the money on the scales. ¹¹“So I took the purchase deed, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open; ¹²“and I gave the purchase deed to Baruch the son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle’s son, and in the presence of the witnesses who signed the purchase deed, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the prison.

¹³“Then I charged Baruch before them, saying, ¹⁴“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Take these deeds, both this purchase deed which is sealed and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may last many days.” ¹⁵‘For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.” ‘

Jeremiah Prays for Understanding

¹⁶“Now when I had delivered the purchase deed to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying: ¹⁷‘Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm. There is nothing too hard for You. ¹⁸‘You show lovingkindness to thousands, and repay the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them—the Great, the Mighty God, whose name is the LORD of hosts. ¹⁹‘You are great in counsel and mighty in work, for Your eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings. ²⁰‘You have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, to this day, and in Israel and among other men; and You have made Yourself a name, as it is this day. ²¹‘You have brought Your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror; ²²‘You have given them this land, of which You swore to their fathers to give them—“a land flowing with milk and honey.”^a ²³‘And they came in and took possession of it, but they have not obeyed Your voice or walked in Your law. They have done nothing of all that You commanded them to do; therefore You have caused all this calamity to come upon them.

²⁴‘Look, the siege mounds! They have come to the city to take it; and the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword and famine and pestilence. What You have spoken has happened; there You see it! ²⁵‘And You have said to me, O Lord GOD, “Buy the field for money, and take witnesses”!—yet the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans.’

God’s Assurance of the People’s Return

²⁶Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁷“Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for Me? ²⁸“Therefore thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it. ²⁹‘And the Chaldeans who fight against this city shall come and set fire to this city and burn it, with the houses on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke Me to anger; ³⁰‘because the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only evil before Me from their youth. For the children of Israel have provoked Me only to anger with the work of their hands,’ says the LORD. ³¹‘For this city has been to Me a provocation of My anger and My fury from the day that they built it, even to this day; so I will remove it from before My face ³²‘because of all the evil of the children of Israel and the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke Me to anger—they, their kings, their princes, their priests, their prophets, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ³³‘And they have turned to Me the back, and not the face; though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. ³⁴‘But they set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, to defile it. ³⁵‘And they built the high places of Baal which are in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to Molech, which I did not command them, nor did it come into My mind that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.’

³⁶“Now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city of which you say, ‘It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence’: ³⁷‘Behold, I will gather them out of all countries where I have driven them in My anger, in My fury, and in great wrath; I will bring them back to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely. ³⁸‘They shall be My people, and I will be their God; ³⁹‘then I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear Me forever, for the good of them and their children after them. ⁴⁰‘And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from doing them good; but I will put My fear in their hearts so that they will not depart from Me. ⁴¹‘Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will assuredly plant them in this land, with all My heart and with all My soul.’

⁴²“For thus says the LORD: ‘Just as I have brought all this great calamity on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I have promised them. ⁴³‘And fields will be bought in this land of which you say, “It is desolate, without man or beast; it has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans.” ⁴⁴‘Men will buy fields for money, sign deeds and seal them, and take witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South; for I will cause their captives to return,’ says the LORD.”

Chapter 33

¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still shut up in the court of the prison, saying, ²“Thus says the LORD who made it, the LORD who formed it to establish it (the LORD is His name): ³‘Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know.’

⁴“For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah, which have been pulled down to fortify^a against the siege mounds and the sword: ⁵‘They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but only to fill their places^a with the dead bodies of men whom I will slay in My anger and My fury, all for whose wickedness I have hidden My face from this city. ⁶‘Behold, I will bring it health and healing; I will heal them and reveal to them the abundance of peace and truth. ⁷‘And I will cause the captives of Judah and the captives of Israel to return, and will rebuild those places as at the first. ⁸‘I will cleanse them from all their iniquity by which they have sinned against Me, and I will pardon all their iniquities by which they have sinned and by which they have transgressed against Me. ⁹‘Then it shall be to Me a name of joy, a praise, and an honor before all nations of the earth, who shall hear all the good that I do to them; they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and all the prosperity that I provide for it.'

¹⁰"Thus says the LORD: 'Again there shall be heard in this place—of which you say, "It is desolate, without man and without beast"—in the cities of Judah, in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without beast, ¹¹'the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who will say:

"Praise the LORD of hosts,
For the LORD is good,

For His mercy endures forever"—

and of those who will bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause the captives of the land to return as at the first,' says the LORD.

¹²"Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'In this place which is desolate, without man and without beast, and in all its cities, there shall again be a dwelling place of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. ¹³'In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the lowland, in the cities of the South, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks shall again pass under the hands of him who counts them,' says the LORD.

¹⁴'Behold, the days are coming,' says the LORD, 'that I will perform that good thing which I have promised to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah:

¹⁵'In those days and at that time
I will cause to grow up to David
A Branch of righteousness;
He shall execute judgment and righteousness in the earth.

¹⁶In those days Judah will be saved,
And Jerusalem will dwell safely.

And this is the name by which she will be called:

THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.’^a

¹⁷“For thus says the LORD: ‘David shall never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel; ¹⁸’nor shall the priests, the Levites, lack a man to offer burnt offerings before Me, to kindle grain offerings, and to sacrifice continually.’ ”

The Permanence of God’s Covenant

¹⁹And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,
²⁰“Thus says the LORD: ‘If you can break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night, so that there will not be day and night in their season, ²¹’then My covenant may also be broken with David My servant, so that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne, and with the Levites, the priests, My ministers. ²²’As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, nor the sand of the sea measured, so will I multiply the descendants of David My servant and the Levites who minister to Me.’ ”

²³Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁴“Have you not considered what these people have spoken, saying, ‘The two families which the LORD has chosen, He has also cast them off’? Thus they have despised My people, as if they should no more be a nation before them.

²⁵“Thus says the LORD: ‘If My covenant is not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth, ²⁶‘then I will cast away the descendants of Jacob and David My servant, so that I will not take any of his descendants to be rulers over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will cause their captives to return, and will have mercy on them.’ ”

Chapter 34

Zedekiah Warned by God

¹The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army, all the kingdoms of the earth under his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem and all its cities, saying, ²“Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. ³‘And you shall not escape from his hand, but shall surely be taken and delivered into his hand; your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, he shall speak with you face to face,^a and you shall go to Babylon.’ ” ‘ ⁴“Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: ‘You shall not die by the sword. ⁵‘You shall die in peace; as in the ceremonies of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they shall burn incense for you and lament for you, saying, “Alas, lord!” For I have pronounced the word, says the LORD.’ ”

⁶Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, ⁷when the king of Babylon’s army fought against Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and Azekah; for only these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah.

Treacherous Treatment of Slaves

⁸*This is* the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem to proclaim liberty to them: ⁹that every man should set free his male and female slave—a Hebrew man or woman—that no one should keep a Jewish brother in bondage. ¹⁰Now when all the princes and all the people, who had entered into the covenant, heard that everyone should set free his male and female slaves, that no one should keep them in bondage anymore, they obeyed and let them go. ¹¹But afterward they changed their minds and made the male and female slaves return, whom they had set free, and brought them into subjection as male and female slaves.

¹²Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ¹³“Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, ¹⁴“At the end of seven years let every man set free his Hebrew brother, who has been sold to him; and when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you.” But your fathers did not obey Me nor incline their ear. ¹⁵“Then you recently turned and did what was right in My sight—every man proclaiming liberty to his neighbor; and you made a covenant before Me in the house which is called by My name. ¹⁶“Then you turned around and profaned My name, and every one of you brought back his male and female slaves, whom you had set at liberty, at their pleasure, and brought them back into subjection, to be your male and female slaves.’

¹⁷“Therefore thus says the LORD: ‘You have not obeyed Me in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother and every one to his neighbor. Behold, I proclaim liberty to you,' says the LORD—'to the sword, to pestilence, and to famine! And I will deliver you to trouble among all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸'And I will give the men who have transgressed My covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before Me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between the parts of it— ¹⁹'the princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf— ²⁰'I will give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life. Their dead bodies shall be for meat for the birds of the heaven and the beasts of the earth. ²¹'And I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes into the hand of their enemies, into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army which has gone back from you. ²²'Behold, I will command,' says the LORD, 'and cause them to return to this city. They will fight against it and take it and burn it with fire; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant.' "

Chapter 35

The Obedient Rechabites

¹The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, ²“Go to the house of the Rechabites, speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.”

⁶But they said, “We will drink no wine, for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, ‘You shall drink no wine, you nor your sons, forever. ⁷’You shall not build a house, sow seed, plant a vineyard, nor have any of these; but all your days you shall dwell in tents, that you may live many days in the land where you are sojourners.’ ⁸“Thus we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters,

⁹“nor to build ourselves houses to dwell in; nor do we have vineyard, field, or seed. ¹⁰“But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. ¹¹“But it came to pass, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, ‘Come, let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans and for fear of the army of the Syrians.’ So we dwell at Jerusalem.”

¹²Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, ¹³“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, “Will you not receive instruction to obey My words?” says the LORD. ¹⁴“The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, which he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; for to this day they drink none, and obey their father’s commandment. But although I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, you did not obey Me. ¹⁵“I have also sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, “Turn now everyone from his evil way, amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them; then you will dwell in the land which I have given you and your fathers.’ But you have not inclined your ear, nor obeyed Me. ¹⁶“Surely the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them, but this people has not obeyed Me.” ‘

¹⁷“Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the doom that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them but they have not heard, and I have called to them but they have not answered.’ ”

¹⁸And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts and done according to all that he commanded you, ¹⁹“therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not lack a man to stand before Me forever.” ‘ ”

Chapter 36

The Scroll Read in the Temple

¹Now it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying: ²“Take a scroll of a book and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah even to this day. ³“It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the adversities which I purpose to bring upon them, that everyone may turn from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.”

⁴Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote on a scroll of a book, at the instruction of Jeremiah,^a all the words of the LORD which He had spoken to him. ⁵And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, “I am confined, I cannot go into the house of the LORD. ⁶“You go, therefore, and read from the scroll which you have written at my instruction,^a the words of the LORD, in the hearing of the people in the LORD’s house on the day of fasting. And you shall also read them in the hearing of all Judah who come from their cities. ⁷“It may be that they will present their supplication before the LORD, and everyone will turn from his evil way. For great is the anger and the fury that the LORD has pronounced against this people.” ⁸And

Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading from the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

⁹Now it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem. ¹⁰Then Baruch read from the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house, in the hearing of all the people.

The Scroll Read in the Palace

¹¹When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the book, ¹²he then went down to the king's house, into the scribe's chamber; and there all the princes were sitting—Elishama the scribe, Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. ¹³Then Michaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard when Baruch read the book in the hearing of the people. ¹⁴Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll from which you have read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and came to them. ¹⁵And they said to him, "Sit down now, and read it in our hearing." So Baruch read it in their hearing.

¹⁶Now it happened, when they had heard all the words, that they looked in fear from one to another, and said to

Baruch, “We will surely tell the king of all these words.”
¹⁷And they asked Baruch, saying, “Tell us now, how did you write all these words—at his instruction?”^a

¹⁸So Baruch answered them, “He proclaimed with his mouth all these words to me, and I wrote them with ink in the book.”

¹⁹Then the princes said to Baruch, “Go and hide, you and Jeremiah; and let no one know where you are.”

The King Destroys Jeremiah’s Scroll

²⁰And they went to the king, into the court; but they stored the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the hearing of the king. ²¹So the king sent Jehudi to bring the scroll, and he took it from Elishama the scribe’s chamber. And Jehudi read it in the hearing of the king and in the hearing of all the princes who stood beside the king. ²²Now the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month, with a fire burning on the hearth before him. ²³And it happened, when Jehudi had read three or four columns, that the king cut it with the scribe’s knife and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth. ²⁴Yet they were not afraid, nor did they tear their garments, the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words. ²⁵Nevertheless Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah implored the king not to burn the scroll; but he would not listen to them. ²⁶And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king’s^a son, Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD hid them.

Jeremiah Rewrites the Scroll

²⁷Now after the king had burned the scroll with the words which Baruch had written at the instruction of Jeremiah,^a the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: ²⁸“Take yet another scroll, and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. ²⁹“And you shall say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, ‘Thus says the LORD: “You have burned this scroll, saying, ‘Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and cause man and beast to cease from here?’ ” ³⁰“Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: “He shall have no one to sit on the throne of David, and his dead body shall be cast out to the heat of the day and the frost of the night. ³¹“I will punish him, his family, and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah all the doom that I have pronounced against them; but they did not heed.” ‘ ”

³²Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote on it at the instruction of Jeremiah^a all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And besides, there were added to them many similar words.

Chapter 37

Zedekiah's Vain Hope

¹Now King Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. ²But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land gave heed to the words of the LORD which He spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

³And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "Pray now to the LORD our God for us." ⁴Now Jeremiah was coming and going among the people, for they had not yet put him in prison. ⁵Then Pharaoh's army came up from Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

⁶Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ⁷"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Thus you shall say to the king of Judah, who sent you to Me to inquire of Me: "Behold, Pharaoh's army which has come up to help you will return to Egypt, to their own land. ⁸"And the Chaldeans shall come back and fight against this city, and take it and burn it with fire.' " ⁹"Thus says the LORD: 'Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely depart from us," for they will not depart. ¹⁰'For though you had defeated the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained only wounded men among them, they would rise up, every man in his tent, and burn the city with fire.’ ”

Jeremiah Imprisoned

¹¹And it happened, when the army of the Chaldeans left the siege of Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh’s army, ¹²that Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin to claim his property there among the people.

¹³And when he was in the Gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there whose name was Irijah the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he seized Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “You are defecting to the Chaldeans!”

¹⁴Then Jeremiah said, “False! I am not defecting to the Chaldeans.” But he did not listen to him.

So Irijah seized Jeremiah and brought him to the princes. ¹⁵Therefore the princes were angry with Jeremiah, and they struck him and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe. For they had made that the prison.

¹⁶When Jeremiah entered the dungeon and the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days, ¹⁷then Zedekiah the king sent and took him out. The king asked him secretly in his house, and said, “Is there any word from the LORD?”

And Jeremiah said, “There is.” Then he said, “You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon!”

¹⁸Moreover Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “What offense have I committed against you, against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? ¹⁹“Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, ‘The king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land'? ²⁰“Therefore please hear now, O my lord the king. Please, let my petition be accepted before you, and do not make me return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.”

²¹Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah to the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread from the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was gone. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Chapter 38

Jeremiah in the Dungeon

¹Now Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, Jucal^a the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchiah heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken to all the people, saying, ²“Thus says the LORD: ‘He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but he who goes over to the Chaldeans shall live; his life shall be as a prize to him, and he shall live.’^a ³“Thus says the LORD: ‘This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon’s army, which shall take it.’”

⁴Therefore the princes said to the king, “Please, let this man be put to death, for thus he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man does not seek the welfare of this people, but their harm.”

⁵Then Zedekiah the king said, “Look, he is in your hand. For the king can do nothing against you.” ⁶So they took Jeremiah and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the king’s^a son, which was in the court of the prison, and they let Jeremiah down with ropes. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire. So Jeremiah sank in the mire.

Responsibility: Like It or Not, the Buck Stops with the Leader

Jeremiah 38:1-6

Power abuse occurs not only when evil leaders act out of selfishness, but when good leaders neglect to do what they should. In this case, King Zedekiah delegated an undesirable task to someone else, declaring himself powerless to act. The king lacked the courage to use his power to protect God's prophet.

Jeremiah, on the other hand, remained responsible to a call he didn't like. He proclaimed destruction against his own people, naming Babylon as the executioner. Imagine that you were an evangelist standing in church today, declaring that God was raising up the communists to punish America. You declare that God cares nothing for the Declaration of Independence or the Constitution; in fact, the things we emphasize offend God. If you try to stop speaking this message, you feel disobedient. The word burns inside you and you must speak. So you pursue responsibility, not popularity.

Such was the man and the message of Jeremiah.

⁷Now Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon. When the king was sitting at the Gate of Benjamin, ⁸Ebed-Melech went out of the king's house and spoke to the king, saying: ⁹"My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon, and he is likely to die from hunger in the place where he is. For there is no more bread in the city." ¹⁰Then the king commanded Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, "Take from here thirty men with you, and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he dies." ¹¹So Ebed-Melech took the men with him and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took from there old clothes and old rags, and let them down by ropes into the dungeon to Jeremiah. ¹²Then Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Please put these old clothes and rags under your armpits, under the ropes." And Jeremiah did so. ¹³So they pulled Jeremiah up with ropes and lifted him out of the dungeon. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Zedekiah's Fears and Jeremiah's Advice

¹⁴Then Zedekiah the king sent and had Jeremiah the prophet brought to him at the third entrance of the house of the LORD. And the king said to Jeremiah, "I will ask you something. Hide nothing from me."

¹⁵Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me."

¹⁶So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As the LORD lives, who made our very souls, I will not put you to death, nor will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

¹⁷Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you surely surrender to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live; this city shall not be burned with fire, and you and your house shall live. ¹⁸'But if you do not surrender to the king of Babylon's princes, then this city shall be given into the hand of the Chaldeans; they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape from their hand.' "

¹⁹And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have defected to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they abuse me."

²⁰But Jeremiah said, "They shall not deliver you. Please, obey the voice of the LORD which I speak to you. So it shall be well with you, and your soul shall live. ²¹"But if you refuse to surrender, this is the word that the LORD has shown me: ²²'Now behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be surrendered to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say:

"Your close friends have set upon you
And prevailed against you;
Your feet have sunk in the mire,

And they have turned away again."

²³'So they shall surrender all your wives and children to the Chaldeans. You shall not escape from their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon. And you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.' "

²⁴Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Let no one know of these words, and you shall not die. ²⁵"But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the king, and also what the king said to you; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death,' ²⁶"then you shall say to them, 'I presented my request before the king, that he would not make me return to Jonathan's house to die there.' "

²⁷Then all the princes came to Jeremiah and asked him. And he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him, for the conversation had not been heard. ²⁸Now Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken. And he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

Chapter 39

The Fall of Jerusalem

¹In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged it. ²In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the city was penetrated.

³Then all the princes of the king of Babylon came in and sat in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer, Samgar-Nebo, Sarsechim, Rabсарis,^a Nergal-Sarezer, Rabmag,^b with the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

⁴So it was, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, that they fled and went out of the city by night, by way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls. And he went out by way of the plain.^a ⁵But the Chaldean army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And when they had captured him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgment on him. ⁶Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes in Riblah; the king of Babylon also killed all the nobles of Judah. ⁷Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with bronze fetters to carry him off to Babylon. ⁸And the Chaldeans burned the king's house and the houses of the people with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive to Babylon the remnant of the people who remained in the city and those who defected to him, with the rest of the people who remained. ¹⁰But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left in the land of Judah the poor people, who had nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

Jeremiah Goes Free

¹¹Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying, ¹²“Take him and look after him, and do him no harm; but do to him just as he says to you.” ¹³So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent Nebushasban, Rabsaris, Nergal-Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylon’s chief officers; ¹⁴then they sent someone to take Jeremiah from the court of the prison, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should take him home. So he dwelt among the people.

¹⁵Meanwhile the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, ¹⁶“Go and speak to Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Behold, I will bring My words upon this city for adversity and not for good, and they shall be performed in that day before you. ¹⁷“But I will deliver you in that day,” says the LORD, “and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. ¹⁸“For I will surely deliver you, and you shall not fall by the sword; but your life shall be as a prize to you, because you have put your trust in Me,” says the LORD.’ ”

Chapter 40

Jeremiah with Gedaliah the Governor

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all who were carried away captive from Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon.

²And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him: "The LORD your God has pronounced this doom on this place. ³"Now the LORD has brought it, and has done just as He said. Because you people have sinned against the LORD, and not obeyed His voice, therefore this thing has come upon you. ⁴"And now look, I free you this day from the chains that were on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you. But if it seems wrong for you to come with me to Babylon, remain here. See, all the land is before you; wherever it seems good and convenient for you to go, go there."

⁵Now while Jeremiah had not yet gone back, Nebuzaradan said, "Go back to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people. Or go wherever it seems convenient for you to go." So the captain of the guard gave him rations and a gift and let him go. ⁶Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.

⁷And when all the captains of the armies who were in the fields, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, children, and the poorest of the land who had not been carried away captive to Babylon, ⁸then they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah^a the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. ⁹And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath before them and their men, saying, “Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. ¹⁰“As for me, I will indeed dwell at Mizpah and serve the Chaldeans who come to us. But you, gather wine and summer fruit and oil, put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken.” ¹¹Likewise, when all the Jews who were in Moab, among the Ammonites, in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ¹²then all the Jews returned out of all places where they had been driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruit in abundance.

¹³Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, ¹⁴and said to him, “Do you certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to murder you?” But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.

¹⁵Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, “Let me go, please, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he murder you, so that all the Jews who are gathered to you would be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?”

¹⁶But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, “You shall not do this thing, for you speak falsely concerning Ishmael.”

PROFILE in Leadership

BAD LEADERS

Refuse to Heed Warnings

Jeremiah 36:1-40:16

History offers countless examples of leaders who failed because they refused to heed warnings. Just before the outbreak of World War II, British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain failed to heed warnings from several parties concerning the threat posed by Adolf Hitler. Instead, Chamberlain pursued a policy of “appeasement” and confidently announced “peace in our time.” He died a year after the Nazi invasion of Poland.

Two leaders described in the Book of Jeremiah—King Jehoiakim of Judah and Gedaliah, governor of Judah—also failed to heed dire warnings, and it cost them dearly.

Jehoiakim received a scroll containing Jeremiah’s prophecies of destruction. But instead of heeding them, the king burned the scroll and called for the arrest of Jeremiah and his scribe (Jer. 36:1-24). The result: divine judgment on him and his family.

Gedaliah, appointed governor of Judah by the Babylonian king, failed to heed a warning of his impending assassination. He learned of the plot, who was involved, and what could be done to prevent it. But instead of taking the advice offered him, he chose to ignore the threat—and an assassin soon took his life.

A good leader knows when to heed warnings and advice. God has given us His Word, His Spirit, and one another to keep us on the right track. Wise leaders carefully consider the words of all three.

Chapter 41

Insurrection Against Gedaliah

¹Now it came to pass in the seventh month that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and of the officers of the king, came with ten men to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. And there they ate bread together in Mizpah. ²Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, arose and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, and killed him whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. ³Ishmael also struck down all the Jews who were with him, that is, with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.

Gedaliah's Poor Decision-Making Skills Lead to Disaster

Jeremiah 40:5-41:2

The Babylonians appointed Gedaliah the governor of Judah and put him in charge of the poor who had not been taken into exile. But the man failed to develop good decision-making skills. In fact, he made one disastrous decision because he neglected to process available information. A man named Ishmael eventually assassinated him, preventing him from ever reaching his potential as a leader.

What could Gedaliah have done to better approach the decisions before him?

1. Maintain a vision of the big picture.

2. Gather all the information possible.

3. Listen to those closest to the situation.

4. Narrow the best options.

5. Imagine the outcome of each option.

6. Note the moral and spiritual ramifications to the decision.

7. Make choices based on the following criteria:

- a. Which best reflects the mind of God?

- b. Which benefits the whole of the people?

- c. Which aligns itself with the mission you are to accomplish?

⁴And it happened, on the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, when as yet no one knew it, ⁵that certain men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, eighty men with their beards shaved and their clothes torn, having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. ⁶Now Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went along; and it happened as he met them that he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam!" ⁷So it was, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them and cast them into the midst of a pit, he and the men who were with him. ⁸But ten men were found among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us, for we have treasures of wheat, barley, oil, and honey in the field.” So he desisted and did not kill them among their brethren. ⁹Now the pit into which Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had slain, because of Gedaliah, was the same one Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain. ¹⁰Then Ishmael carried away captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king’s daughters and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

¹¹But when Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, ¹²they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah; and they found him by the great pool that is in Gibeon. ¹³So it was, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, that they were glad. ¹⁴Then all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. ¹⁵But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites.

¹⁶Then Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, took from Mizpah all the rest of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah after he had murdered Gedaliah the son of Ahikam—the mighty men of war and the women and the children and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon. ¹⁷And they departed and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is near Bethlehem, as they went on their way to Egypt, ¹⁸because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had murdered Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had made governor in the land.

Chapter 42

The Flight to Egypt Forbidden

¹Now all the captains of the forces, Johanan the son of Kareah, Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, came near ²and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please, let our petition be acceptable to you, and pray for us to the LORD your God, for all this remnant (since we are left but a few of many, as you can see), ³"that the LORD your God may show us the way in which we should walk and the thing we should do."

⁴Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard. Indeed, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words, and it shall be, that whatever the LORD answers you, I will declare it to you. I will keep nothing back from you."

⁵So they said to Jeremiah, "Let the LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not do according to everything which the LORD your God sends us by you. ⁶"Whether it is pleasing or displeasing, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we send you, that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God."

⁷And it happened after ten days that the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. ⁸Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, ⁹and said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition before Him: ¹⁰‘If you will still remain in this land, then I will build you and not pull you down, and I will plant you and not pluck you up. For I relent concerning the disaster that I have brought upon you. ¹¹‘Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; do not be afraid of him,’ says the LORD, ‘for I am with you, to save you and deliver you from his hand. ¹²‘And I will show you mercy, that he may have mercy on you and cause you to return to your own land.’

¹³“But if you say, ‘We will not dwell in this land,’ disobeying the voice of the LORD your God, ¹⁴“saying, ‘No, but we will go to the land of Egypt where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor be hungry for bread, and there we will dwell’— ¹⁵“Then hear now the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah! Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘If you wholly set your faces to enter Egypt, and go to dwell there, ¹⁶‘then it shall be that the sword which you feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; the famine of which you were afraid shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there you shall die. ¹⁷‘So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go to Egypt to dwell there. They shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence. And none of them shall remain or escape from the disaster that I will bring upon them.’

¹⁸“For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘As My anger and My fury have been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so will My fury be poured out on you when you enter Egypt. And you shall be an oath, an astonishment, a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more.’

¹⁹“The LORD has said concerning you, O remnant of Judah, ‘Do not go to Egypt!’ Know certainly that I have admonished you this day. ²⁰“For you were hypocrites in your hearts when you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the LORD our God, and according to all that the LORD your God says, so declare to us and we will do it.' ²¹"And I have this day declared it to you, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, or anything which He has sent you by me. ²²"Now therefore, know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence in the place where you desire to go to dwell."

Jeremiah Makes a Tough Call

Jeremiah 42:1-43:13

Most leaders don't look forward to making tough calls. Jeremiah had to make a tough call when his people rejected God's solution to a dilemma. Jeremiah had to remind them of their disobedience and explain the consequences of their choice (Jer. 42:19-22).

Many leaders fail because of an inability to make tough decisions. Consider some guidelines for making a tough call:

1. Accept tough calls as a requirement of leadership.
2. Do your homework. Research can make or break a decision.
3. Set a deadline.
4. Make sure the timing is right.
5. Seek counsel from the right people.
6. Make your decisions on the principles and values you believe in.

7. Develop systems that enable you to make the tough call.

8. Understand the emotional expense of making the tough call.

9. Recognize your part and God's part.

10. Pray for discernment and courage.

Chapter 43

Jeremiah Taken to Egypt

¹Now it happened, when Jeremiah had stopped speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, all these words, ²that Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, “You speak falsely! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, ‘Do not go to Egypt to dwell there.’” ³“But Baruch the son of Neriah has set you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death or carry us away captive to Babylon.” ⁴So Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces, and all the people would not obey the voice of the LORD, to remain in the land of Judah. ⁵But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces took all the remnant of Judah who had returned to dwell in the land of Judah, from all nations where they had been driven— ⁶men, women, children, the king’s daughters, and every person whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah. ⁷So they went to the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. And they went as far as Tahpanhes.

⁸Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, ⁹“Take large stones in your hand, and hide them in the sight of the men of Judah, in the clay in the brick courtyard which is at the entrance to Pharaoh’s house in Tahpanhes; ¹⁰“and say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Behold, I will send and bring Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and will set his throne above these stones that I have hidden. And he will spread his royal pavilion over them. ¹¹“When he comes, he shall strike the land of Egypt and deliver to death those appointed for death, and to captivity those appointed for captivity, and to the sword those appointed for the sword. ¹²“I^a will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt, and he shall burn them and carry them away captive. And he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment, and he shall go out from there in peace. ¹³“He shall also break the sacred pillars of Beth Shemesh^a that are in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians he shall burn with fire.”

Communication: Jeremiah Uses Word Pictures

Jeremiah 43:8-13

Jeremiah led the people primarily through his word gifts. He expressed his leadership using gifts of prophecy, teaching, and exhortation. Through wise use of these gifts, he became a master communicator.

His book features at least 12 metaphors, or word pictures, that he used to communicate God’s message to God’s people. Effective leaders find similar analogies and object lessons to make their point. Study and learn from Jeremiah, a master communicator.

Jeremiah's twelve object lessons:

1. The almond branch (1:11, 12)
2. The boiling pot (1:13-19)
3. The ruined linen sash (13:1-11)
4. The wine bottles (13:12-14)
5. The drought (14:1-9)
6. The partridge (17:9-11)
7. The potter and the clay (18:1-17)
8. The broken flask (19:1-13)
9. Two baskets of figs (24:1-10)
10. The bonds and yokes (27:1-11)
11. The command to buy a field (32:6-25)
12. The parable of the stones (43:8-13)

Chapter 44

Israelites Will Be Punished in Egypt

¹The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who dwell in the land of Egypt, who dwell at Migdol, at Tahpanhes, at Noph,^a and in the country of Pathros, saying, ²“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘You have seen all the calamity that I have brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are a desolation, and no one dwells in them, ³‘because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke Me to anger, in that they went to burn incense and to serve other gods whom they did not know, they nor you nor your fathers. ⁴‘However I have sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, “Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate!” ⁵‘But they did not listen or incline their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. ⁶‘So My fury and My anger were poured out and kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day.’

⁷“Now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Why do you commit this great evil against yourselves, to cut off from you man and woman, child and infant, out of Judah, leaving none to remain, ⁸‘in that you provoke Me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to dwell, that you may cut yourselves off and be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? ⁹‘Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives, your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰‘They have not been humbled, to this day, nor have they feared; they have not walked in My law or in My statutes that I set before you and your fathers.’

¹¹“Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Behold, I will set My face against you for catastrophe and for cutting off all Judah. ¹²‘And I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to dwell there, and they shall all be consumed and fall in the land of Egypt. They shall be consumed by the sword and by famine. They shall die, from the least to the greatest, by the sword and by famine; and they shall be an oath, an astonishment, a curse and a reproach! ¹³‘For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence, ¹⁴‘so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt to dwell there shall escape or survive, lest they return to the land of Judah, to which they desire to return and dwell. For none shall return except those who escape.’ ”

¹⁵Then all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other gods, with all the women who stood by, a great multitude, and all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying: ¹⁶“As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you! ¹⁷“But we will certainly do whatever has gone out of our own mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of food, were well-off, and saw no trouble. ¹⁸“But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have been consumed by the sword and by famine.”

¹⁹*The women also said*, “And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make cakes for her, to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her without our husbands’ permission?”

²⁰Then Jeremiah spoke to all the people—the men, the women, and all the people who had given him that answer—saying: ²¹“The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and did it not come into His mind? ²²“So the LORD could no longer bear it, because of the evil of your doings and because of the abominations which you committed. Therefore your land is a desolation, an astonishment, a curse, and without an inhabitant, as it is this day. ²³“Because you have burned incense and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD or walked in His law, in His statutes or in His testimonies, therefore this calamity has happened to you, as at this day.”

²⁴Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people and to all the women, “Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt! ²⁵“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: ‘You and your wives have spoken with your mouths and fulfilled with your hands, saying, “We will surely keep our vows that we have made, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her.” You will surely keep your vows and perform your vows!’ ²⁶“Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: 'Behold, I have sworn by My great name,' says the LORD, 'that My name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, "The Lord GOD lives." ²⁷'Behold, I will watch over them for adversity and not for good. And all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, until there is an end to them. ²⁸'Yet a small number who escape the sword shall return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone to the land of Egypt to dwell there, shall know whose words will stand, Mine or theirs. ²⁹'And this shall be a sign to you,' says the LORD, 'that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that My words will surely stand against you for adversity.'

³⁰"Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy who sought his life.' "

Chapter 45

Assurance to Baruch

¹The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the instruction of Jeremiah,^a in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, ²“Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: ³You said, “Woe is me now! For the LORD has added grief to my sorrow. I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.” ‘

⁴“Thus you shall say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Behold, what I have built I will break down, and what I have planted I will pluck up, that is, this whole land. ⁵“And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for behold, I will bring adversity on all flesh,” says the LORD. “But I will give your life to you as a prize in all places, wherever you go.” ‘ ”

Chapter 46

Judgment on Egypt

¹The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the nations. ²Against Egypt.

Concerning the army of Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt, which was by the River Euphrates in Carchemish, and which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

³“Order the buckler and shield,
And draw near to battle!

⁴Harness the horses,
And mount up, you horsemen!
Stand forth with your helmets,
Polish the spears,
Put on the armor!

⁵Why have I seen them dismayed and turned back?
Their mighty ones are beaten down;
They have speedily fled,
And did not look back,
For fear was all around,” says the LORD.

⁶“Do not let the swift flee away,
Nor the mighty man escape;
They will stumble and fall

Toward the north, by the River Euphrates.

⁷“Who is this coming up like a flood,
Whose waters move like the rivers?

⁸Egypt rises up like a flood,
And its waters move like the rivers;
And he says, ‘I will go up and cover the earth,
I will destroy the city and its inhabitants.’

⁹Come up, O horses, and rage, O chariots!
And let the mighty men come forth:
The Ethiopians and the Libyans who handle the shield,

And the Lydians who handle and bend the bow.

¹⁰For this is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts,
A day of vengeance,
That He may avenge Himself on His adversaries.
The sword shall devour;
It shall be satiated and made drunk with their blood;
For the Lord GOD of hosts has a sacrifice

In the north country by the River Euphrates.

¹¹“Go up to Gilead and take balm,
O virgin, the daughter of Egypt;
In vain you will use many medicines;
You shall not be cured.

¹²The nations have heard of your shame,
And your cry has filled the land;
For the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty;

They both have fallen together.”

Babylonia Will Strike Egypt

¹³The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon would come and strike the land of Egypt.

¹⁴“Declare in Egypt, and proclaim in Migdol;
Proclaim in Noph^a and in Tahpanhes;
Say, ‘Stand fast and prepare yourselves,
For the sword devours all around you.’

¹⁵Why are your valiant men swept away?
They did not stand
Because the LORD drove them away.

¹⁶He made many fall;
Yes, one fell upon another.
And they said, ‘Arise!
Let us go back to our own people
And to the land of our nativity
From the oppressing sword.’

¹⁷They cried there,
‘Pharaoh, king of Egypt, is but a noise.

He has passed by the appointed time!’

¹⁸“As I live,” says the King,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts,
“Surely as Tabor is among the mountains
And as Carmel by the sea, so he shall come.

¹⁹O you daughter dwelling in Egypt,
Prepare yourself to go into captivity!

For Noph^a shall be waste and desolate, without inhabitant.

²⁰“Egypt is a very pretty heifer,
But destruction comes, it comes from the north.

²¹Also her mercenaries are in her midst like fat bulls,
For they also are turned back,
They have fled away together.

They did not stand,
For the day of their calamity had come upon them,
The time of their punishment.

²²Her noise shall go like a serpent,
For they shall march with an army
And come against her with axes,

Like those who chop wood.

²³“They shall cut down her forest,” says the LORD,
“Though it cannot be searched,
Because they are innumerable,
And more numerous than grasshoppers.

²⁴The daughter of Egypt shall be ashamed;
She shall be delivered into the hand

Of the people of the north.”

²⁵The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: “Behold, I will bring punishment on Amon^a of No^b, and Pharaoh and Egypt, with their gods and their kings—Pharaoh and those who trust in him. ²⁶“And I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the hand of his servants. Afterward it shall be inhabited as in the days of old,” says the LORD.

God Will Preserve Israel

²⁷“But do not fear, O My servant Jacob,
And do not be dismayed, O Israel!

For behold, I will save you from afar,
And your offspring from the land of their captivity;
Jacob shall return, have rest and be at ease;
No one shall make him afraid.

²⁸Do not fear, O Jacob My servant," says the LORD,
"For I am with you;
For I will make a complete end of all the nations
To which I have driven you,
But I will not make a complete end of you.
I will rightly correct you,

For I will not leave you wholly unpunished."

Chapter 47

Judgment on Philistia

¹The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before Pharaoh attacked Gaza.

²Thus says the LORD:

“Behold, waters rise out of the north,
And shall be an overflowing flood;
They shall overflow the land and all that is in it,
The city and those who dwell within;
Then the men shall cry,
And all the inhabitants of the land shall wail.

³At the noise of the stamping hooves of his strong horses,

At the rushing of his chariots,
At the rumbling of his wheels,
The fathers will not look back for their children,
Lacking courage,

⁴Because of the day that comes to plunder all the Philistines,

To cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains;

For the LORD shall plunder the Philistines,
The remnant of the country of Caphtor.

⁵Baldness has come upon Gaza,

Ashkelon is cut off
With the remnant of their valley.

How long will you cut yourself?

⁶“O you sword of the LORD,
How long until you are quiet?
Put yourself up into your scabbard,
Rest and be still!

⁷How can it be quiet,
Seeing the LORD has given it a charge
Against Ashkelon and against the seashore?

There He has appointed it.”

Chapter 48

Judgment on Moab

¹Against Moab.

Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

“Woe to Nebo!

For it is plundered,

Kirjathaim is shamed and taken;

The high stronghold^a is shamed and dismayed—

²No more praise of Moab.

In Heshbon they have devised evil against her:

‘Come, and let us cut her off as a nation.’

You also shall be cut down, O Madmen!^a

The sword shall pursue you;

³A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim:

‘Plundering and great destruction!’

⁴“Moab is destroyed;

Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard;^a ⁵For in the Ascent of Luhith they ascend with continual weeping;

For in the descent of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

⁶“Flee, save your lives!

And be like the juniper^a in the wilderness.

⁷For because you have trusted in your works and your treasures,

You also shall be taken.

And Chemosh shall go forth into captivity,

His priests and his princes together.

⁸And the plunderer shall come against every city;

No one shall escape.

The valley also shall perish,

And the plain shall be destroyed,

As the LORD has spoken.

⁹“Give wings to Moab,

That she may flee and get away;

For her cities shall be desolate,

Without any to dwell in them.

¹⁰Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD deceitfully,

And cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.

¹¹“Moab has been at ease from his^a youth;

He has settled on his dregs,

And has not been emptied from vessel to vessel,

Nor has he gone into captivity.

Therefore his taste remained in him,

And his scent has not changed.

¹²“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD,

“That I shall send him wine-workers

Who will tip him over

And empty his vessels

And break the bottles.

¹³Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh,

As the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.

¹⁴“How can you say, ‘We are mighty
And strong men for the war’?

¹⁵Moab is plundered and gone up from her cities;
Her chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter,” says the King,

Whose name is the LORD of hosts.

¹⁶“The calamity of Moab is near at hand,
And his affliction comes quickly.

¹⁷Bemoan him, all you who are around him;
And all you who know his name,
Say, ‘How the strong staff is broken,

The beautiful rod!’

¹⁸“O daughter inhabiting Dibon,
Come down from your glory,
And sit in thirst;
For the plunderer of Moab has come against you,
He has destroyed your strongholds.

¹⁹O inhabitant of Aroer,
Stand by the way and watch;
Ask him who flees
And her who escapes;
Say, ‘What has happened?’

²⁰Moab is shamed, for he is broken down.
Wail and cry!

Tell it in Arnon, that Moab is plundered.

²¹“And judgment has come on the plain country:
On Holon and Jahzah and Mephaath,
²²On Dibon and Nebo and Beth Diblathaim,
²³On Kirjathaim and Beth Gamul and Beth Meon,
²⁴On Kerioth and Bozrah,
On all the cities of the land of Moab,
Far or near.

²⁵The horn of Moab is cut off,

And his arm is broken,” says the LORD.

²⁶“Make him drunk,
Because he exalted himself against the LORD.
Moab shall wallow in his vomit,
And he shall also be in derision.

²⁷For was not Israel a derision to you?
Was he found among thieves?
For whenever you speak of him,
You shake your head in scorn.

²⁸You who dwell in Moab,
Leave the cities and dwell in the rock,
And be like the dove which makes her nest

In the sides of the cave’s mouth.

²⁹“We have heard the pride of Moab
(He is exceedingly proud),
Of his loftiness and arrogance and pride,

And of the haughtiness of his heart.”

³⁰“I know his wrath,” says the LORD,

Leadership Brings Temptations

Jeremiah 48:26-30

The nation of Moab dominated several others in her most powerful years, but God pronounced a severe judgment against her. Why? Moab's leaders, caught up in their own power, defied the Lord. Pride, conceit, and arrogance began to drive her leaders.

The same danger often ruins leaders today. Several related temptations commonly lead to the destruction of contemporary leaders:

1. Pride: We enjoy thinking that we did it on our own.
2. Possessions: We pursue the perks that come with our visibility.
3. Popularity: We begin to believe our own press.
4. Power: We recognize our clout and use it to advance ourselves.
5. Prestige: We love the feeling of being important and irreplaceable.
6. Pleasure: We think we deserve special treatment not given to others.
7. People: We cross a line from serving others to pleasing people.

After enjoying leadership success, a sequence of events often follows:

1. Satisfaction: We enjoy the victory we have achieved.
2. Indulgence: We unconsciously feel we deserve a pleasurable reward.
3. Compromise: We rationalize our behavior.
4. Denial: We continue leading, not realizing our impure motives.

5. Adultery: We give ourselves to another, sexually, emotionally, or financially.

6. Obsession: We get trapped in a pattern that consumes us.

“But it is not right;
His lies have made nothing right.

³¹Therefore I will wail for Moab,
And I will cry out for all Moab;

I a will mourn for the men of Kir Heres.

³²O vine of Sibmah! I will weep for you with the weeping of Jazer.

Your plants have gone over the sea,
They reach to the sea of Jazer.

The plunderer has fallen on your summer fruit and your vintage.

³³Joy and gladness are taken
From the plentiful field
And from the land of Moab;
I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses;
No one will tread with joyous shouting—

Not joyous shouting!

³⁴“From the cry of Heshbon to Elealeh and to Jahaz
They have uttered their voice,
From Zoar to Horonaim,
Like a three-year-old heifer; a

For the waters of Nimrim also shall be desolate.

³⁵“Moreover,” says the LORD,
“I will cause to cease in Moab
The one who offers sacrifices in the high places
And burns incense to his gods.

³⁶Therefore My heart shall wail like flutes for Moab,
And like flutes My heart shall wail
For the men of Kir Heres.

Therefore the riches they have acquired have perished.

³⁷“For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped;

On all the hands shall be cuts, and on the loins
sackcloth—

³⁸A general lamentation

On all the housetops of Moab,

And in its streets;

For I have broken Moab like a vessel in which is no pleasure,” says the LORD.

³⁹“They shall wail:

‘How she is broken down!

How Moab has turned her back with shame!’

So Moab shall be a derision

And a dismay to all those about her.”

⁴⁰For thus says the LORD:

“Behold, one shall fly like an eagle,

And spread his wings over Moab.

⁴¹Kerioth is taken,

And the strongholds are surprised;

The mighty men’s hearts in Moab on that day shall be

Like the heart of a woman in birth pangs.

⁴²And Moab shall be destroyed as a people,

Because he exalted himself against the LORD.

⁴³Fear and the pit and the snare shall be upon you,

O inhabitant of Moab,” says the LORD.

⁴⁴“He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit,
And he who gets out of the pit shall be caught in the snare.

For upon Moab, upon it I will bring

The year of their punishment,” says the LORD.

⁴⁵“Those who fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon

Because of exhaustion.

But a fire shall come out of Heshbon,

A flame from the midst of Sihon,

And shall devour the brow of Moab,

The crown of the head of the sons of tumult.

⁴⁶Woe to you, O Moab!

The people of Chemosh perish;

For your sons have been taken captive,

And your daughters captive.

⁴⁷“Yet I will bring back the captives of Moab

In the latter days,” says the LORD.
Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

Chapter 49

Judgment on Ammon

¹Against the Ammonites.

Thus says the LORD:

“Has Israel no sons?

Has he no heir?

Why then does Milcom^a inherit Gad,

And his people dwell in its cities?

²Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD,

“That I will cause to be heard an alarm of war

In Rabbah of the Ammonites;

It shall be a desolate mound,

And her villages shall be burned with fire.

Then Israel shall take possession of his inheritance,” says the LORD.

³“Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is plundered!

Cry, you daughters of Rabbah,

Gird yourselves with sackcloth!

Lament and run to and fro by the walls;

For Milcom shall go into captivity

With his priests and his princes together.

⁴Why do you boast in the valleys,

Your flowing valley, O backsliding daughter?
Who trusted in her treasures, saying,
'Who will come against me?'
⁵Behold, I will bring fear upon you,"
Says the Lord GOD of hosts,
"From all those who are around you;
You shall be driven out, everyone headlong,
And no one will gather those who wander off.
⁶But afterward I will bring back

The captives of the people of Ammon," says the LORD.

Judgment on Edom

⁷Against Edom.

Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Is wisdom no more in Teman?
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom vanished?

⁸Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Dedan!

For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him,
The time that I will punish him.

⁹If grape-gatherers came to you,
Would they not leave some gleaning grapes?
If thieves by night,
Would they not destroy until they have enough?

¹⁰But I have made Esau bare;
I have uncovered his secret places, a
And he shall not be able to hide himself.
His descendants are plundered,

His brethren and his neighbors,
And he is no more.

¹¹Leave your fatherless children,
I will preserve them alive;

And let your widows trust in Me.”

¹²For thus says the LORD: “Behold, those whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunk. And are you the one who will altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink of it.

¹³“For I have sworn by Myself,” says the LORD, “that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse. And all its cities shall be perpetual wastes.”

¹⁴I have heard a message from the LORD,
And an ambassador has been sent to the nations:
“Gather together, come against her,

And rise up to battle!

¹⁵“For indeed, I will make you small among nations,
Despised among men.

¹⁶Your fierceness has deceived you,
The pride of your heart,
O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
Who hold the height of the hill!
Though you make your nest as high as the eagle,

I will bring you down from there,” says the LORD.¹⁷

¹⁷“Edom also shall be an astonishment;
Everyone who goes by it will be astonished
And will hiss at all its plagues.

¹⁸As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah
And their neighbors,” says the LORD,
“No one shall remain there,

Nor shall a son of man dwell in it.

¹⁹“Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the floodplain^a of the Jordan

Against the dwelling place of the strong;

But I will suddenly make him run away from her.

And who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her?

For who is like Me?

Who will arraign Me?

And who is that shepherd

Who will withstand Me?”

²⁰Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against Edom,

And His purposes that He has proposed against the inhabitants of Teman:

Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out;

Surely He shall make their dwelling places desolate with them.

²¹The earth shakes at the noise of their fall;

At the cry its noise is heard at the Red Sea.

²²Behold, He shall come up and fly like the eagle,

And spread His wings over Bozrah;

The heart of the mighty men of Edom in that day shall be

Like the heart of a woman in birth pangs.

Judgment on Damascus

²³Against Damascus.

“Hamath and Arpad are shamed,
For they have heard bad news.
They are fainthearted;
There is trouble on the sea;
It cannot be quiet.
²⁴Damascus has grown feeble;
She turns to flee,
And fear has seized her.
Anguish and sorrows have taken her like a woman in labor.
²⁵Why is the city of praise not deserted, the city of My joy?
²⁶Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets,
And all the men of war shall be cut off in that day,”
says the LORD of hosts.
²⁷“I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus,

And it shall consume the palaces of Ben-Hadad.”a

Judgment on Kedar and Hazor

²⁸Against Kedar and against the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon shall strike.
Thus says the LORD:

“Arise, go up to Kedar,
And devastate the men of the East!
²⁹Their tents and their flocks they shall take away.
They shall take for themselves their curtains,
All their vessels and their camels;
And they shall cry out to them,

‘Fear is on every side!’

³⁰“Flee, get far away! Dwell in the depths,
O inhabitants of Hazor!” says the LORD.

“For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you,

And has conceived a plan against you.

³¹“Arise, go up to the wealthy nation that dwells securely,” says the LORD,

“Which has neither gates nor bars,
Dwelling alone.

³²Their camels shall be for booty,
And the multitude of their cattle for plunder.

I will scatter to all winds those in the farthest corners,

And I will bring their calamity from all its sides,” says
the LORD.

³³“Hazor shall be a dwelling for jackals, a desolation
forever;

No one shall reside there,

Nor son of man dwell in it.”

Judgment on Elam

³⁴The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, ³⁵“Thus says the LORD of hosts:

‘Behold, I will break the bow of Elam,
The foremost of their might.

³⁶Against Elam I will bring the four winds
From the four quarters of heaven,

And scatter them toward all those winds;
There shall be no nations where the outcasts of Elam will not go.

³⁷For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies

And before those who seek their life.

I will bring disaster upon them,

My fierce anger,' says the LORD;

'And I will send the sword after them

Until I have consumed them.

³⁸I will set My throne in Elam,

And will destroy from there the king and the princes,' says the LORD.

³⁹'But it shall come to pass in the latter days:

I will bring back the captives of Elam,' says the LORD."

Chapter 50

Judgment on Babylon and Babylonia

¹The word that the LORD spoke against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet.

²“Declare among the nations,
Proclaim, and set up a standard;
Proclaim—do not conceal it—
Say, ‘Babylon is taken, Bel is shamed.
Merodach^a is broken in pieces;
Her idols are humiliated,
Her images are broken in pieces.’

³For out of the north a nation comes up against her,
Which shall make her land desolate,
And no one shall dwell therein.
They shall move, they shall depart,

Both man and beast.

⁴“In those days and in that time,” says the LORD,
“The children of Israel shall come,
They and the children of Judah together;
With continual weeping they shall come,
And seek the LORD their God.

⁵They shall ask the way to Zion,
With their faces toward it, saying,

‘Come and let us join ourselves to the LORD
In a perpetual covenant

That will not be forgotten.’

⁶“My people have been lost sheep.
Their shepherds have led them astray;
They have turned them away on the mountains.
They have gone from mountain to hill;
They have forgotten their resting place.

⁷All who found them have devoured them;
And their adversaries said, ‘We have not offended, Because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice,

The LORD, the hope of their fathers.’

⁸“Move from the midst of Babylon,
Go out of the land of the Chaldeans;
And be like the rams before the flocks.

⁹For behold, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon

An assembly of great nations from the north country,
And they shall array themselves against her;
From there she shall be captured.

Their arrows shall be like those of an expert warrior;^a

None shall return in vain.

¹⁰And Chaldea shall become plunder;

All who plunder her shall be satisfied,” says the
LORD.

¹¹“Because you were glad, because you rejoiced,
You destroyers of My heritage,

Because you have grown fat like a heifer threshing grain,

And you bellow like bulls,

¹²Your mother shall be deeply ashamed;

She who bore you shall be ashamed.

Behold, the least of the nations shall be a wilderness,
A dry land and a desert.

¹³Because of the wrath of the LORD

She shall not be inhabited,

But she shall be wholly desolate.

Everyone who goes by Babylon shall be horrified

And hiss at all her plagues.

¹⁴"Put yourselves in array against Babylon all around,

All you who bend the bow;

Shoot at her, spare no arrows,

For she has sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵Shout against her all around;

She has given her hand,

Her foundations have fallen,

Her walls are thrown down;

For it is the vengeance of the LORD.

Take vengeance on her.

As she has done, so do to her.

¹⁶Cut off the sower from Babylon,

And him who handles the sickle at harvest time.

For fear of the oppressing sword

Everyone shall turn to his own people,

And everyone shall flee to his own land.

¹⁷"Israel is like scattered sheep;

The lions have driven him away.

First the king of Assyria devoured him;

Now at last this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones.”

¹⁸Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

“Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land,

As I have punished the king of Assyria.

¹⁹But I will bring back Israel to his home,
And he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan;
His soul shall be satisfied on Mount Ephraim and Gilead.

²⁰In those days and in that time,” says the LORD,
“The iniquity of Israel shall be sought, but there shall be none;

And the sins of Judah, but they shall not be found;

For I will pardon those whom I preserve.

²¹“Go up against the land of Merathaim, against it,
And against the inhabitants of Pekod.

Waste and utterly destroy them,” says the LORD,
“And do according to all that I have commanded you.

²²A sound of battle is in the land,
And of great destruction.

²³How the hammer of the whole earth has been cut apart and broken!

How Babylon has become a desolation among the nations!

²⁴I have laid a snare for you;
You have indeed been trapped, O Babylon,
And you were not aware;
You have been found and also caught,
Because you have contended against the LORD.

²⁵The LORD has opened His armory,

And has brought out the weapons of His indignation;
For this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts
In the land of the Chaldeans.

²⁶Come against her from the farthest border;
Open her storehouses;
Cast her up as heaps of ruins,
And destroy her utterly;
Let nothing of her be left.

²⁷Slay all her bulls,
Let them go down to the slaughter.
Woe to them!

For their day has come, the time of their punishment.

²⁸The voice of those who flee and escape from the land of Babylon

Declares in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God,

The vengeance of His temple.

²⁹“Call together the archers against Babylon.

All you who bend the bow, encamp against it all around;

Let none of them escape.^{a}

Repay her according to her work;

According to all she has done, do to her;

For she has been proud against the LORD,

Against the Holy One of Israel.

³⁰Therefore her young men shall fall in the streets,
And all her men of war shall be cut off in that day,”
says the LORD.

³¹“Behold, I am against you,

O most haughty one!” says the Lord GOD of hosts;

“For your day has come,

The time that I will punish you.^{a}

³²The most proud shall stumble and fall,
And no one will raise him up;
I will kindle a fire in his cities,

And it will devour all around him.”

³³Thus says the LORD of hosts:

“The children of Israel were oppressed,
Along with the children of Judah;
All who took them captive have held them fast;
They have refused to let them go.

³⁴Their Redeemer is strong;
The LORD of hosts is His name.
He will thoroughly plead their case,
That He may give rest to the land,

And disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

³⁵“A sword is against the Chaldeans,” says the LORD,
“Against the inhabitants of Babylon,
And against her princes and her wise men.

³⁶A sword is against the soothsayers, and they will be fools.

A sword is against her mighty men, and they will be dismayed.

³⁷A sword is against their horses,
Against their chariots,
And against all the mixed peoples who are in her
midst;

And they will become like women.

A sword is against her treasures, and they will be robbed.

³⁸A drought^a is against her waters, and they will be dried up.

For it is the land of carved images,

And they are insane with their idols.

³⁹“Therefore the wild desert beasts shall dwell there with the jackals,

And the ostriches shall dwell in it.

It shall be inhabited no more forever,

Nor shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

⁴⁰As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah

And their neighbors,” says the LORD,

“So no one shall reside there,

Nor son of man dwell in it.

⁴¹“Behold, a people shall come from the north,

And a great nation and many kings

Shall be raised up from the ends of the earth.

⁴²They shall hold the bow and the lance;

They are cruel and shall not show mercy.

Their voice shall roar like the sea;

They shall ride on horses,

Set in array, like a man for the battle,

Against you, O daughter of Babylon.

⁴³“The king of Babylon has heard the report about them,

And his hands grow feeble;

Anguish has taken hold of him,

Pangs as of a woman in childbirth.

⁴⁴“Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the floodplain^a of the Jordan

Against the dwelling place of the strong;

But I will make them suddenly run away from her.

And who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her?

For who is like Me?

Who will arraign Me?

And who is that shepherd

Who will withstand Me?"

⁴⁵Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against Babylon,

And His purposes that He has proposed against the land of the Chaldeans:

Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out;

Surely He will make their dwelling place desolate with them.

⁴⁶At the noise of the taking of Babylon

The earth trembles,

And the cry is heard among the nations.

Chapter 51

The Utter Destruction of Babylon

¹Thus says the LORD:

“Behold, I will raise up against Babylon,
Against those who dwell in Leb Kamai,^a
A destroying wind.

²And I will send winnowers to Babylon,
Who shall winnow her and empty her land.
For in the day of doom
They shall be against her all around.

³Against her let the archer bend his bow,
And lift himself up against her in his armor.
Do not spare her young men;
Utterly destroy all her army.

⁴Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans,
And those thrust through in her streets.

⁵For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah,
By his God, the LORD of hosts,

Though their land was filled with sin against the Holy
One of Israel.”

⁶Flee from the midst of Babylon,
And every one save his life!
Do not be cut off in her iniquity,

For this is the time of the LORD's vengeance;
He shall recompense her.

⁷Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD's hand,
That made all the earth drunk.

The nations drank her wine;
Therefore the nations are deranged.

⁸Babylon has suddenly fallen and been destroyed.
Wail for her!

Take balm for her pain;
Perhaps she may be healed.

⁹We would have healed Babylon,
But she is not healed.

Forsake her, and let us go everyone to his own country;

For her judgment reaches to heaven and is lifted up to the skies.

¹⁰The LORD has revealed our righteousness.

Come and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

¹¹Make the arrows bright!

Gather the shields!

The LORD has raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes.

For His plan is against Babylon to destroy it,
Because it is the vengeance of the LORD,
The vengeance for His temple.

¹²Set up the standard on the walls of Babylon;

Make the guard strong,

Set up the watchmen,

Prepare the ambushes.

For the LORD has both devised and done

What He spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon.

¹³O you who dwell by many waters,

Abundant in treasures,
Your end has come,
The measure of your covetousness.

¹⁴The LORD of hosts has sworn by Himself:
“Surely I will fill you with men, as with locusts,

And they shall lift up a shout against you.”

¹⁵He has made the earth by His power;
He has established the world by His wisdom,
And stretched out the heaven by His understanding.

¹⁶When He utters His voice—
There is a multitude of waters in the heavens:
“He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the
earth;

He makes lightnings for the rain;

He brings the wind out of His treasures.”^a

¹⁷Everyone is dull-hearted, without knowledge;
Every metalsmith is put to shame by the carved image;

For his molded image is falsehood,
And there is no breath in them.

¹⁸They are futile, a work of errors;
In the time of their punishment they shall perish.

¹⁹The Portion of Jacob is not like them,
For He is the Maker of all things;
And Israel is the tribe of His inheritance.

The LORD of hosts is His name.

²⁰“You are My battle-ax and weapons of war:
For with you I will break the nation in pieces;
With you I will destroy kingdoms;

²¹With you I will break in pieces the horse and its rider;

With you I will break in pieces the chariot and its rider;

²²With you also I will break in pieces man and woman;

With you I will break in pieces old and young;

With you I will break in pieces the young man and the maiden;

²³With you also I will break in pieces the shepherd and his flock;

With you I will break in pieces the farmer and his yoke of oxen;

And with you I will break in pieces governors and rulers.

²⁴“And I will repay Babylon
And all the inhabitants of Chaldea
For all the evil they have done

In Zion in your sight,” says the LORD.

²⁵“Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain,
Who destroys all the earth,” says the LORD.

“And I will stretch out My hand against you,
Roll you down from the rocks,
And make you a burnt mountain.

²⁶They shall not take from you a stone for a corner
Nor a stone for a foundation,

But you shall be desolate forever,” says the LORD.

²⁷Set up a banner in the land,
Blow the trumpet among the nations!
Prepare the nations against her,

Call the kingdoms together against her:
Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
Appoint a general against her;
Cause the horses to come up like the bristling locusts.

²⁸Prepare against her the nations,
With the kings of the Medes,
Its governors and all its rulers,
All the land of his dominion.

²⁹And the land will tremble and sorrow;
For every purpose of the LORD shall be performed
against Babylon,
To make the land of Babylon a desolation without inhabitant.

³⁰The mighty men of Babylon have ceased fighting,
They have remained in their strongholds;
Their might has failed,
They became like women;
They have burned her dwelling places,
The bars of her gate are broken.

³¹One runner will run to meet another,
And one messenger to meet another,
To show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on all sides;

³²The passages are blocked,
The reeds they have burned with fire,

And the men of war are terrified.

³³For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

“The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor
When it is time to thresh her;
Yet a little while

And the time of her harvest will come.”

³⁴“Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon
Has devoured me, he has crushed me;
He has made me an empty vessel,
He has swallowed me up like a monster;
He has filled his stomach with my delicacies,
He has spit me out.

³⁵Let the violence done to me and my flesh be upon Babylon,”

The inhabitant of Zion will say;
“And my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea!”

Jerusalem will say.

³⁶Therefore thus says the LORD:

“Behold, I will plead your case and take vengeance for you.

I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry.

³⁷Babylon shall become a heap,
A dwelling place for jackals,
An astonishment and a hissing,
Without an inhabitant.

³⁸They shall roar together like lions,
They shall growl like lions’ whelps.

³⁹In their excitement I will prepare their feasts;
I will make them drunk,
That they may rejoice,
And sleep a perpetual sleep
And not awake,” says the LORD.

⁴⁰“I will bring them down
Like lambs to the slaughter,

Like rams with male goats.

⁴¹“Oh, how Sheshach^a is taken!
Oh, how the praise of the whole earth is seized!

How Babylon has become desolate among the nations!

⁴²The sea has come up over Babylon;
She is covered with the multitude of its waves.

⁴³Her cities are a desolation,
A dry land and a wilderness,
A land where no one dwells,
Through which no son of man passes.

⁴⁴I will punish Bel in Babylon,
And I will bring out of his mouth what he has swallowed;

And the nations shall not stream to him anymore.

Yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

⁴⁵“My people, go out of the midst of her!
And let everyone deliver himself from the fierce anger of the LORD.

⁴⁶And lest your heart faint,
And you fear for the rumor that will be heard in the land

(A rumor will come one year,
And after that, in another year
A rumor will come,
And violence in the land,
Ruler against ruler),

⁴⁷Therefore behold, the days are coming
That I will bring judgment on the carved images of Babylon;

Her whole land shall be ashamed,
And all her slain shall fall in her midst.

⁴⁸Then the heavens and the earth and all that is in
them

Shall sing joyously over Babylon;

For the plunderers shall come to her from the north," says the LORD.

⁴⁹As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall,
So at Babylon the slain of all the earth shall fall.

⁵⁰You who have escaped the sword,
Get away! Do not stand still!
Remember the LORD afar off,

And let Jerusalem come to your mind.

⁵¹We are ashamed because we have heard reproach.
Shame has covered our faces,

For strangers have come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

⁵²"Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"That I will bring judgment on her carved images,
And throughout all her land the wounded shall groan.

⁵³Though Babylon were to mount up to heaven,
And though she were to fortify the height of her strength,

Yet from Me plunderers would come to her," says the LORD.

⁵⁴The sound of a cry comes from Babylon,
And great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans,

⁵⁵Because the LORD is plundering Babylon
And silencing her loud voice,
Though her waves roar like great waters,
And the noise of their voice is uttered,

⁵⁶Because the plunderer comes against her, against Babylon,

And her mighty men are taken.
Every one of their bows is broken;
For the LORD is the God of recompense,

He will surely repay.

⁵⁷“And I will make drunk
Her princes and wise men,
Her governors, her deputies, and her mighty men.
And they shall sleep a perpetual sleep
And not awake,” says the King,

Whose name is the LORD of hosts.

⁵⁸Thus says the LORD of hosts:

“The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken,
And her high gates shall be burned with fire;
The people will labor in vain,
And the nations, because of the fire;

And they shall be weary.”

Jeremiah's Command to Seraiah

⁵⁹The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And Seraiah was the quartermaster. ⁶⁰So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that would come upon Babylon, all these words that are written against Babylon. ⁶¹And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, “When you arrive in Babylon and see it, and read all these words, ⁶²“then you shall say, ‘O LORD, You have spoken against this place to cut it off, so that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but it shall be desolate forever.’

⁶³“Now it shall be, when you have finished reading this book, that you shall tie a stone to it and throw it out into the Euphrates. ⁶⁴“Then you shall say, ‘Thus Babylon shall sink and not rise from the catastrophe that I will bring upon her. And they shall be weary.’ ”

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

Chapter 52

The Fall of Jerusalem Reviewed

¹Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ²He also did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ³For because of the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, till He finally cast them out from His presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

⁴Now it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around. ⁵So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. ⁶By the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land. ⁷Then the city wall was broken through, and all the men of war fled and went out of the city at night by way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were near the city all around. And they went by way of the plain.^a

⁸But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him. ⁹So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he pronounced judgment on him. ¹⁰Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. And he killed all the princes of Judah in Riblah. ¹¹He also put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in bronze fetters, took him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

The Law of Connection: Leaders Must Achieve Reception, Not Rebellion

Jeremiah 52:1-11

God judged Zedekiah because he rebelled against the king of Babylon. Zedekiah forgot that even the leader works for someone. His rebellion led to the downfall of Jerusalem. Leaders must remember they are stewards of the people God has given them. A leader's rebellion leads to rebellion among the people.

The Temple and City Plundered and Burned

¹²Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month (which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. ¹³He burned the house of the LORD and the king's house; all the houses of Jerusalem, that is, all the houses of the great, he burned with fire. ¹⁴And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. ¹⁵Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poor people, the rest of the people who remained in the city, the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen. ¹⁶But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vinedressers and farmers.

¹⁷The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, and the carts and the bronze Sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried all their bronze to Babylon. ¹⁸They also took away the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the bowls, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests ministered. ¹⁹The basins, the firepans, the bowls, the pots, the lampstands, the spoons, and the cups, whatever was solid gold and whatever was solid silver, the captain of the guard took away. ²⁰The two pillars, one Sea, the twelve bronze bulls which were under it, and the carts, which King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD—the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure. ²¹Now concerning the pillars: the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, a measuring line of twelve cubits could measure its circumference, and its thickness was four fingers; it was hollow. ²²A capital of bronze was on it; and the height of one capital was five cubits, with a network and pomegranates all around the capital, all of bronze. The second pillar, with pomegranates was the same. ²³There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates, all around on the network, were one hundred.

The People Taken Captive to Babylonia

²⁴The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.

²⁵He also took out of the city an officer who had charge of the men of war, seven men of the king's close associates who were found in the city, the principal scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city.

²⁶And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²⁷Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land.

²⁸These are the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Jews; ²⁹in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two persons; ³⁰in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred and forty-five persons. All the persons were four thousand six hundred.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

³¹Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that Evil-Merodach^{a} king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison. ³²And he spoke kindly to him and gave him a more prominent seat than those of the kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³So Jehoiachin changed from his prison garments, and he ate bread regularly before the king all the days of his life. ³⁴And as for his provisions, there was a regular ration given him by the king of Babylon, a portion for each day until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

The Book of Lamentations

Introduction to Lamentations

The prophet Jeremiah wrote the passionate little Book of Lamentations after the Babylonians captured and destroyed Jerusalem. It is a deeply personal work, displaying the raw emotions of the prophet in response to the brutalization of Judah. Although he had predicted his people's exile and rebuked them for their unrepentant hearts, he deeply felt their pain and hurt when foreigners killed many of them and forced most of the others into exile in a pagan land.

This book feels like the Book of Psalms, full of emotion and reflecting the heart of a leader who desires the best for the people he once influenced. At the same time, it captures the mind of a leader who never waivers from his convictions, even when he must stand by them all alone. Midway through the book, Jeremiah reminds the people that repentance is all God requires and that He renews His mercies every morning (3:22, 23).

Jeremiah is rightly called the “weeping prophet,” and Lamentations summarizes his cry for the people. We learn again that a leader cannot divorce himself or herself from the people he or she leads. Good leaders model both the heart and the behavior they want others to embrace. Someone once said, “Don’t get too far out in front of your people or they will mistake you for the enemy.” While standards must be upheld, the leader cannot hold those standards in some cold, distant fashion, unfeeling of the people's heart.

Good leaders are more than entrepreneurs. Entrepreneurs can act alone, but leaders cannot. By definition, they have followers whom they always want to take with them. Jeremiah knew what was best for the people, but he did not force them to cooperate. He pled with them to obey, but they refused. As a result, he lamented their apathy and their wasted potential.

As you read this book, allow the emotions of this "weeping prophet" to penetrate your own heart. Do you care for the people you lead to this degree? Are you as concerned for the "one lost sheep" who fails to take the journey, as you are for the 99 who go? Do you really love the people you lead? Perhaps Jeremiah can mentor us.

Reflecting the Heart of a Leader

God's Role in Lamentations

God must play the disciplinarian in this book. He informed Jeremiah that unless the Jews repented, they would fall into captivity. God continued to remind Jeremiah of His divine standards and imperatives: repentance and obedience.

At the same time, God communicates His mercy and is seen as the Lord who weeps over the state of His people. How difficult it must be for God! He foreknows the decline of His people and how simple it would be for them to avoid disaster, yet He chooses to wait for their decision and repentance, like a parent who awaits a prodigal's return. This book is not merely about Jeremiah's lament, but God's as well.

Lessons in Leadership

- God must break leaders over a need before they can implement a vision for that need.
- In tough spots, the person who leads best maintains compassion for the followers.
- Even the most noble endeavors fail with immoral leadership.
- Good leaders provide justice, but never without mercy on those who repent.

Jerusalem in Affliction

¹How lonely sits the city
That was full of people!
How like a widow is she,
Who was great among the nations!
The princess among the provinces

Has become a slave!

²She weeps bitterly in the night,
Her tears are on her cheeks;
Among all her lovers
She has none to comfort her.
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her;

They have become her enemies.

³Judah has gone into captivity,
Under affliction and hard servitude;
She dwells among the nations,
She finds no rest;

All her persecutors overtake her in dire straits.

⁴The roads to Zion mourn
Because no one comes to the set feasts.
All her gates are desolate;

Her priests sigh,
Her virgins are afflicted,

And she is in bitterness.

⁵Her adversaries have become the master,
Her enemies prosper;
For the LORD has afflicted her
Because of the multitude of her transgressions.

Her children have gone into captivity before the enemy.

⁶And from the daughter of Zion
All her splendor has departed.
Her princes have become like deer
That find no pasture,
That flee without strength

Before the pursuer.

⁷In the days of her affliction and roaming,
Jerusalem remembers all her pleasant things
That she had in the days of old.
When her people fell into the hand of the enemy,
With no one to help her,
The adversaries saw her

And mocked at her downfall.^{a}

⁸Jerusalem has sinned gravely,

We Sustain God's Conquest When We Maintain
Our Character

Lamentations 1:7, 8

God had given His people so many possessions. For centuries they had enjoyed conquest of the Promised Land. Now they lost everything—and all because they had sinned greatly.

Great conquests must be supported by great character. Whatever gains leaders make, they can lose in a heartbeat, unless they simultaneously develop the character to support those gains. Over the last 20 years we have watched many leaders fall morally. Generally speaking, their charisma (gifts) exceeded their character (moral infrastructure). The gift grew bigger than the person.

It has been said, “Nothing is so hard to gain, and so easy to lose, as a good reputation.” Leaders must recognize how fleeting is their fame or popularity. Instead, they must give themselves to constructing their character. Only then will they keep the gains God gives them through their leadership.

We usually recognize... • We should equally recognize...

Talents and gifts. • Solid character and integrity.

The superb product. • The process that develops on the way.

Excellence in performance. • Excellence in discipline.

External appearances. • Internal stability and obedience.

Therefore she has become vile.^a

All who honored her despise her

Because they have seen her nakedness;

Yes, she sighs and turns away.

⁹Her uncleanness is in her skirts;
She did not consider her destiny;
Therefore her collapse was awesome;
She had no comforter.

“O LORD, behold my affliction,

For the enemy is exalted!”

¹⁰The adversary has spread his hand
Over all her pleasant things;
For she has seen the nations enter her sanctuary,
Those whom You commanded

Not to enter Your assembly.

¹¹All her people sigh,
They seek bread;
They have given their valuables for food to restore
life.

“See, O LORD, and consider,

For I am scorned.”

¹²“Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Behold and see
If there is any sorrow like my sorrow,
Which has been brought on me,
Which the LORD has inflicted

In the day of His fierce anger.

¹³“From above He has sent fire into my bones,
And it overpowered them;
He has spread a net for my feet
And turned me back;
He has made me desolate

And faint all the day.

¹⁴“The yoke of my transgressions was bound;^a
They were woven together by His hands,
And thrust upon my neck.
He made my strength fail;

The Lord delivered me into the hands of those whom
I am not able to withstand.

¹⁵“The Lord has trampled underfoot all my mighty men in my midst;
He has called an assembly against me
To crush my young men;
The Lord trampled as in a winepress

The virgin daughter of Judah.

¹⁶“For these things I weep;
My eye, my eye overflows with water;
Because the comforter, who should restore my life,
Is far from me.
My children are desolate

Because the enemy prevailed.”

¹⁷Zion spreads out her hands,
But no one comforts her;
The LORD has commanded concerning Jacob
That those around him become his adversaries;

Jerusalem has become an unclean thing among
them.

¹⁸“The LORD is righteous,
For I rebelled against His commandment.
Hear now, all peoples,

And behold my sorrow;
My virgins and my young men

Have gone into captivity.

¹⁹“I called for my lovers,
But they deceived me;
My priests and my elders
Breathed their last in the city,
While they sought food

To restore their life.

²⁰“See, O LORD, that I am in distress;
My soul is troubled;
My heart is overturned within me,
For I have been very rebellious.
Outside the sword bereaves,

At home it is like death.

²¹“They have heard that I sigh,
But no one comforts me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble;
They are glad that You have done it.
Bring on the day You have announced,

That they may become like me.

²²“Let all their wickedness come before You,
And do to them as You have done to me
For all my transgressions;
For my sighs are many,

And my heart is faint.”

Chapter 2

God's Anger with Jerusalem

¹How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion
With a cloud in His anger!
He cast down from heaven to the earth
The beauty of Israel,
And did not remember His footstool

In the day of His anger.

²The Lord has swallowed up and has not pitied
All the dwelling places of Jacob.
He has thrown down in His wrath
The strongholds of the daughter of Judah;
He has brought them down to the ground;

He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.

³He has cut off in fierce anger
Every horn of Israel;
He has drawn back His right hand
From before the enemy.
He has blazed against Jacob like a flaming fire

Devouring all around.

⁴Standing like an enemy, He has bent His bow;
With His right hand, like an adversary,

He has slain all who were pleasing to His eye;
On the tent of the daughter of Zion,

He has poured out His fury like fire.

⁵The Lord was like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel,
He has swallowed up all her palaces;
He has destroyed her strongholds,
And has increased mourning and lamentation

In the daughter of Judah.

⁶He has done violence to His tabernacle,
As if it were a garden;
He has destroyed His place of assembly;
The LORD has caused
The appointed feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion.

In His burning indignation He has spurned the king and the priest.

⁷The Lord has spurned His altar,
He has abandoned His sanctuary;
He has given up the walls of her palaces
Into the hand of the enemy.
They have made a noise in the house of the LORD

As on the day of a set feast.

⁸The LORD has purposed to destroy
The wall of the daughter of Zion.
He has stretched out a line;
He has not withdrawn His hand from destroying;
Therefore He has caused the rampart and wall to lament;

They languished together.

⁹Her gates have sunk into the ground;
He has destroyed and broken her bars.
Her king and her princes are among the nations;
The Law is no more,

And her prophets find no vision from the LORD.

¹⁰The elders of the daughter of Zion
Sit on the ground and keep silence;
They throw dust on their heads
And gird themselves with sackcloth.
The virgins of Jerusalem

Bow their heads to the ground.

¹¹My eyes fail with tears,
My heart is troubled;
My bile is poured on the ground
Because of the destruction of the daughter of my people,
Because the children and the infants

Faint in the streets of the city.

¹²They say to their mothers,
“Where is grain and wine?”
As they swoon like the wounded
In the streets of the city,
As their life is poured out

In their mothers’ bosom.

¹³How shall I console you?
To what shall I liken you,
O daughter of Jerusalem?

What shall I compare with you, that I may comfort
you,

O virgin daughter of Zion?
For your ruin is spread wide as the sea;

Who can heal you?

¹⁴Your prophets have seen for you
False and deceptive visions;
They have not uncovered your iniquity,
To bring back your captives,

But have envisioned for you false prophecies and delusions.

¹⁵All who pass by clap their hands at you;
They hiss and shake their heads
At the daughter of Jerusalem:
“Is this the city that is called
‘The perfection of beauty,

The joy of the whole earth’?”

¹⁶All your enemies have opened their mouth against
you;

They hiss and gnash their teeth.
They say, “We have swallowed her up!
Surely this is the day we have waited for;

We have found it, we have seen it!”

¹⁷The LORD has done what He purposed;
He has fulfilled His word
Which He commanded in days of old.
He has thrown down and has not pitied,
And He has caused an enemy to rejoice over you;

He has exalted the horn of your adversaries.

¹⁸Their heart cried out to the Lord,
“O wall of the daughter of Zion,
Let tears run down like a river day and night;
Give yourself no relief;

Give your eyes no rest.

¹⁹“Arise, cry out in the night,
At the beginning of the watches;
Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord.

Lift your hands toward Him
For the life of your young children,

Who faint from hunger at the head of every street.”

²⁰“See, O LORD, and consider!

Compassion for a Need Brings Commitment to a Vision

Lamentations 2:20

Although for many years Jeremiah had predicted the captivity of his rebellious people, he weeps when his prophecy comes true. In Lamentations 2:20 he begs the Lord to stop the punishment. He asks for pity.

This dialogue between Jeremiah and God about the Hebrews offers a rare glimpse into the heart-shaping work God did in Jeremiah, the leader. While the prophet has a passion for righteousness and justice, at the same time he has compassion for the very people who so anger him. Like Moses, Jeremiah often displayed one face to the people—usually judgment and threats—but another to God in prayer. He begged Yahweh not to abandon His people. Compassion enabled Jeremiah to remain committed to the vision that one day God would restore His people.

This is what makes a godly leader great: clear and firm leadership, yet a compassionate heart as an intercessor. Reggie McNeal writes, “One mark of genuine spiritual greatness is compassion for one’s tormentors.”

Leaders must first feel burdened for the people’s needs; only then will they commit themselves to a vision of their deliverance. Jeremiah’s compassion kept him in the game when it would have been easier to walk away. He teaches us that while people may reject your messages and oppose your arguments, they remain helpless against your prayers.

To whom have You done this?
Should the women eat their offspring,
The children they have cuddled?^a
Should the priest and prophet be slain

In the sanctuary of the Lord?

²¹“Young and old lie
On the ground in the streets;
My virgins and my young men
Have fallen by the sword;
You have slain them in the day of Your anger,

You have slaughtered and not pitied.

²²“You have invited as to a feast day
The terrors that surround me.
In the day of the LORD’s anger
There was no refugee or survivor.
Those whom I have borne and brought up
My enemies have destroyed.”

Chapter 3

The Prophet's Anguish and Hope

¹I am the man who has seen affliction by the rod of His wrath.

²He has led me and made me walk
In darkness and not in light.

³Surely He has turned His hand against me

Time and time again throughout the day.

⁴He has aged my flesh and my skin,
And broken my bones.

⁵He has besieged me
And surrounded me with bitterness and woe.

⁶He has set me in dark places

Like the dead of long ago.

⁷He has hedged me in so that I cannot get out;
He has made my chain heavy.

⁸Even when I cry and shout,
He shuts out my prayer.

⁹He has blocked my ways with hewn stone;

He has made my paths crooked.

¹⁰He has been to me a bear lying in wait,
Like a lion in ambush.

¹¹He has turned aside my ways and torn me in pieces;

He has made me desolate.

¹²He has bent His bow

And set me up as a target for the arrow.

¹³He has caused the arrows of His quiver
To pierce my loins. a

¹⁴I have become the ridicule of all my people—
Their taunting song all the day.

¹⁵He has filled me with bitterness,

He has made me drink wormwood.

¹⁶He has also broken my teeth with gravel,
And covered me with ashes.

¹⁷You have moved my soul far from peace;
I have forgotten prosperity.

¹⁸And I said, "My strength and my hope

Have perished from the LORD."

¹⁹Remember my affliction and roaming,
The wormwood and the gall.

²⁰My soul still remembers
And sinks within me.

²¹This I recall to my mind,

Therefore I have hope.

²²*Through* the LORD's mercies we are not consumed,

Because His compassions fail not.

²³*They are* new every morning;
Great is Your faithfulness.

²⁴“The LORD is my portion,” says my soul,

“Therefore I hope in Him!”

²⁵The LORD is good to those who wait for Him,
To the soul who seeks Him.

²⁶*It is* good that one should hope and wait quietly
For the salvation of the LORD.

²⁷*It is* good for a man to bear

The yoke in his youth.

²⁸Let him sit alone and keep silent,
Because God has laid it on him;

²⁹Let him put his mouth in the dust—
There may yet be hope.

³⁰Let him give his cheek to the one who strikes him,

And be full of reproach.

³¹For the Lord will not cast off forever.

³²Though He causes grief,
Yet He will show compassion
According to the multitude of His mercies.

³³For He does not afflict willingly,

Nor grieve the children of men.

³⁴To crush under one’s feet
All the prisoners of the earth,

³⁵To turn aside the justice due a man
Before the face of the Most High,

³⁶Or subvert a man in his cause—

The Lord does not approve.

God Is Ultimately in Control and Will Mercifully Act for His People

Lamentations 3:21-36

Jeremiah the leader wisely remains fixed on a vision of God's sovereignty: God is more powerful than the Babylonians. He focuses on God's nature: God is full of mercy and compassion. He dwells on his vision of God's plans: God will deliver His people and give them a hopeful future.

³⁷Who is he who speaks and it comes to pass,
When the Lord has not commanded it?

³⁸*Is it* not from the mouth of the Most High
That woe and wellbeing proceed?

³⁹Why should a living man complain,

A man for the punishment of his sins?

⁴⁰Let us search out and examine our ways,
And turn back to the LORD;

⁴¹Let us lift our hearts and hands
To God in heaven.

⁴²We have transgressed and rebelled;

You have not pardoned.

⁴³You have covered Yourself with anger
And pursued us;
You have slain and not pitied.

⁴⁴You have covered Yourself with a cloud,
That prayer should not pass through.
⁴⁵You have made us an offscouring and refuse

In the midst of the peoples.

⁴⁶All our enemies
Have opened their mouths against us.
⁴⁷Fear and a snare have come upon us,
Desolation and destruction.
⁴⁸My eyes overflow with rivers of water

For the destruction of the daughter of my people.

⁴⁹My eyes flow and do not cease,
Without interruption,
⁵⁰Till the LORD from heaven
Looks down and sees.
⁵¹My eyes bring suffering to my soul

Because of all the daughters of my city.

⁵²My enemies without cause
Hunted me down like a bird.
⁵³They silenced a my life in the pit
And threw stones at me.
⁵⁴The waters flowed over my head;

I said, "I am cut off!"

⁵⁵I called on Your name, O LORD,
From the lowest pit.
⁵⁶You have heard my voice:
"Do not hide Your ear
From my sighing, from my cry for help."
⁵⁷You drew near on the day I called on You,

And said, "Do not fear!"

⁵⁸O Lord, You have pleaded the case for my soul;
You have redeemed my life.

⁵⁹O LORD, You have seen how I am wronged;
Judge my case.

⁶⁰You have seen all their vengeance,

All their schemes against me.

⁶¹You have heard their reproach, O LORD,
All their schemes against me,

⁶²The lips of my enemies
And their whispering against me all the day.

⁶³Look at their sitting down and their rising up;

I am their taunting song.

⁶⁴Repay them, O LORD,
According to the work of their hands.

⁶⁵Give them a veiled^a heart;
Your curse be upon them!

⁶⁶In Your anger,

PROFILE in Leadership

JEREMIAH

Hope in the Midst of Calamity

Lamentations 3:1-66

As Jeremiah trudged through his ruined city, he smelled destruction everywhere. He knew the invading Babylonians had devastated Jerusalem because the people of Judah had forsaken their

God. The Lord's people had brought this misery on themselves—yet his heart still broke.

For two whole chapters Jeremiah laments the calamity. He recognizes the chastening hand of God, for he says, “Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that woe and wellbeing proceed?” (Lam. 3:38). Right in the middle of his dirge he pauses to express one of the most hopeful pronouncements in the Old Testament: “Through the LORD's mercies we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness” (3:22, 23).

In the midst of the carnage, in the midst of his own wailing, the prophet finds hope in knowing that God still reigns. He knows that restoration and repentance can occur. God's anger will not burn against His people forever. And so Jeremiah can continue. Oh, there will still be tears—the last two chapters of Lamentations again play the mournful sounds of a funeral march. Yet because God lives, hope lives!

Effective leaders bank on hope, even in the face of God's judgment. They know that, for those who call on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, restoration and redemption can indeed follow destruction.

Pursue and destroy them

From under the heavens of the LORD.

Chapter 4

The Degradation of Zion

¹How the gold has become dim!
How changed the fine gold!
The stones of the sanctuary are scattered
At the head of every street.

²The precious sons of Zion,
Valuable as fine gold,
How they are regarded as clay pots,
The work of the hands of the potter!

³Even the jackals present their breasts
To nurse their young;
But the daughter of my people is cruel,
Like ostriches in the wilderness.

⁴The tongue of the infant clings
To the roof of its mouth for thirst;
The young children ask for bread,
But no one breaks it for them.

⁵Those who ate delicacies
Are desolate in the streets;

Those who were brought up in scarlet

Embrace ash heaps.

⁶The punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people

Is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom,
Which was overthrown in a moment,

With no hand to help her!

⁷Her Nazirites^a were brighter than snow

And whiter than milk;

They were more ruddy in body than rubies,

Like sapphire in their appearance.

⁸*Now* their appearance is blacker than soot;

The Principle of Rewards

Lamentations 4:6-8

You might call it the principle of rewards: What gets rewarded gets done. Good leaders recognize how to attach both rewards and consequences to team members' performance. Any system of rewards should prioritize the most important conduct, then reward it publicly. In addition, the system ought to prioritize the non-negotiable negatives, because they damage the team. A price should be attached to these, as well.

Jeremiah gives us a snapshot of how God did this with His people. He says the consequences for their sin exceeded that of Sodom, for while that ancient city vanished in a moment, Judah's punishment dragged on and on.

How do we communicate rewards to our people? To what do we pay attention? Do our people know what is important? When team members don't produce the results the leader desires, usually just a few reasons explain why:

1. They are not sure what to do.
2. They don't know what to do first.
3. They don't know how to do it.
4. The reward system does not align with the group goals.
5. The leader presents unnecessary obstacles.

They go unrecognized in the streets;
Their skin clings to their bones,

It has become as dry as wood.

⁹*Those* slain by the sword are better off
Than those who die of hunger;
For these pine away,

Stricken for lack of the fruits of the field.

¹⁰The hands of the compassionate women
Have cooked their own children;
They became food for them

In the destruction of the daughter of my people.

¹¹The LORD has fulfilled His fury,
He has poured out His fierce anger.
He kindled a fire in Zion,

And it has devoured its foundations.

¹²The kings of the earth,
And all inhabitants of the world,
Would not have believed
That the adversary and the enemy

Could enter the gates of Jerusalem—

¹³Because of the sins of her prophets
And the iniquities of her priests,
Who shed in her midst

The blood of the just.

¹⁴They wandered blind in the streets;
They have defiled themselves with blood,

So that no one would touch their garments.

¹⁵They cried out to them,
“Go away, unclean!
Go away, go away,
Do not touch us!”
When they fled and wandered,
Those among the nations said,

“They shall no longer dwell here.”

¹⁶The face ^a of the LORD scattered them;
He no longer regards them.
The people do not respect the priests

Nor show favor to the elders.

¹⁷Still our eyes failed us,
Watching vainly for our help;

In our watching we watched

For a nation that could not save us.

¹⁸They tracked our steps
So that we could not walk in our streets.
Our end was near;
Our days were over,

For our end had come.

¹⁹Our pursuers were swifter
Than the eagles of the heavens.
They pursued us on the mountains

And lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

²⁰The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the
LORD,
Was caught in their pits,
Of whom we said, "Under his shadow
We shall live among the nations."

²¹Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom,
You who dwell in the land of Uz!
The cup shall also pass over to you

And you shall become drunk and make yourself naked.

²²*The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished,*
O daughter of Zion;
He will no longer send you into captivity.
He will punish your iniquity,
O daughter of Edom;

He will uncover your sins!

Chapter 5

A Prayer for Restoration

¹Remember, O LORD, what has come upon us;
Look, and behold our reproach!

²Our inheritance has been turned over to aliens,
And our houses to foreigners.

³We have become orphans and waifs,

Our mothers are like widows.

⁴We pay for the water we drink,
And our wood comes at a price.

⁵*They* pursue at our heels; a
We labor and have no rest.

⁶We have given our hand to the Egyptians

And the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

⁷Our fathers sinned and are no more,
But we bear their iniquities.

⁸Servants rule over us;
There is none to deliver us from their hand.

⁹We get our bread at the risk of our lives,

Because of the sword in the wilderness.

¹⁰Our skin is hot as an oven,
Because of the fever of famine.

¹¹They ravished the women in Zion,
The maidens in the cities of Judah.
¹²Princes were hung up by their hands,
And elders were not respected.
¹³Young men ground at the millstones;
Boys staggered under loads of wood.
¹⁴The elders have ceased gathering at the gate,

And the young men from their music.

¹⁵The joy of our heart has ceased;
Our dance has turned into mourning.
¹⁶The crown has fallen from our head.
Woe to us, for we have sinned!
¹⁷Because of this our heart is faint;
Because of these things our eyes grow dim;
¹⁸Because of Mount Zion which is desolate,

With foxes walking about on it.

¹⁹You, O LORD, remain forever;

Successful Leaders Depend on God

Lamentations 5:14-19

Successful leaders depend not on their own wit and wisdom, but on God. Jeremiah confesses both the sin of the people and that God reigns forever and will ultimately restore what has been lost. Leaders act according to their gifts and calling, but trust God to bring about the desired results.

Your throne from generation to generation.

²⁰Why do You forget us forever,

And forsake us for so long a time?

²¹Turn us back to You, O LORD, and we will be restored;

Renew our days as of old,

²²Unless You have utterly rejected us,

And are very angry with us!

The Book of Ezekiel

Introduction to Ezekiel

God raised up Ezekiel to serve as a prophet during a most difficult time in Israel's history. He provides a tremendous illustration of a leader with backbone and conviction.

From the beginning, God warned Ezekiel that he would speak to a stubborn group. He faced opposition at almost every turn—a level of opposition that might cause many leaders to reevaluate their position and move on. Ezekiel chose to remain and stay true to his convictions. Appropriately enough, the name of this strong prophet means “God strengthens.”

Ezekiel demonstrates for us three leadership skills. First, a leader can lead off of vision, even in tough times. Second, a leader can stay true to core values, even in tough times. Third, a leader can compel people to grapple even with hard truth.

Ezekiel clearly led out of vision. God consistently provided him with unusual visions that drove him to speak in unusual ways. From hands and scrolls descending from heaven, to four abominations committed in the temple, to vines, eagles, lions, dry bones, and fires, Ezekiel trafficked in strange but memorable pictures. These pictures often arrived with a divine interpretation and instructions on how he was to communicate God's Word to the people. Ezekiel closely followed the leadership axiom on vision: See it clearly, show it creatively, and say it constantly.

Ezekiel managed to stay true to his convictions and core values despite the people's response. God said from the beginning: "As for them, whether they hear or whether they refuse—for they are a rebellious house—yet they will know that a prophet has been among them. And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them nor be afraid of their words... or dismayed by their looks, though they are a rebellious house. You shall speak My words to them, whether they hear or whether they refuse, for they are rebellious. But you, son of man, hear what I say to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you" (2:5-8).

Ezekiel compelled the people to hear him and wrestle with the pressing issues. He was an extremely creative communicator, often using visual aids or dramatically acting out his message. He quickly obeyed the Lord's instructions, even when many of the symbolic actions God called him to enact looked difficult or embarrassing. His dynamic ministry won the respect, attention, and admiration of Judah's elders. But while they listened to him, they refused to act on what he said. This disappointed Ezekiel, for no one took greater pains to cast a vision to his own generation than he did.

A Leader with Backbone and Conviction

God's Role in Ezekiel

God described Ezekiel as a watchman. He called the prophet to warn the Jews of impending danger if they did not repent. Like a watchman who sees an invading army en route, he admonishes the people to get ready or be destroyed. God describes Himself to Ezekiel as the One who supplies the right words. God is the Director of this great drama that Ezekiel acts out. He is the Writer of the script Ezekiel is to read to the people. And He is the Author who closes the curtain when the play ends—a finale in the form of the invading Babylonian army—when it's too late for the people to discover the play is no mere act.

Lessons in Leadership

- One leader with courage is a majority.
- Effective leaders communicate creatively and unforgettably.
 - Leaders are stewards of the people and of the resources they oversee.
 - We must lead ourselves before we lead anyone else.
 - A leader stands between God's goals and the people's problems.
 - Often, a leader takes his or her first step alone.

Ezekiel's Vision of God

¹Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the River Chebar, that the heavens were opened and I saw visions^a of God. ²On the fifth day of the month, which was in the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, ³the word of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans^a by the River Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was upon him there.

Communicating Vision

Ezekiel 1:1-3

Like Jeremiah, Ezekiel knew how to communicate a message so that every listener understood and knew what to do. This is the mark of a successful communicator. Note how he communicated:

1. His vision was memorable; his words inventive.

God instructed the prophet how to cast his vision.

He is told to use object lessons, using materials like a brick, an iron plate, his own body, ropes, ingredients for bread, human dung, and cow manure. God's instructions seemed so radical that even Ezekiel felt repulsed by them. Yet no one would ever forget the lessons.

2. His vision was measurable; his words insightful.

Ezekiel spoke specifically about future events. He gave no fuzzy, ambiguous word about how God wanted the people to follow, should they decide to cooperate. He delivered a compelling and detailed word about how long Israel had drifted from God, the siege of Jerusalem, how long the exile would last, and what conditions would be like when God brought about His long-threatened punishment.

3. His vision was motivational; his words gave incentive.

Ezekiel didn't talk merely to pronounce judgment. He wanted to compel the Israelites to repent and return to God. He discussed how defiling life would be under a foreign leader and the horror of submitting to a power that didn't understand them. He gave them a reason to act.

⁴Then I looked, and behold, a whirlwind was coming out of the north, a great cloud with raging fire engulfing itself; and brightness was all around it and radiating out of its midst like the color of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

⁵Also from within it came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man. ⁶Each one had four faces, and each one had four wings. ⁷Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the soles of calves' feet. They sparkled like the color of burnished bronze. ⁸The hands of a man were under their wings on their four sides; and each of the four had faces and wings. ⁹Their wings touched one another. The creatures did not turn when they went, but each one went straight forward.

¹⁵Now as I looked at the living creatures, behold, a wheel was on the earth beside each living creature with its four faces. ¹⁶The appearance of the wheels and their workings was like the color of beryl, and all four had the same likeness. The appearance of their workings was, as it were, a wheel in the middle of a wheel. ¹⁷When they moved, they went toward any one of four directions; they did not turn aside when they went. ¹⁸As for their rims, they were so high they were awesome; and their rims were full of eyes, all around the four of them. ¹⁹When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. ²⁰Wherever the spirit wanted to go, they went, because there the spirit went; and the wheels were lifted together with them, for the spirit of the living creatures^a was in the wheels. ²¹When those went, these went; when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up together with them, for the spirit of the living creatures^a was in the wheels.

²²The likeness of the firmament above the heads of the living creatures^a was like the color of an awesome crystal, stretched out over their heads. ²³And under the firmament their wings spread out straight, one toward another. Each one had two which covered one side, and each one had two which covered the other side of the body. ²⁴When they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of many waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a tumult like the noise of an army; and when they stood still, they let down their wings. ²⁵A voice came from above the firmament that was over their heads; whenever they stood, they let down their wings.

²⁶And above the firmament over their heads was the likeness of a throne, in appearance like a sapphire stone; on the likeness of the throne was a likeness with the appearance of a man high above it. ²⁷Also from the appearance of His waist and upward I saw, as it were, the color of amber with the appearance of fire all around within it; and from the appearance of His waist and downward I saw, as it were, the appearance of fire with brightness all around. ²⁸Like the appearance of a rainbow in a cloud on a rainy day, so was the appearance of the brightness all around it. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD.

Vision: You Can Seize Only What You Can See

Ezekiel 1:4-28

This great book begins with a vision. Ezekiel receives a revelation from God of four angelic figures. In this vision, God calls the prophet to be His spokesman and watchman to the Hebrew exiles. This vision is the first of four in the book:

1. The vision of the four angels (Ezek. 1-3)
2. The vision of glory and godlessness (Ezek. 8-11)
3. The vision of the burning vine (Ezek. 15)
4. The vision of the dry bones (Ezek. 37)

Ezekiel describes this first vision in vivid detail. Like all effective leaders, he spoke as clearly as possible. A pastor once said, "If it's fuzzy in the pulpit, it's foggy in the pew."

Ezekiel provided vision by way of analogies, then applied those visions. He communicated a picture (Ezek. 1), then communicated his point (Ezek. 2). Divine visions always help a leader and the people move in the right direction. A divine vision also seems to include these components:

1. A clear mental image: It serves as a sort of blueprint inside of us.
2. A positive change: It serves to improve present conditions.
3. A future focus: It furnishes insight and direction for the unseen future.
4. A gift from God: It is divinely inspired, not humanly manipulated.
5. A chosen people and time: It is for a select leader and group at a given time.

Ezekiel Sent to Rebellious Israel

So when I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of One speaking.

Chapter 2

¹And He said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak to you." ²Then the Spirit entered me when He spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard Him who spoke to me. ³And He said to me: "Son of man, I am sending you to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against Me; they and their fathers have transgressed against Me to this very day. ⁴"For they are impudent and stubborn children. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' ⁵"As for them, whether they hear or whether they refuse—for they are a rebellious house—yet they will know that a prophet has been among them.

⁶"And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them nor be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns are with you and you dwell among scorpions; do not be afraid of their words or dismayed by their looks, though they are a rebellious house. ⁷"You shall speak My words to them, whether they hear or whether they refuse, for they are rebellious. ⁸"But you, son of man, hear what I say to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you."

⁹Now when I looked, there was a hand stretched out to me; and behold, a scroll of a book was in it. ¹⁰Then He spread it before me; and there was writing on the inside and on the outside, and written on it were lamentations and mourning and woe.

The Necessity of a Call in Tough Times

Ezekiel 2:1-10

God described not only what He wanted Ezekiel to do, but also the conditions in which he would serve. God told him He was sending him to a rebellious people who acted like stubborn children. Yet he was to continue speaking whether they listened or not (Ezek. 2:7). God's call didn't depend on the people's response. Ezekiel had to stand strong even when the people ignored him.

God has Ezekiel eat a scroll (representing the divine words he is to speak), inscribed both on the front and the back, leaving him no room to change or add to the message he is to speak (2:10). Ezekiel had to stay honest and true to those words.

This presents a challenge to leaders. What role does God play and what role do we play? Are leaders never permitted to speak from their own mind and emotions? Consider the roles of both God and people:

God's Role • The Human Role

He calls us into service. • People confirm our call.

He gives us gifts and graces. • People cooperate with their gifts.

He provides words of direction. • We use our mind and emotions.

He supplies a compelling fire inside us. • Others recognize and respect the fire.

He controls the outcome. • We are to be faithful to the end.

Chapter 3

¹Moreover He said to me, “Son of man, eat what you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.” ²So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that scroll.

³And He said to me, “Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your stomach with this scroll that I give you.” So I ate, and it was in my mouth like honey in sweetness.

⁴Then He said to me: “Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak with My words to them. ⁵“For you are not sent to a people of unfamiliar speech and of hard language, but to the house of Israel, ⁶“not to many people of unfamiliar speech and of hard language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, had I sent you to them, they would have listened to you. ⁷“But the house of Israel will not listen to you, because they will not listen to Me; for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted. ⁸“Behold, I have made your face strong against their faces, and your forehead strong against their foreheads. ⁹“Like adamant stone, harder than flint, I have made your forehead; do not be afraid of them, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house.”

Adaptability: Effective Leaders Adapt to Changing Needs

Ezekiel 3:8, 9

Because Israel acted like a stubborn mule and would not listen to the prophet's words, Ezekiel had to adapt to the needs of his audience. God spoke these words to him: "I have made your face strong against their faces, and your forehead strong against their foreheads. Like adamant stone, harder than flint, I have made your forehead; do not be afraid of them, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house" (Ezek. 3:8, 9).

Effective leaders allow God to shape them into the kind of people they need to be for each situation they encounter. They don't get stuck on one method or mode of operation. When approaching a new and different context, leaders should read...

1. Situations: Do my circumstances tell me it is time to move forward?
2. People: Are the people ready and willing to make a move?
3. Timing: Is this the right time to make a move?
4. Staff: Does my team have the gifts and the influence to lead the way?
5. Opportunity: Do we have the opportunity to be successful if we move?
6. Resources: Do we possess the resources to move now?
7. Themselves: Am I the right person to lead the way?

¹⁰Moreover He said to me: "Son of man, receive into your heart all My words that I speak to you, and hear with your ears. ¹¹"And go, get to the captives, to the children of your people, and speak to them and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD,' whether they hear, or whether they refuse."

¹²Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a great thunderous voice: "Blessed is the glory of the LORD from His place!" ¹³*I also heard* the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, and a great thunderous noise. ¹⁴So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me. ¹⁵Then I came to the captives at Tel Abib, who dwelt by the River Chebar; and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

Ezekiel Is a Watchman

¹⁶Now it came to pass at the end of seven days that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁷"Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore hear a word from My mouth, and give them warning from Me: ¹⁸"When I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life, that same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand. ¹⁹"Yet, if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.

²⁰"Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die; because you did not give him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand. ²¹"Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man that the righteous should not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live because he took warning; also you will have delivered your soul."

²²Then the hand of the LORD was upon me there, and He said to me, "Arise, go out into the plain, and there I shall talk with you."

²³So I arose and went out into the plain, and behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory which I saw by the River Chebar; and I fell on my face. ²⁴Then the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and spoke with me and said to me: "Go, shut yourself inside your house. ²⁵"And you, O son of man, surely they will put ropes on you and bind you with them, so that you cannot go out among them. ²⁶"I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be mute and not be one to rebuke them, for they are a rebellious house. ²⁷"But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

Chapter 4

The Siege of Jerusalem Portrayed

¹“You also, son of man, take a clay tablet and lay it before you, and portray on it a city, Jerusalem. ²“Lay siege against it, build a siege wall against it, and heap up a mound against it; set camps against it also, and place battering rams against it all around. ³“Moreover take for yourself an iron plate, and set it as an iron wall between you and the city. Set your face against it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

⁴“Lie also on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it. According to the number of the days that you lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. ⁵“For I have laid on you the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days; so you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. ⁶“And when you have completed them, lie again on your right side; then you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days. I have laid on you a day for each year.

⁷“Therefore you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem; your arm shall be uncovered, and you shall prophesy against it. ⁸“And surely I will restrain you so that you cannot turn from one side to another till you have ended the days of your siege.

⁹“Also take for yourself wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them into one vessel, and make bread of them for yourself. During the number of days that you lie on your side, three hundred and ninety days, you shall eat it. ¹⁰“And your food which you eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day; from time to time you shall eat it. ¹¹“You shall also drink water by measure, one-sixth of a hin; from time to time you shall drink. ¹²“And you shall eat it as barley cakes; and bake it using fuel of human waste in their sight.”

¹³Then the LORD said, “So shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, where I will drive them.”

¹⁴So I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Indeed I have never defiled myself from my youth till now; I have never eaten what died of itself or was torn by beasts, nor has abominable flesh ever come into my mouth.”

¹⁵Then He said to me, “See, I am giving you cow dung instead of human waste, and you shall prepare your bread over it.”

¹⁶Moreover He said to me, “Son of man, surely I will cut off the supply of bread in Jerusalem; they shall eat bread by weight and with anxiety, and shall drink water by measure and with dread, ¹⁷“that they may lack bread and water, and be dismayed with one another, and waste away because of their iniquity.

Chapter 5

A Sword Against Jerusalem

¹“And you, son of man, take a sharp sword, take it as a barber’s razor, and pass it over your head and your beard; then take scales to weigh and divide the hair. ²“You shall burn with fire one-third in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are finished; then you shall take one-third and strike around it with the sword, and one-third you shall scatter in the wind: I will draw out a sword after them. ³“You shall also take a small number of them and bind them in the edge of your garment. ⁴“Then take some of them again and throw them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire. From there a fire will go out into all the house of Israel.

⁵“Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the midst of the nations and the countries all around her. ⁶‘She has rebelled against My judgments by doing wickedness more than the nations, and against My statutes more than the countries that are all around her; for they have refused My judgments, and they have not walked in My statutes.’ ⁷“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because you have multiplied disobedience more than the nations that are all around you, have not walked in My statutes nor kept My judgments, nor even done^a according to the judgments of the nations that are all around you’—

⁸“therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Indeed I, even I, am against you and will execute judgments in your midst in the sight of the nations. ⁹‘And I will do among you what I have never done, and the like of which I will never do again, because of all your abominations. ¹⁰‘Therefore fathers shall eat their sons in your midst, and sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments among you, and all of you who remain I will scatter to all the winds.

¹¹‘Therefore, as I live,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘surely, because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your detestable things and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you; My eye will not spare, nor will I have any pity. ¹²‘One-third of you shall die of the pestilence, and be consumed with famine in your midst; and one-third shall fall by the sword all around you; and I will scatter another third to all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

¹³‘Thus shall My anger be spent, and I will cause My fury to rest upon them, and I will be avenged; and they shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it in My zeal, when I have spent My fury upon them. ¹⁴‘Moreover I will make you a waste and a reproach among the nations that are all around you, in the sight of all who pass by.

¹⁵‘So it^a shall be a reproach, a taunt, a lesson, and an astonishment to the nations that are all around you, when I execute judgments among you in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I, the LORD, have spoken. ¹⁶‘When I send against them the terrible arrows of famine which shall be for destruction, which I will send to destroy you, I will increase the famine upon you and cut off your supply of bread. ¹⁷‘So I will send against you famine and wild beasts, and they will bereave you. Pestilence and blood shall pass through you, and I will bring the sword against you. I, the LORD, have spoken.’ ”

Chapter 6

Judgment on Idolatrous Israel

¹Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ²“Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, ³“and say, ‘O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, to the hills, to the ravines, and to the valleys: “Indeed I, even I, will bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places. ⁴“Then your altars shall be desolate, your incense altars shall be broken, and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. ⁵“And I will lay the corpses of the children of Israel before their idols, and I will scatter your bones all around your altars. ⁶“In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate, so that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, your idols may be broken and made to cease, your incense altars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. ⁷“The slain shall fall in your midst, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

⁸“Yet I will leave a remnant, so that you may have some who escape the sword among the nations, when you are scattered through the countries. ⁹“Then those of you who escape will remember Me among the nations where they are carried captive, because I was crushed by their adulterous heart which has departed from Me, and by their eyes which play the harlot after their idols; they will loathe themselves for the evils which they committed in all their abominations. ¹⁰“And they shall know that I am the LORD; I have not said in vain that I would bring this calamity upon them.”

¹¹“Thus says the Lord GOD: “Pound your fists and stamp your feet, and say, ‘Alas, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! For they shall fall by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence. ¹²‘He who is far off shall die by the pestilence, he who is near shall fall by the sword, and he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine. Thus will I spend My fury upon them. ¹³‘Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain are among their idols all around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, under every green tree, and under every thick oak, wherever they offered sweet incense to all their idols. ¹⁴‘So I will stretch out My hand against them and make the land desolate, yes, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblah, in all their dwelling places. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.’ ” “ ”

PROFILE in Leadership

EZEKIEL

Zealous for the Name of the Lord

Ezekiel 6:7, 10, 13, 14

Like many other prophets, Ezekiel warned his people of coming destruction should they refuse to abandon their sin. Yet more than any other prophet, Ezekiel wedded his announcements of judgment to a deep concern that the people see God’s hand in the devastation. At least 43 times the prophet attaches to his fearsome prophecies some form of the phrase, “Then they shall know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel felt a burning desire, not only to communicate to his people the seriousness of their sin, but also that God stood at the center of all that was about to happen—God, and not fate or bad luck or poor military strategy. The prophet possessed a profound zeal to relate Almighty God to every area of their lives. And he wanted the scattered remnant to remember their unbreakable connection to the Lord.

Ezekiel’s passion for the name of God should drive home in the heart of every leader the seriousness of the sin of idolatry. God spoke with awesome solemnity when He forbade the Israelites from worshiping anyone or anything other than Him (Ex. 20:3). Wise leaders always keep in mind that God requires not only that we have no gods before Him, but that we have no other gods beside Him. No one long escapes who treats His name with contempt. Not then, and not today.

Chapter 7

Judgment on Israel Is Near

¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“And you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel:

‘An end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land.

³Now the end has come upon you,
And I will send My anger against you;
I will judge you according to your ways,
And I will repay you for all your abominations.

⁴My eye will not spare you,
Nor will I have pity;
But I will repay your ways,
And your abominations will be in your midst;

Then you shall know that I am the LORD!’

⁵“Thus says the Lord GOD:

‘A disaster, a singular disaster;

Behold, it has come!

⁶An end has come,
The end has come;

It has dawned for you;
Behold, it has come!
⁷Doom has come to you, you who dwell in the land;
The time has come,
A day of trouble is near,
And not of rejoicing in the mountains.

⁸Now upon you I will soon pour out My fury,
And spend My anger upon you;
I will judge you according to your ways,

And I will repay you for all your abominations.

⁹My eye will not spare,
Nor will I have pity;
I will repay you according to your ways,
And your abominations will be in your midst.

Then you shall know that I am the LORD who strikes.

¹⁰Behold, the day!
Behold, it has come!
Doom has gone out;
The rod has blossomed,
Pride has budded.

¹¹Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness;
None of them shall remain,
None of their multitude,
None of them;
Nor shall there be wailing for them.

¹²The time has come,

The day draws near.

Let not the buyer rejoice,
Nor the seller mourn,
For wrath is on their whole multitude.

¹³For the seller shall not return to what has been sold,

Though he may still be alive;
For the vision concerns the whole multitude,
And it shall not turn back;
No one will strengthen himself

Who lives in iniquity.

¹⁴“They have blown the trumpet and made everyone ready,

But no one goes to battle;
For My wrath is on all their multitude.

¹⁵The sword is outside,
And the pestilence and famine within.
Whoever is in the field
Will die by the sword;
And whoever is in the city,

Famine and pestilence will devour him.

¹⁶“Those who survive will escape and be on the mountains

Like doves of the valleys,
All of them mourning,
Each for his iniquity.

¹⁷Every hand will be feeble,
And every knee will be as weak as water.

¹⁸They will also be girded with sackcloth;
Horror will cover them;
Shame will be on every face,

Baldness on all their heads.

¹⁹“They will throw their silver into the streets,
And their gold will be like refuse;

Their silver and their gold will not be able to deliver
them

In the day of the wrath of the LORD;
They will not satisfy their souls,
Nor fill their stomachs,

Because it became their stumbling block of iniquity.

²⁰‘As for the beauty of his ornaments,
He set it in majesty;
But they made from it
The images of their abominations—
Their detestable things;
Therefore I have made it
Like refuse to them.

²¹I will give it as plunder
Into the hands of strangers,
And to the wicked of the earth as spoil;
And they shall defile it.

²²I will turn My face from them,
And they will defile My secret place;

For robbers shall enter it and defile it.

²³‘Make a chain,
For the land is filled with crimes of blood,
And the city is full of violence.

²⁴Therefore I will bring the worst of the Gentiles,
And they will possess their houses;
I will cause the pomp of the strong to cease,
And their holy places shall be defiled.

²⁵Destruction comes;
They will seek peace, but there shall be none.

²⁶Disaster will come upon disaster,
And rumor will be upon rumor.
Then they will seek a vision from a prophet;

But the law will perish from the priest,

And counsel from the elders.

²⁷“The king will mourn,

The prince will be clothed with desolation,

And the hands of the common people will tremble.

I will do to them according to their way,

And according to what they deserve I will judge
them;

Then they shall know that I am the LORD!’ ”

Chapter 8

Abominations in the Temple

¹And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house with the elders of Judah sitting before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me there. ²Then I looked, and there was a likeness, like the appearance of fire—from the appearance of His waist and downward, fire; and from His waist and upward, like the appearance of brightness, like the color of amber. ³He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my hair; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the north gate of the inner court, where the seat of the image of jealousy was, which provokes to jealousy. ⁴And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I saw in the plain.

⁵Then He said to me, “Son of man, lift your eyes now toward the north.” So I lifted my eyes toward the north, and there, north of the altar gate, was this image of jealousy in the entrance.

⁶Furthermore He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel commits here, to make Me go far away from My sanctuary? Now turn again, you will see greater abominations.” ⁷So He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, there was a hole in the wall. ⁸Then He said to me, "Son of man, dig into the wall"; and when I dug into the wall, there was a door.

⁹And He said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked abominations which they are doing there." ¹⁰So I went in and saw, and there—every sort of creeping thing, abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed all around on the walls. ¹¹And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan. Each man had a censer in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense went up. ¹²Then He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the room of his idols? For they say, 'The LORD does not see us, the LORD has forsaken the land.' "

¹³And He said to me, "Turn again, and you will see greater abominations that they are doing." ¹⁴So He brought me to the door of the north gate of the LORD's house; and to my dismay, women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.

The Law of Solid Ground: Leaders Pay for Conduct No One Sees

Ezekiel 8:12, 13

When leaders believe they can do whatever they want in private even if it contradicts what they do in public, they violate their calling. Leaders who last commit themselves to personal integrity, even when no one is watching, because they know it will pay off in public, when many may be watching.

¹⁵Then He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Turn again, you will see greater abominations than these." ¹⁶So He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house; and there, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east, and they were worshiping the sun toward the east.

¹⁷And He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a trivial thing to the house of Judah to commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence; then they have returned to provoke Me to anger. Indeed they put the branch to their nose. ¹⁸"Therefore I also will act in fury. My eye will not spare nor will I have pity; and though they cry in My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

Chapter 9

The Wicked Are Slain

¹Then He called out in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, "Let those who have charge over the city draw near, each with a deadly weapon in his hand." ²And suddenly six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with his battle-ax in his hand. One man among them was clothed with linen and had a writer's inkhorn at his side. They went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

³Now the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub, where it had been, to the threshold of the temple.^a And He called to the man clothed with linen, who had the writer's inkhorn at his side; ⁴and the LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it."

⁵To the others He said in my hearing, "Go after him through the city and kill; do not let your eye spare, nor have any pity. ⁶"Utterly slay old and young men, maidens and little children and women; but do not come near anyone on whom is the mark; and begin at My sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were before the temple. ⁷Then He said to them, "Defile the temple, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!" And they went out and killed in the city.

⁸So it was, that while they were killing them, I was left alone; and I fell on my face and cried out, and said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will You destroy all the remnant of Israel in pouring out Your fury on Jerusalem?"

⁹Then He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of bloodshed, and the city full of perversity; for they say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD does not see!'

¹⁰"And as for Me also, My eye will neither spare, nor will I have pity, but I will recompense their deeds on their own head."

¹¹Just then, the man clothed with linen, who had the inkhorn at his side, reported back and said, "I have done as You commanded me."

Chapter 10

The Glory Departs from the Temple

¹And I looked, and there in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubim, there appeared something like a sapphire stone, having the appearance of the likeness of a throne. ²Then He spoke to the man clothed with linen, and said, "Go in among the wheels, under the cherub, fill your hands with coals of fire from among the cherubim, and scatter them over the city." And he went in as I watched.

³Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple^a when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court. ⁴Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and paused over the threshold of the temple; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory. ⁵And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even in the outer court, like the voice of Almighty God when He speaks.

⁶Then it happened, when He commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from among the wheels, from among the cherubim," that he went in and stood beside the wheels. ⁷And the cherub stretched out his hand from among the cherubim to the fire that was among the cherubim, and took some of it and put it into the hands of the man clothed with linen, who took it and went out. ⁸The cherubim appeared to have the form of a man's hand under their wings.

⁹And when I looked, there were four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel by one cherub and another wheel by each other cherub; the wheels appeared to have the color of a beryl stone. ¹⁰*As for* their appearance, all four looked alike—as it were, a wheel in the middle of a wheel. ¹¹When they went, they went toward any of their four directions; they did not turn aside when they went, but followed in the direction the head was facing. They did not turn aside when they went. ¹²And their whole body, with their back, their hands, their wings, and the wheels that the four had, were full of eyes all around. ¹³As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, “Wheel.”

¹⁴Each one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, the second face the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

¹⁵And the cherubim were lifted up. This was the living creature I saw by the River Chebar. ¹⁶When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also did not turn from beside them. ¹⁷When the cherubim^a stood still, the wheels stood still, and when one^b was lifted up, the other^c lifted itself up, for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

¹⁸Then the glory of the LORD departed from the threshold of the temple and stood over the cherubim. ¹⁹And the cherubim lifted their wings and mounted up from the earth in my sight. When they went out, the wheels were beside them; and they stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

²⁰This is the living creature I saw under the God of Israel by the River Chebar, and I knew they were cherubim.

²¹Each one had four faces and each one four wings, and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. ²²And the likeness of their faces was the same as the faces which I had seen by the River Chebar, their appearance and their persons. They each went straight forward.

Chapter 11

Judgment on Wicked Counselors

¹Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the East Gate of the LORD's house, which faces eastward; and there at the door of the gate were twenty-five men, among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. ²And He said to me: "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity and give wicked counsel in this city, ³"who say, 'The time is not near to build houses; this city is the caldron, and we are the meat.' ⁴"Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man!"

⁵Then the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said to me, "Speak! 'Thus says the LORD: "Thus you have said, O house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind. ⁶"You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain." ⁷"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Your slain whom you have laid in its midst, they are the meat, and this city is the caldron; but I shall bring you out of the midst of it. ⁸"You have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you," says the Lord GOD. ⁹"And I will bring you out of its midst, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and execute judgments on you. ¹⁰"You shall fall by the sword. I will judge you at the border of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹¹"This city shall not be your caldron, nor shall you be the meat in its midst. I will judge you at the border of Israel. ¹²“And you shall know that I am the LORD; for you have not walked in My statutes nor executed My judgments, but have done according to the customs of the Gentiles which are all around you.” ‘ ‘ ”

¹³Now it happened, while I was prophesying, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell on my face and cried with a loud voice, and said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Will You make a complete end of the remnant of Israel?”

God Looks at the Leader's Heart

Ezekiel 11:1-13

When God measures the greatness of a leader, He puts His tape measure around the heart, not the head. Ezekiel 11 echoes the message we learn from King David in 1 Samuel 16. When God punishes evil leaders, their followers also get punished. We may conclude from this that no nation rises above its leadership.

What can we learn from these failed leaders? The chief lesson lies in their hearts. God desires that leaders first develop the following heart characteristics:

1. Healthy personal security

2. Strong biblical identity

3. Growing intimacy with Him

4. Consistent personal disciplines

5. Pure motives and ambitions

6. Biblical values and priorities

7. Humble servant's heart

8. Healthy community relationships

9. Principle-centered decisions

10. Compassionate love for people

God Will Restore Israel

¹⁴Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁵“Son of man, your brethren, your relatives, your countrymen, and all the house of Israel in its entirety, are those about whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, ‘Get far away from the LORD; this land has been given to us as a possession.’ ¹⁶“Therefore say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Although I have cast them far off among the Gentiles, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet I shall be a little sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone.” ‘ ¹⁷“Therefore say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “I will gather you from the peoples, assemble you from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.” ‘ ¹⁸“And they will go there, and they will take away all its detestable things and all its abominations from there. ¹⁹“Then I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them,^a and take the stony heart out of their flesh, and give them a heart of flesh, ²⁰“that they may walk in My statutes and keep My judgments and do them; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God. ²¹“But as for those whose hearts follow the desire for their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their deeds on their own heads," says the Lord GOD.

²²So the cherubim lifted up their wings, with the wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was high above them. ²³And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city and stood on the mountain, which is on the east side of the city.

²⁴Then the Spirit took me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea,^a to those in captivity. And the vision that I had seen went up from me. ²⁵So I spoke to those in captivity of all the things the LORD had shown me.

Chapter 12

Judah's Captivity Portrayed

¹Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ²"Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house, which has eyes to see but does not see, and ears to hear but does not hear; for they are a rebellious house.

³"Therefore, son of man, prepare your belongings for captivity, and go into captivity by day in their sight. You shall go from your place into captivity to another place in their sight. It may be that they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. ⁴"By day you shall bring out your belongings in their sight, as though going into captivity; and at evening you shall go in their sight, like those who go into captivity. ⁵"Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your belongings out through it. ⁶"In their sight you shall bear them on your shoulders and carry them out at twilight; you shall cover your face, so that you cannot see the ground, for I have made you a sign to the house of Israel."

⁷So I did as I was commanded. I brought out my belongings by day, as though going into captivity, and at evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought them out at twilight, and I bore them on my shoulder in their sight.

⁸And in the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁹"Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, 'What are you doing?' ¹⁰"Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are among them." ' ¹¹"Say, 'I am a sign to you. As I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall be carried away into captivity.' ¹²"And the prince who is among them shall bear his belongings on his shoulder at twilight and go out. They shall dig through the wall to carry them out through it. He shall cover his face, so that he cannot see the ground with his eyes. ¹³"I will also spread My net over him, and he shall be caught in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet he shall not see it, though he shall die there. ¹⁴"I will scatter to every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his troops; and I will draw out the sword after them.

¹⁵"Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. ¹⁶"But I will spare a few of their men from the sword, from famine, and from pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the Gentiles wherever they go. Then they shall know that I am the LORD."

Judgment Not Postponed

¹⁷Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁸"Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and anxiety. ¹⁹"And say to the people of the land, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the land of Israel: "They shall eat their bread with anxiety, and drink their water with dread, so that her land may be emptied of all who are in it, because of the violence of all those who dwell in it. ²⁰“Then the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall become desolate; and you shall know that I am the LORD.” ‘ ”

²¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²²“Son of man, what is this proverb that you people have about the land of Israel, which says, ‘The days are prolonged, and every vision fails’? ²³“Tell them therefore, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “I will lay this proverb to rest, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel.”’ But say to them, “‘The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. ²⁴“For no more shall there be any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel. ²⁵“For I am the LORD. I speak, and the word which I speak will come to pass; it will no more be postponed; for in your days, O rebellious house, I will say the word and perform it,” says the Lord GOD.’ ”

²⁶Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²⁷“Son of man, look, the house of Israel is saying, ‘The vision that he sees is for many days from now, and he prophesies of times far off.’ ²⁸“Therefore say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “None of My words will be postponed any more, but the word which I speak will be done,” says the Lord GOD.’ ”

Vision: A Revelation Without Action Fades

Ezekiel 12:1-28

God told Ezekiel to pack up his belongings and symbolically act out the exile awaiting the Jews, once again using creative means to communicate vision.

In Ezekiel 12:21-28 God speaks of the powerlessness of visions unless someone puts feet to them. Visions lose their strength without action to support them. Good leaders always share both the vision and the steps to its implementation.

Yet the first step always must be to catch the God-given vision. Consider one process to go through as you attempt to catch God's vision for the people:

1. Look within you: What do you feel?
2. Look behind you: What have you learned?
3. Look around you: What is happening to others?
4. Look ahead of you: What is the big picture?
5. Look above you: What does God expect of you?
6. Look beside you: What resources are available to you?

Chapter 13

Woe to Foolish Prophets

¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, ‘Hear the word of the LORD!’ ”

³Thus says the Lord GOD: “Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing! ⁴“O Israel, your prophets are like foxes in the deserts. ⁵“You have not gone up into the gaps to build a wall for the house of Israel to stand in battle on the day of the LORD. ⁶“They have envisioned futility and false divination, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD!’ But the LORD has not sent them; yet they hope that the word may be confirmed. ⁷“Have you not seen a futile vision, and have you not spoken false divination? You say, ‘The LORD says,’ but I have not spoken.”

⁸Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Because you have spoken nonsense and envisioned lies, therefore I am indeed against you,” says the Lord GOD. ⁹“My hand will be against the prophets who envision futility and who divine lies; they shall not be in the assembly of My people, nor be written in the record of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter into the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. ¹⁰“Because, indeed, because they have seduced My people, saying, ‘Peace!’ when there is no peace—and one builds a wall, and they plaster it with untempered mortar—

¹¹“say to those who plaster it with untempered mortar, that it will fall. There will be flooding rain, and you, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it down.

¹²“Surely, when the wall has fallen, will it not be said to you, ‘Where is the mortar with which you plastered it?’ ”

¹³Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “I will cause a stormy wind to break forth in My fury; and there shall be a flooding rain in My anger, and great hailstones in fury to consume it. ¹⁴“So I will break down the wall you have plastered with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered; it will fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst of it. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

¹⁵“Thus will I accomplish My wrath on the wall and on those who have plastered it with untempered mortar; and I will say to you, ‘The wall is no more, nor those who plastered it, ¹⁶‘that is, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her when there is no peace,’ ” says the Lord GOD.

¹⁷“Likewise, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; prophesy against them, ¹⁸“and say, “Thus says the Lord GOD: “Woe to the women who sew magic charms on their sleeves^a and make veils for the heads of people of every height to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of My people, and keep yourselves alive? ¹⁹“And will you profane Me among My people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, killing people who should not die, and keeping people alive who should not live, by your lying to My people who listen to lies?”

²⁰“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I am against your magic charms by which you hunt souls there like birds. I will tear them from your arms, and let the souls go, the souls you hunt like birds. ²¹“I will also tear off your veils and deliver My people out of your hand, and they shall no longer be as prey in your hand. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

²²“Because with lies you have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and you have strengthened the hands of the wicked, so that he does not turn from his wicked way to save his life. ²³“Therefore you shall no longer envision futility nor practice divination; for I will deliver My people out of your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.” ‘ ”

Chapter 14

Idolatry Will Be Punished

¹Now some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me. ²And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ³“Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their hearts, and put before them that which causes them to stumble into iniquity. Should I let Myself be inquired of at all by them?

⁴“Therefore speak to them, and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Everyone of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, and then comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him who comes, according to the multitude of his idols, ⁵“that I may seize the house of Israel by their heart, because they are all estranged from Me by their idols.” ‘

⁶“Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Repent, turn away from your idols, and turn your faces away from all your abominations. ⁷“For anyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell in Israel, who separates himself from Me and sets up his idols in his heart and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, then comes to a prophet to inquire of him concerning Me, I the LORD will answer him by Myself. ⁸“I will set My face against that man and make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of My people. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

⁹“And if the prophet is induced to speak anything, I the LORD have induced that prophet, and I will stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel. ¹⁰“And they shall bear their iniquity; the punishment of the prophet shall be the same as the punishment of the one who inquired, ¹¹“that the house of Israel may no longer stray from Me, nor be profaned anymore with all their transgressions, but that they may be My people and I may be their God,” says the Lord GOD.’ ”

Judgment on Persistent Unfaithfulness

¹²The word of the LORD came again to me, saying: ¹³“Son of man, when a land sins against Me by persistent unfaithfulness, I will stretch out My hand against it; I will cut off its supply of bread, send famine on it, and cut off man and beast from it. ¹⁴“Even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would deliver only themselves by their righteousness,” says the Lord GOD.

The Law of Influence: Even the Best Leaders Can't Force Action

Ezekiel 14:12-14

Even the best leaders cannot force followers to act. God says even three of His choice servants—

Noah, Daniel, and Job—could not save rebellious Judah. All three were full of integrity, character, and discipline, totally competent and responsible to do the right thing. Yet God says even they could save only themselves.

¹⁵“If I cause wild beasts to pass through the land, and they empty it, and make it so desolate that no man may pass through because of the beasts, ¹⁶*“even though* these three men were in it, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “they would deliver neither sons nor daughters; only they would be delivered, and the land would be desolate.

¹⁷“Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, ‘Sword, go through the land,’ and I cut off man and beast from it, ¹⁸*“even though* these three men were in it, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but only they themselves would be delivered.

¹⁹“Or if I send a pestilence into that land and pour out My fury on it in blood, and cut off from it man and beast, ²⁰*“even though* Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they would deliver only themselves by their righteousness.”

²¹For thus says the Lord GOD: “How much more it shall be when I send My four severe judgments on Jerusalem—the sword and famine and wild beasts and pestilence—to cut off man and beast from it? ²²“Yet behold, there shall be left in it a remnant who will be brought out, both sons and daughters; surely they will come out to you, and you will see their ways and their doings. Then you will be comforted concerning the disaster that I have brought upon Jerusalem, all that I have brought upon it. ²³“And they will comfort you, when you see their ways and their doings; and you shall know that I have done nothing without cause that I have done in it," says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 15

The Outcast Vine

¹Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ²“Son of man, how is the wood of the vine better than any other wood, the vine branch which is among the trees of the forest? ³“Is wood taken from it to make any object? Or can men make a peg from it to hang any vessel on? ⁴“Instead, it is thrown into the fire for fuel; the fire devours both ends of it, and its middle is burned. Is it useful for any work? ⁵“Indeed, when it was whole, no object could be made from it. How much less will it be useful for any work when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned?

⁶“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give up the inhabitants of Jerusalem; ⁷‘and I will set My face against them. They will go out from one fire, but another fire shall devour them. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I set My face against them. ⁸“Thus I will make the land desolate, because they have persisted in unfaithfulness,’ says the Lord GOD.”

Chapter 16

God's Love for Jerusalem

¹Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, ³"and say, "Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: "Your birth and your nativity are from the land of Canaan; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. ⁴"As for your nativity, on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed in water to cleanse you; you were not rubbed with salt nor wrapped in swaddling cloths. ⁵"No eye pitied you, to do any of these things for you, to have compassion on you; but you were thrown out into the open field, when you yourself were loathed on the day you were born.

⁶"And when I passed by you and saw you struggling in your own blood, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!' Yes, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!' ⁷"I made you thrive like a plant in the field; and you grew, matured, and became very beautiful. Your breasts were formed, your hair grew, but you were naked and bare.

⁸"When I passed by you again and looked upon you, indeed your time was the time of love; so I spread My wing over you and covered your nakedness. Yes, I swore an oath to you and entered into a covenant with you, and you became Mine," says the Lord GOD.

⁹“Then I washed you in water; yes, I thoroughly washed off your blood, and I anointed you with oil. ¹⁰“I clothed you in embroidered cloth and gave you sandals of badger skin; I clothed you with fine linen and covered you with silk. ¹¹“I adorned you with ornaments, put bracelets on your wrists, and a chain on your neck. ¹²“And I put a jewel in your nose, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. ¹³“Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was of fine linen, silk, and embroidered cloth. You ate pastry of fine flour, honey, and oil. You were exceedingly beautiful, and succeeded to royalty. ¹⁴“Your fame went out among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect through My splendor which I had bestowed on you,” says the Lord GOD.

Jerusalem’s Harlotry

¹⁵“But you trusted in your own beauty, played the harlot because of your fame, and poured out your harlotry on everyone passing by who would have it. ¹⁶“You took some of your garments and adorned multicolored high places for yourself, and played the harlot on them. Such things should not happen, nor be. ¹⁷“You have also taken your beautiful jewelry from My gold and My silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself male images and played the harlot with them. ¹⁸“You took your embroidered garments and covered them, and you set My oil and My incense before them. ¹⁹“Also My food which I gave you—the pastry of fine flour, oil, and honey which I fed you—you set it before them as sweet incense; and so it was,” says the Lord GOD.

²⁰“Moreover you took your sons and your daughters, whom you bore to Me, and these you sacrificed to them to be devoured. Were your acts of harlotry a small matter, ²¹“that you have slain My children and offered them up to them by causing them to pass through the fire? ²²“And in all your abominations and acts of harlotry you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, struggling in your blood.

²³“Then it was so, after all your wickedness—‘Woe, woe to you!’ says the Lord GOD— ²⁴“that you also built for yourself a shrine, and made a high place for yourself in every street. ²⁵“You built your high places at the head of every road, and made your beauty to be abhorred. You offered yourself to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your acts of harlotry. ²⁶“You also committed harlotry with the Egyptians, your very fleshly neighbors, and increased your acts of harlotry to provoke Me to anger.

²⁷“Behold, therefore, I stretched out My hand against you, diminished your allotment, and gave you up to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd behavior. ²⁸“You also played the harlot with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; indeed you played the harlot with them and still were not satisfied. ²⁹“Moreover you multiplied your acts of harlotry as far as the land of the trader, Chaldea; and even then you were not satisfied.

The Law of Magnetism: God’s People Become Like Pagan Leaders

Ezekiel 16:23-29

We attract who we are, not who we want.
Consider the following:

1. Attraction: We tend to attract those similar to us.
2. Reflection: We tend to reflect those who lead or follow us.
3. Repercussion: We tend to face similar consequences as those who are like us.

³⁰“How degenerate is your heart!” says the Lord GOD, “seeing you do all these things, the deeds of a brazen harlot.

Jerusalem’s Adultery

³¹“You erected your shrine at the head of every road, and built your high place in every street. Yet you were not like a harlot, because you scorned payment. ³²“You are an adulterous wife, who takes strangers instead of her husband. ³³“Men make payment to all harlots, but you made your payments to all your lovers, and hired them to come to you from all around for your harlotry. ³⁴“You are the opposite of other women in your harlotry, because no one solicited you to be a harlot. In that you gave payment but no payment was given you, therefore you are the opposite.”

Jerusalem’s Lovers Will Abuse Her

³⁵Now then, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD! ³⁶Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because your filthiness was poured out and your nakedness uncovered in your harlotry with your lovers, and with all your abominable idols, and because of the blood of your children which you gave to them, ³⁷“surely, therefore, I will gather all your lovers with whom you took pleasure, all those you loved, and all those you hated; I will gather them from all around against you and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. ³⁸“And I will judge you as women who break wedlock or shed blood are judged; I will bring blood upon you in fury and jealousy. ³⁹“I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your shrines and break down your high places. They shall also strip you of your clothes, take your beautiful jewelry, and leave you naked and bare.

⁴⁰“They shall also bring up an assembly against you, and they shall stone you with stones and thrust you through with their swords. ⁴¹“They shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will make you cease playing the harlot, and you shall no longer hire lovers. ⁴²“So I will lay to rest My fury toward you, and My jealousy shall depart from you. I will be quiet, and be angry no more. ⁴³“Because you did not remember the days of your youth, but agitated Me^a with all these things, surely I will also recompense your deeds on your own head,” says the Lord GOD. “And you shall not commit lewdness in addition to all your abominations.

More Wicked than Samaria and Sodom

⁴⁴“Indeed everyone who quotes proverbs will use this proverb against you: ‘Like mother, like daughter!’ ⁴⁵“You are your mother’s daughter, loathing husband and children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and children; your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

⁴⁶“Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells with her daughters to the north of you; and your younger sister, who dwells to the south of you, is Sodom and her daughters. ⁴⁷“You did not walk in their ways nor act according to their abominations; but, as if that were too little, you became more corrupt than they in all your ways.

⁴⁸“As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “neither your sister Sodom nor her daughters have done as you and your daughters have done. ⁴⁹“Look, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: She and her daughter had pride, fullness of food, and abundance of idleness; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. ⁵⁰“And they were haughty and committed abomination before Me; therefore I took them away as I saw fit.^a ⁵¹“Samaria did not commit half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all the abominations which you have done. ⁵²“You who judged your sisters, bear your own shame also, because the sins which you committed were more abominable than theirs; they are more righteous than you. Yes, be disgraced also, and bear your own shame, because you justified your sisters.

⁵³“When I bring back their captives, the captives of Sodom and her daughters, and the captives of Samaria and her daughters, then I will also bring back the captives of your captivity among them, ⁵⁴“that you may bear your own shame and be disgraced by all that you did when you comforted them. ⁵⁵“When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters return to their former state, then you and your daughters will return to your former state. ⁵⁶“For your sister Sodom was not a byword in your mouth in the days of your pride, ⁵⁷“before your wickedness was uncovered. It was like the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria^a and all those around her, and of the daughters of the Philistines, who despise you everywhere. ⁵⁸“You have paid for your lewdness and your abominations,” says the LORD. ⁵⁹‘For thus says the Lord GOD: “I will deal with you as you have done, who despised the oath by breaking the covenant.

An Everlasting Covenant

⁶⁰“Nevertheless I will remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. ⁶¹“Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your older and your younger sisters; for I will give them to you for daughters, but not because of My covenant with you. ⁶²“And I will establish My covenant with you. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, ⁶³“that you may remember and be ashamed, and never open your mouth anymore because of your shame, when I provide you an atonement for all you have done,” says the Lord GOD.’ ”

Chapter 17

The Eagles and the Vine

¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, pose a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel, ³“and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD:

“A great eagle with large wings and long pinions,
Full of feathers of various colors,
Came to Lebanon
And took from the cedar the highest branch.

⁴He cropped off its topmost young twig
And carried it to a land of trade;
He set it in a city of merchants.

⁵Then he took some of the seed of the land
And planted it in a fertile field;
He placed it by abundant waters
And set it like a willow tree.

⁶And it grew and became a spreading vine of low stature;

Its branches turned toward him,
But its roots were under it.
So it became a vine,
Brought forth branches,

And put forth shoots.

⁷“But there was another^a great eagle with large wings and many feathers;
And behold, this vine bent its roots toward him,
And stretched its branches toward him,
From the garden terrace where it had been planted,
That he might water it.

⁸It was planted in good soil by many waters,
To bring forth branches, bear fruit,

And become a majestic vine.” ‘

⁹“Say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD:

“Will it thrive?
Will he not pull up its roots,
Cut off its fruit,
And leave it to wither?
All of its spring leaves will wither,
And no great power or many people
Will be needed to pluck it up by its roots.

¹⁰Behold, it is planted,
Will it thrive?
Will it not utterly wither when the east wind touches
it?

It will wither in the garden terrace where it grew.” ‘

¹¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹²“Say now to the rebellious house: ‘Do you not know what these things mean?’ Tell them, ‘Indeed the king of Babylon went to Jerusalem and took its king and princes, and led them with him to Babylon. ¹³‘And he took the king’s offspring, made a covenant with him, and put him under oath. He also took away the mighty of the land, ¹⁴‘that the kingdom might be brought low and not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. ¹⁵‘But he rebelled against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Will he prosper? Will he who does such things escape? Can he break a covenant and still be delivered?

¹⁶‘As I live,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke—with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. ¹⁷‘Nor will Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company do anything in the war, when they heap up a siege mound and build a wall to cut off many persons. ¹⁸‘Since he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, and in fact gave his hand and still did all these things, he shall not escape.’ ”

¹⁹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “As I live, surely My oath which he despised, and My covenant which he broke, I will recompense on his own head. ²⁰“I will spread My net over him, and he shall be taken in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon and try him there for the treason which he committed against Me. ²¹“All his fugitives^a with all his troops shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered to every wind; and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken.”

Israel Exalted at Last

²²Thus says the Lord GOD: “I will take also one of the highest branches of the high cedar and set it out. I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and will plant it on a high and prominent mountain. ²³“On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it; and it will bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a majestic cedar. Under it will dwell birds of every sort; in the shadow of its branches they will dwell. ²⁴“And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, have brought down the high tree and exalted the low tree, dried up the green tree and made the dry tree flourish; I, the LORD, have spoken and have done it.”

Chapter 18

A False Proverb Refuted

¹The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, ²“What do you mean when you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying:

“The fathers have eaten sour grapes,

And the children’s teeth are set on edge’?

³“As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “you shall no longer use this proverb in Israel.

⁴“Behold, all souls are Mine;

The soul of the father

As well as the soul of the son is Mine;

The soul who sins shall die.

⁵But if a man is just

And does what is lawful and right;

⁶If he has not eaten on the mountains,

Nor lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel,

Nor defiled his neighbor’s wife,

Nor approached a woman during her impurity;

⁷If he has not oppressed anyone,

But has restored to the debtor his pledge;
Has robbed no one by violence,
But has given his bread to the hungry
And covered the naked with clothing;
⁸If he has not exacted usury
Nor taken any increase,
But has withdrawn his hand from iniquity
And executed true judgment between man and man;
⁹*If* he has walked in My statutes
And kept My judgments faithfully—
He is just;
He shall surely live!”

Says the Lord GOD.

¹⁰“If he begets a son who is a robber
Or a shedder of blood,
Who does any of these things
¹¹And does none of those duties,
But has eaten on the mountains
Or defiled his neighbor’s wife;
¹²If he has oppressed the poor and needy,
Robbed by violence,
Not restored the pledge,
Lifted his eyes to the idols,
Or committed abomination;
¹³If he has exacted usury
Or taken increase—
Shall he then live?
He shall not live!
If he has done any of these abominations,
He shall surely die;

His blood shall be upon him.

¹⁴“If, however, he begets a son

Who sees all the sins which his father has done,
And considers but does not do likewise;
¹⁵ Who has not eaten on the mountains,
Nor lifted his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel,
Nor defiled his neighbor's wife;
¹⁶ Has not oppressed anyone,
Nor withheld a pledge,
Nor robbed by violence,
But has given his bread to the hungry
And covered the naked with clothing;
¹⁷ Who has withdrawn his hand from the poor^a
And not received usury or increase,
But has executed My judgments
And walked in My statutes—
He shall not die for the iniquity of his father;

He shall surely live!

¹⁸ “As for his father,
Because he cruelly oppressed,
Robbed his brother by violence,
And did what is not good among his people,

Behold, he shall die for his iniquity.

Turn and Live

¹⁹ “Yet you say, ‘Why should the son not bear the guilt of the father?’ Because the son has done what is lawful and right, and has kept all My statutes and observed them, he shall surely live. ²⁰ “The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not bear the guilt of the father, nor the father bear the guilt of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself.

²¹“But if a wicked man turns from all his sins which he has committed, keeps all My statutes, and does what is lawful and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die.

²²“None of the transgressions which he has committed shall be remembered against him; because of the righteousness which he has done, he shall live. ²³“Do I have any pleasure at all that the wicked should die?” says the Lord GOD, “and not that he should turn from his ways and live?

²⁴“But when a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? All the righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; because of the unfaithfulness of which he is guilty and the sin which he has committed, because of them he shall die.

²⁵“Yet you say, ‘The way of the Lord is not fair.’ Hear now, O house of Israel, is it not My way which is fair, and your ways which are not fair? ²⁶“When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, commits iniquity, and dies in it, it is because of the iniquity which he has done that he dies. ²⁷“Again, when a wicked man turns away from the wickedness which he committed, and does what is lawful and right, he preserves himself alive. ²⁸“Because he considers and turns away from all the transgressions which he committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die. ²⁹“Yet the house of Israel says, ‘The way of the Lord is not fair.’ O house of Israel, is it not My ways which are fair, and your ways which are not fair?

³⁰“Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways,” says the Lord GOD. “Repent, and turn from all your transgressions, so that iniquity will not be your ruin. ³¹“Cast away from you all the transgressions which you have committed, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. For why should you die, O house of Israel? ³²“For I have no pleasure in the death of one who dies,” says the Lord GOD. “Therefore turn and live!”

Discernment: Leaders Assess Situations, Then Respond

Ezekiel 18:1-32

God handles each circumstance based on His assessment of the individual situation. In Ezekiel 18 God reminds us to use discernment in each situation we face. Don't package everyone together, but size everyone up, one at a time. Respond correctly to each situation.

Consider a few rules of thumb to increase your leadership discernment:

1. Analyze past successes.

Try to identify the root issues of problems you have already solved. What patterns do you see? What enabled you to succeed?

2. Assess each person based on their particular situation.

Don't fall into such a rut that you begin to stereotype everyone. Let each team member be an individual and discern what is right for him or her, without the baggage of others.

3. Listen to your gut.

Try to recall times when your intuition “spoke” to you correctly. Get data, but go beyond mere information to your heart's sense of the right thing.

4. Learn from wise leaders.

What great leaders do you admire? Study and read the lives of other leaders with gifting similar to yours and discover how they think and make decisions.

Chapter 19

Israel Degraded

¹“Moreover take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,
²“and say:

‘What is your mother? A lioness:
She lay down among the lions;
Among the young lions she nourished her cubs.

³She brought up one of her cubs,
And he became a young lion;
He learned to catch prey,
And he devoured men.

⁴The nations also heard of him;
He was trapped in their pit,

And they brought him with chains to the land of Egypt.

⁵‘When she saw that she waited, that her hope was lost,

She took another of her cubs and made him a young lion.

⁶He roved among the lions,
And became a young lion;
He learned to catch prey;
He devoured men.

⁷He knew their desolate places,^a
And laid waste their cities;
The land with its fullness was desolated
By the noise of his roaring.

⁸Then the nations set against him from the provinces on every side,

And spread their net over him;
He was trapped in their pit.

⁹They put him in a cage with chains,
And brought him to the king of Babylon;
They brought him in nets,

That his voice should no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰Your mother was like a vine in your bloodline,^a
Planted by the waters,
Fruitful and full of branches
Because of many waters.

¹¹She had strong branches for scepters of rulers.
She towered in stature above the thick branches,
And was seen in her height amid the dense foliage.

¹²But she was plucked up in fury,
She was cast down to the ground,
And the east wind dried her fruit.
Her strong branches were broken and withered;
The fire consumed them.

¹³And now she is planted in the wilderness,
In a dry and thirsty land.

¹⁴Fire has come out from a rod of her branches

Discipline: If Leaders Can't Rule Themselves, They Can't Rule Others

Ezekiel 19:1-14

There is no leadership without self-discipline. Since the “princes” of Ezekiel 19 lacked the discipline to lead their own lives well, they also failed to lead anyone else well. Leaders must first lead themselves and earn the right to attract followers. The best leader serves as a model for others.

And devoured her fruit,

So that she has no strong branch— a scepter for ruling.’ ”

This is a lamentation, and has become a lamentation.

Chapter 20

The Rebellions of Israel

¹It came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

²Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ³“Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Have you come to inquire of Me? As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will not be inquired of by you.”’

⁴“Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Then make known to them the abominations of their fathers.

⁵“Say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “On the day when I chose Israel and raised My hand in an oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob, and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt, I raised My hand in an oath to them, saying, ‘I am the LORD your God.’” ⁶“On that day I raised My hand in an oath to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, ‘flowing with milk and honey,’^a the glory of all lands. ⁷“Then I said to them, ‘Each of you, throw away the abominations which are before his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.’” ⁸“But they rebelled against Me and would not obey Me. They did not all cast away the abominations which were before their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said, 'I will pour out My fury on them and fulfill My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.' ⁹"But I acted for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the Gentiles among whom they were, in whose sight I had made Myself known to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰"Therefore I made them go out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹"And I gave them My statutes and showed them My judgments, 'which, if a man does, he shall live by them.'^a ¹²"Moreover I also gave them My Sabbaths, to be a sign between them and Me, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them. ¹³"Yet the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness; they did not walk in My statutes; they despised My judgments, 'which, if a man does, he shall live by them';^a and they greatly defiled My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My fury on them in the wilderness, to consume them. ¹⁴"But I acted for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the Gentiles, in whose sight I had brought them out. ¹⁵"So I also raised My hand in an oath to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, 'flowing with milk and honey,'^a the glory of all lands, ¹⁶"because they despised My judgments and did not walk in My statutes, but profaned My Sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols. ¹⁷"Nevertheless My eye spared them from destruction. I did not make an end of them in the wilderness.

¹⁸"But I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, nor observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹'I am the LORD your God: Walk in My statutes, keep My judgments, and do them; ²⁰'hallow My Sabbaths, and they will be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.'

²¹“Notwithstanding, the children rebelled against Me; they did not walk in My statutes, and were not careful to observe My judgments, ‘which, if a man does, he shall live by them’;^a but they profaned My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My fury on them and fulfill My anger against them in the wilderness. ²²“Nevertheless I withdrew My hand and acted for My name’s sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the Gentiles, in whose sight I had brought them out. ²³“Also I raised My hand in an oath to those in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the Gentiles and disperse them throughout the countries, ²⁴“because they had not executed My judgments, but had despised My statutes, profaned My Sabbaths, and their eyes were fixed on their fathers’ idols.

25“Therefore I also gave them up to statutes that were not good, and judgments by which they could not live;
26“and I pronounced them unclean because of their ritual gifts, in that they caused all their firstborn to pass through the fire, that I might make them desolate and that they might know that I am the LORD.” ‘

27“Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “In this too your fathers have blasphemed Me, by being unfaithful to Me. 28“When I brought them into the land concerning which I had raised My hand in an oath to give them, and they saw all the high hills and all the thick trees, there they offered their sacrifices and provoked Me with their offerings. There they also sent up their sweet aroma and poured out their drink offerings. 29“Then I said to them, ‘What is this high place to which you go?’ So its name is called Bamah^a to this day.” ‘ 30“Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Are you defiling yourselves in the manner of your fathers, and committing harlotry according to their abominations? ³¹“For when you offer your gifts and make your sons pass through the fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols, even to this day. So shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will not be inquired of by you. ³²“What you have in your mind shall never be, when you say, ‘We will be like the Gentiles, like the families in other countries, serving wood and stone.’

God Will Restore Israel

³³“As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “surely with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out, I will rule over you. ³⁴“I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out. ³⁵“And I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will plead My case with you face to face. ³⁶“Just as I pleaded My case with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will plead My case with you,” says the Lord GOD.

³⁷“I will make you pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; ³⁸“I will purge the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against Me; I will bring them out of the country where they dwell, but they shall not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

³⁹“As for you, O house of Israel,” thus says the Lord GOD: “Go, serve every one of you his idols—and hereafter—if you will not obey Me; but profane My holy name no more with your gifts and your idols. ⁴⁰“For on My holy mountain, on the mountain height of Israel,” says the Lord GOD, “there all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, shall serve

Me; there I will accept them, and there I will require your offerings and the firstfruits of your sacrifices, together with all your holy things. ⁴¹“I will accept you as a sweet aroma when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered; and I will be hallowed in you before the Gentiles. ⁴²“Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for which I raised My hand in an oath to give to your fathers. ⁴³“And there you shall remember your ways and all your doings with which you were defiled; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight because of all the evils that you have committed. ⁴⁴“Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have dealt with you for My name’s sake, not according to your wicked ways nor according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel,” says the Lord GOD.’ ”

Fire in the Forest

⁴⁵Furthermore the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁴⁶“Son of man, set your face toward the south; preach against the south and prophesy against the forest land, the South, ^a ⁴⁷“and say to the forest of the South, ‘Hear the word of the LORD! Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree and every dry tree in you; the blazing flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be scorched by it. ⁴⁸“All flesh shall see that I, the LORD, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched.” ‘ ”

⁴⁹Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! They say of me, ‘Does he not speak parables?’ ”

Chapter 21

Babylon, the Sword of God

¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, preach against the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel; ³"and say to the land of Israel, "Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I am against you, and I will draw My sword out of its sheath and cut off both righteous and wicked from you. ⁴"Because I will cut off both righteous and wicked from you, therefore My sword shall go out of its sheath against all flesh from south to north, ⁵"that all flesh may know that I, the LORD, have drawn My sword out of its sheath; it shall not return anymore." ' ⁶"Sigh therefore, son of man, with a breaking heart, and sigh with bitterness before their eyes. ⁷"And it shall be when they say to you, 'Why are you sighing?' that you shall answer, 'Because of the news; when it comes, every heart will melt, all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint, and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it is coming and shall be brought to pass,' says the Lord GOD."

⁸Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁹"Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD!' Say:

'A sword, a sword is sharpened
And also polished!

¹⁰Sharpened to make a dreadful slaughter,

Polished to flash like lightning!
Should we then make mirth?
It despises the scepter of My son,
As it does all wood.

¹¹And He has given it to be polished,
That it may be handled;
This sword is sharpened, and it is polished

To be given into the hand of the slayer.'

¹²"Cry and wail, son of man;
For it will be against My people,
Against all the princes of Israel.
Terrors including the sword will be against My
people;

Therefore strike your thigh.

¹³"Because it is a testing,
And what if the sword despises even the scepter?

The scepter shall be no more,"
says the Lord GOD.

¹⁴"You therefore, son of man, prophesy,
And strike your hands together.
The third time let the sword do double damage.
It is the sword that slays,
The sword that slays the great men,
That enters their private chambers.

¹⁵I have set the point of the sword against all their gates,

That the heart may melt and many may stumble.
Ah! It is made bright;

It is grasped for slaughter:

¹⁶“Swords at the ready!
Thrust right!
Set your blade!
Thrust left—

Wherever your edge is ordered!

¹⁷“I also will beat My fists together,
And I will cause My fury to rest;

I, the LORD, have spoken.”

¹⁸The word of the LORD came to me again, saying:
¹⁹“And son of man, appoint for yourself two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to go; both of them shall go from the same land. Make a sign; put it at the head of the road to the city. ²⁰“Appoint a road for the sword to go to Rabbah of the Ammonites, and to Judah, into fortified Jerusalem. ²¹“For the king of Babylon stands at the parting of the road, at the fork of the two roads, to use divination: he shakes the arrows, he consults the images, he looks at the liver. ²²“In his right hand is the divination for Jerusalem: to set up battering rams, to call for a slaughter, to lift the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to heap up a siege mound, and to build a wall. ²³“And it will be to them like a false divination in the eyes of those who have sworn oaths with them; but he will bring their iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.

²⁴“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear—because you have come to remembrance, you shall be taken in hand.

²⁵‘Now to you, O profane, wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come, whose iniquity shall end, ²⁶‘thus says the Lord GOD:

“Remove the turban, and take off the crown;
Nothing shall remain the same.
Exalt the humble, and humble the exalted.
²⁷Overthrown, overthrown,
I will make it overthrown!
It shall be no longer,
Until He comes whose right it is,

And I will give it to Him.” ‘

A Sword Against the Ammonites

²⁸“And you, son of man, prophesy and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites and concerning their reproach,’ and say:

‘A sword, a sword is drawn,
Polished for slaughter,
For consuming, for flashing—
²⁹While they see false visions for you,
While they divine a lie to you,
To bring you on the necks of the wicked, the slain
Whose day has come,

Whose iniquity shall end.

³⁰‘Return it to its sheath.

I will judge you
In the place where you were created,
In the land of your nativity.

³¹I will pour out My indignation on you;
I will blow against you with the fire of My wrath,
And deliver you into the hands of brutal men who are skillful to destroy.

³²You shall be fuel for the fire;
Your blood shall be in the midst of the land.
You shall not be remembered,

For I the LORD have spoken.' "

Chapter 22

Sins of Jerusalem

¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
²"Now, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Yes, show her all her abominations! ³"Then say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "The city sheds blood in her own midst, that her time may come; and she makes idols within herself to defile herself. ⁴"You have become guilty by the blood which you have shed, and have defiled yourself with the idols which you have made. You have caused your days to draw near, and have come to the end of your years; therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mockery to all countries. ⁵"Those near and those far from you will mock you as infamous and full of tumult.

⁶"Look, the princes of Israel: each one has used his power to shed blood in you. ⁷"In you they have made light of father and mother; in your midst they have oppressed the stranger; in you they have mistreated the fatherless and the widow. ⁸"You have despised My holy things and profaned My Sabbaths. ⁹"In you are men who slander to cause bloodshed; in you are those who eat on the mountains; in your midst they commit lewdness. ¹⁰"In you men uncover their fathers' nakedness; in you they violate women who are set apart during their impurity. ¹¹"One commits abomination with his neighbor's wife; another lewdly defiles his daughter-in-law; and another in you violates his sister, his father's daughter. ¹²"In you they take bribes to shed blood; you take usury and increase; you have made profit from your neighbors by extortion, and have forgotten Me," says the Lord GOD.

¹³"Behold, therefore, I beat My fists at the dishonest profit which you have made, and at the bloodshed which has been in your midst. ¹⁴"Can your heart endure, or can your hands remain strong, in the days when I shall deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken, and will do it. ¹⁵"I will scatter you among the nations, disperse you throughout the countries, and remove your filthiness completely from you. ¹⁶"You shall defile yourself in the sight of the nations; then you shall know that I am the LORD." ' "

Israel in the Furnace

¹⁷The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁸"Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me; they are all bronze, tin, iron, and lead, in the midst of a furnace; they have become dross from silver. ¹⁹"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have all become dross, therefore behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. ²⁰'As men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the midst of a furnace, to blow fire on it, to melt it; so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury, and I will leave you there and melt you. ²¹'Yes, I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you shall be melted in its midst. ²²'As silver is melted in the midst of a furnace, so shall you be melted in its midst; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have poured out My fury on you.' "

Israel's Wicked Leaders

²³And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²⁴"Son of man, say to her: 'You are a land that is not cleansed^a or rained on in the day of indignation.' ²⁵"The conspiracy of her prophets^a in her midst is like a roaring lion tearing the prey; they have devoured people; they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in her midst. ²⁶"Her priests have violated My law and profaned My holy things; they have not distinguished between the holy and unholy, nor have they made known the difference between the unclean and the clean; and they have hidden their eyes from My Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them. ²⁷"Her princes in her midst are like wolves tearing the prey, to shed blood, to destroy people, and to get dishonest gain. ²⁸"Her prophets plastered them with untempered mortar, seeing false visions, and divining lies for them, saying, 'Thus says the Lord GOD,' when the LORD had not spoken. ²⁹"The people of the land have used oppressions, committed robbery, and mistreated the poor and needy; and they wrongfully oppress the stranger. ³⁰"So I sought for a man among them who would make a wall, and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one. ³¹"Therefore I have poured out My indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath; and I have recompensed their deeds on their own heads," says the Lord GOD.

What Does God Look for in a Leader?

Ezekiel 22:30

This single verse contains a good description of the kind of leader God looks for. Take a look at what God was seeking in Ezekiel's day:

1. A man: God wasn't looking for a large committee, but a single person.
2. Among them: This person would relate best to people within his own culture.
3. A builder of walls: He must be constructive and hard working.
4. Stand in the gap: He must bridge the gap between people and God.
5. On behalf of the land: He carries a burden and vision for where he lives.

The Position of a Leader: Standing in the Gap

Ezekiel 22:24-31

God contrasts the poor leader with the godly leader in Ezekiel 22. The poor leader oppresses and destroys his or her followers, while the godly leader "stands in the gap" on behalf of the land and the people (v. 30). These leaders represent God to the people, and represent the people to God. They serve as "middlemen," serving God and serving the needs of the people. This text describes ten traits of the leader God affirms:

1. Consecration: They set themselves apart and remain committed to their call.
2. Discipline: They do what is right even when it is difficult.

3. Servanthood: They model a selfless life, lived for the benefit of others.

4. Vision: They see what God sees and live off the power of potential.

5. Compassion: Love for their cause and their people moves them to action.

6. Trustworthiness: They keep their word regardless of what others do.

7. Decisiveness: They make good decisions in a timely manner.

8. Wisdom: They think like God thinks and avoid impetuous moves.

9. Courage: They take risks for what is right.

10. Passion: They demonstrate enthusiasm for their divine calling.

Chapter 23

Two Harlot Sisters

¹The word of the LORD came again to me, saying:

²“Son of man, there were two women,
The daughters of one mother.

³They committed harlotry in Egypt,
They committed harlotry in their youth;
Their breasts were there embraced,
Their virgin bosom was there pressed.

⁴Their names: Oholah^a the elder and Oholibah^b her sister;

They were Mine,
And they bore sons and daughters.
As for their names,

Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem is Oholibah.

The Older Sister, Samaria

⁵“Oholah played the harlot even though she was Mine;

And she lusted for her lovers, the neighboring Assyrians,

⁶*Who were clothed in purple,
Captains and rulers,
All of them desirable young men,
Horsemen riding on horses.*

⁷Thus she committed her harlotry with them,
All of them choice men of Assyria;
And with all for whom she lusted,
With all their idols, she defiled herself.

⁸She has never given up her harlotry brought from Egypt,

For in her youth they had lain with her,
Pressed her virgin bosom,

And poured out their immorality upon her.

⁹“Therefore I have delivered her
Into the hand of her lovers,
Into the hand of the Assyrians,
For whom she lusted.

¹⁰They uncovered her nakedness,
Took away her sons and daughters,
And slew her with the sword;
She became a byword among women,

For they had executed judgment on her.

The Younger Sister, Jerusalem

¹¹“Now although her sister Oholibah saw this, she became more corrupt in her lust than she, and in her harlotry more corrupt than her sister’s harlotry.

¹²“She lusted for the neighboring Assyrians,
Captains and rulers,
Clothed most gorgeously,
Horsemen riding on horses,
All of them desirable young men.

¹³Then I saw that she was defiled;
Both took the same way.

¹⁴But she increased her harlotry;
She looked at men portrayed on the wall,
Images of Chaldeans portrayed in vermillion,

¹⁵Girded with belts around their waists,
Flowing turbans on their heads,
All of them looking like captains,
In the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea,
The land of their nativity.

¹⁶As soon as her eyes saw them,
She lusted for them

And sent messengers to them in Chaldea.

¹⁷“Then the Babylonians came to her, into the bed of love,

And they defiled her with their immorality;
So she was defiled by them, and alienated herself
from them.

¹⁸She revealed her harlotry and uncovered her nakedness.

Then I alienated Myself from her,

As I had alienated Myself from her sister.

¹⁹“Yet she multiplied her harlotry
In calling to remembrance the days of her youth,
When she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

²⁰For she lusted for her paramours,

Whose flesh is like the flesh of donkeys,
And whose issue is like the issue of horses.

²¹Thus you called to remembrance the lewdness of your youth,

When the Egyptians pressed your bosom

Because of your youthful breasts.

Judgment on Jerusalem

²²“Therefore, Oholibah, thus says the Lord GOD:

‘Behold, I will stir up your lovers against you,
From whom you have alienated yourself,
And I will bring them against you from every side:

²³The Babylonians,
All the Chaldeans,
Pekod, Shoa, Koa,
All the Assyrians with them,
All of them desirable young men,
Governors and rulers,
Captains and men of renown,
All of them riding on horses.

²⁴And they shall come against you
With chariots, wagons, and war-horses,
With a horde of people.

They shall array against you
Buckler, shield, and helmet all around.

‘I will delegate judgment to them,
And they shall judge you according to their judgments.

²⁵I will set My jealousy against you,
And they shall deal furiously with you;

They shall remove your nose and your ears,
And your remnant shall fall by the sword;
They shall take your sons and your daughters,
And your remnant shall be devoured by fire.

²⁶They shall also strip you of your clothes

And take away your beautiful jewelry.

²⁷“Thus I will make you cease your lewdness and your harlotry

Brought from the land of Egypt,
So that you will not lift your eyes to them,

Nor remember Egypt anymore.’

²⁸“For thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Surely I will deliver you into the hand of those you hate, into the hand of those from whom you alienated yourself. ²⁹‘They will deal hatefully with you, take away all you have worked for, and leave you naked and bare. The nakedness of your harlotry shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your harlotry. ³⁰‘I will do these things to you because you have gone as a harlot after the Gentiles, because you have become defiled by their idols. ³¹‘You have walked in the way of your sister;
therefore I will put her cup in your hand.’

³²“Thus says the Lord GOD:

‘You shall drink of your sister’s cup,
The deep and wide one;
You shall be laughed to scorn
And held in derision;
It contains much.

³³You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,
The cup of horror and desolation,
The cup of your sister Samaria.

³⁴You shall drink and drain it,

You shall break its shards,
And tear at your own breasts;
For I have spoken,'

Says the Lord GOD.

³⁵“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

‘Because you have forgotten Me and cast Me behind your back,

Therefore you shall bear the penalty

Of your lewdness and your harlotry.’ ”

Both Sisters Judged

³⁶The LORD also said to me: “Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations. ³⁷“For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols, and even sacrificed their sons whom they bore to Me, passing them through the fire, to devour them.

³⁸“Moreover they have done this to Me: They have defiled My sanctuary on the same day and profaned My Sabbaths.

³⁹“For after they had slain their children for their idols, on the same day they came into My sanctuary to profane it; and indeed thus they have done in the midst of My house.

Confrontation: It Comes with the Territory

Ezekiel 23:36-39

God told Ezekiel to confront His people using colorful and striking imagery. “Oholah” and “Oholibah” are symbolic names for sinful Israel and Judah. God describes the sins they have committed and demands that Ezekiel confront the people with their rebellion.

At times a leader must confront sinful or destructive behavior in the ranks. No healthy leader enjoys confrontation, but no healthy leader avoids it, either. What can we learn from God and Ezekiel about confrontation?

1. Be compassionate. Ezekiel hurt as he recalled the sins of Israel.

2. Be forthright. Ezekiel spoke honestly and directly to the issues.

3. Be specific. Ezekiel didn’t drop hints, but gave specifics about the problem.

4. Be clear. Ezekiel spoke simply about the consequences of such behavior.

5. Be redemptive. Ezekiel communicated for the purpose of restoring the people.

6. Be hopeful. Ezekiel ended with words of hope for the future.

⁴⁰“Furthermore you sent for men to come from afar, to whom a messenger was sent; and there they came. And you washed yourself for them, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with ornaments. ⁴¹“You sat on a stately couch, with a table prepared before it, on which you had set My incense and My oil. ⁴²“The sound of a carefree multitude was with her, and Sabeans were brought from the wilderness with men of the common sort, who put bracelets on their wrists and beautiful crowns on their heads. ⁴³“Then I said concerning her who had grown old in adulteries, ‘Will they commit harlotry with her now, and she with them? ⁴⁴“Yet they went in to her, as men go in to a woman who plays the harlot; thus they went in to Oholah and Oholibah, the lewd women. ⁴⁵“But righteous men will judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses, and blood is on their hands.

⁴⁶“For thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Bring up an assembly against them, give them up to trouble and plunder. ⁴⁷‘The assembly shall stone them with stones and execute them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn their houses with fire. ⁴⁸‘Thus I will cause lewdness to cease from the land, that all women may be taught not to practice your lewdness. ⁴⁹‘They shall repay you for your lewdness, and you shall pay for your idolatrous sins. Then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.’ ”

Chapter 24

Symbol of the Cooking Pot

¹Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
²“Son of man, write down the name of the day, this very day—the king of Babylon started his siege against Jerusalem this very day. ³“And utter a parable to the rebellious house, and say to them, “Thus says the Lord GOD:

“Put on a pot, set it on,
And also pour water into it.
⁴Gather pieces of meat in it,
Every good piece,
The thigh and the shoulder.
Fill it with choice cuts;
⁵Take the choice of the flock.
Also pile fuel bones under it,
Make it boil well,

And let the cuts simmer in it.”

⁶“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

“Woe to the bloody city,
To the pot whose scum is in it,
And whose scum is not gone from it!
Bring it out piece by piece,

On which no lot has fallen.

⁷For her blood is in her midst;
She set it on top of a rock;
She did not pour it on the ground,
To cover it with dust.

⁸That it may raise up fury and take vengeance,
I have set her blood on top of a rock,

That it may not be covered.”

⁹“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

“Woe to the bloody city!
I too will make the pyre great.

¹⁰Heap on the wood,
Kindle the fire;
Cook the meat well,
Mix in the spices,

And let the cuts be burned up.

¹¹“Then set the pot empty on the coals,
That it may become hot and its bronze may burn,
That its filthiness may be melted in it,
That its scum may be consumed.

¹²She has grown weary with lies,
And her great scum has not gone from her.
Let her scum be in the fire!

¹³In your filthiness is lewdness.
Because I have cleansed you, and you were not cleansed,

You will not be cleansed of your filthiness anymore,
Till I have caused My fury to rest upon you.

¹⁴I, the LORD, have spoken it;
It shall come to pass, and I will do it;
I will not hold back,
Nor will I spare,

Nor will I relent;
According to your ways
And according to your deeds
They^a will judge you,”

Says the Lord GOD.’ ”

The Prophet's Wife Dies

¹⁵Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁶“Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with one stroke; yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, nor shall your tears run down. ¹⁷“Sigh in silence, make no mourning for the dead; bind your turban on your head, and put your sandals on your feet; do not cover your lips, and do not eat man's bread of sorrow.”

¹⁸So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died; and the next morning I did as I was commanded.

¹⁹And the people said to me, “Will you not tell us what these things signify to us, that you behave so?”

²⁰Then I answered them, “The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²¹‘Speak to the house of Israel, “Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Behold, I will profane My sanctuary, your arrogant boast, the desire of your eyes, the delight of your soul; and your sons and daughters whom you left behind shall fall by the sword. ²²‘And you shall do as I have done; you shall not cover your lips nor eat man's bread of sorrow.

²³‘Your turbans shall be on your heads and your sandals on your feet; you shall neither mourn nor weep, but you shall pine away in your iniquities and mourn with one another.

²⁴‘Thus Ezekiel is a sign to you; according to all that he has done you shall do; and when this comes, you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.' "

²⁵'And you, son of man—will it not be in the day when I take from them their stronghold, their joy and their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that on which they set their minds, their sons and their daughters: ²⁶'that on that day one who escapes will come to you to let you hear it with your ears? ²⁷'On that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped; you shall speak and no longer be mute. Thus you will be a sign to them, and they shall know that I am the LORD.' "

Chapter 25

Proclamation Against Ammon

¹The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them. ³“Say to the Ammonites, ‘Hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because you said, ‘Aha!’ against My sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into captivity, ⁴“indeed, therefore, I will deliver you as a possession to the men of the East, and they shall set their encampments among you and make their dwellings among you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. ⁵“And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels and Ammon a resting place for flocks. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.”

⁶“For thus says the Lord GOD: “Because you clapped your hands, stamped your feet, and rejoiced in heart with all your disdain for the land of Israel, ⁷“indeed, therefore, I will stretch out My hand against you, and give you as plunder to the nations; I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish from the countries; I will destroy you, and you shall know that I am the LORD.”

Proclamation Against Moab

⁸“Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because Moab and Seir say, ‘Look! The house of Judah is like all the nations,’
⁹“therefore, behold, I will clear the territory of Moab of cities, of the cities on its frontier, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kirjathaim. ¹⁰“To the men of the East I will give it as a possession, together with the Ammonites, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations. ¹¹“And I will execute judgments upon Moab, and they shall know that I am the LORD.”

Proclamation Against Edom

¹²“Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because of what Edom did against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended by avenging itself on them,” ¹³“therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “I will also stretch out My hand against Edom, cut off man and beast from it, and make it desolate from Teman; Dedan shall fall by the sword. ¹⁴“I will lay My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel, that they may do in Edom according to My anger and according to My fury; and they shall know My vengeance,” says the Lord GOD.

Proclamation Against Philistia

¹⁵“Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because the Philistines dealt vengefully and took vengeance with a spiteful heart, to destroy because of the old hatred,” ¹⁶“therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites and destroy the remnant of the seacoast. ¹⁷“I will execute great vengeance on them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I lay My vengeance upon them.” ‘ ’

Chapter 26

Proclamation Against Tyre

¹And it came to pass in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha! She is broken who was the gateway of the peoples; now she is turned over to me; I shall be filled; she is laid waste.’

³“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. ⁴‘And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers; I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock. ⁵‘It shall be a place for spreading nets in the midst of the sea, for I have spoken,’ says the Lord GOD; ‘it shall become plunder for the nations. ⁶‘Also her daughter villages which are in the fields shall be slain by the sword. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.’

⁷“For thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Behold, I will bring against Tyre from the north Nebuchadnezzar^a king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses, with chariots, and with horsemen, and an army with many people. ⁸‘He will slay with the sword your daughter villages in the fields; he will heap up a siege mound against you, build a wall against you, and raise a defense against you. ⁹‘He will direct his battering rams against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers. ¹⁰‘Because of the abundance of his horses, their dust will cover you; your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen, the wagons, and the chariots, when he enters your gates, as men enter a city that has been breached. ¹¹‘With the hooves of his horses he will trample all your streets; he will slay your people by the sword, and your strong pillars will fall to the ground. ¹²‘They will plunder your riches and pillage your merchandise; they will break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses; they will lay your stones, your timber, and your soil in the midst of the water. ¹³‘I will put an end to the sound of your songs, and the sound of your harps shall be heard no more. ¹⁴‘I will make you like the top of a rock; you shall be a place for spreading nets, and you shall never be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken,’ says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵“Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: ‘Will the coastlands not shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded cry, when slaughter is made in the midst of you? ¹⁶‘Then all the princes of the sea will come down from their thrones, lay aside their robes, and take off their embroidered garments; they will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground, tremble every moment, and be astonished at you. ¹⁷‘And they will take up a lamentation for you, and say to you:

“How you have perished,
O one inhabited by seafaring men,
O renowned city,
Who was strong at sea,
She and her inhabitants,
Who caused their terror to be on all her inhabitants!
¹⁸Now the coastlands tremble on the day of your fall;

Yes, the coastlands by the sea are troubled at your departure.” ‘

¹⁹“For thus says the Lord GOD: ‘When I make you a desolate city, like cities that are not inhabited, when I bring the deep upon you, and great waters cover you, ²⁰‘then I will bring you down with those who descend into the Pit, to the people of old, and I will make you dwell in the lowest part of the earth, in places desolate from antiquity, with those who go down to the Pit, so that you may never be inhabited; and I shall establish glory in the land of the living. ²¹‘I will make you a terror, and you shall be no more; though you are sought for, you will never be found again,’ says the Lord GOD.”

Chapter 27

Lamentation for Tyre

¹The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, ²“Now, son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyre, ³“and say to Tyre, ‘You who are situated at the entrance of the sea, merchant of the peoples on many coastlands, thus says the Lord GOD:

“O Tyre, you have said,
‘I am perfect in beauty.’

⁴Your borders are in the midst of the seas.
Your builders have perfected your beauty.

⁵They made all your planks of fir trees from Senir;
They took a cedar from Lebanon to make you a mast.

⁶*O*oaks from Bashan they made your oars;
The company of Ashurites have inlaid your planks
With ivory from the coasts of Cyprus.^a

⁷Fine embroidered linen from Egypt was what you spread for your sail;

Blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah was what covered you.

⁸“Inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen;

Your wise men, O Tyre, were in you;
They became your pilots.

⁹Elders of Gebal and its wise men
Were in you to caulk your seams;
All the ships of the sea
And their oarsmen were in you

To market your merchandise.

¹⁰“Those from Persia, Lydia,^a and Libya^b
Were in your army as men of war;
They hung shield and helmet in you;
They gave splendor to you.

¹¹Men of Arvad with your army were on your walls
all around,
And the men of Gammad were in your towers;
They hung their shields on your walls all around;

They made your beauty perfect.

¹²“Tarshish was your merchant because of your many luxury goods. They gave you silver, iron, tin, and lead for your goods. ¹³“Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your traders. They bartered human lives and vessels of bronze for your merchandise. ¹⁴“Those from the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses, steeds, and mules. ¹⁵“The men of Dedan were your traders; many isles were the market of your hand. They brought you ivory tusks and ebony as payment. ¹⁶“Syria was your merchant because of the abundance of goods you made. They gave you for your wares emeralds, purple, embroidery, fine linen, corals, and rubies. ¹⁷“Judah and the land of Israel were your traders. They traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnith, millet, honey, oil, and balm. ¹⁸“Damascus was your merchant because of the abundance of goods you made, because of your many luxury items, with the wine of Helbon and with white wool. ¹⁹“Dan and Javan paid for your wares, traversing back and forth. Wrought iron, cassia, and cane were among your merchandise. ²⁰“Dedan was your merchant in saddlecloths for riding. ²¹“Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your regular merchants. They traded with you in lambs, rams, and goats. ²²“The merchants of Sheba and Raamah were your merchants. They traded for your wares the choicest spices, all kinds of precious stones, and gold. ²³“Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Assyria, and Chilmad were your merchants. ²⁴“These were your merchants in choice items—in purple clothes, in embroidered garments, in chests of multicolored apparel, in sturdy woven cords, which were in your marketplace.

²⁵“The ships of Tarshish were carriers of your merchandise.

You were filled and very glorious in the midst of the seas.

²⁶Your oarsmen brought you into many waters,

But the east wind broke you in the midst of the seas.

²⁷“Your riches, wares, and merchandise,
Your mariners and pilots,
Your caulkers and merchandisers,
All your men of war who are in you,
And the entire company which is in your midst,
Will fall into the midst of the seas on the day of your ruin.

²⁸The common-land will shake at the sound of the cry of your pilots.

²⁹“All who handle the oar,
The mariners,

All the pilots of the sea
Will come down from their ships and stand on the shore.

³⁰They will make their voice heard because of you;
They will cry bitterly and cast dust on their heads;
They will roll about in ashes;

³¹They will shave themselves completely bald because of you,

Gird themselves with sackcloth,
And weep for you
With bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

³²In their wailing for you
They will take up a lamentation,
And lament for you:

‘What city is like Tyre,

Destroyed in the midst of the sea?

³³‘When your wares went out by sea,
You satisfied many people;
You enriched the kings of the earth
With your many luxury goods and your merchandise.

³⁴But you are broken by the seas in the depths of the waters;

Your merchandise and the entire company will fall in your midst.

³⁵All the inhabitants of the isles will be astonished at you;

Their kings will be greatly afraid,
And their countenance will be troubled.

³⁶The merchants among the peoples will hiss at you;

You will become a horror, and be no more forever.’ ” ‘
”

Chapter 28

Proclamation Against the King of Tyre

¹The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, ²“Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD:

“Because your heart is lifted up,
And you say, ‘I am a god,
I sit in the seat of gods,
In the midst of the seas,’
Yet you are a man, and not a god,
Though you set your heart as the heart of a god

³(Behold, you are wiser than Daniel!
There is no secret that can be hidden from you!

⁴With your wisdom and your understanding
You have gained riches for yourself,
And gathered gold and silver into your treasuries;

⁵By your great wisdom in trade you have increased your riches,

And your heart is lifted up because of your riches),”

⁶“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

“Because you have set your heart as the heart of a
god,

⁷Behold, therefore, I will bring strangers against
you,

The most terrible of the nations;
And they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom,
And defile your splendor.

⁸They shall throw you down into the Pit,
And you shall die the death of the slain

In the midst of the seas.

⁹“Will you still say before him who slays you,
‘I am a god’?

But you shall be a man, and not a god,
In the hand of him who slays you.

¹⁰You shall die the death of the uncircumcised
By the hand of aliens;

For I have spoken,” says the Lord GOD.’ ”

Lamentation for the King of Tyre

¹¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

¹²“Son of man, take up a lamentation for the king of Tyre, and say to him, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD:

“You were the seal of perfection,
Full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

¹³You were in Eden, the garden of God;
Every precious stone was your covering:

The sardius, topaz, and diamond,

Beryl, onyx, and jasper,

Sapphire, turquoise, and emerald with gold.

The workmanship of your timbrels and pipes

Was prepared for you on the day you were created.

¹⁴"You were the anointed cherub who covers;
I established you;
You were on the holy mountain of God;
You walked back and forth in the midst of fiery stones.

¹⁵You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created,

Till iniquity was found in you.

¹⁶"By the abundance of your trading
You became filled with violence within,
And you sinned;
Therefore I cast you as a profane thing
Out of the mountain of God;
And I destroyed you, O covering cherub,

From the midst of the fiery stones.

¹⁷"Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty;
You corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor;
I cast you to the ground,
I laid you before kings,

That they might gaze at you.

¹⁸"You defiled your sanctuaries
By the multitude of your iniquities,
By the iniquity of your trading;
Therefore I brought fire from your midst;
It devoured you,
And I turned you to ashes upon the earth
In the sight of all who saw you.

¹⁹All who knew you among the peoples are astonished at you;

Ezekiel Speaks with Courage

Ezekiel 28:1-19

Ezekiel could speak hard truth to the king of Tyre because God had deposited in him a...

1. Dream: He saw what God saw—a preferred future with just leaders.

2. Desire: He had a desire to see change and to be part of the solution.

3. Decisiveness: He recognized what needed to be done and he chose to step in.

4. Daring: His courage to act outweighed his fear of the king.

5. Dedication: He remained committed to fulfilling his call, whatever the cost.

6. Direction: He had a clear plan for change.

7. Dependence on God: He relied on God to do what only He could do.

You have become a horror,

And shall be no more forever.” ‘ ”

Proclamation Against Sidon

²⁰Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²¹“Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against her, ²²“and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD:

“Behold, I am against you, O Sidon;
I will be glorified in your midst;
And they shall know that I am the LORD,
When I execute judgments in her and am hallowed in her.

²³For I will send pestilence upon her,
And blood in her streets;
The wounded shall be judged in her midst
By the sword against her on every side;

Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

²⁴“And there shall no longer be a pricking brier or a painful thorn for the house of Israel from among all who are around them, who despise them. Then they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.”

Israel’s Future Blessing

²⁵“Thus says the Lord GOD: “When I have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and am hallowed in them in the sight of the Gentiles, then they will dwell in their own land which I gave to My servant Jacob. ²⁶“And they will dwell safely there, build houses, and plant vineyards; yes, they will dwell securely, when I execute judgments on all those around them who despise them. Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God.” ‘ ‘ ”

Chapter 29

Proclamation Against Egypt

¹In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt. ³“Speak, and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD:

“Behold, I am against you,
O Pharaoh king of Egypt,
O great monster who lies in the midst of his rivers,
Who has said, ‘My River^a is my own;
I have made it for myself.’

⁴But I will put hooks in your jaws,
And cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales;

I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers,
And all the fish in your rivers will stick to your scales.

⁵I will leave you in the wilderness,
You and all the fish of your rivers;
You shall fall on the open field;
You shall not be picked up or gathered.^a
I have given you as food
To the beasts of the field

And to the birds of the heavens.

⁶“Then all the inhabitants of Egypt
Shall know that I am the LORD,
Because they have been a staff of reed to the house
of Israel.

⁷When they took hold of you with the hand,
You broke and tore all their shoulders;^a
When they leaned on you,

You broke and made all their backs quiver.”

⁸“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Surely I will bring a sword upon you and cut off from you man and beast.

⁹“And the land of Egypt shall become desolate and waste;
then they will know that I am the LORD, because he said,
‘The River is mine, and I have made it.’ ¹⁰“Indeed, therefore, I am against you and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from Migdol^a to Syene, as far as the border of Ethiopia.

¹¹“Neither foot of man shall pass through it nor foot of beast pass through it, and it shall be uninhabited forty years. ¹²“I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and among the cities that are laid waste, her cities shall be desolate forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries.”

¹³“Yet, thus says the Lord GOD: “At the end of forty years
I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples among whom they were scattered. ¹⁴“I will bring back the captives of Egypt and cause them to return to the land of Pathros, to the land of their origin, and there they shall be a lowly kingdom. ¹⁵“It shall be the lowliest of kingdoms; it shall never again exalt itself above the nations, for I will diminish them so that they will not rule over the nations anymore.

¹⁶“No longer shall it be the confidence of the house of Israel, but will remind them of their iniquity when they turned to follow them. Then they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.” ‘ ”

Babylonia Will Plunder Egypt

¹⁷And it came to pass in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁸“Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to labor strenuously against Tyre; every head was made bald, and every shoulder rubbed raw; yet neither he nor his army received wages from Tyre, for the labor which they expended on it. ¹⁹“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Surely I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; he shall take away her wealth, carry off her spoil, and remove her pillage; and that will be the wages for his army. ²⁰‘I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor, because they worked for Me,’ says the Lord GOD.

²¹‘In that day I will cause the horn of the house of Israel to spring forth, and I will open your mouth to speak in their midst. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Chapter 30

Egypt and Her Allies Will Fall

¹The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, ²“Son of man, prophesy and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD:

“Wail, ‘Woe to the day!’

³For the day is near,

Even the day of the LORD is near;

It will be a day of clouds, the time of the Gentiles.

⁴The sword shall come upon Egypt,

And great anguish shall be in Ethiopia,

When the slain fall in Egypt,

And they take away her wealth,

And her foundations are broken down.

⁵“Ethiopia, Libya, ^a Lydia, ^b all the mingled people, Chub, and the men of the lands who are allied, shall fall with them by the sword.”

⁶“Thus says the LORD:

“Those who uphold Egypt shall fall,

And the pride of her power shall come down.

From Migdol to Syene

Those within her shall fall by the sword,”

Says the Lord GOD.

⁷“They shall be desolate in the midst of the desolate countries,

And her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are laid waste.

⁸Then they will know that I am the LORD,
When I have set a fire in Egypt
And all her helpers are destroyed.

⁹On that day messengers shall go forth from Me in ships

To make the careless Ethiopians afraid,
And great anguish shall come upon them,
As on the day of Egypt;

For indeed it is coming!”

¹⁰“Thus says the Lord GOD:

“I will also make a multitude of Egypt to cease
By the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

¹¹He and his people with him, the most terrible of the nations,

Shall be brought to destroy the land;
They shall draw their swords against Egypt,
And fill the land with the slain.

¹²I will make the rivers dry,
And sell the land into the hand of the wicked;
I will make the land waste, and all that is in it,
By the hand of aliens.

I, the LORD, have spoken.”

¹³“Thus says the Lord GOD:

“I will also destroy the idols,
And cause the images to cease from Noph;^{a}
There shall no longer be princes from the land of Egypt;

I will put fear in the land of Egypt.

¹⁴I will make Pathros desolate,
Set fire to Zoan,
And execute judgments in No.^a
¹⁵I will pour My fury on Sin,^a the strength of Egypt;
I will cut off the multitude of No,
¹⁶And set a fire in Egypt;
Sin shall have great pain,
No shall be split open,
And Noph shall be in distress daily.
¹⁷The young men of Aven^a and Pi Beseth shall fall by the sword,
And these cities shall go into captivity.
¹⁸At Tehaphnehes^a the day shall also be darkened,^b
When I break the yokes of Egypt there.
And her arrogant strength shall cease in her;
As for her, a cloud shall cover her,
And her daughters shall go into captivity.
¹⁹Thus I will execute judgments on Egypt,

Then they shall know that I am the LORD.” ‘ ”

Proclamation Against Pharaoh

²⁰And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²¹“Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and see, it has not been bandaged for healing, nor a splint put on to bind it, to make it strong enough to hold a sword. ²²“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Surely I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, both the strong one and the one that was broken; and I will make the sword fall out of his hand. ²³‘I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them throughout the countries. ²⁴‘I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand; but I will break Pharaoh’s arms, and he will groan before him with the groanings of a mortally wounded man. ²⁵‘Thus I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; they shall know that I am the LORD, when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out against the land of Egypt. ²⁶‘I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.’ ”

God Is the One Who Raises Up and Removes Leaders

Ezekiel 30:20-26

It is God who raises up leaders and who removes them from office; our job is to submit to His bidding. Leaders commonly misunderstand this truth. God says that whether leaders are good or evil, He ultimately is the One who puts them there—and He will remove them.

Chapter 31

Egypt Cut Down Like a Great Tree

¹Now it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude:

‘Whom are you like in your greatness?

³Indeed Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon,
With fine branches that shaded the forest,
And of high stature;

And its top was among the thick boughs.

⁴The waters made it grow;
Underground waters gave it height,
With their rivers running around the place where it was planted,

And sent out rivulets to all the trees of the field.

⁵‘Therefore its height was exalted above all the trees of the field;

Its boughs were multiplied,
And its branches became long because of the abundance of water,
As it sent them out.

⁶All the birds of the heavens made their nests in its boughs;

Under its branches all the beasts of the field brought forth their young;

And in its shadow all great nations made their home.

⁷‘Thus it was beautiful in greatness and in the length of its branches,

Because its roots reached to abundant waters.

⁸The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it;

The fir trees were not like its boughs,

And the chestnut^a trees were not like its branches;

No tree in the garden of God was like it in beauty.

⁹I made it beautiful with a multitude of branches,

So that all the trees of Eden envied it,

That were in the garden of God.’

¹⁰“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because you have increased in height, and it set its top among the thick boughs, and its heart was lifted up in its height, ¹¹‘therefore I will deliver it into the hand of the mighty one of the nations, and he shall surely deal with it; I have driven it out for its wickedness. ¹²‘And aliens, the most terrible of the nations, have cut it down and left it; its branches have fallen on the mountains and in all the valleys; its boughs lie broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the peoples of the earth have gone from under its shadow and left it.

¹³‘On its ruin will remain all the birds of the heavens,

And all the beasts of the field will come to its branches—

¹⁴‘So that no trees by the waters may ever again exalt themselves for their height, nor set their tops among the thick boughs, that no tree which drinks water may ever be high enough to reach up to them.

‘For they have all been delivered to death,
To the depths of the earth,

Among the children of men who go down to the Pit.’

¹⁵“Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘In the day when it went down to hell, I caused mourning. I covered the deep because of it. I restrained its rivers, and the great waters were held back. I caused Lebanon to mourn for it, and all the trees of the field wilted because of it. ¹⁶‘I made the nations shake at the sound of its fall, when I cast it down to hell together with those who descend into the Pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the depths of the earth. ¹⁷‘They also went down to hell with it, with those slain by the sword; and those who were its strong arm dwelt in its shadows among the nations.

¹⁸“To which of the trees in Eden will you then be likened in glory and greatness? Yet you shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the depths of the earth; you shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,’ says the Lord GOD.”

Chapter 32

Lamentation for Pharaoh and Egypt

¹And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him:

‘You are like a young lion among the nations,
And you are like a monster in the seas,
Bursting forth in your rivers,
Troubling the waters with your feet,

And fouling their rivers.

³“Thus says the Lord GOD:

“I will therefore spread My net over you with a company of many people,

And they will draw you up in My net.

⁴Then I will leave you on the land;

I will cast you out on the open fields,

And cause to settle on you all the birds of the heavens.

And with you I will fill the beasts of the whole earth.

⁵I will lay your flesh on the mountains,

And fill the valleys with your carcass.

⁶“I will also water the land with the flow of your blood,

Even to the mountains;
And the riverbeds will be full of you.

⁷When I put out your light,
I will cover the heavens, and make its stars dark;
I will cover the sun with a cloud,
And the moon shall not give her light.

⁸All the bright lights of the heavens I will make dark over you,
And bring darkness upon your land,”

Says the Lord GOD.

⁹I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. ¹⁰“Yes, I will make many peoples astonished at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid of you when I brandish My sword before them; and they shall tremble every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall.

¹¹“For thus says the Lord GOD: “The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you. ¹²“By the swords of the mighty warriors, all of them the most terrible of the nations, I will cause your multitude to fall.

“They shall plunder the pomp of Egypt,
And all its multitude shall be destroyed.

¹³Also I will destroy all its animals
From beside its great waters;
The foot of man shall muddy them no more,
Nor shall the hooves of animals muddy them.

¹⁴Then I will make their waters clear,
And make their rivers run like oil,”

Says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵“When I make the land of Egypt desolate,
And the country is destitute of all that once filled it,
When I strike all who dwell in it,

Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

¹⁶“This is the lamentation
With which they shall lament her;
The daughters of the nations shall lament her;
They shall lament for her, for Egypt,
And for all her multitude,”

Says the Lord GOD.’”

Egypt and Others Consigned to the Pit

¹⁷It came to pass also in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

¹⁸“Son of man, wail over the multitude of Egypt,
And cast them down to the depths of the earth,
Her and the daughters of the famous nations,
With those who go down to the Pit:

¹⁹‘Whom do you surpass in beauty?

Go down, be placed with the uncircumcised.’

²⁰“They shall fall in the midst of those slain by the sword;

She is delivered to the sword,
Drawing her and all her multitudes.

²¹The strong among the mighty
Shall speak to him out of the midst of hell

With those who help him:
'They have gone down,

They lie with the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'

²²"Assyria is there, and all her company,
With their graves all around her,
All of them slain, fallen by the sword.

²³Her graves are set in the recesses of the Pit,
And her company is all around her grave,
All of them slain, fallen by the sword,

Who caused terror in the land of the living.

²⁴"There is Elam and all her multitude,
All around her grave,
All of them slain, fallen by the sword,
Who have gone down uncircumcised to the lower parts of the earth,
Who caused their terror in the land of the living;
Now they bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

²⁵They have set her bed in the midst of the slain,
With all her multitude,
With her graves all around it,
All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword;
Though their terror was caused
In the land of the living,
Yet they bear their shame
With those who go down to the Pit;

It was put in the midst of the slain.

²⁶"There are Meshech and Tubal and all their multitudes,
With all their graves around it,

All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword,
Though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

²⁷They do not lie with the mighty
Who are fallen of the uncircumcised,
Who have gone down to hell with their weapons of war;

They have laid their swords under their heads,
But their iniquities will be on their bones,
Because of the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

²⁸Yes, you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised,

And lie with those slain by the sword.

²⁹"There is Edom,
Her kings and all her princes,
Who despite their might
Are laid beside those slain by the sword;
They shall lie with the uncircumcised,
And with those who go down to the Pit.

³⁰There are the princes of the north,
All of them, and all the Sidonians,
Who have gone down with the slain
In shame at the terror which they caused by their might;

They lie uncircumcised with those slain by the sword,

And bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

³¹"Pharaoh will see them
And be comforted over all his multitude,
Pharaoh and all his army,
Slain by the sword,"

Says the Lord GOD.

³²“For I have caused My terror in the land of the living;

And he shall be placed in the midst of the uncircumcised

With those slain by the sword,
Pharaoh and all his multitude,”

Says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 33

The Watchman and His Message

¹Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and say to them: ‘When I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from their territory and make him their watchman, ³‘when he sees the sword coming upon the land, if he blows the trumpet and warns the people, ⁴‘then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet and does not take warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, his blood shall be on his own head. ⁵‘He heard the sound of the trumpet, but did not take warning; his blood shall be upon himself. But he who takes warning will save his life. ⁶‘But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at the watchman’s hand.’

Watchmen: All Leaders Are Stewards of Their God-Given Resources

Ezekiel 33:1-6

If a leader sees calamity approaching and sounds the trumpet to warn the people, he has done his work. If the watchman fails to warn the people of approaching disaster, God will hold the watchman accountable for the lives lost—a sobering truth about the awesome responsibility of leadership.

⁷“So you, son of man: I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore you shall hear a word from My mouth and warn them for Me. ⁸“When I say to the wicked, ‘O wicked man, you shall surely die!’ and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand. ⁹“Nevertheless if you warn the wicked to turn from his way, and he does not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.

¹⁰“Therefore you, O son of man, say to the house of Israel: ‘Thus you say, “If our transgressions and our sins lie upon us, and we pine away in them, how can we then live?” ‘ ¹¹“Say to them: ‘As I live,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways! For why should you die, O house of Israel?’

The Fairness of God’s Judgment

¹²“Therefore you, O son of man, say to the children of your people: ‘The righteousness of the righteous man shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall because of it in the day that he turns from his wickedness; nor shall the righteous be able to live because of his righteousness in the day that he sins.’ ¹³“When I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, but he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous works shall be remembered; but because of the iniquity that he has committed, he shall die. ¹⁴“Again, when I say to the wicked, ‘You shall surely die,’ if he turns from his sin and does what is lawful and right, ¹⁵“if the wicked restores the pledge, gives back what he has stolen, and walks in the statutes of life without committing iniquity, he shall surely live; he shall not die. ¹⁶“None of his sins which he has committed shall be remembered against him; he has done what is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

¹⁷“Yet the children of your people say, ‘The way of the Lord is not fair.’ But it is their way which is not fair! ¹⁸“When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he shall die because of it. ¹⁹“But when the wicked turns from his wickedness and does what is lawful and right, he shall live because of it. ²⁰“Yet you say, ‘The way of the Lord is not fair.’ O house of Israel, I will judge every one of you according to his own ways.”

The Fall of Jerusalem

²¹And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, that one who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, “The city has been captured!”

²²Now the hand of the LORD had been upon me the evening before the man came who had escaped. And He had opened my mouth; so when he came to me in the morning, my mouth was opened, and I was no longer mute.

The Cause of Judah's Ruin

²³Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ²⁴"Son of man, they who inhabit those ruins in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one, and he inherited the land. But we are many; the land has been given to us as a possession.'

²⁵"Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "You eat meat with blood, you lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood. Should you then possess the land? ²⁶"You rely on your sword, you commit abominations, and you defile one another's wives. Should you then possess the land?" '

²⁷"Say thus to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "As I live, surely those who are in the ruins shall fall by the sword, and the one who is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and those who are in the strongholds and caves shall die of the pestilence. ²⁸"For I will make the land most desolate, her arrogant strength shall cease, and the mountains of Israel shall be so desolate that no one will pass through. ²⁹"Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed." '

Hearing and Not Doing

³⁰"As for you, son of man, the children of your people are talking about you beside the walls and in the doors of the houses; and they speak to one another, everyone saying to his brother, 'Please come and hear what the word is that comes from the LORD.' ³¹"So they come to you as people do, they sit before you as My people, and they hear your words, but they do not do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their hearts pursue their own gain.

³²“Indeed you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do not do them. ³³“And when this comes to pass—surely it will come—then they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

Chapter 34

Irresponsible Shepherds

¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to the shepherds: "Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks? ³"You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool; you slaughter the fatlings, but you do not feed the flock. ⁴"The weak you have not strengthened, nor have you healed those who were sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back what was driven away, nor sought what was lost; but with force and cruelty you have ruled them. ⁵"So they were scattered because there was no shepherd; and they became food for all the beasts of the field when they were scattered. ⁶"My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill; yes, My flock was scattered over the whole face of the earth, and no one was seeking or searching for them."

⁷"Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: ⁸"As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely because My flock became a prey, and My flock became food for every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock"— ⁹therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD! ¹⁰"Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require My flock at their hand; I will cause them to cease feeding the sheep, and the shepherds shall feed themselves no more; for I will deliver My flock from their mouths, that they may no longer be food for them.”

God, the True Shepherd

¹¹‘For thus says the Lord GOD: “Indeed I Myself will search for My sheep and seek them out. ¹²“As a shepherd seeks out his flock on the day he is among his scattered sheep, so will I seek out My sheep and deliver them from all the places where they were scattered on a cloudy and dark day. ¹³“And I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land; I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, in the valleys and in all the inhabited places of the country. ¹⁴“I will feed them in good pasture, and their fold shall be on the high mountains of Israel. There they shall lie down in a good fold and feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵“I will feed My flock, and I will make them lie down,” says the Lord GOD. ¹⁶“I will seek what was lost and bring back what was driven away, bind up the broken and strengthen what was sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong, and feed them in judgment.”

¹⁷‘And as for you, O My flock, thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I shall judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and goats. ¹⁸“Is it too little for you to have eaten up the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture—and to have drunk of the clear waters, that you must foul the residue with your feet? ¹⁹“And as for My flock, they eat what you have trampled with your feet, and they drink what you have fouled with your feet.”

²⁰“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD to them: “Behold, I Myself will judge between the fat and the lean sheep.

²¹“Because you have pushed with side and shoulder, butted all the weak ones with your horns, and scattered them abroad, ²²“therefore I will save My flock, and they shall no longer be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

²³“I will establish one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them—My servant David. He shall feed them and be their shepherd. ²⁴“And I, the LORD, will be their God, and My servant David a prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

Leaders Are to Relate as Shepherds to People

Ezekiel 34:11-24

The Lord of ancient Israel was the Great Shepherd to His flock, Israel. He calls all spiritual leaders to view their role in the same way. The word picture of the shepherd enables us to see what kind of relational skills and attitudes we are to build into our leadership. Ezekiel 34 describes how the shepherd cares for his flock. The shepherd...

1. Searches out the lost sheep (vv. 11-16).
2. Delivers the captive sheep (v. 12).
3. Gathers the dispersed sheep (v. 13).
4. Feeds the hungry sheep (v. 13).
5. Rests the weary sheep (v. 15).
6. Binds up the hurt sheep (v. 16).
7. Strengthens the weak sheep (v. 16).
8. Protects the vulnerable sheep (vv. 17-22).

9. Equips the needy sheep (v. 23).

10. Directs all the sheep (v. 24).

You may want to compare this text to Psalm 23, another picture of the leader as a shepherd. In that psalm God is the Shepherd, providing guidance, restoration, preparation, resources, comfort, and anointing for His sheep.

²⁵“I will make a covenant of peace with them, and cause wild beasts to cease from the land; and they will dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. ²⁶“I will make them and the places all around My hill a blessing; and I will cause showers to come down in their season; there shall be showers of blessing. ²⁷“Then the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase. They shall be safe in their land; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke and delivered them from the hand of those who enslaved them. ²⁸“And they shall no longer be a prey for the nations, nor shall beasts of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and no one shall make them afraid. ²⁹“I will raise up for them a garden of renown, and they shall no longer be consumed with hunger in the land, nor bear the shame of the Gentiles anymore. ³⁰“Thus they shall know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and they, the house of Israel, are My people,” says the Lord GOD.’

³¹“You are My flock, the flock of My pasture; you are men, and I am your God,” says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 35

Judgment on Mount Seir

¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it, ³“and say to it, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD:

“Behold, O Mount Seir, I am against you;
I will stretch out My hand against you,
And make you most desolate;
⁴I shall lay your cities waste,
And you shall be desolate.

Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

⁵“Because you have had an ancient hatred, and have shed the blood of the children of Israel by the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, when their iniquity came to an end, ⁶“therefore, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you; since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you. ⁷“Thus I will make Mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it the one who leaves and the one who returns. ⁸“And I will fill its mountains with the slain; on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines those who are slain by the sword shall fall. ⁹“I will make you perpetually desolate, and your cities shall be uninhabited; then you shall know that I am the LORD.

¹⁰“Because you have said, ‘These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess them,’ although the LORD was there, ¹¹“therefore, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will do according to your anger and according to the envy which you showed in your hatred against them; and I will make Myself known among them when I judge you. ¹²“Then you shall know that I am the LORD. I have heard all your blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, ‘They are desolate; they are given to us to consume.’ ¹³“Thus with your mouth you have boasted against Me and multiplied your words against Me; I have heard them.”

¹⁴“Thus says the Lord GOD: “The whole earth will rejoice when I make you desolate. ¹⁵“As you rejoiced because the inheritance of the house of Israel was desolate, so I will do to you; you shall be desolate, O Mount Seir, as well as all of Edom—all of it! Then they shall know that I am the LORD.” ‘

Chapter 36

Blessing on Israel

¹“And you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, ‘O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD!

²“Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because the enemy has said of you, ‘Aha! The ancient heights have become our possession,’

” ‘ ³“therefore prophesy, and say, “Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because they made you desolate and swallowed you up on every side, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations, and you are taken up by the lips of talkers and slandered by the people”— ⁴“therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, the valleys, the desolate wastes, and the cities that have been forsaken, which became plunder and mockery to the rest of the nations all around— ⁵“therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Surely I have spoken in My burning jealousy against the rest of the nations and against all Edom, who gave My land to themselves as a possession, with wholehearted joy and spiteful minds, in order to plunder its open country.” ‘

⁶“Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, and the valleys, “Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and My fury, because you have borne the shame of the nations.” ⁷“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “I have raised My hand in an oath that surely the nations that are around you shall bear their own shame.

⁸“But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to My people Israel, for they are about to come. ⁹“For indeed I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown. ¹⁰“I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt. ¹¹“I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bear young; I will make you inhabited as in former times, and do better for you than at your beginnings. Then you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹²“Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, My people Israel; they shall take possession of you, and you shall be their inheritance; no more shall you bereave them of children.”

¹³“Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because they say to you, ‘You devour men and bereave your nation of children,’ ¹⁴“therefore you shall devour men no more, nor bereave your nation anymore,” says the Lord GOD. ¹⁵“Nor will I let you hear the taunts of the nations anymore, nor bear the reproach of the peoples anymore, nor shall you cause your nation to stumble anymore,” says the Lord GOD.’ ”

The Renewal of Israel

¹⁶Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ¹⁷“Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own ways and deeds; to Me their way was like the uncleanness of a woman in her customary impurity. ¹⁸“Therefore I poured out My fury on them for the blood they had shed on the land, and for their idols with which they had defiled it. ¹⁹“So I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed throughout the countries; I judged them according to their ways and their deeds. ²⁰“When they came to the nations, wherever they went, they profaned My holy name—when they said of them, ‘These are the people of the LORD, and yet they have gone out of His land.’ ²¹“But I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations wherever they went.

²²“Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “I do not do this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for My holy name’s sake, which you have profaned among the nations wherever you went. ²³“And I will sanctify My great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in their midst; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, ” says the Lord GOD, “when I am hallowed in you before their eyes. ²⁴“For I will take you from among the nations, gather you out of all countries, and bring you into your own land. ²⁵“Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean; I will cleanse you from all your filthiness and from all your idols. ²⁶“I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷“I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them. ²⁸“Then you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; you shall be My people, and I will be your God. ²⁹“I will deliver you from all your uncleannesses. I will call for the grain and multiply it, and bring no famine upon you. ³⁰“And I will multiply the fruit of your trees and the increase of your fields, so that you need never again bear the reproach of famine among the nations. ³¹“Then you will remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good; and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight, for your iniquities and your abominations.

³²“Not for your sake do I do this,” says the Lord GOD, “let it be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel!”

³³“Thus says the Lord GOD: “On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will also enable you to dwell in the cities, and the ruins shall be rebuilt. ³⁴“The desolate land shall be tilled instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass by. ³⁵“So they will say, ‘This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the wasted, desolate, and ruined cities are now fortified and inhabited.’ ³⁶“Then the nations which are left all around you shall know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places and planted what was desolate. I, the LORD, have spoken it, and I will do it.”

³⁷“Thus says the Lord GOD: “I will also let the house of Israel inquire of Me to do this for them: I will increase their men like a flock. ³⁸“Like a flock offered as holy sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem on its feast days, so shall the ruined cities be filled with flocks of men. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.” ‘ ‘

The Dry Bones Live

¹The hand of the LORD came upon me and brought me out in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. ²Then He caused me to pass by them all around, and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and indeed they were very dry. ³And He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?"

So I answered, "O Lord GOD, You know."

⁴Again He said to me, "Prophecy to these bones, and say to them, 'O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD! ⁵"Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: "Surely I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. ⁶"I will put sinews on you and bring flesh upon you, cover you with skin and put breath in you; and you shall live. Then you shall know that I am the LORD." ' "

⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and suddenly a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to bone. ⁸Indeed, as I looked, the sinews and the flesh came upon them, and the skin covered them over; but there was no breath in them.

⁹Also He said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophecy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live." ' " ¹⁰So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great army.

¹¹Then He said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They indeed say, 'Our bones are dry, our hope is lost, and we ourselves are cut off!' ¹²"Therefore prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, O My people, I will open your graves and cause you to come up from your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel. ¹³"Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O My people, and brought you up from your graves. ¹⁴"I will put My Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it and performed it," says the LORD.' "

One Kingdom, One King

¹⁵Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁶"As for you, son of man, take a stick for yourself and write on it: 'For Judah and for the children of Israel, his companions.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel, his companions.' ¹⁷"Then join them one to another for yourself into one stick, and they will become one in your hand.

¹⁸"And when the children of your people speak to you, saying, 'Will you not show us what you mean by these?'—¹⁹say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel, his companions; and I will join them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in My hand." ' ²⁰"And the sticks on which you write will be in your hand before their eyes.

²¹“Then say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Surely I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, wherever they have gone, and will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land; ²²“and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king over them all; they shall no longer be two nations, nor shall they ever be divided into two kingdoms again. ²³“They shall not defile themselves anymore with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will deliver them from all their dwelling places in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. Then they shall be My people, and I will be their God.

²⁴“David My servant shall be king over them, and they shall all have one shepherd; they shall also walk in My judgments and observe My statutes, and do them. ²⁵“Then they shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob My servant, where your fathers dwelt; and they shall dwell there, they, their children, and their children’s children, forever; and My servant David shall be their prince forever. ²⁶“Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them, and it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; I will establish them and multiply them, and I will set My sanctuary in their midst forevermore. ²⁷“My tabernacle also shall be with them; indeed I will be their God, and they shall be My people. ²⁸“The nations also will know that I, the LORD, sanctify Israel, when My sanctuary is in their midst forevermore.” ‘ ‘ ”

Gog and Allies Attack Israel

¹Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, set your face against Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh,^a Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, ³“and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal. ⁴“I will turn you around, put hooks into your jaws, and lead you out, with all your army, horses, and horsemen, all splendidly clothed, a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords. ⁵“Persia, Ethiopia,^a and Libya^b are with them, all of them with shield and helmet; ⁶“Gomer and all its troops; the house of Togarmah from the far north and all its troops—many people are with you.

¹⁰“Thus says the Lord GOD: “On that day it shall come to pass that thoughts will arise in your mind, and you will make an evil plan: ¹¹“You will say, ‘I will go up against a land of unwalled villages; I will go to a peaceful people, who dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates’— ¹²“to take plunder and to take booty, to stretch out your hand against the waste places that are again inhabited, and against a people gathered from the nations, who have acquired livestock and goods, who dwell in the midst of the land. ¹³“Sheba, Dedan, the merchants of Tarshish, and all their young lions will say to you, ‘Have you come to take plunder? Have you gathered your army to take booty, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great plunder?’ ” “

¹⁴“Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog, “Thus says the Lord GOD: “On that day when My people Israel dwell safely, will you not know it? ¹⁵“Then you will come from your place out of the far north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army. ¹⁶“You will come up against My people Israel like a cloud, to cover the land. It will be in the latter days that I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me, when I am hallowed in you, O Gog, before their eyes.” ¹⁷“Thus says the Lord GOD: “Are you he of whom I have spoken in former days by My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied for years in those days that I would bring you against them?

Judgment on Gog

¹⁸“And it will come to pass at the same time, when Gog comes against the land of Israel,” says the Lord GOD, “that

My fury will show in My face. ¹⁹“For in My jealousy and in the fire of My wrath I have spoken: ‘Surely in that day there shall be a great earthquake in the land of Israel, ²⁰‘so that the fish of the sea, the birds of the heavens, the beasts of the field, all creeping things that creep on the earth, and all men who are on the face of the earth shall shake at My presence. The mountains shall be thrown down, the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.’ ²¹“I will call for a sword against Gog throughout all My mountains,” says the Lord GOD. “Every man’s sword will be against his brother. ²²“And I will bring him to judgment with pestilence and bloodshed; I will rain down on him, on his troops, and on the many peoples who are with him, flooding rain, great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. ²³“Thus I will magnify Myself and sanctify Myself, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.” ‘

Gog's Armies Destroyed

¹“And you, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the prince of Rosh,^a Meshech, and Tubal; ²“and I will turn you around and lead you on, bringing you up from the far north, and bring you against the mountains of Israel. ³“Then I will knock the bow out of your left hand, and cause the arrows to fall out of your right hand. ⁴“You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples who are with you; I will give you to birds of prey of every sort and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. ⁵“You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken,” says the Lord GOD. ⁶“And I will send fire on Magog and on those who live in security in the coastlands. Then they shall know that I am the LORD. ⁷“So I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel, and I will not let them profane My holy name anymore. Then the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸“Surely it is coming, and it shall be done,” says the Lord GOD. “This is the day of which I have spoken.

⁹“Then those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go out and set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and bucklers, the bows and arrows, the javelins and spears; and they will make fires with them for seven years. ¹⁰“They will not take wood from the field nor cut down any from the forests, because they will make fires with the weapons; and they will plunder those who plundered them, and pillage those who pillaged them,” says the Lord GOD.

The Burial of Gog

¹¹“It will come to pass in that day that I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of those who pass by east of the sea; and it will obstruct travelers, because there they will bury Gog and all his multitude. Therefore they will call it the Valley of Hamon Gog.^a ¹²“For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them, in order to cleanse the land. ¹³“Indeed all the people of the land will be burying, and they will gain renown for it on the day that I am glorified,” says the Lord GOD. ¹⁴“They will set apart men regularly employed, with the help of a search party,^a to pass through the land and bury those bodies remaining on the ground, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they will make a search. ¹⁵“The search party will pass through the land; and when anyone sees a man’s bone, he shall set up a marker by it, till the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog. ¹⁶“The name of the city will also be Hamonah. Thus they shall cleanse the land.” ‘

A Triumphant Festival

¹⁷“And as for you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Speak to every sort of bird and to every beast of the field:

“Assemble yourselves and come;

Gather together from all sides to My sacrificial meal
Which I am sacrificing for you,
A great sacrificial meal on the mountains of Israel,
That you may eat flesh and drink blood.

¹⁸You shall eat the flesh of the mighty,
Drink the blood of the princes of the earth,
Of rams and lambs,
Of goats and bulls,
All of them fatlings of Bashan.

¹⁹You shall eat fat till you are full,
And drink blood till you are drunk,
At My sacrificial meal
Which I am sacrificing for you.

²⁰You shall be filled at My table
With horses and riders,
With mighty men

And with all the men of war," says the Lord GOD.

Israel Restored to the Land

²¹"I will set My glory among the nations; all the nations shall see My judgment which I have executed, and My hand which I have laid on them. ²²"So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day forward.

²³"The Gentiles shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they were unfaithful to Me, therefore I hid My face from them. I gave them into the hand of their enemies, and they all fell by the sword.

²⁴"According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions I have dealt with them, and hidden My face from them." ‘

²⁵“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Now I will bring back the captives of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for My holy name—
²⁶‘after they have borne their shame, and all their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to Me, when they dwelt safely in their own land and no one made them afraid. ²⁷‘When I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them out of their enemies’ lands, and I am hallowed in them in the sight of many nations, ²⁸‘then they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who sent them into captivity among the nations, but also brought them back to their land, and left none of them captive any longer. ²⁹‘And I will not hide My face from them anymore; for I shall have poured out My Spirit on the house of Israel,’ says the Lord GOD.”

Chapter 40

A New City, a New Temple

¹In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was captured, on the very same day the hand of the LORD was upon me; and He took me there. ²In the visions of God He took me into the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain; on it toward the south was something like the structure of a city. ³He took me there, and behold, there was a man whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze. He had a line of flax and a measuring rod in his hand, and he stood in the gateway.

⁴And the man said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes and hear with your ears, and fix your mind on everything I show you; for you were brought here so that I might show them to you. Declare to the house of Israel everything you see." ⁵Now there was a wall all around the outside of the temple.^a In the man's hand was a measuring rod six cubits long, each being a cubit and a handbreadth; and he measured the width of the wall structure, one rod; and the height, one rod.

The Eastern Gateway of the Temple

⁶Then he went to the gateway which faced east; and he went up its stairs and measured the threshold of the gateway, which was one rod wide, and the other threshold was one rod wide. ⁷Each gate chamber was one rod long and one rod wide; between the gate chambers was a space of five cubits; and the threshold of the gateway by the vestibule of the inside gate was one rod. ⁸He also measured the vestibule of the inside gate, one rod. ⁹Then he measured the vestibule of the gateway, eight cubits; and the gateposts, two cubits. The vestibule of the gate was on the inside. ¹⁰In the eastern gateway were three gate chambers on one side and three on the other; the three were all the same size; also the gateposts were of the same size on this side and that side.

¹¹He measured the width of the entrance to the gateway, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. ¹²*There was* a space in front of the gate chambers, one cubit on this side and one cubit on that side; the gate chambers were six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side. ¹³Then he measured the gateway from the roof of one gate chamber to the roof of the other; the width was twenty-five cubits, as door faces door. ¹⁴He measured the gateposts, sixty cubits high, and the court all around the gateway extended to the gatepost. ¹⁵*From* the front of the entrance gate to the front of the vestibule of the inner gate was fifty cubits. ¹⁶*There were* beveled window frames in the gate chambers and in their intervening archways on the inside of the gateway all around, and likewise in the vestibules. There were windows all around on the inside. And on each gatepost were palm trees.

The Outer Court

¹⁷Then he brought me into the outer court; and there were chambers and a pavement made all around the court; thirty chambers faced the pavement. ¹⁸The pavement was by the side of the gateways, corresponding to the length of the gateways; this was the lower pavement. ¹⁹Then he measured the width from the front of the lower gateway to the front of the inner court exterior, one hundred cubits toward the east and the north.

The Northern Gateway

²⁰On the outer court was also a gateway facing north, and he measured its length and its width. ²¹Its gate chambers, three on this side and three on that side, its gateposts and its archways, had the same measurements as the first gate; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits. ²²Its windows and those of its archways, and also its palm trees, had the same measurements as the gateway facing east; it was ascended by seven steps, and its archway was in front of it. ²³A gate of the inner court was opposite the northern gateway, just as the eastern gateway; and he measured from gateway to gateway, one hundred cubits.

The Southern Gateway

²⁴After that he brought me toward the south, and there a gateway was facing south; and he measured its gateposts and archways according to these same measurements. ²⁵*There were* windows in it and in its archways all around like those windows; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits. ²⁶Seven steps led up to it, and its archway was in front of them; and it had palm trees on its gateposts, one on this side and one on that side. ²⁷*There* was also a gateway on the inner court, facing south; and he measured from gateway to gateway toward the south, one hundred cubits.

Gateways of the Inner Court

²⁸Then he brought me to the inner court through the southern gateway; he measured the southern gateway according to these same measurements. ²⁹Also its gate chambers, its gateposts, and its archways were according to these same measurements; there were windows in it and in its archways all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁰*There were* archways all around, twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide. ³¹Its archways faced the outer court, palm trees were on its gateposts, and going up to it were eight steps.

³²And he brought me into the inner court facing east; he measured the gateway according to these same measurements. ³³Also its gate chambers, its gateposts, and its archways were according to these same measurements; and there were windows in it and in its archways all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁴Its archways faced the outer court, and palm trees were on its gateposts on this side and on that side; and going up to it were eight steps.

³⁵Then he brought me to the north gateway and measured it according to these same measurements—³⁶also its gate chambers, its gateposts, and its archways. It had windows all around; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits. ³⁷Its gateposts faced the outer court, palm trees were on its gateposts on this side and on that side, and going up to it were eight steps.

Where Sacrifices Were Prepared

³⁸*There was* a chamber and its entrance by the gateposts of the gateway, where they washed the burnt offering. ³⁹In the vestibule of the gateway were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, on which to slay the burnt offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering. ⁴⁰At the outer side of the vestibule, as one goes up to the entrance of the northern gateway, were two tables; and on the other side of the vestibule of the gateway were two tables. ⁴¹Four tables were on this side and four tables on that side, by the side of the gateway, eight tables on which they slaughtered the sacrifices. ⁴²*There were* also four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, one cubit and a half long, one cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high; on these they laid the instruments with which they slaughtered the burnt offering and the sacrifice. ⁴³Inside were hooks, a handbreadth wide, fastened all around; and the flesh of the sacrifices was on the tables.

Chambers for Singers and Priests

⁴⁴Outside the inner gate were the chambers for the singers in the inner court, one facing south at the side of the northern gateway, and the other facing north at the side of the southern^a gateway. ⁴⁵Then he said to me, "This chamber which faces south is for the priests who have charge of the temple. ⁴⁶“The chamber which faces north is for the priests who have charge of the altar; these are the sons of Zadok, from the sons of Levi, who come near the LORD to minister to Him.”

Dimensions of the Inner Court and Vestibule

⁴⁷And he measured the court, one hundred cubits long and one hundred cubits wide, foursquare. The altar was in front of the temple. ⁴⁸Then he brought me to the vestibule of the temple and measured the doorposts of the vestibule, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side; and the width of the gateway was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side. ⁴⁹The length of the vestibule was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; and by the steps which led up to it there were pillars by the doorposts, one on this side and another on that side.

Chapter 41

Dimensions of the Sanctuary

¹Then he brought me into the sanctuary^a and measured the doorposts, six cubits wide on one side and six cubits wide on the other side—the width of the tabernacle. ²The width of the entryway was ten cubits, and the side walls of the entrance were five cubits on this side and five cubits on the other side; and he measured its length, forty cubits, and its width, twenty cubits.

³Also he went inside and measured the doorposts, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits high; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits. ⁴He measured the length, twenty cubits; and the width, twenty cubits, beyond the sanctuary; and he said to me, “This is the Most Holy Place.”

The Side Chambers on the Wall

⁵Next, he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits. The width of each side chamber all around the temple was four cubits on every side. ⁶The side chambers were in three stories, one above the other, thirty chambers in each story; they rested on ledges which were for the side chambers all around, that they might be supported, but not fastened to the wall of the temple. ⁷As one went up from story to story, the side chambers became wider all around, because their supporting ledges in the wall of the temple ascended like steps; therefore the width of the structure increased as one went up from the lowest story to the highest by way of the middle one. ⁸I also saw an elevation all around the temple; it was the foundation of the side chambers, a full rod, that is, six cubits high. ⁹The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits, and so also the remaining terrace by the place of the side chambers of the temple. ¹⁰And between it and the wall chambers was a width of twenty cubits all around the temple on every side. ¹¹The doors of the side chambers opened on the terrace, one door toward the north and another toward the south; and the width of the terrace was five cubits all around.

The Building at the Western End

¹²The building that faced the separating courtyard at its western end was seventy cubits wide; the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits.

Dimensions and Design of the Temple Area

¹³So he measured the temple, one hundred cubits long; and the separating courtyard with the building and its walls was one hundred cubits long; ¹⁴also the width of the eastern face of the temple, including the separating courtyard, was one hundred cubits. ¹⁵He measured the length of the building behind it, facing the separating courtyard, with its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits, as well as the inner temple and the porches of the court, ¹⁶their doorposts and the beveled window frames. And the galleries all around their three stories opposite the threshold were paneled with wood from the ground to the windows—the windows were covered—¹⁷from the space above the door, even to the inner room,^a as well as outside, and on every wall all around, inside and outside, by measure.

¹⁸And it was made with cherubim and palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub. Each cherub had two faces, ¹⁹so that the face of a man was toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion toward a palm tree on the other side; thus it was made throughout the temple all around. ²⁰From the floor to the space above the door, and on the wall of the sanctuary, cherubim and palm trees were carved.

²¹The doorposts of the temple were square, as was the front of the sanctuary; their appearance was similar. ²²The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits. Its corners, its length, and its sides were of wood; and he said to me, “This is the table that is before the LORD.”

²³The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. ²⁴The doors had two panels apiece, two folding panels: two panels for one door and two panels for the other door. ²⁵Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the temple just as they were carved on the walls. A wooden canopy was on the front of the vestibule outside. ²⁶*There were* beveled window frames and palm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the vestibule—also on the side chambers of the temple and on the canopies.

Chapter 42

The Chambers for the Priests

¹Then he brought me out into the outer court, by the way toward the north; and he brought me into the chamber which was opposite the separating courtyard, and which was opposite the building toward the north. ²Facing the length, which was one hundred cubits (the width was fifty cubits), was the north door. ³Opposite the inner court of twenty cubits, and opposite the pavement of the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories. ⁴In front of the chambers, toward the inside, was a walk ten cubits wide, at a distance of one cubit; and their doors faced north. ⁵Now the upper chambers were shorter, because the galleries took away space from them more than from the lower and middle stories of the building. ⁶For they were in three stories and did not have pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper level was shortened more than the lower and middle levels from the ground up. ⁷And a wall which was outside ran parallel to the chambers, at the front of the chambers, toward the outer court; its length was fifty cubits. ⁸The length of the chambers toward the outer court was fifty cubits, whereas that facing the temple was one hundred cubits. ⁹At the lower chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.

¹⁰Also there were chambers in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, opposite the separating courtyard and opposite the building. ¹¹*There was* a walk in front of them also, and their appearance was like the chambers which were toward the north; they were as long and as wide as the others, and all their exits and entrances were according to plan. ¹²And corresponding to the doors of the chambers that were facing south, as one enters them, there was a door in front of the walk, the way directly in front of the wall toward the east.

¹³Then he said to me, “The north chambers and the south chambers, which are opposite the separating courtyard, are the holy chambers where the priests who approach the LORD shall eat the most holy offerings. There they shall lay the most holy offerings—the grain offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering—for the place is holy. ¹⁴“When the priests enter them, they shall not go out of the holy chamber into the outer court; but there they shall leave their garments in which they minister, for they are holy. They shall put on other garments; then they may approach that which is for the people.”

Outer Dimensions of the Temple

¹⁵Now when he had finished measuring the inner temple, he brought me out through the gateway that faces toward the east, and measured it all around. ¹⁶He measured the east side with the measuring rod, a five hundred rods by the measuring rod all around. ¹⁷He measured the north side, five hundred rods by the measuring rod all around. ¹⁸He measured the south side, five hundred rods by the measuring rod. ¹⁹He came around to the west side and measured five hundred rods by the measuring rod. ²⁰He measured it on the four sides; it had a wall all around, five hundred cubits long and five hundred wide, to separate the holy areas from the common.

Chapter 43

The Temple, the LORD's Dwelling Place

¹Afterward he brought me to the gate, the gate that faces toward the east. ²And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. His voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shone with His glory. ³*It was* like the appearance of the vision which I saw—like the vision which I saw when I ^acame to destroy the city. The visions were like the vision which I saw by the River Chebar; and I fell on my face. ⁴And the glory of the LORD came into the temple by way of the gate which faces toward the east. ⁵The Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

⁶Then I heard Him speaking to me from the temple, while a man stood beside me. ⁷And He said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. No more shall the house of Israel defile My holy name, they nor their kings, by their harlotry or with the carcasses of their kings on their high places. ⁸“When they set their threshold by My threshold, and their doorpost by My doorpost, with a wall between them and Me, they defiled My holy name by the abominations which they committed; therefore I have consumed them in My anger. ⁹“Now let them put their harlotry and the carcasses of their kings far away from Me, and I will dwell in their midst forever.

¹⁰“Son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. ¹¹“And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the design of the temple and its arrangement, its exits and its entrances, its entire design and all its ordinances, all its forms and all its laws. Write it down in their sight, so that they may keep its whole design and all its ordinances, and perform them. ¹²“This is the law of the temple: The whole area surrounding the mountaintop is most holy. Behold, this is the law of the temple.

Dimensions of the Altar

¹³“These are the measurements of the altar in cubits (the cubit is one cubit and a handbreadth): the base one cubit high and one cubit wide, with a rim all around its edge of one span. This is the height of the altar: ¹⁴“from the base on the ground to the lower ledge, two cubits; the width of the ledge, one cubit; from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge, four cubits; and the width of the ledge, one cubit. ¹⁵“The altar hearth is four cubits high, with four horns extending upward from the hearth. ¹⁶“The altar hearth is twelve cubits long, twelve wide, square at its four corners; ¹⁷“the ledge, fourteen cubits long and fourteen wide on its four sides, with a rim of half a cubit around it; its base, one cubit all around; and its steps face toward the east.”

Consecrating the Altar

¹⁸And He said to me, "Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: 'These are the ordinances for the altar on the day when it is made, for sacrificing burnt offerings on it, and for sprinkling blood on it. ¹⁹'You shall give a young bull for a sin offering to the priests, the Levites, who are of the seed of Zadok, who approach Me to minister to Me,' says the Lord GOD. ²⁰'You shall take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the rim around it; thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it. ²¹'Then you shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and burn it in the appointed place of the temple, outside the sanctuary. ²²'On the second day you shall offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. ²³'When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram from the flock without blemish. ²⁴'When you offer them before the LORD, the priests shall throw salt on them, and they will offer them up as a burnt offering to the LORD. ²⁵'Every day for seven days you shall prepare a goat for a sin offering; they shall also prepare a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without blemish. ²⁶'Seven days they shall make atonement for the altar and purify it, and so consecrate it. ²⁷'When these days are over it shall be, on the eighth day and thereafter, that the priests shall offer your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on the altar; and I will accept you,' says the Lord GOD."

Chapter 44

The East Gate and the Prince

¹Then He brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary which faces toward the east, but it was shut.

²And the LORD said to me, "This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter by it, because the LORD God of Israel has entered by it; therefore it shall be shut. ³*"As for the prince, because he is the prince, he may sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gateway, and go out the same way."*

Those Admitted to the Temple

⁴Also He brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple; so I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; and I fell on my face.

⁵And the LORD said to me, "Son of man, mark well, see with your eyes and hear with your ears, all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD and all its laws. Mark well who may enter the house and all who go out from the sanctuary.

⁶"Now say to the rebellious, to the house of Israel, "Thus says the Lord GOD: "O house of Israel, let Us have no more of all your abominations. ⁷“When you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to defile it—My house—and when you offered My food, the fat and the blood, then they broke My covenant because of all your abominations. ⁸“And you have not kept charge of My holy things, but you have set others to keep charge of My sanctuary for you.” ⁹“Thus says the Lord GOD: “No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter My sanctuary, including any foreigner who is among the children of Israel.

Laws Governing Priests

¹⁰“And the Levites who went far from Me, when Israel went astray, who strayed away from Me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity. ¹¹“Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, as gatekeepers of the house and ministers of the house; they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. ¹²“Because they ministered to them before their idols and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore I have raised My hand in an oath against them,” says the Lord GOD, “that they shall bear their iniquity. ¹³“And they shall not come near Me to minister to Me as priest, nor come near any of My holy things, nor into the Most Holy Place; but they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed. ¹⁴“Nevertheless I will make them keep charge of the temple, for all its work, and for all that has to be done in it.

¹⁵“But the priests, the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who kept charge of My sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from Me, they shall come near Me to minister to Me; and they shall stand before Me to offer to Me the fat and the blood," says the Lord GOD. ¹⁶"They shall enter My sanctuary, and they shall come near My table to minister to Me, and they shall keep My charge. ¹⁷"And it shall be, whenever they enter the gates of the inner court, that they shall put on linen garments; no wool shall come upon them while they minister within the gates of the inner court or within the house. ¹⁸"They shall have linen turbans on their heads and linen trousers on their bodies; they shall not clothe themselves with anything that causes sweat. ¹⁹"When they go out to the outer court, to the outer court to the people, they shall take off their garments in which they have ministered, leave them in the holy chambers, and put on other garments; and in their holy garments they shall not sanctify the people.

²³"And they shall teach My people the difference between the holy and the unholy, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. ²⁴"In controversy they shall stand as judges, and judge it according to My judgments. They shall keep My laws and My statutes in all My appointed meetings, and they shall hallow My Sabbaths.

²⁵"They shall not defile themselves by coming near a dead person. Only for father or mother, for son or daughter, for brother or unmarried sister may they defile themselves. ²⁶"After he is cleansed, they shall count seven days for him. ²⁷"And on the day that he goes to the sanctuary to minister in the sanctuary, he must offer his sin offering in the inner court," says the Lord GOD.

²⁸“It shall be, in regard to their inheritance, that I am their inheritance. You shall give them no possession in Israel, for I am their possession. ²⁹“They shall eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering; every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs. ³⁰“The best of all firstfruits of any kind, and every sacrifice of any kind from all your sacrifices, shall be the priest’s; also you shall give to the priest the first of your ground meal, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. ³¹“The priests shall not eat anything, bird or beast, that died naturally or was torn by wild beasts.

Great Leaders See the Big Picture and the Little Process

Ezekiel 40:1-44:31

God, the Ultimate Leader, never loses sight of the whole, but never ignores details, either. What does God communicate in these chapters?

1. I care about the details.
2. No one is unimportant.
3. We have a bigger purpose for what we do.
4. The labor of each individual has meaning.

Chapter 45

The Holy District

¹“Moreover, when you divide the land by lot into inheritance, you shall set apart a district for the LORD, a holy section of the land; its length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits, and the width ten thousand. It shall be holy throughout its territory all around. ²“Of this there shall be a square plot for the sanctuary, five hundred by five hundred rods, with fifty cubits around it for an open space. ³“So this is the district you shall measure: twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide; in it shall be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place. ⁴“It shall be a holy section of the land, belonging to the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to the LORD; it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵“An area twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide shall belong to the Levites, the ministers of the temple; they shall have twenty chambers as a possession.^a

Properties of the City and the Prince

⁶“You shall appoint as the property of the city an area five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand long, adjacent to the district of the holy section; it shall belong to the whole house of Israel.

⁷“The prince shall have a section on one side and the other of the holy district and the city’s property; and bordering on the holy district and the city’s property, extending westward on the west side and eastward on the east side, the length shall be side by side with one of the tribal portions, from the west border to the east border.

⁸“The land shall be his possession in Israel; and My princes shall no more oppress My people, but they shall give the rest of the land to the house of Israel, according to their tribes.”

Laws Governing the Prince

⁹“Thus says the Lord GOD: “Enough, O princes of Israel! Remove violence and plundering, execute justice and righteousness, and stop dispossessing My people,” says the Lord GOD. ¹⁰“You shall have honest scales, an honest ephah, and an honest bath. ¹¹“The ephah and the bath shall be of the same measure, so that the bath contains one-tenth of a homer, and the ephah one-tenth of a homer; their measure shall be according to the homer. ¹²“The shekel shall be twenty gerahs; twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall be your mina.

¹³“This is the offering which you shall offer: you shall give one-sixth of an ephah from a homer of wheat, and one-sixth of an ephah from a homer of barley. ¹⁴“The ordinance concerning oil, the bath of oil, is one-tenth of a bath from a kor. A kor is a homer or ten baths, for ten baths are a homer. ¹⁵“And one lamb shall be given from a flock of two hundred, from the rich pastures of Israel. These shall be for grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, to make atonement for them,” says the Lord GOD. ¹⁶“All the people of the land shall give this offering for the prince in Israel. ¹⁷“Then it shall be the prince’s part to give burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings, at the feasts, the New Moons, the Sabbaths, and at all the appointed seasons of the house of Israel. He shall prepare the sin offering, the grain offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel.”

Keeping the Feasts

¹⁸“Thus says the Lord GOD: “In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish and cleanse the sanctuary. ¹⁹“The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the gate of the inner court. ²⁰“And so you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who has sinned unintentionally or in ignorance. Thus you shall make atonement for the temple.

²¹“In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall observe the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. ²²“And on that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. ²³“On the seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish, daily for seven days, and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering. ²⁴“And he shall prepare a grain offering of one ephah for each bull and one ephah for each ram, together with a hin of oil for each ephah.

²⁵“In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, at the feast, he shall do likewise for seven days, according to the sin offering, the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the oil.”

Chapter 46

The Manner of Worship

¹“Thus says the Lord GOD: “The gateway of the inner court that faces toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath it shall be opened, and on the day of the New Moon it shall be opened. ²“The prince shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gateway from the outside, and stand by the gatepost. The priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings. He shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out, but the gate shall not be shut until evening. ³“Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the entrance to this gateway before the LORD on the Sabbaths and the New Moons. ⁴“The burnt offering that the prince offers to the LORD on the Sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish; ⁵“and the grain offering shall be one ephah for a ram, and the grain offering for the lambs, as much as he wants to give, as well as a hin of oil with every ephah. ⁶“On the day of the New Moon it shall be a young bull without blemish, six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish. ⁷“He shall prepare a grain offering of an ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram, as much as he wants to give for the lambs, and a hin of oil with every ephah. ⁸“When the prince enters, he shall go in by way of the vestibule of the gateway, and go out the same way.

⁹“But when the people of the land come before the LORD on the appointed feast days, whoever enters by way of the north gate to worship shall go out by way of the south gate; and whoever enters by way of the south gate shall go out by way of the north gate. He shall not return by way of the gate through which he came, but shall go out through the opposite gate. ¹⁰“The prince shall then be in their midst. When they go in, he shall go in; and when they go out, he shall go out. ¹¹“At the festivals and the appointed feast days the grain offering shall be an ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram, as much as he wants to give for the lambs, and a hin of oil with every ephah.

¹²“Now when the prince makes a voluntary burnt offering or voluntary peace offering to the LORD, the gate that faces toward the east shall then be opened for him; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings as he did on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he goes out the gate shall be shut.

¹³“You shall daily make a burnt offering to the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish; you shall prepare it every morning. ¹⁴“And you shall prepare a grain offering with it every morning, a sixth of an ephah, and a third of a hin of oil to moisten the fine flour. This grain offering is a perpetual ordinance, to be made regularly to the LORD. ¹⁵“Thus they shall prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil, as a regular burnt offering every morning.”

The Prince and Inheritance Laws

¹⁶“Thus says the Lord GOD: “If the prince gives a gift of some of his inheritance to any of his sons, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. ¹⁷“But if he gives a gift of some of his inheritance to one of his servants, it shall be his until the year of liberty, after which it shall return to the prince. But his inheritance shall belong to his sons; it shall become theirs. ¹⁸“Moreover the prince shall not take any of the people’s inheritance by evicting them from their property; he shall provide an inheritance for his sons from his own property, so that none of My people may be scattered from his property.” ‘ ’

How the Offerings Were Prepared

¹⁹Now he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests which face toward the north; and there a place was situated at their extreme western end. ²⁰And he said to me, “This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them out into the outer court to sanctify the people.”

²¹Then he brought me out into the outer court and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and in fact, in every corner of the court there was another court. ²²In the four corners of the court were enclosed courts, forty cubits long and thirty wide; all four corners were the same size. ²³*There was* a row of building stones all around in them, all around the four of them; and cooking hearths were made under the rows of stones all around. ²⁴And he said to me, “These are the kitchens where the ministers of the temple shall boil the sacrifices of the people.”

Chapter 47

The Healing Waters and Trees

¹Then he brought me back to the door of the temple; and there was water, flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, for the front of the temple faced east; the water was flowing from under the right side of the temple, south of the altar. ²He brought me out by way of the north gate, and led me around on the outside to the outer gateway that faces east; and there was water, running out on the right side.

³And when the man went out to the east with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the water came up to my ankles. ⁴Again he measured one thousand and brought me through the waters; the water came up to my knees. Again he measured one thousand and brought me through; the water came up to my waist. ⁵Again he measured one thousand, and it was a river that I could not cross; for the water was too deep, water in which one must swim, a river that could not be crossed. ⁶He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he brought me and returned me to the bank of the river.

⁷When I returned, there, along the bank of the river, were very many trees on one side and the other. ⁸Then he said to me: "This water flows toward the eastern region, goes down into the valley, and enters the sea. When it reaches the sea, its waters are healed. ⁹“And it shall be that every living thing that moves, wherever the rivers go, will live. There will be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters go there; for they will be healed, and everything will live wherever the river goes. ¹⁰“It shall be that fishermen will stand by it from En Gedi to En Eglaim; they will be places for spreading their nets. Their fish will be of the same kinds as the fish of the Great Sea, exceedingly many. ¹¹“But its swamps and marshes will not be healed; they will be given over to salt. ¹²“Along the bank of the river, on this side and that, will grow all kinds of trees used for food; their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. They will bear fruit every month, because their water flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for medicine.”

Borders of the Land

¹³Thus says the Lord GOD: “These are the borders by which you shall divide the land as an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two portions.

¹⁴“You shall inherit it equally with one another; for I raised My hand in an oath to give it to your fathers, and this land shall fall to you as your inheritance.

¹⁵“This shall be the border of the land on the north: from the Great Sea, by the road to Hethlon, as one goes to Zedad, ¹⁶“Hamath, Berothah, Sibram (which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath), to Hazar Hatticon (which is on the border of Hauran). ¹⁷“Thus the boundary shall be from the Sea to Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus; and as for the north, northward, it is the border of Hamath. This is the north side.

¹⁸“On the east side you shall mark out the border from between Hauran and Damascus, and between Gilead and the land of Israel, along the Jordan, and along the eastern side of the sea. This is the east side.

¹⁹“The south side, toward the South,^a shall be from Tamar to the waters of Meribah by Kadesh, along the brook to the Great Sea. This is the south side, toward the South.

²⁰“The west side shall be the Great Sea, from the southern boundary until one comes to a point opposite Hamath. This is the west side.

²¹“Thus you shall divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. ²²“It shall be that you will divide it by lot as an inheritance for yourselves, and for the strangers who dwell among you and who bear children among you. They shall be to you as native-born among the children of Israel; they shall have an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. ²³“And it shall be that in whatever tribe the stranger dwells, there you shall give him his inheritance,” says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 48

Division of the Land

in width, and on the south twenty-five thousand in length. The sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the center. ¹¹*"It shall be for the priests of the sons of Zadok, who are sanctified, who have kept My charge, who did not go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.* ¹²*"And this district of land that is set apart shall be to them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites.*

¹³*"Opposite the border of the priests, the Levites shall have an area twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width; its entire length shall be twenty-five thousand and its width ten thousand.* ¹⁴*"And they shall not sell or exchange any of it; they may not alienate this best part of the land, for it is holy to the LORD.*

¹⁵*"The five thousand cubits in width that remain, along the edge of the twenty-five thousand, shall be for general use by the city, for dwellings and common-land; and the city shall be in the center.* ¹⁶*"These shall be its measurements: the north side four thousand five hundred cubits, the south side four thousand five hundred, the east side four thousand five hundred, and the west side four thousand five hundred.* ¹⁷*"The common-land of the city shall be: to the north two hundred and fifty cubits, to the south two hundred and fifty, to the east two hundred and fifty, and to the west two hundred and fifty.* ¹⁸*"The rest of the length, alongside the district of the holy section, shall be ten thousand cubits to the east and ten thousand to the west. It shall be adjacent to the district of the holy section, and its produce shall be food for the workers of the city.* ¹⁹*"The workers of the city, from all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it.* ²⁰*"The entire district shall be twenty-five thousand cubits by twenty-five thousand cubits, foursquare. You shall set apart the holy district with the property of the city.*

²¹*"The rest shall belong to the prince, on one side and on the other of the holy district and of the city's property,* next to the twenty-five thousand cubits of the holy district as far as the eastern border, and westward next to the twenty-five thousand as far as the western border, adjacent to the tribal portions; it shall belong to the prince. It shall be the holy district, and the sanctuary of the temple shall be in the center. ²²“Moreover, apart from the possession of the Levites and the possession of the city which are in the midst of what belongs to the prince, the area between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin shall belong to the prince.

²³“As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west, Benjamin shall have one section; ²⁴“by the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west, Simeon shall have one section; ²⁵“by the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west, Issachar shall have one section; ²⁶“by the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west, Zebulun shall have one section; ²⁷“by the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west, Gad shall have one section; ²⁸“by the border of Gad, on the south side, toward the South, ^a the border shall be from Tamar to the waters of Meribah by Kadesh, along the brook to the Great Sea. ²⁹“This is the land which you shall divide by lot as an inheritance among the tribes of Israel, and these are their portions,” says the Lord GOD.

The Gates of the City and Its Name

³⁰“These are the exits of the city. On the north side, measuring four thousand five hundred cubits ³¹“(the gates of the city shall be named after the tribes of Israel), the three gates northward: one gate for Reuben, one gate for Judah, and one gate for Levi; ³²“on the east side, four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates: one gate for Joseph, one gate for Benjamin, and one gate for Dan; ³³“on the south side, measuring four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates: one gate for Simeon, one gate for Issachar, and one gate for Zebulun; ³⁴“on the west side, four thousand five hundred cubits with their three gates: one gate for Gad, one gate for Asher, and one gate for Naphtali. ³⁵“All the way around shall be eighteen thousand cubits; and the name of the city from that day shall be: THE LORD IS THERE.”a

The Book of Daniel

Introduction to Daniel

The exemplary personal character of Daniel makes him a favorite Bible personality for many. He is one of only a handful of men in the Bible about whom God says nothing negative. Although he shared the human nature of all other biblical leaders, he seems to rise above the others because of a combination of qualities:

- Character—He displays character by refusing to do wrong before foreign kings.
- Competence—Kings offer to pay him for his ability to interpret dreams.
- Convictions—He refuses to eat the king's meat or drink his wine.
- Courage—He faces the lions' den without flinching.
- Charisma—He is so winsome that royalty wants him to play key roles in government.
- Commitment—He remains committed to his God despite pressure to compromise.
- Compassion—He never loses his love for others, even in an enemy culture.

In the early chapters of the book, we see Daniel and his Hebrew friends in action as they live out their faith and leadership in a foreign land. Daniel stands up to king Nebuchadnezzar and requests that he and his friends be allowed to eat something other than what fills the plates of the other young men in the palace. He negotiates terms and ends up stronger and healthier for his decision. This catches the attention of the Babylonian officials and Daniel becomes a man of influence, even as a youth. Soon, he is interpreting dreams for the king, offering wise counsel to officials, and demonstrating a commitment to his faith rare for anyone, young or old.

Before he is through, Daniel has left a legacy stretching over the reigns of three kings, both Babylonian and Persian. He was a leader who lived the life God meant him to live. As he aged, he moved from interpreter of dreams to a dreamer himself—providing prophetic insight into the end times. He delivered his deep and complex words from a pure heart, showing himself to be a man who loved God, lived his faith, and wanted to influence many others to embrace Yahweh. As you read the book, watch for Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego to demonstrate leadership powerful enough to influence entire people groups to follow.

Faith and Leadership in Action

God's Role in Daniel

Old Testament leaders succeeded as long as they stayed intimately connected to God. Daniel proves this pattern. God continually blessed Daniel with wisdom, skills, and favor, as long as Daniel maintained his character and courage.

God led Daniel faithfully from the time he was a young boy. By the time of the Babylonian captivity, Daniel and his friends had followed Yahweh for years. They continued this lifestyle as adults, and God not only blessed them but bailed them out of dangerous and even deadly situations.

The Book of Daniel serves as a powerful illustration of what can happen when God and a healthy, spiritual leader cooperate to reach their world.

Lessons in Leadership

- Leaders must first possess godly qualities before they develop skills.
- Commitment precedes everything—resources will follow a leader's resolve.
- Leaders must often stand alone as they begin their journey.
- To identify the leader in a group, look for the one to whom everyone listens.
- A gift may take a leader to the top, but humility enables him to endure.
- Spiritual leaders talk to God about people before talking to people about God.
- Godly leaders do not pursue their own fame, but are out to make God famous.

Chapter 1

Daniel and His Friends Obey God

¹In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. ²And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with some of the articles of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the articles into the treasure house of his god.

³Then the king instructed Ashpenaz, the master of his eunuchs, to bring some of the children of Israel and some of the king's descendants and some of the nobles, ⁴young men in whom there was no blemish, but good-looking, gifted in all wisdom, possessing knowledge and quick to understand, who had ability to serve in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the language and literature of the Chaldeans. ⁵And the king appointed for them a daily provision of the king's delicacies and of the wine which he drank, and three years of training for them, so that at the end of that time they might serve before the king. ⁶Now from among those of the sons of Judah were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. ⁷To them the chief of the eunuchs gave names: he gave Daniel the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abed-Nego.

¹¹So Daniel said to the steward^a whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, ¹²"Please test your servants for ten days, and let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³"Then let our appearance be examined before you, and the appearance of the young men who eat the portion of the king's delicacies; and as you see fit, so deal with your servants."

¹⁴So he consented with them in this matter, and tested them ten days.

¹⁵And at the end of ten days their features appeared better and fatter in flesh than all the young men who ate the portion of the king's delicacies. ¹⁶Thus the steward took away their portion of delicacies and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

¹⁷As for these four young men, God gave them knowledge and skill in all literature and wisdom; and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

¹⁸Now at the end of the days, when the king had said that they should be brought in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹Then the king interviewed^a them, and among them all none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; therefore they served before the king. ²⁰And in all matters of wisdom and understanding about which the king examined them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers who were in all his realm. ²¹Thus Daniel continued until the first year of King Cyrus.

Leadership Qualifications: Prerequisite for Responsibility

Daniel 1:4-19

The victorious Babylonians took Daniel and other sharp, young Hebrews to their king, who wanted to groom them as leaders. What qualities did the king seek? Take a look and see if you would like to have such emerging leaders working alongside of you!

1. Young (v. 4). They were youths, still young enough to be trained.
2. Sharp looking (v. 4). They were well-groomed and well-dressed.
3. Intelligent (v. 4). They had good minds and could process information quickly.
4. Diverse skills (v. 4). They displayed a variety of skills.
5. Competent (v. 4). They showed wisdom in using their skills to achieve results.
6. Servant's heart (v. 4). They served others however they might be needed.
7. Teachable (vv. 4, 5). They were able and hungry to learn new concepts.
8. Convictional (v. 8). They possessed inward strength and values.
9. Favor with people (v. 9). They enjoyed influence with others.

10. Submissive (v. 12). They willingly became team players.

11. Relational (v. 12). They had good people skills and charisma.

12. Well-informed (v. 17). They possessed knowledge in a variety of areas.

13. Gifted (v. 17). They had valuable abilities obvious to others.

14. Excellence (v. 19). They were men of excellence and high standards.

Chapter 2

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

¹Now in the second year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; and his spirit was so troubled that his sleep left him. ²Then the king gave the command to call the magicians, the astrologers, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans to tell the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. ³And the king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to know the dream."

⁴Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic,^a "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation."

⁵The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "My decision is firm: if you do not make known the dream to me, and its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made an ash heap. ⁶"However, if you tell the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts, rewards, and great honor. Therefore tell me the dream and its interpretation."

⁷They answered again and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will give its interpretation."

⁸The king answered and said, "I know for certain that you would gain time, because you see that my decision is firm: ⁹"if you do not make known the dream to me, there is only one decree for you! For you have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me till the time has changed. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can give me its interpretation.”

¹⁰The Chaldeans answered the king, and said, “There is not a man on earth who can tell the king’s matter; therefore no king, lord, or ruler has ever asked such things of any magician, astrologer, or Chaldean. ¹¹“It is a difficult thing that the king requests, and there is no other who can tell it to the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.”

¹²For this reason the king was angry and very furious, and gave the command to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. ¹³So the decree went out, and they began killing the wise men; and they sought Daniel and his companions, to kill them.

God Reveals Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream

¹⁴Then with counsel and wisdom Daniel answered Arioch, the captain of the king’s guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon; ¹⁵he answered and said to Arioch the king’s captain, “Why is the decree from the king so urgent?” Then Arioch made the decision known to Daniel.

¹⁶So Daniel went in and asked the king to give him time, that he might tell the king the interpretation. ¹⁷Then Daniel went to his house, and made the decision known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions, ¹⁸that they might seek mercies from the God of heaven concerning this secret, so that Daniel and his companions might not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

¹⁹Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision.
So Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

²⁰Daniel answered and said:

“Blessed be the name of God forever and ever,
For wisdom and might are His.

²¹And He changes the times and the seasons;
He removes kings and raises up kings;
He gives wisdom to the wise
And knowledge to those who have understanding.

²²He reveals deep and secret things;
He knows what is in the darkness,

And light dwells with Him.

²³“I thank You and praise You,
O God of my fathers;
You have given me wisdom and might,
And have now made known to me what we asked of
You,

For You have made known to us the king’s demand.”

Daniel Explains the Dream

²⁴Therefore Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said thus to him: “Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; take me before the king, and I will tell the king the interpretation.”

²⁵Then Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king, and said thus to him, “I have found a man of the captives^a of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation.”

²⁶The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?"

²⁷Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded, the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, and the soothsayers cannot declare to the king. ²⁸"But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed, were these: ²⁹"As for you, O king, thoughts came to your mind while on your bed, about what would come to pass after this; and He who reveals secrets has made known to you what will be. ³⁰"But as for me, this secret has not been revealed to me because I have more wisdom than anyone living, but for our sakes who make known the interpretation to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.

Nebuchadnezzar and Daniel: A Contrast in Pride and Humility

Daniel 2:1-28

When the magicians of Babylon fail to interpret a troubling dream, Nebuchadnezzar threatens to kill them all. He embodies pride and arrogance. Contrast him with Daniel, who steps forward to interpret the dream, yet refuses to accept personal glory. Instead, he honors the God of heaven.

³¹“You, O king, were watching; and behold, a great image! This great image, whose splendor was excellent, stood before you; and its form was awesome. ³²“This image’s head was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs^a of bronze, ³³“its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.^a ³⁴“You watched while a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. ³⁵“Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed together, and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors; the wind carried them away so that no trace of them was found. And the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

³⁶“This is the dream. Now we will tell the interpretation of it before the king. ³⁷“You, O king, are a king of kings. For the God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, strength, and glory; ³⁸“and wherever the children of men dwell, or the beasts of the field and the birds of the heaven, He has given them into your hand, and has made you ruler over them all—you are this head of gold. ³⁹“But after you shall arise another kingdom inferior to yours; then another, a third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over all the earth. ⁴⁰“And the fourth kingdom shall be as strong as iron, inasmuch as iron breaks in pieces and shatters everything; and like iron that crushes, that kingdom will break in pieces and crush all the others. ⁴¹“Whereas you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter’s clay and partly of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; yet the strength of the iron shall be in it, just as you saw the iron mixed with ceramic clay. ⁴²“And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly fragile. ⁴³“As you saw iron mixed with ceramic clay, they will mingle with the seed of men; but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay. ⁴⁴“And in the days of these kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people; it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. ⁴⁵“Inasmuch as you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold—the great God has made known to the king what will come to pass after this. The dream is certain, and its interpretation is sure.”

Daniel and His Friends Promoted

⁴⁶Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, prostrate before Daniel, and commanded that they should present an offering and incense to him. ⁴⁷The king answered Daniel, and said, “Truly your God is the God of gods, the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret.” ⁴⁸Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many great gifts; and he made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief administrator over all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹Also Daniel petitioned the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego over the affairs of the province of Babylon; but Daniel sat in the gate^a of the king.

CHARACTER

Daniel Had What It Took!

Daniel 2:48

DOES THE PRIVATE life of a leader truly impact his or her public life? No question about it. Daniel illustrates why character plays such a vital role.

Daniel could have tried merely to survive his experience as a captive in a foreign land. Instead, he never left his disciplined life of character and personal commitment. Ponder the character he displayed during his times of testing under the kings of Babylon:

1. His Diet: He wouldn't compromise on ritually unclean foods, but ate only vegetables.

2. His Motives: He didn't take credit for interpreting dreams, but glorified God instead.

3. His Honesty: He spoke the truth to authorities, regardless of its unpopularity.

4. His Disciplines: He continued praying daily, even though it might cost him his life.

5. His Integrity: He had no interest in bribes or payoffs.

6. His Convictions: He stayed committed to his friends and beliefs even as he rose through the ranks.

How a leader deals with the circumstances of life tells you many things about his character. Crisis doesn't necessarily make character, but it certainly does reveal it. Adversity makes a person choose one of two paths: character or compromise. Every time a leader chooses character, he grows stronger.

Character is the foundation on which a leader builds his or her life. It all begins with character, because leadership operates on the basis of trust. People will follow a leader only so far as they trust him or her. Character communicates credibility, harnesses respect, creates consistency, and earns trust.

Every leader must know the following about character:

1. Character is more than talk.

Anyone can say that he has integrity, but action is the real indicator of character. Your character determines who you are and what you do. That's why you can never separate a leader's character from his actions. If a leader's actions and intentions continually work against each other, look to his character to find out why.

2. Talent is a gift, but character is a choice.

We have no control over a lot of things in life. We don't get to choose our parents or the circumstances of our birth and upbringing. But we do choose our character. We create it each time we make choices.

3. Character brings lasting success with people.

True leadership always involves others. Followers do not trust leaders whose character they know to be flawed, and they will not continue to follow them.

4. Leaders cannot rise above the limitations of their character.

Character will either limit or support a leader, depending on its strength. It will always determine whether a leader finishes well.

Chapter 3

The Image of Gold

¹Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its width six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. ²And King Nebuchadnezzar sent word to gather together the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ³So the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered together for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ⁴Then a herald cried aloud: "To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, ⁵*that* at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, you shall fall down and worship the gold image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up; ⁶*and* whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace."

⁷So at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, harp, and lyre, in symphony with all kinds of music, all the people, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the gold image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Commitment: When a Leader Has Resolve, Resources Follow

Daniel 3:1-18

When the three friends of Daniel refused to worship a statue Nebuchadnezzar had made, they told the king that they expected their God to deliver them. Immediately afterwards they made a bold statement of commitment: “But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we do not serve your gods, nor will we worship the gold image which you have set up” (Dan. 3:18). The second statement did not dilute the first, but simply declared the men’s resolve.

Once we make a commitment, the resources follow—but they seldom follow until we declare our commitment. From this text we learn the following about developing commitment:

1. It usually begins with a struggle.
2. It seldom surrounds abilities or gifts.
3. It is the result of choice, not condition.
4. It is fostered when we settle the issue before it arises.
5. It is enhanced by deep trust in God.
6. It lasts when we remain single-minded.

Daniel’s Friends Disobey the King

⁸Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and accused the Jews. ⁹They spoke and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever! ¹⁰"You, O king, have made a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the gold image; ¹¹"and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. ¹²"There are certain Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego; these men, O king, have not paid due regard to you. They do not serve your gods or worship the gold image which you have set up."

¹³Then Nebuchadnezzar, in rage and fury, gave the command to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. So they brought these men before the king. ¹⁴Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the gold image which I have set up? ¹⁵"Now if you are ready at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, and you fall down and worship the image which I have made, good! But if you do not worship, you shall be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. And who is the god who will deliver you from my hands?"

¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. ¹⁷"If that is the case, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king. ¹⁸"But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we do not serve your gods, nor will we worship the gold image which you have set up."

PROFILE in Leadership

SHADRACH, MESHACH, AND ABED-NEGO Courage Fueled by Faith

Daniel 3:16-18

Every leader will at some point reach a crossroads of faith, when he or she has to take a stand—even at the risk of great personal loss.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego faced such a moment. They were given one simple choice: bow or die. There would be no bargaining, no compromise, no “meeting halfway.” Nebuchadnezzar ordered them to bow to his idol, or be reduced to ashes. They chose the furnace.

How could they resist such peer pressure and deadly threats? Their speech gives us several clues:

1. “Our God... is able to deliver us” (v. 17). They believed in the omnipotence of God, that nothing was too hard for Him.

2. “He will deliver us” (v. 17). They believed in the love of God that acts on behalf of the beloved.

3. “But if not...” (v. 18). They believed in the sovereignty of God, that He acts on the basis of His own pleasure and will.

4. “Our God whom we serve...” (v. 17). They not only believed certain things, they acted on them, and had done so all of their lives.

All leaders will face times of testing when they will be ordered to “bow.” During those times they need the courage and conviction to say, “I will never bow!”

Saved in Fiery Trial

¹⁹Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. He spoke and commanded that they heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. ²⁰And he commanded certain mighty men of valor who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, and cast them into the burning fiery furnace. ²¹Then these men were bound in their coats, their trousers, their turbans, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. ²²Therefore, because the king's command was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. ²³And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

²⁴Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished; and he rose in haste and spoke, saying to his counselors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?"

They answered and said to the king, "True, O king."

²⁵"Look!" he answered, "I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire; and they are not hurt, and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God."a

Nebuchadnezzar Praises God

²⁶Then Nebuchadnezzar went near the mouth of the burning fiery furnace and spoke, saying, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, servants of the Most High God, come out, and come here.” Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego came from the midst of the fire. ²⁷And the satraps, administrators, governors, and the king’s counselors gathered together, and they saw these men on whose bodies the fire had no power; the hair of their head was not singed nor were their garments affected, and the smell of fire was not on them.

²⁸Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying, “Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, who sent His Angel^a and delivered His servants who trusted in Him, and they have frustrated the king’s word, and yielded their bodies, that they should not serve nor worship any god except their own God! ²⁹“Therefore I make a decree that any people, nation, or language which speaks anything amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made an ash heap; because there is no other God who can deliver like this.”

³⁰Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego in the province of Babylon.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR

Face-to-Face with the Majesty of God

Daniel 3:1-30

While King Nebuchadnezzar provides a great example of a leader with seriously misplaced passion, he provides an even better example of what happens when a man comes face-to-face with the majesty of the living God.

Nebuchadnezzar, full of pride, created a 90-foot-high golden “god” whom all of his subjects were ordered to worship. It must have been a magnificent sight, gleaming brightly and all alone in the glare of the hot Mesopotamian sun.

But it was just a statue.

Nebuchadnezzar, a leader of great passion, threatened to kill anyone who disobeyed his orders. When three of God’s servants refused to bow down, the king flew into a rage and ordered them burned alive. On that day, the king saw up close the infinite difference between the God of Israel and the idol he had set up. Before the king’s bedazzled eyes, God performed a great miracle that left Nebuchadnezzar and the other witnesses gaping in awe.

The king would never be the same. He turned from his idol to the God whose people he had once persecuted. He praised the Lord and demanded that his subjects worship Him alone.

Godly leaders should ask the Lord to show them regular glimpses of His power and glory. When He does that, it becomes much easier to direct our passion toward serving the one, true God.

Chapter 4

Nebuchadnezzar's Second Dream

¹Nebuchadnezzar the king,
To all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth:

Peace be multiplied to you.

²I thought it good to declare the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked for me.

³How great are His signs,
And how mighty His wonders!
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,

And His dominion is from generation to generation.

Competence: People Come to See a Gift in Action

Daniel 4:8

Although Nebuchadnezzar pays lip service to the Most High God after seeing Him in action, he still thinks too highly of himself. So God gives him a vision about how he will be humbled. Once again,

Daniel is called upon to interpret a dream, since all recognize him as the only one with the ability to explain such visions.

When a leader operates in the area of his or her gift, people will watch and listen. Competence is a key attribute for every leader. Without even knowing it, followers ask four questions of every leader:

1. Knowledge: Does the leader know where he is going?

2. Desire: Do I want to go where the leader is going?

3. Ability: Can the leader get me there?

4. Trust: Do I trust this leader?

Because Daniel could answer “yes” to each of these questions, he entered each challenge primed to succeed. He enjoyed peace, not panic; faith, not fear; and commitment, not compromise.

Every leader must ask, “What is my gift? What do I offer that people need? What unique contribution do I make that makes people want to follow me?”

⁴I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. ⁵I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. ⁶Therefore I issued a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. ⁷Then the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers came in, and I told them the dream; but they did not make known to me its interpretation. ⁸But at last Daniel came before me (his name is Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god; in him is the Spirit of the Holy God), and I told the dream before him, saying: ⁹“Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the Spirit of the Holy God is in you, and no secret troubles you, explain to me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation.

¹⁰“These were the visions of my head while on my bed:

I was looking, and behold,
A tree in the midst of the earth,
And its height was great.

¹¹The tree grew and became strong;
Its height reached to the heavens,
And it could be seen to the ends of all the earth.

¹²Its leaves were lovely,
Its fruit abundant,
And in it was food for all.
The beasts of the field found shade under it,
The birds of the heavens dwelt in its branches,

And all flesh was fed from it.

¹³“I saw in the visions of my head while on my bed, and there was a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven.

¹⁴He cried aloud and said thus:

‘Chop down the tree and cut off its branches,
Strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit.
Let the beasts get out from under it,
And the birds from its branches.

¹⁵Nevertheless leave the stump and roots in the earth,

Bound with a band of iron and bronze,
In the tender grass of the field.
Let it be wet with the dew of heaven,
And let him graze with the beasts
On the grass of the earth.

¹⁶Let his heart be changed from that of a man,
Let him be given the heart of a beast,

And let seven times^a pass over him.

¹⁷“This decision is by the decree of the watchers,
And the sentence by the word of the holy ones,
In order that the living may know
That the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, Gives it to whomever He will,

And sets over it the lowest of men.’

¹⁸“This dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, have seen. Now you, Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, since all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able, for the Spirit of the Holy God is in you.”

Daniel Explains the Second Dream

¹⁹Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for a time, and his thoughts troubled him. So the king spoke, and said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation trouble you.” Belteshazzar answered and said, “My lord, may the dream concern those who hate you, and its interpretation concern your enemies!

²⁰The tree that you saw, which grew and became strong, whose height reached to the heavens and which could be seen by all the earth, ²¹whose leaves were lovely and its fruit abundant, in which was food for all, under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and in whose branches the birds of the heaven had their home— ²²it is you, O king, who have grown and become strong; for your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, and your dominion to the end of the earth.

²³And inasmuch as the king saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Chop down the tree and destroy it, but leave its stump and roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze in the tender grass of the field; let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let him graze with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him’; ²⁴this is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king: ²⁵They shall drive you from men, your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make you eat grass like oxen. They shall wet you with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you, till you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He chooses.

²⁶And inasmuch as they gave the command to leave the stump and roots of the tree, your kingdom shall be assured to you, after you come to know that Heaven rules. ²⁷Therefore, O king, let my advice be acceptable to you; break off your sins by being righteous, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps there may be a lengthening of your prosperity.”

Nebuchadnezzar’s Humiliation

²⁸All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹At the end of the twelve months he was walking about the royal palace of Babylon. ³⁰The king spoke, saying, “Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for a royal dwelling by my mighty power and for the honor of my majesty?”

³¹While the word was still in the king’s mouth, a voice fell from heaven: “King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: the kingdom has departed from you! ³²And they shall drive you from men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. They shall make you eat grass like oxen; and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He chooses.”

³³That very hour the word was fulfilled concerning Nebuchadnezzar; he was driven from men and ate grass like oxen; his body was wet with the dew of heaven till his hair had grown like eagles’ feathers and his nails like birds’ claws.

Nebuchadnezzar Praises God

³⁴And at the end of the time^a I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me; and I blessed the Most High and praised and honored Him who lives forever:

For His dominion is an everlasting dominion,
And His kingdom is from generation to generation.

³⁵All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing;

He does according to His will in the army of heaven
And among the inhabitants of the earth.
No one can restrain His hand

Or say to Him, “What have You done?”

³⁶At the same time my reason returned to me, and for the glory of my kingdom, my honor and splendor returned to me. My counselors and nobles resorted to me, I was restored to my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added to me. ³⁷Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, all of whose works are truth, and His ways justice. And those who walk in pride He is able to put down.

21 QUALITIES

TEACHABILITY

The King Is Slow to Learn

Daniel 4:1-37

KING NEBUCHADNEZZAR proved himself to be one of the most arrogant leaders in history, so self-centered and prideful that God dealt with him in a most unusual way.

God gave the king a vision of a huge tree, chopped down by an angel. The tree represented him. God removed him from his position and drove him into the wilderness to live like an animal. His hair and fingernails grew long; he ate the same diet as the beasts of the field; he dwelt in caves and dirt shelters. And he stayed out there until he fully recognized God as the supreme Ruler of the world. He had to learn submission, relinquish control and power, and become teachable.

Fortunately, God's discipline worked. Once the king returned to the palace, he became a different man. He no longer laid claim to sovereignty or wisdom. He perceived his greatness as God-given (Dan. 4:36). He sought to honor God rather than himself as the source of every good thing (4:37). Notice how Nebuchadnezzar developed a teachable spirit:

1. Grateful Words

The king expressed appreciation and blessing for God's grace and mercy.

2. Hungry Mind

The king possessed a passion and hunger for personal growth.

3. Big-picture Perspective

The king saw things from a new, larger viewpoint.

4. Dissatisfaction with the Present

The king did not feel content with the status quo or mediocrity.

5. Humble Heart

The king expressed humility regarding his own importance and power.

6. Magnetic Spirit

The king began once more to attract nobles and counselors.

How about you? Are you a teachable leader? Do you want to dictate the people or circumstances from whom you will learn, or will you learn from anyone? Consider a few steps to improve your teachability:

1. Don't believe your own press.

The greatest enemy of tomorrow's success is today's. Don't get distracted by your achievements.

2. Observe how you react to mistakes.

Do you admit them when you make them? Do you apologize or get defensive? Get honest about your needs.

3. Try something new.

When was the last time you did something for the first time? Challenges change us for the better and keep us learning.

4. Grow in the area of your strength.

Read books on leadership and in your area of giftedness. Don't be satisfied with where you are today. Keep stretching.

Chapter 5

Belshazzar's Feast

¹Belshazzar the king made a great feast for a thousand of his lords, and drank wine in the presence of the thousand.

²While he tasted the wine, Belshazzar gave the command to bring the gold and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple which had been in Jerusalem, that the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them. ³Then they brought the gold vessels that had been taken from the temple of the house of God which had been in Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines drank from them. ⁴They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze and iron, wood and stone.

⁵In the same hour the fingers of a man's hand appeared and wrote opposite the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. ⁶Then the king's countenance changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his hips were loosened and his knees knocked against each other. ⁷The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spoke, saying to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing, and tells me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around his neck; and he shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.” ⁸Now all the king’s wise men came, but they could not read the writing, or make known to the king its interpretation. ⁹Then King Belshazzar was greatly troubled, his countenance was changed, and his lords were astonished.

¹⁰The queen, because of the words of the king and his lords, came to the banquet hall. The queen spoke, saying, “O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your countenance change. ¹¹“There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the Spirit of the Holy God. And in the days of your father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and King Nebuchadnezzar your father—your father the king—made him chief of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers. ¹²“Inasmuch as an excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting dreams, solving riddles, and explaining enigmas^a were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, now let Daniel be called, and he will give the interpretation.”

The Writing on the Wall Explained

¹³Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king spoke, and said to Daniel, “Are you that Daniel who is one of the captives^a from Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah? ¹⁴“I have heard of you, that the Spirit of God is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. ¹⁵“Now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not give the interpretation of the thing. ¹⁶“And I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations and explain enigmas. Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.”

The Law of Influence: When Daniel Spoke, People Listened

Daniel 5:13, 14

Despite the fact that Daniel was a refugee in a foreign land, he had influence. At times, he had no position or title, but when Daniel spoke, everyone listened. Why? People listened to Daniel for the following reasons:

1. Relationships: People listen to us because of who we know.

Daniel had a reputation for knowing the God of Israel.

2. Sacrifice: People listen to us because of what we have suffered.

Daniel gave up his right to eat the king's food.

3. Character: People listen to us because of our integrity.

Daniel remained blameless and trustworthy even when he had to rebuke kings.

4. Relevance: People listen to us because we identify with their needs.

Daniel lived with the Babylonians and identified with their struggles and lifestyle.

5. Insight: People listen to us because of what we know.

Daniel could interpret dreams and visions that confused everyone else.

6. Vulnerability: People listen to us because we are genuinely transparent.

Daniel's life was an open book.

7. Experience: People listen to us because we've succeeded in the past.

Daniel's credibility came from years of living well.

8. Humility: People listen to us when we incarnate meekness.

Daniel served and submitted to authorities, unless they broke a higher law.

9. Competence: People listen to us because of our abilities and expertise.

Daniel did many things better than anyone else.

10. Courage: People listen to us because we demonstrate conviction.

Daniel was no one's puppet and showed he would die for his convictions.

¹⁷Then Daniel answered, and said before the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another; yet I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. ¹⁸"O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father a kingdom and majesty, glory and honor. ¹⁹"And because of the majesty that He gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whomever he wished, he executed; whomever he wished, he kept alive; whomever he wished, he set up; and whomever he wished, he put down. ²⁰"But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him. ²¹"Then he was driven from the sons of men, his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. They fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and appoints over it whomever He chooses.

²²“But you his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, although you knew all this. ²³“And you have lifted yourself up against the Lord of heaven. They have brought the vessels of His house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, bronze and iron, wood and stone, which do not see or hear or know; and the God who holds your breath in His hand and owns all your ways, you have not glorified. ²⁴“Then the fingers^a of the hand were sent from Him, and this writing was written.

²⁵“And this is the inscription that was written:

MENE,^a MENE, TEKEL,^b UPHARSIN.^c

²⁶“This is the interpretation of each word. MENE: God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it; ²⁷“TEKEL: You have been weighed in the balances, and found wanting; ²⁸“PERES: Your kingdom has been divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.”^a ²⁹Then Belshazzar gave the command, and they clothed Daniel with purple and put a chain of gold around his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Belshazzar's Fall

³⁰That very night Belshazzar, king of the Chaldeans, was slain. ³¹And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

Chapter 6

The Plot Against Daniel

¹It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred and twenty satraps, to be over the whole kingdom; ²and over these, three governors, of whom Daniel was one, that the satraps might give account to them, so that the king would suffer no loss. ³Then this Daniel distinguished himself above the governors and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king gave thought to setting him over the whole realm. ⁴So the governors and satraps sought to find some charge against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find no charge or fault, because he was faithful; nor was there any error or fault found in him. ⁵Then these men said, "We shall not find any charge against this Daniel unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God."

⁶So these governors and satraps thronged before the king, and said thus to him: "King Darius, live forever! ⁷"All the governors of the kingdom, the administrators and satraps, the counselors and advisors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute and to make a firm decree, that whoever petitions any god or man for thirty days, except you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions. ⁸"Now, O king, establish the decree and sign the writing, so that it cannot be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter.”⁹Therefore King Darius signed the written decree.

Daniel in the Lions’ Den

¹⁰Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went home. And in his upper room, with his windows open toward Jerusalem, he knelt down on his knees three times that day, and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as was his custom since early days.

Decision Making: Choices Confirm or Compromise Values

Daniel 6:1-10

One day Daniel had to decide whether he would submit to an ungodly law, or stick with his convictions. He chose his life principles. He likely followed in the footsteps of other strong leaders of the Old Testament:

1. Weigh out the options in front of you.
2. Ask if those choices force you to compromise personal values.
3. Seek wise counsel.
4. Count the cost.
5. Decide based on principles.
6. Act on your decision swiftly and firmly.

Someone once said, “If you take so much time making a decision that it is too late to act, then you might as well have whittled a stick.” This happens too often among contemporary leaders. They desire to do right, but by waiting to survey the pulse of their people, they paralyze the organization. Some leaders are so indecisive, their favorite color is plaid. Daniel maintained a set of values and principles that enabled him to make decisions quickly and confidently.

¹¹Then these men assembled and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. ¹²And they went before the king, and spoke concerning the king's decree: "Have you not signed a decree that every man who petitions any god or man within thirty days, except you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?"

The king answered and said, "The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter."

¹³So they answered and said before the king, "That Daniel, who is one of the captives^a from Judah, does not show due regard for you, O king, or for the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day."

¹⁴And the king, when he heard these words, was greatly displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored till the going down of the sun to deliver him. ¹⁵Then these men approached the king, and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is the law of the Medes and Persians that no decree or statute which the king establishes may be changed."

¹⁶So the king gave the command, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions. But the king spoke, saying to Daniel, "Your God, whom you serve continually, He will deliver you." ¹⁷Then a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signets of his lords, that the purpose concerning Daniel might not be changed.

Daniel Saved from the Lions

¹⁸Now the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting; and no musicians^a were brought before him. Also his sleep went from him. ¹⁹Then the king arose very early in the morning and went in haste to the den of lions. ²⁰And when he came to the den, he cried out with a lamenting voice to Daniel. The king spoke, saying to Daniel, “Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?”

²¹Then Daniel said to the king, “O king, live forever! ²²“My God sent His angel and shut the lions’ mouths, so that they have not hurt me, because I was found innocent before Him; and also, O king, I have done no wrong before you.”

²³Now the king was exceedingly glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no injury whatever was found on him, because he believed in his God.

Darius Honors God

²⁴And the king gave the command, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions—they, their children, and their wives; and the lions overpowered them, and broke all their bones in pieces before they ever came to the bottom of the den.

²⁵Then King Darius wrote:

To all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth:

Peace be multiplied to you.

²⁶I make a decree that in every dominion of my kingdom men must tremble and fear before the God of Daniel.

For He is the living God,
And steadfast forever;
His kingdom is the one which shall not be destroyed,
And His dominion shall endure to the end.

²⁷He delivers and rescues,
And He works signs and wonders
In heaven and on earth,

Who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

²⁸So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Chapter 7

Vision of the Four Beasts

¹In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head while on his bed. Then he wrote down the dream, telling the main facts.^a ²Daniel spoke, saying, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the Great Sea. ³"And four great beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other. ⁴"The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings. I watched till its wings were plucked off; and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

⁵"And suddenly another beast, a second, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said thus to it: 'Arise, devour much flesh!'

⁶"After this I looked, and there was another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and dominion was given to it.

⁷"After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong. It had huge iron teeth; it was devouring, breaking in pieces, and trampling the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

⁸"I was considering the horns, and there was another horn, a little one, coming up among them, before whom three of the first horns were plucked out by the roots. And there, in this horn, were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking pompous words.

Vision of the Ancient of Days

⁹“I watched till thrones were put in place,
And the Ancient of Days was seated;
His garment was white as snow,
And the hair of His head was like pure wool.
His throne was a fiery flame,
Its wheels a burning fire;

¹⁰A fiery stream issued
And came forth from before Him.
A thousand thousands ministered to Him;
Ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him.
The court^a was seated,

And the books were opened.

¹¹“I watched then because of the sound of the pompous words which the horn was speaking; I watched till the beast was slain, and its body destroyed and given to the burning flame. ¹²“As for the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

¹³“I was watching in the night visions,

Daniel 7:1-12:13

God controls the future. Therefore, we should never plan without praying. If God isn't in our plans, we waste our time. At the same time, we should respond to the guidance God gives us. Once we get confirmation and peace from God, we should act accordingly. Obedience is a reflection of faith.

And behold, One like the Son of Man,
Coming with the clouds of heaven!
He came to the Ancient of Days,
And they brought Him near before Him.

¹⁴Then to Him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom,

That all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him.

His dominion is an everlasting dominion,
Which shall not pass away,
And His kingdom the one

Which shall not be destroyed.

Daniel's Visions Interpreted

¹⁵"I, Daniel, was grieved in my spirit within my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. ¹⁶"I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of these things: ¹⁷"Those great beasts, which are four, are four kings^a which arise out of the earth. ¹⁸"But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.'

¹⁹"Then I wished to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, with its teeth of iron and its nails of bronze, which devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled the residue with its feet; ²⁰"and the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, before which three fell, namely, that horn which had eyes and a mouth which spoke pompous words, whose appearance was greater than his fellows.

²¹"I was watching; and the same horn was making war against the saints, and prevailing against them, ²²"until the Ancient of Days came, and a judgment was made in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom.

²³"Thus he said:

'The fourth beast shall be
A fourth kingdom on earth,
Which shall be different from all other kingdoms,
And shall devour the whole earth,
Trample it and break it in pieces.

²⁴The ten horns are ten kings
Who shall arise from this kingdom.
And another shall rise after them;
He shall be different from the first ones,
And shall subdue three kings.

²⁵He shall speak pompous words against the Most High,

Shall persecute^a the saints of the Most High,
And shall intend to change times and law.
Then the saints shall be given into his hand

For a time and times and half a time.

²⁶‘But the court shall be seated,
And they shall take away his dominion,
To consume and destroy it forever.

²⁷Then the kingdom and dominion,
And the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole
heaven,
Shall be given to the people, the saints of the Most High.

His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,

And all dominions shall serve and obey Him.’

²⁸“This is the end of the account.^{a} As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly troubled me, and my countenance changed; but I kept the matter in my heart.”

Chapter 8

Vision of a Ram and a Goat

¹In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me—to me, Daniel—after the one that appeared to me the first time. ²I saw in the vision, and it so happened while I was looking, that I was in Shushan, the citadel, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision that I was by the River Ulai. ³Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and there, standing beside the river, was a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last. ⁴I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward, so that no animal could withstand him; nor was there any that could deliver from his hand, but he did according to his will and became great.

⁵And as I was considering, suddenly a male goat came from the west, across the surface of the whole earth, without touching the ground; and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. ⁶Then he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing beside the river, and ran at him with furious power. ⁷And I saw him confronting the ram; he was moved with rage against him, attacked the ram, and broke his two horns. There was no power in the ram to withstand him, but he cast him down to the ground and trampled him; and there was no one that could deliver the ram from his hand.

⁸Therefore the male goat grew very great; but when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in place of it four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven. ⁹And out of one of them came a little horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Glorious Land. ¹⁰And it grew up to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them. ¹¹He even exalted himself as high as the Prince of the host; and by him the daily sacrifices were taken away, and the place of His sanctuary was cast down. ¹²Because of transgression, an army was given over to the horn to oppose the daily sacrifices; and he cast truth down to the ground. He did all this and prospered.

¹³Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who was speaking, "How long will the vision be, concerning the daily sacrifices and the transgression of desolation, the giving of both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled underfoot?"

¹⁴And he said to me, "For two thousand three hundred days; a then the sanctuary shall be cleansed."

Gabriel Interprets the Vision

¹⁵Then it happened, when I, Daniel, had seen the vision and was seeking the meaning, that suddenly there stood before me one having the appearance of a man. ¹⁶And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, who called, and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision." ¹⁷So he came near where I stood, and when he came I was afraid and fell on my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision refers to the time of the end."

¹⁸Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep with my face to the ground; but he touched me, and stood me upright. ¹⁹And he said, "Look, I am making known to you what shall happen in the latter time of the indignation; for at the appointed time the end shall be. ²⁰"The ram which you saw, having the two horns—they are the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹"And the male goat is the kingdom^a of Greece. The large horn that is between its eyes is the first king. ²²"As for the broken horn and the four that stood up in its place, four kingdoms shall arise out of that nation, but not with its power.

²³"And in the latter time of their kingdom,
When the transgressors have reached their fullness,
A king shall arise,
Having fierce features,
Who understands sinister schemes.

²⁴His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power;

He shall destroy fearfully,
And shall prosper and thrive;

He shall destroy the mighty, and also the holy people.

²⁵"Through his cunning
He shall cause deceit to prosper under his rule;^a
And he shall exalt himself in his heart.
He shall destroy many in their prosperity.
He shall even rise against the Prince of princes;

But he shall be broken without human means.^b

²⁶"And the vision of the evenings and mornings

Which was told is true;
Therefore seal up the vision,

For it refers to many days in the future.”

²⁷And I, Daniel, fainted and was sick for days; afterward I arose and went about the king’s business. I was astonished by the vision, but no one understood it.

PROFILE in Leadership

DANIEL

A Man Who Sought Understanding

Daniel 8:15, 17, 27

The prophet Daniel, like any godly leader, craved insight from the Lord. But Daniel wanted more than to receive a vision from God; he wanted God to explain the vision. The Lord obliged, but also showed Daniel the price attached to such a privilege.

Do you realize the cost of receiving a genuine vision from the Lord? After Daniel received this prophecy, he fainted, lay sick in bed for days, felt great astonishment over what he had seen, yet still didn’t fully understand it (Dan. 8:27). And during the vision itself, he felt great fear (8:17). It is no trifling matter to receive a genuine word from God!

By the time of this vision, Daniel was an old man. He had served three pagan kings and had accumulated enormous experience. He constantly studied the Scripture. Yet he realized he still had to work to gain an accurate understanding of what God told him. After he received this vision, he tells us that he was “seeking the meaning” (8:15).

It is not enough for leaders to know the Word of God or to know the prophecies contained in that Word. They must seek to understand how that Word applies to them and to their followers. And they must never take for granted the enormous privilege of communicating the revelation of God.

Chapter 9

Daniel's Prayer for the People

¹In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the lineage of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans— ²in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years specified by the word of the LORD through Jeremiah the prophet, that He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

³Then I set my face toward the Lord God to make request by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes. ⁴And I prayed to the LORD my God, and made confession, and said, "O Lord, great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant and mercy with those who love Him, and with those who keep His commandments, ⁵"we have sinned and committed iniquity, we have done wickedly and rebelled, even by departing from Your precepts and Your judgments. ⁶"Neither have we heeded Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings and our princes, to our fathers and all the people of the land. ⁷"O Lord, righteousness belongs to You, but to us shame of face, as it is this day—to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and all Israel, those near and those far off in all the countries to which You have driven them, because of the unfaithfulness which they have committed against You.

⁸“O Lord, to us belongs shame of face, to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, because we have sinned against You. ⁹“To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against Him. ¹⁰“We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His laws, which He set before us by His servants the prophets. ¹¹“Yes, all Israel has transgressed Your law, and has departed so as not to obey Your voice; therefore the curse and the oath written in the Law of Moses the servant of God have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against Him. ¹²“And He has confirmed His words, which He spoke against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great disaster; for under the whole heaven such has never been done as what has been done to Jerusalem.

¹³“As it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us; yet we have not made our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities and understand Your truth. ¹⁴“Therefore the LORD has kept the disaster in mind, and brought it upon us; for the LORD our God is righteous in all the works which He does, though we have not obeyed His voice. ¹⁵“And now, O Lord our God, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and made Yourself a name, as it is this day—we have sinned, we have done wickedly!

¹⁶“O Lord, according to all Your righteousness, I pray, let Your anger and Your fury be turned away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people are a reproach to all those around us. ¹⁷“Now therefore, our God, hear the prayer of Your servant, and his supplications, and for the Lord’s sake cause Your face to shine on Your sanctuary, which is desolate. ¹⁸“O my God, incline Your ear and hear; open Your eyes and see our desolations, and the city which is called by Your name; for we do not present our supplications before You because of our righteous deeds, but because of Your great mercies.

¹⁹“O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and act! Do not delay for Your own sake, my God, for Your city and Your people are called by Your name.”

The Seventy-Weeks Prophecy

²⁰Now while I was speaking, praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God, ²¹yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, reached me about the time of the evening offering. ²²And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, “O Daniel, I have now come forth to give you skill to understand. ²³“At the beginning of your supplications the command went out, and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly beloved; therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision:

²⁴“Seventy weeks^a are determined
For your people and for your holy city,
To finish the transgression,
To make an end of^b sins,
To make reconciliation for iniquity,
To bring in everlasting righteousness,
To seal up vision and prophecy,

And to anoint the Most Holy.

²⁵“Know therefore and understand,
That from the going forth of the command

To restore and build Jerusalem
Until Messiah the Prince,
There shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks;
The street^a shall be built again, and the wall,^b

Even in troublesome times.

²⁶“And after the sixty-two weeks
Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself;
And the people of the prince who is to come
Shall destroy the city and the sanctuary.
The end of it shall be with a flood,
And till the end of the war desolations are determined.

²⁷Then he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week;

But in the middle of the week
He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering.
And on the wing of abominations shall be one who makes desolate,

Even until the consummation, which is determined,

Is poured out on the desolate.”

Chapter 10

Vision of the Glorious Man

¹In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar. The message was true, but the appointed time was long;^a and he understood the message, and had understanding of the vision. ²In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three full weeks. ³I ate no pleasant food, no meat or wine came into my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

⁴Now on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, that is, the Tigris,^a ⁵I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, a certain man clothed in linen, whose waist was girded with gold of Uphaz! ⁶His body was like beryl, his face like the appearance of lightning, his eyes like torches of fire, his arms and feet like burnished bronze in color, and the sound of his words like the voice of a multitude.

⁷And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great terror fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. ⁸Therefore I was left alone when I saw this great vision, and no strength remained in me; for my vigor was turned to frailty in me, and I retained no strength. ⁹Yet I heard the sound of his words; and while I heard the sound of his words I was in a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground.

Prophecies Concerning Persia and Greece

¹⁰Suddenly, a hand touched me, which made me tremble on my knees and on the palms of my hands. ¹¹And he said to me, “O Daniel, man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you.” While he was speaking this word to me, I stood trembling.

¹²Then he said to me, “Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard; and I have come because of your words. ¹³“But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; and behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left alone there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴“Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days, for the vision refers to many days yet to come.”

¹⁵When he had spoken such words to me, I turned my face toward the ground and became speechless. ¹⁶And suddenly, one having the likeness of the sons^a of men touched my lips; then I opened my mouth and spoke, saying to him who stood before me, “My lord, because of the vision my sorrows have overwhelmed me, and I have retained no strength. ¹⁷“For how can this servant of my lord talk with you, my lord? As for me, no strength remains in me now, nor is any breath left in me.”

¹⁸Then again, the one having the likeness of a man touched me and strengthened me. ¹⁹And he said, “O man greatly beloved, fear not! Peace be to you; be strong, yes, be strong!”

So when he spoke to me I was strengthened, and said, “Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.” ²⁰Then he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? And now I must return to fight with the prince of Persia; and when I have gone forth, indeed the prince of Greece will come. ²¹“But I will tell you what is noted in the Scripture of Truth. (No one upholds me against these, except Michael your prince.

Spiritual Leaders Lead God’s Family and God’s Army

Daniel 10:1-21

The vision Daniel receives in chapter 10 presents him with a deeper challenge than any in his past. He now learns he is engaged in spiritual warfare. In his dialogue with an angel, Daniel learns some important lessons every leader ought to master:

1. Spiritual leaders lead not only God’s family, but God’s army (vv. 10-21).
2. Prayer ignites spiritual warfare invisible to us (vv. 10-12).
3. Both spiritual kingdoms seem to have princes (v. 13).
4. Spiritual warfare can delay victories (vv. 13, 14).
5. We must not fear spiritual warfare (vv. 18, 19).

6. Understanding warfare enables us to cooperate with God's purposes (vv. 20, 21).

As you seek to lead in a more strategic way, recognize that you will encounter struggles beyond mere human opposition. You must wisely face an invisible, spiritual world around you. You need both prayer and persistence.

Chapter 11

¹“Also in the first year of Darius the Mede, I, even I, stood up to confirm and strengthen him.) ²“And now I will tell you the truth: Behold, three more kings will arise in Persia, and the fourth shall be far richer than them all; by his strength, through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece. ³“Then a mighty king shall arise, who shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. ⁴“And when he has arisen, his kingdom shall be broken up and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not among his posterity nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be uprooted, even for others besides these.

Warring Kings of North and South

⁵“Also the king of the South shall become strong, as well as one of his princes; and he shall gain power over him and have dominion. His dominion shall be a great dominion. ⁶“And at the end of some years they shall join forces, for the daughter of the king of the South shall go to the king of the North to make an agreement; but she shall not retain the power of her authority,^a and neither he nor his authority^b shall stand; but she shall be given up, with those who brought her, and with him who begot her, and with him who strengthened her in those times. ⁷“But from a branch of her roots one shall arise in his place, who shall come with an army, enter the fortress of the king of the North, and deal with them and prevail. ⁸“And he shall also carry their gods captive to Egypt, with their princes^a and their precious articles of silver and gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the North.

⁹“Also the king of the North shall come to the kingdom of the king of the South, but shall return to his own land.

¹⁰“However his sons shall stir up strife, and assemble a multitude of great forces; and one shall certainly come and overwhelm and pass through; then he shall return to his fortress and stir up strife.

¹¹“And the king of the South shall be moved with rage, and go out and fight with him, with the king of the North, who shall muster a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into the hand of his enemy. ¹²“When he has taken away the multitude, his heart will be lifted up; and he will cast down tens of thousands, but he will not prevail. ¹³“For the king of the North will return and muster a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come at the end of some years with a great army and much equipment.

¹⁴“Now in those times many shall rise up against the king of the South. Also, violent men^a of your people shall exalt themselves in fulfillment of the vision, but they shall fall. ¹⁵“So the king of the North shall come and build a siege mound, and take a fortified city; and the forces^a of the South shall not withstand him. Even his choice troops shall have no strength to resist. ¹⁶“But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and no one shall stand against him. He shall stand in the Glorious Land with destruction in his power.^a

¹⁷“He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones^a with him; thus shall he do. And he shall give him the daughter of women to destroy it; but she shall not stand with him, or be for him. ¹⁸“After this he shall turn his face to the coastlands, and shall take many. But a ruler shall bring the reproach against them to an end; and with the reproach removed, he shall turn back on him. ¹⁹“Then he shall turn his face toward the fortress of his own land; but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

²⁰“There shall arise in his place one who imposes taxes on the glorious kingdom; but within a few days he shall be destroyed, but not in anger or in battle. ²¹“And in his place shall arise a vile person, to whom they will not give the honor of royalty; but he shall come in peaceably, and seize the kingdom by intrigue. ²²“With the force^a of a flood they shall be swept away from before him and be broken, and also the prince of the covenant. ²³“And after the league is made with him he shall act deceitfully, for he shall come up and become strong with a small number of people. ²⁴“He shall enter peaceably, even into the richest places of the province; and he shall do what his fathers have not done, nor his forefathers: he shall disperse among them the plunder, spoil, and riches; and he shall devise his plans against the strongholds, but only for a time.

²⁵“He shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South with a great army. And the king of the South shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand, for they shall devise plans against him. ²⁶“Yes, those who eat of the portion of his delicacies shall destroy him; his army shall be swept away, and many shall fall down slain. ²⁷“Both these kings’ hearts shall be bent on evil, and they shall speak lies at the same table; but it shall not prosper, for the end will still be at the appointed time. ²⁸“While returning to his land with great riches, his heart shall be moved against the holy covenant; so he shall do damage and return to his own land.

The Northern King's Blasphemies

²⁹“At the appointed time he shall return and go toward the south; but it shall not be like the former or the latter. ³⁰“For ships from Cyprus^a shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return in rage against the holy covenant, and do damage.

So he shall return and show regard for those who forsake the holy covenant. ³¹“And forces^a shall be mustered by him, and they shall defile the sanctuary fortress; then they shall take away the daily sacrifices, and place there the abomination of desolation. ³²“Those who do wickedly against the covenant he shall corrupt with flattery; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits. ³³“And those of the people who understand shall instruct many; yet for many days they shall fall by sword and flame, by captivity and plundering. ³⁴“Now when they fall, they shall be aided with a little help; but many shall join with them by intrigue. ³⁵“And some of those of understanding shall fall, to refine them, purify them, and make them white, until the time of the end; because it is still for the appointed time.

³⁶“Then the king shall do according to his own will: he shall exalt and magnify himself above every god, shall speak blasphemies against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the wrath has been accomplished; for what has been determined shall be done. ³⁷“He shall regard neither the God^a of his fathers nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he shall exalt himself above them all. ³⁸“But in their place he shall honor a god of fortresses; and a god which his fathers did not know he shall honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and pleasant things. ³⁹“Thus he shall act against the strongest fortresses with a foreign god, which he shall acknowledge, and advance its glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and divide the land for gain.

The Northern King's Conquests

⁴⁰“At the time of the end the king of the South shall attack him; and the king of the North shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter the countries, overwhelm them, and pass through. ⁴¹“He shall also enter the Glorious Land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the prominent people of Ammon. ⁴²“He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. ⁴³“He shall have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; also the Libyans and Ethiopians shall follow at his heels. ⁴⁴“But news from the east and the north shall trouble him; therefore he shall go out with great fury to destroy and annihilate many. ⁴⁵“And he shall plant the tents of his palace between the seas and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and no one will help him.

Chapter 12

Prophecy of the End Time

The great prince who stands watch over the sons of your people;

And there shall be a time of trouble,
Such as never was since there was a nation,
Even to that time.

And at that time your people shall be delivered,
Every one who is found written in the book.

²And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake,

Some to everlasting life,
Some to shame and everlasting contempt.

³Those who are wise shall shine
Like the brightness of the firmament,
And those who turn many to righteousness

Like the stars forever and ever.

⁴“But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book until the time of the end; many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase.”

⁵Then I, Daniel, looked; and there stood two others, one on this riverbank and the other on that riverbank. ⁶And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long shall the fulfillment of these wonders be?”

⁷Then I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by Him who lives forever, that it shall be for a time, times, and half a time; and when the power of the holy people has been completely shattered, all these things shall be finished.

⁸Although I heard, I did not understand. Then I said, "My lord, what shall be the end of these things?"

⁹And he said, "Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. ¹⁰"Many shall be purified, made white, and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand.

¹¹"And from the time that the daily sacrifice is taken away, and the abomination of desolation is set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred and ninety days.

¹²"Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred and thirtyfive days.

¹³"But you, go your way till the end; for you shall rest, and will arise to your inheritance at the end of the days."

The Book of Hosea

Introduction to Hosea

Hosea, the first of the “minor prophets,” led and prophesied in Israel during a season of material wealth but spiritual poverty. Because of this, God called him to do something very costly. In order to send a memorable message to the people of Israel, Hosea was to marry a harlot—thus giving the people a visual demonstration of their unfaithfulness to Yahweh. Hosea’s words were to help the people feel the grief of God, who responded to their rebellion like a husband with an adulterous wife. In the same way Gomer had betrayed Hosea, Israel had betrayed God.

Hosea vividly illustrates the Law of Sacrifice. In order to fulfill his divine calling, he had to pay a huge price. At his own expense, he married Gomer and watched her drift from her marriage time and again. We can only imagine his pain, called to live with her lies and deception, having to explain to his children that their mother would not be home that night, then watching her public humiliation as evil men auctioned off her body for the carnal delight of strangers. Certainly, when Hosea spoke to the Israelites about their spiritual state, he could do it with empathy and passion. He knew firsthand how God felt about the spiritual adultery of His chosen people.

Leadership really is about sacrifice. Many of us want the perks of leadership without the price of leadership. Yet becoming a leader isn't about gaining rights; it's about giving them up. Leaders in the business world often err in thinking that becoming a C.E.O. means more liberties with the budget, more options with their time, and more freedom with their lifestyle. From God's perspective, leadership means quite the opposite. Leaders relinquish options and remain careful to do all things for the sake of the gospel (1 Cor. 9:19-23).

Leading people is also about more than words; it really is a lifestyle. We cannot separate our communication from our conduct. To speak with the kind of credibility and emotion he did, Hosea had to live what God was living. Hollow leadership results when we do not incarnate the values we want others to embrace. Hypocrisy replaces integrity. No one wants to follow this kind of leader. = e way we talk, the way we lead, and the way we live should mesh. Just ask Hosea.

A Visual Demonstration of Israel's Unfaithfulness to God

God's Role in Hosea

God reveals Himself in this book as both a forgiving Lord and a holy Judge who requires repentance on the part of His erring people. Because He endured an adulterous bride in Israel, He called Hosea to imitate His situation—then to speak to the people about His forgiveness and judgment. God led His leader, Hosea, in an experience he would never forget. Hosea got to step into God's shoes for a season and feel what He felt. Through Hosea, God communicated both His unconditional love and His unchanging law.

Lessons in Leadership

- Leaders must maintain poise even in the midst of unfair demands.
- The simple game plan is the best when restoring or rebuilding.
- Followers in volatile situations need consistency from leaders.
- Leaders must lead from established values and standards.
- Regardless of what the people do, leaders must model what is right.
- Effective leaders never lose sight of the big picture.

Chapter 1

¹The word of the LORD that came to Hosea the son of Beer, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

The Family of Hosea

²When the LORD began to speak by Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea:

The Law of Sacrifice: Hosea Marries a Harlot to Teach the Truth

Hosea 1:2

Can you imagine what Hosea must have felt when God asked him to propose to a prostitute? The Lord instructed him to marry Gomer, a harlot, in order to illustrate the spiritual adultery Israel had committed against God. The Hebrews had been unfaithful to God and pursued other gods, just as a harlot joins herself to several men. What a request!

Leadership is about sacrifice. It means giving up personal options in order to guide the people to where they need to go. Hosea made several sacrifices in his leadership:

1. He was asked to marry a prostitute.
2. He was asked to lead in a time of rebellion.
3. He was given a very unpopular message.
4. He was told to have children despite an absentee wife.
5. He was committed to remain poised under harsh demands.
6. He was instructed to live faithfully and consistently in a volatile situation.

Leaders lose their right to selfishness. They must take into account the lives of others when making decisions. They must say what the people need to hear, not merely what they want to hear. They must guide the people to where they ought to go, not necessarily where they desire to go. Could this explain why we have so few good leaders?

“Go, take yourself a wife of harlotry
And children of harlotry,
For the land has committed great harlotry

By departing from the LORD.”

³So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son. ⁴Then the LORD said to him:

“Call his name Jezreel,
For in a little while
I will avenge the bloodshed of Jezreel on the house of Jehu,
And bring an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

⁵It shall come to pass in that day

That I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel.”

⁶And she conceived again and bore a daughter. Then God said to him:

“Call her name Lo-Ruhamah,^a

For I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel,

But I will utterly take them away.^b

⁷Yet I will have mercy on the house of Judah,
Will save them by the LORD their God,
And will not save them by bow,
Nor by sword or battle,

By horses or horsemen.”

⁸Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. ⁹Then God said:

“Call his name Lo-Ammi,^a

For you are not My people,

And I will not be your God.

The Restoration of Israel

¹⁰“Yet the number of the children of Israel
Shall be as the sand of the sea,
Which cannot be measured or numbered.
And it shall come to pass
In the place where it was said to them,
‘You are not My people,’^a

There it shall be said to them,
'You are sons of the living God.'

¹¹Then the children of Judah and the children of Israel

Shall be gathered together,
And appoint for themselves one head;
And they shall come up out of the land,

For great will be the day of Jezreel!

Chapter 2

¹Say to your brethren, 'My people,'^a

And to your sisters, 'Mercy^b is shown.'

God's Unfaithful People

²"Bring charges against your mother, bring charges;
For she is not My wife, nor am I her Husband!
Let her put away her harlotries from her sight,
And her adulteries from between her breasts;

³Lest I strip her naked
And expose her, as in the day she was born,
And make her like a wilderness,
And set her like a dry land,

And slay her with thirst.

⁴"I will not have mercy on her children,
For they are the children of harlotry.

⁵For their mother has played the harlot;
She who conceived them has behaved shamefully.
For she said, 'I will go after my lovers,
Who give me my bread and my water,
My wool and my linen,

My oil and my drink.'

⁶"Therefore, behold,

I will hedge up your way with thorns,
And wall her in,
So that she cannot find her paths.
⁷She will chase her lovers,
But not overtake them;
Yes, she will seek them, but not find them.
Then she will say,
'I will go and return to my first husband,
For then it was better for me than now.'
⁸For she did not know
That I gave her grain, new wine, and oil,
And multiplied her silver and gold—

Which they prepared for Baal.

⁹"Therefore I will return and take away
My grain in its time
And My new wine in its season,
And will take back My wool and My linen,
Given to cover her nakedness.

¹⁰Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers,

And no one shall deliver her from My hand.

¹¹I will also cause all her mirth to cease,
Her feast days,
Her New Moons,
Her Sabbaths—

All her appointed feasts.

¹²"And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees,
Of which she has said,
'These are my wages that my lovers have given me.'
So I will make them a forest,
And the beasts of the field shall eat them.

¹³I will punish her

For the days of the Baals to which she burned incense.

She decked herself with her earrings and jewelry,
And went after her lovers;

But Me she forgot," says the LORD.

God's Mercy on His People

¹⁴"Therefore, behold, I will allure her,
Will bring her into the wilderness,
And speak comfort to her.

¹⁵I will give her her vineyards from there,
And the Valley of Achor as a door of hope;
She shall sing there,
As in the days of her youth,

As in the day when she came up from the land of Egypt.

¹⁶"And it shall be, in that day,"
Says the LORD,
"That you will call Me 'My Husband,'^a
And no longer call Me 'My Master,'^b

¹⁷For I will take from her mouth the names of the Baals,

And they shall be remembered by their name no more.

¹⁸In that day I will make a covenant for them
With the beasts of the field,
With the birds of the air,
And with the creeping things of the ground.
Bow and sword of battle I will shatter from the earth,

To make them lie down safely.

¹⁹“I will betroth you to Me forever;

Yes, I will betroth you to Me

In righteousness and justice,

In lovingkindness and mercy;

²⁰I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness,

And you shall know the LORD.

²¹“It shall come to pass in that day

That I will answer,” says the LORD;

“I will answer the heavens,

And they shall answer the earth.

²²The earth shall answer

With grain,

With new wine,

And with oil;

They shall answer Jezreel.^a

²³Then I will sow her for Myself in the earth,

And I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy;^a

Then I will say to those who were not My people,^b

‘You are My people!’

And they shall say, ‘You are my God!’ ”

Chapter 3

Israel Will Return to God

¹Then the LORD said to me, “Go again, love a woman who is loved by a lover^a and is committing adultery, just like the love of the LORD for the children of Israel, who look to other gods and love the raisin cakes of the pagans.”

The Law of Empowerment: Hosea Loves by Decision, Not Reaction

Hosea 3:1

In Hosea 3 the prophet receives one profound command. He is told to go and reconcile with his wife, who remains in an adulterous relationship. He is told to act, not react. He is to love Gomer rather than take revenge.

God calls leaders to live on a higher level than followers. We are called to respond as God did to Israel. Although Israel had committed falsehood (Hos. 4:1), harlotry (4:11), murder (5:2), robbery (7:1), and oppression (12:7), along with repeated spiritual adultery, God continued to guide and empower His people.

In the final chapter, the prophet pleads with Israel to return to the Lord (14:1), that they might be graciously received, restored, and healed (14:2-4). Leaders can do this only when they live and lead from principle rather than from reaction.

²So I bought her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver, and one and one-half homers of barley. ³And I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days; you shall not play the harlot, nor shall you have a man—so, too, will I be toward you."

⁴For the children of Israel shall abide many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, without ephod or teraphim. ⁵Afterward the children of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They shall fear the LORD and His goodness in the latter days.

PROFILE in Leadership

HOSEA

The Cost of Leadership

Hosea 1:1-3:5

It can be painful to read the story of Hosea. Out of obedience to God, the prophet marries the prostitute Gomer, who refuses to change her ways for her husband or for their children. Still, Hosea tries to bring his wife back, to redeem her from the sordid life to which she so stubbornly clings.

From the human perspective, it is easy to wonder why Hosea continues to punish himself this way. Why would a man subject himself to the kind of heartache he must have felt in trying to make a faithful wife out of a prostitute? Why wouldn't he just "cut his losses" and rid himself of this wicked woman?

The quick answer is that Hosea's life did not belong to him alone. Like us, he had given his heart and soul to God. In Paul's words, "You are not your own... you were bought at a price" (1 Cor. 6:19, 20). Hosea realized that God had called him to become a living metaphor of the love of God for His people—and he obeyed, regardless of the personal cost.

Hosea illustrates the heartaches that may come from following the call of God. As leaders, we continue to pray for and minister to those who have strayed from the Lord—even when it hurts—knowing that God did the same for us.

Chapter 4

God's Charge Against Israel

¹Hear the word of the LORD,
You children of Israel,

For the LORD brings a charge against the inhabitants of the land:

“There is no truth or mercy
Or knowledge of God in the land.

²*By* swearing and lying,
Killing and stealing and committing adultery,
They break all restraint,
With bloodshed upon bloodshed.

³Therefore the land will mourn;
And everyone who dwells there will waste away
With the beasts of the field
And the birds of the air;

Even the fish of the sea will be taken away.

⁴“Now let no man contend, or rebuke another;
For your people are like those who contend with the priest.

⁵Therefore you shall stumble in the day;
The prophet also shall stumble with you in the night;
And I will destroy your mother.

⁶My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.

Because you have rejected knowledge,
I also will reject you from being priest for Me;
Because you have forgotten the law of your God,

I also will forget your children.

⁷“The more they increased,
The more they sinned against Me;
I will change^a their glory^b into shame.

⁸They eat up the sin of My people;
They set their heart on their iniquity.

⁹And it shall be: like people, like priest.
So I will punish them for their ways,
And reward them for their deeds.

¹⁰For they shall eat, but not have enough;
They shall commit harlotry, but not increase;

Because they have ceased obeying the LORD.

The Idolatry of Israel

¹¹“Harlotry, wine, and new wine enslave the heart.

¹²My people ask counsel from their wooden idols,
And their staff informs them.

For the spirit of harlotry has caused them to stray,
And they have played the harlot against their God.

¹³They offer sacrifices on the mountaintops,
And burn incense on the hills,
Under oaks, poplars, and terebinths,
Because their shade is good.

Therefore your daughters commit harlotry,

And your brides commit adultery.

¹⁴“I will not punish your daughters when they commit harlotry,
Nor your brides when they commit adultery;
For the men themselves go apart with harlots,
And offer sacrifices with a ritual harlot.^a

Therefore people who do not understand will be trampled.

¹⁵“Though you, Israel, play the harlot,
Let not Judah offend.
Do not come up to Gilgal,
Nor go up to Beth Aven,

Nor swear an oath, saying, ‘As the LORD lives’—

¹⁶“For Israel is stubborn
Like a stubborn calf;
Now the LORD will let them forage

Like a lamb in open country.

¹⁷“Ephraim is joined to idols,
Let him alone.

¹⁸Their drink is rebellion,
They commit harlotry continually.
Her rulers dearly^a love dishonor.

¹⁹The wind has wrapped her up in its wings,

And they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

Chapter 5

Impending Judgment on Israel and Judah

Take heed, O house of Israel!
Give ear, O house of the king!
For yours is the judgment,
Because you have been a snare to Mizpah
And a net spread on Tabor.

²The revoltors are deeply involved in slaughter,
Though I rebuke them all.

³I know Ephraim,
And Israel is not hidden from Me;
For now, O Ephraim, you commit harlotry;

Israel is defiled.

⁴“They do not direct their deeds
Toward turning to their God,
For the spirit of harlotry is in their midst,
And they do not know the LORD.

⁵The pride of Israel testifies to his face;
Therefore Israel and Ephraim stumble in their
iniquity;

Judah also stumbles with them.

⁶“With their flocks and herds
They shall go to seek the LORD,
But they will not find Him;
He has withdrawn Himself from them.
⁷They have dealt treacherously with the LORD,
For they have begotten pagan children.

Now a New Moon shall devour them and their heritage.

⁸“Blow the ram’s horn in Gibeah,
The trumpet in Ramah!
Cry aloud at Beth Aven,
‘Look behind you, O Benjamin!’
⁹Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke;

Among the tribes of Israel I make known what is sure.

¹⁰“The princes of Judah are like those who remove a landmark;

The Law of Solid Ground: Leaders Who Move Boundaries

Hosea 5:10

Boundary stones were to be fixed and so bring definition to a plot of land. Israel’s leaders moved what never should have been moved; they compromised values. Leaders who cannot be trusted with basic integrity will surely suffer God’s anger. Every organization needs boundary stones. Leaders must establish and keep them.

I will pour out My wrath on them like water.

¹¹Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment,
Because he willingly walked by human precept.

¹²Therefore I will be to Ephraim like a moth,

And to the house of Judah like rottenness.

¹³“When Ephraim saw his sickness,

And Judah saw his wound,

Then Ephraim went to Assyria

And sent to King Jareb;

Yet he cannot cure you,

Nor heal you of your wound.

¹⁴For I will be like a lion to Ephraim,

And like a young lion to the house of Judah.

I, even I, will tear them and go away;

I will take them away, and no one shall rescue.

¹⁵I will return again to My place

Till they acknowledge their offense.

Then they will seek My face;

In their affliction they will earnestly seek Me.”

Chapter 6

A Call to Repentance

¹Come, and let us return to the LORD;
For He has torn, but He will heal us;
He has stricken, but He will bind us up.

²After two days He will revive us;
On the third day He will raise us up,
That we may live in His sight.

³Let us know,
Let us pursue the knowledge of the LORD.
His going forth is established as the morning;
He will come to us like the rain,

Like the latter and former rain to the earth.

Impenitence of Israel and Judah

⁴“O Ephraim, what shall I do to you?
O Judah, what shall I do to you?
For your faithfulness is like a morning cloud,
And like the early dew it goes away.

⁵Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets,
I have slain them by the words of My mouth;
And your judgments are like light that goes forth.

⁶For I desire mercy and not sacrifice,

And the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

⁷“But like men^a they transgressed the covenant;
There they dealt treacherously with Me.

⁸Gilead is a city of evildoers
And defiled with blood.

⁹As bands of robbers lie in wait for a man,
So the company of priests murder on the way to Shechem;

Surely they commit lewdness.

¹⁰I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel:
There is the harlotry of Ephraim;
Israel is defiled.

¹¹Also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed for you,

When I return the captives of My people.

Chapter 7

¹“When I would have healed Israel,
Then the iniquity of Ephraim was uncovered,
And the wickedness of Samaria.
For they have committed fraud;
A thief comes in;
A band of robbers takes spoil outside.

²They do not consider in their hearts
That I remember all their wickedness;
Now their own deeds have surrounded them;
They are before My face.

³They make a king glad with their wickedness,

And princes with their lies.

⁴“They are all adulterers.
Like an oven heated by a baker—
He ceases stirring the fire after kneading the dough,
Until it is leavened.

⁵In the day of our king
Princes have made him sick, inflamed with wine;
He stretched out his hand with scoffers.

⁶They prepare their heart like an oven,
While they lie in wait;
Their baker^a sleeps all night;
In the morning it burns like a flaming fire.

⁷They are all hot, like an oven,
And have devoured their judges;
All their kings have fallen.

None among them calls upon Me.

⁸“Ephraim has mixed himself among the peoples;
Ephraim is a cake unturned.

⁹Aliens have devoured his strength,
But he does not know it;
Yes, gray hairs are here and there on him,
Yet he does not know it.

¹⁰And the pride of Israel testifies to his face,
But they do not return to the LORD their God,

Nor seek Him for all this.

Futile Reliance on the Nations

¹¹“Ephraim also is like a silly dove, without sense—
They call to Egypt,
They go to Assyria.

¹²Wherever they go, I will spread My net on them;
I will bring them down like birds of the air;
I will chastise them

According to what their congregation has heard.

¹³“Woe to them, for they have fled from Me!
Destruction to them,
Because they have transgressed against Me!
Though I redeemed them,
Yet they have spoken lies against Me.

¹⁴They did not cry out to Me with their heart

When they wailed upon their beds.

“They assemble together for ^a grain and new wine,
They rebel against Me;^b

¹⁵Though I disciplined and strengthened their arms,
Yet they devise evil against Me;
¹⁶They return, but not to the Most High;^a

The Art of Confrontation

Hosea 6:1-7:16

Hosea is not above speaking words of confrontation. He uses vivid imagery and colorful images to describe the evil behavior of his people. Look at his train of thought:

1. He clarifies the desired relationship he wishes to have (6:1-3).
2. He defines the unacceptable behavior (6:4, 5).
3. He highlights his values and priorities (6:6).
4. He lists the conduct that illustrates his point (7:1-14).
5. He reminds the people of their training (7:15).
6. He declares the consequences (7:16).

For six more chapters Hosea continues to detail the people's unacceptable conduct. Then, in chapter 14, he offers words of restoration. All good confrontation ends in the hope of restoration. The goal is always reconciliation, not excommunication.

When team members drift from goals, leaders owe it to them and to the organization to confront or clarify the situation. This is the only way to stay on track and to maintain respect from the team. Hosea has written the book on it!

They are like a treacherous bow.

Their princes shall fall by the sword
For the cursings of their tongue.

This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

Chapter 8

The Apostasy of Israel

¹“Set the trumpet^a to your mouth!
He shall come like an eagle against the house of the
LORD,

Because they have transgressed My covenant
And rebelled against My law.

²Israel will cry to Me,
‘My God, we know You!’

³Israel has rejected the good;

The enemy will pursue him.

⁴“They set up kings, but not by Me;
They made princes, but I did not acknowledge them.
From their silver and gold
They made idols for themselves—
That they might be cut off.

⁵Your calf is rejected, O Samaria!
My anger is aroused against them—
How long until they attain to innocence?

⁶For from Israel is even this:
A workman made it, and it is not God;

But the calf of Samaria shall be broken to pieces.

⁷“They sow the wind,

And reap the whirlwind.
The stalk has no bud;
It shall never produce meal.
If it should produce,
Aliens would swallow it up.
⁸Israel is swallowed up;
Now they are among the Gentiles
Like a vessel in which is no pleasure.
⁹For they have gone up to Assyria,
Like a wild donkey alone by itself;
Ephraim has hired lovers.
¹⁰Yes, though they have hired among the nations,
Now I will gather them;
And they shall sorrow a little,^a

Because of the burden^b of the king of princes.

¹¹“Because Ephraim has made many altars for sin,
They have become for him altars for sinning.

¹²I have written for him the great things of My law,
But they were considered a strange thing.

¹³*For* the sacrifices of My offerings they sacrifice flesh and eat it,

But the LORD does not accept them.

Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sins.

They shall return to Egypt.

¹⁴“For Israel has forgotten his Maker,
And has built temples;^a
Judah also has multiplied fortified cities;
But I will send fire upon his cities,

And it shall devour his palaces.”

Chapter 9

Judgment of Israel's Sin

¹Do not rejoice, O Israel, with joy like other peoples,
For you have played the harlot against your God.
You have made love for hire on every threshing floor.

²The threshing floor and the winepress
Shall not feed them,

And the new wine shall fail in her.

³They shall not dwell in the LORD's land,
But Ephraim shall return to Egypt,
And shall eat unclean things in Assyria.

⁴They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD,
Nor shall their sacrifices be pleasing to Him.
It shall be like bread of mourners to them;
All who eat it shall be defiled.
For their bread shall be for their own life;

It shall not come into the house of the LORD.

⁵What will you do in the appointed day,
And in the day of the feast of the LORD?

⁶For indeed they are gone because of destruction.
Egypt shall gather them up;
Memphis shall bury them.
Nettles shall possess their valuables of silver;

Thorns shall be in their tents.

⁷The days of punishment have come;
The days of recompense have come.
Israel knows!
The prophet is a fool,
The spiritual man is insane,
Because of the greatness of your iniquity and great enmity.

⁸The watchman of Ephraim is with my God;
But the prophet is a fowler's ^asnare in all his ways—
Enmity in the house of his God.

⁹They are deeply corrupted,
As in the days of Gibeah.
He will remember their iniquity;

He will punish their sins.

¹⁰"I found Israel
Like grapes in the wilderness;
I saw your fathers
As the firstfruits on the fig tree in its first season.
But they went to Baal Peor,
And separated themselves to that shame;
They became an abomination like the thing they loved.

¹¹*As for* Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird—

No birth, no pregnancy, and no conception!

¹²Though they bring up their children,
Yet I will bereave them to the last man.

Yes, woe to them when I depart from them!

¹³Just as I saw Ephraim like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place,

So Ephraim will bring out his children to the murderer.”

¹⁴Give them, O LORD—
What will You give?
Give them a miscarrying womb

And dry breasts!

¹⁵“All their wickedness is in Gilgal,
For there I hated them.
Because of the evil of their deeds
I will drive them from My house;
I will love them no more.
All their princes are rebellious.

¹⁶Ephraim is stricken,
Their root is dried up;
They shall bear no fruit.
Yes, were they to bear children,

I would kill the darlings of their womb.”

¹⁷My God will cast them away,
Because they did not obey Him;

And they shall be wanderers among the nations.

Chapter 10

Israel's Sin and Captivity

¹Israel empties his vine;
He brings forth fruit for himself.
According to the multitude of his fruit
He has increased the altars;
According to the bounty of his land
They have embellished his sacred pillars.

²Their heart is divided;
Now they are held guilty.
He will break down their altars;

He will ruin their sacred pillars.

³For now they say,
“We have no king,
Because we did not fear the LORD.
And as for a king, what would he do for us?”

⁴They have spoken words,

Israel's Leaders Broke the Law of Solid Ground

Hosea 10:3, 4

How had Israel drifted into such serious sin? Hosea's answer: Israel had no real leadership. False promises had eroded the people's confidence in their leaders. They concluded: "We have no king.... They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant" (Hos. 10:3, 4). People follow only in proportion to their trust in the leader.

Swearing falsely in making a covenant.

Thus judgment springs up like hemlock in the furrows of the field.

⁵The inhabitants of Samaria fear
Because of the calf^a of Beth Aven.
For its people mourn for it,
And its priests shriek for it—
Because its glory has departed from it.

⁶*The idol* also shall be carried to Assyria
As a present for King Jareb.
Ephraim shall receive shame,

And Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

⁷*As for* Samaria, her king is cut off
Like a twig on the water.

⁸Also the high places of Aven, the sin of Israel,
Shall be destroyed.
The thorn and thistle shall grow on their altars;
They shall say to the mountains, "Cover us!"

And to the hills, "Fall on us!"

⁹"O Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah;
There they stood.

The battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity^a
Did not overtake them.

¹⁰When it is My desire, I will chasten them.
Peoples shall be gathered against them
When I bind them for their two transgressions.^a

¹¹Ephraim is a trained heifer
That loves to thresh grain;
But I harnessed her fair neck,
I will make Ephraim pull a plow.
Judah shall plow;

Jacob shall break his clods.”

¹²Sow for yourselves righteousness;
Reap in mercy;
Break up your fallow ground,
For it is time to seek the LORD,

Till He comes and rains righteousness on you.

¹³You have plowed wickedness;
You have reaped iniquity.
You have eaten the fruit of lies,
Because you trusted in your own way,
In the multitude of your mighty men.

¹⁴Therefore tumult shall arise among your people,
And all your fortresses shall be plundered
As Shalman plundered Beth Arbel in the day of battle—

A mother dashed in pieces upon her children.

¹⁵Thus it shall be done to you, O Bethel,
Because of your great wickedness.
At dawn the king of Israel

Shall be cut off utterly.

Chapter 11

God's Continuing Love for Israel

¹"When Israel was a child, I loved him,
And out of Egypt I called My son.

²As they called them,^a
So they went from them;^b
They sacrificed to the Baals,

And burned incense to carved images.

³"I taught Ephraim to walk,
Taking them by their arms;^a
But they did not know that I healed them.

⁴I drew them with gentle cords,^a
With bands of love,
And I was to them as those who take the yoke from their neck.^b

I stooped and fed them.

⁵"He shall not return to the land of Egypt;
But the Assyrian shall be his king,
Because they refused to repent.

⁶And the sword shall slash in his cities,
Devour his districts,
And consume them,
Because of their own counsels.

⁷My people are bent on backsliding from Me.
Though they call to the Most High,^a

None at all exalt Him.

⁸“How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I hand you over, Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I set you like Zeboiim?
My heart churns within Me;
My sympathy is stirred.

⁹I will not execute the fierceness of My anger;
I will not again destroy Ephraim.
For I am God, and not man,
The Holy One in your midst;

And I will not come with terror.^a

¹⁰“They shall walk after the LORD.
He will roar like a lion.
When He roars,
Then His sons shall come trembling from the west;
¹¹They shall come trembling like a bird from Egypt,
Like a dove from the land of Assyria.
And I will let them dwell in their houses,”

Says the LORD.

God’s Charge Against Ephraim

¹²“Ephraim has encircled Me with lies,
And the house of Israel with deceit;
But Judah still walks with God,

Even with the Holy One^a who is faithful.

Chapter 12

¹“Ephraim feeds on the wind,
And pursues the east wind;
He daily increases lies and desolation.
Also they make a covenant with the Assyrians,
And oil is carried to Egypt.

²“The LORD also brings a charge against Judah,
And will punish Jacob according to his ways;
According to his deeds He will recompense him.

³He took his brother by the heel in the womb,
And in his strength he struggled with God.^a

⁴Yes, he struggled with the Angel and prevailed;
He wept, and sought favor from Him.

He found Him in Bethel,
And there He spoke to us—

⁵That is, the LORD God of hosts.
The LORD is His memorable name.

⁶So you, by the help of your God, return;
Observe mercy and justice,

And wait on your God continually.

⁷“A cunning Canaanite!
Deceitful scales are in his hand;
He loves to oppress.

⁸And Ephraim said,
‘Surely I have become rich,
I have found wealth for myself;
In all my labors

They shall find in me no iniquity that is sin.'

⁹"But I am the LORD your God,
Ever since the land of Egypt;
I will again make you dwell in tents,
As in the days of the appointed feast.
¹⁰I have also spoken by the prophets,
And have multiplied visions;

I have given symbols through the witness of the prophets."

¹¹Though Gilead has idols—
Surely they are vanity—
Though they sacrifice bulls in Gilgal,

Indeed their altars shall be heaps in the furrows of the field.

¹²Jacob fled to the country of Syria;
Israel served for a spouse,
And for a wife he tended sheep.

¹³By a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt,
And by a prophet he was preserved.

¹⁴Ephraim provoked Him to anger most bitterly;
Therefore his Lord will leave the guilt of his bloodshed upon him,

And return his reproach upon him.

Chapter 13

Relentless Judgment on Israel

¹When Ephraim spoke, trembling,
He exalted himself in Israel;
But when he offended through Baal worship, he died.

²Now they sin more and more,
And have made for themselves molded images,
Idols of their silver, according to their skill;
All of it is the work of craftsmen.

They say of them,

“Let the men who sacrifice^a kiss the calves!”

³Therefore they shall be like the morning cloud
And like the early dew that passes away,
Like chaff blown off from a threshing floor

And like smoke from a chimney.

⁴“Yet I am the LORD your God
Ever since the land of Egypt,
And you shall know no God but Me;
For there is no savior besides Me.

⁵I knew you in the wilderness,
In the land of great drought.

⁶When they had pasture, they were filled;
They were filled and their heart was exalted;

Therefore they forgot Me.

⁷“So I will be to them like a lion;
Like a leopard by the road I will lurk;
⁸I will meet them like a bear deprived of her cubs;
I will tear open their rib cage,
And there I will devour them like a lion.

The wild beast shall tear them.

⁹“O Israel, you are destroyed,^a
But your help^b is from Me.
¹⁰I will be your King;^a
Where is any other,
That he may save you in all your cities?
And your judges to whom you said,
‘Give me a king and princes’?

¹¹I gave you a king in My anger,

And took him away in My wrath.

¹²“The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up;
His sin is stored up.

¹³The sorrows of a woman in childbirth shall come upon him.

He is an unwise son,

For he should not stay long where children are born.

¹⁴“I will ransom them from the power of the grave;^a
I will redeem them from death.
O Death, I will be your plagues!^b
O Grave,^c I will be your destruction!^d

Pity is hidden from My eyes.”

¹⁵Though he is fruitful among his brethren,
An east wind shall come;
The wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness.

Then his spring shall become dry,
And his fountain shall be dried up.
He shall plunder the treasury of every desirable prize.

¹⁶Samaria is held guilty,^{a}
For she has rebelled against her God.
They shall fall by the sword,
Their infants shall be dashed in pieces,
And their women with child ripped open.

Chapter 14

Israel Restored at Last

¹O Israel, return to the LORD your God,
For you have stumbled because of your iniquity;
²Take words with you,
And return to the LORD.
Say to Him,
“Take away all iniquity;
Receive us graciously,
For we will offer the sacrifices^a of our lips.
³Assyria shall not save us,
We will not ride on horses,
Nor will we say anymore to the work of our hands,
‘You are our gods.’

For in You the fatherless finds mercy.”

⁴“I will heal their backsliding,
I will love them freely,
For My anger has turned away from him.
⁵I will be like the dew to Israel;
He shall grow like the lily,
And lengthen his roots like Lebanon.
⁶His branches shall spread;
His beauty shall be like an olive tree,
And his fragrance like Lebanon.
⁷Those who dwell under his shadow shall return;

Humility: No Matter Who the Leader Is—God Still Rules!

Hosea 14:1-7

One of the missing pieces in Israel's leadership was humility. They had forgotten who created their prosperity and good fortune. Hosea 11:1-4 and 12:7-9 remind the nation that God taught them and provided for them.

Leaders err when they assume they are the source of blessing. Wise leaders seek to make good decisions, but realize the outcome remains in God's hands. Leaders merely manage what God owns. Leaders are in charge, but God is in control.

Hosea 14:1-7 gives a prescription to help leaders recapture humility:

1. Return: Do a turnaround and pursue the Lord (v. 1).
2. Repent: Confess specifically your self-sufficiency (v. 2).
3. Remember: Remind yourself that only God is in control (v. 3).
4. Result: Only then will God respond with blessing and restoration (vv. 4-7).

They shall be revived like grain,
And grow like a vine.

Their scent^a shall be like the wine of Lebanon.

⁸"Ephraim shall say,

‘What have I to do anymore with idols?’
I have heard and observed him.
I am like a green cypress tree;

Your fruit is found in Me.”

⁹Who is wise?
Let him understand these things.
Who is prudent?
Let him know them.
For the ways of the LORD are right;
The righteous walk in them,

But transgressors stumble in them.

Leaders Love Everyone, but Don't Drop Their Convictions

Hosea 14:9

Do leaders always love and care for people, regardless of who they are? Certainly, both God and Hosea modeled unconditional love. But does a time come when showing compassion for someone ends, or otherwise a leader violates a bedrock principle?

This is where leaders draw a line in the sand. While they are to love and care for anyone they contact, this doesn't mean they chuck their convictions. They respond with grace, but never drift from their guiding priorities and principles. We cling to convictions even in our lowest moment.

Both God and Hosea continued to act from principle. Leaders practice the Law of Empowerment by living out priorities:

Leaders are to... • Followers often...

Act from their principles. • React from their feelings.

Empower others even when it's difficult. • Withdraw in difficult times.

Live off of character. • Live off of emotions.

The Book of Joel

Introduction to Joel

The prophet Joel directed his message to Judah and, more specifically, to the city of Jerusalem. Joel was an educated, well-read leader who knew not only the writings of the other prophets, but also the current events of his day. He used them all to illustrate the message God had given him.

Joel effectively used an invasion of locusts that occurred during his day as his primary word picture. He utilized this natural catastrophe to underscore his message of repentance. He spoke of the “day of the Lord” which would come much like the locusts—surprising and terrifying. He attempted to awaken the people of Judah from their spiritual apathy and disobedience and provoke them to return to the Lord.

Joel teaches us that leaders must see the future clearly and project what steps must be taken to thrive in it. Joel called the leaders of his day to sound a warning of repentance to successive generations he would never meet—a futurist in the truest sense of the word.

Second, leaders must read and interpret current events. Joel saw and explained the locusts of his day in a way that made his message vivid and memorable. He took a physical reality and capitalized on it to illustrate a spiritual reality. His mind focused on both current events and eternal outcomes.

Third, corporate or community repentance begins with the leader. People usually act en masse when a leader sounds the trumpet and provides an example of what must be done. This proved true in Joel's case. Joel called the priests to model repentance with sackcloth and mourning. People do what people see.

Fourth, leaders must never cry out for change without providing some solutions. It does little good to merely complain. Leaders must sound the alarm, but then say, "And here are some steps we can take to improve." Along with his warning of judgment, Joel talks about the promise of the Holy Spirit and the need for His filling. He spoke of the coming day of the Lord and the need to call on God for deliverance. He listed the steps of repentance the people of Judah needed to take if they were to renew themselves and find restoration in the grace of God.

A God-Given Message to Judah

God's Role in Joel

God is the Ultimate Leader in control, the One who sends the locusts and the One who will come on the day of the Lord—a day far more terrifying than mere locusts. God sometimes uses the natural realm to direct us to truths in the spiritual realm. God uses the disastrous locust plague to illustrate a far greater spiritual catastrophe to come if His people refuse to return to Him.

Lessons in Leadership

- Leaders are realistic futurists—they define reality and distribute hope.
- Great leaders communicate in relevant ways, connecting the known to the unknown.
- If leaders project a problem to the people, they must propose a plan for the people.

Chapter 1

¹The word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

The Land Laid Waste

²Hear this, you elders,
And give ear, all you inhabitants of the land!
Has anything like this happened in your days,
Or even in the days of your fathers?

³Tell your children about it,
Let your children tell their children,
And their children another generation.

⁴What the chewing locust^a left, the swarming locust
has eaten;

What the swarming locust left, the crawling locust
has eaten;

And what the crawling locust left, the consuming locust has eaten.

⁵Awake, you drunkards, and weep;
And wail, all you drinkers of wine,
Because of the new wine,
For it has been cut off from your mouth.

⁶For a nation has come up against My land,
Strong, and without number;
His teeth are the teeth of a lion,

And he has the fangs of a fierce lion.
⁷He has laid waste My vine,
And ruined My fig tree;
He has stripped it bare and thrown it away;
Its branches are made white.

The Law of Intuition: Joel Interprets the Disaster of the Locusts

Joel 1:6, 7

Joel provides us with an example of a leader who rightly reads his times and culture and interprets them for the masses. His divine intuition enables him to stay ahead of the times and lead in a wise and discerning manner.

Intuition is like a head start in a race; you can beat the fastest runner in the world with a big enough head start. Joel provides this head start to the Hebrews, then gives them a plan to respond to the coming disaster. “Consecrate a fast, call a sacred assembly; gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry out to the LORD,” he advises them (Joel 1:14). He helps us see that God sometimes uses the natural realm to illustrate realities in the spiritual realm.

⁸Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth
For the husband of her youth.
⁹The grain offering and the drink offering

Have been cut off from the house of the LORD;
The priests mourn, who minister to the LORD.

¹⁰The field is wasted,
The land mourns;
For the grain is ruined,
The new wine is dried up,

The oil fails.

¹¹Be ashamed, you farmers,
Wail, you vinedressers,
For the wheat and the barley;
Because the harvest of the field has perished.

¹²The vine has dried up,
And the fig tree has withered;
The pomegranate tree,
The palm tree also,
And the apple tree—
All the trees of the field are withered;

Surely joy has withered away from the sons of men.

Mourning for the Land

¹³Gird yourselves and lament, you priests;
Wail, you who minister before the altar;
Come, lie all night in sackcloth,
You who minister to my God;
For the grain offering and the drink offering
Are withheld from the house of your God.

¹⁴Consecrate a fast,
Call a sacred assembly;
Gather the elders

And all the inhabitants of the land
Into the house of the LORD your God,

And cry out to the LORD.

¹⁵Alas for the day!
For the day of the LORD is at hand;
It shall come as destruction from the Almighty.

¹⁶Is not the food cut off before our eyes,
Joy and gladness from the house of our God?

¹⁷The seed shrivels under the clods,
Storehouses are in shambles;
Barns are broken down,
For the grain has withered.

¹⁸How the animals groan!
The herds of cattle are restless,
Because they have no pasture;

Even the flocks of sheep suffer punishment.a

¹⁹O LORD, to You I cry out;
For fire has devoured the open pastures,
And a flame has burned all the trees of the field.

²⁰The beasts of the field also cry out to You,
For the water brooks are dried up,

And fire has devoured the open pastures.

Chapter 2

The Day of the LORD

¹Blow the trumpet in Zion,
And sound an alarm in My holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble;
For the day of the LORD is coming,
For it is at hand:

²A day of darkness and gloominess,
A day of clouds and thick darkness,
Like the morning clouds spread over the mountains.
A people come, great and strong,
The like of whom has never been;
Nor will there ever be any such after them,

Even for many successive generations.

³A fire devours before them,
And behind them a flame burns;
The land is like the Garden of Eden before them,
And behind them a desolate wilderness;
Surely nothing shall escape them.

⁴Their appearance is like the appearance of horses;
And like swift steeds, so they run.

⁵With a noise like chariots
Over mountaintops they leap,
Like the noise of a flaming fire that devours the stubble,

Like a strong people set in battle array.

⁶Before them the people writhe in pain;
All faces are drained of color.^a

⁷They run like mighty men,
They climb the wall like men of war;
Every one marches in formation,
And they do not break ranks.

⁸They do not push one another;
Every one marches in his own column.^a
Though they lunge between the weapons,
They are not cut down.^b

⁹They run to and fro in the city,
They run on the wall;
They climb into the houses,

They enter at the windows like a thief.

¹⁰The earth quakes before them,
The heavens tremble;
The sun and moon grow dark,
And the stars diminish their brightness.

¹¹The LORD gives voice before His army,
For His camp is very great;
For strong is the One who executes His word.
For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible;

Who can endure it?

A Call to Repentance

¹²“Now, therefore,” says the LORD,
“Turn to Me with all your heart,

With fasting, with weeping, and with mourning.”

¹³So rend your heart, and not your garments;
Return to the LORD your God,
For He is gracious and merciful,
Slow to anger, and of great kindness;
And He relents from doing harm.

¹⁴Who knows if He will turn and relent,
And leave a blessing behind Him—
A grain offering and a drink offering
For the LORD your God?

¹⁵Blow the trumpet in Zion,
Consecrate a fast,
Call a sacred assembly;

¹⁶Gather the people,
Sanctify the congregation,
Assemble the elders,
Gather the children and nursing babes;
Let the bridegroom go out from his chamber,
And the bride from her dressing room.

¹⁷Let the priests, who minister to the LORD,
Weep between the porch and the altar;
Let them say, “Spare Your people, O LORD,
And do not give Your heritage to reproach,
That the nations should rule over them.
Why should they say among the peoples,

‘Where is their God?’ ”

The Land Refreshed

¹⁸Then the LORD will be zealous for His land,
And pity His people.

¹⁹The LORD will answer and say to His people,

“Behold, I will send you grain and new wine and oil,
And you will be satisfied by them;

I will no longer make you a reproach among the nations.

²⁰“But I will remove far from you the northern army,
And will drive him away into a barren and desolate
land,

With his face toward the eastern sea
And his back toward the western sea;
His stench will come up,
And his foul odor will rise,

Because he has done monstrous things.”

²¹Fear not, O land;
Be glad and rejoice,
For the LORD has done marvelous things!

²²Do not be afraid, you beasts of the field;
For the open pastures are springing up,
And the tree bears its fruit;
The fig tree and the vine yield their strength.

²³Be glad then, you children of Zion,
And rejoice in the LORD your God;
For He has given you the former rain faithfully,^a
And He will cause the rain to come down for you—
The former rain,
And the latter rain in the first month.

²⁴The threshing floors shall be full of wheat,

And the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil.

²⁵“So I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten,
The crawling locust,

The consuming locust,
And the chewing locust,^a
My great army which I sent among you.
²⁶You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied,
And praise the name of the LORD your God,
Who has dealt wondrously with you;
And My people shall never be put to shame.
²⁷Then you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel:
I am the LORD your God
And there is no other.

My people shall never be put to shame.

God's Spirit Poured Out

²⁸"And it shall come to pass afterward
That I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh;
Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
Your old men shall dream dreams,
Your young men shall see visions.
²⁹And also on My menservants and on My
maidservants

I will pour out My Spirit in those days.

³⁰"And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the
earth:
Blood and fire and pillars of smoke.
³¹The sun shall be turned into darkness,
And the moon into blood,
Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD.

³²And it shall come to pass

The Law of Connection: Joel Uses the Times to Say the Timeless

Joel 2:1-32

Leaders understand how to be relevant. Relevance means using temporal events to say what is timeless.

The prophet uses the current events of his time to share timeless truth. Every Hebrew knew of the plague of locusts. When that subject came up, everyone paid attention. Joel grabbed their attention with a current event and used it to illustrate God's coming judgment. He and God communicated in these ways:

1. Creatively: They used word pictures and current events.
2. Constantly: They continued to speak until the people understood.
3. Consistently: Their messages didn't contradict each other.

That whoever calls on the name of the LORD
Shall be saved.

For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be deliverance,

As the LORD has said,

Among the remnant whom the LORD calls.

Chapter 3

God Judges the Nations

¹“For behold, in those days and at that time,
When I bring back the captives of Judah and
Jerusalem,

²I will also gather all nations,
And bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat;
And I will enter into judgment with them there
On account of My people, My heritage Israel,
Whom they have scattered among the nations;
They have also divided up My land.

³They have cast lots for My people,
Have given a boy as payment for a harlot,

And sold a girl for wine, that they may drink.

⁴“Indeed, what have you to do with Me,
O Tyre and Sidon, and all the coasts of Philistia?
Will you retaliate against Me?
But if you retaliate against Me,
Swiftly and speedily I will return your retaliation
upon your own head;

⁵Because you have taken My silver and My gold,
And have carried into your temples My prized possessions.

⁶Also the people of Judah and the people of Jerusalem

You have sold to the Greeks,
That you may remove them far from their borders.

⁷“Behold, I will raise them
Out of the place to which you have sold them,
And will return your retaliation upon your own head.

⁸I will sell your sons and your daughters
Into the hand of the people of Judah,
And they will sell them to the Sabeans,^a
To a people far off;

For the LORD has spoken.”

⁹Proclaim this among the nations:

“Prepare for war!
Wake up the mighty men,
Let all the men of war draw near,
Let them come up.

¹⁰Beat your plowshares into swords
And your pruning hooks into spears;
Let the weak say, ‘I am strong.’ ”

¹¹Assemble and come, all you nations,
And gather together all around.

Cause Your mighty ones to go down there, O LORD.

¹²“Let the nations be wakened, and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat;

For there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.

¹³Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe.
Come, go down;
For the winepress is full,
The vats overflow—

For their wickedness is great.”

¹⁴Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision!
For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

¹⁵The sun and moon will grow dark,
And the stars will diminish their brightness.

¹⁶The LORD also will roar from Zion,
And utter His voice from Jerusalem;
The heavens and earth will shake;
But the LORD will be a shelter for His people,

And the strength of the children of Israel.

¹⁷“So you shall know that I am the LORD your God,
Dwelling in Zion My holy mountain.
Then Jerusalem shall be holy,

And no aliens shall ever pass through her again.”

God Blesses His People

¹⁸And it will come to pass in that day
That the mountains shall drip with new wine,
The hills shall flow with milk,
And all the brooks of Judah shall be flooded with water;

A fountain shall flow from the house of the LORD

And water the Valley of Acacias.

¹⁹“Egypt shall be a desolation,
And Edom a desolate wilderness,

Because of violence against the people of Judah,
For they have shed innocent blood in their land.
²⁰But Judah shall abide forever,
And Jerusalem from generation to generation.
²¹For I will acquit them of the guilt of bloodshed, whom I had not acquitted;

For the LORD dwells in Zion.”

The Law of Navigation: Joel Declares Hope if Judah Will Respond

Joel 3:1-21

In the last chapter of his short book, Joel pronounces judgment on the nations. The nation of Israel could look forward to a future full of hope—if they would respond with obedience. Joel predicts that God will use them to judge the nations. The day of the Lord will bring terror to the rebellious and hope to the trusting.

The Law of Navigation forces leaders to become students of three facets of leadership: discernment, strategy, and the future. They must interpret the times, see the future, and plan the steps. Joel paints pictures for the people to help them see what he sees.

The Book of Amos

Introduction to Amos

God called the fiery prophet Amos to correct the injustice of the leaders of his day in Israel, Judah, and the surrounding nations. He seems an unlikely leader, called as a shepherd in the desert of Judah. As a shepherd, he supplemented his income by taking care of sycamore “ g trees” (1:1; 7:14, 15). He brought no known credentials to his prophetic work except for his divine call.

Amos first challenged the sins of the surrounding nations—something the Israelites liked. But when he turned to correct his own people, his popularity plummeted. The writings of this clear thinker show that he possessed a thorough knowledge of history and the problems of his day. He uses language rich in symbols and figures, with close attention to detail. He tries to compel the people to see the immorality and injustice of their generation and to make it right.

In Amos’s day, marketplace exploitation had grown so bad that God used him to threaten the people with “ re”: war, economic depression, and destruction. God gives power to leaders for the provision, protection, and progress of followers. Whenever leaders abuse that power, God shows His displeasure with their stewardship.

Amos also shows us that God hates injustice. While it may look as if He doesn’t do anything about the outrage, He is watching and disapproves of leaders who tolerate it.

Amos accused leaders of a spiritual deterioration that paralleled their material prosperity (5:12, 21). They still “went to church,” yet didn’t see their own hypocrisy. Amos castigated the leaders for their corruption (2:7, 8) and pointed out their disregard for human rights (2:6). For about a decade, Amos became God’s eyes, heart, and mouthpiece to the people of Israel.

Amos taught that leaders must lead from moral absolutes, not from convenience and expediency. Amos used a plumb line to illustrate that God’s people had drifted from the revealed standard. A plumb line helped builders detect the straightness of a wall, the equivalent of a level today. Builders attached a weight to a string, then let gravity use the string to draw a straight vertical line. Amos attempted to raise a spiritual plumb line against the corruption and crookedness of his day.

A Spiritual Plumb Line Raised

God’s Role in Amos

Amos did not base his plea on the nature of man or the innate goodness of human nature. God was the standard—and He remains the same at all times and in every place. Self-interest always distorts man’s perspective. Amos based his plea on the nature and righteousness of God, the “plumb line” from which every person is measured. Despite the shifting values of mankind, God never changes, nor does He grade on a curve. He is the absolute leader and controller of history and challenges leaders when they drift from His absolutes.

Lessons in Leadership

- It's easiest for leaders to drift when there is economic security.
- God gives power to leaders to help followers, not themselves.
- When an organization goes bad, leaders must own the responsibility.
- The foundation for all leadership is trust, integrity, and justice.
- Leaders must raise the standard; as the leader goes, so goes the organization.

AMOS: A Prophet of Wrath and Mercy (4:1-12)

THE LAW OF INFLUENCE: Amos Judges Leaders for Abusing Their Positions (5:7-17)

LEADERS INFLUENCE in the Prayer Closet (7:1-6)

VISION: Amos Finishes with a Hopeful Vision of the Future (9:11-15)

Chapter 1

¹The words of Amos, who was among the sheepbreeders^a of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

²And he said:

“The LORD roars from Zion,
And utters His voice from Jerusalem;
The pastures of the shepherds mourn,

And the top of Carmel withers.”

Judgment on the Nations

³Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they have threshed Gilead with implements of iron.

⁴But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael,
Which shall devour the palaces of Ben-Hadad.

⁵I will also break the gate bar of Damascus,
And cut off the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven,
And the one who holds the scepter from Beth Eden.
The people of Syria shall go captive to Kir,”

Says the LORD.

⁶Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they took captive the whole captivity
To deliver them up to Edom.

⁷But I will send a fire upon the wall of Gaza,
Which shall devour its palaces.

⁸I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod,
And the one who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;
I will turn My hand against Ekron,
And the remnant of the Philistines shall perish,”

Says the Lord GOD.

⁹Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom,
And did not remember the covenant of brotherhood.

¹⁰But I will send a fire upon the wall of Tyre,

Which shall devour its palaces.”

¹¹Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Edom, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because he pursued his brother with the sword,
And cast off all pity;
His anger tore perpetually,
And he kept his wrath forever.

¹²But I will send a fire upon Teman,

Which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.”

¹³Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of the people of Ammon,
and for four,

I will not turn away its punishment,

Because they ripped open the women with child in Gilead,

That they might enlarge their territory.

¹⁴But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah,

And it shall devour its palaces,

Amid shouting in the day of battle,

And a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.

¹⁵Their king shall go into captivity,

He and his princes together,”

Says the LORD.

Chapter 2

¹Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Moab, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because he burned the bones of the king of Edom to lime.

²But I will send a fire upon Moab,
And it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth;
Moab shall die with tumult,
With shouting and trumpet sound.

³And I will cut off the judge from its midst,
And slay all its princes with him,”

Says the LORD.

Efficiency Minus Ethics Equals Emptiness

Amos 1:1-2:16

Leaders who fail morally do not lead anyone to a better place. The higher the leader goes, the deeper his character must develop. The larger the outward privilege, the larger the inward character must be. Character represents the inner life of a leader. God judged ancient leaders because of missing character:

1. Damascus, Syria—because they ruthlessly butchered Gilead without just cause.

2. Gaza—because they made captives of free people and sold them into slavery.

3. Tyre—because they ignored a covenant of peace and brotherhood.

4. Edom—because they attacked their own family tribes and showed no compassion.

5. Ammon—because they murdered women in order to expand their territory.

6. Moab—because they displayed no respect for leadership in neighboring nations.

Judgment on Judah

⁴Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Judah, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they have despised the law of the LORD,
And have not kept His commandments.

Their lies lead them astray,
Lies which their fathers followed.

⁵But I will send a fire upon Judah,

And it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.”

Judgment on Israel

⁶Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Israel, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they sell the righteous for silver,
And the poor for a pair of sandals.

⁷They pant after^a the dust of the earth which is on the head of the poor,

And pervert the way of the humble.
A man and his father go in to the same girl,
To defile My holy name.

⁸They lie down by every altar on clothes taken in pledge,

And drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

⁹“Yet it was I who destroyed the Amorite before
them,

Whose height was like the height of the cedars,
And he was as strong as the oaks;
Yet I destroyed his fruit above
And his roots beneath.

¹⁰Also it was I who brought you up from the land of Egypt,

And led you forty years through the wilderness,
To possess the land of the Amorite.

¹¹I raised up some of your sons as prophets,
And some of your young men as Nazirites.
Is it not so, O you children of Israel?”
Says the LORD.

¹²“But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink,
And commanded the prophets saying,

‘Do not prophesy!’

¹³“Behold, I am weighed down by you,
As a cart full of sheaves is weighed down.
¹⁴Therefore flight shall perish from the swift,
The strong shall not strengthen his power,
Nor shall the mighty deliver himself;
¹⁵He shall not stand who handles the bow,
The swift of foot shall not escape,
Nor shall he who rides a horse deliver himself.
¹⁶The most courageous men of might Shall flee naked in that day,”

Says the LORD.

The Law of Solid Ground: Good Leaders Remove the Planks from Their Eyes

Amos 2:4-16

The entire first chapter of Amos and part of the second details God’s judgment on Israel’s neighbors. No doubt Israel enjoyed these words. They likely cheered Amos on, yelling, “Preach it, brother! Those heathen nations really need to get their act together!”

Once Amos finished with Damascus, Gaza, Tyre, Edom, Ammon, and Moab, however, he directed his words closer to home—to Judah. Now his listeners probably squirmed. Finally, Amos dropped the bomb and declared judgment on Israel. Everyone grew quiet. How dare Amos lump them into God’s judgment!

Quality leaders remain objective. They can be trusted because they see the “plank in their own eye” before trying to remove the speck from their brother’s (Matt. 7:3-5). When leaders fail to be objective, people begin to question whether their perspective is skewed by self-interest. Trust wanes. People trust leaders who practice the Law of Solid Ground. Such leaders fulfill three primary objectives:

1. Protection: To make sure the people are defended from harm.
2. Provision: To make sure the people are resourced to do their work.
3. Progress: To make sure the enterprise reaches the desired destination.

Chapter 3

Authority of the Prophet's Message

¹Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying:

²“You only have I known of all the families of the earth;

Therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.”

The Law of the Picture: God Holds His People Accountable to Lead the World

Amos 3:1, 2

God's people had wanted to live like other nations did. They failed to realize that he held them to a higher standard than other nations. God intended to guide them Himself, making them a nation of leaders who could become a model for the world. It's an example of the Law of the Picture: people do what people see. God wanted Israel to be a light to the nations. They were to exemplify the life all people were to live. God's heavy judgment fell because He held His people accountable to lead the world to Himself.

³Can two walk together, unless they are agreed?

⁴Will a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey?

Will a young lion cry out of his den, if he has caught nothing?

⁵Will a bird fall into a snare on the earth, where there is no trap for it?

Will a snare spring up from the earth, if it has caught nothing at all?

⁶If a trumpet is blown in a city, will not the people be afraid?

If there is calamity in a city, will not the LORD have done it?

⁷Surely the Lord GOD does nothing,

Unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets.

⁸A lion has roared!

Who will not fear?

The Lord GOD has spoken!

Who can but prophesy?

Punishment of Israel's Sins

⁹"Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod, a

And in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say:

‘Assemble on the mountains of Samaria;
See great tumults in her midst,
And the oppressed within her.

¹⁰For they do not know to do right,’
Says the LORD,

‘Who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.’

¹¹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

“An adversary shall be all around the land;
He shall sap your strength from you,

And your palaces shall be plundered.”

¹²Thus says the LORD:

“As a shepherd takes from the mouth of a lion
Two legs or a piece of an ear,
So shall the children of Israel be taken out
Who dwell in Samaria—
In the corner of a bed and on the edge^a of a couch!

¹³Hear and testify against the house of Jacob,”
Says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,

¹⁴“That in the day I punish Israel for their
transgressions,

I will also visit destruction on the altars of Bethel;
And the horns of the altar shall be cut off
And fall to the ground.

¹⁵I will destroy the winter house along with the summer house;

The houses of ivory shall perish,
And the great houses shall have an end,”

Says the LORD.

Chapter 4

¹Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria,

Who oppress the poor,

Who crush the needy,

Who say to your husbands,^a “Bring wine, let us drink!”

²The Lord GOD has sworn by His holiness:

“Behold, the days shall come upon you

When He will take you away with fishhooks,

And your posterity with fishhooks.

³You will go out through broken walls,

Each one straight ahead of her,

And you will be cast into Harmon,”

Says the LORD.

⁴“Come to Bethel and transgress,

At Gilgal multiply transgression;

Bring your sacrifices every morning,

Your tithes every three days.^a

⁵Offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven,

Proclaim and announce the freewill offerings;

For this you love,

You children of Israel!”

Says the Lord GOD.

Israel Did Not Accept Correction

⁶“Also I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities,
And lack of bread in all your places;
Yet you have not returned to Me,”

Says the LORD.

⁷“I also withheld rain from you,
When there were still three months to the harvest.
I made it rain on one city,
I withheld rain from another city.
One part was rained upon,
And where it did not rain the part withered.

⁸So two or three cities wandered to another city to drink water,
But they were not satisfied;
Yet you have not returned to Me,”

Says the LORD.

⁹“I blasted you with blight and mildew.
When your gardens increased,
Your vineyards,
Your fig trees,
And your olive trees,
The locust devoured them;
Yet you have not returned to Me,”

Says the LORD.

¹⁰“I sent among you a plague after the manner of Egypt;
Your young men I killed with a sword,
Along with your captive horses;
I made the stench of your camps come up into your nostrils;

Yet you have not returned to Me,”

Says the LORD.

¹¹“I overthrew some of you,
As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah,
And you were like a firebrand plucked from the burning;

Yet you have not returned to Me,”

Says the LORD.

¹²“Therefore thus will I do to you, O Israel;

PROFILE in Leadership

AMOS

A Prophet of Wrath and Mercy

Amos 4:1-12

Sometimes it's easy to forget that the God who showers grace upon His people is the same God who warns of impending judgment and who exercises His wrath.

Amos teaches us that leaders must present God as He presents Himself: as the God of love and mercy and the God of holiness and wrath. As the apostle Paul says in Romans 11:22, “Therefore consider the goodness and severity of God.”

Can you imagine calling the women of your church or organization, “cows of Bashan”? Yet that is the very name Amos uses to address the women of Israel (Amos 4:1). The prophet speaks harsh words to His people, warning them finally to “prepare to meet your God, O Israel!” (4:12). This was no promise of a pleasant encounter, but a pronouncement of wrath on those who refused to return to and bow to the God who had faithfully guided, protected, and provided for them.

But Amos also speaks words of hope. Through the prophet, God tells the people that they can still humble themselves and return to Him and receive mercy (9:8-15).

This is the picture of God that today’s leaders must present. God’s people must see that He is a God of grace and mercy and a God of wrath and judgment. Any presentation that falls short of that standard is at best incomplete.

Because I will do this to you,

Prepare to meet your God, O Israel!”

¹³For behold,
He who forms mountains,
And creates the wind,
Who declares to man what his^a thought is,
And makes the morning darkness,
Who treads the high places of the earth—

The LORD God of hosts is His name.

Chapter 5

A Lament for Israel

¹Hear this word which I take up against you, a lamentation,
O house of Israel:

²The virgin of Israel has fallen;
She will rise no more.
She lies forsaken on her land;

There is no one to raise her up.

³For thus says the Lord GOD:

“The city that goes out by a thousand
Shall have a hundred left,
And that which goes out by a hundred
Shall have ten left to the house of Israel.”

A Call to Repentance

⁴For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel:

“Seek Me and live;
⁵But do not seek Bethel,

Nor enter Gilgal,
Nor pass over to Beersheba;
For Gilgal shall surely go into captivity,
And Bethel shall come to nothing.

⁶Seek the LORD and live,
Lest He break out like fire in the house of Joseph,
And devour it,
With no one to quench it in Bethel—
⁷You who turn justice to wormwood,

And lay righteousness to rest in the earth!”

⁸He made the Pleiades and Orion;
He turns the shadow of death into morning
And makes the day dark as night;
He calls for the waters of the sea
And pours them out on the face of the earth;
The LORD is His name.

⁹He rains ruin upon the strong,

So that fury comes upon the fortress.

¹⁰They hate the one who rebukes in the gate,
And they abhor the one who speaks uprightly.

¹¹Therefore, because you tread down the poor
And take grain taxes from him,
Though you have built houses of hewn stone,
Yet you shall not dwell in them;
You have planted pleasant vineyards,
But you shall not drink wine from them.

¹²For I know your manifold transgressions
And your mighty sins:

Afflicting the just and taking bribes;
Diverting the poor from justice at the gate.

¹³Therefore the prudent keep silent at that time,

For it is an evil time.

¹⁴Seek good and not evil,
That you may live;
So the LORD God of hosts will be with you,
As you have spoken.

¹⁵Hate evil, love good;
Establish justice in the gate.
It may be that the LORD God of hosts

Will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

The Day of the LORD

¹⁶Therefore the LORD God of hosts, the Lord, says this:

“There shall be wailing in all streets,
And they shall say in all the highways,
'Alas! Alas!'

They shall call the farmer to mourning,
And skillful lamenters to wailing.

¹⁷In all vineyards there shall be wailing,

The Law of Influence: Amos Judges Leaders for Abusing Their Positions

Amos 5:7-17

Amos is sometimes called the angry prophet. Most of his words express heated emotion. He condemns leaders who fail to provide justice for their people. Amos 5:7-17 contains his lamentation and call for repentance to those who turn justice into bitterness.

When leaders act unjustly, their influence creates a ripple effect. God hates injustice, but especially among leaders whose crooked influence infects an entire nation! Note the leadership abuses in Amos's day:

1. They abandoned morality (v. 7).
2. They confused values (v. 10).
3. They taxed the poor for selfish gain (v. 11).
4. They were corrupt and oppressed citizens (v. 12).
5. They took bribes (v. 12).
6. They deprived people of justice in court (v. 12).

The scary part of this sad story is that these leaders could not see their own corruption. Amos 5:18 warns against longing for the day of the Lord, for it will be a dreadful day of judgment, not a joyful celebration.

For I will pass through you,”

Says the LORD.

¹⁸Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD!
For what good is the day of the LORD to you?
It will be darkness, and not light.

¹⁹It will be as though a man fled from a lion,
And a bear met him!
Or as though he went into the house,
Leaned his hand on the wall,
And a serpent bit him!

²⁰*Is* not the day of the LORD darkness, and not light?

Is it not very dark, with no brightness in it?

²¹“I hate, I despise your feast days,
And I do not savor your sacred assemblies.

²²Though you offer Me burnt offerings and your grain offerings,

I will not accept them,
Nor will I regard your fattened peace offerings.

²³Take away from Me the noise of your songs,
For I will not hear the melody of your stringed instruments.

²⁴But let justice run down like water,

And righteousness like a mighty stream.

²⁵“Did you offer Me sacrifices and offerings
In the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

²⁶You also carried Sikkuth^a your king^b

And Chiun,^c your idols,

The star of your gods,

Which you made for yourselves.

²⁷Therefore I will send you into captivity beyond
Damascus,”

Says the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

Chapter 6

Warnings to Zion and Samaria

¹Woe to you who are at ease in Zion,
And trust in Mount Samaria,
Notable persons in the chief nation,
To whom the house of Israel comes!

²Go over to Calneh and see;
And from there go to Hamath the great;
Then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
Are you better than these kingdoms?

Or is their territory greater than your territory?

³*Woe to* you who put far off the day of doom,
Who cause the seat of violence to come near;

⁴Who lie on beds of ivory,
Stretch out on your couches,
Eat lambs from the flock
And calves from the midst of the stall;

⁵Who sing idly to the sound of stringed instruments,
And invent for yourselves musical instruments like
David;

⁶Who drink wine from bowls,
And anoint yourselves with the best ointments,
But are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

⁷Therefore they shall now go captive as the first of the captives,

And those who recline at banquets shall be removed.

⁸The Lord GOD has sworn by Himself,
The LORD God of hosts says:
“I abhor the pride of Jacob,
And hate his palaces;
Therefore I will deliver up the city

And all that is in it.”

⁹Then it shall come to pass, that if ten men remain in one house, they shall die. ¹⁰And when a relative of the dead, with one who will burn the bodies, picks up the bodies^a to take them out of the house, he will say to one inside the house, “Are there any more with you?”

Then someone will say, “None.”

And he will say, “Hold your tongue! For we dare not mention the name of the LORD.”

¹¹For behold, the LORD gives a command:
He will break the great house into bits,

And the little house into pieces.

¹²Do horses run on rocks?
Does one plow there with oxen?
Yet you have turned justice into gall,
And the fruit of righteousness into wormwood,

¹³You who rejoice over Lo Debar,^a
Who say, “Have we not taken Karnaim^b for ourselves

By our own strength?”

¹⁴“But, behold, I will raise up a nation against you,
O house of Israel,”
Says the LORD God of hosts;

“And they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath

To the Valley of the Arabah.”

Chapter 7

Vision of the Locusts

¹Thus the Lord GOD showed me: Behold, He formed locust swarms at the beginning of the late crop; indeed it was the late crop after the king's mowings. ²And so it was, when they had finished eating the grass of the land, that I said:

“O Lord GOD, forgive, I pray!
Oh, that Jacob may stand,
For he is small!”

³So the LORD relented concerning this.

“It shall not be,” said the LORD.

Vision of the Fire

⁴Thus the Lord GOD showed me: Behold, the Lord GOD called for conflict by fire, and it consumed the great deep and devoured the territory.⁵Then I said:

“O Lord GOD, cease, I pray!
Oh, that Jacob may stand,
For he is small!”

⁶So the LORD relented concerning this.

“This also shall not be,” said the Lord GOD.

Leaders Influence in the Prayer Closet

Amos 7:1-6

Amos must have felt overwhelmed: God had threatened to annihilate Israel! The prophet already had warned the people of judgment; now it had arrived. What could he do?

The only thing he could do was to beg God to forgive. Amos prayed for his people with compassion and honesty. Tiny Israel, he said, would not survive the judgment. Twice he interceded and twice God withdrew His judgment. Amos stepped in between the people and God, and negotiated their survival.

Prayer changes things. Amos shows us what to do with impossible problems. Of course, prayer doesn't take the place of solid leadership; Amos continued to perform his job of truth telling (Amos 7:10-17). Yet he reminds leaders how powerful their prayers can be in the face of trouble. Sometimes we have no idea what kind of changes we orchestrate or what kind of pain we spare others by what we do in our prayer closet!

Vision of the Plumb Line

⁷Thus He showed me: Behold, the Lord stood on a wall made with a plumb line, with a plumb line in His hand. ⁸And the LORD said to me, “Amos, what do you see?”

And I said, “A plumb line.” Then the Lord said:

“Behold, I am setting a plumb line
In the midst of My people Israel;
I will not pass by them anymore.

⁹The high places of Isaac shall be desolate,
And the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste.

I will rise with the sword against the house of Jeroboam.”

Amaziah's Complaint

¹⁰Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, “Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. ¹¹“For thus Amos has said:

‘Jeroboam shall die by the sword,
And Israel shall surely be led away captive

From their own land.’ ”

¹²Then Amaziah said to Amos:

“Go, you seer!
Flee to the land of Judah.
There eat bread,
And there prophesy.

¹³But never again prophesy at Bethel,
For it is the king's sanctuary,

And it is the royal residence.”

¹⁴Then Amos answered, and said to Amaziah:

“I was no prophet,
Nor was I a son of a prophet,
But I was a sheepbreeder^a
And a tender of sycamore fruit.

¹⁵Then the LORD took me as I followed the flock,
And the LORD said to me,
‘Go, prophesy to My people Israel.’

¹⁶Now therefore, hear the word of the LORD:
You say, ‘Do not prophesy against Israel,

And do not spout against the house of Isaac.’

¹⁷“Therefore thus says the LORD:

‘Your wife shall be a harlot in the city;
Your sons and daughters shall fall by the sword;
Your land shall be divided by survey line;
You shall die in a defiled land;
And Israel shall surely be led away captive

From his own land.’ ”

Chapter 8

Vision of the Summer Fruit

¹Thus the Lord GOD showed me: Behold, a basket of summer fruit. ²And He said, “Amos, what do you see?”

So I said, “A basket of summer fruit.”

Then the LORD said to me:

“The end has come upon My people Israel;
I will not pass by them anymore.

³And the songs of the temple
Shall be wailing in that day,”

Says the Lord GOD—

“Many dead bodies everywhere,

They shall be thrown out in silence.”

⁴Hear this, you who swallow up a the needy,

And make the poor of the land fail,

⁵Saying:

“When will the New Moon be past,

That we may sell grain?

And the Sabbath,

That we may trade wheat?

Making the ephah small and the shekel large,

Falsifying the scales by deceit,
⁶That we may buy the poor for silver,
And the needy for a pair of sandals—

Even sell the bad wheat?”

⁷The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob:
“Surely I will never forget any of their works.

⁸Shall the land not tremble for this,
And everyone mourn who dwells in it?
All of it shall swell like the River,^a
Heave and subside

Like the River of Egypt.

⁹“And it shall come to pass in that day,” says the Lord
GOD,

“That I will make the sun go down at noon,
And I will darken the earth in broad daylight;

¹⁰I will turn your feasts into mourning,
And all your songs into lamentation;
I will bring sackcloth on every waist,
And baldness on every head;
I will make it like mourning for an only son,

And its end like a bitter day.

¹¹“Behold, the days are coming,” says the Lord GOD,

“That I will send a famine on the land,
Not a famine of bread,
Nor a thirst for water,
But of hearing the words of the LORD.

¹²They shall wander from sea to sea,
And from north to east;

They shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the
LORD,

But shall not find it.

¹³“In that day the fair virgins
And strong young men
Shall faint from thirst.

¹⁴Those who swear by the sin^a of Samaria,
Who say,
‘As your god lives, O Dan!’
And, ‘As the way of Beersheba lives!’

They shall fall and never rise again.”

Chapter 9

The Destruction of Israel

¹I saw the Lord standing by the altar, and He said:

“Strike the doorposts, that the thresholds may shake,

And break them on the heads of them all.

I will slay the last of them with the sword.

He who flees from them shall not get away,

And he who escapes from them shall not be delivered.

²“Though they dig into hell,^a

From there My hand shall take them;

Though they climb up to heaven,

From there I will bring them down;

³And though they hide themselves on top of Carmel,

From there I will search and take them;

Though they hide from My sight at the bottom of the sea,

From there I will command the serpent, and it shall bite them;

⁴Though they go into captivity before their enemies,

From there I will command the sword,

And it shall slay them.

I will set My eyes on them for harm and not for good.”

⁵The Lord GOD of hosts,
He who touches the earth and it melts,
And all who dwell there mourn;
All of it shall swell like the River,^a
And subside like the River of Egypt.
⁶He who builds His layers in the sky,
And has founded His strata in the earth;
Who calls for the waters of the sea,
And pours them out on the face of the earth—

The LORD is His name.

⁷“Are you not like the people of Ethiopia to Me,
O children of Israel?” says the LORD.
“Did I not bring up Israel from the land of Egypt,
The Philistines from Caphtor,

And the Syrians from Kir?

⁸“Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful kingdom,
And I will destroy it from the face of the earth;
Yet I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob,”

Says the LORD.

⁹“For surely I will command,
And will sift the house of Israel among all nations,
As grain is sifted in a sieve;
Yet not the smallest grain shall fall to the ground.

¹⁰All the sinners of My people shall die by the sword,

Who say, 'The calamity shall not overtake nor confront us.'

Israel Will Be Restored

¹¹“On that day I will raise up
The tabernacle^a of David, which has fallen down,
And repair its damages;
I will raise up its ruins,
And rebuild it as in the days of old;
¹²That they may possess the remnant of Edom,^a
And all the Gentiles who are called by My name,”

Says the LORD who does this thing.

¹³“Behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD,
“When the plowman shall overtake the reaper,
And the treader of grapes him who sows seed;
The mountains shall drip with sweet wine,
And all the hills shall flow with it.

¹⁴I will bring back the captives of My people Israel;
They shall build the waste cities and inhabit them;
They shall plant vineyards and drink wine from
them;

They shall also make gardens and eat fruit from
them.

¹⁵I will plant them in their land,

Vision: Amos Finishes with a Hopeful Vision of the Future

Amos 9:11-15

The prophet followed his warnings of judgment with words of encouragement. The book concludes with Amos's vision for the future—full of hope, healing, and positive change. It illustrates once again how much people need both admonishment and affirmation.

The prophets nearly always followed the same pattern to address the erring population. They pronounced judgment, then painted a picture of a preferred future in which people would repent and realign themselves with the vision. In Amos 9:11-15, Amos spoke of this better tomorrow. Look at how he put it:

1. Leadership would be restored (v. 11).
2. Broken places would be repaired (v. 11).
3. Lost land would be replaced (v. 12).
4. Hope for prosperity would be renewed (vv. 13-15).

Proverbs 29:18 reminds us that without a vision, the people perish. Men and women become depressed when they hear only words of judgment. We all need some picture of how we can cooperate with God to redeem our situation.

And no longer shall they be pulled up
From the land I have given them,”

Says the LORD your God.

The Book of Obadiah

Introduction to Obadiah

No more obscure Old Testament prophet exists than Obadiah. He wrote the shortest book in the Old Testament, with just 21 verses. We know very little about the dating of the book or the author, except for his name, which means, “servant of the Lord.”

We do know, however, his message. Obadiah wrote about the people of Edom, the descendants of Esau. Esau was Jacob’s twin brother, an outdoorsman and a hunter whom God scolded after he succumbed to his lust for immediate gratification (Gen. 25:27-34; Heb. 12:16). Esau neglected his priorities and lost sight of God’s eternal perspective. This inclination led to self-centered descendants, angry and arrogant people who desired vengeance over Jacob’s descendants (Israel). For centuries the Edomites gloated over the misfortunes of the Jews. Obadiah targeted their selfish pride.

The prophet’s timeless lesson applies to leaders universally. Obadiah declares that pride and treachery earn the reward of destruction, but humility and loyalty to God gain the Lord’s blessing.

We learn from Obadiah that destructive rivalry, comparison, and competition provide a horrible motivation for leadership. Those incentives so moved the Edomites that they lost perspective and sabotaged their own activities. How often does this happen to leaders today?

Second, God hates pride. He promised to humble the Edomites for their arrogant attitudes and their self-centered worldview. They thought they had achieved the success they enjoyed, but God exposed their faulty thinking. Leaders must never buy into the notion that they “did it all” themselves. The higher leaders go and the deeper they grow, the more they become aware that God has promoted them. Their success does not deceive them. Leaders blinded by pride should be pitied. God will raise up an Obadiah to humble them and clear up the issue.

A Message to the People of Edom

God's Role in Obadiah

God sees what goes on worldwide and stands ready to move with irresistible power. He used Obadiah to confront the pride of the Edomites as an example to leaders and nations everywhere. He will not allow arrogance to continue indefinitely. Generally, He grants a warning to leaders through a word from another leader, a failure, a broken relationship, a personal weakness, or a plan that falls through. If the leader fails to take heed, God sets the wheels of justice in motion. And He will execute His sentence through whatever means He wishes.

Lessons in Leadership

- Leaders must not violate a primary reason they have power: to protect the powerless.
- Pride clouds a leader's perspective and causes him or her to act illogically.
- One can gain power in any of three fundamental ways: intimidation, exchange, or honor.
- God judges leaders who abuse their power.

THE PRINCIPLE OF THE HARVEST: Leaders Reap What They Sow (15-18)

Chapter 1

The Coming Judgment on Edom

¹The vision of Obadiah.

Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom
(We have heard a report from the LORD,
And a messenger has been sent among the nations,
saying,

“Arise, and let us rise up against her for battle”):

²“Behold, I will make you small among the nations;
You shall be greatly despised.

³The pride of your heart has deceived you,
You who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
Whose habitation is high;
You who say in your heart,
‘Who will bring me down to the ground?’

⁴Though you ascend as high as the eagle,
And though you set your nest among the stars,

From there I will bring you down,” says the LORD.

God Is the Source for a Leader’s Success

Obadiah 2-4

We humans tend toward self-centeredness, self-promotion, self-sufficiency, self-reliance, and self-righteousness. When leaders succumb to this tendency, they adversely affect their followers. While leaders may determine the course of their success, God remains the source of their success. God is the source of any gains we make.

⁵“If thieves had come to you,
If robbers by night—
Oh, how you will be cut off!—
Would they not have stolen till they had enough?
If grape-gatherers had come to you,

Would they not have left some gleanings?

⁶“Oh, how Esau shall be searched out!
How his hidden treasures shall be sought after!
⁷All the men in your confederacy
Shall force you to the border;
The men at peace with you
Shall deceive you and prevail against you.
Those who eat your bread shall lay a trap^a for you.

No one is aware of it.

⁸“Will I not in that day,” says the LORD,
“Even destroy the wise men from Edom,
And understanding from the mountains of Esau?
⁹Then your mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed,
To the end that everyone from the mountains of Esau

May be cut off by slaughter.

Edom Mistreated His Brother

¹⁰“For violence against your brother Jacob,
Shame shall cover you,
And you shall be cut off forever.

¹¹In the day that you stood on the other side—
In the day that strangers carried captive his forces,
When foreigners entered his gates
And cast lots for Jerusalem—
Even you were as one of them.

¹²“But you should not have gazed on the day of your brother

In the day of his captivity;^a
Nor should you have rejoiced over the children of Judah

In the day of their destruction;
Nor should you have spoken proudly
In the day of distress.

¹³You should not have entered the gate of My people
In the day of their calamity.
Indeed, you should not have gazed on their affliction
In the day of their calamity,
Nor laid hands on their substance
In the day of their calamity.

¹⁴You should not have stood at the crossroads
To cut off those among them who escaped;
Nor should you have delivered up those among them who remained

In the day of distress.

Power Abuse: Edom Used Its Power for Unjust Causes

Obadiah 8-14

The Edomites violated an important use of power: to protect the powerless. Even though the Edomites did not directly violate the Jews, they did stand idly by when another country abused them. When leaders have the power to do good and don't use it, God holds them equally guilty (James 4:17).

¹⁵“For the day of the LORD upon all the nations is near;

As you have done, it shall be done to you;
Your reprisal shall return upon your own head.

¹⁶For as you drank on My holy mountain,
So shall all the nations drink continually;
Yes, they shall drink, and swallow,

And they shall be as though they had never been.

Israel's Final Triumph

¹⁷“But on Mount Zion there shall be deliverance,
And there shall be holiness;
The house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.

¹⁸The house of Jacob shall be a fire,

And the house of Joseph a flame;
But the house of Esau shall be stubble;
They shall kindle them and devour them,
And no survivor shall remain of the house of Esau,”

For the LORD has spoken.

The Principle of the Harvest: Leaders Reap What They Sow

Obadiah 15-18

Every leader reaps what he sows. The self-preoccupation that kept the Edomites from helping neighboring nations came back to haunt them in the day of their need. Power can be used to achieve or to intimidate; it can help others or haunt others. Edom misused its power and reaped terror and destruction.

¹⁹The South^a shall possess the mountains of Esau,
And the Lowland shall possess Philistia.
They shall possess the fields of Ephraim
And the fields of Samaria.
Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

²⁰And the captives of this host of the children of Israel

Shall possess the land of the Canaanites
As far as Zarephath.

The captives of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad
Shall possess the cities of the South.^a

²¹Then saviors^a shall come to Mount Zion

To judge the mountains of Esau,
And the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

The Book of Jonah

Introduction to Jonah

We should feel grateful that God included Jonah in the canon of Scripture. If ever God provided a picture of our human nature—our inclination to run from duty in favor of serving self—He did it through Jonah. He furnishes the perfect portrait of a reluctant leader in a needy time.

Yet he is not alone! God has called many reluctant leaders. Consider Moses who, in Egypt, thought he could do more than he really could. God called him only after 40 years of preparation, when he thought he could do less than he really could. He expressed total reluctance as he stood before a burning bush, trying to excuse himself from leadership. Or consider Gideon, whom God called to lead an attack against the Midianites. He argued with an angel, explaining why he couldn't do it. Or consider King Saul, who stood head and shoulders above everyone else. Yet he hid among the luggage when Samuel came to anoint him king of Israel. Or consider Jeremiah, whom God called to be a prophet to the nations. This young man debated with God on the basis of his tender age, as though God had forgotten how old he was. God basically responded, "I have been preparing you since before you took shape in your mother's womb."

Jonah's reluctance didn't take the form of a debate; he simply ran in the other direction. He didn't object to his call on the basis of his inabilities, but upon the seeming irrationality of calling Nineveh to repent. Jonah saw this as an evil culture that didn't deserve a warning of impending doom. So he ran. Days later he discovered that called leaders can't outrun God. Some frightened sailors threw him overboard (at his direction) and a huge fish swallowed the sputtering prophet. Over the next three days he regained perspective while in the belly of the fish, and when God ordered the beast to spit him up on shore, the chastened prophet at last fulfilled the task God had given him.

It is interesting to note that every major player in the story—the storm, the sailors, the fish, the king, the Ninevites, the vine, the worm, and the east wind—all obey God... except for Jonah, the leader God chose. Sometimes the leader must repent before he can call the people to do so.

Despite Jonah's disobedience, his lack of perspective, his cultural prejudice, his self-righteousness, his wrong motives, and his bad attitude, God never gave up on him. The central lesson? Sometimes God uses us, in spite of us. He even uses reluctant leaders to accomplish His gracious mission.

The Perfect Portrait of a Reluctant Leader

God's Role in Jonah

God once again takes the initiative in this book. The leader He chooses refuses at first to obey. God chases Him down, calls upon a huge fish (perhaps a whale) to swallow him, enables him to live for three days in the belly of that creature, then orders him spit up on shore. Only then does Jonah go to Nineveh to speak. Yet even after he delivers his message, God has to take the initiative once more when Jonah reacts angrily to their repentance. God raises up a vine to give him shade, then teaches him a lesson about mercy and grace. God must work harder at getting His chosen leader into an obedient posture than He has to for the Ninevites!

Lessons in Leadership

- Motives are key: Why a leader does something ultimately determines what he does.
- Leaders must model what they demand from the people.
- God's mercy overcomes our reluctance, prejudice, and small thinking.
- We can still lead if our impulse for obedience grows stronger than our reluctance.
- Leaders lose their right to be selfish.

Chapter 1

Jonah's Disobedience

¹Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, ²"Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry out against it; for their wickedness has come up before Me." ³But Jonah arose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

The Storm at Sea

⁴But the LORD sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was about to be broken up.

⁵Then the mariners were afraid; and every man cried out to his god, and threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten the load.^a But Jonah had gone down into the lowest parts of the ship, had lain down, and was fast asleep.

⁶So the captain came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God; perhaps your God will consider us, so that we may not perish.”

⁷And they said to one another, “Come, let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this trouble has come upon us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. ⁸Then they said to him, “Please tell us! For whose cause is this trouble upon us? What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?”

⁹So he said to them, “I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.”

Jonah Thrown into the Sea

¹⁰Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, “Why have you done this?” For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

¹¹Then they said to him, “What shall we do to you that the sea may be calm for us?”—for the sea was growing more tempestuous.

Character: Jonah Runs from Commitment

Jonah 1:1-10

When God told Jonah to warn the people of Nineveh to repent, the prophet turned the other direction and fled. Spot someone who runs from commitment, and you’ll find a person who lacks character.

Many times a leader must ask his followers to make a commitment. Usually God first asks the leader to commit. At this point, the leader discovers how much he's embraced the cause. Is he cautious, curious, or committed? Jonah teaches us the consequences of avoiding God's call to commitment:

1. We miss the privilege of partnership with God (vv. 1-3).

2. Our choice damages more people than we know (v. 4).

3. We become hardened and desensitized to the tragedies we cause (vv. 5-8).

4. We lose both integrity and trust (vv. 9, 10).

¹²And he said to them, "Pick me up and throw me into the sea; then the sea will become calm for you. For I know that this great tempest is because of me."

¹³Nevertheless the men rowed hard to return to land, but they could not, for the sea continued to grow more tempestuous against them. ¹⁴Therefore they cried out to the LORD and said, "We pray, O LORD, please do not let us perish for this man's life, and do not charge us with innocent blood; for You, O LORD, have done as it pleased You." ¹⁵So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging. ¹⁶Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice to the LORD and took vows.

Jonah's Prayer and Deliverance

¹⁷Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

PROFILE in Leadership

JONAH

The Prophet Who Ran Down

Jonah 1:1-17

Who among us hasn't heard God telling us to do something we really didn't want to do? Sometimes it's easy to convince ourselves that we know better than God what needs to be done.

Jonah was a godly prophet, yet when God commanded him to preach repentance to the Ninevites, Jonah ran in the opposite direction. As he ran, he went nowhere but down—down to the seashore, down to the bottom of the ship, down to the water, and down into the belly of the fish. Jonah learned what can happen to the man or woman who is called to lead but who shrinks from that role of leadership.

One can only imagine the wretched conditions inside the creature God had prepared to temporarily house Jonah. But was it any worse than the situations into which we put ourselves when we run from God? Eventually the Lord will bring us to a place where we have little choice but to stop, listen, and obey.

But why wait for such an unpleasant place?

Leaders may not always understand why God wants them to do certain things, but He doesn't ask us to depend upon our own understanding or logic. Rather, He calls us to walk in obedience to His instruction. Don't make it necessary for God to introduce you to the inside of a fish!

Chapter 2

¹Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the fish's belly. ²And he said:

“I cried out to the LORD because of my affliction,
And He answered me.

“Out of the belly of Sheol I cried,
And You heard my voice.

³For You cast me into the deep,
Into the heart of the seas,
And the floods surrounded me;
All Your billows and Your waves passed over me.

⁴Then I said, ‘I have been cast out of Your sight;
Yet I will look again toward Your holy temple.’

⁵The waters surrounded me, even to my soul;
The deep closed around me;
Weeds were wrapped around my head.

⁶I went down to the moorings of the mountains;
The earth with its bars closed behind me forever;
Yet You have brought up my life from the pit,

O LORD, my God.

⁷“When my soul fainted within me,
I remembered the LORD;
And my prayer went up to You,

Into Your holy temple.

⁸“Those who regard worthless idols
Forsake their own Mercy.
⁹But I will sacrifice to You

The Law of the Picture: Leaders Must Incarnate What They Ask Others to Do

Jonah 2:7-9

God told Jonah to call the people of Nineveh to repent. They had lived a life of pride and selfishness, and had failed to submit to God in worship. But when Jonah ran from God, he was guilty of the same things! God humbled Jonah and gave him perspective in the belly of the fish, where the prophet got his heart right through a profound worship experience.

The leader must first incarnate the life he calls the people to live. People do what people see. Once Jonah repented, he was ready to call others to repent.

With the voice of thanksgiving;
I will pay what I have vowed.

Salvation is of the LORD.”

¹⁰So the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Chapter 3

Jonah Preaches at Nineveh

¹Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying, ²“Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I tell you.” ³So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, a three-day journey^a in extent. ⁴And Jonah began to enter the city on the first day’s walk. Then he cried out and said, “Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!”

God Can Use Even a Reluctant Leader

Jonah 3:1-3

We often get caught up in the story of “the big fish” and miss the story of “the big God!” The miracle of Nineveh’s redemption is a story of God’s pursuit of a leader who ran from a commitment. God wanted a divine partnership in which both parties committed themselves to the cause with reckless abandon.

What might have happened had Jonah failed to go? What if he had rejected God's call to commitment? What if he avoided it and God never pursued him? History might be different... at least for one ancient people.

Fortunately, God comes for us when we run from commitment. Most of the time He gives us a second opportunity, just as He did with Jonah. Note the stages leading up to that second chance:

1. Recognition of failure or inability

2. A crisis of honest reflection

3. Drawing near to God for empowerment

4. The opportunity to recommit ourselves

The People of Nineveh Believe

⁵So the people of Nineveh believed God, proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them.

⁶Then word came to the king of Nineveh; and he arose from his throne and laid aside his robe, covered himself with sackcloth and sat in ashes. ⁷And he caused it to be proclaimed and published throughout Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying,

Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; do not let them eat, or drink water. ⁸But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God; yes, let every one turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands. ⁹Who can tell if God will turn and relent, and turn away from His fierce anger, so that we may not perish?

The Law of Influence: The King Leads in Delivering Nineveh

Jonah 3:6-9

When the news of Jonah's message of judgment reached the king of Nineveh, he immediately repented. He took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat down in the dust. He repented for his own sin. Then he used his influence to bring about city-wide revival. He issued a decree that every citizen follow his lead. When God saw his response, He had compassion on the Ninevites and did not destroy them.

In this case, the leader influenced the fate of an entire population. He did so by providing the three fundamentals every follower needs:

1. A clear model: He repented first, setting an example (v. 6).
2. A clear message: He called his people to a specific action (vv. 7, 8).
3. A clear motivation: He gave the people a reason for taking action (v. 9).

¹⁰Then God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God relented from the disaster that He had said He would bring upon them, and He did not do it.

21 QUALITIES

INITIATIVE

One Earmark of a True Leader

Jonah 2:10-3:10

ONE EARMARK of a true leader is the display of initiative. By definition, leaders cannot wait for someone else to move; if they do, they are really followers, not leaders. Initiative requires an element of risk, faith, and foresight. When did you last initiate something significant? If you haven't pushed yourself lately and left your comfort zone, you may need a jump start in initiative.

Why Do We Fail to Initiate?

It seems easier to run from a challenge than to step out and take a risk. When we initiate, we commit ourselves to a direction. We may feel uncertain about what the future holds. What if we change our minds? What if no one follows? What if we fail in front of our followers? We run from commitment and initiative for a variety of reasons.

Reason • Issue

We are afraid we'll be unable to keep the commitment. • Low sense of security

We suspect we might find "greener grass" somewhere else. • Paralyzed will

We expend time and energy only for personal gain. • No surrender

Our past makes trust difficult. • Emotional baggage

We are lazy and unmotivated. • Apathy and neutrality

We fear the risk of being rejected. • Poor self-esteem

We fear the unknown and the unfamiliar • Low confidence

We don't want to lose our freedom. • Entitlement philosophy

We fear being different from others. • Politically correct

We don't really know who we are. • Gifts and calling

Jonah had to learn initiative. It started with learning submission to God. Once we surrender to His call on our life and leadership, we can step out to follow Him. We can take risks because our future lies in His hands. Once Jonah submitted to God's call, he saw all kinds of results. What happens when we accept God's call to initiate and commit?

1. We assume healthy personal responsibility (1:12).

2. We'll likely see many come to faith in God (1:13-16).

3. We receive a God-given time and place to gain perspective (1:17).

4. We deepen our experience of worship and prayer (2:1-9).

5. We progress toward a new level of personal freedom (2:10).

6. We enjoy partnership with God (3:1-9).

7. We gain the satisfaction of seeing changed lives (3:10).

Chapter 4

Jonah's Anger and God's Kindness

¹But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he became angry.

²So he prayed to the LORD, and said, "Ah, LORD, was not this what I said when I was still in my country? Therefore I fled previously to Tarshish; for I know that You are a gracious and merciful God, slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, One who relents from doing harm.

³"Therefore now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live!"

Motive Check: Why We Act Determines How We React

Jonah 4:1, 2

Jonah felt great delight when God planned to destroy the wicked people of Nineveh, but he grew angry when they repented and God showed them compassion. He suspected God might do something just like that, and that made him even angrier. He would have preferred to see God remove the threat of Nineveh. His selfish motives led him astray.

Consequently, God gave him an object lesson. When the Lord sent a worm to eat the plant that gave Jonah shade, the prophet grew angry. God reminded him that he had no right to his anger, since he had done nothing to create the plant. Would he be angry at the death of a mere vine, but unmoved at the destruction of more than 120,000 people? Didn't the Creator have a right to restore them? Of course He did.

God gave Jonah a motive check—and us a reminder. Leaders must determine to be motivated only by what motivates God.

⁴Then the LORD said, “Is it right for you to be angry?”

⁵So Jonah went out of the city and sat on the east side of the city. There he made himself a shelter and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city.

⁶And the LORD God prepared a plant^a and made it come up over Jonah, that it might be shade for his head to deliver him from his misery. So Jonah was very grateful for the plant. ⁷But as morning dawned the next day God prepared a worm, and it so damaged the plant that it withered. ⁸And it happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that he grew faint. Then he wished death for himself, and said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

⁹Then God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?”

And he said, “It is right for me to be angry, even to death!”

¹⁰But the LORD said, “You have had pity on the plant for which you have not labored, nor made it grow, which came up in a night and perished in a night. ¹¹“And should I not pity Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred and twenty thousand persons who cannot discern between their right hand and their left—and much livestock?”

The Book of Micah

Introduction to Micah

Micah's name means, "Who is like the Lord?" This is precisely the question he posed in his prophetic ministry in the middle of the eighth century B.C. His life modeled one who is "like the Lord," and he called the people of Judah to this same lifestyle of divine imitation. His leadership challenged false prophets, corrupt political leaders, and wayward residents of Judah to live their faith authentically.

The summary verse of his book, Micah 6:8, asks: "He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?"

Micah deeply suspected the wickedness and corruption of the cities of Judah. This country prophet intuitively perceived the greed that lay behind the decisions of the priestly and political leaders of his day. He championed the cause of the poor and the oppressed and rebuked those in charge for their exploitation of others.

Micah warns leaders today about leading for personal gain rather than organizational gain. When leaders benefit from the system apart from followers—something is wrong with the leader or the system, and maybe both.

Micah also cautions leaders about doing what's right on the surface to hide a corrupt heart. Leadership cannot merely be an "outside" job; it must be an "inside" job as well. Healthy, effective leadership stems from who we are, not just what we do. Leaders can masquerade only for a while... before reality becomes obvious.

Finally, Micah teaches us that a leader's spiritual life must transform his or her social ethics and approach to leadership. Integrity means "oneness," the opposite of hypocrisy. One compartment of our life cannot contradict another.

What Does the Lord Require of You?

God's Role in Micah

The Book of Micah pictures God as the Ruler of all things. The Lord used the prophet Micah to spell out what He wanted from the Hebrews—but He also used ungodly neighbors like Assyria to punish the corrupt leaders of Israel and Judah. Micah began to connect the wickedness of Judah and the lightning raids of the Assyrians. As evil rose in Judah, military power rose in Assyria. God would sovereignly use even this to accomplish His purposes. He will use even unjust instruments to correct His own unjust people.

In addition, God assumed the role of watching over the peasants of Judah. Passing armies would often invade villages and make slaves of the residents while Judah's leaders looked the other way. God chose to use Micah to speak out against the selfishness of the nation's leaders.

Lessons in Leadership

- Healthy leadership enables everyone to win: the leader, the follower, and the organization.
- God expects leaders to guard the poor and oppressed, those without an advocate.
- Leadership is a life we live, not a show we perform.
- Values absent from the leader cannot be exported.
- Leadership plus hypocrisy equals leadership minus credibility.

The Coming Judgment on Israel

²Hear, all you peoples!
Listen, O earth, and all that is in it!
Let the Lord GOD be a witness against you,

The Lord from His holy temple.

³For behold, the LORD is coming out of His place;
He will come down
And tread on the high places of the earth.

⁴The mountains will melt under Him,
And the valleys will split
Like wax before the fire,
Like waters poured down a steep place.

⁵All this is for the transgression of Jacob
And for the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?
And what are the high places of Judah?

Are they not Jerusalem?

⁶“Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the field,

Places for planting a vineyard;
I will pour down her stones into the valley,
And I will uncover her foundations.

⁷All her carved images shall be beaten to pieces,
And all her pay as a harlot shall be burned with the fire;

All her idols I will lay desolate,
For she gathered it from the pay of a harlot,

And they shall return to the pay of a harlot.”

Mourning for Israel and Judah

⁸Therefore I will wail and howl,
I will go stripped and naked;
I will make a wailing like the jackals
And a mourning like the ostriches,

⁹For her wounds are incurable.

Values: Leaders Know What to Cry About

Micah 1:1-9

Micah provides us with an example of a leader who knows what to cry about. While he could declare the Lord’s judgment against Samaria and Jerusalem, he also wept over the punishment their citizens were to endure. They would always be the people he loved.

The more leaders mature, the more value they place on people. When all is said and done, leadership isn't about strategy, marketing, organization, efficiency, or high-quality products, but about people. Micah hurt when others hurt, even though they were in the wrong. The high value he placed on people teaches us:

1. People are an organization's most appreciable asset.
2. People skills are a leader's most important asset.
3. If you are good with people, you can lead in a variety of contexts.
4. You can have people skills and not be a good leader, but you cannot be a good leader without people skills.

For it has come to Judah;
It has come to the gate of My people—

To Jerusalem.

¹⁰Tell it not in Gath,
Weep not at all;
In Beth Aphrah^a
Roll yourself in the dust.

¹¹Pass by in naked shame, you inhabitant of Shaphir;
The inhabitant of Zaanan^a does not go out.
Beth Ezel mourns;

Its place to stand is taken away from you.

¹²For the inhabitant of Maroth pined^a for good,
But disaster came down from the LORD
To the gate of Jerusalem.

¹³O inhabitant of Lachish,
Harness the chariot to the swift steeds
(She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion),

For the transgressions of Israel were found in you.

¹⁴Therefore you shall give presents to Moresheth
Gath;^a

The houses of Achzib^b shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.

¹⁵I will yet bring an heir to you, O inhabitant of Mareshah;^a

The glory of Israel shall come to Adullam.

¹⁶Make yourself bald and cut off your hair,
Because of your precious children;
Enlarge your baldness like an eagle,

For they shall go from you into captivity.

Chapter 2

Woe to Evildoers

¹Woe to those who devise iniquity,
And work out evil on their beds!
At morning light they practice it,
Because it is in the power of their hand.

²They covet fields and take them by violence,
Also houses, and seize them.
So they oppress a man and his house,

A man and his inheritance.

³Therefore thus says the LORD:

“Behold, against this family I am devising disaster,
From which you cannot remove your necks;
Nor shall you walk haughtily,
For this is an evil time.

⁴In that day one shall take up a proverb against you,
And lament with a bitter lamentation, saying:
‘We are utterly destroyed!
He has changed the heritage of my people;
How He has removed it from me!

To a turncoat He has divided our fields.’ ”

⁵Therefore you will have no one to determine boundaries^a by lot

In the assembly of the LORD.

Character: Leaders Can't Give What They Don't Have

Micah 2:1-13

The wicked leaders of Micah's day led out of convenience and expediency. They did what was right by them.

The Greek word for character is often translated "image." It means a notch, indentation, a sharpening, scratching, or writing on a stone or a coin. Consequently, character historically meant a distinctive mark impressed or formed on the inside of a person by an outside force. To better understand character, take a look at some common misconceptions about it:

1. Character is not merely how a person acts; some can masquerade poor character.
2. Character isn't just what a person will ideally be in the future; that's called hope.
3. Character is not only what others see on the outside; it begins on the inside.
4. Character isn't limited to wisdom in evaluating others' behavior; that's judgment.
5. Character isn't only about discipline; I may be disciplined in one area and not in another.

Lying Prophets

⁶“Do not prattle,” you say to those who prophesy.
So they shall not prophesy to you;^a
They shall not return insult for insult.^b
⁷*You who are* named the house of Jacob:
“Is the Spirit of the LORD restricted?
Are these His doings?
Do not My words do good

To him who walks uprightly?

⁸“Lately My people have risen up as an enemy—
You pull off the robe with the garment
From those who trust you, as they pass by,
Like men returned from war.
⁹The women of My people you cast out
From their pleasant houses;
From their children

You have taken away My glory forever.

¹⁰“Arise and depart,
For this is not your rest;
Because it is defiled, it shall destroy,
Yes, with utter destruction.
¹¹If a man should walk in a false spirit
And speak a lie, saying,
‘I will prophesy to you of wine and drink,’

Even he would be the prattler of this people.

Israel Restored

¹²“I will surely assemble all of you, O Jacob,
I will surely gather the remnant of Israel;
I will put them together like sheep of the fold,^a
Like a flock in the midst of their pasture;
They shall make a loud noise because of so many people.

¹³The one who breaks open will come up before
them;

They will break out,
Pass through the gate,
And go out by it;
Their king will pass before them,

With the LORD at their head.”

Leaders Must Motivate, Not Manipulate

Micah 2:12, 13

God pronounces judgment on the win-lose proposition of manipulation. Manipulation means moving together for my advantage; motivation means moving together for mutual advantage. God warns that plans should be laid for the benefit of the people, not the leader. And He promises to deliver His people from selfish, wicked leaders.

Chapter 3

Wicked Rulers and Prophets

¹And I said:

“Hear now, O heads of Jacob,
And you rulers of the house of Israel:
Is it not for you to know justice?

²You who hate good and love evil;
Who strip the skin from My people,^a
And the flesh from their bones;

³Who also eat the flesh of My people,
Flay their skin from them,
Break their bones,
And chop them in pieces
Like meat for the pot,

Like flesh in the caldron.”

⁴Then they will cry to the LORD,
But He will not hear them;
He will even hide His face from them at that time,

Because they have been evil in their deeds.

⁵Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets
Who make my people stray;

Who chant "Peace"
While they chew with their teeth,
But who prepare war against him
Who puts nothing into their mouths:
⁶"Therefore you shall have night without vision,
And you shall have darkness without divination;
The sun shall go down on the prophets,
And the day shall be dark for them.
⁷So the seers shall be ashamed,
And the diviners abashed;
Indeed they shall all cover their lips;

For there is no answer from God."

⁸But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the
LORD,
And of justice and might,
To declare to Jacob his transgression
And to Israel his sin.
⁹Now hear this,
You heads of the house of Jacob
And rulers of the house of Israel,
Who abhor justice
And pervert all equity,
¹⁰Who build up Zion with bloodshed
And Jerusalem with iniquity:
¹¹Her heads judge for a bribe,
Her priests teach for pay,
And her prophets divine for money.
Yet they lean on the LORD, and say,
"Is not the LORD among us?
No harm can come upon us."
¹²Therefore because of you

The Law of Influence: Woe to Leaders Who Abuse Power

Micah 3:1-12

God pronounces a dark future for leaders who practice injustice and abuse their power to take advantage of others. God rebukes poor leaders and false prophets for their sins that impacted the entire land. God notes that these leaders had power and influence, but that they used it for their own purposes. Study the chapter to see what God hated so much about these abusive leaders:

1. They destroyed people instead of developing them (vv. 1-3).
2. They misled people into confusion, instead of leading them in a cause (vv. 5-7).
3. They distorted justice instead of upholding justice for the common man (vv. 9, 10).
4. They took bribes for themselves instead of taking responsibility for the people (vv. 11, 12).

Zion shall be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem shall become heaps of ruins,
And the mountain of the temple^a

Like the bare hills of the forest.

Chapter 4

The LORD's Reign in Zion

¹Now it shall come to pass in the latter days
That the mountain of the LORD's house
Shall be established on the top of the mountains,
And shall be exalted above the hills;
And peoples shall flow to it.
²Many nations shall come and say,

Vision: Leaders See It, Say It, and Show It Before They Seize It

Micah 4:1, 2

All great leaders begin their journey with a vision. People have to buy in to both the leader and the vision before they take the journey.

The prophet paints a picture of what life will be like in the future, during the last days—a glorious vision anyone could get excited about!

The “house of the LORD” was to be a strategic place (Mic. 4:1), an influential place (4:2), and an equipping place (4:2). In order for Micah to succeed, he had to possess and persuade the people concerning God's vision for them. Then, he had to wait. Visions usually work like the birth of a baby; they take a long time in coming.

For any leader to successfully communicate a vision, they should know the vital signs of a successful vision:

1. A clear picture—the ability to see the vision.

2. A committed people—the ability to transmit the vision.

3. A consistent prayer—the ability to intercede for the vision.

4. A constructive passion—the ability to work toward the vision.

5. A calm persistence—The ability to patiently wait for the vision.

“Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,

To the house of the God of Jacob;

He will teach us His ways,

And we shall walk in His paths.”

For out of Zion the law shall go forth,

And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

³He shall judge between many peoples,

And rebuke strong nations afar off;

They shall beat their swords into plowshares,

And their spears into pruning hooks;

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,

Neither shall they learn war anymore.^a

⁴But everyone shall sit under his vine and under his fig tree,

And no one shall make them afraid;

For the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.

⁵For all people walk each in the name of his god,

But we will walk in the name of the LORD our God
Forever and ever.

Zion's Future Triumph

⁶"In that day," says the LORD,
"I will assemble the lame,
I will gather the outcast
And those whom I have afflicted;
⁷I will make the lame a remnant,
And the outcast a strong nation;
So the LORD will reign over them in Mount Zion
From now on, even forever.

⁸And you, O tower of the flock,
The stronghold of the daughter of Zion,
To you shall it come,
Even the former dominion shall come,

The kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem."

⁹Now why do you cry aloud?
Is there no king in your midst?
Has your counselor perished?
For pangs have seized you like a woman in labor.

¹⁰Be in pain, and labor to bring forth,
O daughter of Zion,
Like a woman in birth pangs.
For now you shall go forth from the city,
You shall dwell in the field,
And to Babylon you shall go.
There you shall be delivered;
There the LORD will redeem you

From the hand of your enemies.

¹¹Now also many nations have gathered against you,
Who say, "Let her be defiled,
And let our eye look upon Zion."

¹²But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD,
Nor do they understand His counsel;

For He will gather them like sheaves to the threshing floor.

¹³"Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion;
For I will make your horn iron,
And I will make your hooves bronze;
You shall beat in pieces many peoples;
I will consecrate their gain to the LORD,

And their substance to the Lord of the whole earth."

Chapter 5

¹Now gather yourself in troops,
O daughter of troops;
He has laid siege against us;

They will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

The Coming Messiah

²“But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah,
Though you are little among the thousands of Judah,
Yet out of you shall come forth to Me
The One to be Ruler in Israel,
Whose goings forth are from of old,

From everlasting.”

³Therefore He shall give them up,
Until the time that she who is in labor has given birth;

Then the remnant of His brethren
Shall return to the children of Israel.

⁴And He shall stand and feed His flock
In the strength of the LORD,
In the majesty of the name of the LORD His God;
And they shall abide,
For now He shall be great
To the ends of the earth;

⁵And this One shall be peace.

Judgment on Israel's Enemies

When the Assyrian comes into our land,
And when he treads in our palaces,
Then we will raise against him
Seven shepherds and eight princely men.

⁶They shall waste with the sword the land of Assyria,
And the land of Nimrod at its entrances;
Thus He shall deliver us from the Assyrian,
When he comes into our land

And when he treads within our borders.

⁷Then the remnant of Jacob
Shall be in the midst of many peoples,
Like dew from the LORD,
Like showers on the grass,
That tarry for no man
Nor wait for the sons of men.

⁸And the remnant of Jacob
Shall be among the Gentiles,
In the midst of many peoples,
Like a lion among the beasts of the forest,
Like a young lion among flocks of sheep,
Who, if he passes through,
Both treads down and tears in pieces,
And none can deliver.

⁹Your hand shall be lifted against your adversaries,
And all your enemies shall be cut off.

¹⁰“And it shall be in that day,” says the LORD,
“That I will cut off your horses from your midst
And destroy your chariots.

¹¹I will cut off the cities of your land
And throw down all your strongholds.

¹²I will cut off sorceries from your hand,
And you shall have no soothsayers.

¹³Your carved images I will also cut off,
And your sacred pillars from your midst;
You shall no more worship the work of your hands;

¹⁴I will pluck your wooden images^a from your midst;
Thus I will destroy your cities.

¹⁵And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury

On the nations that have not heard.”^a

Chapter 6

God Pleads with Israel

¹Hear now what the LORD says:

“Arise, plead your case before the mountains,
And let the hills hear your voice.

²Hear, O you mountains, the LORD’s complaint,
And you strong foundations of the earth;
For the LORD has a complaint against His people,

And He will contend with Israel.

³“O My people, what have I done to you?
And how have I wearied you?
Testify against Me.

⁴For I brought you up from the land of Egypt,
I redeemed you from the house of bondage;
And I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

⁵O My people, remember now
What Balak king of Moab counseled,
And what Balaam the son of Beor answered him,
From Acacia Grove^a to Gilgal,

That you may know the righteousness of the LORD.”

⁶With what shall I come before the LORD,

And bow myself before the High God?
Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings,
With calves a year old?
⁷Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
Ten thousand rivers of oil?
Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,
The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
⁸He has shown you, O man, what is good;

God Holds Leaders Responsible for Creating an Environment of Justice

Micah 6:8

Micah 6:8 declares what God expects of every one of His people, a lesson especially crucial for leaders. Why? Because God holds leaders responsible for creating healthy environments. The people learn to love justice and show mercy when their leader creates an environment for both.

The three items listed in this text define the values and character of a godly leader:

1. Act justly: Justice and integrity rule their decisions regarding policy and program.
2. Love mercy: A love for people and relationship skills remain a high priority.
3. Walk humbly with God: A respectful relationship with God governs their strategy and lifestyle.

And what does the LORD require of you

But to do justly,
To love mercy,

And to walk humbly with your God?

Punishment of Israel's Injustice

⁹The LORD's voice cries to the city—

Wisdom shall see Your name:

“Hear the rod!

Who has appointed it?

¹⁰Are there yet the treasures of wickedness

In the house of the wicked,

And the short measure that is an abomination?

¹¹Shall I count pure those with the wicked scales,

And with the bag of deceitful weights?

¹²For her rich men are full of violence,

Her inhabitants have spoken lies,

And their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

¹³“Therefore I will also make you sick by striking
you,

By making you desolate because of your sins.

¹⁴You shall eat, but not be satisfied;

Hunger^a shall be in your midst.

You may carry some away,^b but shall not save them;

And what you do rescue I will give over to the sword.

¹⁵“You shall sow, but not reap;

You shall tread the olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil;

And make sweet wine, but not drink wine.

¹⁶For the statutes of Omri are kept;

All the works of Ahab's house are done;

And you walk in their counsels,

That I may make you a desolation,

And your inhabitants a hissing.

Therefore you shall bear the reproach of My people."a

Chapter 7

Sorrow for Israel's Sins

¹Woe is me!

For I am like those who gather summer fruits,
Like those who glean vintage grapes;

There is no cluster to eat
Of the first-ripe fruit which my soul desires.

²The faithful man has perished from the earth,
And there is no one upright among men.

They all lie in wait for blood;

Every man hunts his brother with a net.

³That they may successfully do evil with both hands

The prince asks for gifts,
The judge seeks a bribe,
And the great man utters his evil desire;
So they scheme together.

⁴The best of them is like a brier;

Servanthood: Leaders Who Fail to Practice Servant Leadership Become Self-Serving

Micah 7:3, 4

The final chapter of Micah paints a dim picture of Israel. The people couldn't be trusted, but lied in wait to use, abuse, and destroy each other.

Micah 7:3, 4 tells us why this happened: poor leadership at the top. The rulers, princes, and judges worked for kickbacks and bribes. They schemed how they could beat the system and better their own status. They expected the people to serve them instead of them serving the people.

The Law of Addition reminds us that leaders add value by serving others. When leaders fail to practice servant leadership, inevitably they become self-serving. Without a compelling cause to better mankind, all leaders find a cause to serve their own interests. This self-service eventually becomes a thorn in their leadership. Consider these other case studies in Scripture:

1. With a cause, Samson won many battles; without one, he couldn't beat the temptation posed by Delilah.

2. With a cause, Saul conquered the kingdom; without one, he could not conquer even his own jealousy.

3. With a cause, David conquered Goliath; without one, he could not conquer his own lust.

4. With a cause, Elijah prayed down fire from heaven and beat 450 prophets of Baal; without one, he ran in fear from a solitary woman, Jezebel.

5. With a cause, Simon Peter preached at Pentecost and 3,000 people were saved; without one, he denied he even belonged to the crowd that followed Jesus.

The most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge;

The day of your watchman and your punishment comes;

Now shall be their perplexity.

⁵Do not trust in a friend;
Do not put your confidence in a companion;
Guard the doors of your mouth
From her who lies in your bosom.

⁶For son dishonors father,
Daughter rises against her mother,
Daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
A man's enemies are the men of his own household.

⁷Therefore I will look to the LORD;
I will wait for the God of my salvation;

My God will hear me.

Israel's Confession and Comfort

⁸Do not rejoice over me, my enemy;
When I fall, I will arise;
When I sit in darkness,
The LORD will be a light to me.

⁹I will bear the indignation of the LORD,
Because I have sinned against Him,
Until He pleads my case
And executes justice for me.
He will bring me forth to the light;
I will see His righteousness.

¹⁰Then she who is my enemy will see,
And shame will cover her who said to me,
"Where is the LORD your God?"

My eyes will see her;
Now she will be trampled down

Like mud in the streets.

¹¹ In the day when your walls are to be built,
In that day the decree shall go far and wide.^a

¹² In that day they^a shall come to you
From Assyria and the fortified cities,^b
From the fortress^c to the River,^d
From sea to sea,
And mountain to mountain.

¹³ Yet the land shall be desolate
Because of those who dwell in it,

And for the fruit of their deeds.

God Will Forgive Israel

¹⁴ Shepherd Your people with Your staff,
The flock of Your heritage,
Who dwell solitarily in a woodland,
In the midst of Carmel;
Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead,

As in days of old.

¹⁵ “As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt,

I will show them^a wonders.”

¹⁶The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might;

They shall put their hand over their mouth;

Their ears shall be deaf.

¹⁷They shall lick the dust like a serpent;

They shall crawl from their holes like snakes of the earth.

They shall be afraid of the LORD our God,

And shall fear because of You.

¹⁸Who is a God like You,

Pardoning iniquity

And passing over the transgression of the remnant of His heritage?

He does not retain His anger forever,

Because He delights in mercy.

¹⁹He will again have compassion on us,

And will subdue our iniquities.

You will cast all our @ sins

Into the depths of the sea.

²⁰You will give truth to Jacob

And mercy to Abraham,

Which You have sworn to our fathers

From days of old.

The Book of Nahum

Introduction to Nahum

The little-known prophet Nahum witnessed to the people of Judah, just as did the prophets Jeremiah, Habakkuk, and Zephaniah. God instructed him to announce His judgment on the wicked city of Nineveh.

More than a century before, God had commissioned Jonah to call the people of Nineveh to repent—and they did. That generation failed to leave any legacy of humility or repentance, however, and by the seventh century B.C., the nation had fallen into pitiful shape, both morally and spiritually.

Nahum sounds the alarm. In chapter one, he clearly communicates God's anger against the city of Nineveh—a declaration of judgment against wicked government and public immorality. In chapter two, he predicts Nineveh's impending doom. He prophesies it will be attacked and will fall. In chapter three, he describes in detail what this downfall will look like.

This little book packs a wallop. It contains God's fundamental message for every erring leader: No matter how much power you accumulate, it can never compensate for failure with God.

The Ninevites had it all—or so it seemed. They wielded power over many nations and arrogantly flaunted their might. But leadership success without spiritual success equals failure. Jesus asked, "What will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?" (Mark 8:36). Put another way, professional wealth minus personal health yields bankruptcy. Organizational power is only temporary; personal power with God lasts. When leaders are right spiritually, they are able to lead with their soul rather than in spite of it.

In the final chapter of this book, Nahum notices a fatal flaw in the king of Nineveh. He had failed to reproduce leaders to shepherd the people. Even if he had been a moral man, by himself he lacked the influence to save his nation. He didn't develop healthy governmental leaders and the nation collapsed morally (3:18).

God's Fundamental Message for Every Erring Leader

God's Role in Nahum

God confronts and disciplines in this book. He is the divine Judge who must serve papers on Nineveh and execute justice. He used Nahum to lay out the charges against the Assyrians. God indicted them not only for the crimes they committed within their own borders, but for the cruelty they inflicted on other nations they victimized, including Israel.

God once again demonstrates that He is the ultimate power broker in the world. He builds up and tears down. He is not only the King of kings and the Lord of lords, but the Leader of leaders.

Lessons in Leadership

- Every generation must respond to God for themselves; you can't inherit salvation.
- Wicked leaders ultimately reap what they sow.
- Self-sufficiency can blind leaders from their own infirmities and weaknesses.

Leadership Highlights in Nahum

GOD'S LEADERSHIP Is Like a Judge and a Father (1:2-13)

THE LAW OF EMPOWERMENT: Nineveh's King Failed to Develop Other Leaders and Paid for It (3:18, 19)

Chapter 1

¹The burden^a against Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

God's Wrath on His Enemies

²God is jealous, and the LORD avenges;
The LORD avenges and is furious.
The LORD will take vengeance on His adversaries,
And He reserves wrath for His enemies;
³The LORD is slow to anger and great in power,
And will not at all acquit the wicked.

The LORD has His way
In the whirlwind and in the storm,
And the clouds are the dust of His feet.

⁴He rebukes the sea and makes it dry,
And dries up all the rivers.
Bashan and Carmel wither,
And the flower of Lebanon wilts.

⁵The mountains quake before Him,
The hills melt,
And the earth heavens^a at His presence,

Yes, the world and all who dwell in it.

⁶Who can stand before His indignation?
And who can endure the fierceness of His anger?
His fury is poured out like fire,

And the rocks are thrown down by Him.

⁷The LORD is good,
A stronghold in the day of trouble;
And He knows those who trust in Him.

⁸But with an overflowing flood
He will make an utter end of its place,

And darkness will pursue His enemies.

⁹What do you conspire against the LORD?
He will make an utter end of it.
Affliction will not rise up a second time.

¹⁰For while tangled like thorns,
And while drunken like drunkards,
They shall be devoured like stubble fully dried.

¹¹From you comes forth one
Who plots evil against the LORD,

A wicked counselor.

¹²Thus says the LORD:

“Though they are safe, and likewise many,
Yet in this manner they will be cut down
When he passes through.

Though I have afflicted you,
I will afflict you no more;

¹³For now I will break off his yoke from you,

And burst your bonds apart.”

God's Leadership Is Like a Judge and a Father

Nahum 1:2-13

Although their ancestors had repented, the generation to which Nahum spoke failed miserably. The Ninevites that Jonah confronted returned to God, while those Nahum confronted never did. Yet in both cases, God led appropriately.

God modeled situational leadership for leaders everywhere, showing when to act as Judge and when to act as Father. These two images demonstrate a wonderful balance every leader must strike. Examine what God did in each situation:

The Leader as a Judge • The Leader as a Father

God is jealous (v. 2). • God is slow to anger (v. 3).

God is an avenger (v. 2). • God is good (v. 7).

God is furious (v. 2). • God is a stronghold (v. 7).

God is great in power (v. 3). • God is a refuge (v. 7).

God punishes the guilty (v. 3). • God is a liberator (v. 13).

¹⁴The LORD has given a command concerning you:
“Your name shall be perpetuated no longer.
Out of the house of your gods
I will cut off the carved image and the molded image.
I will dig your grave,

For you are vile.”

¹⁵Behold, on the mountains
The feet of him who brings good tidings,
Who proclaims peace!
O Judah, keep your appointed feasts,

Perform your vows.
For the wicked one shall no more pass through you;
He is utterly cut off.

Chapter 2

The Destruction of Nineveh

¹He who scatters^a has come up before your face.
Man the fort!
Watch the road!
Strengthen your flanks!

Fortify your power mightily.

²For the LORD will restore the excellence of Jacob
Like the excellence of Israel,
For the emptiers have emptied them out

And ruined their vine branches.

³The shields of his mighty men are made red,
The valiant men are in scarlet.
The chariots come with flaming torches
In the day of his preparation,
And the spears are brandished.^a

⁴The chariots rage in the streets,
They jostle one another in the broad roads;
They seem like torches,

They run like lightning.

⁵He remembers his nobles;
They stumble in their walk;

They make haste to her walls,
And the defense is prepared.

⁶The gates of the rivers are opened,
And the palace is dissolved.

⁷It is decreed:a

She shall be led away captive,
She shall be brought up;
And her maidservants shall lead her as with the voice of doves,

Beating their breasts.

⁸Though Nineveh of old was like a pool of water,
Now they flee away.

"Halt! Halt!" they cry;
But no one turns back.

⁹Take spoil of silver!

Take spoil of gold!

There is no end of treasure,
Or wealth of every desirable prize.

¹⁰She is empty, desolate, and waste!
The heart melts, and the knees shake;
Much pain is in every side,

And all their faces are drained of color.a

¹¹Where is the dwelling of the lions,
And the feeding place of the young lions,
Where the lion walked, the lioness and lion's cub,
And no one made them afraid?

¹²The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs,
Killed for his lionesses,
Filled his caves with prey,

And his dens with flesh.

¹³“Behold, I am against you,” says the LORD of hosts, “I will burn your^a chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall be heard no more.”

God's Method of Discipline

Nahum 2:13

God uses many methods to discipline His erring people—even pagan nations like Assyria. This means, first, that no sin is more acceptable than another. Second, God desires to humble as well as discipline. Third, He is sovereign and will correct His people in whatever manner He sees fit.

Chapter 3

The Woe of Nineveh

¹Woe to the bloody city!
It is all full of lies and robbery.
Its victim never departs.

²The noise of a whip
And the noise of rattling wheels,
Of galloping horses,
Of clattering chariots!

³Horsemen charge with bright sword and glittering spear.

There is a multitude of slain,
A great number of bodies,
Countless corpses—
They stumble over the corpses—

⁴Because of the multitude of harlotries of the seductive harlot,
